OURSELVES.

As this little journal now enters upon a new period of existence, under a change of editorial management, as announced in our last issue, it is natural that our readers should feel some curiosity as to our intentions for the future and our attitude with regard to the great questions which engage the public attention; and we are quite willing to satisfy that curiosity.

It is needless to say that the prediction recorded by our morning contemporary some time ago, that the termination of the Legislature would also be the termination of our existence, remains unfulfilled: this fact is palpable to the public vision. Moreover, the prospects of its fulfillment at any time are excessively dim and extremely remote. We had a real and visible being before either of our daily contemporaries had reached the stage of conception, and it is quite within the range of possibilities that we shall live to attend their funeral and flourish long after they are forgotten. Notwithstanding our present diminutive size as compared with our expansive contemporaries, we have grown considerably since our first issue, two and a half years ago. Four different enlargements at four distinct periods have been effected to bring this little sheet to its present dimensions, and a fifth will be made whenever the public demand renders it necessary. With our growth in size there has also been a proportionate growth in public favor, as evidenced by a steady increase in the number of our subscribers. To-day we have a larger circulation than at any previous period, and that circulation is considerably ahead of any other daily sheet published in this town. We are perfectly satisfied with the support hitherto accorded us, and we wish our readers to distinctly understand that there is not the slightest probability of our career coming to an end. We live, and shall continue to live. Charter or no charter, hard times or flush times, we are well able to maintain our existence and keep on our course.

Our first wish is, and our primary aim shall be, to meet the public demand for a newspaper. We are convinced that the majority of readers here, as elsewhere, estimate the worth of a paper by the news it contains. We are also of opinion that the bulk of our readers prefer news of a local character to a lot of second-hand stereotyped matter, which they have previously read in foreign papers, imported from abroad. Therefore, we shall endeavor to furnish as full, truthful, and impartial a record of local and island events and occurrences as possible.

There are, and always will be, questions of a public nature which it is the duty of a public journal to ventilate and discuss. This duty we do not wish to evade, nor shall we be backward or timid in its performance. Although claiming the right to form our own opinions and to enunciate our convictions, we are not oblivious of the fact that others may honestly differ from us.

Therefore, whilst being fearless and outspoken, we aim to be fair and candid. Possessing a freedom from those numberless restrictions which too frequently pervert the beneficial spheres of newspapers and paralyze the courage and consistency of editors, we hope to satisfy our readers that our attitude is one of honest and untrammelled independence.

Finally, our columns are ever open to the public, for the exposition of wrongs and the discussion of public matters, nothing being excluded, which, in our opinion, is proper for publication.

DISCUSSING THE KING.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Mr. S. M. Damon's letter in your issue of Friday raises a very important question with two sides to it. First as to the right, second as to the advisability of discussing publicly the King's doings. I regret that I cannot agree with Mr. Damon in his views. If his theories were to be carried out, the subject would have no redress. He is also mistaken as to his facts, for in other countries not under the control of an absolute sovereign, it is not only considered proper, but the acts of the sovereign are in fact openly discussed. It is the duty of the sovereign to govern according to law, and if he does not he becomes directly responsible to the people. Even in the times of most tyrannical monarchy in England, Bracton says "The law maketh the King" * * * the King is under the law * * * it has invested him with dominion and power and he is not truly King where will and pleasure rules and not the law." Also that to rule by his own will is a violation of that contract whereby he reigns. It is also laid down in so good an authority as Blackstone (Vol. I., p. 237), that "there cannot be a stronger proof of * * * genuine freedom * * * than the power of discussing and examining * * * the limits of the King's prerogative." The citizen must exercise the privilege of jealously guarding the rights of person and property of the individual, or while he sleeps those rights may be lost or seriously imperilled. Whenever it becomes evident that the sovereign attempts to govern outside of the powers and limitations of the Constitution then the citizen has the right to complain of the personal acts of the sovereign, passing over and beyond the Ministers, who by the Constitution are responsible. In England the Ministers are responsible, because they actually do represent Government by the dominant party and the sovereign is not a political factor in the Government. This of course would constitute a double reason why in England the personal acts of the sovereign should not be discussed, yet everyone knows that these acts are discussed, and if the sovereign attempts in any way to interfere and govern personally, the discussion is at once loud and angry. In Hawaii the Government is not representative; the Ministry is not responsible except in the pages of the Constitution. This is the state of things to-day and has gradually been brought about by David Kalakaua. He was elected King. He became by that election party to a contract, the high and solemn contract to govern according to law and under the law. David Kalakaua is to-day under the law, and even though the law provides that he is not criminally responsible for its violation, yet he is responsible to the people and every tax-payer. Every person in the Kingdom has the right, and it is the duty of everyone to discuss the acts of the King provided he attempt to govern personally. It has been brought to his knowledge that his Ministers have violated the law. It is believed by a large majority of the thinking people of this community that the Ministry have trampled the law under foot, yet the King keeps them in office as the Government of the country. He thereby assumes their acts and becomes responsible for them, and so he puts himself before the country, and the whole people of right may discuss his acts. I say with sorrow, that I with a thousand others regret that things are as they are. Very many of us were born here; here are our families, our property and all of our interests. We have a regard for the native Government, in fact a sentimental regard. We are opposed to the theories of those who would bring an end to a Hawaiian Kingdom. Yet we cannot submit to misgovernment without protest and all feel that, existing as she does by sufferance, Hawaii must be wise; Government must be for the public benefit, not for the advantage or emolument of a few, or the end must soon come.

W. R. CASTLE.

THE LEGISLATURE

Mr. Widemann—We have no powder here now. He would say that no accidents from boilers had happened. If they passed this law it would be a provocation of Providence—boiler bursting would follow immediately. Now the men who attended boilers have a responsibility and they felt it, but with this piece of waste paper in their pocket, they would leave all the responsibility to this irresponsible officer. The inspector was absolutely irresponsible and to pass this bill was simply putting so much money in his pocket.

Mr. Rowell said that after such a scathing speech he was hardly prepared to get up. Of course there was a great deal of reluctance in a new country adopting a new measure of this nature. Other civilized countries had adopted such laws after hard experience, and this country should adopt it without waiting for disastrous experience.

The motion to indefinitely postpone the bill carried.

Governor Dominis informed the House that His Majesty had signed the Appropriation Bill.

Mr. Kaulukou presented a written report upon the bill for reorganization of the police department. The committee recommended that it be returned to its introducer (Mr. Kaunamano), as there was not time to consider it properly this session. Report adopted.

Mr. Rowell asked for the report of the Minister of Foreign Affairs upon coinage.

Minister Gibson said the report had been in his pocket for several days, and he might have still forgotten it if his attention had not been brought to it. He read the report as follows: "I beg to say that no payment of any kind has been made or promised to Mr. Spreckles for this service, and as to the profit that may have accrued to him, I cannot say precisely, but I will mention that Mr. F. F. Low submitted a statement to me which has already been read in the House, showing that the cost of bullion assayed and refined for the Hawaiian Coinage was 87 40-100 per dollar, added to 1.75 per cent. seigniorage of the U. S. Government, 1/2 of one per cent. cost of dies, and then estimate for interest of bullion, cost of transportation, insurance, exchange and minor expenses properly chargeable to the coinage, the cost of coinage would be about 97 cents to the dollar."

On motion of Mr. Rowell the report was accepted.

Mr. Rowell moved that the report be accepted and that the newspaper representatives be allowed to take a copy of it. Carried.

Mr. W. O. Smith moved the following resolution:

"Resolved,—That the members of this Assembly desire to record their high appreciation of the services of the Hon. Godfrey Rhodes as President of the Legislature of 1884, and to thank him for the impartiality, patience and ability which he has shown in the performance of the arduous duties of his responsible office.

"Resolved,—That this resolution be spread upon the records of this Assembly and that an engrossed copy be presented to the Hon. Godfrey Rhodes."

Minister Neumann seconded the resolution. He was glad of the opportunity of avowing confidence in the President's course. His rulings had been fair and his actions just. They would disperse to-morrow and a good deal of the animosity engendered during the session would die away. It was pleasant to think that the President, although elected by the minority, has been in every way so prompt to aid the House as he had been. He did not know if it would be permissible for him to do it, but he desired to add his personal acknowledgments to the President for his courtesy to him and for his generous assistance.

Minister Gibson took pleasure in agreeing with his colleagues in supporting the motion of his honorable friend, the member for Waifuku. While he felt that there had been a wide difference of opinion between the President and himself and colleagues, he was proud in the assurance that the President had fulfilled his duties in a pleasant and honorable manner. He could not refrain from hoping, in view of the President's past experience, in frequently occupying the chair, that it might be his privilege to occupy it in many succeeding Legislative Assemblies.

Mr. Dole supported the motion with a great deal of pleasure. He appreciated very deeply the fidelity and ability with which their honorable President conducted the work of his office, as well as his strict impartiality in decisions. He called to mind the fact that, although the President was by far the oldest man in the Assembly, he has never been absent from his seat throughout all this long session. A great many of them, representatives and nobles, had been often absent, yet every day, at the hour of opening, the President had been there and tapped his mallet. The President had always been able to maintain a judicial grasp of his duties.

Mr. J. Mott Smith said the resolution met the hearts of the House of Nobles and the House of Representatives. They were all aware that the facilitating of business, the removal of asperities, and the preservation of good order, depended greatly upon the President of the Assembly. In those respects the Assembly would bear him out in saying that the President had been very successful during the present session, and for that the thanks of the whole House were eminently due him. The best wishes of the House were with him and they would bid him godspeed in his further journey through life. It was the speaker's good fortune to have a long personal acquaintance, with him, public and private, they having many times occupied seats together in this Legislature. He thought that on no former occasion had the President shown his eminent qualities so much as during this session. He considered they had been fortunate in having a President who was so well versed in Parliamentary law, and whose decisions had never, unless with one or two exceptions, been over-ruled by the House. It was to these qualities of their President that they were indebted for their feelings toward himself and toward each other. To-morrow they should tender him their heartfelt aloha as they dispersed. (Applause.)

The resolution was put by the Secretary and carried unanimously.

The Hon. Mr. Rhodes replied to the resolution substantially as follows:

Gentlemen, Nobles and Representatives, and Gentlemen who have spoken to this resolution: I have been taken by surprise by this resolution, and I thank most kindly all the gentlemen who have spoken so eulogistically of my services. I shall not mention names, but I thank you, all of you. I have had the acquaintance of many of you for a number of years, and my social relations with you have been most pleasant. I thank the honorable noble for that remark, and I look back upon all our relations with pleasure. I thank you all for the kindness with which the resolution has been received—unanimously adopted. I am perfectly sensible that it has not been so much my knowledge or efforts that have conducted to good order as your kindness and forbearance toward myself. I have been uniformly supported, notwithstanding that many rulings of the chair must have been very unpleasant to some members. I assure you all, gentlemen, as you have said, that to the best of my ability I have done justice to the different members of this Assembly—I will say so much for myself. I thank you again, collectively, for all your kindness to me during the session and especially for this last expression. And I hope God may grant you every happiness in the future, and that you may all live just and good lives. (Applause.)

Mr. Aholo moved that a bonus of $250 be granted to the Secretary upon completion of the records of the session, giving as a reason the great length of the session and the short time allowed the Secretary in which to finish his work.

Mr. W. O. Smith said he would vote for the motion if the Secretary had not been granted an increase of $2 a day already.

The motion passed.

Minister Gulick asked the presence of the President, members of Assembly and representatives of the press at an informal lunch during recess in the office of the Minister of the Interior.

Mr. Keau moved that the Assembly pay for copies of the Ka La o Hawaii newspaper. Lost.

The President said that in replying to the Assembly's resolution he had left unsaid a recognition which he desired to make of the assistance he had often received from the officers of the House, the Secretary, interpreter and sergeant-at-arms.

Minister Neumann said that, although some might regard these resolutions as taffy, yet he would move a resolution conveying the thanks of the Assembly to the Vice-President, Secretary, Interpreter, Sergeant-at-Arms and other officers of the Legislature for their faithful discharge of their respective duties. The Vice-President had never had a chance to fulfill his functions, with one or two exceptions, owing to the punctual and regular attendance of the President. To the Interpreter was due the success of many appeals to the House, for the ability with which he rendered speeches in a different language from that delivered.

The resolution passed.

An Act to regulate the practice in suits for the recovery of personal property was read a third time. On account of doubts raised by Mr. Richardson as to the accuracy of the Hawaiian version, the bill was referred to Mr. Rowell for examination in that respect.

At noon the House took a recess till 2 o'clock.

The Act to regulate the practice in suits for the recovery of personal property was finally passed.

The Act to provide $10,000 for the further relief of the Board of Genealogy passed to engrossment. The House adjourned at 2 o'clock till 10 on Saturday.

A JUVENILE DEMONSTRATION.

Saturday evening, the BULLETIN Reporter was wending his way to the Music Hall to hear Remenyi saw out music by the yard, from a fiddle, when his attention was directed to an unusual glare of light in the vicinity of the Bell Tower. With all kind of vivid imaginations floating before his eyes, double quick time was made for that direction. On arriving at the Tower, it was found that about 200 small boys had gathered there for the purpose of having a grand torchlight procession. On making enquiries what this demonstration was for, several of the boys stated that it was to show their appreciation of the action of the King in vetoing the Bill to prevent boys and girls under a certain age roaming round the street after dark. One boy stated he didn't think much of Mister Neumann for introducing such a bill. Another one, that Johnny Sheldon and the Fat Boy were going to manage the affair. Besides the torch-bearers who numbered 225, several of the little boys' big brothers carried a number of Turkey Coops stuck on the top of broom handles. The first coop had a crown painted black on one side, giving a sort of funereal look to it. On four of the other coops were the names of four old Turkeys who had just got through sitting.

The last coop had daubed on it a correct picture of Palohau, the clown of the Legislative Assembly, with outstretched hand quietly reclining from his nose. About eight o'clock the procession started, led by a small boy from the Tiara office, dressed in his Sunday clothes. Next came the Band, and then the torch-bearers, two and three, four and six and so on. The coop bearers were distributed at intervals in the procession, which was a little less than two miles long. The line of march was up Fort street, along Kukui to Minister Kapena's residence, where, after a few yells and whoops, it returned by the same way, and then on to King street, a halt being made in front of Minister Gulick's house, where, after giving three more yells the crowd waited for Charlie to respond. As he didn't make his appearance the Fat Boy knocked at the outside gate, making such a noise that all the babies in the neighborhood were woke up. Finally, the lost one made his appearance at the gate and raised his military cap in acknowledgment. After the Fat Boy had turned thirteen somersaults, including two double ones, and knocked down three hitching posts, the procession started once more and drew up in front of the Government Hash House. Johnny Sheldon, after several attempts reached the top of the gate and called for three whoops for the King and three more for Kipikona, thinking the latter would bring something to eat and drink, but it didn't. The noise so upset the performers at the Remenyi concert, that the Court horn blower was unable to obtain the encore he expected for his solo. The next place to pull up at was the Palace grounds, but such a cold reception was given the crowd that they cleared out in double quick time by the side entrance, and soon after disbanded. The introducer of the "roaming at night bill" was left out in the cold, in fact the boys got the affair up on purpose to show him they entirely disapproved of his unkind action. The boys think the King might have made a little speech and not have had them go to so much trouble for nothing. This rag-tag-and-bob-tail procession caused much merriment to the by-standers along the line of march.

SATURDAY'S CONCERT.

Remenyi's farewell concert was given Saturday evening before a very good audience. The programme was an excellent one, and listened to with much pleasure. On account of the noise outside, it was nearly half-past eight o'clock before Mr. Luckstone took his seat at the piano to play the opening number, Faust Waltz by Liszt. He pleased the audience very much by his exquisitely neat and finished manipulation, and received a very handsome bouquet. Miss Downing next sang very tastily a beautiful song by Tours, "Because of Thee." Mr. Himmer's selection was a Romance from the Huguenots, given with such a straightforward, manly method of singing, as to be re-demanded. Next came Remenyi, the lion of the evening, and played a violin solo, "Othello" by Ernst. It was a grand performance and left a lasting impression. Later on he played two short pieces by Chopin, and was loudly re-called, responding with that beautiful Serenade by Schubert, playing it in a most exquisite manner. For his final number he played Hawaii Pono, delighting the audience, and sending our respected bandmaster soundly to sleep. He woke up mighty quick though, when Remenyi gave as an encore the wishy washy "Carnival of Venice." The last number on the programme, a trio from Verdi's "Atila," was most charmingly rendered by Miss Downing, Messrs. Himmer and Luckstone. The latter gentleman accompanied as usual, throughout the evening, in a perfect manner. The series of concerts being at an end, a retrospective glance over the programmes which have been presented may not be out of place. There certainly has not been offered the variety one might expect from such an artist as Remenyi. There are numerous composers, who have written excellent compositions for the violin, whose names have not appeared on the programmes, and here we name some of them: Beethoven, Bach, Vieuxtemps Spohr, etc. However, let us be thankful for what we have had the pleasure to hear. The audiences have been good, thus showing that good music will always be appreciated. Without doubt, Remenyi and his concert party will take away with them many pleasant recollections of Honolulu. They leave on Saturday by the S.S. Australia, for Melbourne, where they are under engagement to appear in a series of concerts. The BULLETIN joins in wishing Remenyi and the members of his party a very pleasant trip, and every success in their tour through the Colonies.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

The small-pox has broken out in Melbourne.

Mr. Chas. Furneaux, the artist, is in town again.

The cholera has reached Southern Italy, and is spreading rapidly.

The Planter's Monthly for September is out, and will receive due notice in our columns.

Messrs. Bishop & Co., shipped by the Alameda, a sack of coin containing five thousand English sovereigns.

The P. M. S. S. Zealandia arrived yesterday at 11 o'clock, and left again at 2 o'clock for San Francisco.

Mr. E. G. Boardman has been appointed Deputy Collector at the Custom house in place of E. R. Hendry.

Mrs. J. W. Pfluger and Miss Bertha von Holt have arrived safely at Melbourne after a pleasant voyage.

CAPT Crane, of the Schooner Haleakala, reports that on Friday night the volcano showed great signs of activity.

The small red fish called the Alalaua is in the harbor again. Thousands of them were seen from the wharf this morning.

Mr. McGregor, one of the deacons of Spurgeon's Metropolitan Tabernacle, London, was a through passenger on the Zealandia.

The Post Office dispatched 5590 letters and 1146 papers by the Alameda.

Quite a number of the officers of H. B. M. S. Constance attended divine service at St Andrews Cathedral last evening. The Bishop preached.

It was thoughtfully and kind of Mr. Barry O'Neil to furnish this office with files of New Zealand papers, for which we offer him our best thanks.

An unusual occurrence took place at the morning service in St Andrews Cathedral yesterday. The rite of baptism was administered to a Chinese baby, by the Rev. Geo. Wallace.

TICKETS for Remenyi's Concert on Friday evening for the Strangers Friends Society, can be obtained of the Hon. Mrs. C. R. Bishop, Mrs. Dr. McGrew, and at Wiseman's office.

A LARGE parcel containing clothing, calico, etc., was left at some house on Saturday last. Will the person having the same kindly leave them at this office. 11*

The driver of the Woodlawn Dairy milk wagon ought to have been arrested this morning for furious driving on Merchant Street. Such recklessness on our public streets ought not to be tolerated.

Three or four "gentlemen" made a terrible racket very early Sunday morning, on the premises of one of our well known citizens who resides on Beretania Street. They may thank their stars that they were not hauled in.

The two-mile dash at Kapiolani Park on Saturday afternoon, between the horses General Hancock and Langford Jr., was won easily by the former. Time 3.50. A good start was made, Langford leading on the first mile, after which Hancock forged ahead and never afterwards gave his opponent a ghost of a chance.

EDOUARD Remenyi and his concert party will give a grand Concert on Friday evening, the whole proceeds of which will be given to the Strangers' Friend Society. This action on the part of the master violinist exemplifies one of the great characteristics of his professional life. Who cannot but admire such a man?

THE SAN FRANCISCO MAIL SERVICE.

The N. Z. Herald's special reporter at Wellington says, under date of Aug. 18th:—"I understand that the Ministry contemplate making certain alterations in the San Francisco mail service. It is assumed that on the termination of the present contract the New South Wales Government will abandon the service altogether, in which case the New Zealand Government would endeavour to enter into fresh arrangements with the Pacific Mail Company by which Auckland would be made the terminal port for their vessels instead of Sydney as at present, and Samoa and Fiji would be included in the route. It is thought that the latter arrangement would greatly stimulate the trade between Auckland and the South Sea Islands."

Attention Hooks.

ALL MEMBERS of Protection Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, who are in arrears of dues will be expelled at our next Regular Meeting, Monday, Sept. 1, without further notice, unless they pay up. Per order, C. WINCHESTER, Foreman.

HANLAN BEATEN.

SYDNEY, Aug. 18th.—The greatest aquatic event of the year in the world was fought out on the Parramatta River, Saturday, between Australia and Canada, represented by William Beach, of Dapta, New South Wales, and Edward Hanlan, of Toronto, Canada, when the Australian defeated the champion oarsman of the world by five or six lengths. A foul occurred in the race, which was, however, disallowed by the umpire, Mr. P. J. Clark, when appealed to. At the time, Beach appeared to be rowing his man down, and Hanlan allowed his boat to cross Beach's. The Australian then went away from Hanlan, who followed, and the New South Welshman eventually won by five or six lengths. After the race a most cordial interview took place between Beach and Hanlan. The latter admitted that he was beaten, but said that he was paralyzed by the close proximity of the steamer Tomki, which unfortunately bore down too close to his boat. Hanlan admitted that he had wilfully fouled Beach, because he believed that the latter had crossed over into his water. Hanlan expressed a desire to row another match with Beach within three months, but Beach positively refuses to meet the ex-champion within six months. Clifford also offered to row Hanlan, but the latter refused to take up the challenge. The captain of the steamer Tomki, who was present, stated that he was compelled to run close upon Hanlan's boat in order to avoid running aground.

AN ALARMING DISEASE AFFECTING A NUMEROUS CLASS.

The disease commences with a slight discomfort of the stomach, but is not recognized until it has advanced to the liver, pancreas, and in fact, the entire glandular system, and the affected class are a miserable race until death comes either from suffering. The disease is often mistaken for other complaints; but if the reader will read the following questions, he will be able to determine whether he himself is one of the afflicted—Have a distended, pain, or difficulty in breathing after eating? Is there a dull, heavy feeling attended by drowsiness? Have the eyes a yellow tinge? Does a thick, sticky, mucous matter about the gums and teeth in the morning, accompanied by a disagreeable taste? Is the tongue coated? Is there pain in the side and back? Is there a fullness about the right side of the liver, or some catarrh? Is there constipation? Is there vertigo or dizziness when rising suddenly from a horizontal position? Are the mucous membranes of the kidneys usually and highly colored, with a deposit after standing? Does food ferment, soon after eating, accompanied by flatulence or a belching of gas from the stomach? Is there frequent palpitation of the heart? These various symptoms may not be present at one time, but they certainly will be in some of the stages of the disease. If the case be one of long standing, there will be a dry, hacking cough, attended after a time by expectoration. In very advanced stages the skin assumes a dirty, yellow appearance, the hands and feet are covered by a cold, sticky perspiration, the liver and kidneys become more and more diseased, rheumatic pains appear, and the usual treatment proves entirely unavailing. Against this latter agonizing disorder, the origin of this distasteful indigestion or dyspepsia, and a small quantity of the proper medicine will remove the disease if taken in its incipient stage. It is most important that the disease should be promptly and properly treated in its first stages, when a little medicine will effect a cure and even when it has obtained a strong hold the correct remedy should be persevered in until every vestige of the disease is eradicated, until the appetite has returned, and the digestive organs restored to a healthy condition. The most and most efficient remedy for this distressing complaint is Seigel's Curative Syrup, a vegetable preparation sold by all Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White Limited, 17, Farringdon Road, London, E. C. This syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

Market Place, Peckington, York, October 2nd, 1882. Sir,—Being a sufferer for years with dyspepsia in all its worst forms, and after spending pounds in medicines, I was at last persuaded to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and am thankful to say have derived more benefit from it than any other medicine I ever took, and would advise any one suffering from the same complaint to give it a trial, the results they would soon find out for themselves. If you like to make use of this testimonial you are quite at liberty to do so. Yours respectfully, (Signed) R. TURNER.

St. Mary Street, Peterborough, November 29th, 1881. Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the Syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I felt quite cured. I am, Sir, yours truly, Mr. A. J. White. WILLIAM BRENT.

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16th, '82. Mr. A. J. White,—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health.—I remain, yours respectfully, (Signed) JOHN B. LIGHTFOOT. 15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Miller, of Yatesburg, W. Va., informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life. Yours truly, (Signed) N. WENNER, Chemist, Calne.

September 8th, 1883. Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "Godsend to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence. Faithfully yours, (Signed) VINCENT A. WILLS, Chemist-Dentist, Merthyr Tydvil.

Preston, Sept. 21st 1883. My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible. The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it." The sale keeps up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great. I am, dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) JOHN H. LIGHTFOOT. 765 1/2 y 3

THE SALE KEEPS UP WONDERFULLY, IN FACT, ONE WOULD FANCY ALMOST THAT THE PEOPLE WERE BEGINNING TO BREAKFAST, DINE, AND SUP ON MOTHER SEIGEL'S SYRUP, THE DEMAND IS SO CONSTANT AND THE SATISFACTION SO GREAT.—I AM, DEAR SIR, YOURS FAITHFULLY, (Signed) W. A SKILFUL SURGICAL OPERATION.

The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Kasson, has lately been visited by his Government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna, which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, attended with the following symptoms.—The patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed. The disease for which this operation was performed was cancer of the stomach, attended with the following symptoms.—The appetite is quite poor. There is a peculiar indigestible distress in the stomach, a feeling that has been described as a faint "hot green" sensation; a sticky slime collects about the teeth, especially in the morning, accompanied by an unpleasant taste. Food fails to satisfy this peculiar fast sensation; but, on the contrary, it appears to aggravate the feeling. The eyes are sunken, tinged with yellow; the hands and feet become cold and sticky—a cold perspiration. The sufferers feel tired all the time, and sleep does not seem to give rest. After a time the patient becomes nervous and irritable, gloomy, his mind filled with evil forebodings. When rising suddenly from a recumbent position there is a dizziness, a whirling sensation, and he is obliged to grasp something firm to keep from falling. The lower extremities become dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant, and does not circulate properly. After a time the patient spits up food soon after eating, sometimes in a sour and fermented condition, sometimes sweetish to the taste. Oftentimes there is a palpitation of the heart, and the patient fears he may have heart disease. Towards the last the patient is unable to retain any food whatever, as the opening in the intestine becomes closed, or nearly so. Although this disease is indeed alarming, sufferers with the above named symptoms should not feel nervous for nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of a thousand have no cancer, but simply dyspepsia, a disease easily removed if treated in a proper manner. The safest and best remedy for the disease is Seigel's Curative Syrup, a vegetable preparation sold by all chemists and medicine vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White (Limited), 17, Farringdon Road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

To Mr. A. J. White, Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition. They cure constiveness.

Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies, Oct. 24, 1882. Dear Sir,—I write to inform you that I have derived great benefit from "Seigel's Syrup." For some years I have suffered from liver complaint, with its many and varied concomitant evils, so that my life was a perpetual misery. Twelve months ago I was induced to try Seigel's Syrup, and although rather sceptical, having tried so many reputed infallible remedies, I determined to give it at least a fair trial. In two or three days I felt considerably better, and now at the end of twelve months (having continued taking it) I am glad to say that I am a different being altogether. It is said of certain pens that they "come as a boon and a blessing to men," and I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of the statement. I can truly say, however, that Seigel's Syrup has come as a "boon and a blessing" to me. I have recommended it to several fellow-sufferers from this distressing complaint, and their testimony is quite in accordance with my own. Gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the excellent preparation, prompts me to furnish you with this unsolicited testimonial. I am, dear Sir, yours ever gratefully, (Signed) CAREY B. BERRY, A. J. White, Esq., Baptist Missionary.
