Pressure of business in Washington prevents me from attending opening of Pacific Import and Export Building and International Gift Center of Hawaii. I am delighted that the Gold Bond Stamp Company has selected Hawaii as its "stepping stone" into expanded activities in the Far East. Your building is certain to play an important role in the very essential area of expanded world trade. The building opens a new business horizon for Hawaii, and I wish to add my heartiest congratulations to Gold Bond for its dedication to progress in our great State.
