BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Physical Instructor For the Schools.

At the meeting of the Commissioners of Public Instruction held yesterday morning there were few matters of great importance discussed. Superintendent Atkinson of the public schools brought up a number of school appointments, upon which the commissioners acted, confirming the appointments made as follows:

Miss Violet Lima, assistant at Kona-waena, appointed by the school agent, confirmed; Miss Hildebrand van Dierlin, to Makapala, in place of her sister, Miss Evelyn van Dierlin, resigned; Miss Lillian Claypool, assistant at Holoalua, in place of Miss Lucy Born, resigned.

Miss Nina Adams, an instructor in physical training, was appointed by the commissioners to instruct the pupils of all the public schools of Honolulu in physical development. She was appointed at a specialist's salary, which is more than that ordinarily received by a teacher. This marks one of the important moves on the part of the Commissioners to make the specialist's faculty on a par with those of mainland cities.

Miss Charlotte Beckwith of Kahumanu school, who recently sent in her resignation, was given her discharge.

The board approved the action of Superintendent Atkinson in granting a leave of absence to Mr. Frasher, principal of Kaula school. It being explained that her father was seriously ill in San Francisco. It was decided that upon a new appropriation of the Legislature better accommodations should be furnished the P. hakupuk school, and a petition from South Kohala school for the reopening of the school at Kaalapa was referred to C. W. Baldwin, normal instructor for Hawaii, to whom was also left the matter of leasing the school land near Napoona.

An offer of the Bishop Estate for the exchange of land at Waialua was referred to Superintendent Atkinson. It was decided to instruct school agents that leaves of absence should not be granted to teachers except in cases of sickness or other extreme necessity. It was also agreed that school should be opened and closed at the same hour on closing and reopening days as on other days.

Teachers' certificates were granted as follows:

First class—Miss Margaret Nape and Miss Rowena K. Richardson.

Second class—Miss Nellie Richard, William Kaluakini and Moses Ka'uhimatu.

A Valuable Compilation.

A valuable condensation of the Hawaiian laws on the subject of the descent and distribution of property in the islands is contained between the neat covers of a little pamphlet just issued from the Hawaiian Trust and Investment Company.

The pamphlet shows an immense amount of painstaking labor and tedious research and is compiled by Atkinson and Judd.

The work is as free from technical terms as possible and is so arranged as to be readily grasped by the lay mind, for which it was specially written. Lawyers will also find it a valuable source of reference. It is entitled Laws Relating to Descent and Distribution of Property in Hawaii.—P. C. A.

That sons should follow distinguished sires, or perhaps the brains came from the mothers, is most desirable for Hawaii nei. If crudely and roughly we pay a compliment in advance, to Atkinson and Judd it is merely in the line of recommending other sons to follow their examples.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS

The passenger list of the Warrimoo, which left Victoria on time, contains the names of 125 persons. This is one of the largest passenger lists for this port ever carried by a Canadian boat.

Miss Jennie Murray, daughter of T. B. Murray, returned via the Sierra from an eight months' visit to San Francisco. Miss Murray reports a delightful time, but is pleased to be again in Honolulu.

The Ladies' Aid Society held an election Thursday at which the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, president; Mrs. Cornelia Damon, vice president; Mrs. F. W. McChesney, secretary; Mrs. N. B. Damon, treasurer, and Mrs. P. C. Jones, treasurer, of the Bishop fund.

Senator-elect Kalauokalani has received a letter from his son, who is private secretary to Delegate Wilcox. He stated the entire party had reached San Francisco in safety and that they expected to leave on December 10 for Washington. It appeared that on the Saturday and Sunday previous a large number of people had called to pay their respects to Mr. Wilcox. The following were a few out of the number: Mayor Phelan, John D. Spreckels, Judge and Mrs. Galbraith, Colonel C. P. Iauka and wife and Mrs. G. C. Beckley. Mayor Phelan congratulated Mr. Wilcox and wished him success in Washington.

LOCAL FINANCES.

The financial outlook in Hawaii is, to say the least, very puzzling even to those who have made the study of political and industrial economy their profession.

Let us look at the prospects of the territorial treasury as it appears to-day. Has the territory sufficient money with which to meet the necessary expenditures between to-day and the final passage of the appropriation bill which we presume will be presented to our first territorial legislature? We think not, and we doubt that even the friends of the Dole mismanagement of the new Territory will advance the coin needed to meet the running expenses and trust to the Legislature to reimburse them. The expenditures of our government have not been reduced from the good old times when we depended on the revenues from the Custom House and the Postoffice. The secretary of the Treasury knows that he will be unable to meet the obligations of the government until the Legislature has passed a new appropriation bill. That the Legislature intends to be very, very economical is an assured fact, as long as the family compact is in power, and we doubt very much that temporary loans can be obtained on the I. O. U. of a Dole cabinet.

While committees are appointed to discuss charters for municipal and county governments no suggestions are made as to the ways and means to provide moneys for the conducting of the territorial government. The loss in revenue must be made up for by increase in taxation. The Independent opposes the raising of taxes on real estate, because it is a tax which hits the poor and not the rich. We advocate a specific tax on sugar produced here, and a graduated income tax. Those measures will be fought to the bitter end by our absentee sugar barons and by the "missionaries" who hope to control the Legislature by freely spending their moneys for bribes and corruption.

We must have money to conduct the government and the main issue is to find the means to draw it from the men and from the industry which now are enjoying enormous, unnatural returns on their investments, and who care simply to swamp Hawaii-nee with undesirable immigrants, who none of the men and women who have made their homes in Hawaii want here.

Let us hear from the official organ what proposals Mr. Dole has to make for the furnishing of the necessary moneys to meet the emergency which the Territory is confronting. Can he borrow enough from the local banks to settle the payrolls due in a few days, or has he a pinch on Baldwin, Young, the Campbell estate, and other millionaires, which makes him hope for success? Mr. McCandless and Mr. Lansing of his Cabinet may come to the front with the sacks of gold, but we are not quite sure that their gold isn't tied up. Mr. Irwin is reported as saying that a perfect avalanche of capital is coming towards Hawaii, but we think that Mr. Irwin must have been misquoted. If he is not we would like that shrewd financier to answer a few questions.

Why is it that Hawaiian six-percent Government bonds are being hawked around on the money markets of the Mainland and offered at par or a premium of 1 or 2 percent while United States 4 percent bonds find buyers at 120? Does any man who understands finances believe for a moment that industrial securities can find any standing on a stock exchange where national securities are not wanted? Our local financiers have placed sugar stocks on the great exchanges in the United States, for which there is no demand here, and the investors on the Mainland rightly say that the Hawaiian financiers want to unload their valueless stocks on them and keep all the plums for themselves.

Why is it that a gilt edged security like Oahu Railroad Co.'s bonds on a first mortgage bearing 6 percent are quoted at 101 while 5 percent on a third mortgage in the Spring Valley Water Works are easily bid in for 102 at the San Francisco Stock Exchange?

The reason is very obvious to us. As long as our territorial government is managed as it is now: as long as there isn't a reliable financier in charge of the public funds; as long as Hawaiian official securities are looked at askance; so long will industrial securities be doubted and valueless.

It was a pity that Mr. S. M. Damon did not remain in the Government. He was the only man who held the key to the embarrassing situation, but no man can blame him for retiring.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

Coming of the Icarus Will Enliven the Game Here.

The P. C. A.'s sporting Editor says; The visit of the British warship Icarus has caused quite a flutter of excitement among Association men. The Icarus has a sturdy team, who next to the Warspite's doughty heroes are champions of the Pacific. Honolulu men will now have an opportunity of testing their quality against a tried team, and the encounter should add much to their knowledge of the game.

Matches have been arranged as follows:

Saturday, December 22, Icarus vs. England.

Christmas Day, Icarus vs. Honolulu.

Saturday, December 29, Icarus vs. Scotland.

The team which will represent England this afternoon is given below:

Goal, Gibbs; backs, Harvey and Soper; halves, Stokes, Parish and Lishman; forwards, Cheek, Blackman, Davies, Lansdale and Irvine.

When you want a hack ring up 191. On that stand you will get a reliable and good driver, a fine hack, and no overcharging.

The storekeepers are highly indignant because the lights in the furnished by the Hawaiian Electric Co. were extinguished just when the Christmas shoppers were coming in. Many stores were obliged to close up and sustain a great financial loss.

The staff of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser has received a valuable addition by the arrival of Mr. F. Holzheiser, who will take charge of the Advertiser reference library and of Mr. M. L. Stevens, an experienced newspaper man formerly connected with the S. F. Chronicle.

A Mother's Responsibility

A great responsibility rests upon mothers at the time their daughters are budding into womanhood. If your daughter is pale, complains of weakness, is "tired out" upon slight exertion; if she is troubled with headache or backache, pain in the side; if her temper is fitful and her appetite poor, she is in a condition of extreme peril, a fit subject for that most dreaded of all diseases—consumption. If you notice any of these symptoms lose no time in procuring

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

They will assist your daughter to develop properly and regularly; they will enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves, and all danger of consumption and premature death will be averted.

Mrs. John Tansey, of 130 Baker Street, Detroit, Mich., says: "We had a serious time with my daughter. She did not have any serious illness, but seemed to gradually waste away. Our doctor called the disease by an odd name which as I afterward learned, meant lack of blood."

"We finally found a medicine that helped her. After three months' treatment her health was so greatly improved you would not have recognized her. She gained in flesh rapidly and soon was in perfect health. The medicine used was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I have always kept these pills in the house since and have told many mothers about them. They have effected some wonderful cures."

—From the Evening News, Detroit, Mich.

All the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves are contained, in a condensed form, in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They are a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of whatever nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold in boxes (never in loose bulk) at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

HAD TO GO BACK.

Attorney Ballou Boarded Sierra But Got Off Again.

Although Sydney M. Ballou left San Francisco on the Sierra, with due farewells and good luck messages, he was missing when the gauk plank was put down for the landing of passengers Thursday night, Mr. Ballou had not been put to languish in irons, neither had he been lost at sea, though such suggestions were offered in explanation of his absence.

It seems that the attorney's name was on the passenger list and he actually left San Francisco on board the Sierra, but while still inside the Golden Gate a letter was handed to him containing business information that demanded his immediate presence in Victoria. Mr. Ballou went in frantic search of Captain Houdlette, explained his dilemma and was allowed to return in the pilot boat.

The delay in the business message was occasioned by a misdirection in the matter of hotels. The attorney had exchanged his hostelry from the Occidental to the Palace.

Mr. Ballou will remain in Victoria for several weeks.—P. C. A.

WILCOX IN CONGRESS

Divorced Wife of Hawaii's Delegate Will Ask for His Rejection.

The many rumors which have gained wide credence that a contest would be made against Robert W. Wilcox, the Hawaiian delegate elect, taking his seat in Congress have been verified in the last few days, and it now appears that the prime mover in the proposed contest against Wilcox is no less a person than his divorced wife, the Princess Gina Colonna Sobrero de Stagliano. Wilcox soon after his arrival in this city ridiculed the idea that any opposition would be made to his taking his seat in Congress, and declared that his enemies in the Hawaiian Islands had simply trumped up a case in accusing him of bigamy, and that his divorced wife, who is in Italy, had and still has the kindest feelings toward him.

In a letter to a lady who resides in the southern part of the State the Princess Colonna recently wrote that she contemplated a visit to America in the near future, and then says: "I can never forgive the man who ruined my young life and who deceived me into marrying him by wicked and false stories as to our future life in Hawaii. The post of honor to which he aspires in the Congress of America shall never be his, if I can stop it, and for that reason I shall soon visit your country."

Judging by the action which Congress took in the case of Brigham Roberts of Utah, who was not allowed to take his seat in the national legislature, there seems to be little chance for Wilcox ever being sworn in as a member of Congress, if his divorced wife carries out her plans to oppose him. Roberts was rejected by Congress, who found him guilty of contracting bigamous marriage, and Wilcox's case is identical with that of Roberts.

The white population of the Hawaiian Islands is determined that Wilcox shall not represent their interest in Congress, and every effort is being made to prevent him from doing so. There can be little doubt as to the action Congress will take in the contest, for the case of Brigham Roberts forms a precedent which is not likely to be set aside.

Wilcox, who is a "half-white," won the princess as his bride when he was a military student in Italy and the protege of the late King of Hawaii. The bland-romantic and roseate stories he painted had a rude awakening when the couple reached their island home in 1897. Disgusted with her husband's actions, the young princess fled to this city, where her child was born. Wilcox followed her and for a time they were in the direct straits. Wilcox went back to Hawaii and his wife was assisted to return to her home in Italy. Four years ago she filed suit for annulment of the marriage in the Italian courts, and shortly afterward Wilcox married the Princess Kahelelani, and ascended out of the Kamehamehas, despite the fact that his Italian wife had not yet secured her legal freedom. Since Wilcox and his Italian wife separated she has always expressed the most bitter feelings towards him, and if she should come to Washington to protest against his being seated in Congress, it is safe to assume that she will not decorate him with "aloas."—S. F. Call.

Trusts to be Broken.

Plumbing trusts and all other trusts in Hawaii which are organized in restraint of trade will receive the attention of J. C. Baird, U. S. District Attorney for Hawaii. Any illegal combines which tend to restrict the traffic of goods and refuse to sell their wares to anyone who applies for them will be prosecuted under the U. S. statutes.

By the Sierra, District Attorney Baird received positive instructions from Attorney General Griggs to make a thorough investigation of all concerns and combinations which are formed in restraint of trade and to proceed against them if his investigations warrant him in so doing, criminally or civilly, as the circumstances of the case demand.

Mr. Baird wrote to Washington for instructions in the matter of trusts in accordance with the exposure of the illegal acts of the plumbing combine made by the Advertiser. Every possible bit of information which Mr. Baird could secure was sent to Washington.

He stated the subject fully and the tone of the answer received from Attorney General Griggs indicates that the subject was of sufficient importance to cause him to issue instructions to the District Attorney to break up such combinations.

Mr. Baird said yesterday: "Trusts as they are known in the States are not the trusts which are found here. Those of Honolulu are those of business combinations in restraint of trade. My instructions are of such a nature that I will proceed to investigate them immediately. I will certainly proceed against them if do not dissolve or cancel their legal agreements."

Such things as lumber trusts, oil trusts, plumbing trusts, building trusts, or anything which tends to hurt the community generally exist they will receive the attention of the District Attorney.

Success For the New Telephone Company.

The new Telephone Company is becoming a reality now. Mr. John C. Callington, the promoter, is having great success in getting subscribers from the list of the present company. As his company has successfully competed with the Bell System in the East, it is assured that there will be no amalgamation with the old company. The System which will replace the present is such as cannot but satisfy the people of Honolulu.
