On August 10, we had a surprise visitor in town. Our Chick H. Furuye (B) got hold of the hot-line and reported that Baker's Dick Oguro-san of Honolulu was here for a day with Francis Miyake, brother of Howard Miyake (Hq.).

Chick got the ball rolling and arranged for a dinner at Ken Koichi Okamoto's (B) Seibu Restaurant, on Wilshire Boulevard. Welcoming Dick, Francis and a friend where Eric and Irene Abe, Chick and Matsu Furuye, Douglas Tanaka (B) and Sat Nakamura. Several others would have liked to meet Dick, bur prior commitments prevented them from doing so.

We learned that Dick and Francis were on their way to attend a teachers' union convention in Chicago, by way of New York City. This delay enroute was to give Francis a chance to see the Big City for the first time, with Dick as his tour guide. After the convention in Chicago, they were expected to try their luck at making back their expenses in Las Vegas. Good luck, Dick and Francis, and may we see you again in the future!

PUKA SQUARES

CHAPTERS ON THE GO! We tabulated the activities (other than routine monthly meetings) reported by the chapter correspondents in last month's issue of the Parade. This is the result:

Charlie - Annual summer picnic, July 10
Outing (for men only), August 13

Dog - Family campout, August 30-31 Able - Picnic, July 31

LA - Annual clamming and barbecue, June 19
 Publication of 100/442 directory (distribution in September)

Hawaii - Annual get-together of Dog bones (?) Bowling - Club 100 handicap league (continuing)

Baker - Annual family picnic, June 28

corn-on-the-cob booth at the 50th State Fair Green Thumbs - Annual steak dinner, July 10 Field trip to Wahiawa, July 24

Golf - Ace tournament, June 5 Kahuku, June 18

Looks as though everyone is real busy! While doing the tabulation, we also made a note of some of the comments of our correspondents:

Kazuto Shimuzu reporting on controversies going on in Charlie Chapter meetings. Could you be specific, Kazuto? Then, perhaps, other chapters could be equally stimulated.

Alekoki is always good for a thought or two and his reference to Dog Chapter member Francis Takemoto as "Taisho" is very appropriate.

Blue Nagasaki calls the move of Goro Sumida from Vineyard Street to Halawa as "A city slick to a country-jack." An apt reference.

Sat Nakamura says that he cannot find any Big Islanders over there in Los Angeles, and remarks that Big Islander "never leave Hawaii except to go on vacations. Nomadism is practiced only by those from Kauai, Maui and Oahu!"

Jim Maeda expresses the disappointment of one of the Big Island boys attending the anniversary luau here in Honolulu. "The crowd dispersed so fast after the feast and speech making that there wasn't any time for visiting old buddies." Jim also complains that he had not (at the time of writing his last column) received the Parade, and gently wonders whether the Puka-Puka boys working in the postal service had let him down. A valid complaint, Jim, but not against Uncle Sam's service or the boys, It's merely us again

-a rut that we're trying to get out of.

DO says that although Baker "sold more corn than all previous years - that's a fact!", the chapter came in second best (at the 50th State Fair) to a ladies group "that was manning a hot dog booth, I believe it was! Auwe!" Auwe? Hot Dog! would have been better.

Richard Yamamoto says, of the Green Thumb's annual dinner, that "Kazuo Kamemoto used his special broiler to cook steaks soft and tender for those with special requirements, and Robert Aoki's specially prepared tripe stew was an instant hit." How come that these guys are always eating meats instead of greens?

BASEBALL. The Pirates are leading, but anything can happen in the National League. The San Francisco Giants are only a few percentage points behind, the Dodgers a couple of games out. But the order could change swiftly. The race to the pennant could be as whacky and as dizzying as the '64 race when the Phillies, Reds, Cardinals, and the Giants were neck and neck to the wire, the Cardinals finally winning on the last day of the 162-game schedule. And where are our Islanders? As usual, they're run out of gas, after a fast start. Well, we can always look forward to next

AND POLITICS. The sudden blossoming of campaign signs tells us that October is not far away. With the large number of offices up for grabs this year, from the governorship on down to the school board, and including the two congressional seats, there should be room for most anyone who is willing to stand up to the "slings and arrows" of the campaign trail. We should see a very rapid buildup of the political war from here on in.

AND SPEAKING OF WARS. How big is our active fighting force? Some of you may have an interest in this question so we have extracted from a recent issue of the publication MILITARY REVIEW a summary of the active forces. This table presents the force structure to be supported by the 1966 budget, and compares this with the 1961 structure:

COVER, and EDITORIAL. There being nothing special to talk about, and since club secretory Herbert Yamamoto could think of no pressing problem, we reminisce a bit by printing for our cover a picture depicting a scene very familiar to all of us. We then close the scene by attempting to make a point in our editorial that wars are fought by people, and since people do not change, the situation and the conditions repeat themselves, war to war.

TSUTOMU "BLUE" KUNISHI, (Co. F & A), a good soldier and friend of all laid down his tools upon this earth and received the call of His Maker, on Tuesday, August 9, at Seattle, Washington. Funeral service was held at Seattle, August 13. "Blue" was confined at the Veterans Hospital at Seattle for several weeks prior to his death due to kidney ailment. The deceased was born and raised at Papaikou, Hawaii, and was employed by the Hilo Electric Light Co., before moving to Seattle.

We offer our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Amy Kunishi in her bereavement. Mrs. Kunishi resides at 1820 So. Jackson, Seattle, Washington.

ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE: Hawaii Chapter's annual memorial service will be held at the Veterans Cemetery on Sunday, September 25, 1966, 10:00 a.m., it was announced by Motoyoshi Tanaka and Yasuo Iwasaki, co-chairmen of the affair. Details of the services will be announced later by the committee. Please mark this date down on your calendar.

HILO'S FLOOD: Hilo not only has tidal waves from the ocean, but waves from the mountain. You should have witnessed the drums and drums (not buckets and buckets) of water coming down from heaven, and dried up creeks overflowing on Monday afternoon, July 25. Houses were washed down, a policeman got washed away, trees and plants were washed, automobiles got flooded, houses flooded and etc. You should have seen the printing papers that Jimmy Akamine sold to Hilo Printers scattered all over Hilo's bayfront after the flood.

Harumi Mende (D) home and rental units got flooded. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tanimoto and Skinny Hagiwara were cleaning up Hilo Printers for about a week to put the shop back in operation.

Who will be next for the Big Island, Madam Pele??

To BOB ISHIMARU and his family our sincere sympathy for the loss of their father...We hope that Sats Nakamura of Los Angeles guided WALTER KADOTA and family away from Reno and Las Vegas. We know that Walter enjoys seeing shows...TAKAO MIYAO and family are back from Japan after their visit there ...MR. and MRS. KOICHI KAWAOKA are now on tour in Japan...We learned that CHARLES MIZUGUCHI and family of Kahului, Maui visited Japan this summer.

This was Charlie's second visit to Nippon...General Francis Takemoto came to Hilo for the Hawaii National Guard golf tournament. Since we didn't see Francis' name as one of the winners his game must have been bad. Francis, Boblshimaru, Kazuma Hisanaga, George Taketa and a few others in Hilo, are ready to give you some golf lessons . . . The most confused thing on the Big Island at the present time is the proposed County Charter, which the people on the island voted on recently. We do hope that Kauai and Maui counties do better . . . ROGER KAWASAKI, office manager of K. Taniguchi is busy these days getting ready to relocate in the new super market building located at Kanoelehua and Puaineko Streets... Honorary member, J.M. ABLE September is the month when the children return to school-here and abroad but for the club members, it's Memorial Service for our fallen members. Yes! It will be held on September 25, last Sunday, at Punchbowl. So why don't you change your usual Sunday routine by coming out early and help your chapter representatives (Paul Shirai - Able) to place flowers on the graves of your comrades. Boy! What a feeling you have all day and throughout the year and still enjoy "Freedom" of our great country.

Under sunny skies and pleasant swimming water, over 150 members, wives and children turned out for the annual picnic which was held at Ken Okamoto's place out Waimanalo Beach on July 31, who was co-chairman with Tom Fujise. It was an "everybody was a winner" affair where no family went home empty-handed, Wearing the white "Chef" cap for the day was Yoshio Saito-with lots of help from the wives who provided lots of food and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Arakaki came out with interesting and dead-laughing games for all ages that there were more than enough prizes and the children were rewarded with necessary school supplies while the adults looked like they went through a special sale at a big department store - when the day was over.

Did you look for your name in the July issue on the 1966 dues list? If not listed, check your receipt or you must have forgotten to mail in your dues. Help push the Able Chapter total over 100 by sending in your dues. Pay now or will be harder and larger next year.

THE INDIVIDUAL SOLDIER - Key

"Man has been trying to get off the ground for ages. He hoped for wings, but he got an armchair in a cockpit or cabin. Now, he has the potential of being a missile thrust up in the air. But militarily, he is still not free of the ground for actual fighting."

This is a quote from an article in the current issue of the MILITARY REVIEW magazine which is published by the U. S. Army Command and General Staff College. The article is titled "Cheap Solutions for Winning Wars?"

The article discusses "bargain-basement" solutions for winning wars, and questions whether these are bargains in wars fought by remote control, cheaped manpower and more firepower, superiority by new maneuvers and mobility, every soldier a flying platform, and electronics warfare.

Even the possession of nuclear weapons presents its own problems and threats to those who use it.

Colonel Robert B. Rigg, the author of the article quotes Liddell Hart who estimates that to hold a kilometer of front in battle, approximately 20,000 mer were required around 1800, about 12,000 in 1870, 2,500 in 1917, and less than 1,000 today. "In a sense then, war has gradually become more dispersed and remote controlled because casualties are inflicte at longer ranges and more casualties are produced by indirect weapons. This makes combat no less deadly because progressively there have been fewer places to hide."

It is at this point that we return to our compadre pictured on the cover. Will such an interlude, in which our compadre has a chance to pitch his tent and take a break, be passe in some future war? Will there be no place to rest or hide? Could be, but we doubt it.

To fortify our doubt, we publish two pictures on this page, two pictures of combat in Vietnam. Take a close look at the terrain; take a close look at the faces of the GIs. Is the terrain any different from the terrain of France which is pictured on our cover! And the faces of the GIs - they reflect the same anxiety and tenseness which were ours over 20 years ago.

Till such a time that someone can devise a means of taking a piece of ground, then holding it without implanting a human guardian on the piece of terrefirma, the individual soldier with rifle in hand will continue to be the most important ingredient in any kind of war.

Success

Recognizing the fact that winning a war requires a mix of many things, Colonel Rigg states that there are no cheap solutions for winning wars but we can, however, "afford extensive research and development programs in quest of better military superiority." The case for continued expansion in research and development is recognized, and unquestioned.

But the case for the individual soldier is made difficult at times because his cause cannot be necessarily advanced by the input of dollars alone, nor can his effectiveness be measured in terms of dollars,

Despite technological advances in weaponry and sophistication in movement capabilities, warultimately comes down to the basic element which sees the soldier in his foxhole facing his enemy counterpart similarly intrenched.

It is therefore that we agree with Colonel Rigg that man is not free of the ground for actual fighting. Witness the actions in Vietnam. For all the troops and equipment we have poured in Vietnam, and for all the battles our troops have fought there, and for all the headcounts (of kills) that have been announced, we are still sitting on the same ground today as we started with some time ago.

It is in this vein of thought that we suspect that the kind of GI pictured on our cover, in the same kind of surroundings, with the same kind of problems, will be the man of the hour a hundred years from today.

BERNARD AKAMINE NOW AT GIBSON'S

Green Thumbs

The following members made the trip to Waianae on July 24 to visit the Kodama and Miyamoto orchid nurseries: Mr. and Mrs. Saburo Hasegawa, Mr. and Mrs. Moichi Okazaki, Mr. and Mrs. Kazuo Kamemoto, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taguchi and Guest, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aoki, Sadashi Matsunami, Goro Sumida and Richard Yamamoto.

Though the weather was a bit muggy and rainy, we all enjoyed the trip and lunch, Kazuo Kamemoto who lives in Manoa commented that he would be working in such a light rain. Both Mr. Kodama and Mr. Miyamoto have really improved their orchid houses since last year. Many community pots of orchid seedlings were purchased and the members will be re-potting these in the near future.

On our way home, we visited Robert Aoki's Aiea mansion. He has a beautiful home and his saran screen house is just the thing to grow orchids under. He does have a large collection.

The club will participate in the annual Honolulu Orchid Society's orchid show to be held on October 14 thru the 16th. Our club has won many awards in the past and we look forward to this event every year. Members should be grooming their plants.

At the last 50th State Fair, Kazuo Kamemoto displayed his flowering orchid plants and won many individual awards. Congratulations, Kazuo is a steady winner throughout the year for his dendrobium orchids.

Gibson Discount Center, what is it? Did Gibson buy out Family Fair Department Store? These are questions asked everyday.

Actually this store is owned and operated by the same people as before, now it is a franchised store of Gibson. Gibson with headquarters in Segoville, Texas found that by buying right a merchant can become a success. The Gibson family started buying merchandise for one store and found it difficult to get the right prices. They struggled along until they acquired five stores, then they realized that by buying in quantity they were able to get better prices. Thus they used the Gibson name for co-operative buying. In Hawaii Gibson is store #250. Now when we place an order with Gibson, Gibson combines our order with the other 249 Gibson Stores and the prices are fantastic. Honoluluans will take notice of the low prices when all of the merchandise is Gibson-purchased.

In this fabulous store, there are two members of our club. Harold Oda is in the appliance department and Bernard Akamine in the furniture department. By coincidence both of them are from Baker Chapter. Club 100 members are especially welcome.

Back to our home course (Moanalua) on July 24 for the New Alakea Grill Trophy Tournament. It was a wet day only ducks would enjoy. The writer opened his umbrella on the first tee and had it opened for the full 18 holes. Others had umbrellas or raincoats on all the way. A non-golfer must think we golfers are crazy to play on such a day. But, a tournament must be completed, once it's started. Naturally play was difficult on such a day. Tom Nakamura, our "old steady" and Fumi Taniyama solved the muddy grounds to a nifty net 68's for first placetie. A playoff will be held at our next tournament.

DOG

Dog Chapter's usual meeting on Tuesday, August 16, was postponed to Thursday. Despite the sudden change due to the passing of Martin Tohara's father, there were 16 members present for the Thursday meeting. Dog members again express deepest sympathy to Martin on his father's passing. The same goes to Conrad Tsukayama on his father's passing earlier this month.

The 1968 reunion of the Chapter is scheduled for Kauai. It's not too early to make plans, so Honolulu Dog members are anticipating requests from Kauai for kokua in liquor, food, or any other things needed for the 1968 reunion. President Nakayama is getting nervous. How about helping him out?

The overnite family outing was held on July 30-31 at Sunset Beach, thanks to the connections of Kazu Yoshioka. There were about 12 members present but only 4 wives decided to check up on their husbands' weekend activities. They were Helen Nikaido, Jane Matsunami, Ruth Tsutsui and Mildren Hosaka. The members voted unanimously to give special acknowledgement to Helen Nikaido for the big help in planning the overnite affair and seeing that everybody had enough pineapples for the weekend. Conrad Tsukayama was Chairman, but after planning everything, could not be present because of his father's critical illness. Thanks to Conrad, anyway.

Our deepest sympathy to Martin's and Conrad's families for their recent bereavement.

Two strong Dog members recently announced their candidacy for re-election to their respective offices this coming election. House Representative Robert Taira from the 14th District and Congressman Sparky Matsunaga for the House are actively campaigning and need the support of all club members.

Incidentally two other Club 100 members are running for offices: Sakae Takahashi (B) for Senator from the 5th Senatorial District and Howard Miyake for representative for the 14th District. They need your help.

Dog members are anxiously awaiting the housewarming invitation from Sadashi and Jane Matsunami who recently moved into the high-costing Tripler subdivision. His new address is 1642 Hakuaina Place.

BAKER

From the 22nd level, New Yorker Hotel, N.Y.

Turned out to be quite a day for us even though it was Friday, the 13th. Revisited the Statue of Liberty, American Stock Exchange, and enjoyed a late, late lunch in Chinatown, N.Y.

But tis enough for this personal stuff. Getting back to Baker Chapter affairs-from second hand info-the July Campout was a success although the attendance was below expectation (if that be the case-maybe we should revert back to a bachelors (stag) weekend affair. No!)

Stan Nakamoto, as usual, contributed to the dinner table. We caught some fish! (Was it one big one, Stan?) What's this, I hear - the wahines had to make the "Fuku-no-chili"? Where was Bob A-san? First timers - the Kodamas - learned the hard way. To be there early to grab the "rooms" available, having to sleep in the back of his station wagon!

The steaks were really enjoyable, and nobody starved. And everyone who attended the campout must have enjoyed it. Thank you, Roy Koda and Company - Y.Y. and K.M. and others for carrying this affair to a very successful close.

Was so "disappointed" with the attendance for the wives nite-Saturday nite at Tripler, that I snuck out early-so that nobody would see me crying! Guess it was one of those snafu things that happened because of circumstances beyond anyone's control and I guess it was my fault because I selfishly picked August 6, knowing that I would probably be mainland bound any time after that summer session having concluded before that date too.

The thirty (give or take one more or less) really did enjoy the menu immensely, especially the King crab leglets - wasn't that so, Dr. and Mrs. Harry H†rasunal II But I still claim that J.M. and R.A. cannot be beat when it comes to eating. Even if R.N. were to challenge that statement! For the Stan Nakamotos, it was their first time there and there were no complaints!

From my reliable stool pidgeon, I have gleamed that there was a "Nijikai" - practically the whole gang that night ended up at Furuya's Nippon Theatre for the late late Adults' only special sex-appeal movie, and which proved so disappointing that J.M. slept in the theatre -sleep early "Joe".

Speaking about J.M., seems like R.N., past prexy, is getting to the stage of an AA prospect??? He and J.N. were the first to arrive - and to the bar!

In truth, I had to leave early to check up on a printing job that I had under fire. I am very happy everyone enjoyed this affair!

By the time this issue comes out, the sweet breadchiffon sale will be on. This project was voted on at the last meeting, over a smoked chicken sale. We do need the moola. So please go out and sell-sell-sell. I have asked H.R. to give each 100 tickets. Hope you will all sell 200 each. After all, the "sale" will last approximately 3 months!

With the airline strike in progress, never thought that the necessary connections could be made. Actually a Teachers' Union Convention in Chicago is what we are headed for, after a "delay-enroute" in New York.

Only two days before departure, reservations were confirmed for us. Incidentally, I am travelling with Mr. Francis Miyake, our president. Yes-he is the older brother of Howard-but an entirely different personality.

Arrived in L.A. 6:00 a.m. Wednesday morning. Made contact with Chick Furuye. Result - was "forced" to accept a dinner date to meet the L.A. boys for that evening. We met at Ken Okamoto's Seibu Restaurant - a top-of-the-building plush establishment. Hawaiian that I am, refused to wear a coat. As a consequence, had to wear a Hapi coat loaned by the management, Practically the whole party ordered the International Course. It was Fabulous.

Douglas Tanaka was there minus his "famous" mustache, plus a bumper crop of "snow" on his crown, Sat Nakamura, Chick and Matsu Furuye and Eric's Mrs. Abe (D Chapter replacement, besides myselfand two of my guests, Mrs. Miyake and Greg Yamamotoson of Miyake's friend at whose home we had parked our carcas upon our arrival.

After all these years, finally was able to meet with Sat Nakamura face-to-face and it was really most, pleasurable.

I got this directly from the Horse's Mouth (C.F.) that if it wasn't for Sat, there would be No Baker Chapter L.A. nor 442nd Chapter L.A.! All I can say is that it really makes me feel real good inside to know we have friends and hustlers like Sats and Chick! It was a REAL REUNION!

Arrived in New York late Thursday afternoon after leaving L.A. 2:25 a.m. Thursday morning, having taken a circuitous southern route with stops in Dallas, Texas, Memphis, Tennessee and Nashville, Tennessee.

Planning on taking in the Music Hall program this evening so ----

FINANCE COMMITTEE REPORT:

This year again your Finance Committee, with the blessing of the Board of Directors, felt that Club 100 members should forego the idea of "selling" tickets, etc. and/or hitting the Community for donations and try to raise enough money by members' donations (active members as well as inactive members).

It may seem presumptuous to be asking kokua from the inactive members but our Club is always ready to help as much as we can any former member of the 100th Battalion (whether they are presently active members of Club 100 or not) when called on.

The Committee humbly solicits the help of all former members of the 100th Battalion.
