Good Show To Market Fresh Pines

Stanley Livingston, president of the Haiku Farmers' Association, returned Wednesday evening from Honolulu where he had been investigating the feasibility of fresh pineapple shipments to the mainland. He is convinced that this project has great possibilities for the Haiku farmers, and believes that it will be given a thorough tryout by the Maui growers during the coming season.

"We can make a contract with a very reliable firm on the Coast," said Mr. Livingston, "at $50 per ton for the fruit f. o. b. wharf, Kahului. The cost of packing and delivery to the wharf, is figured by Oahu shippers at from $23 to $28 per ton. As quickly as possible, I expect to call a meeting of our members and lay all the data I have before them, and it seems more than probable that we shall be able to get together in a co-operative way to go into this business."

Mr. Livingston was much impressed with the efforts that are being made by the Territorial and federal authorities in Honolulu to help the Haiku settlers in every way possible. He states that there is good prospect that the federal experiment station will soon inaugurate some practical demonstration work in the homesteads looking towards a much wider diversification of crops than are now produced.

Maui Loses Supervising Principal

At the meeting of the school commissioners in Honolulu this week, three supervising principals were dropped, these being—V. A. Carvalho, of Hilo and Puna; John Kaaha, of Maui; and Charles E. King, of Oahu. Mr. Kaaha has been transferred to Oahu and made principal of the Kalihi-kai school.

The supervising principals appointed are—Eugene Horner, East Hawaii; Bertha M. Taylor, West Hawaii; Arthur L. Case, Maui; Mary Gunn, Oahu; and H. H. Brodie, Kauai.

The supervising principals have had their salaries raised to $250 per month, but they will be required to pay all their own traveling expenses.

Hawaiian Tries Suicide

J. Kaahanui, a taro planter of Keanae, attempted suicide early yesterday morning, by shooting himself in the mouth. The bullet lodged in his head and could not be located by Dr. Deas, who had the man sent to the hospital. The motive of the act is not known.

Juries Drawn Monday.

The grand and trial jurors for the June term of Circuit Court will be drawn next Monday. The court term opens at Lahaina on the 17th of June, but it is possible that the grand jury may be organized and put to work before that time.

Maui Polo Team Beats Oahu Four

By a score of 5 to 3, the Maui polo team defeated the Oahu team on the Sunnyside grounds, in the game played last Saturday afternoon. The game was an excellent one, and the visitors put up a very strong fight, despite the fact that they were under the handicap of mounts with which they were unfamiliar. The fact that the Oahu players made all their goals during the last periods of the game, indicates that with their own ponies the outcome might have been different.

It is possible that the Maui team may go to Honolulu on June 19 for a return game, and that Oahu will again play on Maui on July 4th.

The game last Saturday was witnessed by a large crowd from all parts of Central Maui, and the players were liberally applauded.

The lineup for the game follows: Maui—Harold Rice, No. 1; Arthur Baldwin, No. 2; Frank Baldwin, No. 3; Arthur Collins, back.

Oahu—Walter Macfarlane, No. 1; S. A. Baldwin, No. 2; H. K. L. Castle, No. 3; R. W. Shingle, back.

Schoenberg Wins Tennis Tournament

The Lahaina Tennis Club singles tournament ended last Sunday with V. C. Schoenberg victor over O. Brecht in the finals, by score of 6-1, 8-6. The first prize was a handsome cup. Brecht took second prize, a $10 racket, while Waal and Keeney, winners in the semi-finals, received consolation prizes.

The tournament had aroused much interest in Lahaina, and was one of the most successful ever held in the old capital. The series started on May 16th with 15 entries, played as follows: Wm. Smith; G. L. Keeney won from A. L. Hayselden; O. Brecht won from K. J. Zedtwitz; H. Soltan won from F. Stark; V. C. Schoenberg won from J. E. Gannon; W. L. Decoto won from J. Little; L. Weinzheimer won from Mr. Kuhlmann; A. Waal won from A. Fries. In the second play, Brecht won from Keeney; Schoenberg won from Decoto; and Waal won from Weinzheimer.

Electric Machinery Enroute.

Robert E. Bond, of the Island Electric Company, has received notice of the shipment from the factory of a new engine and generator, ordered some time since. The machine is expected to arrive and be installed by July 1st, when the company promises a 24-hour continuous service.

Mrs. Ching Tong Dead.

Mrs. Ching Tong, wife of the Market street butcher, died on Tuesday morning after an illness of some time, from an affection of the lungs. She was 28 years of age, and is survived by a husband and two children. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon.

PLEBISCITE PILGRIMS BEGIN JOURNEY TODAY

Whole County Will Be Covered By County Bond Advocates—Supervisors Will Help—Lahaina, Lanai and Molokai First Points of Attack.

The plebiscite campaign, launched by the Governor two weeks ago, will be on in full swing tonight when a big public meeting will be held in Lahaina. It is just four weeks until the matter of declaring for or against the issuance of county bonds will be put up squarely to the people at the polls; and during this time the Plebiscite Promotion Committee, headed by Dr. J. H. Raymond, plans to be working on a "campaign of education" right up to the last.

It is expected that at least several members of the Board of Supervisors will make the trip to Lahaina and speak for the bond issue, as well as Dr. Raymond. On Sunday the party will go over to Lanai, make a speech or two, and return to Lahaina in the evening. On Monday Molokai will be visited, and four days spent there.

Kula Residents Opposing Bonds?

Makawao Report to That Effect.—Good Water Supply Available From Kailiili Gulch.—Makawao Notes.

(Special Correspondence.)

MAKAWAO, May 28.—A surprising report comes from the Kula section that a majority of Kula Hawaiians are not in favor of borrowing the $56,000 for the building of the proposed Olinda reservoir. That a reservoir is much needed especially for Kula people is undisputed—and thinking people are wondering as to reasons for this reported Kula sentiment.

The recent raising of the Maui tax-rate from 1.10 to 1.29 per cent, (land values irrespective of plantation holdings remaining the same) may have had its effect but is not sufficient to explain the present lack of enthusiasm among the Kula-ites.

NEW SUPPLY FOR MAKAWAO.

Apropos of water—it is stated on good authority that there is an abundant and continuous supply of it in the gulch at Kailiili, 3,000 feet elevation, which could be easily utilized to fill the present reservoirs on what is known as the Mrs. H. G. Alexander premises, Makawao, at 2,200 feet elevation. These cisterns serve Makawao and Paia at the present time—but are too low down to supply Kula. The Kailiili gulch is government property and being narrow could at small expense be made into an ample reservoir. The rainfall at Kailiili, up to the 23rd of this month, as reported by W. Haanestad, the forester, in charge, has been a fraction over 33 inches.

The Makawao-Wailuku district teachers' meeting held at Paia School, the 15th inst, was successful. Though the program was somewhat brief, more opportunity was furnished for discussion and general sociability. Too many conventional papers, too much formality—more often mars than makes a successful meeting of Maui pedagogues. Miss Crickard was elected president of the association for the coming year and Miss Keola, secretary.

A week from tonight another meeting is to be held in Wailuku. Hon. W. J. Coelho went to Honolulu during the week, and expects to have a number of speakers come up from there for this occasion. It is stated that Senator Norman Watkins, father of the county loan bill, will come, and possibly Geo. R. Carter, A. L. C. Atkinson and Secretary Thayer, although these last may come still later in the campaign. The itinerary which has been prepared, covers every place of any consequence at all in the entire county.

The plebiscite committee has established headquarters on Market street, near the market. It is stated authoritatively that if Carter and his Bull Moose following come, it will be with the understanding that they cannot talk party politics.

Makawao farmers are boasting of a large corn crop—but the cool rainy weather has retarded the growth of water melons and potatoes. Kula's corn was destroyed in some localities by the konas of last winter and had to be replanted.

The Japanese farmers of upper Makawao are most progressive in regard to education. There is but a handful of them and none of them well-to-do and yet recently they have purchased for $200 an acre of land opposite the government school, built as substantial two-room school house for $150, employed a teacher, and established a school for fifteen or twenty children. On Sunday, the 24th, all the Japanese of the vicinity held a meeting at this school house commemorating the burial of the Queen Dowager of Japan.

The new tariff schedule has not affected the price of beef in Makawao which is selling at 17c per pound retail, and 5c per pound, live-weight.

The song of the linnet is heard everywhere, proclaiming spring.

Weather:—Quite warm since the rain stopped.

Interesting Land Suit Is Started.

J. A. Magoon, trustee in bankruptcy of the estate of Mary H. Atcherly vs. Kapiolani Estate, Ltd., et al., is the title of a suit of considerable interest which was argued before Judge Kingsbury on Thursday, and submitted on briefs. P. L. Weaver represented the plaintiff and C. W. Ashford, the defendant. J. F. Colburn, manager of the Kapiolani Estate, also came over from Honolulu to attend the trial.

The suit involves the ownership of 753 acres of land on Molokai, and the facts in the case are very nearly analogous to those in the case won in the U. S. [Supreme Court several years ago by Mrs. Atcherly from Castle & Cooke. The Kapiolani Estate has had possession of the land, which it has leased to J. F. Brown, who is thus made a party in the suit.

Diphtheria At Puunene And Haiku

The Puunene school was closed on Monday of this week, on account of the illness of one of the teachers, Miss Spicer, being declared due to diphtheria. Several other teachers, who occupied the same cottage were quarantined. Miss Spicer's condition was reported to be critical for several days, but she is showing improvement according to last reports. None of the persons who have been exposed, have shown any symptoms of the disease, although another teacher, Miss Kalino, who is apparently perfectly well, showed as a "positive" upon microscopical examination.

A Korean child in the camp adjoining the Haiku cannery was removed to a detention camp last week, together with several "contacts," and the case was later positively pronounced diphtheria. There is no known connection between the two cases, nor any indication as to where the disease was contracted by either patient.

Crawford Is Making Stir On Island

Dan Crawford, the unconventional missionary dynamo from Africa, is creating about the same furor of enthusiasm here on Maui, that he does everywhere he goes. From what they say about him, and his peculiar plan of operation, the suspicion is aroused that perhaps Africa is not the only field of his missionary endeavors. In any event, he is well worth going to some trouble to hear.

During his stay on Maui he is the guest of the Rev. R. B. Dodge. On Thursday morning he spoke at a ministers' meeting and in the evening at the Kahului church. Friday evening he addressed a large audience at the Wailuku Union Church. The rest of his itinerary on this Island is as follows:

Saturday evening—Maunaloa Union Seminary.

Sunday, 11 a. m.—Paia Union Church.

Sunday, 7:30 p. m.—Wailuku Union Church.

Monday and Tuesday mornings—At different public schools.

Tuesday, 5 p. m.—Hale Aloha, Lahaina.

Tuesday evening—Lahaina-Iuna. He leaves Wednesday evening for Hilo.

Approaching Wedding.

Much interest centers in invitations sent out this week by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cordeiro announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Rose Cordeiro to Mr. John Martins. The wedding will take place on Wednesday evening, June 10, at 6 o'clock, in St. Anthony's Church, Wailuku. A reception will follow the wedding ceremony; at the Cordeiro home in Camp 1. Both of the young people popular among a wide circle of friends in Central Maui.

Boy Scout Movement Is Started

At an enthusiastic meeting held at the Gym. on Wednesday evening the initial steps for the organization of a Boy Scout movement were taken. The following were elected to constitute the membership of the Wailuku Council of American Boy Scouts—Rev. R. B. Dodge, H. B. Penhallow, D. T. Carey, Maj. Wm. Bal, W. L. West, W. F. Crockett, R. A. Wadsworth, Dr. Osmer, O. J. Whitehead, and Dr. Ian McLaren. Dr. McLaren was appointed scoutmaster and chairman of the council, and W. F. Crockett was made secretary-treasurer.

It is the intention to form scout councils of from 4 to 6 members, comprising representative men in every part of Maui where it may be possible to form patrols. J. A. Wilder, director of the scout movement in Hawaii, is expected on Maui in the near future, to aid in getting the work under way. As soon as the various councils can be established the work of organizing the boys of the island into patrols will be undertaken.

All Maui Is Well Soaked

The most uniform and steady rain that has visited Maui for many months, began Wednesday evening and continued almost without cessation for 36 hours or more. In Wailuku 1.77 inches were recorded. In Lahaina it rained 1.5 inches; and Hana got 2.44 inches. The storm seems to have extended to the other islands, a wireless from Hawaii stating that 13 inches of rain had fallen at Waimea in less than 24 hours.

Maui Girl to Wed.

The engagement has been announced in Honolulu of Miss Elizabeth T. M. Ting, a Maui Girl, who is at present a teacher in the Kawai-ahao Seminary, and Ernie E. Goo, son of Goo Wan Hoy, of Honolulu. The groom-to-be is a young Hawaiian-born Chinese, who has a position with the U. S. Geodetic Survey. Miss Ting's mother, who lives at Wailuku, attended the engagement dinner given on Sunday at the Goo home in Honolulu. The wedding has been set for July 15.

Moose Will Picnic.

A moose picnic is being arranged for Sunday by members of Wailuku Lodge, No. 875, which promises to be a most enjoyable affair. The outing is intended to be limited to Moose members and their families, and will be held at the beach home of Dictator J. Garcia, at Waihee. The picnickers will take their own lunches and spend the day in swimming and having a general good time.

One Way to Run Schools.

Because the Board of Education is not able to supply funds for necessary work material in the Kauai schools, the Libue teachers are getting up a fancy work sale to supply the needed cash.

GIVE KINNEY A SHOW.

EVIDENTLY the appointment of the new head of the department of public instruction has not made much change in the system of administration of school affairs. If Brother Kinney is enough of a diplomat he may be able to get through without getting onto the rocks; otherwise his outlook is not much better than that of his predecessors. The trouble is in the confusion of the functions of the superintendent and of the commissioners. The commissioners are supposed to formulate the policies of the department. Mr. Kinney is there to execute them. He is responsible for results. But the commissioners do not give him a free hand. At the session of the board this week, the appointment of teachers was the principal business. Also the board devoted a good bit of time to investigating and disciplining various members of the teaching corps. It sat as a court hearing charges against teachers. All this is strictly in accordance with precedent, but it is wrong, nevertheless. The appointing power and the removal power should rest solely with the superintendent. The supervising principals should be appointed by him and be responsible solely to him. Discipline should be made through the school principals, through the supervising principals, and up to the superintendent as the final tribunal. The commissioners should have no more to do with this than have the directors of a plantation company with the personnel of the hundreds of employes hired and subject to being fired by the manager and by no one else. The directors demand results. No manager could deliver the goods were his subordinates selected for him, down to the last man, and the disciplinary power reserved by the directors, down to the last man. There isn't an employe of the school department who shouldn't know positively the Superintendent as his boss, in fact as well as in name. The commissioners should willingly have this so, for in no other way can the efficiency of the department be advanced, and the wire-pulling and petty politics of the department be abolished. Mr. Kinney is a brave man to tackle under present conditions, the hardest job in the Territory.

IN THE NAME OF AGRICULTURE.

AN effort is being made in certain quarters to have the Hawaii Experiment Station and the College of Hawaii united under one general management. Moreover there is evidence of some ill feeling in the matter. The combination will be a good thing provided it spells greater efficiency—as it should. The public, however, approves the work which each institution is doing at present independently, and would hesitate to see either fostered at the expense of the other. But practically since the college came into the field the staffs of the two institutions have had their hammers knocking each other in a genteel, but none the less effective way. And as the layman sizes it up, the College condemns the Experiment station for alleged inaccurate and half-baked propoganda; while the Station has virtually charged the college with lack of business sense and with being lost in the clouds of scholastic minutiae. The experiment station has lately been given an additional $10,000 per year by Congress, which the college thinks it should have had. Perhaps this is so. But it makes no difference to the people of Hawaii, provided only that the best possible use is made of the money. Hawaii's struggling miscellaneous agriculture needs help that is practical as well as theoretical. If two can be handled under one head without loss of efficiency it is a good thing; if not, no change should be made. The real problem of the combination is probably in finding a big enough man to handle it.

WHERE POLITICS SHOULD NOT ENTER.

THE retirement of High Sheriff William Henry to make a place for County Sheriff William P. Jarret, should be generally regretted by every one in the Territory. That penal institutions should be in any way subject to political influences is one of the most disgraceful features of our system of government. This fact has been recognized in many of the states, and in some of them effective means has been found for obviating the mischievous practice. A penal institution should be considered a hospital for the treatment of the mentally and morally unsound. Its management should be in the hands of experts of the highest order. Mr. Henry has demonstrated his fitness for this important work and his resignation is a distinct loss to the whole Territory.

THOSE ODIUS COMPARISONS.

THE Garden Island takes a shot in this direction in the following style:

"The statement of Sheriff Crowell of Maui, that he can economize by cutting off 17 policemen, whose services his department may dispense with without seriously crippling it, is highly interesting over here, inasmuch as Kauai has only 18 policemen altogether. Either Maui has had far too many policemen in the past, or Kauai has had (and has) too few on the force. The matter is probably well worth looking into a little further."

THE SUPERINTENDENT of one of the principal railroads on Maui, who modestly dislikes to see his name in print except on a tariff sheet, declared to a Portuguese farmer, who had had a shipment of bananas damaged between Kahului and Honolulu, that he had an insatiable hankering for such complaints. Further, that he is going to land farm produce in Honolulu in undamaged condition if he has to personally convoy each shipment. That's the kind of spirit that will develop Maui's agricultural resources if they are to be developed at all.
