PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, DEC. 30, 1893.

NOTICE.

MR. J. W. LUNING is now the Advertising Agent and Solicitor for the HAWAII HOLOMUA. His receipt will be henceforward sufficient for any sums owing to our paper.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

We wish all of our readers a Happy New Year. We trust that it will be—even for Councillor Emmeluth—a happier one than the last. We shall make our appearance on Tuesday in enlarged form—like our contemporary the Advertiser—but with more reason, for our circulation is growing and our patronage increasing. In the future Mr. J. W. Luning will act as collector and solicitor of advertisements and in making this announcement, we are aware that that department of the business will be attended to with promptitude and despatch.

The latest news from Wailuku that the annexationists are very much exhausted and that they at Christmas concentrated all their "spirits" and exhilaration into the small body of the Provisional Government's pet, Sheriff Chillingworth. The spirits and exhilaration blended beautifully and the carmine color of the small village competed favorably with the glow which is always before the eyes of the stockholders in the cyclorama company.

Decidedly American.

One of the cant epithets put upon President Cleveland's policy in the Hawaiian affair is that it is "un-American." Only the most brazen hypocrisy or purblind partisanship would venture upon that obvious deceit.

The President's policy is distinctly and decided American. If it isn't American, genuinely and characteristically American, it isn't anything. It certainly is not the policy that would have been pursued by England, or France, or Russia, or Germany, or Spain, or Italy, or any other power under the sun except the United States. No country and no people except our own could have brought forth a policy so unselfish, so just, and so honest. The President and his colleagues, convinced from information of indubitable accuracy that a monstrous wrong had been committed in the name of the American people and under the violated authority of the Government, bravely and boldly determined to right that wrong. They decided that the stolen goods should be returned. Of course, those who had played the principal part in the robbery protest against such a course. Unfortunately, too, they have succeeded in corrupting the public conscience—seducing it by artful reminders of the magnificence of the surrendered plunder—and so they are enabled to make a fine show of popular support in their attacks upon the procedure of the present Administration.

There is no denying that it was a tempting plum that it was proposed to drop into Columbia's ample lap. Hawaii would be an acquisition of which any country might be proud. It is the gem of the Pacific. It may even be taken as a fact that of the $36,500,000 at which the valuation of the Hawaiian kingdom is put, merchants of the United States own 28,500,000, and that this sum would rapidly increase if American dominance in the islands were assured. But these circumstances can have no weight in the disposition of the question by an enlightened and Christian community. The matter had to be determined on principles of absolute right and wrong. And every honest citizen of the republic may rejoice that the representatives at Washington had the honor and nerve to throw profit and popularity to the winds, and to settle this affair with a single eye to justice and equity.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

Charles Nelson a well and favorably known hack-driver tells us that he has been dismissed by Jim Carty an individual who under the auspices of W. G. Irwin is running a hack business. The offense of Mr. Nelson was that he actually complied with the laws, rules, and regulations under which hack licenses are granted and carried in his hack a prominent Royalist. Mr. Carty objects to Royalists using his (or whomsoever they may belong to) hacks and will only accommodate true Americans from Tipperary, especially on night service. I understand that the Royalist who caused the down fall of Nelson is Hon. C. W. Ashford. I desire to state that it is reported that the latest offense in regard to the conveying of Mr. Ashford was—although I hardly can believe it—done in the day-time. I do sympathize with Mr. von Carty. This is not the first time a Nelson has fallen at the hands of a Frenchman.

TOURIST.

EDITOR HOLOMUA:

Do you remember on the 17th of January last the rumor was all over Honolulu, that at 4 o'clock the Station House was to be taken by force? There was a special committee appointed to meet them. But nary a come, and the hacks engaged have kept the Royalists in debt since.

COMMITTEE.

The brig Lurline carried over, from Hilo to San Francisco, about thirty cords of ferns and fifty tons of earth for Midwinter Fair purposes. The ferns were to be used as the basis for the grasshouses that are to form the Hawaiian village. The earth is from the volcano and was to have been used in the reproduction of that feature at the Fair. The ferns have nearly all been stolen by hoodlums and the earth has been carted off in large quantities and another consignment is now necessary.

The Corwin was passed by the Oceanic on last Wednesday, the 27th, four days out. No communication.

The "CORWIN" PASSED EN-ROUTE

The Bourbons Swallow Cleveland's Policy.

California Democratic Delegation Solid in its Support of President Cleveland.

The strong desire felt by all classes of the community to have the latest news and also the still stronger desire on the part of the HOLOMUA to allay the uncertainty which exists relative to the settlement of the pending question of Hawaiian status by the American Congress induced the publication of an extra last evening containing the news culled from the latest papers.

The steamer Oceanic sailed from San Francisco on the 22nd inst., and brings newspapers to that date inclusive. The trip was made in 7 days and 8 hours. During the first three days heavy weather was encountered. She brings as passengers for this port. Mr. G. Hunst, Mr. E. N. Chapman, Miss Harriet Waugh. She sailed en route for the Orient at this p. m. tomorrow morning.

Washington, Dec. 21.—The House Committee on Foreign Affairs this morning considered the resolutions introduced by Hitt and Boutelle relative to the Hawaiian policy of the administration and decided to report a substitute, which, when reported by Chairman McCreary of the committee was as follows:

WHEREAS, It appears from the executive communications sent to the House of Representatives that the United States Minister and United States naval forces at Honolulu exceeded their authority in January, 1893, and illegally aided in overthrowing the Constitutional Government of Hawaii and setting up in its place a Provisional Government not republican in form and in opposition to the will of the people of Hawaii; therefore,

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this House that such intervention by the Government of the United States, its representatives or armed forces is contrary to the policy and traditions of our republic and the spirit of our constitution, and should be and is emphatically condemned.

In the House Boutelle sent to the clerk's desk and had read a resolution questioning the authority of Willis to command the American naval officers at Honolulu. The speaker declined to allow him to discuss the resolution without unanimous consent, which he could not obtain. The resolution was referred to the Committee of Naval Affairs.

McCreary, chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, gave notice that he was assured that within ten days after reconvening two days would be given for consideration of Hawaiian affairs.

The House at 3:15 adjourned until January 3.

A BAD OMEN.

The Call the most hopeful of the Republican papers says:

The United States Senate appears to be a useful body. Without this branch of the legislative department there would have been no note of opposition either to the President's silver policy or to his attempt to restore a monarchical form of Government in Hawaii. While newspapers from one end of the country to the other are ringing with denunciations of the President's assumption of power, the House is silent. The speaker has power in that body to do what he will, so long as his party backs him up. But one independent man in the Senate can make his voice heard all over the country. It is better to put up with an occasional manifestation of a disposition to filibuster than to listen to the silence that prevails at present in the House.

News from the seat of war in Buenos Ayres states that a sea fight is imminent between the forces of Admiral Mello's fleet and those of President Piexoto.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Senator Hitt of Illinois, the senior member of the minority of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, being detained at Dobb's Ferry, N. Y., by the serious illness of his son, has telegraphed to Storer of Ohio to go ahead with the preparation of the minority report on the Hawaiian question.

Whatever may be the outcome in the House in dealing with Hawaii it is pretty certain that the Senate will sooner or later get all the facts and will then act promptly. The Senate Foreign Affairs Committee will sit during the holiday recess and go into the whole Hawaiian subject.

Washington, December 22.—Vice-President Stevenson, Secretary Carlisle and Senators Sherman and Mills have a crank on their trail. He hails from Passaic, N. J., and, according to the reports here, his name is Joseph Don Jam. All these officials have received threatening letters from the Jersey crank and some of them have fears that he may attempt to assassinate them.

Washington, December 22.—There is evidently a purpose to hurry the Tariff bill through when the House reassembles. It is probable that the sessions will begin at 11 o'clock in the morning and last until 6 at night during the consideration of the bill. Many people are urging that the bill be passed at an early date, so that business affairs may be adjusted to the new conditions.

Abilene (Kan.), December 22.—Concerning the plot to kidnap Baby Rath, the President's daughter, the police here have two letters which were picked up on the street by a woman. One letter from Minneapolis reads:

"We have everything ready for the White House and will send Grover to hades when the bugle sounds. We will also get our $20,000. I will start for the White House now. We have never failed in our jobs, and won't now. There is much more in the houses of goldbugs and Vanderbilt."

Pernambuco, December 22.—Startling rumors have reached here from various sources, which lend an air of credibility to them, to the effect that the insurgent fleet at Rio de Janeiro, after two days' desultory fighting, made a determined attack in force and captured the city.

It is added that President Peixoto has resigned in favor of Admiral De Mello and that Peixoto is a prisoner.

Montevideo, December 22.—According to latest reports received here the rebels had lost 400 men, but had the government troops so badly penned in that their surrender seemed unavoidable. The rebels are well armed, having lately received 2,000 rifles brought from Rio by the Aquidaban.

Cape Town, December 22.—A dispatch has been received from Major Forbes announcing the safety of his column and adding that he has had several brushes with the enemy, the latter being beaten in every case.

Jacksonville, December 22.—The Duval Athletic Club received a set-back to-day in their efforts to pull off the Corbett-Mitchell fight. The attorney for the club appeared before Governor Mitchell at Tallahassee and made an application for a charter. This the Governor flatly refused, stating that under the cover of the charter the club proposed to violate the laws of Florida.

San Francisco Dec. 22.—During the month of November the Police commissioners granted more than 400 permits to persons to carry weapons. The Commissioners are as a rule chary of giving such privileges. They have allowed them only to substantial citizens.

They Said Ditto.

At one of the largest shipping offices in the city, as the majority of the clerks reside in the most distant suburbs, a certain amount of grace is allowed them for arriving in the morning. They are, however, all required to explain on a list specially provided for the purpose, the cause of their unpunctuality. The first to make his appearance always leads off with the words, "Train late," "Bus horses down," or as the case may be, and to this the other clerks say, "Ditto."

So accustomed have they become to the formal procedure that they hardly ever take the trouble to see what excuse heads the list. The other morning the first arrival conscientiously penciled in the words, "Wife ill—twins," and to the utter amazement of the chief this extraordinary explanation was promptly "dittoed" all the way down. Nor was his astonishment diminished when he discovered the office boy's name included!

When a foreigner is made a citizen of the United States they have to change the subject.

That Sportsman's (?) Association.

It is evident that chickens are protected and tame turkeys have gone into season. Mr. Galbraith now deplures the loss of a favorite turkey and desires the valiant member of the "Association" to call around and settle for the "game" he brought down a few days ago. By the way it is amusing to notice some of the very strict and very correct "sportsmen" of Association fameshooting shoulder to shoulder with people who have no license to carry a gun. It was understood that the main object of the Association of alleged sportsmen was to regulate hunting and prevent unlicensed shooting, but the officers are evidently above the rules.

It is reported from the Coast, that a large amount of counterfeit money is in circulation in San Francisco brought thither by Eastern criminals. Sweated and plugged $20 pieces, counterfeit $10—and $5 bills and counterfeit silver of all denominations are in circulation. As many of that class of "queer people" are apt to arrive here it is advisable for local dealers to keep an eye on the quality of coin received.

LOCAL NEWS.

More trouble amongst the Japanese labor at Ewa.

Wonder if the rebels think that the HOLOMUA is a newspaper now?

The Australia arrived from San Francisco at 9:15 o'clock this morning.

The schooner Norma, Captain Walker, will, very probably, sail for Fanning's Island on next Monday.

Mr. F. L. G. Harden desires to state that he is not in any way connected with the special or secret police.

The usual concert will be given at Emma Square this afternoon by the P. G. band. Nothing new on the programme.

The HOLOMUA "extra," small, and as a hurriedly compiled as it was, had later news than the pages of boiler-plate, published this morning.

It is reported that the flag of the proposed new Hawaiian republic, which is yet in embryo is an "anchor fouled," upon a blue ground.

The local influence of the HOLOMUA was sufficiently shown by the eager call for the late "extra" last evening. Every copy printed was sold.

Japanese men-of-wars-men, from the cruiser Naniwa have been enjoying the sights and scenes about town for the last few days. They are very orderly.

The prognostication of Professor Lyons of the meteorological station relative to expected prevalence of southerly winds, is approaching verification.

Efforts are being made to tender to the Misses Albu, a token of the esteem and appreciation in which the lady-singers are held by the general public and it will most probably take shape in a benefit concert; provided the vocalists find time and opportunity at their disposal.

The Oahu R. R. Co., is a benefit to the country, and, as such, although the corporation does not advertise in the HOLOMUA, a free notice is given that excursion trains will run over the road on New Year's day to Pearl City and to Ewa; popular prices.

Be sure there is an R in the month and, if so, then oysters are delicious and especially palatable when taken internally in the form of an oyster-cocktail. Mixologist Cunningham of the Anchor warrants them to "cheer and not inebriate." Try them.

An organization intended to offset the acts of the secret organization known as the American League, was completed last night with the following officers: President, Chas. Klemme; vice-president, George Markham; treasurer, J. L. Xavier; secretary, F. Busholz.

Official History of the Hawaiian Conspiracy.

No one unprejudiced can read Mr. Blount's report without the conviction that it goes into the archives of the State Department at Washington as the darkest chapter in the diplomatic annals of this country.

The report has all the authority of an official history. Mr. Blount went to Honolulu not as a partisan, but as an impartial investigator. His mission was not to make out a case, but to ascertain the truth. His investigation was not hasty or superficial, but thorough; not one-sided, but all sided. His information was gathered from official sources and public documents, from representatives of both sides to the conflict and from independent observers. His statements of fact and his conclusions are supported by a mass of proofs which cannot be successfully assailed. Moreover, they are fully corroborated by and in turn corroborate the results of the independent journalistic investigation made by Mr. Charles Nordhoff and published to the world on the pages of the "Herald."

It is an extraordinary story, not of a revolution, but a conspiracy. There was no popular uprising against the reigning sovereign. There was not even any widespread popular discontent or dissatisfaction with the existing government. The people made no attempt and had no desire either to overthrow the monarchy or set up another government. In inception, progress and consummation the entire affair was simply a conspiracy against the people as well as the government of Hawaii. The whole work was done by a few conspirators, aided, abetted and supported by the American Minister and the naval forces of the United States. It was a conspiracy not only to give conspirators possession of the government, but also to annex the islands to the United States.

Such is the finding of Commissioner Blount, and no other is possible on the proofs he has amassed. Can the archives of the State Department show a more extraordinary abuse of official authority by an American Minister than this passage from Mr. Blount's report?

Mr. Stevens consulted freely with the leaders of the revolutionary movement from the evening of the 14th. These disclosed to him all their plans. They feared arrest and punishment. He promised them protection. They needed the troops on shore to overawe the Queen's supporters and government. They had few arms and no trained soldiers. They did not mean to fight.

It was arranged between them and the American Minister that the proclamation dethroning the Queen and organizing provisional government should be read from the Government Building and he would follow it with a speedy recognition.

All this was to be done with American troops provided with small arms and artillery across a narrow street within a stone's throw. This was done.

The leaders of the revolutionary movement would not have undertaken it but for Mr. Stevens' promise to protect them against any danger from the government,

But for this their mass meeting would not have been held; but for this no request to land troops would have been made. Had the troops not been landed no measures for the organization of a new government would have been taken.

The American Minister and the revolutionary leaders had determined on a new addition to the United States and had agreed, on the part of each to act to the very end.

Amazing and shameful as was the annexation conspiracy carried out at Honolulu, it was hardly more so than the attempt made in this country to consummate it. While the jingo organs were calling hysterically for annexation the Administration at Washington was waiting eagerly for the commissioners hurrying from Honolulu to negotiate the transfer of the islands. No sooner had they reached the capital than a treaty was hastily drawn up and rushed into the Senate before the expected protest from the dethroned Queen could arrive. If this end of the conspiracy had been as thoroughly investigated and uncovered as the Hawaiian end has been the revelations could be hardly less startling.

But enough has been revealed to bury annexation beyond the hope of resurrection and put an end to all talk of a protectorate. —N. Y. Herald.

Tossing the Sphere.

The Unknowns and the Planets will play the last game of the Amateur League on Monday, New Year's day, at 10 a. m. As there are no other sports that day, the boys ought to be patronized by those who are interested in base ball. The boys will play a lively game, no doubt. The following are the names of the players with their respective positions:

The Dry-Nurse-In-Chief.

One of the most remarkable things about the whole Hawaiian imbroglio has been the exceedingly undiplomatic conduct of ex-diplomat Stevens, commonly known as dry-nurse-in-chief to the Hawaiian revolution which unseated the Queen, and diplomat Thurston, who now represents the provisional government at Washington. It was to be expected that each of these gentlemen would show some feeling at having his little schemes unmasked, but rarely have a supposedly dignified representative of a foreign power and an ex-Minister of this government gone down to the mad banks for ammunition against a courteous, dignified exposition of a question which happened to disagree with them. But let the Messrs. Thurston and Stevens air their little grievances and swear roundly that Mr. Blount has falsified, although why he should do so nobody knows. No one is deceived by their passionate denials of what is becoming more clearly proved all the time, and if it relieves their feelings, no one will object. —Kansas City Times.
