Weakened Vitality IMPOVERISHED BLOOD.

Read what Ayer's Sarsaparilla did for the Rev. Z. P. Wilds, a well-known city missionary in New York and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds:

"I was for many years a sufferer from boils and other eruptions of a like nature, caused by the impoverished state of my blood. My appetite was poor and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by observation of the good it had done to others,
I began taking it. My

Appetite Improved

almost from the first dose; then my general health improved, and now it is excellent. I feel a hundred per cent. stronger, and I attribute this result to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised."

IT IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

SO THE INCOME TAX ACT IS PRO-NOUNCED TO BE.

Justice Frear Dissents from the Majority of the Court in a Lengthy Opinion.

By a majority decision of the Supreme Court rendered today,
the Income Tax Act of 1896 is declared to be unconstitutional.
Chief Justice Judd writes the controlling opinion, of which the following is the syllabus:

"An Act entitled, 'An Act to provide revenue for the Government by the assessment and collection of tax on income,' held to be unconstitutional and void, on the ground that Section 1 of the Act imposes the tax in violation of Article II of the Constitution, which requires that taxation must be proportional."

There were two petitions for injunction against Jonathan Shaw, Tax Assessor in Chief, to restrain him from collecting the tax.
One was by James Campbell, a wealthy individual, indicating ten points of unconstitutionality in the Act. The other was by the Honolulu Iron Works Co., a corporation, giving fourteen reasons why the Act should be declared unconstitutional. Demurrers were presented and argued to both complaints, which being overruled by the Court the Act is made null and void.

Second Associate Justice W. A.
Whiting concurs in the decision
by writing as follows:

"I agree with the opinion of the Chief Justice in so far as it declares the law unconstitutional as being in violation of Article II of the Constitution, for the reason that there is an unjust discrimination in the imposition of the tax on incomes over $4000 without the allowance of the exemption given to those having a less income. The exemption of $2000 of income from taxation ought to be allowed to all, in order that each member of society may bear his proportion or share of the burdens of taxation. The Legislature may classify the objects of taxation, but when classification
there must be no discrimination.
I am of opinion that the division of the income under Section 1 of the Income Tax Act of 1896 into $2000, $2000
—$4000 and $4000 and over, is not classification of objects of taxation.
I also agree that the whole Act falls, and the demurrer should be overruled."

First Associate Justice Frear
dissents at length from his brethren. His conclusion is as follows:

"So far as the three points discussed are concerned, I cannot find that the Legislature has proceeded arbitrarily or without real grounds for classification, or with any other purpose than to equalize the burdens of taxation. The tax is uniform upon all those within each class. With the various provisions of the statute so far as questions of policy are concerned, the Court has nothing to do. The strong presumption is that the Legislature acted within its constitutional power and that presumption has not been overcome.
I have treated the subject at such length because of its importance."

"The three points referred to"
—quoting Justice Frear's words—
"are (1) the $2000 exemption or the discrimination between incomes over and under $2000, (2)
the partial exemption of incomes under $4000 or the discrimination between incomes over and under $4000, and (3) the non-exemption of corporate incomes or the discrimination between individual and corporate incomes." The dissenting Justice proceeds to discuss whether these discriminations are unconstitutional, finding in the negative as above set forth in his conclusion.
Section 1 of the Act in question
is as follows:

"Section 1. From and after the first day of July, A. D. 1897, there shall be levied, assessed,
collected and paid annually upon the gains, profits and income derived by every person residing in the Republic, and by every person
residing without the Republic, from all property owned and every business, trade, profession, employment or vocation carried on in the Republic, wherever residing, a tax of one per cent on the amount so derived; provided that where the gains, profits or income of any such person who resides within the Republic, or of any servant or officer of the Republic wherever residing, shall not have exceeded the sum of Four Thousand Dollars for the preceding twelve months, only so much of such gains, profits or income as exceeds the sum of Two Thousand Dollars shall be liable to such tax, and the tax herein provided for shall be assessed by the assessors and collectors for the time being for the several tax divisions of the Republic, and collected and paid upon the gains, profits and income for the year ending the 30th day of June next preceding the time for levying, assessing, collecting and paying the said tax."

And the 10th Article of the Constitution divided into two sections, declared to be violated by Section 1 of the Act, reads thus:

"Sec. 1.—No subsidy, duty or tax, of any description, shall be established or levied without the consent of the Legislature; nor shall any money be drawn from the Public Treasury without such consent, except in the manner
directed by this Constitution.

"Sec. 2.—Each member of society has the right to be protected in the enjoyment of his life, liberty and property, according to law; and, therefore, he shall be obliged to contribute his proportion or share to the expense of this protection; and to give his personal services, or an equivalent,
when necessary as may be provided by law.

Private Flags of Various Officials of the United States.

Special flags of the United States not generally seen include those of the President and Cabinet officers. Of these the flag of the Secretary of War is the newest and in fact has only this year been produced. This flag is of scarlet bunting, the fly measuring 12 ft. and the hoist 6 ft. 8 in. In the center is an eagle with outstretched wings, bearing upon its breast a United States shield. The eagle, which is the same as that on the National arms, holds in its right talon an olive branch with red berries, and in its left a bunch of arrows. In its beak is a scroll with the motto "E Pluribus Unum." In the field of the shield are two rows of stars, six in the upper and seven in the lower row. There is also a large white star in each of the four corners of the flag itself. Provision has likewise been made for a smaller, nearly square flag of silk, in the same design. This latter is officially known as the "colors" of the Secretary of War.

The special flag of the President of the United States is similar to the one just described, and the new design is evidently a modification of the older one. The only difference between the two are that the President's flag is of blue instead of scarlet bunting, and has instead of the four white stars in the corners, a row of thirteen smaller white stars curving around and above the eagle. The Secretary of the Navy has a much simpler flag than either of the above. Upon the blue field there is an anchor, and the four white stars are in the corners, as in the emblem of the Secretary of War. With the exception of the flags of the Admiral, Vice-Admiral, Commodore and other officers of the Navy, the three flags described above are the only special ones belonging to Government officials.

The Naval Regulations give explicit orders for the use of the President's flag when he visits a ship of war. At the moment he steps upon the deck the flag is displayed at the main, and is kept flying there as long as he is on board. A national salute is fired immediately after the flag raising. When the President leaves the ship there is another salute, and the flag is hauled down at the firing of the last gun. The flag of the Secretary of the Navy is displayed at the main during the time that the Secretary remains on board of any war vessel. There has not yet been any occasion for the use of the new flag of the Secretary of War, but like the others, its display will indicate the presence of the Secretary, either afloat or ashore.—Marine Journal.

THE UMPIRE'S SCORN.

He Knew His Skin and Was Not at All Alarmed.

Melancholy had been doing her best to mark the umpire for her own, but up to the eighth inning she had not been able to leave a dint. He was one of the few whom nature seems to have especially fitted for the responsibilities thrust upon them in this life.

"T'ree strikes nottin'" was the loud, laconic comment which caused the umpire to look upon him with a majestic glare and exclaim: "What's dat?" "I said t'ree strikes nottin, an' dat's whut."

The altercation proceeded until, in a paroxysm of indignation, the player lifted his bat as a weapon.

"Look out!" shouted one of the players. "He's goin to hit ye."

But the umpire never flinched.

"Don't ye have no fears," he said as he stood in statuesque defiance. "After wunt he's been doin at the lat I don't feel that I'm runnin no risks whatever. He may strike at me, but there ain't any mortal chance of his touchin anything."

5th Evening Bulletin,

By the President of the Republic of Hawaii.

DANIEL LOGAN, Editor.

THURSDAY, AUG. 26, 1897.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, A treaty of political union between the Republic of Hawaii and the United States of America has been made by the President with the approval of the Cabinet, in accordance with Article 32 of the Constitution, and has been signed by the representatives of both Governments:

Now, therefore, I, SANFORD B. DOLE, President of the Republic of Hawaii, by virtue of the power conferred upon me by Article 28 of the Constitution, hereby convene the Senate in Special Session at the Executive Building in Honolulu, at 12 o'clock noon, on WEDNESDAY, the Eighth Day of September, A. D. 1897, for the consideration of the question of the ratification of the said treaty of annexation and for the dispatch of other public business.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the Republic of Hawaii, this Twenty-fifth day of August, A. D. 1897.

(Seal)

SANFORD B. DOLE.

Senator White's article against annexation in the Forum is ably answered by the Chronicle of August 15. Regarding the mixture of races in Hawaii, the San Francisco paper says: "If the great national stomach is unable to assimilate so small a mouthful of mixed food, there is a treatment in order for dyspepsia." The article occupies a column and a third.

It has been decided by the Tax Appeal Board at Hilo that the law does not exempt coffee lands from taxation. They should not be exempt permanently, but it might be sound policy to make them so until their maiden crops are borne.

Some words put in the wrong place, correcting proof yesterday, confused part of the leading editorial.

the Aurora. He says he located the place where he can lay his hands on $30,000,000, but Captain Hackett refused to sign an agreement to give him half. Mrs. Trevan, the widow of the Cape Breton skipper who left charts of the island and the hiding place of the treasure, returned with the rest. Two men were left on the island to continue the search. The story is that the late Captain Trevan came away from the island with a small load of the stuff, but his schooner was wrecked on the coast, some of the crew being lost. On his return home the skipper spent the rest of his days making charts of the treasure island in the Pacific.

THE GOLD FIELDS.

Edward Thorp writes his brother that he had cleared up $130,000 on the Klondike in eight weeks and was coming home. He left Seattle a year ago, going north with a drove of cattle.

H. W. Snowden of San Francisco paid $1000 for the delivery of 2000 pounds of freight on the other side of the mountains.

Many are returning from the trail, dismayed at the hardships ahead. Auction sales of outfits are of daily occurrence.

One report is that White Pass is superior to Chilecot, and another the very reverse.

Families including little children are overtaken wearily trailing the gold fields.

There are reports of rich strikes on the Stewart river, on the American side, the discoveries being richer than those on the Klondike.

Twelve Canadian custom house officers are stationed at Skagway, to collect duties on miners' outfits, and they are backed by mounted police.

The Old Dominion line steamer City of Columbia has been bought at New York for a Klondike expedition and will make the voyage to Dawson City, Alaska, via the Straits of Magellan, touching at West Indies, South American and Panama ports. She will sail from New York with 400 passengers on October 1.

Hundreds of prospectors from far and near are rushing to Trinity county, the "Klondike" of northern California. Ledges twelve feet wide are mentioned. The rock is free milling and smelting.

An exchange of American and Canadian mails will be made at Dawson City. Curiously, propositions to that effect from both sides crossed each other in transmission between Washington and Ottawa.

A letter received at Victoria from the Deputy Minister of the Interior indicates that the Dominion Government will not waive its claim to royalty on the Klondike output, justifying the tax on the ground of the great expense of making the gold fields accessible and safe.

Havana, Aug. 18.—It is reported at a late hour that the forces of General Gomez have entered Santa Clara city. The important town of Trinidad, Santa Clara province, has been raided by the insurgents, who plundered all the principal stores, securing a large amount of provisions and ammunition. The Spanish garrison made a stubborn resistance, but could not prevent the Cubans from entering the town. At Santo, Santiago de Cuba province, Colonel Vara del Rey reports a hard engagement between his column and several Cuban bands. Losses were heavy on both sides, though the Spanish, as usual, claim victory.

Berlin, August 18.—The Vossische Zeitung says that Minister Woodford will impress upon the Spanish Government that autonomy for Cuba must be preceded by the withdrawal of the Spanish troops from the island. If General Woodford's mission fails, President McKinley has decided to take further steps, which he will announce by a special message to Congress.

London, August 19.—The correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at Berlin says: It is understood that Mr. White, the United States Ambassador to Germany, has gone to Paris to meet General Stewart L. Woodford, the newly appointed United States Minister to Spain, for a conference as to the best method of presenting American views as to Cuba at Madrid.

Timely Topics

August 19, 1897.

This week we want to call the attention of the public to the excellence of the AERMOTOR WINDMILLS for which we are the sole agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The merits of these windmills are so well known that their repetition would be tiresome. It is sufficient to state that the Aermotors will run when all others are at a standstill. They are self-regulating, requiring no attention whatever beyond an occasional drop of oil. There are more Aermotors sold in the islands than all other makes of windmills combined.

Among those who have recently purchased Aermotors of us may be mentioned Minister Damon, who has one at Moanalua; Minister Cooper one at his new Manoa mansion; Paul Isenberg is so well satisfied with them that he has no less than four at his Waialae place. We can show an Aermotor Windmill in actual operation which pumps water 4000 feet to an elevation of 190 feet. There is no other that will do this. We can furnish the Aermotor with pumping mills or geared to run machinery. These latter will perform all the work of a one to four horse power engine.

In connection with these windmills we supply Gould's and Krogh's triple acting siphon and other pumps and patent water tanks of 500, 1000, 2000, 3000, 5000 and 10,000 gallons capacity.

Agate Ware.

Do you know that a great deal of ware is sold in this market under the general term indicated above but in which there must be a wide divergence of quality. If cost counts for anything, take buckets for instance. A genuine agate 4 qt sealed Bucket costs you 50 cents at our store. The same size in Peerless ware would realize the same percentage of profit if sold for 30 cents. The moral is obvious. We do not handle the cheap grades in enameled ware but will sell you the best quality known to the trade as low as the same can honestly be sold. Our shelves contain the most complete stock of these goods ever imported to this market. Call and inspect same.

Farmers' Boilers

We have stocked a complete assortment of these convenient cauldron cookers for coal or wood. Useful for cooking all manner of food for stock, heating water in quantities, etc. Size of cauldron from 15 to 65 gallons capacity. Along with these we have a large line Cook Stoves and Ranges, Water-coils and Boilers which will bear inspection. If in need of anything in this line, examine our stock and get our prices before making your purchases.

Menacing Residents Return Home—The Big Vessel Loaded Almost to the Limit.

The Oceanic Steamship Company's Alameda arrived from San Francisco bright and early this morning. Prominent among her passengers were:

A. de S. Canavarro, Charge d' Affaires and Consul General for Portugal at this port, who has been away on a two months vacation.

Professor F. A. Hoamer of Oahu college, who has been away on a short business trip in the interests of that institution.

Miss Adeline E. Knapp, the well-known writer and correspondent on the staff of the San Francisco Call, who comes in the interests of that paper. Miss Knapp was here in 1893 for several months and is a writer of more than ordinary ability.

Robert Halstead, owner of Wai- alua plantation, returning with Mrs. and Miss Halstead from a trip to California.

C. D. Chase, the real estate man and broker, who brings a bride with him.

Frank Dillingham, the new United States Consul-General to Auckland, New Zealand, en route to his post of duty. Mr. Dillingham is accompanied by his wife and two children and hails from the State of Vermont.

Hon. J. S. Udall, Attorney-General at Fiji, who stops off at Apia on his way to Suva.

Hon. A. Brassey, M. P., brother of Lord Brassey, the present Governor General of New South Wales, accompanied by the Misses Brassey.

Hon. J. P. Bray, the new United States Consul-General to Melbourne, who goes to assume the duties of his office.

The big steamer has over 2000 tons of freight on board, principally for the Colonies, her deck load alone consisting of over 400 tons of apples and onions, while the remainder is made up of machinery, leather, canned goods, dried fruits, bales of overalls (a large shipment), doors, sugar pine lumber, paper, coffee, barley and a hundred and one other articles, not forgetting bicycles, which are sold cheaper in Sydney and Melbourne than they are in California.

Decision of Supreme Court Regarding Wakefield and Wise.

A decision of the Supreme Court has been handed down on the "information for misconduct" against F. M. Wakefield and W. S. Wise, members of the bar. Though required to show cause why they should not be disbarred, and were not able to justify their conduct upon hearing, the Court is content with passing censure upon the respondents and condemning them to pay costs amounting to about $250.

The syllabus of decision runs thus: "It is censurable conduct for an attorney while acting for a client in one matter to bring an action closely connected with it against him, having as its ulterior object actual and prospective gain to themselves."

Apenta Never Falls!

The hundreds of sufferers from constipation in this country compel one to believe that nature needs assistance to overcome the torpidity of the liver, which in most cases is the sole cause of constipation.

EVERY

When a person is suffering from headache or a feeling of fatigue, the chances are ten to one that the liver is inactive. A few doses of APENTA WATER will invariably bring about a most satisfactory result.

DOSE

APENTA WATER is a true spring water obtained from a spring at Buda Pest, and has not been artificially treated. The taste is not unpleasant, the dose small and the effect positive.

EFFECTIVE.

The price of APENTA WATER is very reasonable. The large bottles at 25 cents are the exact size of most mineral waters that sell at 50 cents. Trial bottles are sold at 15 cents. You should give it a trial.

The Vote Was Secured.

An ex-M. P. who contested a highland constituency in the sixties tells the following anecdote: Once, after a long and fatiguing day's canvass, I tackled a dissenting minister, who was very keen upon the subject of getting the bishops out of the house of lords, and in pursuance of his favorite hobby he asked me: "Well, sir, what are you prepared to do about the bishops?"

I was irritated and fatigued by my day's work, and I testily muttered, "Oh, hang the bishops!"

The minister bowed and replied: "Well, sir, you go rather beyond me there. I cannot undertake to go altogether that length with you, but you shall have my vote."—Pearson's Weekly.

Bubbles or Medals.

"Best sarsaparillas." When you think of it how contradictory that term is. For there can be only one best in anything—one best sarsaparilla, as there is one highest mountain, one longest river, one deepest ocean. And that best sarsaparilla is—? . . . There's the rub! You can measure mountain height and ocean depth, but how test sarsaparilla? You could if you were chemists. But then do you need to test it? The World's Fair Committee tested it,—and thoroughly. They went behind the label on the bottle. What did this sarsaparilla test result in? Every make of sarsaparilla shut out of the Fair, except Ayer's. So it was that Ayer's was the only sarsaparilla admitted to the World's Fair. The committee found it the best. They had no room for anything that was not the best. And as the best, Ayer's Sarsaparilla received the medal and awards due its merits. Remember the word "best" is a bubble any breath can blow; but there are pins to prick such bubbles. Those others are blowing more "best sarsaparilla" bubbles since the World's Fair pricked the old ones. True, but Ayer's Sarsaparilla has the medal. The pin that scratches the medal proves it gold. The pin that pricks the bubble proves it wind. We point to medals, not bubbles, when we say: The best sarsaparilla is Ayer's.

Before giving your order for a portrait, see what King Bros. have to show in crayon enlargements and judge for yourself whether they can give you the best value for your money or not.

When you have a portrait enlarged see that you get your money's worth. King Bros. have reduced prices to $5.00, $6.50, $7.50 and $10.00 for work that they guarantee to be firstclass. They invite comparison.

It's one thing to take an order for a portrait and quite another to fill it satisfactorily. King Bros' portraits have always been known to give satisfaction and now that they have reduced their prices so low, an extra inducement is offered. See what they have before you invest.

We don't expect you to give us the preference if what we have to sell is inferior or our prices higher than our rivals, but when we offer a superior article for less money, you do yourself a wrong by not looking into the matter. Call and see our samples of portrait work. King Bros., 110 Hotel street.

No successor has been yet named for the position of collector of customs and will not probably be until the first of December.

The C & A S S Aorangi is expected from Wellington [having left there Aug 15] next Saturday, and the S S Warrimoo will follow in about a week later.

The following departures from San Francisco are noted: Schooner Transit for Honolulu, Aug 19; barkentine Archer for Honolulu, Aug 14; schooner John G North for Honoipu, Aug 14; bark Rodrick Dhu for Hilo, Aug 16.

The following are late arrivals in San Francisco: Aug 13, brig Lurline, 20 days from Kahului with sugar; Aug 14, bark Mauna Ala, 28 days from Honolulu in ballast; Aug 15, bark Diamond Head, 30 days from Honolulu with sugar.

The USS Marion expects to sail about 4 o'clock this afternoon for San Francisco. Goodbyes have been said and sea stores and coal are on board. Captain Book will probably make slow time—about a month—to destination by slow steam and sail most of the way.

Word was received in the city yesterday that Captain Manson of the O. C. Vance had died at sea and was buried on the last trip of that vessel. He was formerly master of the National City and was one of the oldest and most respected captains of the water front.—S F Chronicle, Aug 14.

The Oceanic Steamship Alameda, commander K Van Oterendorp, six days and eighteen hours from San Francisco, docked at the company's wharf at 6:45 o'clock this morning with a few packages of freight and 46 cabin and 4 steerage passengers for this port. Genial Purser Thos Smith is again on board after his trip to the old country, and reports a pleasant trip and smooth seas throughout. THE JAPANESE CALMER.

Discussion of the United States as the Arbitrator.

Washington, August 18.—Minister Hoshi of Japan has returned from a visit to Marquis Ito at New York, and after going over the last official mail from Japan left for his summer cottage at Berkeley Springs. Mme. Hoshi and her children have utilized the hot season for a trip to Japan, and will return in the autumn.

There are no developments in the Hawaiian-Japanese controversy, and no reply has been received to Secretary Sherman's latest communication. The press of Japan has become much more conciliatory, and the arbitration negotiations between Japan and Hawaii are regarded as disposing of the chances of trouble between the United States and Japan.

The Japan Mail explains that the man-of-war Naniwa was not dispatched to Honolulu for the purpose of making an armed demonstration, but simply to secure the orderly behavior of Japanese subjects in Hawaii. It adds that Japan is to be congratulated that arbitration, the only civilized exit from an international difficulty, has been selected as a means of settling a mere question of compensation.

The Mainishi Shimbun urges that the United States should be complimented by being named as arbitrator, rather than Norway and Sweden. It says that a decision by the United States could be relied upon as fair, and under existing circumstances it would probably be in Japan's favor.

This suggestion has aroused discussion in Japanese papers, and the Japan Mail, while approving the plan, says the United States would not be willing, from considerations of delicacy, to act as arbitrator.

There are, however, some exceptions to this cordial expression.

QUERIES.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—Being a registered voter under the Republic of Hawaii and familiar with the gratitude it has for its loyal supporters, I should like to ask, in the event of annexation to the United States, the following questions:

First—Would not all officials, from a janitor up, have to be registered voters?

Second—Is it the policy of the United States to dismiss officials on account of (a) personal spite or (b) without cause?

Third—Would the Government countenance or even think of encouraging strangers to Government position when it is known that, through short residence, they are not eligible to vote, and this in preference to citizens and voters?

By answering the above, you will confer a great favor on
 A VOTER.

A New Matron.

The friends of Mrs. Caroline Clark will be pleased to learn that at a meeting held this day of the directors of the Kapiolani Maternity Home, she was appointed matron of the institution to succeed Mrs. Mary Ann Lemon, who had resigned. The new appointee was recently matron at Iolani College and filled that capacity with credit.

B. F. Dillingham, the railway king, promptly took charge of his cousin, the U. S. Consul General designate at Auckland, on the arrival of the Alameda this morning, together with several of his distinguished fellow travelers.

EXECUTORS SALE

—OF—

RESIDENCE!

By order of the Executors of the Estate of ADELIA CORNWELL, deceased, I will sell at Public Auction, on the premises, Judd Street, Honolulu,

On FRIDAY, Oct. 15th, AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M.,

That Valuable Property, known as the

Cornwell Residence

And at present occupied by Mrs. Widdfield.

The real estate comprises about 4.7-100 acres of the finest residence property in Honolulu.

The grounds are planted with a vast variety of fruit, shade, palm and other trees, and are laid out with fine carriage drives and walks through tropical foliage. One of the valley streams runs through the eastern boundary of the property.

The main dwelling is a commodious two-story building, containing large drawing room, spacious dining-room, billiard room, bedrooms, etc., and has all modern improvements. The house is substantially built and the rooms are all well ventilated. Sanitary plumbing throughout.

Cottages, Stables, Carriage Houses and Out-houses on the property.

The situation commands an unsurpassed view of the Harbor, the main portion of the City and the adjacent mountain scenery. This is one of the largest and finest residences that has been offered at public sale in Honolulu, and must be sold to close the above Estate.

Immediately following the sale of the residence, I will sell the particulars of which can be obtained at my office.

Parties contemplating purchasing the Residence and wishing to inspect the same, should make application at my office, No. 33 Queen Street.
