THE Daily Bulletin

It is painful to hear of such roads on Maui as a correspondent has described. Any such description prior to the election would have been denounced as a malicious fiction...

One of the humors of the campaign was the curious talk of the Hilo Record. Two or three weeks before the election that journal described mismanagement of the work on the volcano road...

Corrupt practices at elections are not an edifying subject for newspaper discussion after the event. People generally feel like resting after the battle from the noise of crimination and recrimination...

The steamship Parthia lately made the passage from Yokohama to Vancouver in twelve days and twenty-three and a half hours, beating her own record and that of the new P. M. steamship China...

Mr. Phillips knew what he was talking about when, in a campaign speech, he said that the first rain would wash the Punchbowl road into the ditch and both the works would tumble and roll upon the peaceful habitations below...

Mrs. Osborne is now prepared to give instructions in Fancy Work at "The Arlington" Room 6, Class Lessons: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Private lessons by special arrangement.

Liliha street and Pauoa road are other highways, besides those mentioned the other day, which the Advertiser seemed to be oblivious of when it virtually represented that the age of passable roads began in this kingdom with the present administration...

The new beach road to Waikiki promises to be another monument of false economy and superficial public enterprise. It is proving in the present siege by the elements to be far from weather-proof.

The passport of a booked passenger by the bark C. D. Bryant was stopped on the eve of sailing by a man who had been arrested at his instance a few days previously for a gross offense.
