SOLUTION NEEDED.

The Problem of the "Unemployed."

There can be no doubt that the city at present is overrun by white men who can find no work and who see want and starvation staring them in the face. The German political association has considered the matter and has requested the government to try to abate the evil. With our morning contemporary we do not believe that the government can do anything at present and that it is rather the place of private labor-employers to come to the rescue. There are of course times when it is the duty of government to create work for the unemployed say, in cases where a financial crisis deprives men of their work and make it impossible for the labor-employing class to carry on business from where the bread-earners derive their support. But the provisional government is under such strained circumstances and such enormous expenses that it cannot undertake any public work of any account and thereby relieve the workingmen. It therefore becomes the immediate duty of the capitalists to come forward and give work to the unfortunate who are stranded on our beach without means. We must admit that we are somewhat surprised to see planters come together in meeting, and loudly complain because they have not sufficient laborers and at the same time hear a general cry from the streets "give us work." The planters have attempted to flood the country with Chinese coolies a step which will make it still more difficult for the unemployed whites to find work. A proposition has been made to re-import the Portuguese who left our shores and now find themselves still worse off in California. Why take such a step when labor is to be found right here and mostly of men unencumbered with large families, and for whom no passage money is wanted? We expect now to see advertisements from the plantation agents offering work for the unemployed and both the planters and the workmen will find relief. If the annexationists could be believed a golden era would have been opened for Hawaii with annexation because free white labor would be plentiful. Now you have got it gentlemen and to our surprise you don't avail yourselves of it, but call for more unfree Chinese laborers. Arise and explain this remarkable inconsistency! It will be said that many of the unemployed whites are unwilling to work on plantations. Perhaps so, but they have no choice. If any of them prefer to loaf around our streets until want drives them to be criminal they should be met with the law and treated as vagrants. For that purpose the government should without delay amend the vagrancy act so as to make it effective and then it should make registration of all citizens compulsory. By the way, we are pleased to see that the Advertiser has come round to our way of thinking in regard to registration. If such measures are adopted the government will be able to have full supervision, and full control of the unemployed and it will have great facility in furnishing work to those who really desire it—and a striped suit for those who don't. But whatever is to be done should be done speedily or a criminal class will be created which it will be impossible to get rid of and which will be a standing menace to law and order.

A SOCIAL BOYCOTT.

An "In the Swim" Waterhouse Elucidates.

Minister Willis has not been given his passports, but the impression on the island is that he will ask for them soon. He is ostracised socially and is generally disliked, the sentiment among the inhabitants amounting to almost a boycott. His wife is included in this and is left to herself by the ladies of the island.

So spoke Mr. William Waterhouse at Omaha on the 18th of January. We do not know the reasons why Mr. William Waterhouse considers himself entitled to speak on behalf of "society" in Honolulu. Whether he feels so elevated on account of the pedigree and record of his progenitor or his family connections with the learned Attorney-General makes him proud, we do not know, but he evidently considers himself entitled to boycott and socially ostracise ladies and gentlemen in every way his superior. The remark of Mr. William Waterhouse sounds so much more peculiar as Mr. S. B. Dole in his official correspondence to Minister Willis complains, because the Minister and Mrs. Willis do not visit and associate with the Honolulu "society"—presumably that represented by Mr. William Waterhouse and his ilk. From that it would seem that it is rather the Minister who is doing the boycotting of society than vice-versa. And finally the Advertiser says that the relations between the Minister and the executive are of a most pleasant nature.

William Waterhouse gives reasons for the terrible fate which he says has befallen Minister Willis. He explained his remarks on the ground that when Blount was in the islands he invited society people to his home, and then asked questions and made use of the answers received. It is not intended that people in Honolulu shall again be subject to this sort of espionage on the part of any American connected with the Cleveland administration! Now we would like to know when Mr. Blount ever invited any people in Honolulu to his home in a social manner. Mr. Blount refused to visit anybody or to having any relations with anybody except of a strictly business nature. He went to Ewa plantation once in a yacht with Mr. Dole and once on the train with somebody else because he wanted to see a plantation in work and also wanted to see Pearl Harbor and the country in its vicinity. For the same reason he went to Maui to see the largest plantation in the world and at the same time gain an insight into life on the other islands so as not to judge the whole country from his Honolulu impressions alone. The unlady-like unwarranted and extremely vulgar treatment of Mrs. Blount by the "homemade bread and butter brigade" since her departure should certainly be a sufficient warning to any lady connected with foreign representatives in Honolulu to steer in the future severely clear of the "society" represented by Mr. William Waterhouse. It is to be presumed of course that when that Christian gentleman spoke about "society" that he meant the churchgoing crowd with whom he associated when in Ho-lulu and not the hula dancing "society" to which he devoted himself in the steerage on the Australia as soon as Diamond Head was out of sight. Of course Mr. William Waterhouse had to finish his interview in the orthodox "society" manner by saying: "If any attempt had been made to restore the Queen she would have been assassinated. This fate awaits her, and she knows it though it is not given official recognition." And yet they all stretch their hands toward heaven with virtuous horror and cry against the "blood-thirsty," "savage" and "unmerciful" Queen Liliuokalani.

An Education Muddle.

It seems finally that the new Board of Education is to be organized. Mr. Dole told the Council yesterday that he had given great attention to the matter, and he had a string of names of eventual members. The amusing part of the business is that Mr. Dole is endeavoring to find representatives of different creeds and nationalities, and seems to be perfectly at sea as soon as he gets outside the sacred halls of the Congregational church and beyond the Americans in town. He has been trying to find a Roman Catholic suited for the position and that seems to have been quite a difficult matter. It is highly complimentary to the Catholic Clergy to St. Louis School and to the whole Catholic community that they do not count among their numbers any one whose education and knowledge of educational matters are such that he or she can be compared to Mr. Hartwell, Mr. Lowery or Mr. Perry or Mrs. W. W. Hall, or some other ladies. Mr. Dole further says that he desires to have different nationalities represented, but although he can find a Scotchman in Mr. Kennedy, he evidently cannot find a suitable Englishman. The Germans ought to feel proud indeed when they learn that the most capable men of nationality are all consuls." The following Germans are Consuls and according to Mr. Dole the only ones fitted to be members of the Board of Education viz: Messrs Schaefer Hackfeld, Glade, Schmidt, Renjes and Hoting. It is really deplorable that the services of these men as Superintendents of our educational institutions are prevented by their official positions. If only one of them could be induced to resign as consul Mr. Dole and the rest of it would be happy again. If a deputation of Germans went to Mr. Glade, with a humble petition, he might be persuaded to resign his consular position which he has covered with so much glory and he would undoubtedly be an ornament of the first water of any Educational board. In the meantime Mr. Dole intends to have the Germans represented by Mr. Hedeman who undoubtedly is eminently qualified—only he isn't a German. The Hawaiians are, of course, not represented by anybody of their race—but then the Hawaiians are strangers in their own country since Mr. Dole took control.

THE Road Board act was one of the first measures of the Reform party. During the last session the Reform party endorsed the continuance of the system. The P. G. has now done away with the Road Board for Honolulu, because the members—elected by the people by an overwhelming majority—are loyalists. Any system which gives any voice to the people is evidently bad in the eyes of the P. G. and should be speedily condemned. And yet that is what W. G. Smith calls Americanism, and W. N. Armstrong American ideas!!

THE Advertiser in its usual hypocritical manner slobbers over Mr. J. O. Carter, but considers his dismissal from Brewer & Co. very proper and justifiable. If we remember rightly the annexation organs raised a pitiful howl a short while ago when a rumor was started that Mr. T. H. Davis looking after his interest intended to remove Mr. Alexander Young from his employ. But what is sauce for Brewers is of course not sauce for Davies.

THE Advertiser want to know what Sammy Damon means by rubbing the back of the secret League. Is it possible that Mr. Castle hasn't found out yet that Soapy Sam has a smile for everybody and all? We never know what may happen, so it is right to be solid everywhere.

"MR. DOLE wouldn't accept a back-salary even if voted" said somebody in the Council meeting. A lawyer refusing money? We don't think such a species of the legal gems is to be found. But then Dole never was much of a lawyer.

How much does the country save since the form of government was changed?

SINCE the latest declaration by the political buccaners, who now hold the fort of Hawaii's capital city, that there is to be a president with a salary of $12,000 per annum, there has been quite an upheaval in local society as represented in the various cliques which arrogate place, power and patriotism to themselves, alone, and now strained relations exist in a good many families, on account of the jealousy with regard to desired social prestige. Since this social war has been declared, in the inner circles of the elite, good reputations warranted proof against political change have advanced in price. Hollow-eyed suspicion now prevents the usual morning gossip between former neighbors and the social afternoon teas have been entirely removed, as how to call upon one's friends attracts the attention of "hollow-eyes" and then the tongue of scandal "Social gatherings" is now a custom most marked in the breach and even the Advertiser and Star families have availed Sunday school. There is a complete split amongst the social community most marked, of course, among the ladies and the end of the war is not yet prophesied.

MR. F. M. HATCH is nominated by the executive for the office of minister of foreign affairs. We hope he will get in so we can enjoy the circus which will arise when the vacancy in the Council has to be filled. Between Atherton, W. G. Smith and Damon's candidate from the League the contest will be of great and absorbing interest.

THE absurd yarn which the Star dishes up about the great schemes of the loyalists in regard to the opening of negotiations with France and England, and the mission of Ashford, Parker and others is even more ridiculous, and idiotic than what mostly appears in Mr. Dole's sheet. It would be waste of space to give any further attention to such an easily confuted lie which nobody connected with the U. S. government and nobody outside Wm. Auld's institution could be made to believe for a single brief moment.

MR. W. O. SMITH says in a to the Los Angeles Times, that "the Lord stepped in and helped the cause." We wonder if the Lord was the third party present at the grand inquisition held by Smith and Hitchcock over Davies. We trust not because there must have been blue streaks in the air.

WHAT is this we hear! An apology from—But no, we will give Rats a chance to scoop us, or else nerve.

THE boycotting act established by Messrs Wilder, Ena, Waterhouse, Allen, Bolte, King, Damon and Smith, in which they have, by their votes in Council, placed themselves on record may prove an unpleasant remembrance for them in the not distant future.

THE President of the secret league should beg, borrow, or steal a copy of Shakespeare, and look up King Henry VIII; especial attention being paid to Wolsey's soliloquy.

MR. JULIAN PALMER the correspondent of the Boston Transcript, and who is here on journalistic business, is being pulled and hauled by the annexationist, and other revolutionary cliques, to join their ranks. In upholding the dignity of his journal Mr. Palmer has attempted to maintain a neutral position and send forward unbiased and uncolored reports. Those newspaper men who have summoned and wintered here knew he would find that the local politicians, from the judge to the horse-shoer, would make his surroundings unpleasant, if he was honest, and they have. Mr. Palmer has found it necessary to define his honesty, on paper The HOLOMUA needs no explanation, it has a knowledge of the Transcript, its excellent character, and also of Mr. Palmer.

LOCAL NEWS.

The "republic" rumor is again gaining circulation.

There will be a concert at the Hotel this evening.

Valentine purchasing is not being much indulged in.

The guests at Sans Souci had a very enjoyable time, last evening.

Col. Jim Sherwood is suffering from a poisoned hand the result of a fly bite.

The membership of the Schutzen club is showing up now in three figures.

The Steamer Oceanic is due here from Yokohama on Monday next the 12th. inst.

Many strangers are enjoying the warmth of the waters at Honolulu's chief bathing places.

Louis Wesner lately engineer of the steamer C. R. Bishop is acting engineer of Engine Co No. 2.

The poisoners of the valuable dogs belonging to Capt. Klemme and his brother have not yet been discovered.

Mr. W. Dunbar a well-known contractor of San Francisco returned to San Francisco by the Alameda. Mrs. Dunbar (nee Lucas) remains here for a short season before returning to her home abroad.

The Kilauea Volcano House company meet this afternoon for the consideration of special business.

There will be an exhibition of the powers of the phonograph at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow evening.

Francis M. Halch Esq. is reported to have received the nomination of minister of foreign affairs of the provisional government.

The Tiser approves of the Holo-mua estimate of the proposed addition to the ranks of the secret League.

The well-conducted organization known as the Schutzen club will meet at its rooms this evening. No dog poisoners are desired.

The out-door phonograph exhibition given by the proprietor of the Popular Phonograph Parlors, Arlington Block attracts crowds daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, Mrs. Kittle and daughter and the Messrs. Peyton arrived here from the Colonies by the Alameda yesterday morning.

The peculiar journalistic amenities of the Star have been extended to Capt. Julian Palmer, a visiting journalist who represents the Boston Transcript.

J. M. Camara has been re-elected to the captaincy of Co. C of the Provisional troops. M. Costa was elected to the position of lieutenant vice J. M. Vivas defeated.

The next news from the United States is expected to arrive by the steamer Monowai, due here February 15th. Dame rumor is however very busy with an expected special messenger to arrive on the 13th.

Mr. M. McVoy Jr., who has been assisting Mr. T. W. Hobron in the obtaining and arranging of material for exhibition at the Hawaiian exhibit at Sunset City, left yesterday by the Alameda for San Francisco.

Overloaded postage-stamp speculators distributed their goods to a few buyers by auction this morning. Hawaiian stamps do not command a big premium now.

The secret League flagpole has remained unadorned for a long time. No flag is there. The I. X. L. station on the corner displays all sort of bunting second-hand.

The invitation extended, to be present at the private exhibition of the loud-talking phonograph, in the parlor of the Arlington House, last evening was generally accepted and a couple of hours was spent pleasantly in listening to various songs and speeches.

At a few minutes past 4 o'clock this afternoon an alarm of fire was sounded from Waikiki, as the Holo-mua goes to press, the information obtained is that the fire is at a Mrs. Robertson's place and will be disastrous.

Appreciated.
Mr. W. Ripley and wife of Washington were among the departing passengers by the steamer Alameda yesterday, for the Coast. While here Mr. and Mrs. Ripley had opportunity to pay a visit to the Queen. The gentleman in after conversation said that, he had been "filled full of belief" that Her Majesty was guarded by centipedes, that a glass of water would mean death to the stranger and that conversation would be carried on in an unknown tongue or else in half unintelligible English. His statement on leaving, was to the effect that, Her Majesty was a cultured lady who did not display any indication of the "beheading" instinct charged. The Queen played several selections of her own compositions for Mrs. Ripley and that lady intends to carry the news to her society friends, in Washington.

CORRESPONDENCE.
[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLOMUA:
It appears that Mr. Frank Damon Superintendent of the Chinese Mission is pushed for $2000 more, to pay for the enlargement of the Chinese church; and asks the friends of the Mission of other nationalities for help to pay off the church debt. This seems strange, as Mr. Damon is a good American and of course a member of the American colony, who boast that they own nine-tenths of the riches of this country, and act as though they owned the world. What a penurious lot the American colony must be, to allow a good American to beg from other nationalities for help, when they have blazoned before the world that other nationalities here, are out of the race altogether, with regard to riches. We take notice that when the favored few handle the taxpayers' money, they are quite free with it, but when asked to go down into their own pockets for a little charity, they at once show their meanness and button up. Mr. Damon should consult the Star man, as he has the power behind him, that can hustle the self boasted owning all American colony, to pay off the debt inside of twenty-four hours.

CHEOPS.
EDITOR HOLOMUA:
Said President Dole to Minister Willis: "We have stood ready to add to your country a new star to its glory." A fine star this new star would be! If Dole and his co-conspirators can be believed it is inhabited by some 90,000 beathen cannibals, mongrels, and mongolians unfit for governing themselves, and some 600 missionaries and their descendants. A fine sovereign State these Sandwich Islands would make. A star of glory, indeed!!

SOUTH WEST.

The People Wronged.
"It will be time enough to consider annexation when the Hawaiians have had a chance to say at the polls what they think of the de facto government. They have not had a chance to that, although de facto Dole has been in office a year, and he has announced that he will allow no election or other expression of popular will for at least another year. To permit such a man to propose annexation would be like considering a proposal from a highway man to sell the property of his victim while he held him up." So said Senator Turpie and those who have read the "fictitious" reply of Mr. Dole to our minister will fully agree with the Indiana Senator. That concern has no more existence, in contemplation of law, as a government, than would any colony of pirates, that happened to have the luck to first possess themselves of an island country's property, and then assume to be its governors. - Chattanooga Times.

The Hawaiian Question.

The Hawaiian policy of the administration, which has been temporarily obscured by the proposed tariff bill, will be promptly revived by the senate. We may prepare ourselves for a variety of speeches, the principal feature of all of which will be the dizzy flight of the American eagle. If we are not mistaken, we shall be treated during the next few weeks to more flubdub in this line than we have had in many moons. Kings and Queens and Princes will be handled without gloves and at a safe distance.

We have not been unaware of the superficial unpopularity of the policy recommended by the administration in regard to Hawaii, and her now ex-queen. It has aroused the annexationists, stirred up the natural enemies of the administration, and let loose the prettiest lot of cheap demagogues the world ever saw. Not one of them has confined himself to the single proposition laid down by the Secretary of State, which carefully avoided committing the administration to a fixed policy as to the ultimate relation of the two governments. We have followed the attack upon the administration with great care, being one of the very few journals of the country to support it. The great majority of its opponents have attributed to the administration purposes for which there has been no foundation, or else have deliberately, and without a proper examination of all the facts, condemned as untrustworthy the information which there is nothing to show was not carefully and sincerely obtained by it. There has not been a bit of evidence on which to base their conclusions and their predictions and they stand today, where they were at first, as critics who do not know what they are criticizing; critics who lacked faith in the Americanism and justice of their own government.

We shall now see what we shall see, when the senate hears from President Cleveland and has the papers in the case before it. It may or may not believe Mr. Blount that the old government of Hawaii was overthrown by American interference. It may or it may not follow Mr. Cleveland's advice in the matter. What it will do cannot be foreseen, but we believe as we have always believed, and as we think the majority will soon acknowledge, that from the first the administration has been moved by the loftiest and purest of motives to right a great wrong, and that the principles of international justice for which it has been contending will be approved.
