

By Authority

March 17th being named by Resolution of the Legislative Assembly passed May 4, 1882, as the Birthday of Kamehameha III, and falling upon Sunday this year, SATURDAY, March 16th, will be observed as a National Holiday, and all Government Offices throughout the Kingdom will be closed on that day.

L. A. THURSTON, Minister of the Interior, Interior Office, March 5, 1889, 56-31 1161-11

SCHOOL NOTICE.

The regular vacation of all Government Schools, at the close of the first school session of the year, will extend from FRIDAY, April 12th, to WEDNESDAY, the 1st of May next. The time between the 22d and 26th of April, both inclusive, will be devoted to the instruction of Normal Classes, and the examination of teachers for certificates, as notified by the Inspector General of Schools.

By order of the Board of Education, W. JAS. SMITH, Secretary, Education Office, March 4, 1889.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, HONOLULU, MARCH 4, 1889.

It is hereby ordered by the Board of Education that all teachers, in the Government employ, teaching in the English language, must attend Normal Classes from April 22d to April 26th, inclusive. The following gentlemen have been appointed by the Board as Instructors:

- J. A. MOORE at Honolulu, for Oahu teachers. ALATAU T. ATKINSON at Wailuku, for Maui teachers. M. M. SCOTT at Lihue, for Kauai teachers. P. L. LOM at Hilo, for Hilo, Puna and Hamakua teachers.

Kohala, Kau and Kona teachers may attend at Wailuku, Honolulu or Hilo. The Board authorizes the several School Agents to pay the expense of transit of the Government school teachers to and from the places designated.

Any persons desiring to become teachers may attend the classes.

ALATAU T. ATKINSON, Inspector-General of Schools.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, HONOLULU, MARCH 4, 1889.

During the Convention an examination at each of the above-named places, for Grammar Grade Certificates, will be held. The subjects will be Arithmetic, Algebra, Grammar, Composition, Physiology, Theory and Practice (Pedagogy) Writing, Physical Geography, Outlines of History. No person will be allowed to enter for this examination unless possessing a Primary Certificate for one year, or holding a similar certificate from abroad. An examination for Primary Certificates will also be held at the same time at which all teachers whose certificates have expired, must present themselves.

ALATAU T. ATKINSON, Inspector-General of Schools, 54 1240 3c

Sale of Government Lease.

On THURSDAY, March 7, 1889, at the front entrance of Aliolani Hale, at noon, will be sold at Public Auction the Lease of the Government Lands of Opihila and Paouli, Hamakua, Hawaii, and containing an area of 178 acres, more or less.

Terms—Lease for ten years, dating from February 18, 1889.

L. A. THURSTON, Minister of Interior, Interior Office, Feb. 4, 1889, 1257-31 32-61

Notice to Holders of Water Privileges.

Notice is hereby given to all holders of water privileges that owing to the prolonged drought, it is necessary that care be used in the use of water.

If this is done, it will not be necessary to curtail irrigating privileges, but if the present excessive use of water is continued this step will become necessary.

Holders of privileges and the public generally are therefore respectfully requested to assist the Department by exercising economy in the use of water.

CHAS. B. WILSON, Supt. Honolulu Water Works, Honolulu, March 1, 1889, 53-51

In conformity with a Resolution of the Privy Council, notice is hereby given that the following Rules shall be observed in the presentation of Petitions for pardon or commutation of sentence.

- 1. That each Petition shall be written or printed in both the English and Hawaiian languages, and shall contain and set forth: 2. The full name, the age and the sex of the person for whom a pardon or commutation of sentence is asked. 3. A statement of the offence for which such person was sentenced. 4. The date of such sentence and by what Court it was pronounced. 5. What the sentence is. 6. That the record of conduct of the prisoner kept by the Jailor of Oahu Prison is annexed to such Petition.

CURTIS P. LAUKEA, Secretary Privy Council, Honolulu, March 4, 1889, 1291 55-11

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT IN JAPAN.

The promulgation of a written constitution for the Empire of Japan, is an occurrence of much more than passing interest. Indeed, such a step in advance, by a nation consisting of some thirty-five millions of the most intellectual, active, courageous and fine tempered people in all the Orient, is an event of world-wide importance. Japan is a country upon which the eyes of thinking men in Europe and America, students of political and social economy, and friends of human progress, both civil and religious, are now fixed as never before.

What will be the outcome, within the next two or three generations, of the radical changes in law, civil polity, education, religious influence and attitude toward the outside world, which have been and are now being made? How far have these occidental and modern ideas, which seem to have taken so strong a hold upon the governing classes "struck in," and become a component part of the life and thought of the people? How far have the ruling classes themselves really assimilated the spirit and true import of these outward forms and methods, and how far do they appreciate their genetic connections and necessary future implications.

These and similar questions are being earnestly debated, and among those who should be as well qualified as any foreigners to judge correctly, there is far from being unanimity of opinion. Different as the Hawaiian is from the Japanese, and unlike as the conditions are in many respects, there are not wanting, important elements of parallelism between the transition of this country from barbarism to civilization, and the changes now taking place in Japan. Considerable food for thought will be found therein by those who are familiar with Hawaiian history.

We print in this morning's Advertiser an extract from a letter written by a lady in Japan, to a relative in Honolulu, and containing references to the ceremonies and events connected with the promulgation of the Constitution. It will be found well worth perusal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A friend of ours, who has a talent and taste for figuring out odd problems, has handed us a memorandum in correction of the statement we quoted the other day, that the quadrennial return of March 4th and the consequent Presidential inauguration would not fall on Sunday for a long term of years. The gentleman referred to says the 4th of March has fallen on Sunday three times during the present century, viz.: in 1821, 1849 and 1877, as well as in 1871. He also informs us that it will do the same in 1917, 1945, 1973 and 2001.

A bang up article of royalty costs money, though, to tell the truth, there seems to be no very definite relation between the quality and the cost. We read that the Emperor William's summer tour in Austria and Italy cost £40,000, or $200,000. He took with him from Berlin—so say the papers—80 diamond rings, 150 silver stars, 50 scarf pins, all richly jeweled, 30 diamond bracelets, 6 splendid presentation swords, 30 large photographs of himself, with the Empress and their children, all in gold frames, 30 gold watches with chains, 100 cigar-cases, with the imperial arms and monogram in gold, and 20 stars in diamonds, of the orders of the Black and Red Eagle. Fine doings certainly, immensely fine, particularly for those who happen to be on the inside of such arrangements. Inquisitive people, however, will naturally inquire what benefit the people who foot the bills get out of it all.

High winds yesterday evening gave promise of rain. In the meantime Superintendent Wilson has relieved the scarcity of water in parts where it existed, by connecting the artesian with the reservoir system.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO LETTER.

San Francisco, February 13, per Brig Geo. H. Douglas.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

American Affairs. Judge James McM. Shafter of California is mentioned as likely to be Attorney General in Harrison's Cabinet.

The Senate in secret session passed the following bill: Be it enacted, etc., that there be and is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated the sum of $250,000 to enable the President to protect the interests of the United States and provide for the security of persons and property of citizens of the United States at the Isthmus of Panama, in such manner as he may deem expedient.

It is learned that the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has received no news of any outbreak at Panama, but deeming it best to be prepared for any that might occur, decided to ask for the passage of the bill at once, as an independent measure, rather than risk the delays and uncertainties attending an amendment to an appropriation bill. It is understood that it has been deemed wise by the authorities of the United States, Great Britain and other nations having a large number of their citizens employed on the Panama Canal, to arrange for bringing them home, in case of a wholesale discharge, and not to risk the loss of the isthmus in destitution and want. To provide for this, the amount of the appropriation was increased from $100,000 to $250,000. There was but slight opposition to the passage of the bill.

General Alger states that he does not expect to go into President Harrison's Cabinet; that he has not solicited the position, and does not know that General Harrison has seriously considered his name at any time.

McKinley of Ohio thought the next Secretary of the Treasury would be Ex-Governor Foster of Ohio. Ex-Senator Platt told a friend that he thought New York would be passed over in the make up of the Cabinet. The Navy department was informed of the death of Rear Admiral Chandler, commanding the Asiatic Squadron, at Hongkong, of apoplexy.

The Samoan Trouble. It is not believed in Berlin that the Samoan conference can meet before the end of April, as it is unlikely that the American commissioners will be chosen until after Harrison is inaugurated.

The statements of Sewall, American Consul at Samoa, with regard to the affairs in those islands, have met with little more than contemptuous indifference in Berlin.

Ex-Congressman Sewall at Washington talks freely in regard to the proposed Samoan conference. Among other things, he says: "Consider the genesis of the conference it is proposed to renew. It was summoned by our Secretary of State, assembled at our capital on an acknowledged basis of the equality of rights of the three treaty powers, of which we were the first. Its object was the preservation of Samoan autonomy, upon which all our national and commercial interests in Samoa depend. While the conference was yet uncompleted, with no notice to this Government, German ships went to Samoa and took possession of the islands, in violation of the understanding on which the pending negotiations were proceeding. If the conference is to be renewed at all, it should be renewed under conditions as favorable to us as those which attended its initiation. The status ante conferendum should be first restored, and Malie loa, for whose deposition we are morally responsible, should be returned from exile, and it should meet here, where it was interrupted, and where our representative would be free from the peculiar influences now at work at Berlin."

But were the suggestions of Secretary Bayard in his letter to the German Minister made conditions precedent to the reassembling of the conference, we might even then enter upon the conference with something of our national dignity saved. He suggests a truce in Samoa, but does not insist upon it. The position maintained in the conference by Bayard has not, I believe, been criticized. That the independence of the islands should be maintained, and equality of rights of commerce and navigation secured for the subjects of the treaty powers, was agreed upon. Our rights are not enlarged by this, but only confirmed. But, having secured this recognition of our rights, Bayard rested, and it is because of this—because pending the conference he submitted to violation of these rights—that he has been criticized."

Canadian Annexation. That wily old fox, Sir John Macdonald, has a scheme to beat the annexationists. Knowing that if he waits for the regular election in 1892 the progress of the annexation sentiment will overwhelm him, he has decided to appeal to the country at once on this question, knowing he can secure an easy victory, under cover of which he can retire from the government with flying colors and with the annexation party bandaging a very black eye. To furnish an excuse for this one of his adherents will demand of the Liberal-Quebec government to know what it proposes to do about Ben Butterworth's annexation resolution in the United States Congress.

Recently Congressman Milliken of Maine and his cousin, Seth Milliken of New York, who is a large manufacturer and has investments in the South, called on Mr. Blaine on private business. During the conversation the merchant asked him if he was in favor of the annexation of Canada. Mr. Milliken says that Mr. Blaine replied that he was, but that he did not think it would be brought about by agitation. In the course of time he thought the Dominion would naturally gravitate into the American Union. "Canada," said Mr. Blaine, "is like an apple on a tree, just beyond our reach. We may strive to grasp it, but the bough recedes from our hold just in proportion to our effort to catch on to it. Let it alone and in due time it will fall into our hands."

Henry N. McChesney, a well-known merchant, engaged in the hide and leather trade on a very extensive scale in this city, but principally in the Hawaiian Islands, died in the city of Cairo, Egypt, while on a tour around the world, and on his return voyage to the United States. He resided chiefly in Honolulu, where he was one of the most prominent citizens, but was also well known on the Pacific Coast, having had an agency of his business here. He left property in both Honolulu and San Francisco. His will was filled for probate yesterday. The entire value of his estate is unknown, but his interest in the Honolulu firm is valued at $31,000. The will bequeaths $10,000 each to his sons, Robert W. McChesney and Henry N. McChesney, also $10,000 to his daughter, Annie E. Griswold. He also directs that $30 per month be paid out of his estate to his widow, and that on his death $200 be appropriated for funeral expenses. A codicil to the will, dated May 22, 1883, directs his sons to pay $2,000 to Edgar McChesney, son of James Edgar McChesney, deceased, $1,000 when he reaches the age of 21 years, and $1,000 when he attains the age of 25 years. Robert W. McChesney and Henry N. McChesney are named as executors of the will.

Annie E. Griswold, the daughter of the deceased, filed yesterday an application for letters of guardianship over the person and estate of her mother, Mrs. Kentrahn Strong McChesney, who resides with the petitioner, and on account of her age and failing faculties requires some person to look after her estate.

Anybody showing how money can be saved these times is a public benefactor. Messrs. Egan & Co. take the width of two columns in this paper to give such advice.

The Schmidt-Thirower benefit concert is to be given at the Y. M. C. A. hall on Friday evening. A fine entertainment being assured there ought to be a crowded house.

Our reporter yesterday inspected Mr. Hutchinson's bust of Mr. Wm. Auld cast in plaster from the clay model previously noticed. It has been touched up by the sculptor until it is more expressive than the model. Of a terra cotta tint it makes a fine work of art, and it is hoped will be exhibited down town shortly.

Mr. Masche, collector for the Hawaiian Business Agency, started on a tour round this island yesterday. In crossing the Pali a violent gust of wind upset his buggy and damaged it somewhat. He managed to reach Kaneohe, however, as the telephone message about the accident came from that place.

Messrs. McCandless Bros. have struck water in the new artesian well for Judge McCully, above his residence. The flow is twenty-six inches above the pipe and they expect thirty-six inches before finishing, which will be the largest flow in the Kingdom. The water will be used in irrigating rice fields in the vicinity.

At the annual meeting of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company rejected its entire executive, viz.: Mr. T. R. Foster, President; Captain W. B. Godfrey, Vice-President; Hon. J. MARRIAGE.

Mr. E. D. Tenney and Miss Rose Makee United in the Holy Bonds.

Yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. E. D. Tenney, of the firm of Castle & Cooke, was married to Miss Rose Makee, daughter of the late Captain and Mrs. James Makee, the ceremony being impressively performed in the Anglican ritual by the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh in St. Andrew's Cathedral.

Punctual to the moment the bridegroom entered and advanced to the altar, accompanied by Mr. E. P. Bishop, his best man. Mr. Wray Taylor saluted their entry with a wedding march finely played on the organ. After the lapse of a few minutes the bride entered leaning on the arm of her brother, Hon. Parker N. Makoa, and attended by Miss Kitty Spalding, the bridesmaid. They were followed by Col. and Mrs. Z. S. Spalding and Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hastings, who took seats in the front of the church.

POLICE COURT.

Discharge of a Drunken Policeman—A Conspiracy Case.

Kalili was called for drunkenness on Tuesday, and failing to appear his bail of $6 was declared forfeited. Kamana, a police officer, testified that Kalili was a police officer and he saw him drunk the day before on Richards street. Upon request of the Deputy Marshal, defendant is ordered discharged from the police force.

Tin Choy is charged with conspiracy, in concerting with Lam You to bring a false charge of keeping a disorderly house against Yun See. On a previous hearing it was recorded that Lam You could not be found. P. Neumann and C. L. Carter assist prosecution; V. V. Ashford for defendant. The prosecuting witness gave testimony at great length, after which the case was continued till Wednesday. Her testimony was very hard on three native policemen, showing outrageous treatment of her by them in her own house. That is, however, only one side of the case. Another interesting point revealed by the woman was that she was bought in the regular Chinese way by her husband for marriage, and the latter ceremony was performed by means of a document called a "horoscope."

Leong Fung was committed for trial for gross charges to the Supreme Court, on evidence that he drew $50 from Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office which he was not entitled to. On a second charge of the same offense he was remanded.

John Henson, James Campions and Malloy, drunk, forfeited $6 bail each. Ah Fook, larceny, remanded.

DOUBLE EXECUTION.

Two Chinese Murderers Suffer the Last Penalty of the Law.

WITH DECORUM AND PRECISION.

For the first time in a good many years capital punishment has been administered in this Kingdom. On Tuesday morning two Chinese murderers—Ahap alias Ahapa and Akana—paid the last penalty of the law on the scaffold. Marshal Soper and all the officers under his direction carried out the disagreeable duty devolving upon them with decorum and precision. The execution was strictly private—only officers of the law, physicians, members of the bar and of the press, and a few others rendering special service, being present, viz.: Marshal J. H. Soper, Deputy Attorney-General A. P. Peterson, Deputy Marshals C. L. Hopkins and C. Creighton; Capt. Staples, Jailor of Oahu Prison; Doctors C. T. Rodgers (prison physician), J. H. Kimball, F. L. Miner and C. B. Wood; Messrs. J. Emmeluth, Prison Inspector; H. M. Dow, Deputy Warden Oahu Prison; F. W. Damon, Chinese missionary; S. M. Graham, Marshal's Clerk; J. Hopp, carpenter, J. W. Kalua, J. L. Kaulikou, Li Cheung, interpreter; H. H. Williams, undertaker; Kim Cha, and representatives of the ADVERTISER, Bulletin and Elele.

Ahapa was convicted at the November Term of the Third Judicial Circuit Court at Waimea, Hawaii, of the murder of David Kapabee at Puna on September 3d, 1887. Bickerton pronounced sentence of death upon him, November 10th, and the date of his execution was fixed later at Monday, February 25th. On the 23d of that month, however, Ahapa was granted a respite until March 5th, to admit of consideration by the Privy Council of a petition from various Chinese merchants for commutation of sentence. This petition was disallowed almost unanimously.

Akana was convicted at the same term of the murder of Ah Sing at Napoopo on Nov. 3d, receiving the sentence of death on Nov. 29th. His execution was appointed originally for the day on which it occurred.

Although Ahapa was proved to have been deeply concerned in the murder for which he had to suffer death, it was generally believed that the principal in the foul deed was his countryman, who foiled the course of justice by committing suicide with poison on board the steamer W. G. Hall while being conveyed to Honolulu to await trial. Akana had no accomplice so far as known, and it will be remembered, made an attempt to obliterate evidences of his guilt by burning the body of his victim in the house they had jointly occupied.

Ever since the fate of the two malefactors was sealed they bore themselves with the characteristic stolidity of their race. During the last ten days of their lives their calmness purported to be the resignation born of the Christian religion, which they professed under the assiduous ministrations of Mr. Damon, missionary to the Chinese of these Islands. They slept well at night until the eve of the fatal day, when broken slumbers indicated intensified realization of their awful position. They awoke at 4 o'clock in the morning and asked for chicken and whiskey. The former was furnished them but the latter was refused, and after eating the men took another nap.

The double execution was fixed for yesterday morning between the hours of 8 and 12 o'clock. At 9 o'clock the motion of the gallows was begun. It was an apparatus used on a former occasion and was soon in position, at the rear end of the main corridor in the yard. A temporary inclined platform led from the floor up to the trap.

About 7 o'clock the doomed men were taken to the prison office, where Mr. Damon and the official interpreter remained with them. A few moments after eight Marshal Soper, escorted by Li Cheung, read to them the death warrants. These were engrossed in large characters and bound with red ribbon. It was a quarter after eight when the march to the scaffold took place, Mr. Damon accompanying the prisoners, and speaking gently to them in their own language. All three knelt while the minister offered prayer. Officers then pinioned their hands and feet over their decent black Chinese costume, the deep black caps were drawn down to their shoulders, and with a little delay as possible the noose was adjusted about the neck of each. During all this ordeal the men bore themselves calmly, and not a word or a murmur did they utter. Ahapa the elder one—he being fifty-one years old while Akana was only twenty-five—near the close showed signs of weakness and was supported by an officer.

Mr. Damon offered a brief prayer and on his pronouncing "Amen" a private signal was given. The cord attached to the bolt and running into an inner room was pulled. It stuck first with an audible click, but was suspended only an instant. At 8:25 sharp the trap fell down and was pulled back on its hinges by a counter-weight. The men had a drop of eight or nine feet, and death was undoubtedly instantaneous. Ahapa never moved a muscle again, while a very slight twitching of Akana's left fingers noticed in four minutes, was not considered by the physicians as indicating feeling. At the end of twelve minutes the physicians made an examination and pronounced both men dead. When hanging twenty-five minutes the bodies were lowered into plain deal coffins painted black on the outside, and without any exposure of the features having been made the lids were quickly nailed down. This operation, however, revealed the fact that both men's necks were broken. Within the hour a wagon departed from the gate with the coffins for interment at Makiki Cemetery.

It was the unanimous verdict of all present that the execution could not have been carried out in a more decent, skillful and humane manner than was the case. This is all the more creditable to the police and prison officials when it is remembered that such a disagreeable duty has not had to be performed in this Kingdom for a long time previous, and if the writer is not mistaken, never in the official experience here of any of those not concerned. The following is the official medical certificate added to the records of the cases:

We, the undersigned physicians do hereby certify that we were present at the execution of Ahop alias Ahapa and Akana, and saw them hanged by the neck until they were dead at 8:25 a. m. of the morning of March 5th, A. D. 1889, and after hanging for the space of twenty-five minutes we did pronounce them to be fully dead, and so certified to the Marshal.

Nothing more plainly shows how rigidly the Marshal adhered to the rule of privacy—despite many requests for admission to satisfy curiosity—than the fact that the only persons available to sign the required citizens' certificate were those admitted on the invitations to the press, representing in the order of their names, as below, the Bulletin, ADVERTISER and Elele:

We, the undersigned residents of Honolulu, do hereby certify that we were present within the walls of Oahu Prison, on the morning of March 5th, A. D. 1889, and saw Ahop alias Ahapa and Akana hanged by the neck until they were dead.

QUEEN'S HOSPITAL.

Quarterly Meeting of the Trustees—Reports for the Period.

A quarterly meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Queen's Hospital was held at the room of the Chamber of Commerce, at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, when the usual reports were received, and various matters of interest to the institution were discussed and acted upon.

The Treasurer stated the amount of $2,031 18 as due him and reported the amount of $2,500 of the money on hand from receipts on account of Queen Emma's legacy fund, placed in the Postal Savings Bank.

The physician's quarterly report was read by the Secretary, as follows:

HONOLULU, Feb. 28, 1889. To the Trustees of the Queen's Hospital, Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit the following report for the quarter ending Feb. 28, 1889:

The total number of patients at present in the Hospital is 50; viz., 31 Hawaiians, 13 Chinese, 13 females, 1 Chinese, 4 Japanese and 14 of other nationalities, 16 paying.

The number of admissions during the quarter was 75; viz., 42 Hawaiians, (27 males, 15 females), 6 Chinese, 10 Japanese and 17 of other nationalities.

Discharged, 55; viz., 26 Hawaiians, (16 males, 10 females), 5 Chinese, 6 Japanese and 18 of other nationalities.

Deaths, 9; viz., 3 Hawaiian males, 3 Chinese, 2 Japanese and 1 German.

The causes of death were as follows: Burn 3, consumption 1, diabetes 1, brights disease 1, injury 1, scrofula 1, typhoid fever 1.

The highest number of indoor patients was 59, during 37 days, average 45. Calls at the dispensary 123. Number of prescriptions 1004.

The number of patients treated in the Hospital was as follows: December, 1888, 70; January, 1889, 62; February, 1889, 70. Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT MCKIBBIN.

The Visiting Committee suggested in their report the propriety of having portraits of the founders of the Queen's Hospital, Their Majesties King Kamehameha IV, and Queen Emma, placed in a suitable and prominent position in the institution, which suggestion was by resolution adopted by the Board of Trustees, and the Executive Committee charged with its execution in the best possible manner. This action seems now most appropriate, as there are funds provided by the will of Her late Majesty Queen Emma, to be expended within the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

The Vice-President appointed the Hon. J. S. Walker, J. B. Atherton and H. A. Widemann the Visiting Committee for the ensuing quarter.

Government Suits.

His Excellency Attorney-General C. W. Ashford was interviewed aimlessly for news the other day, and, after stating what has been published about his intended health trip to the Coast, was induced to detail some of the public business holding him back from taking the first steamer.

A suit is pending to decide whether the Crown lands held by Trustees of the Bishop Estate for the Kamehameha Schools are taxable, the Government claiming that they are so, while the trustees claim the lands are exempt from taxation. The case is jury-waived and comes up for hearing to-day.

The question is also coming to a judicial issue whether the lands conveyed to his trustee by His Majesty are liable to taxation.

Another matter of tax exemption is that of the street railway. One thousand dollars has been paid as taxes for the property under protest. Skinner & Co. of London were the parties assessed and the claim is to be contested that they are only the construction company and not liable for the taxes.

A revenue suit is to be brought against Mr. Frank Brown or his assignees, or both, for the sum of $8,790 claimed to be due in liquor duties.

INTERESTING NEWS FROM JAPAN

Promulgation of the Constitution—Extract from a Lady's Letter.

Tokio, Feb. 21, 1889. We have been passing through very exciting times, accounts of which you will see in the papers; and through your large Japanese population, I presume you will learn a great deal more than I know myself.

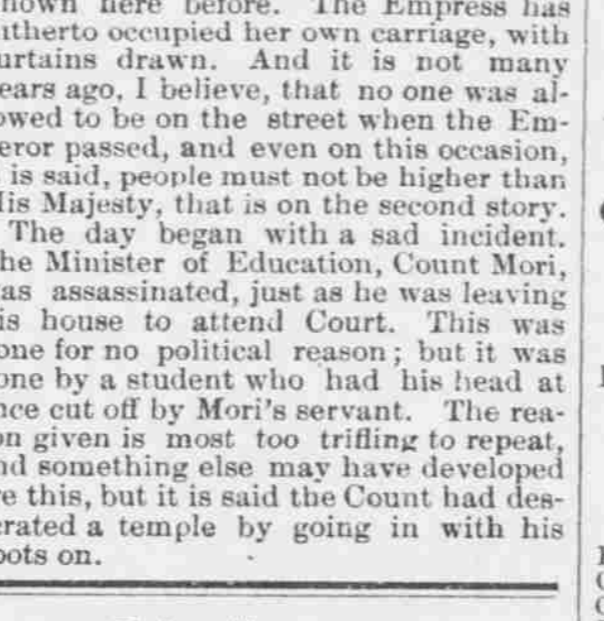

The 11th of February was the greatest day, I suppose, that Japan ever saw, for on that day "The Constitution was Promulgated," and this people are now enfranchised. The 11th is always kept as a holiday in commemoration of the founding of the empire 2,549 years ago, when the Emperor Jimmu ascended the throne; and this day was chosen to open the door for the people to take part in public affairs.

My own observations were very limited, and I cannot pretend to give an account. But there were great preparations made for the event. The streets in every part of the city were decorated. There was a large gathering at the Palace, a new one of Princes, nobles, government officials and foreign representatives, to witness the ceremony. After which a long procession, including the Emperor and Empress, went to the Aoyama parade ground, where Their Majesties rode together in an open carriage. Mark these words. Trivial do they seem? they carry weight in this country, for such a thing has never been known here before. The Empress has hitherto occupied her own carriage, with curtains drawn. And it is not many years ago, I believe, that no one was allowed to be on the street when the Emperor passed, and even on this occasion, it is said, people must not be higher than His Majesty, that is on the second story.

The day began with a sad incident. The Minister of Education, Count Mori, was assassinated, just as he was leaving his house to attend Court. This was done for no political reason; but it was done by a student who had his head at once cut off by Mori's servant. The reason given is most trifling to repeat, and something else may have developed ere this, but it is said the Count had decorated a temple by going in with his boots on.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure. For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritious food. Bread, biscuits, muffins, cake, etc., raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof. H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country reported: "The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for it never failed in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government."

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly superior to any other reliable baking powder offered to the public."

Christine Nilsson's Early Life. (Chicago Times.) Whenever Nilsson goes to Stockholm the king accords to her the honors usually reserved for queens. She is her majesty, the queen of the lyric stage, and is received openly in court. When she is invited to dine at the palace a royal carriage is sent to fetch her. In writing to her Oscar signs himself "Your sincere admirer and friend," and his subjects are not less enthusiastic. The journals are full of tracings of her glorious song-stress career to its origin. She is the daughter, as told, of very poor parents, natives of the province of Gottland. They were Jack-of-all-trades and very musical. Christine had at a very early age to do for herself, and was patronized by the owner of a ferry, who took country folks across one of the many lakes about the town of Wexo. She was started by him as an infant prodigy, and her singing and violin playing drew customers from a rival boat. When she was big enough she tramped with her father and mother from fair to fair. It is not to be supposed from that that she was on the low level of our tramps. Poverty is not so degrading in Sweden as it is here; and as hospitality is a universal quality among the peasantry of Scandinavia, Christine was not exposed to hardships in her roving childhood. It was at a country fair that an influential Swedish gentleman discovered her musical genius. His name was Tornerheim, and he had heard her sing to a violin accompaniment which she played herself. At this time she was 14. M. Tornerheim opened to her successively the academies of Holmstadt and Stockholm, obtained for her the protection of the king and queen, and had her, when she was fit to go to Paris, sent there to study under Wael.

"Introductory" Insanity. (Chicago Journal.) Under this term Dr. A. M. Hamilton describes a class of cases in which there was a history of insanity, and the nervous temperament was manifested by various peculiarities—more often by a species of hypochondriasis, by peculiarities of temper, and by acts of eccentricity causing the subjects to be looked upon as "queer." These terms are applied to the condition of mind which is manifested by a morbid feeling of doubt and consequent indecision under the most ordinary circumstances, when both the doubt and indecision are unreasonable in the extreme, but the individual, under the mandate of an imperative conception, yields more or less to his disordered emotions. Some years ago this condition of mind would have been spoken of by physicians and others as "hysteria," or if it influenced the patient's conduct to any remarkable degree, the profession would have been at a loss for a proper explanation.

Mechanism of the Bee. (Scientific American.) An investigator into the mysteries of animal life asserts that a bee's working tools comprise a variety equal to that of the average mechanic. He says that the feet of the common working bee exhibit the combination of a basket, a brush, and a pair of pincers. The brush, the hairs of which are arranged in symmetrical rows, is only to be seen with the microscope. With this brush of fairly delicate the bee brushes its velvet robe to remove the pollen dust with which it becomes loaded while sucking up the nectar. Another article, hollowed like a spoon, receives all the gleanings which the insect carries to the hive. Finally, by opening them, one upon another, by means of a hinge, these two pieces become a pair of pincers, which render important service in the construction of the combs.

A Little Girl's Courtesy. (Cor. Philadelphia Record.) I saw an exquisite story that Richard Grant White used to tell so mangled by a newspaper the other day that I was moved to do it justice by printing my recollection of it. It was told to show the native courtesy of well-bred Americans, and here it is: When Gen. Washington was in New England he was entertained at dinner by a country gentleman who lived comfortably but quietly in his old-fashioned home far from town. When the general rose to go the little daughter of the host, not yet in her teens, opened the door for him. As he passed out in his stately way he bowed and said to the little maid: "I wish you a better office, my dear." "Yes, sir," she quickly replied, with a bow, "to let you in, sir."

How Flies Move Upon Smooth Surfaces. (Scientific American.) Some time ago Dr. J. E. Rombouts established the fact that flies attach themselves to smooth surfaces by the aid of a liquid secretion from the feet. This liquid, however, is not sticky, but the attachment is brought about by capillary attraction. Dr. Rombouts has recently strengthened his conclusions by an experiment. Several flies were confined to a glass plate by strips of paper, and the liquid that accumulated was sufficient to be perceptible to the naked eye. By the aid of experiments with glass balls, it was found that the adhesive power of the liquid was less than that of water, and about equal to that of olive oil. Hence capillary attraction is obviously the only force that could bring about the required result.

Card Memorials of the Dead. (Chicago News.) A firm out in San Francisco does a thriving business in card memorials of the dead. The decorations and verses are printed on them by the thousand, while the name, age, date of death, etc., are set in a mortised space. The papers so far east as New York are searched for notices of deaths, and specimens of the cards, printed on paper, are sent to the mourning family, and it rarely happens that at least one 50-cent card is not ordered.

Translate the Mottoes. (Exchange.) It is proposed to strike out the words "Sicilium Republice Massachusettsensis" from the seal of that state and substitute "The seal of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts." A writer in an eastern paper, noticing the above, suggests that the Latin mottoes of the various states be translated into English.

Salt as a Disinfectant. The Medical Journal states that a few handfuls of common salt thrown daily into closets, and an occasional handful into wash-basins, goes far toward counteracting the noxious effects of the omnipresent sewer gas.

What Dio Lewis Says. Dio Lewis is authority for the statement that no user of tobacco has ever headed his class at Harvard or at any other institution where class statistics have been preserved.

A Stage Line for Fifth Avenue. (Chicago Tribune.) It is stated that the wealthy men of Fifth Avenue, New York, propose to subscribe $300,000 to equip a stage line for their favorite thoroughfare in preference to having it given over to street car tracks. The style of stage spoken of is widely different from the old-fashioned, heavy lumbering vehicle hitherto used for such purposes in New York. Such stages as are popular in Paris will probably be bought, swung low, so that ladies and children can enter and leave without danger or difficulty, and fitted up for comfort, MURRAY & LANMAN'S Florida Water THE UNIVERSAL PERFUME for the Toilet, the Bath and the Handkerchief.

REPORT OF Prof. Alexander Wassiliewitch Poehl Analyzing Chemist for the Russian Government St. Petersburg: "Murray & Lanman's FLORIDA WATER does NOT contain any mineral parts which could be pernicious to health."

"The comparative investigation has shown that Murray & Lanman's FLORIDA WATER possesses in a well-known state a greater ability and power to purify the air than 'Eau de Cologne'; and in this respect Murray & Lanman's FLORIDA WATER is far preferable to the well-known Cologne Water." No. 6404—Sept. 29th, 1886.
