THE BONUS FOR SPEED
 SHIP HENRY B. HYDE LEAVES FOR NEW YORK.
 One of Five of Mighell's Ships Trying to Make the Trip in a Hundred Days.
 The ship Henry B. Hyde, one of the five vessels competing for a prize offered by her owner for good time on the long run from Honolulu to New York, leaves today with a full cargo of sugar, her master, Captain McLeod, taking with him the wishes of many people here that he will get round the Horn and up the other side of the continent in time to draw down the money. The Hyde has to get to New York in a hundred days in order to get the cash, which is a prize of $500 offered by shipowner W. E. Mighell to any of his captains who succeed in doing it. If any of the lot make the prize limit, the captain took charge of her here, when she was turned over to the Mighell line by her former owners. She brought coal from Norfolk, having a fire in the coal, which compelled her to leave half of it at Valparaiso.
 Bets have been made along the front that none of the ships make the trip to New York in a hundred days, but the Hyde has done it once, and it won't be McLeod's fault if she does not do it this time. He is well known as a nifty and competent master, and he will get the best out of the weather he encounters.

THE NEW HOTEL MANAGER.
 "Billy" Allen of Portland, Who Comes to the Hawaiian.
 PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—J. W. "Billy" Allen, oldest clerk, in point of service at the Hotel Portland, has received and accepted the appointment as manager of the Hawaiian Hotel, the leading hostelry of Honolulu. Mr. Allen will assume his managerial duties July 1.
 His advancement is gratifying to his legion of friends. He began his services in Portland the day the hotel was opened. He turned the first leaf of the first ledger of the hotel April 1, 1890, when Charles Leland was manager. He afterwards served under Manager Barnmore and the present manager, H. C. Bowers. Before coming to Portland Mr. Allen was in the Leland-Wiggins Hotel at Springfield, Ill., and for two years a clerk in Chicago under Warren Leland, a brother of Charles Leland, and one of the most successful of the Leland family in the management of eastern hotels.
 When Mr. Allen arrived P. M. Lucas was offered the position of assistant manager under Mr. Allen at his old salary. This he declined. He was then offered the post of manager at the Wald-Rid Annex, but also declined this. Mr. Macfarlane says Mr. Lucas knew six months ago that he would be replaced in the first position at the hotel; about four weeks ago he read a letter from Colonel Macfarlane stating that a new man would be secured and would be brought down very soon. It is true that Mr. Allen arrived a little earlier than had been expected.
 Mr. Macfarlane regrets the departure of Mr. Lucas from the hotel, and speaks in the highest terms of him as a man and a trusted employee. At the same time he feels that the interests of the big caravansary will be better served by a man of longer and wider experience.

THE TELEGRAPH OFFICE.
 The wireless telegraph office in town will be located in the Magoon building, opposite the telephone exchange. Mr. Hitchcock, the bicycle man, who is an expert telegraph operator, will be in charge. A Morse instrument will be used in the office down town, connecting with the instrument at Kaimuki, so that messages from the other islands will arrive at Kaimuki and town simultaneously.

Alsen Portland Cement

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a large shipment of this celebrated Cement, which is the STRONGEST AND MOST SERVICEABLE CEMENT MADE, and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand; it is therefore the most economical.

ALSEN has no equal in color, fineness and sand carrying capacity. It weighs less per bushel, measuring about 10 per cent more cement to a barrel than other brands, which very materially reduces its cost as compared with other cements; it is therefore an economical cement to use, and specially adapted for fine concrete work.

The following tests, made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the seawall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equaled by any other cement. It is as follows: Tensile strength per square inch—One day, 354 pounds; seven days, 600 pounds; thirty days, 818 pounds.

For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most enduring wearing surface. A few of the large contracts in which Alsen Cement was used: Cable R. R., Baltimore, 35,000 barrels; Quebec Harbor Improvement, 20,000 barrels; Northern Pacific R. R. bridges, 20,000 barrels.

WITH THE LOCAL MILITARY SAYINGS AND DOINGS IN THE COMPANIES.
Company B's High Jinks Last Night a Big Success—F's Obstreperous Member—A's Coming Dance.

Company B, N. G. H., had an immense party and a jolly good time at the drill shed last evening. There was some music, specialties and light refreshments. The turn-out was all that had been expected. Captain C. B. Cottrell was in command during the evening.

The personnel of Company A has almost entirely changed under the command of Captain Klemme. Besides the roll has increased somewhat. From two to six men are added weekly. Captain Klemme will be in charge on the special assembly tomorrow morning.
Company A expects a big time at its ball on the evening of July 25.

The trouble with the young men in Company F is not one to lose any sleep over. This has been American territory since 12, 1898, and all government officials and the military have since been required to take the oath of both Hawaii and the United States. It will be the same right on. A military oath taken prior to June 13 is just as binding on a man as one taken on June 15, unless, indeed, he has a very clear conscience, which seems to be the fault with the former Company F man.

Colonel Soper's commission as adjutant general expired with the commission of President Dole on June 13. It is understood that he will be reappointed on the staff of Governor Dole, though the Hawaiian bill is in the hands of the matter of an adjutant general. Under the changed conditions this officer should be the head of the military department in place of the minister of foreign affairs.

Company F expects to make short work of the police in the coming rifle match. The team has made 440 in practice, but this was not at Iwilei butts.
It is estimated that the new range on the beach road will cost $1,500. The regiment expects most of this to be put up by the Board of Health, as the health authorities render the old range untenable. OLD VET.

McWAYNE-TATTEN.
Miss Lulu McWayne, daughter of the late Dr. A. McWayne, and E. F. Tatten, manager of the McWayne Coffee Company on Hawaii, were married at St.
Andrew's cathedral at 9 o'clock this morning. Rev. Alex. Mackintosh officiated.

OFFICERS ELECTED.
At the annual meeting of the Building and Loan Association held last evening, A. V. Gear, C. B. Gray and A. A.
Wilder were elected directors for three years. W. R. Sims, C. C. Rhodes and George W. Farr were elected auditors.

HURT IN A RUNAWAY.
There was a runaway near the railway depot late yesterday afternoon as a result of which a Japanese is in the hospital with what may prove fatal injuries. It was a dray with two horses that turned into King street near the depot and the driver driving. A wheel of the dray struck something in the road and the man went flying over beneath the rig. When picked up he was unconscious, and was bleeding from a big hole in the back of his head.
Harry Juen sprang into the dray and soon succeeded in checking the horses.

MISS HOWE'S RECITAL.
Miss Edith Howe's second recital, which took place at the Y. M. C. A.
last evening, was highly entertaining.
Applause was frequent and hearty. So pleased have Honolulu people been with Miss Howe's recitals that she will probably be asked to continue them.

THE MYRTLE DANCE.
Indications are that the Myrtle dance tomorrow evening will be the social event of the day. Most elaborate preparations are being made. It is now certain that the crowd will be a very large one. Dancing will begin at 8 o'clock.
Music will be supplied by a full orchestra.

BOND FOR $100,000.
The executors of the will of the late James Campbell filed their bond Friday in the sum of $100,000. The executors are Cecil Brown, J. G. Carter and Abigail Campbell. Fred Harrison, E. S. Cunha and Frank Hustace are sureties.

CAUGHT OVER NIGHT.
Bonnie Lemon and party in the yacht Pokli slept in the sails of their boat on the waters of Pearl Harbor Sunday night. The wind was so light in the afternoon that they could not get out.
They left the harbor about 4 o'clock this morning and had a fine run up.

ADJOURNS TO THURSDAY.
The Supreme court met again Monday morning and adjourned to Thursday morning. The remainder of the commission are expected by the Australia Wednesday morning.

An Sing was arrested Monday morning by Officer Halverson for cruelty to

IS IT RIGHT
For An Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?
(From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, Fla., C.)
It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years, and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering, while a physician is awaited.
We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided, and in many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1900.

A BIRTHDAY.

The Fourth of July. The birthday of a nation. All nations have their national holiday, but there are few or none which actually celebrate their birth. The French celebrate the Fall of the Bastille, but that is the celebration of the fall of a system; not the birth of a nation. The Portuguese celebrate their overthrow of the Spanish power, but that was only a return to a former political state. England celebrates St. George's Day; Scotland, St. Andrew's; Ireland, St. Patrick's; and Wales, St. David's, but these are the patron saints of the various sections of the Kingdom, and are equivalent to the Names Day of the Russian, and are very different from the birthday. In monarchies the natal day of the sovereign is the chief national holiday as a rule. Certainly, the United States, unique in many things, a leader in many things, is a leader here. It has a distinct birthday.

It is certainly a day to be proud of; a day on which to dwell on many thoughts that make us proud of our past. What a grand group is that which is headed by Washington, Adams, Jefferson, each in turn to be President, and each in turn to leave an indelible mark upon the history of his country. There are those who would not have the Declaration of Independence read at the annual celebration. But why? Surely there is nothing to criticize in it. It is a manly, straightforward document, and says what it means in manly, straightforward words. And they were words that the signers were ready to give their lives for. The original document is in the State Department at Washington, a precious relic, but the ink has faded out and it is impossible to decipher the names. This is due to the fact that permission was given to make a fac simile reproduction, and the chemicals used injured the document.

Then it is a day to consider the enormous growth of the country. Think of the little strip along the Atlantic seaboard, and extending back not much further than the Alleghanies, while westward there lay an enormous and almost pathless region claimed in part by France, in part by Spain, and inhabited, except in a few isolated spots, by bloodthirsty savages, and scarcely less cruel wild beasts. And then tomorrow, only one hundred and twenty-five years later, we can look upon that whole enormous and almost pathless region as one vast smiling champaign. A country yielding its increase to the efforts of the sturdy agriculturist; producing raw material for the manufacturer and mechanic, and foodstuffs for the whole world. And the miner has come along and tapped the rugged mountain side, bringing forth rich stores of gold, of silver, of copper, of iron and of coal. All this in a century and a quarter of growth.

The vast possessions of France and Spain, which on the day when the Declaration of Independence was signed, far exceeded in area and in prospective wealth the little strip of the thirteen colonies. Yet the thirteen colonies absorbed the immense area, civilized it, swept away the Indian and his cruelties, cleared out the wild beasts, and felled the pathless forest. When one contemplates these facts, they strike the mind as being a marvelous achievement. No nation has done so much in so short a time.

Had the western lands belonged to France and Spain during the same period, what would have been their history? California would still have been the sleepy California that it was in 1848. San Francisco would be a pile of sand-hills and a few scattered houses and warehouses. New Orleans might have been the gay city that it still is, but there would be nothing like the wealth and prosperity it can now show.

And had California and the west coast remained in the lethargic state which obtained during the first seventy-five years of American independence, where would Hawaii have been? Would it have advanced by leaps and bounds as it has done during the last fifty years. Assuredly not. Hawaii would have occupied a position somewhat analogous to Tahiti. A sleepy, unprogressive, lotus eating sort of spot, with a tainted morality and a love for strong waters. It would have been a fit appendage for the equally lotus eating California.

All this conquest of the forces of nature, the laying out of enormous towns on spots where the bear and buffalo used to wander, and the Indian shout his warcry and wave his blood stained scalp, this spread of millions of people into millions of homes comes not only from the energy of the race, for the advancing horde of workers belonged to many races, but to the inherent advantages of the political system, founded by the fathers of the republic, whose inception we tomorrow celebrate.

As the hardy pioneer advanced he took with him the principles of freedom. He was not flying from autoeracy; he felt himself the apostle of freedom, which he had enjoyed in his home state. So he founded state after state as he proceeded westward, bringing forth into the world a series of commonwealths in each of which the individual took the deepest interest, and yet all bound together by a common bond of union which now stretches from Alaska to Florida, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It stretches further; that indissoluble bond crosses two thousand miles of ocean and links us with the mighty commonwealths of the north and of the south, of the east and of the west. The same interest and sterling political virtues will help to make us great, as it has made them great. We are a part of a magnificent system, founded by a grand set of patriots on July 4, 1776, whose memory we should revere, and whose virtues we should imitate.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

The Nicaragua canal project, which hung fire during last session, will come up for fresh discussion at the next session, and may possibly be finally passed. There are many advantages over the Panama route, but the Panama people keep pegging steadily on, and unless the United States makes a move soon, the Panama people will be so far ahead that they will get their enterprise through first. It is the custom to think that Panama has been abandoned, but nothing of the kind is the case; work goes on regularly, but it is not so swiftly pushed as formerly. There is quite a mileage of navigable canal now.

Over the commencement of the canal we are still haggling, though it has so much in its favor. The mountain range that reaches from the northern extremity of the continent to the southern, is here depressed to an altitude of only 150 feet above sea level, being the lowest spot between the Arctic Ocean and Cape Horn. Another great advantage is the lake itself and the San Juan river. The lake, which is ninety-five miles long and thirty-five miles wide, would be available for ships for twenty-six miles of the canal route, and the San Juan river can be navigated for sixty-five miles. This leaves twenty-six miles for excavation of pure canal character, and twenty-one miles through the necessary basins. The whole distance from ocean to ocean will be one hundred and sixty-eight miles, and the time necessary to pass through about twenty-eight hours.

Of course, we of the Territory of Hawaii are singularly interested in the pushing through of either canal, but we are particularly interested in the Nicaragua project, because it is a purely American project. Its advantage to us will be incalculable. We shall always occupy an important position in the Pacific Ocean, whether there is a canal or not, but our importance will be much enhanced when the canal is an accomplished fact. We shall then be in direct and rapid sea communication with New York, and the seaboard of the Atlantic. Fleets of deeply laden vessels will be flying to and fro, and nearly everyone will have to call here.

The prospect, whenever one takes the trouble to look at it, is most alluring, because as sure as Diamond Head guards the shores of Oahu, Honolulu will become the Singapore of the Pacific, and will spread so widely that house lots will be sought for from Koko Head to beyond the Ewa line. We ought all to shout Nicaragua canal with all our lung power. To us it will open a magnificent era.

The Kinau had quite a select party of alleged homicides on board when she left yesterday. An American, an Hawaiian and a Japanese formed the company. All were from the big Island. One alleged crime was probably the result of drink; the others arose from jealousy. Jealousy is a very frequent cause of crime among both Hawaiians and Japanese. There have been many instances extending over a long period of years.

On Thursday the summer session of the Normal School will open. This gives an opportunity for teachers who are poorly equipped for their profession to smooth away some of the deficiencies. For teachers of this class the summer session is probably of more value than a teachers' convention. Teachers from abroad are very apt to talk over the heads of those who are not too well educated. Practical work is what the Hawaiian schools need, and visionary theories of an educational millenium which will never come.

The sugar dividend distributed in the last two days of business has put a very substantial amount in circulation. Of course a good deal of this goes into further investment, but a good deal of it goes into the pockets of wholesale and retail dealers. Wherever it goes it does good. The same may be said of the money from the Postal Savings Bank. It will not go into general circulation, because it represents capital of the small investor, but it will seek reinvestment in some direction, and the chances are that the prices of stocks will stiffen considerably.

It is satisfactory that the yachtmen have at last determined to get rid of the money prizes and are going to have their sport put upon a true amateur basis. When Caspar Whitney was here, and looking through the fields saw the class of prizes offered, he remarked "You have no amateur sport here. It is all professional." However a good start has now been made, and it is to be hoped that the example will be followed. At Sunday School picnics it has been the custom to sometimes give small money prizes for the races. It would be very much better to give knives, dolls, toys and small trinkets. The habit of thought that the credit of winning an athletic contest does not lie in the intrinsic value of the prize cannot be too early inculcated.

A HABEAS CORPUS MATTER

EDWARDS CASE TO BE REVIEWED AGAIN.

Judge Davis, the Prisoner's Attorney, Secures Writ From Justice Galbraith—Evidence in Hogan Cases.

"We command you that upon the receipt of this writ, you have and produce before the Honorable, the Supreme court of the Territory of Hawaii, at the courthouse in Honolulu at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the 9th day of July, 1906, the body of George L. Edwards, who is unjustly imprisoned and restrained of his liberty, as it is said, to do and to receive what shall then and there be considered concerning him in this behalf, and have you then and there this writ with your doings thereon.

"CLINTON A. GALBRAITH, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii."

The above writ was signed yesterday and served upon Marshal Brown. The man Edwards will be produced Monday morning before the full bench. This case has been up before under habeas corpus proceedings. Judge Davis contends that the prisoner was convicted by only ten out of twelve men, which is contrary to the Constitution of the United States; and that, inasmuch as the conviction was based upon the uncorroborated testimony of a witness who was to all intents an accomplice. The Hawaiian court held that the Constitution of the United States did not then apply, and would not until the compact between Hawaii and the United States had been completed by the formal extension of American laws to this country. This ruling was both supported and criticized.

Edwards was given five years' imprisonment, and has served nearly two years of the time. The case will be one of the first problems to be handled by the new Supreme court.

The depositions of the officers of the Mlowera in another of the Hogan damage cases will be taken while the vessel is in port tomorrow.

The next meeting of the Supreme court will be at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, when it is expected that commissions will have arrived and organization may be completed.

In the matter of George E. Boardman vs. Firemen's Fund Insurance Company, suit to recover on a fire policy, defendant has filed an answer denying each and every allegation in the complaint contained and declares it will rely on the illegality, release and discharge of the contract sued on.

In the matter of Wilder Steamship Company vs. ship John C. Potter, libel for salvage, defendant has filed another plea to the jurisdiction of the court.

The case of White vs. McKenzie was argued for a short time in Justice Stainey's court this morning. A feature in this matter was that Justice Whiting appeared as an attorney therein.

A HACK RUNAWAY.

A Chinese hack ran away on Punchbowl street about 6 o'clock this morning and wound up on a hydrant at the junction with Hotel. The driver was thrown out at the time of the collision and quite badly hurt. Neighbors telephoned for the patrol wagon, but it did not arrive, and they bandaged the head of the sufferer. The hack was broken in several places.

GARNISHEES DISCHARGED.

Judge Stanley has rendered a decision in the case of C. F. Jenne vs. Campbell & Pettus, assumpsit, holding Claus Spryckels & Co. as garnishee, but dismissing any claims against W. G. Irwin, Henry Waterhouse, C. W. Dickey and the Hawaiian Automobile Company. Exceptions have been noted.

NEW CORPORATIONS.

A charter was yesterday granted by the government to the Hawaiian Orphanage and Industrial Association.

Seely I. Shaw was granted a liquor dealer's license for Hilo.

The application of the new soda water works at Hilo for a charter was returned for the reason that the papers were not in proper form.

The application of C. R. Dement for a liquor license on Queen street, was further discussed, but no action taken.

LIQUOR KILLED HIM.

Ku Kahue, native of Molokai, aged 41, died at Kaili camp this morning of acute alcoholism. He was attended by Dr. Howard.

A LIVELY PRISONER.

W. J. Beacher, who was fined $6 for "a bad case of drunk" Monday morning in the police court, gave the officers at the station one of the liveliest times they have had for many days. He was arrested for fighting on the streets with A. Dolph, who had a black eye to show for the trouble. Beacher gave the turnkey a hard tussle, and when he finally got below, began to mix things with everyone in sight. It was nio and tuck between him and several officers for a few moments. Dolph also got a fine of $6.

THE HEALTHY WOMAN.

Aside from form or features, she has an attractiveness all her own. The bloom on her cheek, the elasticity in her step, the ring of her voice, her enjoyment of life—all these are magnets which draw others to her side. Wonderful and valuable as it is, health is not so difficult a thing to obtain as some discouraged ones think. Most of the troubles of women arise from impure blood, impaired nutrition, low vitality and general debility. Modern science furnishes the most successful remedies for this condition—namely:

WAMPOL'S PREPARATION.

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Taken before meals it improves the appetite, makes fat, restores vitality, enriches the blood and cures those weaknesses peculiar to the sex, which are the seat of their troubles. It is a blessing to Tired Wives, Nursing Mothers and Girls growing into womanhood. It colors the pale faces and rounds out the hollow chests. In a word, it nourishes and develops the entire body and brings happy surprises to feeble, hopeless and discouraged sufferers. "Dr. J. J. Boyes says: I have found it a preparation of great merit. In a recent case a patient gained nearly twenty pounds in two months' treatment, in which it was the principal remedial agent." It is the typical medicinal success of our age, and a remedy which acts in harmony with nature's own efforts and processes. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists here.

All Tired Out

Pale, Thin, Poor Blood, No Energy.

These are the symptoms of impure blood, starved blood. Take out the impurities, feed the blood, and health quickly returns.

Mrs. George Mitchell, of Yuille St., Buninyong, Victoria, send us her photograph with the following story:

"I suffered terribly from general debility.
I had no energy. I was tired in the morning as at night. It did not seem possible for me to keep up. I was thin and pale and my blood was very poor. I had no appetite. I gradually grew weaker and weaker. When almost completely exhausted I read about

AYER'S
Sarsaparilla

I immediately tried it and began to improve at once. A few bottles completely restored me to health."

You cannot get the best results from Ayer's Sarsaparilla if your bowels are constipated. Take just enough of Ayer's Pills each night to cause one good free movement of the bowels the day following.

WOULD HAVE REFERENDUM

CORRESPONDENT BELIEVES IN VOX POPULI.

Thinks Important Questions Should be Submitted to Voters Independent of Party Politics.

EDITOR STAR:—In shaping policies for the coming election and session of the Legislature I wish to call attention to a matter that seems to me of great importance, and at the same time that can be easily handled in this Territory. During the past seven years the charge has frequently been made that the few were making laws for the many and that the latter had no voice in public affairs generally. That is perhaps true; I wish to go a bit farther, however, and submit that a large number of measures adopted by the local administration were not favored by many of its most ardent supporters, many of the same measures may have been more popular with the Government's opposents. As a matter of fact in the past seven years the ideas of the people have not been ascertained on a single measure unless it was the "thumb-mark" bill, which aroused such a storm of disapproval that it was killed by its own fathers.

An income tax bill was passed. It was sprung by the Legislature and no one has ever known whether it was supported by 100 or 10,000 people. This is a pretty wide margin on a matter of such great importance. Perhaps ninety-nine out of every hundred voters favored this bill. In that case it should have stood. The Supreme Court decided it was unconstitutional.
With such a support by the people the constitution should have been amended.

As a matter of fact the people have not had and do not now have a proper voice in the affairs of the Territory.
It is changing the saloon limits of Honolulu. Who knows that the people wish this done? Possibly they favor it; possibly they are almost united in the opinion that there should be no change; possibly they wish the saloon moved to Kalaheo or closed altogether. Numerous other transactions are being made and are in contemplation that interest the people greatly and yet they have no voice in them.

Party platforms do not serve the purpose, for in the heat of a campaign many men vote their party ticket and lose sight of the planks put forth in the platform. They wake up later with an itching to kick themselves. I believe, moreover, that important questions should be submitted directly to the people independent of party. It is a kind of crime to hang the mill-stone of party politics around the neck of many important measures. I believe in a pure, unadulterated referendum in advance of final legislation. In many States this is successfully carried out.

Take the income tax law as an instance. At the bottom of each ticket, Republican, Democratic and Independent, should be printed this question:
"Are you in favor of an income tax?"
The result would show the voice of the people unhampered by party politics, and no matter what the composition of the legislature might be its action would be in accord with this vote beyond any question. Numerous other matters should be submitted in the same way. I hope to see the time in this country when every great question will be balloted upon by the people; the referendum is the foundation stone of the original American idea and in no way can rule by the people be more perfectly secured.

COMMISSIONER TAYLOR.

New Head of Agricultural Department
Seated Today.

Wray Taylor attended the Executive meeting yesterday as Commissioner of Agriculture. He received his commission and was sworn in early in the morning.

Mr. Taylor has been in Hawaii nearly twenty years, ten years of which he has been in the service of the government as secretary of immigration and electoral registrar. During this time he has several times had charge of the agricultural office. He is a careful office man, and will surely give satisfaction.

It is the intention of the government to greatly increase the scope and value of the agricultural bureau.

REFORMER HOLDS MEETINGS IN CHURCHES.

The Christian Editor at Makawao and Kula Opened to His Mission—$10,000 Added to Reform Funds.

Leung Chi-tso, the Chinese reformer, has occupied a local Christian pulpit on the island of Maui.

He returned Friday, after a tour of Maui that was as successful, though not as picturesque in its outbreaks of enthusiasm as his tour of Kauai. He held meetings all over central Maui and at Lahaina. He was subscribed to the Chinese meetings were held in churches. At Makawao, a meeting was held in the native church. There are not a great many Chinese in this region, hence, though the church was filled to its capacity, most of his auditors were Hawaiians and other foreigners to the Chinese. At Kula, where there are a great many Chinese, the church, which seats about a thousand, was almost entirely filled with Chinese.

Leung Chi-tso left here June 15. On his arrival at Kahului the next day he was met by a large committee of Chinese with various gifts, escorted him to Waifuku. Several well attended meetings were held here and then the reformer made his tour of central Maui.

At Lahaina there was a big dinner, reception and speeches at Col. Sam Nowlin's, which was largely attended. About $10,000 was subscribed to the reform party's funds on Maui during this tour.

It was Leung Chi-tso's intention to go from here to the Coast to continue his reform propaganda among the Chinese there. But the recent events in China have somewhat changed his plans, and he may go to the Orient instead. He thinks that the present situation may be the open door to the reform movement in China itself, and to the carrying out of the plans of the now exiled reformers for the introduction of scientific learning, methods and reforms into the centuries old country and civilization of China.

HE HAS NO TELEPHONE NOW

HOW ONE MACHINE WAS TAKEN OUT.

The Story of a Honolulu Man's Disastrous Efforts to Give Orders to Central.

There is one telephone less along the water front, where a local business man recently got rid of his machine in a new way. The first he had in short seizure with the phone, beginning with his instructions to the office boy to call up a certain number.

"Seven eleven—four forty-four."

The piping voice of the office boy began to ring in his ears. The man who wanted to talk to someone else rose hastily from his desk and took the receiver from the boy. "Seven eleven—four forty-four," he said.

"About eight o'clock tonight—" "782—369—" "Hallo—Yes,—had a lovely time and—" "Hallo."

The business man turned to see if his lady typewriter was within hearing. She was.

"Central," he yelled sharply. "What's the matter with 711—44—in a hurry, too." Still the receiver brought his merry chorus. Two ladies somewhere were chatting about a sick baby, someone was telling someone else about the hour of a steamer's departure and the angry 44 could hear another man using frightful language in an effort to arouse central. He tried again. "711—44." This time he struck the psychological moment and central answered. He waited in silent anticipation for about five minutes, as it seemed.

"Hey, central, what's the matter with 711—44?"

The man had now spent about fifteen minutes at the business. The typewriter seemed to be enjoying it and the office boy had presently got out of the way. "711—44." Central repeated again, but it was wrong. "711—44." "No!" yelled the man at the phone, in wild excitement at missing the chance of getting central's ear. "No, 44, not 44." There was no answer. Central was putting 711 on 44. It was the last straw.

"Here, central, if you don't take this blank phone out of this office in five minutes I'll throw the blank thing in the harbor. Hey—"

—that kind of language over the telephone.

The business man reached up and seized the machine and the next moment it lay on the floor a mass of tangled wires. With perspiration streaming down his face he strode past the typewriter into his inner office, and the prudent office boy reappeared.

WILL PAY FOR STAMPS.

When Mr. Flint of the postoffice department, came here, he instructed all postmasters to forward their stocks of stamps to Washington to be destroyed. He assumed that they were government property. It has turned out, however, that, under the Hawaiian arrangement, the stamps in most smaller offices belonged to the postmasters themselves. Mr. Flint has addressed a letter to Postmaster Oat stating that the money for these stamps will be refunded to the postmasters.
