WHEELING IS GOING HOME

FORMER STATION SHIP OF PAGO PAGO ARRIVES EN ROUTE TO BREMERTON NAVY YARD.

The U. S. S. Wheeling arrived this morning from Pago Pago en route to Bremerton where she is to go out of commission. The vessel has been the station ship at Pago Pago for the last sixteen months. She is to go to the coast to be overhauled and put out of commission. The Wheeling is a small type of gunboat. She has been cruising about the islands around Tutuila, her longest cruise since being the Tutuila station ship, having been to Auckland to be overhauled in the dry dock.

The vessel was relieved at Pago Pago by the old training ship Adams which left here the latter part of last month. Commander Fox who took the Adams down to Pago Pago is taking the Wheeling home. Lieutenant R. E. Coontz the executive officer, Lieutenant

Lady Curzon, III In London

Lady Curzon, formerly Mary Leiter, of Washington, has been in bad health since her return from India. She has been unable to attend many of the court functions. The Indian climate does not agree with Lady Curzon, and she may not be able to return to India with Lord Curzon.

TO PREVENT POACHING

ACTING GOVERNOR WILL PROBABLY ISSUE A PROCLAMATION DESIGNED TO STOP THE SLAUGHTER OF BIRDS—TERRITORY HAS A CLAIM TO THE SKINS ON LISIANSKY BUT THE MATTER WILL NOT BE PRESSED.

A Japanese vessel is believed to be already on the way to Lisiansky Island to recover the packages of bird skins left there by the Japs who the Thetis brought here. Cables to Washington on the subject have resulted in the federal government agreeing to allow the Japanese to take the property away if being understood that there shall be no more such depredations. As a matter of law, it is believed that the Territory of Hawaii has a right to claim them, but in view of the attitude of the federal government nothing will be done. Acting Governor Atkinson will probably issue a proclamation giving regulations designed to prevent such poaching in future, as the island is in fact a part of the Hawaiian Islands. "I believe that the Territory has a claim to this property," said the acting governor, "but the federal government has consented to allow the removal of the property by Japanese, and in view of that policy I do not think we should interfere. We have a right to protect the birds in future, however. They are Territorial property, just as much as the lumber and other property on our government lands here. The Territory has power to make regulations in such a matter and I am considering what should be done about it. I have been informed that a vessel is already on the way to Lisiansky from Japan, with the approval of the United States government."

MAY NOT HAVE TO PAY DUTY

INDICATIONS ARE THAT THE STUFF BROUGHT BY CAPTAIN WEISBARTH WILL BE ENTERED FREE OF DUTY.

Captain Weisbarth may not, after all, have to pay any duty on the chains, anchors, spar and other things that he brought back from the wrecked French bark Comestable de Richemont. Collector Stackahl stated this morning that under a recent decision any part of a ship's gear was not subject to duty. If however any goods and merchandise have been brought from the foreign vessel, the stuff will have to pay duty. An inspector was sent to the Irmgard wharf today to look after the stuff that was being discharged from the schooner Lavinia. The stuff will probably be taken in charge by the Customs officials and be passed upon. The prospects of Weisbarth's having to give up any money to the United States are rather slim. His friends who can not but admire the pluck of the old mariner in his operations to save and then to wreck the French bark, will be pleased to hear that the rigid laws of Uncle Sam will not deprive Old Man Weisbarth of a penny of profit.

TRIBAL WAR IN THE SOUTH SEAS

FORTY NATIVES ARE CHOPPED TO PIECES—BRITISH SOLDIERS STOP WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER ON GILBERT GROUP.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The British authorities on the Gilbert Islands, in the South Seas, take a short way with the natives. If they fight they are hanged. If they refuse to work they are flogged. So peace and industry are encouraged.

This is the tale told by Captain Hayes of the brigantine Galilee, which has just returned from the islands. Notwithstanding the effort of the Britishers for the promotion of peace a bloody and unsparring war broke out quite recently on Tapatuawa, the largest of the group. These simple islanders, not being provided with modern arms of precision, cannot stand off on a hill and shoot at the enemy for half a day and imagine they are doing tremendous execution besides making assorted noises. They are compelled to fight at arm's length if they are to have anything to show for their war. It is not so much a battlefield as a chopping block, and the contending armies are mostly reduced to the similitude of Hamburg steak. In one of their pitched battles forty warriors were chopped to pieces.

Then came the Britishers, and before a handful of them the contending legions scattered. The ringleaders were captured and promptly hanged by way of warning not to do it again. Less prominent citizens were flogged in pub-

MANY CHANGES IN ROAD BOARDS

GOVERNOR CARTER'S PLAN TO SEPARATE POLICE AND ROAD DEPARTMENTS.

Sheriff Baldwin of Maui has resigned as a member of the Walluku road board and Superintendent of Public Works Holloway is considering a successor. The resignation is in line with the policy announced by Governor Carter as a result of his travels about the islands, the governor having stated that he desired to separate the police and road departments. C. D. Lufkin, cashier of the Maui bank, is a probable successor to Baldwin on the road board.

A number of other changes have taken place in road boards and Holloway has made new appointments. Sheriff L. A. Andrews of Hawaii has been succeeded by C. E. Wright, on the South Hilo board. The resignations of J. A. Scott and Henry Deacon from the same board have been accepted and John T. Moir and George Ross have been appointed. Moir being chairman. In Puna R. D. Jinkins gives way to Martin Porter and in Wailanae, Oahu, Judge Hookano has been appointed to succeed R. Fern.

Governor Carter found a good deal to criticize with the connection between the road boards and police departments and some of the changes are understood to be a result of his policy.

TWO SAILING SHIPS ARRIVE. Two sailing vessels arrived this morning. The German bark Charlotte 125 days from Bremen and the bark Olympic 11 days from San Francisco made port. Both of them made fast passages. Nothing of particular interest occurred with either vessel.

CHANGE IN OLAA AGENCY EFFECTED

BISHOP & CO. WILL DIRECT THE AFFAIRS OF THE BIG PLANTATION WITH J. WATT MANAGER.

The agency of the Olaa Sugar Company has been transferred from the B. F. Dillingham Company Ltd., to the well known banking firm of Bishop & Company, the papers in the transaction having been signed yesterday and John Watt leaving by the Kinau today to take over the management of the property.

The deal has been under way for several months there having been a series of negotiations with the creditors of B. F. Dillingham.

The new board is composed of the following: Alexander Garvie, E. A. Mott-Smith, Walter F. Dillingham, G. W. Ewart, A. W. Van Valkenberg and D. W. Anderson. Alexander Garvie succeeds A. W. Van Valkenberg as treasurer and C. H. Atherton retires from the board.

S. M. Damon of Bishop & Company in speaking of the deal, states that the contracts signed will be held in escrow pending the extension of certain notes of the Olaa Sugar Company held in San Francisco and secured by Olaa bonds. The new management would, he said, go to work at once in extensive style at the Olaa plantation.

John Watt, the new manager, came to the islands from Scotland in 1877 and is one of the best known plantation managers in the territory. He was with the Pasubal Plantation for four years and was afterwards manager of the Honokaa plantation.

SUICIDE OF GEORGE ASPDEN

WELL KNOWN NEWSPAPER MAN KILLS HIMSELF OVER A LOVE AFFAIR IN 'FRISCO.

San Francisco papers of the 17th inst contain accounts of the suicide of George H. Aspden, who was employed on the editorial staff of a morning paper there. Aspden's brother, Robert, was at one time a resident of Honolulu. He was in the employ of E. Politz as a clerk.

It appears that the suicide had been engaged to Miss Joan Hundenfeldt, one of the sisters well known in San Francisco. Some months ago she made a sensation by appearing at the Orpheum there in a series of posings and scored a decided success. She wrote to the young man asking to postpone the marriage indefinitely and he took the matter very keenly. He wrote letters to his brother and friends and then went out to Golden Gate Park where he shot himself. He was an Englishman, 31 years of age, and was considered a particularly clever man.

Quaint Folks From Asia

The untrodden summits of the snow-crowned Himalayas are called "The Roof of the World." They are in the very heart of mysterious Asia. To penetrate this region would require a great deal of money and time and you would be in constant danger from accident and disease. Even the death-peril, at the hands of superstitious and half-savage tribes, might await you.

SNAP SHOT OF WORLD'S FAIR GROUP

But much of "Mysterious Asia" is brought to you (with the danger eliminated) in the MARVELOUS ORIENTAL FEATURES of the

Louisiana Purchase Exposition

Here are assembled hundreds of strange people and racial types. They represent a score of tribes. Then too, there are other Asiatics; also elephants, dromedaries, Arabian horses, and sacred native animals. You see all these, and you can walk through the Mahal Temple of Agra and step out into the historic streets of Delhi. You can see the performances of jugglers, magicians, acrobats and sword-fighters, in the Persian theater, and come out and sit and sip tea in a Ceylon bungalow. In the temple of Rangoon you may witness a Mohammedan wedding and across the street gaze upon a torture dance. You can see it all at the Fair and all the features that are most striking and best worth remembering will be recorded for you by word and picture in that admirable souvenir and record entitled

THE FOREST CITY

World's Fair Art Portfolios

These pages will also reveal strange people from all over the globe, civilized and barbarian, arrayed in national apparel: Filipinos, Japanese, Chinese, Patagonians, Alaskans, Eskimos, Bohemians, Cliff Dwellers, Egyptians, Mexicans, Indians, Russians, Spaniards, Tyroleans, Swiss, Etc., Etc.—all are there.

The fortunate owner of the work is afforded UNIQUE and FASCINATING glimpses of

The Whole World in Miniature

The Forest City Series is published in thirty consecutive parts, and issued weekly. Each part contains sixteen original photographic reproductions, from photographs especially taken for the work by the official photographer of the Fair; with appropriate descriptions written by Mr. Walter B. Stevens, Secretary of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. This is THE ONLY OFFICIAL SERIES.

The animating purpose is to transfer the Fair in enduring form to the printed page, not only in its superb architectural and scenic effects, but in its personalities, individualities and magnificent art-exhibits. Nothing is omitted which will serve to convey the same impression as an actual visit to the Fair.

When the Louisiana Purchase Exposition has passed into history this splendid series of portfolios will remain as the fittest most enduring, beautiful and artistic work for personal possession and study

RECORDS OF THE BASEBALL MEN

FIGURES WHICH TELL THE FANS JUST WHAT THE PLAYERS ARE DOING.

As will be seen from the accompanying figures, which were secured from Lorrin Andrews, the secretary and official scorer of the Honolulu Baseball League, this year's pitchers have so far been much more effective than last year's in the averages of batting off delivery. The leader last season was Reuter of the Kams with a record of .69 while this year Richards of the Kams has a per centage of .46 and Hampton of the Malles has .53.

In the strike-out record, Joy of the H. A. C. had a record of 1.08 last year as against the 1.07 made by Richards of the Kams so far.

In steadiness the pitchers of last year were away ahead of this year's. Castle then led with an average of bases on balls of only .07 while both Perine and Babbitt were under the .22 mark set so far this year by Zamloch.

When one considers that Miss Gannon's letter is only one of the countless hundreds which we are continually publishing in the newspapers of this country, the great virtue of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine must be admitted by all.

Miss Gannon, Sec'y Detroit Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often befall women. I suffered for months with general weakness, and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains, and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose, for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt so elated and happy that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."

—Miss GUILA GANNON, 359 Jones St., Detroit, Mich., Secretary Amateur Art Association.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Notice is hereby given to the holders of these bonds to present the same for payment at the office of the Treasurer of the Ewa Plantation Company in Honolulu on July 1st, 1904, and that interest on same will cease from and after that date.

The United States Fiscal Policy

On June 30, the end of the fiscal year, the United States will head the list of nations as an exporter of domestic products. There has been a keen contest between the United Kingdom and the United States upon this point for some years.

The latest figures at hand show that on March 31, 1904, the domestic exports of the United Kingdom for the nine months then ending were $1,073,538,366, and of the United States $1,149,330,670. The total excess of exports over Great Britain by the United States being thus about $76,000,000.

Now to what is this due? It is entirely due to the protective policy of the United States. For a time the free trade policy of Great Britain seemed to be a most successful policy, and it was a successful policy when it was initiated, but times change, and countries change with them.

It must be remembered that once a market is lost, it is hard to regain. The Democratic fiscal policy would soon lose us many markets. As for ourselves, on these islands, the Democratic policy would neither protect our great industry, sugar, nor would it give any assistance to any of our minor industries.

A further study of the exports of the United States compared with those of other principal countries shows that not only is the United States the largest exporter of domestic products, but that its exports have grown with greater rapidity than those of any other country.

This table shows that the domestic exports of the United States grew from 854 in 1903 to 1,457 millions in 1903, an increase of 603 millions, or 70 per cent; those of the United Kingdom, from 1,062 million dollars in 1893 to 1,415 millions in 1903, an increase of 353 millions, or 33 per cent; those of Germany, from 735 millions in 1893 to 1,185 millions in 1903, an increase of 450 millions, or 60 per cent; and those of France, from 624 millions in 1893 to 804 millions in 1903, an increase of 180 millions, or 30 per cent.

In the matter of excess of exports over imports the United States stands in marked contrast with the other countries of the world. Her excess of exports over imports in 1903 was 462 million dollars; the next largest excess of exports being British India, 152 millions; Argentina, 87 millions; Russia, 87 millions; Austria-Hungary, 48 millions; Chile, 19 millions; Australia, 15 millions; Mexico, 13 millions; and Egypt, 11 millions.

All these figures point the same way. They show in a marked degree how the present fiscal and commercial policy of the United Kingdom has put our country at the head of the world. While the United Kingdom has retrograded commercially, we have advanced. Mr. Chamberlain has seen this and is making a campaign, which is likely to be successful, to remedy it.

A Great Battle in Manchuria

Two armies now face one another in Manchuria, and the great battle of the war may soon be expected. The fight, or rather the main fight, may not take place for some weeks, for there will be much manoeuvring and many feints.

The information of the Japanese upon all points is wonderful. They are far more accurately informed than the Russians. At the battle of Nanshan Hill it was no "accident" that enabled them to cut the wires and thus prevent the mines from being blown up.

The main advantage of the Japanese is their fearlessness as regards their rank and file, and their perfect accuracy of detail as regards their officers. They never seem to make a mistake. This Jack London remarked on when describing the battle of the Yalu.

There has been more or less of feinting on the part of the Japanese armies during the past week or ten days and the Russians evidently are at a loss to know what General Kuroki and General Oku intend to do.

There was peace on Tapatuawa when the Gallie sailed.

On the island of Peru in the same group Commissioner Cogswell, who has charge of the islands for the British authorities, was attacked not long ago by the natives. It appears that the islanders did not like Cogswell's methods and sought to convert him to their way of thinking with knives and hatchets. At the same time they sought to rescue some of the prisoners for whom a British flogging was in store.

But he beat them off without sustaining any serious injury and brought off his prisoners in triumph.

At this stage comes into play that celebrated British institution described as a punitive expedition, and the islanders had to pay for their fun. Captain Hayes told of the wars in the South Seas thus:

"I learned from Cogswell of the war on the island of Tapatuawa. We did not call there. In a fight forty of the natives were chopped to pieces with knives and spears. The Englishmen sent there had no trouble in routing both tribes. The attack on Cogswell at Peru we witnessed. The natives there thought that certain members of their tribe were being unjustly treated and then they mobbed the commissioner. I saw several of the natives publicly flogged at Tarawa.

"The British have the natives of the Gilbert group in a state of subjection. They are compelled to work three days of the week for the Government and to give a certain amount of copra as a tax. Public floggings are frequent. I also learned from the commissioner that there had been trouble in the Fiji Islands.

"The Gallie left this port six months ago with supplies for Washington Island. She called at Fanning Island and took the Gilbert islanders who had been working on the copra plantations back to their homes. The Gallie called at the islands of Arorari, Peru, Tarawa and Anatawa and gathered up 268 native men, women and children. These natives were taken to Fanning and Washington Islands to work in the place of those who had been returned to their homes. The Gallie made a very fast passage up from Washington Island. She brought 28 tons of copra and 750 pounds of shark fins. Captain Hayes reports that a British steamer loading guano was ashore on Ocean Island.

TEN HEADS WILL DROP

The changed conditions of the carrying trade between Honolulu and the principal ports with which trade is done and the slackness of business matters generally, have forced the Customs House authorities to materially reduce the working staff and as a result some ten men now drawing pay from the Federal treasury will have to seek other employment after the end of next month. Just who own the heads which are destined for the axe is at present unknown, but it is understood that E. R. Folsom, Richard Weedon and L. L. La Pierre are among them. The services of three day inspectors, two night inspectors and four or five clerks will be dispensed with and those familiar with the conduct of the affairs of the Customs aver that this can be done without lessening the efficiency of the service in any way.

The news will be particularly unwelcome in Honolulu, for the feeling is general that the return received in the islands from all the money that goes into the Federal treasury is paltry enough when all the salaries are considered and the cutting off of a few official heads will not, it will be maintained, be of so great a saving as to materially affect the national strong box. For all this the men will have to go.

E. R. Stackable, Collector of Customs, observed an official reference when he was asked as to the matter this morning. He admitted that there was to be a reduction of the staff explaining simply that shipping conditions were such that there was no need for the present number of employes.

The Customs receipts for the present fiscal year will, in all probability, be larger than they were for the year preceding and this at first sight would seem to indicate that there must be plenty of work for all of the employes, but in this connection it must be remembered that no duty on coal was collected for the previous term while the time of just as many men was taken in attending to its discharge. Another feature of the situation lies in the fact that such ships as the S'beria, Korea and Mongolia carry such immense cargoes as compared with the Marus and the smaller ships which used to ply here, and the big ships require the attendance of no larger a force of Customs men. This will of course be poor consolation for the men who have to seek other positions, but the situation seems to present no alternative.

FAMILY REUNION SPOILED BY POLICE

LARGE CONTINGENT OF AH FAMILY BEFORE JUDGE LINDSAY ON CHARGE OF GAMBLING.

The Ah family was holding a happy reunion in the basement of the Quong Wah On Company's store on Hotel street. Ah Poong was reading a book Ah Gee was sleeping, Ah Lee was studying a Sunday school lesson, Ah Sang was writing a letter, Ah Foon was talking to his cousin, Ah Kau was chasing away the mosquitoes, Ah Yeh was looking at the first Chinese primer, Ah Ong was not doing anything in particular, Ah Yun was eating rice, Ah Feng was singing to himself and among those present were Ah Yau, Ah Him, Ah Kee, Ah Gen, Ah E, Ah Yip, Ah Lit, Ah Nam, Ah Wei and Shun Luck. It was just such a happy gathering of Ah's as would have brought joy to the heart of the contemnor of race suicide. All was peace and happiness in the basement, notwithstanding the fact that the thermometer had climbed so high that it had broken the top of its tube.

A more truly peaceful scene could not have been imagined—when suddenly someone said: "Pleeceman!"

There was a scattering of the Ah family as the iron doors were broken in and there appeared on the scene Detective McDuffie with some fellow conspirators. The detective thought that the Ah family were gambling. It was a ridiculous idea, but he took the whole lot away to the police station nevertheless. He also took some gambling paraphernalia and a "kitty" of $2.20 which he happened to find in the room. Thus it happened that there was a distinctly oriental aroma to the police court this morning.

Possibly it was because of his name that the case against Chun Luck was called first. One Chinaman swore that he had been gambling on the night that the raid was made and the counsel for the defense, Colonel Fitch, put the defendant in the stand.

Chun had not been gambling. He said so himself, though he admitted that he had done no work for a year and that he had already been convicted twice for gambling on other occasions. One by one the Ah's stepped into the box and swore that they had not gambled nor had they seen any gambling.

The different occupations by which they were passing the time they described in detail and Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth sighed wearily.

"The prosecution will admit that all of the other Chinese witnesses will swear that there was no gambling," he said.

"And the court is prepared to believe that their testimony will be to that end," said Magistrate Lindsay.

"Your honor will see that there has been no evidence of gambling," argued Colonel Fitch "It may have been suggested, thought, presumed, guessed, conjectured, believed surmised nay—even hoped, that there was gambling but there has been no evidence to prove it."

"Fifteen dollars and costs" was the court's laconic reply.

Then the colonel executed a flank movement. He instructed Chun Luck not to pay his fine and announced to the court that he was going to take habeas corpus proceedings in order to test the court's jurisdiction.

This was apparently satisfactory to the prosecution for the Deputy Sheriff promptly non proessed the other cases and the astonished Ahs wandered away wondering what it all meant.

COPTIC CAME IN AT NOON

The O. & O. liner Coptic, Captain F. H. Armstrong, R. N., tied up at Hackfeld's wharf at half past twelve this afternoon after an uneventful trip from San Francisco. She sailed last Wednesday and had fair weather all the way. Her passenger list is a long one. The Coptic will lie in port over night continuing her westward trip at noon tomorrow.

Jules Brett, who is a passenger for Yokohama, accompanied by his wife, is the new Mexican consul for Yokohama. Capt. A. Dixon was formerly in command of the steamer Tacoma which ran to Puget Sound ports and was lately bought by the Russian government. He is bound for Yokohama.

ALGOA'S CAPTAIN RESPONSIBLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—Captain Albert Lockett, master of the British steamer Algoa, was held responsible for the vessel striking on the Point Bonita rocks one day last week, and as a result his license was revoked for three months by the Naval Board, which passed upon the case this morning.

NEW MASTER AT ARMS.

Chief Master at Arms F. Josephson, U. S. N. will be detached from the gunboat Wessling, to relieve Chief Quartermaster J. E. Norstrom of the local Naval station. The latter is to go to the Independence.

LIVELY TIME IN COURT TODAY

ATTORNEY KINNEY CHARGED LAWYER MAGOON WITH BEING ON BOTH SIDES OF THE CASE.

The Parker ranch litigation produced a sensational session of Judge Gear's court this morning. The first surprise was the appearance of Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Knight of San Francisco, mother of Annie T. K. Parker, represented by J. J. Dunne and allied with the Carter forces. The addition of Dunne makes the array of counsel opposed to Magoon and Lightfoot, attorneys for Sam Parker, about the biggest that has appeared in any case here for a long time. A. W. Carter is a lawyer and former circuit judge himself. As counsel for the side he represents there are Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, Ballou & Marx, Robertson & Wilder and J. J. Dunne. In the course of this morning's proceedings Kinney, in a quite heated dialogue with Magoon, stated that the latter appeared to be representing both sides, and intimated that the Supreme Court might have something to say about it.

"I'd like to know whom Mr. Magoon represents," Kinney said, when Magoon was pressing for a speedy hearing of the case.

Magoon replied that it was nobody's business and that he would represent whom he pleased.

"I don't know about that," the other attorney replied. "The Supreme Court may have something to say when the matter comes before it. It seems to me that you represent both sides."

Magoon didn't see how he represented both sides, he said, and Kinney proceeded to explain his charge. He said that Magoon was counsel for the minor, Annie T. K. Parker, as represented by J. S. Low in the capacity of next friend. Low having brought the suit to remove Carter as guardian, Magoon was also counsel for Sam Parker against the minor.

Judge Gear gave a decision denying the motion to transfer the case to De Bolt's court, and Kinney excepted. Mrs. Knight's appearance in the case was in the shape of a demurrer to the petition for removal of Carter, which was the same as a demurrer filed by Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, Ballou & Marx and Robertson & Wilder, for Carter. It sets forth technical grounds and alleges that the petition does not state facts sufficient to warrant removal, also that the jurisdiction of the First Circuit Court is not shown.

Magoon said that he had twenty witnesses present from Hawaii and wanted to go ahead on the merits of the case. He was also ready for the demurrer. Judge Gear set it for hearing on Thursday morning.

McFarlane Cross Road, S. Hilo, Hawaii.

Proposals will be received at the office of the Superintendent of Public Works, Honolulu, T. H., until 12 o'clock m. of July 11th, 1904, for constructing the McFarlane Cross Road, Kaunama Homesteads, District of S. Hilo, Hawaii, T. H.

Plans and specifications are on file at the office of the Asst. Superintendent of Public Works, Honolulu, and with E. E. Richards, Agent Public Works Department, Hilo, Hawaii, copies of which

PROPERTY OWNERS AND STREET WORK

AS MATTERS STAND, NOTHING CAN BE DONE TO MAKE THEM PUT IN STONE CURBING.

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway is having difficulty in forcing property owners to curb the sidewalks along their frontage, and has appealed to the Attorney General for assistance. In a number of cases the Territory has macadamized streets while the owners of frontage along them failed to curb and the result was that the street soon began to break at the edges. Acting Governor Atkinson recently stated that the Territory would refuse to improve streets hereafter unless the owners of property would do the necessary curbing.

Attorney General Andrews' answer to the Superintendent Holloway's questions regarding his powers in the matter was as follows:

"I know of no remedy for the refusal of the property owner to comply with your demand as forwarded in your notice to him except that provided in the section quoted in said demand, to wit: a suit in assumpsit for the amount of money expended by the Territory in the construction of said sidewalk. Section 374 of the civil laws of 1897 covers the point and the only action so provided by law is the action set down therein which cannot be brought against the party at fault until the Territory has actually performed the work and paid the bills therefor.

"As to the financial side of the question I do not know how I can assist you in the matter."

The financial end of the proposition is Holloway's lack of funds for curbing, also the fact that his department loses all it puts into the work. The department can pay out the money, then sue the property owner and recover, but the money recovered goes into the treasury as a government realization and not to the Public Works Department. It is a losing game for the department appropriations.

Rheumatism

If your muscles are sore, bones ache, joints feel stiff, and if pains dart through your body, it is probably rheumatism. Purify your blood, get out all the rheumatism poison—no need of your suffering in this way.

We have the following letter from Mr. R. J. Rowland, of Manum, So. Australia. Mr. Rowland also sends his photograph. 'I suffered greatly with rheumatism, which laid me up for a long time. I tried a great many medicines, but they were of little or no use. A friend who had taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla induced me to try it. I thought it would be just like all the other medicines. But there was a great and pleasant surprise in store for me, for after taking one bottle I was better. The swelling began to go down, the pains began to leave me, and I felt better in every way. After taking only five bottles I was completely cured. While I was taking the Sarsaparilla I also took Ayer's Pills to keep my bowels in good condition.'

THE AINU

LITTLE KI-KO FROM FAR JAPAN

The Ainu are the primitive people of Japan; they were there when the Japanese came, but there are only a few thousand of them left. They are altogether remarkable barbarians. The word 'Ainu' means man. They have no bell; they have no laws; they have no prisons; they never laugh aloud; suicide is unknown among them; they never wash, comb or brush their hair, and never cut it; and so are known as the 'hairy people.' They despise cowardice, reverence old age, and the women love their children, but strange to say never look after them. As a race, they are very stupid—quite in contrast to the Japanese themselves. They never leave their island home of Yezo, in the extreme north. They had to be brought to the World's Fair by a special commissioner from St. Louis; and he had to be materially aided by the Japanese government.

OIL BETTER THAN COAL FOR SHIPS MARSMEN ARE HARD AT WORK

MILITARY AS WELL AS COMMERCIAL ADVANTAGES OF THE VAST PRODUCTION OF PETROLEUM. MYRTLES AND HEALANIS SENIOR AND JUNIOR CREWS PREPARING FOR THE RACES.

NEW YORK, June 6.—A special to the Herald from Washington says that fuel oil (crude petroleum) is more of a steam producer than coal, and that with light distillation its combustion is less wearing on boilers, are two of the conclusions reached by the naval board which for two years has experimented with liquid fuel in this city.

Commercial interests all over the United States are anxiously seeking information which will enable them to economically change from coal to oil for fuel. In some regions where oil is plentiful, as in California and Texas, the change has been made to advantage, but as yet the position of coal as a generally used steam producer is not threatened. It is because of the amount and growing importance of the fuel question that the problem of utilizing crude petroleum for naval purposes is now uppermost in the minds of naval strategists and administrators.

As the Texas and Louisiana oil fields are contiguous to the strategic waters of the Gulf of Mexico, the Pennsylvania wells connected by pipe line with terminal cities at New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, and the California production in pipe connection with San Francisco, the oil production of the United States gives promise of being utilized to a greater military advantage than can be the product of any other nation in time of war.

The liquid fuel question means more to the United States than to any other country. Because more oil is produced than by any other sea power, and because this oil is found nearer the great maritime distributing ports, its cheaper development for all purposes can be utilized best in America. The keynote of American military strength on the UPacific may be due to the fact that an immense reserve of California oil may be stored in the Hawaiian and Aleutian Islands, as well as in the Philippines.

KAAT'S MUSICALS The musicals at the Opera House last night by the pupils of Ernest Kaal was a very creditable performance. The performers, on the guitar, mandolin, zither, banjo and ukulele, showed much skill and the audience appreciated their efforts. The patronesses were, Princess Kawananakoa, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Mrs. J. S. Cunha and Mrs. F. K. Hughes. Among those who added to the success of the evening were Miss Richie Kohl, W. It is better adapted for application over uneven surfaces, such as old shingles or metal roofs, obviating the expense of removing the same. It will not rattle from wind and storm, nor create any noise from rain falling upon it. The materials used in cement roofing are the best non-conductors of heat and cold known, therefore it will keep the building warmer in winter and cooler in summer than a metal roof. FOR YOUTHS AND MAIDENS

AS WELL AS THOSE OF OLDER
GROWTH AND GREATER KNOWL-EDGE—ALL UNIT. IN PRAISING.

There are few people, especially among the young, who visited the Columbian Exposition, that have ever been quite satisfied with their knowledge and experience of the event. One has often heard the remark, "I went many times, and didn't see half the show after all."

As a matter of fact, the magnitude of the enterprise was so great that one early despaired of accomplishing anything more than the most cursory examination.

How much more must this be the case at the great Louisiana Purchase Exposition, which, roughly speaking, is as big as the Chicago, Paris and Buffalo Fairs rolled into one.

The youngsters will go about the St.
Louis show in such feverish haste that about everything of enduring interest will escape them, except possibly the "Pike," and many things will be missed, even in this magnificent "Street of Nations," with its mile of attractions.

To young and old alike, it would be a splendid thing to have the chief points of interest and value at the Exposition judiciously selected, pictured and described for reference and study.

Such an opportunity is afforded in the superb "Forest City" series of World's Fair Art Portfolios. Their vivid pictorial and descriptive features will prove of great value from an educational standpoint.

The views are the best obtainable, since they are taken by the official photographer of the Exposition, especially for this series; and the descriptions are entirely accurate and authentic, having been carefully prepared for the work by Walter B. Stevens, secretary of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

As heretofore stated, every important feature in connection with the Exposition is covered in both views and descriptions, and with the entire "Forest City" series in one library, no further history of the Fair, either in words or pictures, is necessary.

And all may possess and enjoy this splendid collection, since this paper makes it easy for every one to secure the portfolios as issued.

The only charge is the nominal sum of ten cents for each part, to cover the cost of wrapping, addressing, mailing, extra clerk hire, etc., and the only condition is that the "Forest City" coupon accompany the order, to show that you are one of our readers.

As the terms are so easy, and as the educational value of the work in the home is so great, it becomes almost the duty of every progressive American citizen to see that the "Forest City" series is secured in its entirety. Parts
I and II are now ready.

A NACHUR MAN IN NEW JERSEY

HE WAS ARRESTED AND FINED
AND AGREED TO WEAR MORE CLOTHING.

BUTLER, N. J., June 11.—Women of fashion may dress as indecorously as they please for appearance in the glittering horse shows in a metropolitan house, but the dwellers of this village will not tolerate anything save strict adherence to customs in street attire, as was shown today when "Nature Lover" Joseph Salomonson, known widely in these parts, was arraigned before Justice Roberts on complaint of Rev. Father Hyacinth, rector of St.
Anthony's Roman Catholic Church.
Public opinion as voiced by the complainant and his parishioners condemned the defendant's satirical views.
It was wrought to a high pitch because Salomonson persisted in walking abroad clad in a single garment reaching only to his knees, and occasionally the devotee dispensed even with that flimsy concession to popular prejudice, Justice, represented by Roberts, sided with the general indignation, but disposed of the case with a compromise whereby the man escaped severe punishment.

Salomonson regards all garments as trammels. The "nature lover" has been a resident of Butler for two months, and in that period has consistently lived up to this theory.

He points with pride to the garbless rulelessness of Greeks before their decline. He also cites Adam and Eve as examples.

Women and children meeting the devotee in the unconventional apparel and sometimes in the lack of it, were frightened out of their wits. Complaint poured into the rectory of St. Anthony's until Father Hyacinth concluded it was time to act. The priest made the complaint in which he charged Salomonson with appearance in the streets and on the roads out of the village in improper attire. He said it was the "nature lover's" practice to walk in full view of the highway without even the loose garment to which so much objection was made. Father Hyacinth wound up with the assertion that Salomonson's habit was a scandal to the community and asked that the defendant be dealt with according to law. Salomonson agreed to remain in obscurity when he desired to be near his ideal, and the court merely fined him the costs.

The complete destruction of a large and prosperous town by a change in a railroad route is the unique spectacle at present being witnessed at Wadsworth, Nev., which has been removed from the main line of the central Pacific through the construction of the Lucin cut-off. As the Southern Pacific company has several hundred employees residing at Wadsworth, which up to the opening of the Lucin cut-off was a railroad terminus, it has done the square thing by giving each of them a lot in the new terminal town of Sparks, whence the company's turntables and workshops have been removed, and is hauling their dwellings free of cost from Wadsworth station to the new location. An effort is being made to move the whole town on wheels by the 12th inst. Nothing of the kind has ever before been seen in this country, and possibly its like may never be seen again. In a few days Wadsworth will be wiped off the map.—San Francisco Chronicle.

WORDS OF THE WISE.

Daniel Webster:—A solemn and religious regard to spiritual and eternal things in an indispensable element of all true greatness.

Balzac:—The motto of chivalry is also the motto of wisdom; to serve all,
but love only one.

H. W. Beecher:—The highest manhood resides in disposition, not in mere intellect.

Bunyan:—He that is down need fear
no fall.

C. Simmons:—When the heart is won,
the understanding is easily convinced.

Jeremy Taylor:—No man can be provident of his time who is not prudent in the choice of his company.

MANAGER ROSENBERG'S SIDE.

EDITOR HAWAIIAN STAR: In regard to the communication from Silva the "Punchbowl Demon" in this morning's Advertiser, would like to state that last week on being asked to go on in a preliminary for this event (Riley v. Murphy contest) Silva intimated that he would, but on Monday, the 27th inst., after the advertisement in the newspapers, he refused to go on unless he could get the same money for losing the contest as he could for winning.

Not wanting a repetition of the Silva-Hulhu affair, and thinking that a man would not do his best if he was going to get the same money if he lost the decision as he would if he won, I refused to give him what he asked for and have taken his name off the bill. Wishing only to please the public, I remain,

M. DOSENBERG,
Manager Oahu Athletic Club.

"GOVERNOR JACK" REVIEWS ARMY

CAPTAIN SAM JOHNSON INVITED TO TAKE PART, BUT HE PASSED THE BUCK.

"Coxey's Army" called on the acting governor this morning. For the benefit of those who don't know what Coxey's army is, it may be described as an aggregation of unemployed, who started from all sections of the United States to march on Washington and assemble in front of the Capitol, demanding work. The army pitched camp in a fizzle of graft. Many of them were bums too lazy to march on anything.

"Governor Jack" was not so lucky as President Cleveland, during whose term Coxey did his stunt, for the army landed at the Capitol building this morning at about the same time as the governor and they dropped in on him at his desk. They lined up around the desk and announced that they wanted work. All were Hawaiians. The governor proceeded to do some telephoning. Sam Johnson was first called up, and gave the discouraging news that there was a let-up in work. Superintendent Holloway stated that work would soon begin on the opening of School street, which would furnish lots of jobs. In the meantime the Kaula reservoir job is about to begin, and the applicants were sent after work at the proposed reservoir.

As a result of this telephoning the final result of the call of the army was to pass the buck to the contractors for Kaula reservoir. The acting governor passed it to Sam Johnson, who successfully shoved it up to Holloway. The latter had nothing at present but was willing to help by sending the Coxeyites to someone else. They are therefore on the march to the headquarters of the Kaula reservoir contractors, Kerms and Lishman.

All the members of the army are Republicans. This can be stated of their own authority. Nearly all of them have the same answer to give when asked what their politics are. "Before I was a Home Ruler," is the answer. "Now I am good Republican." The fact that Acting Governor Atkinson is a Republican is not thought to have anything to do with this.

Purser Lloyd Conking of the steamer Mauna Loa which arrived this morning reports the following sugar on hand at Hawaii plantations: Punahou, 1500 bags; Kailua, 800 bags.

NO INVITATIONS FOR HENRY HOGAN

FEARS THAT IF HE IS INVITED OUT, HIS HOST WOULD BE ARRESTED FOR CRIMPING.

Henry Hogan appeared as counsel in the Federal court this morning for B. C. Edwards, who is charged in company with William McCarthy, with violation of the crimp laws. Hogan made an address full of lurid eloquence, which appeared to have considerable effect on Judge Dole, though not the effect that was wanted. The attorney denounced the law, which prevents crimps from soliciting boarders on incoming vessels, as unconstitutional.

Hogan suggested that the judge himself might get into trouble under such a law. If Judge Dole should invite Hogan to his home, it was suggested, and should then decide to charge him for the entertainment or grub, or anything else, the crimping law might be sprung on the judge. Such a possibility naturally disturbed the lawyer greatly and he talked in George Davis tones about the constitution.

When Hogan had completed his argument the Court asked the defendant what his plea was. Edwards pleaded not guilty and the case was set for trial on Friday.

GOVERNOR'S HOST GETS INTO JAIL

REV. KALOPAPELA WHO PROMISED BIG LUAU, CHARGED WITH HAT "SWIPING."

Kalopapele an elder in one of the native congregations, was locked in the police station this afternoon on a charge of larceny in the second degree. The Rev. Kalopapele is the same parson who promised Acting Governor Atkinson, the biggest luau that the islands have seen since the days of Kialakua, whenever the gubernatorial party would deign to visit Pelekunu. The Acting Governor has since been looking forward with pleasure to the big feast that was awaiting him when he went to Molokai.

This afternoon the reverend called on the Acting Governor and as Kalopapele left the governor's chambers, the preacher is alleged to have "swiped" the hat belonging to the messenger of the governor. Kalopapele denied vigorously that he had taken the hat without authority. Unless something is proved as that the Acting Governor will not enjoy that feast at Palakunu.

REPORT ON THE ALLEN ESTATE

HENRY A. JAEGER OWED A LARGE SUM AND SETTLED HIS NOTES WITH MCBRYDE BONDS.

The report of W. R. Sims, as master in the estate of the late S. C. Allen, was filed in Judge Gear's court this morning, and a question was raised as to fees for the administrators amounting to $2,913.50, on the liquidation of notes of Henry A. Jaeger for $106,917.70, the master holding that, as stock transfers settled the notes, the transaction was not a cash transaction such as the administrators are entitled to charge commissions on.

It appears from the report that Jaeger had notes due the estate aggregating $106,917.70 and that he had given as security $137,000 worth of McBryde stock, $18,700 of stock in the Territory Stables and 129 head of mules. He paid the notes in full by the transfer of McBryde bonds amounting to $115,732.50. The master finds that there is doubt as to whether commissions should be charged on this traction. The question is similar to questions raised in connection with the Campbell estate, which Judge Gear now has under advisement.

The report of the administrators is for the period from May 13, 1903, to March 31, 1904, and shows total receipts of $436,789.28. The net income of the estate is shown to have been $84,815.57. The administrators are Bathsheba M. Allen, Mark P. Robinson, J. O. Carter and Paul Muhendorf.

MARTHA DAVIS WAS IN DANGER

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—Drifting helplessly in the sweep of a northwest gale, the bark Martha Davis had a perilous twelve hours in her voyage to this port from Hilo. The vessel reached the Golden Gate last night with fore and main topgallant masts gone and seven passengers thankful that the bark had weathered the storm.

The bark left Hilo in command of Captain McFall with a cargo of 22,500 bags of sugar consigned to Welch & Company. On last Friday while in latitude 39 north and longitude 137 west the gale broke and from that time until the following morning there was no rest for the crew and plenty of anxiety for the passengers. The gale blew with fury; sails were whipped into ribbons; the crew worked hour by hour to avert the rigging and keep the vessel to her course. It was not until Saturday morning that the wind shifted and the crew and passengers breathed relief.
