SOLDIERS WILL GO OUT

DOLE WILL NOT STOP THE SUNDAY DRILL.
Kicks Against It Came Too Late—None of the Men Will Be Compelled To Go.

The military outing will take place tomorrow, in spite of the protests made by local ministers and others who regard the affair as a desecration of the Sabbath. The protests, if they might have been effective at all, came too late. This morning Governor Dole was in his office only for a few minutes. He took no action, as commander-in-chief of the national guard, to stop the exercises scheduled for tomorrow in Manoa Valley. The order issued by Colonel Jones stands, except that the usual military compulsion is not to apply. Those members of the National Guard who object to an outing on Sunday such as is to be had tomorrow, are at liberty to stay. It is understood that those who stay away are not to be considered subject to the usual penalties for disobeying orders. It is thought, however, that there will be a very good attendance, even to the extent of sending forward to the drill and camp. If the complaint had come earlier, it is stated that it would probably have had some effect. The first heard of it was yesterday, however, after orders had been issued and large preparations made, even to the extent of sending supplies, etc., to Manoa valley. A good deal of expense had also been incurred. In view of the complaints it is probable that the next encampment of the kind will not occur on a Sunday.

THE YACHTSMEN'S OUTING

FLEET TO SAIL AT FOUR BELLS THIS AFTERNOON.
Eighteen Yachts Large and Small to Participate—Good Breeze Promises Fine Sport.

Two o'clock this afternoon, or to speak more fittingly, four bells, is the hour assigned for the yachting fleet to get under way for Pearl Harbor, the first warning gun being fired at 1:55. A somewhat vaguely worded regulation published in some of the papers relative to the use of sails by the class yachts has caused consternation among the owners of the smaller craft. The true reading of the rule, as published in yesterday's Star, plainly states that first and second class yachts will be allowed topsails, but will not be allowed to set balloon jibs or spinnakers. The smaller yachts may use their spinnakers all they want to. The members of the club and their guests who have not yet made arrangements to go down to Puloa on yachts are requested to notify Port Captain H. P. Roth before noon that they will meet launch at Waiala Rice Mill this afternoon. The launch will be waiting the arrival of the 5:10 train. Prince David, assisted humorously yesterday that there were no mosquitoes at Puloa owing to the breeze. In case the night breeze fails to materialize, those who value their skins are strongly recommended to take along mosquito netting, with some string and a hook to tie it to. Towels should not be forgotten. Some shark, bait and hooks will be incidentally taken along in Commodore Hobron's Gladys for any stray sea-chickens that may happen along and Port Captain Roth has herded the monsters in the Shark Pen, which will be utilized for a bathing pool, so that any guests who care for the excitement of shark riding will have full opportunity of enjoying themselves. The Commodore and vice will fly their new pennants today, which have been presented to them by Pearson and Potter.

Those who will be anxiously awaiting the safe return from perils of the deep of their husbands, brothers, sweethearts, and "just friends," may look for the first single stickers tomorrow afternoon. The following yachts will compose the fleet sailing today: Gladys, Helene, Hawaii, Mary L., Dewey, Marlon, Clytie, Hihimani, Skip, Pirate, Shamrock III, Olo, Abbey M., Vi-ke, Myrtle, Maria, Fok, and the Heianki, or eighteen all, making a very respectable little squadron. If the breeze holds there will be excellent yachting weather this afternoon.

MISS STONE IN DANGER

COMPLICATIONS UNEXPECTED ARISE.
Question of Whether the Ransom Shall Be Paid On Turkish or Bulgarian Soil. Latest News.

LONDON, October 18.—The Globe this evening says it fears that the safety of Miss Ellen M. Stone is seriously compromised by the attitude of Consul-General Dickinson in refusing to pay the ransom and in demanding that Bulgaria arrest the leaders of the Macedonian committee as the real authors of the missionary's abduction. The paper says the situation contains all the factors of a grave international complication and threatens to assume importance far beyond the personality of any individual missionary. NEW YORK, October 18.—The representative at Sarajevo, of the Journal and Advertiser, cables that paper as follows: "It is learned that Mme. Bakhtmetz, wife of the Russian diplomatic agent at Sofia, formerly Miss Deal, of Washington, has begun energetic work on behalf of Miss Stone, and the same attitude taken by the German diplomatic agent because of the murder of a German traveller may hasten the authorities to bring about Miss Stone's release. The Bulgarian authorities are working hard to prevent the ransom from being paid on Bulgarian soil. Hence Dr. Haskill is likely to get another letter requesting payment of the ransom on Turkish territory."

NEW YORK, October 17.—The Rev. Charles C. Creagan, Secretary of the American Board, announced today that a Mr. Ingram, of East Claire, Wis., had offered $50,000 required to complete the ransom fund for Miss Stone. Mr. Creagan also said that he had received a telegram from the Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, of Washington, offering to be one of fifty to pay $1,000 each, to complete the fund. Contributions are being received by Kidder, Peabody & Company, of Boston, and by the American Board, 105 East Twenty-Second Street, New York. NEW YORK, October 17.—Rev. R. Thompson, Director of the Bulgarian and Theological Institute, cables the following from Samarow, Bulgaria, to the Journal and Advertiser, concerning Miss Stone, the kidnapped missionary: "The headquarters of Miss Stone's abduction is thickly wooded mountain top near the boundary line of Turkey and Bulgaria. Miss Stone has only light summer clothing and a cotton dress. The brigands refused to allow her to keep her baggage, but let her have a Bible. "The leader of the band is the notorious Bouchko, from the Bulgarian town of Dobruza. We sent word to Constantinople, pointing out that being private individuals we cannot prevent the Government from pressing the brigands, also that the ransom is too princely. No such sum was ever before demanded. Usually brigands ask about a thousand pounds and then agree to half. "Twenty-five thousand Turkish pounds means two horse loads of gold, and that is more gold than there now is in Bulgaria. "Besides the brigands demanded payment in Turkish gold, for which it would be necessary to send to Constantinople. I should not give the brigands the ransom until Miss Stone is safely delivered to us, as they might murder her after the ransom is paid in order to seal her lips forever. We have three Theological Institute students who were captured in the Stone party. One tells pathetically that he was robbed of money intended to pay for his tuition."

CONSTANTINOPLE, October 17.—As no news has been received here from Mesara, Baird and Haskill, the missionaries who have been attempting to get in touch with the two brigands who abducted Miss Ellen C. Stone, a third missionary has been despatched in quest of them and the brigands.

A MISSIONARY DISTRICT

SUCH IS TO BE HAWAII'S STATUS.
Triennial Convention of the Episcopal Church takes this action—Convention Adjourns—Meets in Boston in 1904.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 17.—The Triennial convention of the Episcopal Church of America has adjourned sine die. The next convention is to be held at Boston in 1904. The day was a busy one in both houses, most of the time, however, being taken up in the discussion of matters which were not definitely settled. It was agreed to make Honolulu and Cuba missionary districts, and to create the missionary district of Salina out of the diocese of Kansas. The house failed to concur, however, in the proposed setting apart of a portion of the diocese of Springfield, Ill., as a missionary district. The election of Rev. Cameron Mann as a missionary bishop of North Dakota was concurred in by the House of Bishops. Both houses agreed to the report of the committee on the proposed Hunter in the diocese of office, and preceded by Dr. Samuel Hart secretary of the House of Bishops, and Rev. C. L. Hutchins, secretary of the House of Deputies, marched in procession into the choir. As they walked up the main aisle the vested choir of Trinity and the congregation joined in the singing. The bishops were seated on the platform inside of the chancel and prayer service was conducted by President Lindsay of the House of Deputies. Bishop Doan of Albany then called for a contribution to be applied to the missionary fund. The amount given was not announced, but it was very liberal. The triennial pastoral letter was read by Bishop Dudley of Kentucky. The benediction was pronounced by Bishop Tuttle of Missouri and the convention adjourned at 11 o'clock. Many of the bishops, presbyters and lay delegates will remain in California for some time visiting places of interest, but the majority will depart at once for their homes.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 15.—The resolution forbidding the re-marriage of a divorced person by a priest of the church, together with the whole of Canon 36, was rejected. Canon 37, which provides for the disciplining of persons married after being divorced, met with a similar fate. The House of Deputies passed an amendment to Article 19 of the Constitution, permitting forms of worship. Both houses today appointed members of a Standing Committee on capital and labor. Rev. Cameron Mann, of Kansas City, was nominated to be Missionary Bishop of North Dakota, in the place of Rev. Dr. Pierce, who failed of election in the House of Deputies. The House of Bishops today agreed with the House of Deputies, in accepting the report on marginal readings. The report of the Joint Committee on the orders of the Church in Sweden, was read and referred. It was resolved to give all possible aid to missionary work among Scandinavian immigrants. The following were elected trustees of the General Relief Fund: Bishop Whitaker, Pennsylvania; Bishop Brewster, Connecticut; R. F. Alsop, Long Island; William A. Smith, New York; E. C. Chauncey, New York; and George C. Thompson, Pennsylvania.

PARIS, October 17.—The new version of the Prayer Book in German is approved, and permission given for its use. Bishop Potter, of New York, was selected to prepare the Pastoral Letter for 1902. His assistants to be the Bishops of Southern Virginia and Maryland. The election of the missionary bishops for Hankow, the Philippines, Porto Rico and Olympia, was concurred in. The resolutions of the House of Deputies proposing the appointment of a standing Commission on capital and labor, were adopted with a few verbal changes, and the Bishops of New York and Massachusetts, and the Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago, were re-appointed members of the Commission.

DON CARLOS TO BE EJECTED.

ROME, October 17.—The frequent meetings of the Carlist leaders at the residence of Don Carlos in Venice, have led the Government, it is rumored, to determine to expel him from Italy, as his proceedings, if continued, would be likely to compromise the friendly relations between Italy and Spain.

GENERAL BOTHA IN FLIGHT

HIS MEN ESCAPING AS BEST THEY CAN.
British Gradually Enclosing the Boers Fuge Camps—Austrian Official De-CC Around Pongolabosce

NEW YORK, October 18.—From Newcastle, Natal, a correspondent of the Times sends dispatch which says that a large number of Boers are near Pongolabosce and Staniopsis, while a commando of 500 holds a position south-east of Piet Retief. Commandant General Botha has dispersed his force, which numbered 2,000, and has left his men to escape as best they can. He himself, with a few followers, has gone north through a small unguarded space near Piet Retief. The main interest of the moment, says the dispatch, centres in the operations around Pongolabosce, where the British are gradually enclosing the Boers. LONDON, October 18.—Returns from the refugee camps in South Africa for September show a total white population of 1,074,815; deaths among the whites 2,411, of which 1,061 were children. The colored population is shown to be 318,549, among whom there were 301 deaths during the month. FAVORS ARBITRATION. VIENNA, October 18.—The underhaus today elected Dr. Kaiser as first vice-president of the house. In returning thanks, Dr. Kaiser seized the occasion to interpellate the government on its attitude in regard to the South African war. He insisted that Austria ought to intercede, to secure, through arbitration, an end of the "Robber war now waged by Great Britain. That country," he added, "should be obliged to defer to the exigencies of humanity and international law."

GEORGE WADE HAS A KICK

OBJECTS TO WALKING TO THE COURT.
Gear Convinces Him the Alleged Murderer That It is a Compliment to be Allowed to Walk.

George Wade, who was convicted in a transition period trial of murdering steward Vincent of the Steamship Australia about two years ago, made an indignant appeal to Judge Gear this morning. Wade asked for arraignment of prisoners had been finished. Wade's kick was because he had been obliged to walk to the court. "The government has provided a patrol wagon for the purpose of conveying prisoners to and from," said Wade, "and there are men on the police payroll who are supposed to drive the wagon. This morning I was compelled to walk through the muddy streets to this court room and there was an officer behind me pushing me along. It is bad enough in the matter of degradation to have to be arrested and come here at all, but I don't think we ought to have to walk along the public streets."

VISIT TO CASEY.

Admiral Casey's visit to Governor Dole is being returned this afternoon. Wade said "Thank your Honor" and sat down amid the smiles of his thirty odd companions in the march to and from the jail.

RECESSION OF MANCHURIA.

PEKING, October 15.—Twice within a week Li Hung Chang has visited M. Lessar (the Russian Minister to China). Chinese officials assert that Earl Li has pressed for the recession of Manchuria, M. Lessar proposing that China should send a special envoy to St. Petersburg to arrange terms, and Earl Li suggesting for the mission his greatest enemy, Chang Chih Tung. The story must be accepted with some reserve.

THIRTY-THREE PRISONERS

MARCH THROUGH THE STREETS TO COURT.
All of Them had Been Indicted and Were Taken Before Judge Gear For Arraignment.

Judge Gear's court was crowded with prisoners this morning. There was present in the court room the largest batch of accused men that has yet come into court at a time, the crowd being the result of the work of the territorial grand jury. There were thirty-three to be arraigned, for various offenses, from murder in the first degree to malicious injury and petty larceny. The thirty-three were marched in a squad from the prison, guarded by a seven police officers, George Sea being in charge. The procession was led by two small boys, one charged with malicious injury and the other with a stealing about $15. Behind them were natives, Japs, Chinese, Negroes and whites and men of mixed blood, charged with all sorts of offenses. As they marched along Queen street it looked like a splendid chance for a dash for liberty, but none tried it. The lot were marched through the Judiciary building and up stairs into Gear's court, where Deputy Attorney General Cathcart began the long task of arraigning them. In most cases postponements were had. Two men pleaded guilty. One was J. M. Carter, charged with larceny in the second degree. He had stolen some clothing valued at about $6 and had been in jail awaiting trial for five months. Judge Gear thought he had been punished enough, and sentenced him to one hour in prison. Kahlilaha pleaded guilty to having stolen some calabashes. He will be sentenced on Monday.

BOUGHT HER NO CLOTHES

CHRISTINE MORGAN'S SUIT FOR DIVORCE.
Dr. Cofer Files a Petition—J. O. Lightfoot is Summoned to Answer for Contempt.

Christine Morgan this morning filed a suit for divorce from Henry Victor Morgan, on the ground of failure to provide, alleging among other things that, though he makes a good income he had only bought her about $9 worth of clothes during the five years of their married life. The couple were married in California, in January, 1896. Since then, the plaintiff says, her husband has bought her only 3 dresses worth $7 and 2 shirt waists worth $2.25. She has had to wear her mother's shoes, because he would not buy her any. The summons was returned unreserved. Morgan is said to have left for the mainland. Dr. G. E. Cofer, United States Quarantine Officer, by his Attorney J. J. Dunne, this morning filed a petition in the Circuit Court asking for an order transferring his case from the Territorial court to the United States District court. In a lengthy affidavit the petitioner sets forth that the issue in the case depends upon the construction of the statutes and constitution of the United States. The suit is one involving the ownership of quarantine island. Cofer alleges that he is not the real defendant the issue being between the plaintiff and the United States.

CAMPBELL IS INDICTED

FEDERAL GRAND JURY TAKES ACTION.
His Sub-Contractor Obit, is Also Accused—Union Men Fighting Him Says The Contractor.

The Federal Grand Jury this morning presented to Judge Ester indictments of contractor W. M. Campbell and sub-contractor Obit, for violation of the United States eight hour law. Bonds were fixed in both cases at $500 and both the defendants put up the necessary security. The contractors are accused under an Act of Congress approved August 1, 1892, which makes it a misdemeanor for any contractor or sub-contractor for a United States job to have men work over 8 hours a day, except in cases of emergency. The penalty is a fine of $1,000, or imprisonment for 6 months, or both. Campbell was waiting about the court expecting that there would be an indictment, and surrendered himself at once. He declares that the proceedings against him are the result of a union fight against him, because he refused to deal with the union men here. Foreman Brown of the jury reported to Judge Ester that three members living on Hawaii wanted to go home. No order was made in the matter as the jury will probably make a final report on Monday.

ONLY TWO APPLICANTS

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS HELD TODAY.
Papers Sent for Superintendent of Construction and Typewriter—Many Vacancies Require Special Training.

The second and last examination for the civil service vacancies is being conducted today by Arthur B. Ingalls, gauger and examiner, and who was appointed superintendent of the Board of Examiners. Although the vacancies were numerous, many of them presupposed a technical education in various branches and, while there were numerous inquiries made and application blanks issued, only two bold hearts filled in the blanks and presented themselves for the test. One of these was William Dunbar, who was examined for the qualifications of a Superintendent of Construction last Saturday and Monday. The second is Alexander N. Cedarloff, a private in the coast artillery now stationed at Camp McKinley. Cedarloff is clerk at the post and did reportorial work for the daily papers of the town during the legislative session. He has been endeavoring to pass the tests for the position of typewriter this morning and will continue to do so this afternoon until 4 o'clock. The papers for the two contestants were sent sealed from Washington and were opened in neither case until the examined and applicant were ready to commence work. They will be sealed up again by Mr. Ingalls and forwarded to Washington whence the result will be given out at the pleasure of the Department, probably by the first of the year.

WEBSTER'S REAL SERVICE

FORWARDED ATTACHMENT TO THE UNION. Has been called the Expounder of the Constitution but He Did a Fair Soldier Work. Of Daniel Webster's speeches, Congressman McCall well and truly said in his oration at Dartmouth college that "they are good literature, and I doubt if in all of them a sentence can be found that is flippant or petty or mean." Now England has been proud of Webster with a reservation from the day he made the memorable 7th of March speech, and to this hour his memory is honored by what must always be sorrowfully regarded as his weak surrender to the slave power. Yet now when the intensities of that period have softened into a kinder disposition, the harsh judgments which Webster's course called forth are clearly seen to have been too harsh, and all the inclination is to forget the blot and to remember the glory of his career. Congressman McCall says, we think, marked the vital element of Webster's power while he was alive and his fame now that he is dead, in that he was neither flippant, petty or mean. Even where he was wrong and where a strict regard for the truth must never cease to admit that he was wrong, he was serious, and large, and comprehensive. He did not regard the affairs of his country as matters to be treated lightly, to be dismissed with a jesting phrase or a half-considered thought. The life of an American citizen was to him serious business, and he showed that it was serious in every line and every word of his speeches on public questions. In these later days, there have been flippant critics of Webster, propounding the theory that he could not now impress the people of the United States with his oratory—the language of the street, he would find himself a back number, if he attempted such speech as that found in his Dartmouth college argument, and in his reply to Hayne. Such comment shows nothing so much as it shows the shallowness of such critics, who fail to comprehend that his strength was in his being a sincere man free from flippant, pettiness or meanness. The cynical proverb, "No man is a hero to his valet," has met the apt response, "that that is because the valet is not a hero himself." And the attempt to belittle Webster, and especially the oratory of Webster, may well meet some such reply. Daniel Webster's chief service to the United States was not as the expounder of the constitution, to quote the long-familiar description. It was as the champion of the union. To him, more than to any one man, America owes the union which she has preserved behind her. I have not coolly weighed the chances of preserving liberty when the bonds that unite us together shall be broken asunder. I have not accustomed myself to hang over the precipice of disunion, to see whether, with my short sight, I can fathom the depth of the abyss below. I could not regard it as a safe counselor in the affairs of this government, whose thoughts should be mainly bent on considering, not how the union may be best preserved, but how tolerable might be the condition of the people when it should be broken up and destroyed. While the union lasts, we have high, exciting, gratifying prospects spread out before us, for us and our children. Beyond that I seek not to penetrate the veil. God grant that, in my day, at least, that curtain may not rise! God grant that on my vision never may be opened what lies behind! When my eyes shall be turned to behold for the last time the sun in heaven, may I not see him shining on the broken and dishonored fragments of a once glorious union; on states dis severed, discordant, belligerent; on a land rent with civil feuds, or drenched, it may be, in fraternal blood! Let their last feeble and lingering glance rather behold the gorgeous ensign of the republic, now known and honored throughout the earth, still full high advanced, its arms and trophies streaming in their original luster, nor a stripe erased or polluted, nor a single star obscured, bearing for its motto, no such miserable interrogatory as, "What is all this worth?" nor those other words of delusion and folly, "Liberty first and union afterwards"; but everywhere spread all over in characters of living light, blazing on all its ample folds, as they float over the sea and over land, and on every windy day, dear to every true American heart—"Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable!" Words like these were the seed which sprang up in the armies of the union, and in the millions of patriotic men and women who stood patiently behind those armies during the weary months in which the fate of the union was uncertain. If Daniel Webster afterwards incurred the displeasure of a sensitive moral sentiment, and in some sense tarnished his fame, let it be remembered to his lasting honor that he spoke for the union glowing words which have never ceased to shine.—New Bedford Republican Standard.

ART LEAGUE OFFICERS,

At the annual meeting of the Kilo-hana Art League held yesterday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Philip Dodge; vice-president, Miss A. N. Park; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Lilla G. Marshall; auditor, W. B. Castle Jr.; directors, W. B. Castle and E. A. H. Newcomb. The names of twenty-one applicants for membership in the League were proposed. Action will be taken upon these applicants at the next meeting.

GAME NEAR DYING,

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely. I went to sleep and did not awake for eight hours. On awaking a few hours ago I felt so gratified that the first work I do on going to the office is to write to the manufacturers of this remedy and offer them my grateful thanks and say, 'God bless you and the splendid medicine you make.'" This remedy is for sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

A THREATENED PORT.

Everything in this world is liable to change. There is no city so great that it cannot be ruined, no empire so firm that it does not suffer from the universal law of birth, growth, senile decay and death. As it is with the flower of the field so it is with the individual man, so it is with aggregations of men, whether in cities, governments or nations. We see these facts constantly repeated in history. We see the broken monuments of passed civilization, and yet we think that our own will last forever. Just as the new born infant carries within it the seeds of death, so do all nations carry within them the seeds of destruction. What is Babylon now, once the wonder of the world? A few mounds of burnt brick. What the once celebrated harbor of Rhodes, an unknown fishing port. The Greece of old is a memory, the Roman empire but a name. To come to modern times, Bristol once had the Atlantic trade, now for one ship that goes to Bristol five hundred go to Liverpool. Where are the tall ships of New Bedford, long since rotted away and the race of New Bedford whippers is no more.

It was Liverpool, which now ranks as one of the foremost ports of the world, that has aroused this train of ideas. Liverpool has considered her position as queen of the Atlantic trade as impregnable, just as San Francisco regards herself as queen of the Pacific. But Liverpool got a rude shock a month or so ago when the Berehaven scheme was developed, and a bill passed through Parliament for the construction of a pier and other shipping facilities, and the establishment of a line of steamers that would cross the Atlantic in four and one half days.

A reference to the map will readily show that Berehaven is admirably situated in a geological sense as the eastern terminus of a trans-Atlantic line, but, in truth, the southwestern and western coasts of Ireland have a number of harbors much nearer America and Liverpool, capable of accommodating the largest ships afloat. For many years Bantry Bay, in which is Berehaven Harbor, has been a rendezvous for the British fleet, and it is admitted to be one of the safest and most commodious harbors in the world. The passage of the Berehaven Harbor scheme bill in Parliament has revived reminiscences of other schemes having for their object the shortening of the sea passage between Europe and America. Most of these plans had in view the utilization of one of the numerous natural harbors of the west or southwestern coast of Ireland as the eastern terminus. None of these projects, however, has ever passed beyond the experimental stage.

After looking the matter over the Liverpoolians have come to the conclusion that they have nothing to fear from Berehaven and base their views on the following arguments:

1) The terminus of a steamship line should be within easy reach of the objective point of passengers. Berehaven does not meet this condition precedent. The objective point of most trans-Atlantic passengers is London or the Continent. In order to reach either point, passengers who disembarked at Berehaven would have to make an additional change to cross the Irish Sea.

(2) It is necessary for a terminus of a trans-Atlantic line, both on the European and American side to be convenient for the rapid and cheap distribution of cargo. The population of Ireland, as compared with the rest of the British Isles, is small, and indeed decreasing, and very little of American cargoes have Irish points as their ultimate destinations, and Ireland's exports to America are but small. The transshipment of cargo which would be necessary with Berehaven as the eastern steamship terminus seems to put that place out of the question.

(3) As a trans-Atlantic shipping terminus, Berehaven would be under the great disadvantage of having to bring coal from a considerable distance (Wales being the nearest point); there would be lacking an ample supply of seamen from whom to select crews, and the commissariat would be much more costly than from, say, Southampton or Liverpool.

To each and all of these the promoters of the Berehaven scheme have an answer, so though Liverpool merchants and steamship owners are not afraid, the danger still threatens. But while Liverpool shipping and commercial interests do not fear that Berehaven, or any other port on the west or southwest coast of Ireland, can become a rival of Liverpool, there is much speculation and some uneasiness as to the future of the trans-Atlantic trade. In this connection, the press and the public seem to be more apprehensive than the managers of the steamship lines. There is undoubtedly in Liverpool a deep-seated popular fear that the British steamship lines—and reference is more particularly made to the Liverpool lines—may be outdone by American and German enterprise. A great deal of apprehension exists among the British public as to the possible competition through the inevitable development of the American mercantile marine; and there is keen disappointment at the failure so far of the Liverpool companies to wrest "the Atlantic blue ribbon", from Germany. Here, one meets a sharply defined difference of views. The popular demand is for the construction of vessels that will not only excel in size the Deutschland and Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, but also surpass them in speed. The Liverpool steamship managers profess to believe that under present conditions, the limit of speed has been practically reached, from the standpoint of commercial success. The claim is made that it would not pay to build faster ships than those now running between New York and Liverpool.

So from several directions Liverpool is threatened. Should any of this competition really materialize the collapse of Liverpool would not be sudden, it would be gradual. But it is certainly a lesson in point that might well be taken to heart that commercial supremacy, and, in fact, any supremacy is not invulnerable. Especially is this true of San Francisco. The other Pacific ports are all reaching out for trade, and San Francisco has not shown that energy in meeting such competition as she should. She has felt herself too secure. But the opening out of new railroad lines has sapped her position of security and the time may come when she will no longer be the absolute arbiter of the destinies of the Pacific trade.

It takes more than brilliant writers and a set of types to make a paying newspaper, as many people have found to their cost.

The expense of holding a special election is considerable, much more than for the per capita of a general election. The law, however, requires it, and the law has to be obeyed. The election will be contested by the Republican party, and the Hilo district may look forward to a lively little campaign.

The news from Hamakua continues perfectly satisfactory. The drought is broken, and there will not be a recurrence of it for many years, in all probability. If the cattle can be kept off the young undergrowth as it comes up, there will soon be jungle in the forests which have so recently suffered from fire.

The Yachting Association has lost no time in inaugurating some races which will give interest to their frequent weekly outings. It has been a surprise to many visitors, that with such admirable facilities there has not been more interest taken in local yachting. The formation of the Hawaii Yacht Association will give an impetus to the sport which it has needed very much.

The work upon the mouth of Pearl Harbor has been delayed, through non-arrival of lumber, but it is safe to say that once it arrives the work will be hurried on as rapidly as possible. The deepening of the entrance to Pearl Harbor is by no means the Herculean task that it used to be considered. But then scientific engineering is very much advanced since first the subject of deepening was broached.

Since there has been a market for curious specimens of fish, a considerable number are brought in. Formerly odd specimens, having no market value were promptly heaved overboard, and only those fish which were marketable were kept. The visit of the fish commission has, however, had its effect upon the fishermen, and they are eager to preserve rare specimens. There will be a much larger list of Hawaiian fishes than was ever expected by the naturalists, and the list is likely to grow from year to year until all our finny tribe is catalogued.

The next international navigation congress will be held at Dusseldorf, Germany, June 29 to July 6, 1902. There will be two sections, one for inland, the other for ocean navigation. In the former the following will be discussed: Hoisting machinery; coal transportation on canals; dams; mechanical starting of vessels; the utilization of water power of locks for generating electricity. In the section for ocean transportation, discussion will touch: The use of lighter ships on the seas; the construction and maintenance of dry and repair docks; the construction and cost of dredging machinery.

Captain Pfeuillin, who was present at the defence of Orleans remarked upon the likeness between Wales and Macedon. Were he now with us he might have dwelt upon the likeness between Oahu and Oregon, but Shakespeare knew neither Oahu nor Oregon. Pfeuillin remarked "There be rivers in Wales and rivers in Macedon, and there is saumons in both." The modern Pfeuillin might draw the comparison "There be sea coasts in Oregon and sea coasts in Oahu, and there is saumons on both." Unfortunately the Hawaiian "saumon" proves to be no "saumon," but something akin to it, so the comparison falls.

The Star figured out yesterday that the cost of the Tilley court will be about $150,000. Suppose it should be proved that Captain Tilley was not on a jag at all, it might be in order to collect this from the gentlemen who brought the charge. It is quite possible that the charges may not be substantiated. It would have been cheaper to have given accusers, witnesses and accused first class tickets by the Spreckels line and lodge them at the Palace hotel. But under those circumstances perhaps charges might become frequent. A bill for the cost of the exposition might have a more deterrent effect.

AUSTRALIA THIRD EXCLUSION BEFORE. Plantations Got Short of Labor and the Law Was Repealed—Many Island Laborers Employed.

The "Kanakas Labor" bill which is causing a lot of discussion in Australia is not the first measure of the kind that has been before the lawmakers of the Colonies. Ten years ago the same subject was brought up, and at that time Queensland passed a law excluding all Pacific Island laborers.

There are large numbers of "Kanakas" as they are called, employed in the Colonies, and they are just as necessary as the imported laborers in Hawaii today are necessary to this Territory.

A VERSATILE MONARCH

OSCAR II. POET, MUSICIAN, DRAMATIST AND ARTIST. An Eloquent Orator and Most Accomplished Living Sovereign—Modest and Unostentatious.

Oscar II. of Sweden is probably the most accomplished and versatile of all living sovereigns. He is an accomplished musician and composer, a poet, a novelist, a painter in water colors, reads and writes eight languages and speaks five.

His music and artistic work are a diversion from the cares of state, and every afternoon when he comes from the council chamber or his office he usually sits at the piano for an hour or so trying the latest music and his old favorites.

It is gratifying for foreigners who have the privilege of an audience with the King of Sweden to find him able to converse with them in their own language. Few people outside of Scandinavia speak Swedish, but the king can converse freely in English, French, German and Norwegian, and invariably conducts his interviews with the ministers from those countries in their native tongue.

who have used it, or are now using it, we have never heard of any one who has been disappointed in it. No claims are made for it except those which are amply justified by experience. In commending it to the afflicted we simply point to its record. It has done great things, and it is certain to continue the excellent work. There is—we may honestly affirm—no medicine which can be used with greater and more reasonable faith and confidence. It nourishes and keeps up the strength during those periods when the appetite fails and food cannot be digested. To guard against imitations this trade mark is put on every

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Taken before meals it creates an appetite, aids digestion, renews vital power, drives out disease germs, makes the blood rich, red and full of constructive elements and gives back to the pleasures and labors of the world many who had abandoned hope. Dr. S. H. McCoy, of Canada, says: "I testify with pleasure to its unlimited usefulness as a tissue builder." Its curative powers can always be relied upon. It makes a new era in medicine. Nerve Tonic Builds up the System. Strengthens. This warm climate is very trying to all. The blood easily becomes impure and the nervous system greatly debilitated. But you can retain your health and keep your nervous system strong. This is the portrait of Mr. William Fanning, of Neasonsfield, Fremantle, Western Australia. In his letter he says:

"Upon arriving in Western Australia three years ago, I found that my blood was in bad condition and my nervous system all run down. I suffered greatly, especially from indigestion. I had heard so much about AYER'S Sarsaparilla I thought I would try it. I did so, and only three bottles restored my strength, built up my system, and cured my dyspepsia. And I had also found it a grand nerve tonic."

MADISON AND LOUISIANA THE PART HE PLAYED IN THE PURCHASE

As Secretary of State He Wrote the Instructions That Secured Our Mississippi—Something of His Career.

Next after Jefferson, James Madison, the "Father of the Constitution," as he was called by his contemporaries, is entitled to the credit of a quarter of a century ago the vast territory was immediately secured through the Louisiana Purchase.

He was throughout Jefferson's public life his most intimate friend and adviser, and almost political lieutenant. He was chosen by Jefferson's cabinet for the extension of our western boundaries, and at the beginning of the agitation of the Mississippi river question he had written an able and exhaustive treatise on the right of our western settlers to the free navigation of that river. Through a Jeffersonian position in the opposition to Washington's administration, he was naturally a mild and conciliatory in his bearing, and so far in controversy, that he never lost the personal confidence and regard of his political opponents, and President Washington consulted him often. As Jefferson's Secretary of State for eight years more, he was the chief negotiator with Great Britain, France, Spain, and other diplomatic representatives in all steps leading up to and pending the negotiation of the treaty, and was earnest in promoting the subsequent measures taken to secure possession of the almost limits of the vested territory.

James Madison, the son of a planter in Orange County, Va., was born in King George County, while his mother was away from home on a visit, March 18, 1751, and he died June 28, 1836, the last surviving member of the first generation that made our present Constitution. After graduating as B. A. in 1771, he remained at Princeton College, studying under its President until he became very delicate from over-study, and he remained so for a long time. His participation in the revolutionary movements of the day, including the famous Williamsburg Convention, in May, 1776, which adopted a declaration of rights, and a plan of independent government for Virginia, his service in the Virginia Council of State for two years, and his continuous service in the Continental Congress from 1774 to 1783, gave a new direction to his studies, making him painfully aware of all the defects of the government under the old Articles of Confederation and in the end he made himself more profoundly acquainted than any other man of his day with the features, merits, defects and tendencies of all the governments that had ever existed. He did more than any other man to call the Convention of 1787 into being; more than any other man to give our Constitution its form and substance; more than any other man to secure its adoption by Virginia and the other states.

Retiring from the Presidency in 1817, he devoted the last twenty years of his life to agricultural pursuits on his Montpelier estate, but never lost his interest in literature and politics, continuing to be consulted to the last by statesmen as an oracle on all Constitutional questions. During the time she presided over the White House, Mrs. Madison became scarcely less famous, and even more popular than her husband. She gave the Mansion a social eclat it never had before, and has never attained since, excepting, perhaps, during the four years of Mrs. James K. Polk's residence there, as a gracious and charming hostess. The latter was often classed as the peer of Mrs. Madison, but the retired statesman who no longer spent their winters in Washington would shake their heads, as if to intimate that the admirers of Mrs. Polk did not know Mrs. Madison. Both long survived their husbands, and were held in veneration by the whole country as long as they lived.

Rufus Wilmot Griswold's "Republican Court, or American Society in the Days of Washington" says of Mrs. James Madison: "Dolly Payne, born in North Carolina, had been educated according to the strict rules of the Quakers, in Philadelphia, where at an early age she married a young lawyer of this sect, named Todd; but becoming a widow, she threw off drab silks and plain laces, and was for several years one of the gayest and most fascinating women of the city. She had many lovers, but she gave the preference to Mr. Madison, and became his wife in 1794."

NEW FEDERAL COURT RULES. United States Judge Estee yesterday adopted new rules for his court, requiring that parties to actions shall pay costs in advance and that answers and other pleadings shall be verified. The rules are as follows: No. 125—In all civil actions, tried by a jury, where the United States is not party, each party shall deposit with the clerk of the court the sum of $24, being the amount of the fees of the jury for said day; and if the finding of the verdict, the party in whose favor said verdict shall be found, shall through said clerk, pay the fees in his cost bill as costs against the losing party. The funds deposited by the losing party shall, upon the coming in of the verdict, be returned to him by the clerk.

RAPID TRANSIT EXTENSION. The contract for the extension of the Rapid Transit road from King and Liliha streets to the fertilizer works, a distance of one and nine tenths miles was signed yesterday. The work is to be completed within ten weeks from November 1, with a penalty of $100 a day for each day after this period that the work is delayed. The contractor is J. S. Makee.

NEW GOVERNMENT STABLES. The live stock, water sprinklers and wagons of the government are to be placed in a new stable at Kakaako as soon as the necessary funds are available. The plans have already been drawn and the lots are now being graded in anticipation of the new buildings. The entrance to the stables will be on Keawe street and the latter besides the harness room and shed for the rolling stock will have accommodation for eighty horses. The plans throughout have been drawn with reference to easy egress in case of fire. Fine Job Printing, Star Office.

CHIEFTAIN HORRIP. One or Possibly Two Games To Be Played Today. The football game this afternoon is timed for four o'clock on the college grounds, between the Punahou Athletics and the Hackbells. It has been generally understood that the Punahou athletes consist of the alumni of the college, but this is not the case, the club being merely an athletic association that has the right to secure the services of any player. The Hackbells will line up as follows: Center, Nottley; I. G., Renear; P. G., Bob Hanson; T. G., Matlock; L. G., Engstrom; R. G., Clarke; L. B., Spencer; R. B., K. Morse; I. B., Harrison; T. B., Kiebaum; G. Gurry.

The Punahou have not yet decided definitely upon positions. Four or five shifts will be made during the game by way of experiment, to ascertain just in what position a man does the best work. The following will play: J. Waterhouse, captain; W. Williamson, George Waterhouse, George Fuller, W. Walker, A. Walker, W. Greenwell, F. Armstrong, J. Marcellino, A. Maxwell, A. Judd, L. Robinson, Kimball and Leachman. Soper will not play, as he is going to Pearl Harbor with the yacht. Hemensway with a severe neck wrench and Robinson, with the ligaments of his ankle torn away, both casualties from last Saturday's game, are out of the playing for awhile.

The first and second teams of the Male Gymnasts will play at Punahou this afternoon. Hackford and Company and T. H. Dayles and Company may put forth teams for the Association League. There will be a general meeting of the "copy men" on Monday evening at the Scottish Thistle club at eight o'clock for the purpose of organizing a league. The Artillery will not put a team in the field until they are in better fettle.

BASEBALL TODAY. The second set of the second series of League games will be played at Makiki this afternoon between the baseball game nine of, first, the Capitol and Hall teams and, second, the Police and Customs. The line-up shows as follows. The present percentage stands: Custom House, 100; Hall and Son, 60; Police and Capitol, each 25.

Table listing baseball players and their teams: Capitol, Hall, Mahelona, Gunha, Kaanoi, Kiwa, Aha, Paris, Vanilla, Price, Williams, Kani, S. Chillingworth, Wilikoi, Ayelet, Hansen, Yates, Police, Gorman, Leslie, Clark, Joy, Scanlon, Chillingworth, Nowell, Duncan, Elston, Akau, Tucker, A. Moosman, Bowers, C. Davis, Gay, Kamae.

BALL TONIGHT. The Trades and Labor Council will give a benefit ball at the Drill Shed this evening. The committees in charge are as follows: Reception, J. C. Brown, Thomas McRae, P. O'Donnell, J. Black, W. Allen, T. Hayes, E. W. A. Christensen and F. T. McLaughlin; Floor, J. T. Greenwood, floor manager; J. Nolin, Albert Owens, William Gitt, Carl Taylor, C. A. West, P. O'Donnell, Walter Gunn and W. P. O'Brien, assistants.

CHINESE AND JESSE JAMES. The Youths' Dramatic Club will repeat their success "Jesse James Oath" to an audience of Celestials this evening at the Chinese theatre. The entertainment will be followed with an inspiration from a Chinese dramatist. Jesse James should amply satisfy the Oriental as it contains at least thirty-two killings by knife, poison and revolver, winding up with a general holocaust of gore.

HEBREWS TO MEET. Plan a Cemetery for Persons of Their Faith. There will be a meeting of the Hebrews of Honolulu at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Progress Hall. For some time a permanent organization has been in contemplation the particular object of which is to provide a cemetery for Hebrews and a fund for burying strangers of that race who may die here. Since the increase of immigration to Hawaii following annexation has set in, the need has been felt more than ever before, and there have been several instances accentuating this need. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at this meeting and that sufficient interest will be manifested to enable the plans to be carried through at once.

DRUM-HEAD CONVERSION.
War Cry Scores a "Beat" on its Island
Contemporaries.

The current number of the War Cry
"scooped" the entire Island press in the following under the heading "The First Drum-Head Conversion on Record in Hawaii."

"Hilo, Hawaii.—The past week has been one of victory. The Lord has been with us and we have conquered in His strength. We have opened up two outposts, Waiakoa and Olaa. At Waiakoa a drunken man knelt at the drum-head and professed conversion. He seemed in earnest and his conversion will mean a good deal to him as he was earning a large salary and spending it all for drink. This is the first drumhead conversion on record in Hilo, but we believe it will not be the last. The drum makes a good persistent form. At Olaa I was entertained by Mrs. Captain Giffette, who with her three children helped us in the night meeting. The audience was mostly native, only a few whites. A native interpreted for me and at the close of the meeting he gave his heart to God and got saved. Hallelujah! He is able to save to the utter-most all who come unto God by Him."
J. H. Ramberry, Captain.

NEW CHAPEL AT AIEA.
The Japanese Methodists are planning to build a new church at Aiea. Money is being collected for the purpose, and the erection of the building is expected to commence in a few weeks. The structure as it is planned will provide a chapel for church services, a reading room and school rooms.

BOSTON CONCERT COMPANY.
"Bernhard Walthar the great Belgian violinist has taken Halifax by storm," says the Western Chronicle. Halifax
"Bernhard Walthar, as a violinist is so fine that he will soon have an international reputation. This unfortunately means we shall never hear him again in our small town," says the Daily Journal, Carson City, Nevada. It
Of Newton, Fred Emerson. Brooks says: "Newton is a humorist who makes you laugh. He is one of the greatest character delineators. He is the character he presents, and his facial expression cannot be excelled. When he is done you wonder how one man could faithfully represent so many people. His recitals are so intensely interesting that one has to hustle to keep up with his changing moods. The audience is hardly done one laugh before laughing again, and often there's a tear between the laughs."
"Lillian Norma has a wonderful me-z-zo soprano voice. Her articulation is so clear that every word of the songs can be distinctly heard. She has a charming stage presence," says the Courier, Liverpool, England.

Some of our best musical people who have heard members of the Boston Concert Company hope that this strong company will be able to stop over here on their way to New Zealand and Australia in the latter part of November.

A Wineglassful of Health

Is your stomach disordered? Is your digestion impaired? Are you in a weak and run-down condition? Are your nerves out of order?

If so take a wineglassful of Royal Malt Extract

Three times a day with your meals. One dozen bottles contain more strengthening properties than a whole cask of ale or porter.

Royal Malt Extract, the kind made from ripe barley, nourishes and invigorates during convalescence. Always helps—never hinders—puts the whole system right. If you get the genuine Royal Malt Extract you will not be disappointed in results.

25c. bottle or $2.50 by the dozen.

Shirts Sacrificed News for Men this Week. The New York shirt manufacturers are already showing their 1932 patterns of shirts. Anomalous as it may seem, these shirts will be worn on the streets of Honolulu before they are seen on Broadway. That's because it's always summer here. We have ordered our quota of the new shirts and in order to make way for them, we place the balance of the old stock on sale at 35 Cents apiece. Don't make the mistake of thinking that these are inferior shirts,—just because they are cheap. They are regular dollar shirts of fine Madras, solid colors and perfect fit. A dollar does today what it would have taken three to do a few short months ago. With the negligee shirts we have placed a few fine LAUNDERED WHITE SHIRTS which will go at the same price 35 Cents. As a bait? Well, yes, as an extra inducement to get you men coming in here for your furnishings. These shirts are of "Wachusett" and "Garland" manufacture, with fine 240 linen bosoms and wristbands, felled seams, reinforced back and front, and with long full dress, or short bosoms. But there are not many of them, so you'll have to step lively, gentlemen, if you would participate in the spoils. Three for a Dollar. Whitney Marsh Ltd. See Lining dept. GILBERT'S For FAST BLACKS
