JUDGE A. B. PARKER TO THE PRESS.

A WELCOME CHALLENGE.

"This challenge to a comparison of Democratic and Republican administrations since the Republican party came into existence should be welcomed. Fortunately we have eight recent years of Democratic administration of the executive department of the Government which we will gladly compare with any similar period since 1860.

"The comparison will show that under Democratic control the administrative purity of the fathers was observed in the conduct of the government; that no one of its departments was permeated as of late with corruption rivaling the days of the Star route frauds; that a successful effort was made to check the growth of expenditures; that it resulted in each instance in cutting down the expenses within control of the executive department of the government below the preceding administrations. The comparison will also show that each succeeding Republican administration after 1868 increased expenses, and in some instances so greatly as to indicate reckless extravagance and waste of the people's money.

"During Mr Cleveland's first term the average annual expenditures was about two hundred and sixty-nine millions. For the past three years it has been about five hundred and nineteen millions. The governmental expenditure last year mounted up to five hundred and eighty-two millions, which is not equaled by any year since the civil war with the exception of the year of the Spanish war. There is an inevitable result to such extravagance. Instead of a surplus in the annual receipts of about eighty millions, which the present executive found on assuming control, there is now a deficit to be found there of forty-two millions.

"The limits of this address will not permit a further reference to the cost of administration, but it should receive careful examination at your hands. And you will be convinced that 'reform is necessary,' says, far more necessary than in 1876 in the scale of public expenses and when convinced you will do less than your duty if you fail to make the people understand it. The challenge of the Republican platform permits you to compare the details, the every-day life, so to speak, of the Democratic administrations with both preceding and successive administrations and you will not shrink from it.

DEVOTION TO PRINCIPLE.

"The sturdy honesty, marked ability and thorough devotion to principle of all those in high places during those Democratic administrations may without hesitation be placed alongside of the qualifications of similar officials in any and all other administrations. Who, I pray you, would hesitate to compare the members of the Cabinet of those years with the present one, or with any one? Is the fame of Bayard, Manning, Fairchild, Endicott, Whitney, Vilas, Dickinson and Garland, members of the 1884 Cabinet, and Olney, Carlisle, Lamont, Smith, Francis, Herbert, Bissel, Wilson and Harmon, of that of 1892, dwarfed when contrasted with the Cabinet officers today? When the comparison is once completed you will be eager to ask the people which is the better. They will declare the victor in the contest between administrations to be the one which, in addition

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

In five weeks the voters in the Territory will be called upon to decide, whether we are to have a fair popular government here, or whether the present government by the family compact is to be continued.

We can elect a Legislature, which will compel the Governor to form an administration in touch with the sentiments of the majority of the people. The Democrats have put forward men, against whom no objection has been raised, even in the most rabid corner of the opposing party. The Democrats ask for the support of the voters for men who are competent to perform the duties of legislators in an intelligent and honest manner. There are really no issues on party lines in this election. The taxpayers have had enough of "politics" and only want the next Legislature to settle down to business, pass such laws as shall be considered wise and necessary for the best interests of all classes in the Territory, and then adjourn without any breath of scandal attached to the members individually and collectively.

Let us for a change have a Legislature composed of good citizens, who will do their duty without hope of graft or reward, and who in the future can point with pride to the work done. The Democrats offer to the people men of that character, men of sound common sense and, before all else, honest men. There are, of course, on the Republican ticket men above reproach, and even men of experience in the art of law-making, but as a whole the Democrats have put the best ticket in the field, and from the candidate for Delegate to those who wish to serve as representatives, the voters should give their support.

For Delegate Colonel Iaukea will prove a more valuable man than Prince Kuhio, who has lost the confidence, even of his own party. Kuhio is not competent for the office. He lacks the necessary education and is unfamiliar with matters pertaining to Territorial affairs. He is a nice, young fellow and all that, but that is not sufficient qualification for the man whom we want in the most important office within the gift of the Territory. He has proven himself the wrong man for the place, and his plea, that he will do better next time, should not have any weight, because Hawaii must get out of the experimental stage, if we want to gain anything for the benefit of the Territory. Colonel Iaukea has not been tried yet, but his past is such, that it is reasonable for the voters to place confidence in his experience, his ability and his maturity. Those who have the prosperity of Hawaii at heart will vote for Curtis Iaukea.

An Illusory Vision.

Our soul heavily grieved and groaned, and our chest heaved high, when first we learnt the evening that the late S E Damon was done to death that it was a native that dealt the cowardly blow that felled him and that the murderer's accomplices were also natives. We could not believe it, knowing them and their nature too well, as it is not in them to act so unless provoked and out of mind. Our belief was finally confirmed by the parties arrested and made confessions, who all proved to be not natives, but foreigners.

Because the features of the trio were brown, like those of aborigines, the evening being dark, the woman in the affair wearing a holoku, and were spoken to in Hawaiian, they were made out to be Hawaiians without any qualification or redeeming virtue. We cannot for a moment believe that the informer who gave such information ever dreamt that it would be used by politicians as a weapon against them, because it was campaign time, and to drive the wedge in more securely against them and their being unworthy citizens of a white man's country. And further, we can't believe that that person ever gave thought to this phase of the issue.

The whole business was done on the spur of the moment and it finally turned out to have been only an illusion of the eyes and mind being impressed by what was seen and heard upon the scene. Any other person may have had the same impression on first sight. We felt a relief when it turned out otherwise and our belief confirmed and verified, vindicating the native character and standing.

As To Chinese Coolies.

The latest addition to the Republican campaign literature is an editorial in this morning's Advertiser, urging Congress to pass some measure through which Hawaii can be flooded with Chinese coolies. The official organ breaks out in a eulogy on the Chinese, who are "docile, industrious, amendable to law," etc. Hawaiians have had their sad and bitter experience with the overflow of their country by Asiatics, and one of the blessings of annexation was the end to the indiscriminate importation of cheap coolies. The organ of the Republican party has now publicly shown the policy, which the Republicans intend to carry out if they should win the election. A Republican Legislature would petition Congress to open the door to the Asiatic coolies in Hawaii, and we would again face the condition the people of Hawaii have fought against for so many years. Hawaii is yet saddled with an excessive population of Asiatic males; we don't want any more of them, and no Congress will ever open the door to them, in spite of all the selfish protestations of our absentee sugar barons.

The Jury Law.

It is true, that the first results of the new Jury law have not been very encouraging, and that the commissioners have been somewhat unsuccessful in the selection of proper juries, but, when we consider the difficulties the commissioners have been laboring under during the first term, it is not surprising that many errors have occurred. The juries here however compare well with those of any other Territory of a limited population, and our juries, as a whole, are composed of intelligent and conscientious men, in whose hands the proper administration of justice is perfectly safe. The Advertiser must accept the apologies of the jurors, because their verdicts are not always based upon its editorial opinions, and because the jurors judge the cases tried by them on the evidence and facts, while the Advertiser tries the cases according to its prejudices and personal sentiments. After all trial by jury is safer than trial by the Advertiser.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Republican ticket in the Fifth is now dubbed the "Limburger ticket" by the organ. It is getting "stronger."

We are glad to learn, that the "scratcher" is out in force in the Republican party. That means a Democratic victory, as it should be.

If Rev Dr Bishop will visit Republican headquarters the day after election, he will be able to discover another "Cold Pacific Current" of a very "frosty" nature.

Dead issues are being resurrected by Republicans in the Fifth District.

They avoid the real, live issues of the campaign. If such in their fight, they deserve to be relegated to the bone heap.

Thurston, according to his paper, has a wholesome fear of Ashford and Colburn. Is that the result of his experience with the first named in 1887 and with the latter in 1893? Conspiracies will out!

The Advertiser this morning reads Aylatt out of the Republican ticket for Representative. Before election day there will not be much left of the original Republican ticket, as far as the Advertiser clique goes, and the success of the Democrats will be assured.

It is well to remember, on the eve of election, that the man who introduced the Porto Ricans here was Mr E Faxon Bishop, who as the agent for the planters went East to get this undesirable addition to our population. But what is a life or two to our sugar barons, as long as they have cheap labor and big dividends?

Does the boy orator mean to say that he is a negro. Although not a full blooded Hawaiian himself, he dare not liken himself and Hawaiians as negroes. He had better first look within his party and then go forth and tell the people how they are treating Hawaiians, who are unrecognized in party councils as well as in office.

Home Rule Selection for Fourth.

Home Rulers of the Fourth District were to have met at 10 o'clock this forenoon in Convention, but they spent most of the time caucusing. The Convention time was postponed to 1 o'clock this afternoon. Following are the names selected as candidates for Representatives: David Notley, W S Makekai, Sam K Kamakia, Paabao, Henry Meheula and J K Kaohi.

October Weather.

Alex McC Ashley, the weather bureau man, has issued a report of conditions as they have existed during the month of October for 27 years. It shows the mean temperature during the period to have been 76, the lowest having been 63 and the highest 90. The average rainfall was 2.46, and the prevailing winds from the northeast.

UNDER THE BANYAN TREE.

Democrats Attacked by Republicans on Dead Issues.

Under the branches of a large banyan tree on the old Ruth Keelikouani premises, out Kapalama way and almost directly opposite the Kaulani school, the Republicans held forth to quite a goodly crowd of spectators. Torches lighted up the place, lending a somewhat weird looking spectacle in the dark.

At the same place the evening before, they failed to have a meeting, because the people did not turn out, yet it was given out that the meeting was called off out of respect to the memory of a man murdered in cold blood. It is said that during yesterday, the men working on the School street extension were notified by their bosses to attend the meeting, and they turned out well. Samuel C Dwight presided at the meeting. Below is a synopsis of some of the speeches made:

Kelekolio, the boy orator, attacked the Democrats because of Tillman's abuse of the negro in the South, using a whip a mile long to keep them away from the polls. Democrats, according to his ideas, have no use for the negro, and therefore have none for the Hawaiian.

A Sol Kaleiopi attacked the plank in the Democratic platform bearing on the Government's spending within its income. He said they would increase taxation.

Henry Vids attacked Cecil Brown because he was not an originator, but was all for Brown first, last and all the time.

Chas Broad said that during Cleveland's second administration, the Democrats in Congress passed a resolution that Hawaii should govern itself by working out its own salvation. That brought about the death of a few misguided Hawaiians who thought they could restore the Queen.

Joe Kalana attacked W A Kinney as being one of the original annexationists and no good can come from such a source.

Sol Mahelona gave out some hot air, together with A K Palekalubi, S Palehu and others. The meeting closed about 10:30 o'clock.

That Speaking Contest at Corner.

The street corner speaking contest of yesterday did not end at 1 o'clock as expected, but it was kept on till 2:15 o'clock. While the contest was still going on, an ice wagon came by and the iceman gave each speaker a chip of ice to cool themselves off with, but that didn't do it. Then Harry Juen took compassion on them and he gave each a bottle of root beer with which to slake their thirst and dampen their parched throats. After drinking, they again went at it with renewed vigor until Republican Joe Kalana gave way to Democrat Sam Kalos.

But the best part of this contest, was the report of last evening's Bulletin giving the Republican credit for besting the Democrat with staying powers. The credit should have been the other way.

At today's meeting, a properly erected platform had been provided. A little after the noon hour, Geo Markham mounted it and acted as chairman. He was very fair, giving all sides a show and a fair hearing. Long winded Sam Kalos, the Democrat, was the first speaker and he slightly referred to his encounter of yesterday with Joe Kalana, who was not about today and could not spy him in the crowd.

When Home Ruler Kamai, an old man from Kamoiili, mounted the stage, he spoke earnestly for his cause, waving his cane in the air. He showed that he was very excited. The crowd cheered him when he finished.

Other speakers were Sam Wahilani Kaleikini, Lavana Keawapooole, Iola Kiakahi, B H Kelekolio, Kamaloha, Markham and others.

District Court Doings.

The bulk of the calendar at this morning's session were cases of vagrancy against a dozen Porto Ricans who were rounded up last night. Two of them, Jose Raveira and Henry Romero, were sentenced to a year's imprisonment each, three (Helena Rodriguez, Adila Leada and Oliva Moreno, all women) got three months each, four were reprimanded and discharged and one put over to tomorrow. Those sentenced had costs assessed.

For gross cheat, by representing himself as a collector for a burial association, J Spencer, was fined $50 and costs; Manuel Gomez, larceny in the second degree, from last Monday was nolle prossed; Manuel Camacho for assault and battery with a deadly weapon, was committed to the Circuit Court; Ah Sing, common nuisance by allowing waste on his premises, was fined $3 and costs.

Other cases nolle prossed was the old embezzlement case against Kayano, postponed from August 30, and Sept. 16, and Joe Muniz, for assault and battery on Robt McBride. Lopeka, a native woman for selling liquor without a license, went over to tomorrow.

Volcano Water Pan.

Last Tuesday morning Judge Parsons granted the petition in the equity suit of Cecil Brown, one of the partners of the firm of H L Williams & Co., manufacturers of the celebrated Kawaisieku Volcano water in Puna, wherein he prayed for a dissolution of the partnership and the appointment of a receiver. Ridgway & Ridgway represented the plaintiff and H L Ross appeared on behalf of the respondent, Williams. By agreement of counsel, J E Elderts was appointed receiver, and he has been authorized by the Court to dispose of the plant and wind up the business. All property belonging to the company is to be sold at public auction on December 1st.—Hilo Tribune.

Democratic Rally.

All of the Democratic candidates for the Legislature from this Island will be expected to speak at the ratification meeting in the Orpheum theatre tomorrow evening. In addition to these there will be addresses by Col C P Ianke, Judge Galbraith, and W A Kinney. The committee hopes to make the meeting a record breaker.

Card of Thanks.

S M Damon desires on behalf of the widow and family of his late son and on behalf of his absent wife and the members of his own family, to express the deep appreciation which they feel for the many tokens of sympathy they have received, and that have done so much to relieve them of the burden of their loss.

tion to other excellencies, saved many millions a year to the nation. "Extravagance is running riot in Federal, State and municipal governments, in spite of the well directed efforts of some excellent officers. The indebtedness of the municipal governments are steadily piling up, bond issues are increasing frequent and the people have not the satisfaction in many instances of a full equivalent in improvements for the money expended. And the Federal Government is leading in the race of great expenditures. Ere long the people will demand a reform in administrative expenses. "And they will do it now if they are made to appreciate the whole truth.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

"The Democratic party is not a machine; it is a body of citizens who believe that on the whole its fundamental principles are best adapted to the conduct of the Government."

"Among so many patriotic and intelligent men, it is inevitable that divergence of opinion as to minor questions and differences of view as to the correctness of the disposition of dead issues should be found. The party is concededly united today as to every vital article of faith which can reasonably enter into the pending canyas.

"Our adversaries are entrenched, in full possession of every department of the Government, and it is a mistaken policy that will drive away voters who would help to oust them. The cause cannot be advanced by attacks on others within the party with whom we have had disagreements, but who are now working with us for a common result.

"All men who have attained any degree of prominence have their friends, and the exercise of ordinary prudence forbids the alienation of allies who are willing and anxious to assist. The coming election is not to be determined by the September vote in hopelessly Republican States where local issues and candidates even are previously handicapped, but the result in Vermont on Tuesday admonished us, and there can be no harm in giving voice to the admonition—that harmonious, co-operation of all and the elimination of personal, factional and unimportant differences, involving no surrender of principle, are essential to success."
