Filipino Kills One And Wounds Another

Quarrel Over Woman Leads to Brutal Murder — In Waikapu Camp — Woman Shot But Will Recover

Narciso Toyolo, a Filipino laborer of the Wailuku Sugar Company, and a member of the National Guard, shot and instantly killed another Filipino named Alfonso Darlang, in the Waikapu camp, some three miles beyond Waikapu, shortly after 7 o'clock last Sunday morning. He after surrendering to the police, and will be tried for first degree murder.

Besides killing his fellow-countryman, Toyolo first fired a shot from a 38 calibre revolver at Mrs. Maria Roffo, of whom he was jealous, inflicting a flesh wound in the right breast. The bullet, however, was deflected by a rib, and came out of the woman's back. She is in the Maluanui hospital, but is not seriously hurt.

According to the police, the murder was a premeditated and cold-blooded one. The murderer and his victim had quarreled about the woman the previous night. She is a married woman, living with her husband in the camp, and seems to have been involved with both Toyolo and Darlang. After the quarrel, in which the husband was also involved, Toyolo went to a friend and borrowed a heavy, army patterned Colt revolver, stating that he expected to go the following morning to Maluaea to get into a gambling game, and might need it. Instead he met Darlang and other Filipinos on Sunday morning, all preparing to attend national guard drill. He pretended to want to settle the trouble amicably, and sent for the woman in the case. As soon as she arrived, he fired at her, as she sat on one end of a bench, and then turned the gun upon Darlang, who was also seated nearby.

The murderer proceeded towards the main road, and when he met the police automobile, surrendered himself. When searched, besides the revolver, a murderous-looking dagger of copper was found on his person.

Another Town Clock Poem Comes To Light

Editor Maui News,
Dear Sir: In your issue of March 24th, I read your town clock by Jack Rivers, and it brought to my mind a piece that was written about 33 years ago, and was published in Honolulu, but by what paper I do not know, but I thought I would send a copy of it to you for publication, and you would see what the sentiment was at that time. There are very few people here that can remember it now, on Maui. But about 1/2 dozen at most. I think the two would do go together,
Respt. Yours,
GEO. GROVES.

Keanae, Maui, April 11, 1916.
A Legend Of The Wailuku Clock
The hour was just past midnight
I'd been keeping the "Fourth of July,"
My brain just a little bit cloudy,
My throat a little bit dry,
I stopped in the street near the town clock

From my flask I took the last "fid,"
And then I'll be truthful and honest,
I don't know just what I did.

But there the old clock stood before me.

It had slid to the ground on a board.
It hailed me as "jolly good fellow,"
And seemed as drunk as a lord.
It said "I will tell you a secret,
I know it's a common belief
By the folks in honest Wailuku
That I always lie like a thief."

I was made by the honest Seth Thomas.

The Connecticut sun would not rise,
Unless one of my far-away brothers,
Should tip the wink to the skies.
But he who winds me is fickle,
What he wants I never can know,
He runs me fast for a fortnight,
And then for a month runs me slow.

Each ship that comes to our harbor,
Gives him a meridian new,
They vary from a half to a quarter,
Now what can a honest clock do?
He says I must run by the "Thompson."

And no man shall touch me in town,
Then he goes to disenthron Gibson,
And leaves me alone to run down.

He writes of other folks fallings,
He speaks of their faults with a groan,
Does he ever pause to consider,
The few he has of his own?
He sighs o'er an age that is truthless
O'er the world's mighty increase of crime
Forgetting this one little item
Wailuku would like the right time.

Now I leave it to you now as a brother,
Is it not more honest and true,
For one to strive to accomplish,
The little his hands find to do.
And won't it bring more solid comfort
More shining gold to the till
Than to hunger and thirst for position
The Lord never meant us to fill.

GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

Pinkham Democrats To Close Campaign

McCandless Faction Kick Largely On Patronage Grounds—Party Election Tomorrow Night

"Out with Pinkham—We want the jobs!" was in effect the slogan of the McCandless-Wilson-Pacheco meeting held at the Valley Isle theatre in Wailuku, last Saturday night. The meeting was well attended, and the crowd was entertained with moving pictures during the breathing spells between the various speeches. The McCandless faction of the party, at this meeting, laid great stress upon the fact that Pinkham has failed to fill up the public offices in the territory with the faithful and hungry democrats. Illustrations were cited throughout the territory in general and on Maui in particular. The appointment of V. C. Schoenberg, a republican, to fill the vacancy in the office of circuit court clerk, was referred to as the most recent treachery of the administration to the democratic party.

Pinkhamites Tonight
The Pinkham wing of the party on Maui will hold a meeting at the Valley Isle, this evening, to be addressed by Dr. Raymond, W. J. Coelho, and others. This meeting will be begun early, and the speakers will then be rushed to Lahaina for another meeting.

This will be the concluding gun in the heavy artillery duel preceding the infantry charge to the polls tomorrow evening, when the matter of the delegateship to the St. Louis convention will be decided. Both sides are claiming a sure victory though from the lineup of the democratic leaders among the Hawaiians it looks rather as though the administration faction has a slight lead, in spite of the powerful argument of McCandless and the jobs that the faithful haven't got. The voting will take place throughout the territory between 5 and 8:30 p. m., and on this island will be conducted with regular printed ballots, and along regular election lines.

Lahaina Band Has Made Good Start

Prominent West Maui People Back of Enterprise — Concert For Instrument Fund to Be Given

For the purpose of raising a fund to defray the cost of necessary instruments, the recently organized Lahaina Band is planning to give a concert and entertainment at the Pioneer theater on Saturday, May 6. The band is already making good music under the direction of Director Lowell K. Kapau, but is working under the handicap of insufficient instruments and of not owning those that it is using.

The people of Lahaina are much interested in seeing that the band is made a success, and to that end have formed an association which will have the direction of the property and finances of the musicians. The following officers have been chosen for this association: L. Weinzelmeier, president; John Pierce, vice-president; J. M. Ambrose, secretary; F. N. Luffkin, treasurer; W. H. Young, auditor; Edw. Walaholo, Antone Furtado, C. K. Farden, and George Freeland, directors.

Mr. Kapau, who has undertaken the organization and direction of the band, has been a resident of Lahaina for several months. He was for about 15 years connected with the Honolulu Hawaiian Band, under Berger. The members of the band at present are—Daniel Pierce Mr. Enos, Tom Medeiros, Sam Aho, Johnny Nunes, Adam Pall, G. Keainini, Kila Kalia, D. Likua, H. Liwai, J. Teixeira, Ben Ricard, D. Eldridge, S. Koko, John Brown, Jr., J. Opupele, Fred Martinsen, Moses Kaubahaana, Paul Joe Hooulu, and Lowell K. Kapau.

Honolulu Polo Men Already At Work

Ponies Being Tried Out For Tournament Next Fall—Indications Oahu Believes In Early Preparedness

While it is a far cry to the annual Hawaiian polo championship, interest is already being shown by the players and public and indications point to the coming tournament being one of the best ever held in the islands. This will be due to the fact that the players will start training much earlier and also from the fact that the mounts will be given a better workout than before and because much of the green timber introduced last year has had much careful schooling under the careful eye of the trainers. This applies particularly to the horses belonging to the members of the Oahu Four.

Hannon a Busy Man
Peter Hannon one of America's greatest polo pony conditioners has a fine string of ponies under his care at Moanalua and these horses are being put through the polo stunts almost every afternoon. Several of them are also in pasture, but at the right time will be brought to the stables and put in condition.

Much is expected of the three greys purchased by Walter F. Dillingham from the McKerrick Ranch at Bakersfield, California, for the work of last year and the training since then has greatly developed these ponies. Each of them is a solidly built and clear-lined animal and each shows rare intelligence. These three, In and Out, a big light grey, Quick Silver a four year old and Grey Dawn, showed enough last year to warrant their being further schooled for polo.

Faithful Helen C.
Of course the old reliables Helen C. and Jennie C. will be in the tournament. The former is hailed as the Queen of the turf and does not know what it feels like to be passed on a polo field. As a matter of fact she is rated the best polo pony in the world today, bar none.

On two occasions Helen C. has been used in the International matches along with Carry the News, another Hawaiian horse through the courtesies of their owners.

Other likely timber to be used in the coming tournament is Te Toot, a buggy horse picked up by Peter Hannon during a trip to the Coast a couple of years ago. Kaulani, a half sister to the famous Helen C. and sired by the famous Ben Magee, Leihulu, rated the prettiest filly on the islands and possessed of a rare turn of speed, Kilauea Pupu, a Yellow tall colt owned by Walter Macfarlane, Gold Dust, a New York gelding which has played in the International games and which is rated as one of the hardest riding old horses in the annals of the sport, M. R. a Horner ranch horse in the game for years and that grand old campaigner, Grandma Bess.—Advertiser.

Poultry Fanciers To Form Association

The suggestion in last week's Maui News that an organization of poultry raisers on Maui would be a good thing, has brought an immediate response, together with a call for a meeting of such persons interested in order that the matter may be further discussed. The meeting is to be held at the office of Paul F. Lada, Wailuku, at 10 o'clock next Thursday morning, April 29. The following letter has been received from an enthusiast, commending the idea, and announcing the meeting:

Editor Maui News:—
I noticed in last week's issue of your valuable paper, an editorial suggesting that those interested in poultry culture "get together" for forming a "Maui Poultry Association."

I am heartily in favor of such a movement, believing that it would be of great value and assistance to our poultry keepers and fanciers.

Having talked with several prominent poultry fanciers, who are all enthusiastic with the idea of forming some such an association, I would suggest that all those interested in forming a "Poultry Association," or as has been suggested, a "Poultry and Domestic Pet Association," meet at the office of Paul F. Lada (The High Howell Construction Co.'s office), Wailuku, on Thursday the 29th inst. at 10 o'clock A. M., for considering the organization of such an Association.

Yours very truly,
Wailuku, April 12, 1916.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Paia Union Church, held last Tuesday, the following officers were elected: Mrs. H. P. Baldwin, vice-president; Mrs. A. Craig Bowdish, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Grace P. Haven, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. W. O. Aiken, secretary; Miss Harriet Lay, treasurer.

Outlook For Great Baseball Is Good

1st. Battalion Enters Teams—Hopes That Lahaina May Come in—Series Will Begin in Few Weeks

There will be three teams, and perhaps four in the senior league series this year. A strong desire to have Lahaina enter a team may result in this being accomplished, provided the problem of transportation can be met. Also if the long-talked-of athletic park for Lahaina materializes, the problem will be materially simplified.

At a meeting of the Maui Athletic Association held last Tuesday evening, two teams were definitely entered. One of these is the Paia team, under the management of John M. Medeiros, which holds a leg on the famous Raymond cup, and the other will be known as the 1st Battalion, Maui National Guard team, with George H. Cummings, as manager. It is assured that Punneue will also have a team in the league, though through oversight the entry of such team was not formally made at the meeting.

As soon as the league can be definitely organized, the managers will get together and arrange the schedule for the season. It seems probable that the opening of the series will be early in May.

The outlook is for some exceptionally good baseball for the coming summer. The entrance into the contest of a national guard team promises to add interest to the series. It will of course take the place of the usual Wailuku team, and Manager Cummings claims that he has some fine material this year to work with.

The contest will have especial interest from the fact that the Raymond cup, has been contested for, for over ten years, without ever having been won twice by the same team. The Paia organization is a strong one and will doubtless make a desperate effort to win the cup for keeps this year.

Supreme Court Upholds Maui Automobile Law

The test case of the new automobile ordinance, brought against W. H. Field, which was carried to the supreme court, was decided last Friday by the higher tribunal in favor of the county, thus affirming the findings of District Magistrate McKay. The plaintiff sought to show that the ordinance requiring drivers of automobiles to be reexamined as to their qualification, and to pay another fee, was unsound law.

The court failed to pass on the points raised by the defendant-appellant as to the constitutionality of the sections involved, on the grounds that his rights were not affected by same; and it is further held that the provisions of the ordinance relating to the registration of motor vehicles and the certification of chauffeurs does not constitute a prohibition of the operation of such vehicles on the public roads, but is a reasonable regulation made in the exercise of the police power.

The case was one in which a large number of automobile owners holding licenses under previous ordinances, were concerned, and the result of the test case was a matter of considerable interest. It was stated by Attorney Enos Vincent, who with D. H. Case represented Field in the matter, that another case will probably be taken to the supreme court to test the sections on which the court refused to pass in the Field case on the grounds that his interests had not been affected. The case was argued before the supreme court on April 7th, County Attorney E. R. Bevins appearing for the Territory in the matter.

Farmers And Packers Approaching Agreement

A feeling of optimism exists just now in the pineapple district, owing to the prospect of much better prices for the product during the next year. It is reported that a number of recent sales made by local packers have been at a marked advance, and the companies expect the demand to result in still better figures. The growers have been assured of not less than $15 per ton for the present season's crop, and a form of contract is being considered which it is believed will be fair to both packer and grower. A special meeting of the Haiku Farmers' Association was held last night at the Kula school house to discuss the matter, the result of which will probably be that most of the homesteaders will accept the contracts and plant more or less extensively this year. The contracts will be for a period of 4 years, or the period of one planting.

PRACTICAL CO-OPERATION

It is a matter of congratulation that, as now seems likely, the pineapple growers of the Haiku district will be able to arrive at an amicable and thoroughly satisfactory agreement with the packing companies for the handling of their product. The apparent willingness of the packers to concede the right of growers to a fair share of the profits of the business is especially gratifying. The past two years have been hard ones for the farmers, who have unquestionably lost heavily, while the canneries, in spite of low prices for the finished product, have been able to show profits. The unjustness of this is admitted by the companies. Under the plan proposed, and which, excepting in minor details, it is understood has been practically agreed to, the canners will ascertain accurately their cost per ton of packing and marketing the fruit, taking into account their investment, depreciation, insurance, commissions, and other proper charges, while an average cost per ton for producing and delivering the fruit by the farmer will be ascertained in a similar manner. With this data as the basis, a sliding scale has been determined by which when the price of canned pineapple is at a certain figure neither side will make or lose, and by which they will share profits or losses at a certain fixed ratio. This ratio, it is said, has been determined on the basis of the investment, per ton of output, of both the companies and the growers.

Whether or not the basic figures for the contracts which will probably be entered into, have been accurately worked out, may be open to some question, but the principle is eminently right, and by far the most fair and scientific of anything of its kind that has probably ever been attempted in Hawaii. It also has the merit that as errors are discovered, they may be adjusted without disturbing the principle on which it is based. If the plan works, no small part of the credit must be given to the staff of the federal experiment station, which has worked unceasingly to bring the growers and packers together, and has worked out the principles on which it is based.

LET'S INVITE THE WORLD TO COMPETE WITH US

The directors of the Hawaii county fair have decided to bar non-residents of the Big Island from exhibiting for prizes in competition with the local exhibitors. This matter was touched upon at the general meeting to discuss the Maui County Fair, held several weeks ago, and the sentiment seemed to be that Maui should welcome exhibitors from anywhere. It is to be hoped that the executive committee, now forming, will adhere to this policy. A fair is not a mere contest for prizes. It should be an educational effort. And it can be educational in no better way than by seeing what the other fellow can do and is doing. The prizes are not of much intrinsic value, consisting mostly of ribbons, but they are valued in accordance with the difficulty in securing them. If an outsider can pull down a prize for something that we are trying for, he should be welcome to it. Perhaps we will, however, get some pointers from him that will enable us to do better another time. The thing is to give everybody a chance, and then see how many of the prizes we can keep from leaving the island.

A large quantity of central Maui freight on the Claudine this week was again carried to Hana, thus making the shipment two days late in reaching its destination. This has become quite a customary thing of late, though it is not apparent why it is necessary. It is certainly the source of a great amount of annoyance, and in some cases of loss to local merchants. If anything can be done to make this service more satisfactory, it should certainly not be overlooked.

The outlook seems quite good for some very fair baseball during the coming summer. If it could be made a four-team race this year, through the entrance of a Lahaina team, Maui would be assured the most interesting series of games in the history of baseball on Maui.

ANOTHER STEP IN OLINDA RESERVOIR PROJECT.

Bids will be opened by the Maui loan fund commission, on Friday, Apr. 28, at 7:30 o'clock, p. m., for the excavation and construction of the Olinda reservoir, and for burying the Kula pipeline. This proposition has been hanging fire for months on account of the difficulty in finding a suitable site for the reservoir. When everything was supposed to have been settled, a board of engineers decided that the character of the base material was unsuitable, and another site was accordingly sought. It is believed that the reservoir will actually be built this time, however, unless the bids are excessive.

Special Lenten Services During Holy Week

Sunday next is Palm Sunday. Special services will be held at the Church of the Good Shepherd, with music appropriate to the day, in morning, at 11 o'clock.

Next week, being "Holy Week," services will be held in the Church on Monday, Tuesday Wednesday, and Thursday evenings, at 7:30, when the Rector will give short addresses on "The Lord's Prayer."

On Good Friday, April 21st, a "Three hours service" will be held from 12 o'clock, noon, till 3 P. M. At the noon hour there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion. The remainder of the service will be divided into periods of about 30 minutes each. To all of these services the public is cordially invited.

WHY HIGH GRADE STOCK IS A GOOD INVESTMENT.

Washington, March:—That it pays to raise good stock is illustrated by the experience of two Utah ranchmen who sent their steers to the same market on the same day. Both ran their stock on National Forest range under grazing permits, both used the same amount of range per head of stock, and both paid the same grazing fee. One gave close attention to the selection of his breeding cows and used only high-grade bulls. The other made no effort to improve his herd. The owner of the high-grade stock received $40 per head more for his steers than the owner of the common stock.

Experts believe it is possible to increase the output of the ranges substantially through improved methods of utilization. One of the most promising of these methods is to increase the average weight of the animals turned off by improving the grade of stock on the ranges. The thoroughbred eats no more grass than the scrub, weighs more pounds when fat, and sells for a higher price, without putting any additional burden on the range itself. The same argument of course holds good with hogs, only perhaps in greater degree.

Two More Bumper Crops Seem Sure

H. C. & S. Co. Reports Fine Year And Better Ones in Prospect — Half Million Improvements

While the 1915 output of the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company, amounting to 56,750 tons, was within less than 100 tons of the banner 1910 crop of the plantation, Manager Frank F. Baldwin, in his report to the stockholders of the company, predicts for the present year a total of 58,000 tons. This will be far ahead of any previous record, but will still fall short of the 1917 yield, unless present signs fail. Manager Baldwin states that next year's crop had the best start any crop has had at Paumotu, and while it received something of a set-back by unfavorable weather, still he is looking forward to it as the banner crop of the plantation.

The annual meeting of the company was held on Wednesday of this week in San Francisco. The affairs of the big plantation are shown to be in excellent efficient shape. With an output thus far this season of 14,262 tons, the average per acre has been 7.67 tons of sugar. Last year's extraction averaged 97.32 per cent, the highest yet attained in any previous year, and was due, Manager Baldwin asserts to the adoption of the new Scarby shredder, used experimentally in front of "A" mill. With other shredders now in use the present extraction is 98 per cent and an average of 110 tons is being ground per hour. The plantation plans to expend $500,000 during the present year in improvements, of which $210,000 will be for enlarging and lining ditches. The rest of the amount will go for mill improvements, a new sugar room, pumps, new cane cars, tools, live stock, buildings and warehouse, and camp water supply. For this last item, $50,000 will probably be spent, in addition to a large amount already expended in a filtering plant by which pure water may be assured to all of the plantation camps.

$70,000 BONUS PAID.

The plantation paid to its employees in the form of bonus, last year, $70,000; and dividends amounting to $2,000,000, or equal to 25 per cent were paid to shareholders. The total net earnings of the company for 1915 amounted to $2,804,735.34.

Japanese Want Chili Peppers By The Ton

Inquiry Received By Marketing Division—Vegetables Still Scarce—Bananas a Drug—Eggs to Advance

Weekly Market Letter.
Honolulu, April 10, 1916.

The demand for Island butter in pound blocks is good.

Fresh Island eggs seem to be getting scarcer and while they are still quoted at 32 c. it is likely that they will advance in price very soon. Duck eggs are plentiful and cheap.

The poultry market at the present time is better supplied than last week. Most of the chickens that are being sent to the market are in good condition.

Island cabbage is scarce and selling at a premium. Practically all green vegetables are still selling at abnormally high prices. There is good demand for Maui Red and calico beans but practically none coming in.

There will be more bananas in Honolulu than ever before during the coming week, due to the shortage of transportation, and it will pay the shipper to send only the best fruit. It is unfortunate that the shortage of transportation should come at this time of the year when prices for bananas on the mainland are at their best. It is hoped that Honolulu people will lend all the assistance possible to the growers by eating more bananas and less imported fruit. Everybody can afford to eat bananas with large bunches selling at 25c to 40c.

There are practically no Island oranges in the market. Pineapples are quite scarce and small. Strawberries are becoming more plentiful.

There has been little or no change in the hog market. Island beef is plentiful at the present time but the Division has been able to dispose of all its consignments on short order with the exception of one or two lots received in poor condition.

Several inquiries regarding beeswax, honey, kukui nuts, kukui nut oil and Island beans in large quantities have recently been received. A firm in Japan has inquired into the possibility of getting dried chili peppers in ten ton lots. The chili pepper grows very well in the Islands and in the dry sections are cured in the sun.

A. T. LONGLEY,
Marketing Superintendent.

FOSS LOW BIDDER FOR KIHAI ROAD JOB

J. C. Foss, Jr., was the low bidder for the construction of the new section of the Waiohuli beach lots road in the Kihai homesteads, when tenders were opened by the department of public works, last Saturday. His bid was $2905, time 30 days. The only other tender was that of William Cullen, whose price was $4050, time 75 days. The contract was not awarded owing to the absence of Superintendent Forbes, but probably will be this week.

BREEZY WEATHER AT HAIKU

F. G. Krauss, of the extension division of the Hawaii experiment station, reports that the recording instruments at the Kulaha sub-station indicated a wind velocity of 40 miles an hour on several occasions during the past week. No damage is reported, except the injury to growing crops, which is said to be considerable.

The Naalehu (Hawaii) postoffice was robbed last Friday of $1000 in gold coin. The money was being transmitted to the Hutchinson plantation, and disappeared from a table in the office.

AT THE THEATERS

WELLER & VASCONCELLOS AMUSEMENT ENTERPRISES

Where the picture shows the moving story.

The movie reel unrolls its burden of joy and tragedy for the Maui picture fans week after week, some weeks to better advantage than others. This is a good week.

It seems that Orpheum Circuit are sure of their regular fans, and are now after the elusive element which the politicians call "the silent vote." The movie folk think the "silent vote" should see the silent drama—and so they offer novelties—pictures in which favorite novels are filmed and in which stars that twinkle on the "high brow" stage are called for the screen.

GRAUSTARK will hold the screen at the Kahului Lyceum on Saturday night next. The name of this picture by George Barr McCutcheon should be sufficient but when you add to it the name of the leading man, Frances X. Bushman, well enough said. It is a superb picture and ranks in excellence with "The Millionaire Baby."

The big attraction at the Wailuku Orpheum on Saturday will be a William Fox masterpiece, entitled "CHILDREN OF THE GHETTO," featuring Wilton Lackaye. The story is woven about the life of Rabbi Samuel Jacobs, a sternly religious old patriarch who insists that the customs of his forefathers be observed by his grown up son and daughter. Changing conditions have affected the young people, however, and affairs, other than spiritual, occupy their time and fill their lives. The first blow falls when his son leaves home to become an actor, and after a short career of dissipation comes to a violent end in a cabaret brawl. His daughter marries a man forbidden to her according to the rabbinical law. Then his wife, his beloved Rachel dies. But life cannot be all bitterness. His daughter, a widow now with two little children, returns to his home. Silently they steal into the room and gather at the table where the old man, with bowed head, is praying, and when he lifts his eyes,—Lo!—the void in his life has been filled and he finds peace and happiness after his many tribulations.

Another feature will be "THE MASQUERADERS" with Hazel Dawn in the leading role, in which sweet Hazel assumes the character of Dulcic, the central character of the drama. Dulcic a girl who becomes a barmaid at the Sax Inn in order to relieve the family fortunes. Her work in this role is the most remarkable in her spectacular career in the world of filmdom.

Something most unusual either on the stage or screen is a female Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde; nevertheless Blanche Sweet appears in just such a role and to good advantage in "THE SECRET SIN." The "Secret Sin" is the story of a girl who is the "twin sister" of a girl who is addicted to the drug habit while the other makes a life long fight to bring about her reformation.

Miss Blanche Ring is the latest convert to the celluloid drama, and makes her initial appearance in "THE YANKEE GIRL," her greatest stage success. Geo. V. Hobart is author of the comedy drama.

The breezy blarney of the pretty North American girl goes to Castroba's head, as does the champagne she fools him into thinking she is drinking with him, and he forgets his agreement with Seavey and accepts the $5000 first payment on the copper property, even lending her, to make it up, $50, which she had to pay one of his grafting customs officers.

But before the transaction can be binding another, final payment of $60,000 must be made in 24 hours, and Seavey redoubles his sinister efforts to frustrate it. Jack Lawrence, a former sweetheart and now United States consul, executes an expert flank movement, however, by purchasing the yacht outright for his government.

Securing the $60,000 from the safe, Lawrence makes a dash for shore in the launch, meeting Jessie, who single-handed has rescued her father, and together they close the copper deal with President Castroba. The ensuing love scene is strictly Jessie Gordon's and Jack Lawrence's business. Look in another column for dates on Maui.

More Vaudeville is announced for the Maui Orpheum Circuit. Pharos has engaged the "Singing Sapphires" to appear next week.

Charley Chaplin is coming to Maui under the direction of the Weller & Vasconcellos Circuit. Watch for dates.

The Hailu public turned out loyally to the picture shows in their little town last week.

VALLEY ISLES GOOD BILL

The Valley Isle Theatre has been having very interesting 3- and 4-reel features this week from the Mutual de Luxe Masterpictures comprising many of the leading film producers of America. This Friday evening a very fine and carefully selected collection of films will be displayed. Tomorrow evening the usual packed house is expected to witness the thrilling picture "The Tragedy of the Arena," and 3 other excellent reels. The management of the Valley Isle announces that an unusually good selection of pictures is scheduled for next week, details of which will be announced through the Daily Wireless later.

Chas. A. Kibling, Late Purser of Claudine, Dead

Charles A. Kibling, former purser of the steamer Claudine and known to the tens of thousands who travel between islands in Hawaii, is dead. He passed away last Saturday at noon at his home, 1715 South King street, Honolulu, following an illness of two years' duration. His body was cremated.

A private funeral service, was held at the residence, Rev. Henry H. Parker, pastor of the Kawalahao Church, officiating. A lodge service was also held in the Elks' Hall. The ashes of the deceased were given burial in the Nuanu cemetery.

Kibling was born in Wailuku, Maui, on October 15, 1861, and was fifty-four years old at his last birthday. He was employed by the old Wilder Steamship Company, prior to the days of the merger with the Inter Island Steam Navigation Company and after that continued in the service of the latter until about two years ago when he retired owing to illness. Kibling was purser of the steamer Claudine from the time she made her first inter-island run until he was forced to leave the sea.

The deceased is survived by a widow, and two daughters by a former marriage. The daughters are Miss May Kibling and Mrs. Frederick Wilhelm. There is also a brother, Albion Kibling, connected with Salvation Army in Honolulu.

U.S. Gov. experts report that oils correctly refined from asphalt-base crude "distill without decomposition" (do not break up and lose their lubricating value under cylinder heat) and "are much better adapted to motor cylinders, as far as their carbon-forming proclivities are concerned, than are paraffine-base Pennsylvania oils."

Motorists who use Zerolene, an oil scientifically refined from asphalt-base crude, back up the experts with reports such as these: "Covered over 16,000 miles without adjusting valves or cleaning out carbon."—"The carbon taken out of this car in 50,000 miles amounted to less than an ounce." Zerolene is for sale at dealers everywhere and at service stations and agencies of the Standard Oil Company.

that if he still lives he is many miles from Durango.

dun lines. Paris claims Germans made slight gain in one place, while below Douaumont they lost heavily and gave up drive. Reports from

Personal Mention

Col. Blanche B. Cox and daughter, of the Salvation Army, returned to Honolulu on Monday night, after a week's inspection trip on Maui. They will leave shortly for the mainland, probably not to return.

W. A. Anderson, formerly manager of the Nahiku Rubber Company, who has been on the coast for the past year, has taken the position of manager of the Acetylene Light & Agency Company, of Honolulu.

H. McCubbin, chief engineer of the Pioneer Mill, who is in Honolulu this week, has just published an interesting and valuable pamphlet entitled, "Responsibility of Mothers for the High Death Rate in Children". It is reprinted from notes of a lecture given by Dr. Goodhue as a professor of diseases of children, at Riverside, California. The little treatise on the proper care of children comes at an appropriate time when Honolulu and the rest of the islands are more or less interested in holding a "Baby Week".

Governor Pinkham, who has spent all this week on Kanae looking into the homesteads and water-rights muddle on that island, is expected to return to Honolulu tomorrow. It is possible that the Governor will visit Maui next week, presumably for the purpose of looking into the matter of the appointment of successor to Philip Pall, on the board of supervisors, and other matters.

The Hana Improvement Club has petitioned the board of supervisors to repair the lower Hana road, which was badly damaged some months ago by a storm. The board decided that it will take a look at the road in question as soon as possible, and then take steps to have the damage repaired.

Owing to the resignation of Miss Franc Eaton as domestic science teacher in the Maui Central High school, Mrs. W. S. Nicoll is substituting in that position until the arrival of a new teacher who has been engaged on the coast, and is to arrive in about two weeks.

As a farwell to F. W. Jennings, of Kahului, who will leave with his wife in a few weeks for Michigan on account of his health, the local members of the Elk fraternity will hold a social session on Saturday evening of next week at C. D. Lufkin's beach home.

By an order of the board of supervisors, the county road through the Kulaha homesteads running eastward from the Hailu cannery, will be closed for traffic for the next month or more, while the work of macadamizing is in progress.

Mrs. Ida L. H. Collins has been appointed to the principalship of the Kulaha school, made vacant through the resignation of Mrs. E. A. Turner. Mrs. Collins opened the school for the spring term on last Monday.

A number of petitions for and against Sunday moving pictures are before the board of supervisors for action at this week's meeting. They may be taken up this afternoon or tomorrow for consideration.

E. S. Gillin, of Wailuku, who left for the coast about six weeks ago, returned last Saturday, and has resumed his position as draftsman for the Maui loan fund commission.

The supervisors have instructed the county engineer to take steps for replacing the Nahiku bridge, and to order lumber for the same from Honolulu at once.

Misses Margaret and Dorothy Hair were the charming hostesses at a picnic beach party at Paia, last Friday. About a dozen of their young friends were present.

The supervisors this week approved the recommendation for the construction of a brick incinerator for the Malulu hospital.

The lumber schooner Melrose, which has been discharging a large cargo at Kahului during the past week, is expected to get away for the coast tomorrow.

Pertinent Paragraphs

The Maui industrial accident board, at its meeting held on Wednesday afternoon allowed the sum of $1,500 to Mrs. Maria Vieira, as compensation for herself and children for the death of her husband, Manuel Nunes Vieira, an employe of the Wailuku Sugar Company, who was killed some months ago when a rock rolled down upon him while he was opening a water gate in Iao Valley. The board also ordered that a trustee be appointed to administer the amount in the interests of the beneficiaries.

Dr. E. S. Goodhue, of Honolulu, Hawaii, has just published an interesting and valuable pamphlet entitled, "Responsibility of Mothers for the High Death Rate in Children". Waikapus Cinch Cup In Sensational Game

Last Game In Winter League Championship Set Fans Wild—Saints Made Gallant Struggle

In a somewhat loosely played game, but one full of excitement throughout, the Waikapus defeated the St. Anthony team last Sunday by a score of 11 to 10. This game finished the championship series, and gave to the Waikapus the coveted E. O. Hall & Son cup, for which the winter league had been playing. The game was watched by a large and enthusiastic crowd of fans, and the result was uncertain up to the making of the last run, with the score tied several times, there was excitement in plenty. This was the third game in the 3 out of 5 concluding contest, each of the teams having previously won a game.

Both teams had their best man on the diamond for the deciding game, and the last little men of the Saints, especially Little shortstop "Ging."

Commisles Abe Kekipi and J. Sylvia made a lot of trouble by connecting with Kala's delivery in the first inning and scoring three runs.

This score was tied in the first and second innings by the Waikapus and they again commenced walloping Hansen's under benders in the third and fourth, netting 9 runs altogether.

The Saints then commenced fighting an uphill game which showed their pluck. Keelu, the star pitcher of the Saints, was sent in to relieve the situation but was too late. He was found for two runs.

In their first half of the ninth, Sterling of the Saints, with his mighty war club pelted the ball for a honor over Marwell's head. This happened when the troublesome "ging" and Kekipi died at first and two men on bases, one on first and third respectively.

The score then stood 11 to 10 against the Saints. Hansen's powerful arm then poled a long drive between center and left which looked like a homer, but Marwell, in one of the prettiest and most sensational running catches of the year, saved the day for the Waikapus and ended the game.

OUR ISLAND CONTEMPORARIES

Some Gall! The bluff of the Great Northern steamship people was called good and hard when Honolulu people offered to guarantee the sum of $25,000 in order to reimburse the company if the steamer did not make a certain sum in the ordinary freight and passenger manner during the time she was asked to remain on the Hawaii run. The turning down of many thousand tons of freight also contributed to the calling of the bluff, and then the fact dawned upon many people that the company had no intention of remaining on the Hawaiian run during the summer months. The steamer simply was put on the run in order to avoid the expense of having her lie idle for the winter on the Coast, awaiting the usual traffic to start up again on the mainland.

And now the steamship company has the gall to say that if the sum of $40,000 is guaranteed them for two trips, they will put the steamer on the Hawaii route just one month earlier than they intended to do. The obvious reply is: "If the Great Northern people want to come in November instead of December, let them come on their own bottom, without any guarantee or anything else that is any surer than the ordinary passenger trade that generally sets in about that time to Hawaii." Ten thousand dollars a week is a bit too steep a bonus to pay a steamship company in order to have about a thousand or so "tourists" rushed through the islands at top speed. If the steamer takes up her usual twenty day schedule again, it would mean just about two trips in November, and yet people are asked to pungle up $10,000 for the wonderful privilege of seeing the big ship in port twice. It is not good enough, in the opinion of most people, to pay forty dollars a head to have travelers brought to Hawaii for such a short time as is usually given them by the Great Northern. —Hawaii Herald.

Governor Pinkham was unperturbed when plastered with mud in a auto mishap on Kanae. The governor's enemies have been slinging mud at him so persistently during the last couple of years that the executive is probably pretty well used to it. —Star-Bulletin.

WANT TERRITORIAL FAIR The suggestion that an All-Island Fair be held next year is one that should receive the earnest consideration of all public spirited men in the various islands of the group. Hilo will soon have her second fair; that it will be successful seems almost beyond shadow of a doubt. Maui is talking of following Hilo's lead and there can hardly be the slightest doubt but that Oahu will soon realize the advantages which are to be derived from such exhibitions. Hilo blazed the trail in the islands so far as Civic Conventions and County Fairs are concerned, and should the proposition to inaugurate an All-Island Fair be carried, it would be but a just recognition of Hilo's initiative and administrative ability to hold such an exhibition in this city. By that time, it is probable that a location suitable for such an undertaking will have been obtained. Make the coming fair as great a success as possible and thus convince visitors from the other islands that Hilo is the logical place at which to hold such a fair and half the battle will be won.—Hilo Tribune.

MILITARY SANITORIUM One thing the people of Honolulu can do for the soldier is, through the chamber of commerce, to take up with Washington the matter of the establishment of a military sanatorium somewhere on the highlands of Hawaii, in the neighborhood of the Volcano, or on the upper slope of Haleakala. There exists a need for such an institution, where army convalescents may be sent for a change of climate. At the present time many of these are sent to the Coast to recuperate. —Advertiser.

Hilo May Have Baby Week. Hilo might well take a leaf from Honolulu's book and institute a "Baby Week." During the last week in April, certain of the Honolulu doctors will examine all babies presented to their attention free and prizes will be awarded to the infants gaining the highest rating. No medicines or treatment will be given free, but mothers will be informed as to whether or not the babies are in need of medical attention. "A stitch in time saves nine," we have been told from time immemorial; here a word to the mother may save the child from untold misery in years to come.—Hilo Tribune.

NO TRACE OF MISSING MOLOKAI CHINESE. Search has been abandoned for the missing Chinese fish pond man, of Molokai, Wong Wai Bond, who mysteriously dropped out of sight about 3 o'clock on the morning of March 15. Sheriff Crowell returned last Saturday from conducting a second search, the result of which was as fruitless as the first. It is taken for granted that the man is dead, though whether he committed suicide, or was murdered, is unknown. The strange part of the matter is the finding of no trace of the body.

It has been learned that the missing man had been in a despondent frame of mind for some time, which leads to the theory of suicide. It is also known that he settled some small indebtedness the day before he disappeared.

SUFFRAGE CONVENTION MAKES A HIT The "suffrage convention" entertainment given by the Ladies Aid Society of the Wailuku Union Church, last Friday evening, at the Town Hall, was greatly enjoyed by the rather small audience which attended. D. H. Case as "Miss Mirandy Wilcox, delegate from Honolulu," made the hit of the evening. Other prominent characters in the laughable farce were well taken by Mrs. F. B. Baldwin, Mrs. C. Jones, Mrs. R. B. Dodge, Mrs. V. A. Vellesen, Miss June Mitchell, Mrs. H. B. Penhallow, Mrs. L. R. Mathews, Miss A. Whisler, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Mrs. D. H. Case and Miss Crickard.

Dancing was indulged in following the "convention", and was much enjoyed.

COMMUNITY HOUSE FOR KAHULUI Preliminary steps have been taken for securing a community house, something on the lines of the Paia Community House, for Kahului. It is believed that the proposition should appeal strongly enough to the people of the community to make the project feasible. The need for such a building, which will provide a general place, filling the social and civic needs of the growing town, is becoming more apparent daily.

AN ANNIVERSARY PARTY In celebration of their 26th wedding anniversary, some 40 or 50 of the friends of Mr and Mrs. Worth O. Alken tendered them a most delightful surprise at the Paia Community House, last Saturday evening. The evening was a most enjoyable one, dancing and games being features of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Alken were recipients of a beautiful set of plates, as well as the enthusiastic congratulations of all their friends.
