$200,000 Voted For Our Fortifications

Washington, D. C., January 31, 1907

Governor Carter, Honolulu.

Two hundred thousand dollars Hawaii fortifications passed Senate. Now in conference.

J. KALANIANAOLE.

A cablegram in the above words was received this morning by Governor Carter from Hawaii's Delegate to Congress. Secretary Taft's ideas as to the importance of fortifying Hawaii have evidently borne fruit, and the Senate has voted to add two hundred thousand dollars to the $260,000 appropriated by the last Congress. This will make a total of $460,000, somewhat less than the amount asked for by Taft, which was $600,000, but still enough to go far toward fortifying these islands. As the matter is still in conference, there is a possibility that the amount will be still further increased by the time the bill becomes a law.

FIGHT FOR HAWAII INDIVIDUALLY IS WELL PLANNED

Captain Otwell, who will be in charge of the construction of the fortifications for which Congress is at present engaged in appropriating believes that one great advantage has been given the Territory in the present battle, by making a separate and distinct appeal for the defense of Hawaii as a Territory of the Union.

Formerly Hawaii has in the appropriation bills before Congress enjoyed the disadvantage of being associated with Porto Rico, Guam and the Philippines. Undoubtedly she suffered from this association. Congressmen of the anti-imperialistic type were strongly against providing more for the Philippines than absolutely necessary, going on the theory that it would be poor policy to make heavy permanent investments in a place which the United States might better get rid of. It is impossible to tell how much Hawaii suffered by being associated with the Philippines. That she did suffer is more than probable.

Now, however, the fight is being made for Hawaii, as a Territory, and an integral part of the Union, which must be preserved and defended. California especially is taking a hand in Hawaii's fight, as that state is herself interested in having this outpost fortified. That Hawaii's chances have been bettered considerably by this change of line of attack.

FULLERTON TOOK PHONEY MORTGAGE

Grantors Had No Right To The Property Hypothecated

That James E. Fullerton, guardian of the estate of Mabel, Edith, Helen and Elsie Roberts, minors, has been guilty of gross carelessness in accepting, for the estate, a mortgage on property to which the mortgagors had no right in law, is the charge made by John Marcallino in his report as master on the third annual account of Fullerton. Marcallino seems to have developed a habit of going after careless and incompetent guardians, and is making an effort to do away with some of the carelessness which has marked the handling of minor's estates by certain custodians. A few days ago he submitted a report on the guardianship of Frank Archer which must have made Archer squirm.

Marcallino calls Judge Lindsay's attention to the fact that Fullerton on October 15 accepted from John P. and Isabella Mendiola a mortgage for $3,200 on certain pieces of property, in all but one of which the mortgagors had no interest whatever. The only piece of property in the list in which they did have any interest whatever is not defined with sufficient distinctness to make it possible to foreclose on it. The rest of the property belongs, according to the decision of the Supreme Court, to C. W. Ashford.

That the decision mentioned was rendered by the Supreme Court subsequent to the time the mortgage was given and accepted, appears to be no excuse for the guardian, as the matter was at that time in the courts and had been since 1903.

"It was the guardian's business," says the master in his report, "before he made this investment of $3,200 to find out if the grantors had a clear title to the property. The guardian has informed the master that he acted upon the advice of his attorney in investing in this property. The guardian, knowing that there was litigation pending, in which this property was involved, should not have invested in the same. It is easy enough to get first mortgage securities or reliable bonds. I call attention to this investment in order that the Court may be advised as to the true facts concerning the same."

The mortgage referred to, Marcallino states, is not even a first mortgage, but there are three prior mortgages on the property. Also another mortgage for $850 was given on the same day that the $3,200 mortgage was given.

In addition to the above charges, Marcallino states that during the year 1906 the guardian did not forward any part of the estate or principal for the support of Helen Roberts, in San Francisco. The guardian says that he is informed that Helen is dead, but he is not sure of the fact.

EX-QUEEN IS TO BE MARRIED

SO EXAMINER SAYS.

The San Francisco Examiner of January 22, prints the following:

Honolulu, Jan. 21.—The betrothal of throneless Queen Liliuokalani is persistently rumored among the natives, and the report is becoming a general topic of comment. Authentic details have not been obtained and every effort is being made to keep the facts secret. The most generally accepted of the different versions current is that the ex-Queen is engaged to a Tahitian Prince, who is now on an extended tour through the United States. He will soon visit Hawaii and the announcement of the date of the marriage is then expected. The former queen of the islands is reticent and refuses to discuss the matter.

THOMAS NOTT BUCKS ORDERS OF COURT

Takes Belongings Of Dead Wife From Dayton

According to the affidavit of David Dayton, Thomas Nott seems to have a pretty poor idea as to the effectiveness of court orders. At any rate, he appears to believe that his own rights are paramount to any court order which conflicts with them.

Nott has been summoned to appear before Judge Lindsay and show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court. This action is taken on complaint of Dayton, who files an affidavit showing that Nott has deliberately defied the orders of the court in regard to the estate of his wife, Agatha Nott, who died recently.

According to Dayton's affidavit, he was appointed by the court temporary administrator of the estate of Agatha Nott. The estate consisted principally of household furniture, cooking utensils, pictures, etc. Dayton took charge of these things, apparently against the protest of Thomas Nott, who thought that he and not some outsider who had secured temporary letters of administration should have charge of the belongings of his own deceased wife.

Yesterday, it seems, Nott appeared at the house and forcibly took away from Dayton the belongings of the deceased Agatha Nott.

Dayton, therefore, wants the Court to find Nott guilty of contempt of court.

The Promotion Committee will hold a regular meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Merchants Select NEW Board Of Directors

The annual election by the Merchants' Association of its Board of Directors took place yesterday afternoon The following were elected: Robert Catton, E. A. McInerny, F. L. Waldron, E. H. Paris, W. T. Lucas, M. Phillips, F. W. Macfarlane, W. W. Harris, G. Smith.

The fortification prospects were discussed to some extent, and it was decided to cable Geo. McClellan thanking him for his work in this matter.

A general howl was raised about the numerous advertising and subscription schemes with which the merchants were continually being bothered. It was suggested that a secret committee be formed, the business of which it should be to find out whether the various schemes were worthy or not. The members of the Association would then support only those which had the official approval of this committee.

The matter of corporation exhibits was, as usual, discussed at great length. There were various opinions expressed as to what form of exhibit should be made, and as to whether legislation should be recommended. One thing all those present agreed on, and that was that the $20 fee charged for filing the exhibits was an outrage and should be done away with.

Proposed Liquor Law

DEALERS IN FAVOR

Of New Regulations

The proposed bill for the government of the sale of liquor in this Territory was the main feature at the meeting of the liquor dealers yesterday afternoon, and it was handled without gloves.

Quite a number were present who did not belong to the Liquor Dealers Protective Association and they stood clear of all propositions until they were sure of the nature of the report to be made.

Strong opposition to the thousand dollar license was manifest inasmuch as if placed at that figure quite a number would not continue in the business. After some harangue it was proposed to pass the whole business up to the Hawaiian Liquor Dealers' Protective Association for adjustment. Such arrangement meeting with favor an election was held. C. J. McCarthy was made president; A. Wirtz, vice president; W. Lishman, secretary; and D. H. Lewis, treasurer.

The election of a board of trustees was put off till the next meeting.

Following the election it was moved that both reports be taken up. The motion carried.

The report adopted by this organization confines the issuance of licenses to citizens of the United States.

Retail licenses are to be restricted to one for every 1500 head of population, the population to be fixed by the official United States census. The provision as to limitation of licenses not to apply to any American citizen holding a saloon or cafe license under the present law but in future that the Board of Supervisors, or whoever hold the discretionary power, shall not issue or grant to anybody a saloon or cafe license until there is room for it.

That for all breaches of the act there shall be monetary fines and the imprisonment clause be eliminated.

It should be an offence against the law to sell liquor on credit in saloons if the same is consumed on the premises; but, if taken away, the amount of same should be collectable by law.

That no saloon licenses shall be granted for any premises for any other business except where the sale of liquor is carried on.

That any woman or minor visiting a saloon for the purpose of purchasing intoxicating liquor, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and that any person encouraging or inciting any woman or minor to so visit such premises, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall incur a penalty of ——

DEFINITION AND SALE.

Section 1. No person shall sell, or expose, or keep for sale any intoxicating liquor except as authorized in this Act; but the provisions of this Act shall not apply to sales made by a person under a provision of law which requires him to sell personal property.

Ales, porter, stout, strong beer, lager beer, cider, sake, all wines, any beverage which contains more than two (2) per cent. of alcohol by volume at 60 deg. Fahrenheit, and distilled spirits, shall be deemed to be intoxicating liquor within the meaning of this Act.

"Sunday" as used in this Act shall mean the time between twelve of the clock on the night of Saturday and five of the clock on the morning of the succeeding Monday.

"Gallon" as used in this Act shall mean the gallon defined by and used as a standard of measure under the laws of the United States.

Section 2 is left for the attorney of the association to embody the idea that the Board of Supervisors shall issue renewals except for cause.

The clause referring to transfer and revocation of licenses was stricken out. Following is the list of fees decided upon:

Special Retail License. Same as under Act No. 170.

Scale of License Fees—

A summary of this list shows that there are on the new force 44 Republicans, 31 Democrats, 2 non-partisans, and 1 Home Rule-Democrat. The non-partisans are the ladies, Miss Bush and Miss Davison. In addition to these a Japanese interpreter is to be appointed. As he will probably not be a voter his name can be added to those of the non-partisans.

"I am contemplating re-appointing George Waipa, the oldest policeman on the force," said Iaukea, while speaking of the list. "In case I do, some other officer must go, to provide for his pay. He is a Republican.

"At Waialua, you will see, all the police officers are Republicans. I will discharge one of these and put a Democrat in his place.

"The monthly appropriation of $6000 has been apportioned as follows: Office force, $1,405; Honolulu police, $3,945; and country police, $650.

"I have made the following reductions in salaries: Stenographer from $100 to $80, two court officers from $80 to $75 each, Hawaiian officer and interpreter from $100 to $80, Portuguese officer and interpreter from $80 to $75, specials from $80 to $75, turnkeys from $90 to $80, Waialua officers from $50 to $45, and Ewa officers from $60 to $50. As you see, Democrats, as well as Republicans, have suffered from these cuts.

"I have discharged 11 foot patrolmen, 7 mounted patrolmen, 2 court officers, 4 interpreters, 2 receiving clerks, 2 turnkeys, 1 driver and 2 waterfront officers. Of course in many of these cases new men have been put in the places of the ones discharged.

"In the case of Ella Crawford I understand that the Supervisors may provide a salary for him, but will place him under the police force. In that case I will insist that he resign from the political office he holds, as I will have no political executive officers on the force.

"Chairman Hustace has called on me. He states that I was mistaken when I understood that he objected to the spending of part of the fund for materials and supplies for detective work. He says that he had no objection to its being used to pay for special services. What he did object to was to have it used to pay regular salaries with.

"The fund of $1,000 for material and supplies will be apportioned as follows: Detectives' expenses and pay of informers, $300; support and maintenance of prisoners, $200; police inci[illegible] dentals, $100; and expenses of witnesses in criminal cases, $100. High Sheriff Henry will call on me today to discuss the matter of taking care of the prisoners."

KALA MARRIED,

SHE CLAIMS,

WHILE DRUNK

Anderson Grace, a negro employed at the railway station, and a woman named Kala, sometimes known as Sarah or Sarrah Kaiawe Mitchel, were arrested yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Temple and haled before United States Commissioner Frank Hatch on the charge of adultery. The case was set for hearing February 11.

Anderson appeared greatly surprised when he was placed under arrest, and said he could not see how a man could be charged with such a crime for living with his own wife. He claimed that he was legally married to the woman Kala, or Sarah, was not apparently so much surprised, though she proclaimed her innocence of any wrong doing. It is charged that she is really the wife of a man named Kaaiwalu.

Kala explains the matter by saying that while she was living on the island of Hawaii some time ago, she got drunk one night, and when she came to was told that she had been married to Kaaiwalu while intoxicated. She did not know whether this was true or not, and in any case did not hold that it constituted a marriage, as she knew nothing about it.

She therefore married the negro Anderson later, and has since that time lived with him as his wife.

If the stories told by the man and woman are proved at the hearing, the charge against the man will, of course, have to be dismissed, as it appears from his own statement that he is not guilty of any crime, having married the woman in good faith. Kala, however, will in that case possibly be charged with bigamy.

Floral and Pa-u Parade Plans Promise Great Inter-Island Event

Dollars.
Paper flowers.
Someone to decorate floats.
Plants and flowers in quantity.
Good supply of horses and saddles.

These are some of the necessities of the Pa-u or Floral Parade of February 22, as brought out by the discussion at the first meeting of the committee held yesterday afternoon in the Dillingham offices of the Stangenwald Building.

Chairman Dillingham went over the general work that had already been done. He has sent out the following letter to men on the various Islands:

January 18, 1907.

Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the Special Committee, appointed by Mr. Walter F. Dillingham to assist him in arranging for an effective Floral Parade on February 22d, the matter of representation from the other Islands was brought up for consideration, and it was decided that with your help it should be possible to arrange matters satisfactorily.

The idea is to have some young lady from your Island furnished with a good horse and provided with a handsome pa-u riding costume to participate in the Parade. Each Island should meet the expense of being so represented by its Princess or Queen. The General Committee will provide a Herald, a boy mounted on a pony, who will precede your representative bearing the name of the Island on a banner suspended from his trumpet. Proper escorts will also be furnished.

Hoping most sincerely that you may enter into the spirit of the occasion and find it convenient to assist the Committee in the way specified, I remain,

Very truly yours,
H. P. WOOD,
Secretary.

Christian Conradt has already responded that Molokai will have a representative young lady. C. D. Lufkin writes that Maui will be on hand. The other Islands have to be heard from.

Committee reports showed that much work has been done and the parade has made a good start. Dillingham said he hoped it would be possible to have Sam Parker act as Marshal for the parade and Major Potter as assistant. Sheriff Iaukea finds that he will not be able to take part that day except in the ordinary official capacity of seeing that all the police support necessary is given.

Shingle, who has charge of the horses and carriages, says that he thinks there will be a large number in line this year.

Gerrit P. Wilder has spent the biggest part of a week canvassing the various clubs. He found the Pacific Club rather frigid over the idea of doing anything for a Floral Parade. The University Club and the Elks Club and possibly the Commercial Club warmed up to the subject and will no doubt be represented in some way. The Pacific Tennis Club will do something and the Healani Boat Club will be in line with a float. The Myrtles have not been heard from, but it is anticipated that they will not be behind.

Japanese merchants are willing to come in when they know just what is expected. The committee wants all the floats it can get, but can allow nothing of an advertising nature in line. The Chinese will be represented by the Chinese Athletic Club. It was also suggested that if there were any foot section to the parade the Chinese dragon, saved over from Chinese New Year, ought to be available, and it would certainly be an attractive feature.

Mr. Galt said that he had not been overwhelmed with responses from automobile owners, but, considering all things, the outlook is very promising. Some who did not intend to enter the parade were willing to lend their autos.

The matter of auto decoration was one he found the most doubt about. It would be a good thing if someone would make a business of decorating autos at so much per. This would enable the man who did not have time to arrange his own auto to get it done in good shape.

The matter of paper flowers as well as real flowers was brought up. It was thought that many of the schools could be enlisted in the paper flower making and the committee should make it its business to see that plenty of flowers are grown preparatory to the demands of the day.

Mr. Andrade says that he expects to have from fifty to sixty pa-u riders in line this year. What he most needs is horses and saddles. It is anticipated that Walanae will come in with good representation.

Following the general discussion of horses, Andrade brought up the matter that the route followed last year was a very long one and hard on horses. On the supposition that the route might be shortened, there was talk of having a foot section with a show of military and police. In this connection it was brought out that the Japanese training ships might be here on Washington's birthday and while the men might not march, it would be quite proper to extend an invitation to participate, as the Japanese are particularly capable in getting up beautiful floats.

Taking the whole situation, it looks pretty good for a great display and a good time this year. Of course some money will be needed and the Promotion Committee has promised to assist with its moral influence in convincing the public of the financial value of this great fiesta.

U. S. GOVERNMENT CHECKS JAP INFLUX

Commissioner North Holds Up Japanese On Alameda

The United States Government has made its first move in the shape of a damper on Japanese invasion by holding up the crowd of Japanese that went to the Coast by the last trip of the Alameda.

H. H. North, Commissioner of Immigration, had been given instructions from Washington, previous to the arrival of the Alameda, to make a thorough investigation of the expected Japanese and ascertain, beyond a shadow of doubt, their right to land before allowing them to do so.

As soon as the Alameda had passed quarantine, the Commissioner, with a corps of assistants, boarded her and put in a full day making exhaustive examinations with a view to securing from the immigrants information desired by the United States Bureau. When approached by newspapermen for information as to the result of his inquisitions he referred them to Commissioner General Frank P. Sargent at Washington.

Ninety-four Japanese had judgment of a favorable nature passed upon them and were allowed to go ashore. The remainder were placed under guard for examination the following day.

This new turn of affairs is setting the Japanese colony of San Francisco all agog. They cannot understand why it is that after so many years of uninterrupted influx of their countrymen that so sudden a check should be placed upon it.

The passports issued to these detained Japanese in Japan are all found, upon examination by the Commissioner, to be of recent date. That feature in itself stamps them as not being bona fide residents of Honolulu, and the authorities on the Coast claim it is a mere subterfuge that they employ to gain admittance into the United States proper.

It is understood that the Bureau at Washington is thoroughly conversant with the tricks being now played by the Japanese immigrants and its orders to Commissioner North for strict investigation are to be closely followed in the future.

California or any other State in the Union must accept Japanese if the proof is forthcoming that they are bona fide residents of the Hawaiian Islands, but the Department at Washington is said to have information that this claim is fraudulent.

The fact that the stay of this particular gang of Japanese in these Islands was of limited duration was shown by the inability of nearly all of them to speak a single word of English. Their nearest and only approach to American ways is in the matter of clothing, which, of a certainty, would be their first act in the "get-into-a-free-country" drama.

Later instructions were received by Examining Commissioner North at San Francisco from Commissioner Sargent, couched in the following words: "Examine, but do not detain." As a consequence the remaining Japanese awaiting examination on the Alameda, and those that arrived a day later on the Korea, were allowed to land after passing through a certain form of examination.

Of this number only nine were direct from the Orient, the others having been passed by the authorities at Honolulu, the port of entry. Commissioner Sargent is said to have felt the "big stick" in a quiet manner, and the fact that he wired Commissioner North to release the immigrants held on board the steamship Alameda is attributed to an order issued by the "man higher up" after the facts appeared in the press dispatches.

Commissioner Sargent is especially friendly toward organized labor and it was due to the fact that he was zealous of the interests of workingmen that he ordered a strict investigation of a charge that the contract labor law was being violated and that the Western Pacific Railroad was bringing in large numbers of Orientals to work on its lines in the north.

Commissioner North has nothing to give out for publication regarding the results of the examinations by the San Francisco inspectors.

Honolulu being a port of entry, it had not been the custom to examine Japanese booked from here, as their right to enter at a mainland port had never before been questioned after they have once passed the Honolulu inspectors.

It was found that many of the Japanese passengers on the Alameda and Korea were under contract with the Western Pacific Railroad, but in each case it was shown that they were engaged in Honolulu and not in Japan, though a large majority of them had not resided in this port more than a few days.

When the thirty-seven who were detained on board the Alameda were landed and ordered into the detention shed, the Pacific Mail officials demurred. They insisted that the inspectors call up Commissioner North and they would learn direct from headquarters that the men were to be detained no longer. Commissioner North upheld the contention of the steamship officials and the Japanese were released, as North had received the supplemental instructions from Washington to that effect.

When asked regarding the Government's sudden change of attitude, North said he could not discuss the Washington end of the affair, as he was simply carrying out instructions to the letter as they came to him.

After the Japanese were granted permission to land they were herded up Market street by their countrymen and quartered in houses in Sutter street.

NAPOLEON GETS SIX MONTHS ON REEF

Robinson Thinks Craps Worst Form Of Gambling

Sam Apolioni, alias Napoleon, who was found guilty in Judge Robinson's court this week of running a crap game, will take a vacation for about six months, and his game will be discontinued for that length of time, at least. Napoleon has fallen, and like his great namesake, his going and comings will be watched by armed guards.

For Napoleon is going over to the reef. Judge Robinson told him so this morning. And in passing sentence, the judge delivered himself of his ideas concerning the running of crap games which he appears to consider a more serious offense than other forms of gambling in that it appeals to the boys and leads them into paths that are liable to land them in the same place where Napoleon is going to take his vacation. Judge Robinson said:

"I think it is the duty of the Court to take into consideration what effect the crime such as the defendant has been found guilty of has upon the community at large. I think particularly that this game of shooting craps attracts the younger element and leads them into pernicious and objectionable ways and they become a charge upon the community, because in time they become professional criminals.

"The defendant is sentenced to imprisonment for six months and to pay the costs of court."

NEW JAPANESE TREATY.

Much national and international history is being made these days on matters in which Hawaii is vitally interested.

The announcement of this morning's cablegrams that there is a prospect of a better understanding and new treaty between Japan and the United States for regulation of immigration, will have a more far-reaching effect than the very good news of yesterday that Secretary Taft has become active in securing the funds needed for fortification of these islands and equipment of the naval station as a great naval base.

The Bulletin has expressed the belief that the foreign offices of Japan and our country have been moving to settle the immigration question amicably. Japan is more anxious that its citizens shall stay away from the United States, but if they get there expects them to live on term of international equality.

President Roosevelt has apparently got the negotiations with Japan to such a stage that California needs to be summoned to a full sense of its responsibility to the nation. In other words, the Californians may be relieved of additional Japanese immigration if they will recognize the treaty rights of the citizens of a friendly nation.

The only threatening note in the information thus far given out is the remark of Baron Hayashi. This is the second time he has been selected as the mouth-piece of an expression of opinion with sinister meaning. There is as much prospect of this statement firing the jingoism of the American people as that it will assist in bringing California to time. The response is likely to be, "We will not let any foreign nation tell us what we must do."

Taken as a whole, the dispatches furnish news that is gratifying. The immigration affair will be settled, and the serious turn taken by the San Francisco school question has reminded the country that it has interests in the Pacific in need of protection, and caused Secretary Taft to forget that he has no use for Hawaii.

THE SHIP SUBSIDY LAW.

The Bulletin calls the especial attention of its readers to the text of the Administration ship subsidy bill given in this issue.

From the National standpoint this bill represents an awakening. Even Uncle Joe Cannon, who listens so carefully to what is said by his constituents that never saw the ocean, has given it his support.

It is gratifying, as well, to what may be termed the selfish interests of Hawaii. It is a step toward the fulfillment of our proper American destiny, which at times appears to be so distressingly slow in working out. Given the ships for which this bill calls, Hawaii will have a splendid steamer service that will carry its freight and its passengers in first-class boats under the American flag.

The President's comment on this law as contained in his special message to Congress is to the point. It gives us a clearer idea of the powerful advocate the Americans of the Pacific have in their efforts to arouse the mainlanders to what must be done in order to place our commerce on a footing of equality with competing nations.

Roosevelt closes his special message with the following comment:

"The bill provides for fourteen steamships, subsidized to the extent of over a million and a half, from the Atlantic coast, all to run to South American ports. It provides upon the Pacific coast for twenty-two steamers, subsidized to the extent of two millions and a quarter, some of these to run to South America, most of them to Manila, Australia and Asia. Be it remembered that, while the ships would be owned upon the coast, the cargoes would be largely supplied by the interior, and that the bill would help to tie the Mississippi Valley as much as the seaboard.

"I have laid stress upon the benefit to be expected from our trade with South America. The lines to the Orient are also of vital importance. The commercial possibilities of the Pacific are unlimited, and for national reasons it is imperative that we should have direct communication by American lines with Hawaii and the Philippines.

"The existence of our present steamship lines upon the Pacific is seriously threatened by the foreign subsidized lines. Our communications with the markets of Asia and with our own possessions in the Philippines, no less than our communications with Australia, should depend not upon foreign but upon our own ships. The Southwest and Northwest should alike be served by these lines, and if this is done they will also give to the Mississippi Valley through its entire length the advantages of all transcontinental railways running to the Pacific Coast.

"To fail to establish adequate lines upon the Pacific is equivalent to proclaiming to the world that we have neither the ability nor the disposition to contend for our rightful share of the commerce of the Orient. It would surely be more than unwise for us to surrender to our commercial rivals the great commerce of the Orient, the great commerce we should have with South America and even our own communications with Hawaii and the Philippines.

"I earnestly hope for the enactment of some law like the bill in question." This bill fits in with Hawaii development. It is as important as improved harbors and fortifications. If Hawaii can do in any way aid in the passage of the law, our business men should not hesitate to move.

NOTE THE APPLAUSE.

Persons doubtful of the impression Hawaii's population creates on the American mind should read, mark, learn and inwardly digest the following paragraph from a report of Congressman Hayes' speech before the House of Representatives:

He pointed to Hawaii as an example of what might come to the Pacific Coast should the Japanese be permitted to enter the schools of the country alongside white children. "All that seems to remain to be done," he declared, "to make these islands a Japanese colony is to pull down the Stars and Stripes and hoist the flag of Japan." The utterances called forth a round of applause.

PRATT VIGOROUSLY ANSWERS CRITICS

Policy Of Land Office Is Defended In His Report

Land Commissioner James W. Pratt is the first of the Territorial heads of departments to his his biennial report printed. His report for the two years ending December 31, 1906, is in three divisions. The first is a report covering six months from January 1, 1905, to June 30, 1905. This report covers the balance of business of the former biennial report not covered by the report submitted December 31, 1904.

The second division is a report covering one year's business, commencing July 1, 1905, and ending June 30, 1906.

The third is a report covering six months' business, commencing July 1, 1906, and ending December 31, 1906.

The full report, therefore, includes six months' business of the former biennial period, and lacks six months business of current biennial period, as the latter does not expire until June 30, 1907.

The entire report is summarized in some interesting figures showing the business done by the land office during the time covered by the report.

The total collections for the two years have been $352,398.97, and the total expenditures $29,742.48, leaving a handsome balance on the credit side.

One hundred and sixty-five right of purchase leases have been issued, covering 7,997.04 acres. There were 43 cash freehold leases issued, covering 655.16 acrs. Special agreement leases were 21 in number, and affect 259.298 acres of land. Sixty-seven homestead leases were issued during the period covered by the report, amounting in all to 355.484 acres. The total homesteads, therefore, amounted in number to 296 and covered 9,266.982 acres.

In regard to the work of his department, Mr. Pratt vigorously defends himself against criticisms that have been made. He says:

The ever increasing demand for land, under the various sections of our Land Act, has strained to the limit the capacity of every employee of the Survey and Land Offices, and still we have people waiting for land, and are several months behind our "orders."

It is now up to the people of this Territory to decide, through the action or lack of action of the coming session of Territorial Legislature, whether we are to continue to struggle along under insufficient appropriations, thereby delaying and discouraging all concerned and actually increasing the cost of administration, or whether we are to have enlarged opportunities with a liberal appropriation to work on.

It is respectfully submitted, for the consideration of all concerned, that every dollar expended by the Land and Survey offices is expended for the development of the Territory of Hawaii and its resources, and every act of development means an increase of values, and increase of resources, and therefore an increase of prosperity. Another matter which should not be overlooked is the fact that for every dollar expended by these two offices, it is shown that they have deposited in the Treasury over four dollars; and this does not include any sum deposited as results of sales of lands.

The Commissioner of Lands has been severely criticised during the past two years for various acts or failures to act, among which the following may be mentioned:

First—Declining to open cane land in 100 acre lots, but offering said lands in 20 and 30 acre lots. As the lands will produce a gross return of $150 to $200 per acre per annum, one-third of which should be the net return, the Commissioner has the honest believing, as does the president and the Honorables W. A. Richards, F. H. Newell and Gifford Pinchot, U. S. Public Land Commissioners, that "No arbitrary rule should be followed, but in each case the area of the homestead should be determined by the acreage which may be necessary to support a family upon the land."

Second—Attempting to induce 135 families of Russians to come here (at private expense) and settle upon the lands. The attempt failed, although the Administration used every lawful effort in its support. The failure has been ascribed in various causes, but could an efficient administration of public lands have taken any other course?

Third—For selling at public auction to the highest bidder two tracts of land of less than 1000 acres each. As both of these tracts were made up of scattered remnants of agricultural and waste lands which would only produce when irrigated by pumped water, and as, of the total area sold, less than one-half would produce even with irrigation, and as both tracts were broken by many patches of private lands, this was considered to be the best and wisest disposition that could be made of said lands.

Fourth—For recommending that the Government interests in the Island of Lanai be exchanged for other land or lands, of equal value, and required for immediate public use. The Government interests in Lanai consists of about 48,000 acres of land, in seven sections, some of the sections running from sea to sea across the mountain and Islands. All these are interlaced and interlocked with the private lands of the Island in such manner as to render it simply a business proposition that the Government should acquire ownership of the private interests or dispose of its own interest. Of the total area of the Island less than ten per cent. can be classed as "Second Class Agricultural Lands," the balance being "Second Class Pastoral and Waste." Of the Government interests about one-eighth is "Second Class Agricultural" and the balance "Second Class Pastoral" and "Waste," producing a rental of $1,600 per annum and liable, owing to deterioration, to constantly diminishing returns. The condition of the Government finances prohibit any plan of purchase by Government of the private interests on Lanai, and would also appear to show how hopeless it would be to expect to obtain appropriations through the Legislature for the purchase of private lands actually needed at this time for "Educational and other public purposes." The resolution of Annexation provides that all revenues from or proceeds of the same, (public lands) shall be used solely for educational and other public purposes. They why not use the lands directly for said purposes?

Fifth: The cancellation of holdings of fake homesteaders and those who have attempted to obtain patents without complying with covenants of their agreements has brought forth the usual roar from such people and the speculators who are supporting them.

There have been many attempts to influence the officers of the land office by threats of inducing the Legislature to cut salaries and appropriations and otherwise harass said men, but I know of no case in which said threats have had the desired effect and believe that notwithstanding such threats, the work has been carried on without fear or favor.

JAS. W. PRATT,
Commissioner of Public Lands, Territory of Hawaii.

SHIP SUBSIDY FOR PACIFIC LINES

Hawaii Is Recognized Fully In Plans For Steamers

Following is the text of the administration ship subsidy bill now before Congress. It has the support of Speaker Cannon and the President sent a special message to Congress urging its passage:

An Act to promote the national defense, to create a National Reserve, to establish American ocean mail lines to foreign markets, and to promote commerce.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act entitled "An Act to provide for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports and to promote commerce," approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, be, and hereby is, amended by adding thereto the following section:

"Sec. 10. That the Postmaster-General is hereby authorized and directed to enter into contracts for a term of ten years, with citizens of the United States, for the carrying of mails on steamships hereafter built in the United States and registered in the United States, or now duly registered by a citizen or citizens of the United States (including as such citizens any corporation created under the laws of the United States or any of the States thereof, a majority of the stock of which shall be and shall continue to be owned by citizens of the United States) between ports of the United States and ports on the routes and for the amounts hereinafter prescribed.

"First. From a port or ports of the Atlantic coast of the United States to Brazil, on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed, for a monthly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars a year, or for a fortnightly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding six hundred thousand dollars a year.

"Second. From a port or ports of the Atlantic coast of the United States to Argentina, on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed, for a monthly service at a monthly compensation not exceeding four hundred thousand dollars a year, or for a fortnightly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding eight hundred thousand dollars a year: Provided, That a vessel receiving compensation for mail service pursuant to contract on a voyage on this route shall not also receive compensation for mail service pursuant to contract on said voyage on the first route as described above.

"Third. From a port or ports of the United States on the Gulf of Mexico to the Isthmus of Panama, on steamships of the United States of not less than fourteen knots speed, for a fortnightly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding seventy-five thousand dollars a year, or for a weekly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding one hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year.

"Fourth. From a port or ports of the Pacific coast of the United States to the Isthmus of Panama, Peru, and Chile, on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed, for a monthly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars a year, or for a fortnightly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding six hundred thousand dollars a year.

"Fifth. From a port or ports on the Pacific coast of the United States via Hawaii to Japan, China, and the Philippines on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed for a monthly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding three hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year or for a fortnightly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding seven hundred thousand dollars a year.

"Sixth. From a port or ports on the Pacific coast of the United States north of Cape Mendocino to Japan, China, and the Philippines on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed for a monthly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding three hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year or for a fortnightly service at a maximum compensation not exceeding seven hundred thousand dollars a year.

"Seventh. From a port or ports of the Pacific coast of the United States, via Hawaii and the Samoan Island, to Australasia, on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed for a service once in three weeks at a maximum compensation not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars a year, in addition to the compensation now provided pursuant to contract under this said Act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one: Provided, That the requirements of this section as to the rates of speed shall be deemed to be complied with if said rates are developed during a trial of four hours continuous steaming at sea in ordinary weather in water of sufficient depth to make the test a fair and just one and if the vessels are maintained in a condition to develop such speed at any time while at sea in ordinary weather. This trial shall be made under the direction and supervision of a board of naval officers which the Secretary of the Navy shall appoint upon the application of the owner or owners of the vessel to be tested: And provided further, That all the provisions of the first nine sections of this Act are hereby made applicable in all respects to the services provided for in this section: Provided, however, That the specific rates of compensation described in section five of this Act shall not apply to the services provided for in this section, and that all ordinary repair or overhauling of a steamship employed and paid for carrying mails under this section shall be made in the United States, except in cases where drydocking is necessary and no American dry dock of sufficient capacity shall be within a distance of five hundred miles of the location of said ship when the repairs shall be needed."

Sec. 2. That Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this Act in whole or in part whenever in its judgment the public interest shall so require, without, however, impairing in any wise the obligation of any specific contract then in force which shall have been entered into under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. That there shall be enrolled, in such manner and under such requirements as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, from the officers and men now and hereafter employed in the merchant marine and fisheries of the United States, including the coastwise trade of the Atlantic and Pacific, and the Great Lakes, such officers, petty officers, and men as may be capable of rendering service as members of a Naval Reserve, for duty in time of war, and who are willing to undertake such service, to be classified in grades and ratings according to their capacity as shown at time of enrollment. No man shall be thus enrolled who is not a citizen of the United States by either birth or naturalization. These members of the Naval Reserve shall be enrolled for a period of four years, during which period they shall be subject to render service on call of the President in time of war. They shall also possess such qualifications, receive such instruction, and be subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed, upon proper audit by the Auditor of the Navy Department, to pay out of any money to be annually appropriated therefor upon estimates to be annually submitted to Congress in the Book of Estimates to such officer, petty officer, or man thus enrolled and employed in the merchant marine or fisheries, including the coastwise trade of the Atlantic and Pacific and the Great Lakes as hereinafter provided, an annual retainer as follows: For each officer of the line or Engineer Corps having the rank of lieutenant in the Naval Reserve, one hundred and ten dollars; for each officer of the line or Engineer Corps having the rank of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Naval Reserve, ninety dollars; for each officer of the line or Engineer Corps having the rank of ensign in the Naval Reserve, eighty dollars; for each man with a rating of chief petty officer, seventy dollars; for each man with a rating of petty officer, first class, sixty dollars; for each man with a rating of petty officer, second class, forty-eight dollars; for each man with a rating of petty officer, third class, forty dollars; for each seaman, first class, thirty-six dollars; for each seaman, second class, thirty dollars; for each seaman, third class, twenty-four dollars. Such retainer shall be paid at the end of each year of service on certificate, by the Secretary of the Navy, that the member of the Naval Reserve has complied with the regulations and has served for at least six months of the preceding twelve months on vessels of the United States in the merchant marine or fisheries. The total number of officers, petty officers, and men enrolled in the Naval Reserve shall not at any time exceed ten thousand.

WAIMEA FAVORED FOR BOY'S HOME

Pinkham Considers It Only Available Location

The principal matter discussed at the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon was the proposed boys' home, which President Pinkham recommends be established on the Puukapu lands at Waimea, Hawaii. Mr. Pinkham's ideas on the subject are very fully expressed in the pamphlet which he had prepared and submitted to the Board yesterday on the Kapiolani Girl's home and the proposed boys' home. The pamphlet in large part appears elsewhere.

There was some discussion as to the best location for the boys' school. President Pinkham stated that he had been all over the islands and the only government land that he had been able to find that is adapted to the purpose is that near Waimea. Dr. Judd agreed with Mr. Pinkham that Waimea is satisfactory from a sanitary point of view but thought the water problem might be a difficult one to solve. Pinkham stated that Mr. Vredenburg has water in that locality to run a small power plant. He thought the Government could get the water.

The idea was advanced by Dr. Wayson and Mr. Smith that it would be a good thing, if possible, to combine the proposed boys' farm and the Boys' Industrial School at Waialee, Oahu.

At the conclusion of the discussion Mr. Robinson said, "I believe the Board favors the general idea of our president, and it only remains to take the matter up so that the Legislature will do something.

Mr. Pinkham stated that he did not ask the Board to take action at once. The members should take the pamphlet home with them and study its recommendations.

The Board also discussed the petition of 57 residents of the Makiki section, asking the Board to have abated the nuisance of the pool of stagnant water standing on the Allen Estate lot. They asked that the owners of the property be required to have the lot filled up.

President Pinkham stated that he did not think it entirely fair to hold the owners responsible, since the cause of the pool was the construction of Wilder avenue across the natural fall of the water. Filling up the land would not entirely abate the nuisance, since the water would accumulate in the gulch.

On motion of Dr. Wayson, seconded by Mr. Robinson, it voted to declare the pool a nuisance and that its existence be brought to the attention of the Department of Public Works.

CORPORATIONS SLOW IN MAKING RETURNS

A considerable number of the corporations doing business in the first taxation division, superintended by Tax Collector Holt, have not made their returns as required by law, and, if the provisions of the law should be strictly enforced, would become delinquent at 5 o'clock this afternoon. Several of them have, however, asked the Tax Collector to extend the time in which they may make their returns, and where good cause appears such extension has been granted.

Some of the corporations stated to the collector that they have not yet held their annual meetings and have, therefore, been unable to close up their books and do not know where they stand. In cases of that kind, an extension of time has been granted.

There is quite a rush of tardy taxpayers at the window of the tax collector's office today. The prospect of having to pay the added penalty for delinquency does not appeal to a good many people. Yet Tax Collector Holt states that the delinquent list will, in all probability, be larger this year than it was last.

CRAWFORD CASE

The case of Willie Crawford, who is on trial charged with running a gambling game, is in the same position that it was yesterday. Whether or not he can be tried under the indictment brought against him by the Grand Jury is the question that is up to Judge Robinson to decide.

This matter was argued vigorously and at length this morning by Judge Gear for the defense and Deputy Attorney General Prosser for the prosecution. Gear raised the point yesterday that as the indictment charged Crawford with running the game on October 15 and for thirty days prior thereto, it was faulty and would not hold.

The judge, after the matter had been argued this morning, took it under consideration, reserving his decision until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Judge Robinson this afternoon suspended the trial of Willie Crawford, pending a decision by the Supreme Court as to the legality of the indictment under which he was being tried.

Prosser sprang a surprise on the defense this afternoon by moving a suspension of the case pending a decision by the Supreme Court on this question. The Judge allowed the motion.

ANOTHER LANDMARK TO BE RESTORED

The old mission house at the rear of Kawaiahao church is to be patched up and restored to its original appearance.

The old house is one of the most historical buildings in Honolulu. It is built from lumber brought from Boston in the old brig Thaddeus. It comprised a part of the outfit brought by the pioneer missionary band which was sent out by the American Board of Missions.

WHAT KELLEY DIDN'T SAY

J. J. Kelly denies positively that he ever made the statement quoted in the Advertiser as coming from him, that the banks of Melbourne were closed for a week during his recent visit to that city. After his return home, in talking about his trip, he related the fact that a friend told him that the banks of the city would be closed for a week. He left town the next day and did not take the trouble to investigate. He was particular not to make any such assertion as has been credited to him. Mr. Kelly has been to the Advertiser twice to have the statement corrected but that paper thus far has failed to make good.

ROWING OFFICIAL UPHOLDS BRITONS

President "Jim" Pilkington of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, in discussing the action of the Henley stewards recently, said:

"The fact that the Henley stewards insist upon an agreement with the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen is perfectly proper. As a rowing body they have the right to make their own rules, and it is the duty, in my estimation, of every amateur oarsman who desires to compete to accept them. If English oarsmen come over here to compete they would do so under our rules, and it is only just that the rule should work both ways. Possibly one of the reasons for the Henley stewards and the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen not understanding each other better is the fact that there have been so few contests between the two associations. The representative oarsmen of England have visited this country but once—that was in the Centennial year, 1876, when the London Rowing Club and Dublin University fours took part in the Centennial Regatta on the Schuylkill River, Philadelphia.

"The impression must not be gathered that the many contestants who have gone over to compete in the Royal Henley were the production of the National Association. As a matter of fact, the only entry ever made which the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen was directly responsible for was the Hillside four of Michigan in 1883. They were the winners of our national championship here three years in succession, were an exceptionally good crew and complied in every way with the Henley definition of an amateur. The National Association made the entry and interested themselves in every way in regard to the trip. The result, I believe, was not satisfactory, as the crew was fouled by a rowboat on the course.

"Almost all the entries made were the production of some of the smaller associations or clubs throughout the country, which were members of the National Association. They desired to make an entry in the Henley Regatta and came before the Executive Committee of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen requesting their indorsement. The Executive Committee after a reasonable investigation, and believing that they were meeting all the requirements of the Henley stewards, made the entries through the secretary of the association.

ENGLISH CHAMPION NOT TO PLAY TENNIS

London, Jan. 5.—The Doherty brothers will not represent England in defending the Davis Cup in the international lawn tennis matches in this country next summer, and their only public appearance will be in the doubles for the British championship at Wimbledon, which they lost to S. S. Smith and E. S. Risley last year.

H. L. Doherty, the English champion since 1902, does not intend to defend his title at Wimbledon, but he may play on the French Riviera.

While no definite reason is given for their decision to retire, it is understood to be partly the result of the recent controversy, which has led to such drastic changes in the personnel of the council, and partly the result of the feeling that there is a period of too strenuous first-class match play.

Both brothers have won all the honors possible for knights of the racquet to achieve. They have been the doubles champions longer than any other pair in the past, and have done what no other pair has done in winning the doubles championship of America.

Nevertheless, if the brothers carry out their present fixed intention, the outlook for England in the Davis Cup matches next June is none too promising, as the next British exponents in the order of merit, Messrs. Gore, Riseley and Smith, are none too young. If America should send over her best team, she ought to stand an excellent chance of regaining the cup, though they will find a hard nut to crack in the Australasian contingent.

SAMUEL'S MORALS, IT SEEMS, NEED PRUNING

Samuel Pupuhi's morals are sadly in need of pruning, if the allegations made by his wife Maggie are found to be true.

Maggie has filed suit for divorce from Samuel, and in her complaint makes statements against Samuel's conduct that are not pleasant. She says that he is a man "of low, vicious and vulgar habits, and is addicted to the use of obscene and profane language toward your oratrix and their children, in the presence of said children, and is a person wholly unfit to be entrusted with the care, custody and education of children."

Mary claims, also, that Samuel has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward her, and during a period of two months past has struck her without cause, and has used vile and disgusting language toward her.

In addition to the above charges, the wife alleges that Pupuhi has been guilty of adultery, committed with a woman known as Dina. For five months past, she claims, he has not provided for his own wife, though abundantly able to do so.

Maggie, therefore, asks the Court to grant her an absolute divorce, to give her the custody of the two children who are living, and to order that Samuel shall pay for her support and put up for the lawyer's fees.

LECTURE FOR SUFFERERS

Tonight, under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. a personally conducted volcano trip will be made to Hawaii's lava flow. Tickets only 25c. Go and see this greatest of natural wonders. The management guarantee no seasickness and will pay all hotel bills. Tourists who take this special excursion will be able to secure views of the Lake of Fire of 1880, 1893 and 1907. One feature will be a visit to the great flow, from Mauna Loa, of 1907. The party will be taken high up on the mountain and in sight of the active crater, which sent out its stream of fire. Bookings should be made at once and tickets secured so as not to loose this unusual opportunity to see Hawaii's great volcano.

SEE HONOLULU TRIPS

For the benefit of tourists and others who may wish to avail themselves of the opportunity J. A. Palmer of the tourist department of the Waterhouse Trust Co. has arranged for regular coaching trips to points of interest about Honolulu. Beginning Monday, Feb. 4th, weather permitting, coaches will leave from in front of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee rooms, on Hotel street, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning, as follows: On Mondays for the Pali; Wednesdays for Tantalus; Fridays for Moanalua. The equipments for the trip will be first-class; fine coaches drawn by four or six horses, as may be required, in the hands of competent drivers. The coach will leave promptly at the appointed hour. Parties wishing to make these trips will please govern themselves accordingly.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Out of forty-eight pitchers who appeared last season in the games of the American League, but one, Laroy of New York, won all the games in which he appeared. This achievement, however, is not so creditable as it sounds, for the reason that he appeared in only two games. Next to Laroy in games won is Plank of Philadelphia, who won nineteen games and lost six. White of Chicago was third, with eighteen games won, six lost and one tie. Joss made the best showing for Cleveland, with twelve games won, nine lost and one tie.

Open Letter From Pacific Department

Royal Insurance Company of Liverpool

Many of the Companies which at the memorable meeting of June 12th voted in favor of a horizontal deduction of "not less than 25%," have, as we predicted, found it impossible to settle their San Francisco losses on that basis and have been forced, though reluctantly, to pay considerable more than an average of 75% of their claims. Some which voted to adjust every claim on its merits and pay the same "Dollar for Dollar," have fallen away from that high and correct standard and have submitted their policy holders to sharp deductions from adjusted claims. Others, while paying in full have, in accordance with Eastern usage, exacted a cash discount in lieu of sixty days' time in which to make payment.

The "ROYAL" has paid every claim as soon as the amount of loss has been agreed upon with the assured, in full, in cash, without a cent of discount. Comparatively few companies have pursued as broad and as liberal a course.

We have refrained from commenting upon the conduct of any individual company, believing it better to extol the virtues of our own. The ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY of Liverpool has paid to date 2,369 claims, aggregating $5,850,635.88. We have remaining but a few unsettled losses, and these are chiefly awaiting authorization of claimants abroad, probate proceedings, or further investigation as to actual amount of fire loss.

The "ROYAL" continues to be the leading Fire Insurance Company of the world. Its annual income is over $15,000,000. Its San Francisco gross losses were not very much more than one-third of one year's premiums, and its surplus, after all losses are paid, will exceed the surplus of any other Company in the world.

It has been building up its reserves for years against just such a disaster as came to San Francisco and was therefore able to meet its great losses with equanimity. It will continue to pursue the even tenor of its way and will doubtless be more popular than ever with insurers.

You are perfectly safe in putting your business in the "ROYAL," knowing that it will under all circumstances be able to fully and promptly meet its contracts and that it will not resort to any quibbles or shifty pretenses to avoid its obligations. Now is the time to make use of your opportunity.

There is no eluding the issue; there are "Dollar for Dollar" Companies; there are "Six-bitters" and there are "Welchers." There are also Companies strong, and Companies weak, financially.

No Company can offer a better policy than the "ROYAL," few as good.

OWENS NOW CONTROLS STANDARD TELEPHONE CO.

Until a week ago and for the past year, the voting power of the Standard Telephone Co. was in the hands of J. H. Soper, its former treasurer.

The majority of the stock is now in the hands of Guy Owens, the original promoter, who started the automatic telephone movement in 1902, returning from Chicago in the spring of 1903 with a complete sample outfit for demonstrative purposes. The franchise failed to pass in 1903.

In the session of 1905 the bill passed by a large majority, and was duly ratified by the United States Congress June 22, 1906.

The new board of officers and directors are as follows:

Guy Owens—President.
D. P. R. Isenberg—Vice President.
Harry Armitage—Treasurer.
H. E. Murray—Secretary.
I. C. Carter—Auditor.

The meeting for election of officers took place yesterday.

Pitcher Jess Tannehill of the Boston Americans won 209 games and lost 119, a percentage of .637, 1896 to 1906, inclusive. In the American League he won sixty-nine games and lost forty-eight.
