STORMS CAUSE GREAT DAMAGE

IMMIGRANTS DON'T LIKE TO LEAVE WHARF

Sheriff Jarrett went to the Bishop wharf at 1:30 this afternoon to announce through a n interpreter that the 400 Russians there would have to move to the channel wharf.

Contrary to expectations, he was met with no opposition, the men and women taking up their baggage and leaving.

Attorney Lightfoot, representing the Makaweli and Watakes Russians who, in turn, are representing the recently arrived immigrants, had preceded the Sheriff and had advised them to transfer themselves and effects to the channel wharf, which they did, Lightfoot heading the procession.

Meanwhile the Russians are eating what they can buy from their slender purses, mainly tea and bread.

They claim that they were brought here by misrepresentation and were given to understand that a "rouble" was as good as a dollar, they having been offered 45 roubles a month, which they took to mean $45.

At one o'clock this afternoon Lightfoot sent his son, an able young attorney to Bishop's wharf, to advise the Russians to move over to the channel wharf, where there are sanitary conveniences.

There was no bathing in the harbor today on account of the presence of the Russians on Bishop's wharf.

The Russians say they have been brought here under false pretenses.

They are asking that they be allowed to buy goods on the plantations at Honolulu prices, and they want the

AUTO MEN IN COMBINE FOR DEFENSE

There were thirty and more defendants on the police court calendar this morning, all charged with exceeding the auto speed limit in city boundaries and, remarkable as it may seem, up rose Attorney E. C. Peters and declared that he represented twenty-seven of the cases.

Now these twenty-seven, it seems, put their heads together and hired a lawyer with the idea of pleading not guilty, and Peters got all the cases put over till Tuesday, remarking that it might take some time to work up defenses in so many cases.

Judge Andrade said that it was a matter of hustling along the cases, there being no special privilege attached to a man simply because he operated a machine, whether he be rich or poor. The court stated that he didn't want any such bamboozling as characterized the Lewis case. The court could not be trifled with by Lewis or anybody else.

George Beckley Jr., evidently not having joined the Mutual Benefit and Protective Association of Alleged Auto Scorchers, walked up to the bar and plunked down $25 and costs, pleading guilty.

Those who are members of the Attorney Peters association are C. L. Wight, formerly the king of the Wilder S. S. Co.; J. K. Rice, A. V. Stevens, H. L. Kerr, the dry goods magnate, F. E. Howes, J. L. Fleming, F. P. Wilson, C. G. Bartlett of the brewery, C. J. Schoening, E. E. Bodge, George H. Wells, Warren Benford, Joe Clark, J. R. Pearce, A. Rodrigues, George Soares, D. A. McNamara, J. J. Crockett, W. Cluney, C. W. Peavey, J. A. Kennedy of the I. I. S. N. Co., A. J. Gonsalves, J. Leal, former Chief of Detectives, M. K. Richards, E. W. Armstrong, C. McWayne, and J. A. McCandless.

Attorney George Davis represents Paul Dumid and W. E. Young.

F. Lewis represents himself and his case will be decided Saturday.

SCANDAL IN THE SENATE

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—Senator Jeff Davis today asked the Senate to allow him the privilege of striking from the record a remark he made in debate, to the effect that he would receive a fee if a bill he was advocating passed the Senate. He was denied the privilege, and the remark remains of record.

THE RESOLUTION TO CALL A SPECIAL ELECTION

Governor Frear has received from Delegate Kananianole a copy of the joint resolution providing for a special election on the question of prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor in Hawaii as originally introduced. As the press cablegrams have shown, the date of the election has been changed from the twenty-sixth to the sixth day of July. Following is the resolution as introduced.

JOINT RESOLUTION Providing for a Special Election in the Territory of Hawaii.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

That the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to call a special election by the legally qualified electors as now registered in that territory, for the purpose of submitting to the electors the question of instructing the Legislature to enact a law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the Territory of Hawaii.

Said special election shall be held on Tuesday, the 26th day of July, 1910, and said question shall be submitted to the electors in the following words:

"Shall the Legislature to be enacted in November, 1910, be instructed to pass, at its first regular session, a law prohibiting the manufacture, or sale within the Territory, of intoxicating, spirituous, vinous, and malt liquors except for medicinal and scientific purposes?"

Said question shall be printed on the ballot in the English language and immediately following it shall be a translation of the same in the Hawaiian language; below this, in large type, shall be printed the word "Yes" with its Hawaiian translation, and opposite those two bracketed words shall be a square space for the marking of a cross; below that, in similar type, shall be the word "No," with its Hawaiian translation bracketed, and opposite to them a similar square ruled space for marking. The ballot shall also contain the following instructions in both the English and Hawaiian languages:

"Vote by marking a cross (X) after the word 'Yes' or 'No.'"

Said special election shall be carried on under the general election laws of the Territory of Hawaii; but the Territorial committees or chairmen, and their local committees or chairmen, in charge of the campaign for and against the proposition herein submitted, may each appoint two electors as challengers and watchers for each voting precinct, who shall have such powers and be subject to such limitations as are conferred by the existing Territorial election laws upon similar representatives of political parties or candidates.

And for defraying the necessary expenses of such special election, the sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the same to be paid out upon vouchers duly approved by the Secretary of Hawaii."

JUDGE ANDRADE WAS ACQUAINTED WITH MAUD

Ben Gallagher was this morning, in police court, called to the bar by Judge Andrade to answer to the charge of maltreating a mule, being accused of cruelty to animals. Several Portuguese ladies and children testified to alleged brutality, they presumably having been witnesses. They were very neatly and almost stylishly dressed for the occasion, for their reception at court, as it were. It seemed dead against Ben. "Take the stand, Ben," said His Honor, "and tell the court all about it. What have you to say in your own defense?" "It was this way, Your Honor, the mule belongs to Paul Isenberg." "Is it the mule that Paul Isenberg bought from Sam Damon?" inquired the court. "Yes, Your Honor, you see—" "NOT GUILTY!" cried the court, "Next case!" Ben, a lump in his throat, almost tumbled from the witness stand, rushed for the bench and shook hands with the judge before His Honor realized what was happening. The courtroom roared and Fred Weed giggled so that he forgot to rap for order. His Honor knows the mule.

Rockefeller to devote his money. It is announced that John D. Rockefeller has announced his intention to devote his wealth to this purpose.

PARIS AGAIN THREATENED

PARIS, March 2.—The Seine is rising, and nearing the danger point, and threatening to flood the city again.

VISITING ANGELS

Mrs. E. F. Cole and Mrs. Adams, of New York City, performed a most kindly and graceful act the other day, aptly illustrating the doctrine that in welcoming tourists, Honolulu may be entertaining angels unawares.

These ladies were strolling along Fort street when they happened upon the kindergarten at the Chinese school. They were so delighted with the exercises of the little Orientals that they stood treat for the whole school, giving an ice cream and cake party for over a hundred children.

THEN AND NOW

(Communicated)

There was a time in Honolulu, and not so very long ago either, when to be indisposed in any way was—as a little lady, who has long since gone to her rest, said:

Sickness in Honolulu seems to be the tie that binds. It really brings one as many friends as if one belonged to the Masonic order and that is saying a good deal.

If one was lame or blind or afflicted in any other way, she had the sympathy of all. Now, it is not best to stand and wait for a car. You are criticized and, by the way, the tramcar system was not out so far after all. You did not have to stand at a street corner and hold fast to a scrap of paper, not daring to leave that corner.

So one must stand and be criticized for staying. The writer has a roll of transfers, not always having the courage to wait and be criticized.

As a lady said to a friend when alighting from a crowded car, "Yea, it was full of second class matter," so one can safely say that it is second or even third class matter that criticizes one who has to wait for a car. We can not all have autos, and by the way autos are a source of fear and at times great distress to some of us who have to wait and cross the street to a car.

But there are many friends who often lead us safely across and assist us to get on a car. Those, God bless them, are Kamaeas, and even a little newspaper lad with his armful of Hawaiian Stars, led us safely across a crowded street the other day to a car. May they, who are so gracious to us in our affliction never be blind. We are trying to write without eyes. Why should we grieve though blind? For Christ the Lord will lead us. He is ever so sweet and kind and the Light of the World is Jesus.

SAYS DORANDO HAS CASE OF BIGHEAD

A Coast paper arriving in last night's reports Henri St. Yves, the little, French, Marathon runner, as paying his respects to Dorando, conqueror of Johnny Hayes. The story is:

Withering chunks of sarcasm fairly rolled off the lips of Henri St. Yves yesterday as he paid his respects to the "great Dorando," whom he has challenged to a Marathon gallop, but who has artfully dodged him up to this time. "So ze great Do-Dorando sez I'm unworthy to unlouz his shoelaces," hissed the little Frenchman with a cynical smile creeping over his clean-cut features. How nice of him. He, ze great Dorando, and me ze leetle Frenchman. Course not."

"But Dorando says he will run you a race if you will allow him 40 per cent and you take 20 per cent of the receipts," ventured the writer, just to draw St. Yves on further.

"Ze great Dorando is a most generous man," resumed St. Yves. "He give me, who has bested him three times, 20 per cent, but I will be more generous. If he beats me I'll give him all ze money. I don't want a franc—I mean a dollar. Am I not generous?"

"But he claims that you are not the champion. "That's nice. Spose he, ze great Dorando, is champion," returned the Frenchman, with a second's reflection. His best performance is two-forty-one, right here in your city. Then that makes him champion. I win ze great derby in New York and he finishes sixth behind me. I beat all ze men that beat him, and that make him champion. As you Americans say, fine business! Trouble with ze great Dorando, he has what you call a big head. His head is bigger than his chest. When I finish with him his head will be so small that you can stick it in that ink-well."

After these and other joits aimed at the Italian runner, St. Yves became more serious and talked a little shop. When in condition he mentioned that he entered a race weighing about 122 pounds which makes him about the size of a large jockey. In the course of a 26-mile drill he said he would lose from five to seven pounds—it all depended upon the weather. If the weather was rather warm he would run off at least seven pounds, but this tissue was recovered directly. In reply to a question if he was distressed a great deal in a race he remarked that the first five miles were the hardest. After catching his second wind, he said, he ran freely and felt not the least distressed. St. Yves mentioned that he had run as far as 40 miles, if crowded could have done it in four hours.

BIG BUSINESS IN AUTOS LAST YEAR

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Automobiles entering the world's markets in the year 1909 had a value in excess of $50,000,000 compared with an aggregate value of $9,000,000 for the year 1902—striking evidence, according to the Bureau of Statistics, that the automobile is an important and rapidly increasing factor in international commerce. The value of automobiles exported in 1908 from France, the United States, the United Kingdom, Italy and Germany, the five leading countries in their manufacture and sale, was more than 45,000,000 or a growth of 400 per cent since 1902. Automobiles exports in the four foreign countries named have increased in ten years from $8,000,000 to $39,000,000—gain of 385 per cent. Exports of automobiles from the United States in the same period increased from $5,000,000 to 39,000,000—a gain of more than 400 per cent. France leads the world as an exporter of motor cars, with the figures given by the Bureau of Statistics show the automobiles exports in 1908 from France to have been valued at $21,500,000; from the United States in 1909, $8,667,397; the United Kingdom in 1909, $7,610,267; Italy in 1908, $5,533,000, and Germany in 1908, $3,931,000.

CONCLUSIVE DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE.

Up to date those who claim that Hawaii should favor a ship subsidy bill rather than suspension of coastwise regulations have suggested no answer to the statement that a subsidy cannot by any possibility give Hawaii immediate relief. At times they urge that subsidy should be fought for and next they claim that there are plenty of American steamers now. If there are, no relief is needed and Hawaii has no reason to ask a subsidy. These propositions seem to be fairly plain:

First.—If there are enough American steamers now, we have no grounds for urging either a ship subsidy or suspension.

Second.—If there are not enough steamers now, we have an absolute right to immediate relief.

Third.—The pending ship subsidy law, if passed, cannot possibly give relief at once and has no application to Hawaii at all, except as a general revival of American shipping will naturally increase the shipping here.

From these statements, the case for temporary suspension is conclusive. There are some who when a subsidy is being discussed say we can get more steamers by a subsidy, and when suspension is being discussed say we have enough steamers now. Neither statement is worth much attention, the first because even if true it postpones relief for a year or two, and we want relief this year, now,—and the second because it is untrue. If there are enough steamers now, how account for the following letter, now in the possession of The Star:

PACIFIC MAIL STEAMSHIP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO & PORTLAND STEAMSHIP CO.

Mr. Walter E. Dickenson,
Box 184
Hamilton City, Cal.

Dear Sir:—Replying to your letter of the 2nd inst., requesting information regarding the trip to Honolulu, I am sending by this mail, under separate cover, tariff, schedule and folders giving full particulars.

Our sailing of the S. S. 'Mongolia' December 21st is the first steamer on which we have accommodations.

Yours truly,
(Signed) A. G. D. KERRELL.

When this letter was written, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company had three large steamers,—the Siberia, China and Manchuria,—on its list to sail ahead of the Mongolia.

Perhaps the 'oldest citizen' may remember a time when mosquitoes were more numerous in Honolulu than they are now. But no one else can and Oldest Citizens are always expected to remember any old thing. It is good news that the mosquito campaign is on again, for Honolulu demonstrated once that she can control the nuisance.

WHERE COOK IS SUPERIOR TO PEARY.

Undoubtedly the Cook incident had a lot to do with creating the hostility against Commander Peary which blocks some plans to do him honor in Washington. Peary's first denunciation of Cook,—though later justified by facts—was hasty, ill-tempered and in bad taste. But further reasons for Peary's lack of popularity may be found in his own account of his exploit, now being published in Hampton's magazine. Difficult, indeed, would it be to find anything more egotistical than this narrative. Sentences beginning with such an expression as "I and my men" are merely characteristic. Peary never fails to make it plain that he did it all. If he happens to praise any other member of the party in a sentence, or two, he follows up the praise with some means or other of indicating that the thing done was done precisely in accord with what "I" instructed. His every account of the overcoming of a difficulty hints that "I" had foreseen it, and, as far as the narrative has gone, it tells how, when the steamer Roosevelt reached her farthest north, the point from which the final dash to the Pole was to be made, "I" felt that "my" great mission was about to be successful. Dr. Cook didn't get to the Pole. But he wrote a whole lot better story of getting there than Peary's.

THE VALUE OF CIVIC BEAUTY.

"Beauty as a City Asset" is the title of an editorial in the Christian Science Monitor, which is worth quoting as following up some comments here made on the same subject: The Cambridge Municipal Art League is doing a splendid service for the public in moving for the control and restriction of advertising signs. It has secured the presentation to the Legislature of a bill providing that in every city or town in which there may hereafter be organized a building department, such department shall issue permits for the erection of such signs, setting forth their character, size and purpose, and that no signs shall be erected without such permit. President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard, in advocating the bill, said that billboards and signs deface our American cities. Most of them are ugly things of themselves, he thinks, and he asked that the size of billboards and posters be made smaller. In his opinion, no constitutional question could arise, for certainly the present big billboards are violators of the individual rights of the citizens to look abroad.

Billboards not only infringe upon individual rights, but they detract from the beauty of cities. This beauty is one of the assets of a municipality, and anything that lessens it causes a distinct loss. "You go abroad," says Charles N. Lamb, formerly president of the Municipal Art Society of New York, "and spend a good deal of money. What do you see? Streets and houses. We have streets and houses here. But what element of difference is there that draws you there rather than induces you to stay at home? There is a plus element of artistic value." That is what we are seeking to introduce here. We cannot have it so long as efforts are nullified by suffrance of unsightly billboards. We don't want our homes any more than our places of business to be identified by their proximity to glaring advertising signs, but we would have them known by their beauty, made the more apparent by the absence of disfiguring elements. Big signs should be abolished. If that is at present impracticable, let us at least have them greatly restricted.

AT THE EMPIRE.

"The Cowboy Millionaire" will be the feature film at the Empire theater this evening, showing bucking bronchos, steer roping and the act of cowboys in shooting up a town. There is enough excitement in this sketch for a whole evening. A Brother's Wrong is a love story, while "Sandy And His Characteristics" is a Scotch creation. Eva Alva and Harry Weil will appear again the balance of the week.

Commercial News

BY L. D. TIMMONS.

The stock market is decidedly strong. Lower prices were to have been expected after dividends, but there certainly has been no sagging yet and there are indications of activity of almost unusual importance. All the moving stocks are in demand and command good money.

Waiaina sold between boards at $131.50—120 shares changing hands. Later 50 shares sold at $132, and still later 40 shares tipped the market at $132.50. There the market stood over night. On the board this morning $132.50 was bid but holders had advanced their asking figures to $135.00. Following the sales of 700 shares Honokaa at $23.200 and 50 shares found buyers at $23.125. This morning the same was being bid for more, but the stock was not to be had for less than $23.375.

A sale of 10 shares Pioneer was made at $232.50. On the board this morning the stock was in great demand, $233 being offered. Holders refused to part with any of it, however, for less than $235.

Hawaiian Commercial was another stock that showed great strength. Between boards 100 shares sold at $39.75, followed by 200 shares at $40.25. This morning 50 and 81 shares changed hands at $40.50. At the close $40 was bid and $40.50 asked.

Between boards 190, 100 and 200 shares Oahu sold at $36.75. There was a big advance over night, however, and this morning 30 shares sold at $37. On the board $37.25 was bid and $37.50 asked.

Two more sales of Paauhau—25 and 25 shares—were made at $30. Ewa was $34.75 bid, and $35 asked.

ANDRADE REVERSED

District Magistrate Andrade is reversed on a point of law in a decision of the Supreme Court, written by Justice De Bolt, in the case of Patrick Walsh vs. H. L. Lawson and Mrs. E. C. Bailey, partners doing business as Lawson and Bailey. The district magistrate dismissed an action for $13 on a plea of abatement in which the defendants contended that the claim should have been joined with another claim pending in the Circuit Court. The Supreme Court holds:

"Two actions, one for money paid by plaintiff for the use and benefit of defendants, and the other for labor performed by plaintiff for defendants, may be prosecuted independently of each other, the claim on which each is based being an separate transaction."

C. C. Bittling for plaintiff; H. G. Middleitch for defendants.

COURT ITEMS

Henry Smith, guardian of Madeline and Elenzar Lazarus, with the approval of his accounts by Judge Robinson, is granted permission to dispose of two O. R. and L. Co. 5 per cent bonds of the par value of $2000, and with the proceeds pay a mortgage on the property situated on Beretania street.

Satisfaction of judgment is filed in the suit of Wong Shee against Hee Fat, in which Bishop & Co were garnishees.

Judge Robinson granted a divorce to Kota Tagani against Shigeto Tagami for non-support.

Final accounts of Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., administrator of the estate of John S. Bull, were approved by Judge Robinson. There are three heirs, living in England.

PUBLIC POISONERS FINED AND WARNED BY ANDRADE

There was witnessed in the police court this morning the spectacle of food adulterators being treated with mercy.
V. O. Teixeira, W. J. Hills and S. J. Alancastre were each fined $10 and costs for exposing for sale imitation soft drinks without the proper labels announcing that such drinks were imitation.
Teixeira sold what was called "champagne cider" without any sign of cider therein. His beautiful plea was that he had been doing it right along, as had others.
Hills, with many stage motions, didn't know how to plead to selling "strawberry" soda which would blush if it ever saw a strawberry. He did not seem a bit ashamed of adulterating food.
Alancastre sold "apple cider" which was as much what it pretended to be as cheap luau gin is like real gin, or as the wine bought over the bar in Honolulu for ten cents a glass is like real wine; or as tinsel is like gold.
They all pleaded very prettily and the court was kind because it happened to be the first time they were caught at it.

equivalent of 45 roubles ($22.50 per month).
They are talking fight, and the women will also fight. They demand to be sent back to Siberia or given what was promised them.
Sheriff Jarrett, while pitying their plight, is prepared to do his duty if there is any attempt at violence.
Policemen stated this morning that they would rather tackle Japanese than Russians; that they would rather handle a strike of Japanese on a plantation than tackle the Russians on the Bishop wharf, should the Russians refuse to move.

The Territory offers the Russians the use of the channel wharf.
There is nothing to compel the Russians to go to work on the plantations if they do not want to go, and they know it. But the trouble seems to be through misrepresentation.
It is claimed, for example, that Atkinson and Perelstous told the Siberian Russians that they could work in "the mines in Hawaii".
Many of them are miners; some are even electricians; numbers are mechanics.
The Russians cannot be deported for refusing to work.

SPORTS

THE A. A. U. WILL INCLUDE HAWAII

The following from a San Francisco paper received in yesterday's mail indicates that the admission of Hawaii into the Amateur Athletic Union is accepted as a foregone conclusion on the Coast.

The organization of a governing body in amateur athletics in the Hawaiian Islands is now being brought about through the efforts of Sidney Piexotto, president of the Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, who is at present in Honolulu with the Columbia Park Boys' Club. For some time the officials have been contemplating appointing a commission, with headquarters at Honolulu, to regulate games in the islands and maintain proper jurisdiction over the competitors in the different branches of sport. The islands are included in the territory of the Pacific Association, and considerable activity has been reported from the locality during the last year. Lorrin Andrews said yesterday: "I am convinced that the proper thing for us to do here is to enter the A. A. U. It will give Hawaii a standing never held before, and make it easier for us to put on sports here worth while."

NATIONAL GUARD TO PLAY CAVALRY

Sergeant Barry has completed arrangements for taking the baseball team of the National Guard to Leilehua next Thursday for the postponed game with the crack team of the Fifth Cavalry. The National Guard players have beaten the Cavalrymen, and Uncle Sam's men have bested the volunteer soldiers in a return match. It is the "rubber" that must now be played for.

The fans agree that the Fifth Cavalry can come nearer taking the scalp of the Guards than any other military combination on Oahu; and the Cavalrymen consider the guards to be their hardest nut to crack.

In next Sunday's contest Sergeant Barry will play the following men: J. Williams p; Soares, c; Butler, 1b; Chillingworth 2b; Freitas, ss; Busnell 3b; En Sue cf; Zerbe lf; Townsend rf.

A number of substitutes will be taken along. The team named is practically the same as went up against the Pacific fleet team a few weeks ago.

The Fifth Cavalry team is said not to be in the best of condition. During the winter it was quite rainy at the cantonment and for a long time the members of the first team had no practice to speak of. This lack of practice showed itself last Sunday, when a junior team from Kewalo took the measure of the Cavalrymen on their own ground. The Guardsmen, on the other hand, having recently had a turn with the Pacific fleet, are probably in better average condition.

A round trip fare of $1.25 is given by the railroad and it is anticipated that a large number of city fans will accompany the local team on the trip. The outing takes up most of a day, the train leaving at 9:15 a. m. and returning late in the afternoon.

END BATTLING NELSON FIGHTER

San Francisco reporters at Dreamland Park ringside on the night of the passing of Battling Nelson seemed to regret that the great little fighter had come upon his Waterloo at last. It is true that Nelson has had "Waterloos" before but this last battle was an endurance test, and the man of 27 proved unable to hold out before the man of 21. Nelson has fought much and lived rapidly; he will probably fight again and again. But having been licked in a square fight by a youngster, his chances of saving himself from the scrap heap are exceedingly slim.

Following is a synopsis of the results, from the San Francisco Bulletin, filling out the short cable despatches received here:

Ad Wolgast of Cadillac, Mich., lightweight champion of the world.

That's the way the little German lad signs his name today, and all by the grace of a stronger constitution, cleverness in the ring and headwork that enabled him to give Battling Nelson the drubbing of his life at the Richmond arena yesterday afternoon. It was just as the fortieth round was well under way, after a succession of rounds in which the holder of the title had done nothing but show his gameness in taking punishment, and more punishment, that Referee Eddie Smith stepped between the fighters and raised Wolgast's gloved hand in token of the making of a new champion. Not altogether a surprise to the crowd of 15,000 people that had been watching the downfall of the gamest little chap who ever entered a ring, they were not expecting such action at the time, and it was fully a minute before they realized what had happened and greeted the new leader of his division.

"But just as thousands were sorry to see the downfall of Joe Gans, so other thousands yesterday afternoon watched the battle in silence and gave to the defeated as much homage as to the victor.

No, no, Eddie!" came in protest from Nelson, as soon as the battered and beaten fighter realized what had happened. "Leave me alone, I've still got a chance. What did you want to interfere for?"

The die had been cast. There was no revoking the decision and still less desire to do so. Courageous to the core, as Nelson proved himself, it would have been nothing more than brutality for the fight to have continued longer. Weak and trembling on legs that had long since refused to support him firmly, with his left eye tightly closed his left cheeks badly swollen, his other eye almost useless, and blood streaming from his mouth and both ears, the Durable Dane was a sorry spectacle of the man he has been in the days gone by.

CUBAN REPORT OF

BASEBALL GAME

Baseball in Cuba has its following of fans who want to know every play made in a game. The Havana papers bulletin the contests play by play, the same as is done in the big cities in the United States. An American makes the following comment on the writing of baseball on the island proffered by Uncle Sam:

"El Americano of fair intelligence has little trouble finding his way about on the Cuban page Sportiva. Baseball idioms suffer little while being done into Spanish. In fact they practically remain as they are, for want of Castilian equivalents, perhaps. Here is a sample of 'running' description by innings:

"Magee called ball; Merkle se sacrificio; Archer se robo le segunda y a tirar alli strike; Magee se oolo home; McMillann dead ball; Camnitz struck out, porque tinendo dos strikes, le tira a plancha. Total—1 carrera."

CARNEGIE PLAYS GOLF WITH TAFT

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 19.—Andrew Carnegie, laird of Skkibo, arrived here this morning with A. W. Taylor in their private car. The steel king and donor of libraries was received by the Scots, who turned out in their kilts, headed by the pipers, to receive him.

This afternoon, Carnegie and Henry Taft, brother of the President, are playing a match game of golf on the links of the Potter Country Club.

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—Dick Ferris, erstwhile actor, circus proprietor, balloon race promoter and sport generally has offered Tex Rickard and his partner Gleason to take the Jeffries-Johnson fight off their hands and to pay them $150,000. Ferris would have the championship battle pulled off in Los Angeles.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 18.—Racing at Monerief was completely overshadowed by the announcement of H. T. Chinn of Kentucky, to the effect that he would sell his string of thoroughbreds here March 5 at public auction. Colonel Chinn said that he and his connections were more than $200,000 losers, and the present chaotic condition of the American turf has decided him to cast his lot in France.

CONGRESSIONAL PARTY'S DINNER TO DELEGATE KALANIANA'OLE AND WIFE

E. M. Watson talks enthusiastically of the dinner to Prince and Princess Kalaniana'ole given by the Congressional visitors to Hawaii, at which he was a guest, on the occasion of his recent visit to Washington to plead a case before the Federal Supreme Court.

"Certainly the sentiments expressed at that dinner by the Congressmen who visited Hawaii last summer indicated a powerful influence favorable to the Territory of Hawaii in Congress," Mr. Watson said to a Star reporter.

"Dr. Bartholdt presided and his remarks, as well as the speeches in connection with a number of toasts, were most cordial in their sentiments of friendship toward Hawaii and its people.

"There were eighty people at the dinner, which was given at the New Willard, the wives and daughters of the members of Congress attending. All of the members who were here last summer were present, excepting Mr. Ellis who was detained by illness. From Hawaii besides Prince Cupid and his wife the guests were Private Secretary McClellan, Samuel Parker, Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. Minnie Aldrich, Ernest Parker, John Aimoku, Jos. K. Aea, Frank E. Thompson and myself.

"Mr. Parker and Delegate Kalaniana'ole were called on and made neat speeches, also there was a beautiful little talk by Mr. McClellan. We sat down shortly after eight o'clock and with speeches and music the dinner lasted until eleven o'clock. An orchestra played Hawaiian tunes."

Mr. Watson brought home the invitation card and menu of the dinner, which are beautifully engraved as follows:

THE INVITATION.

NEEDED POLISHING.

"Life," said the pessimist, "is a dreadful bore. I don't know what happiness is."

"Life is alright," rejoined the optimistic man, "if you only look on the bright side of it."

"But my life has no bright side," protested the other.

"Then," said the optimist, "get busy and polish up one of the dark sides."

Attention Sick Women

If you had positive proof that a certain remedy for female ills had made many remarkable cures, would you not feel like trying it?

If during the last thirty years we have not succeeded in convincing every fair-minded woman that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands and thousands of women of the ills peculiar to their sex, then we long for an opportunity to do so by direct correspondence. Meanwhile read the following letters which we guarantee to be genuine and truthful.

Paterson, N. J. — "But for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I would not be alive to-day for I was a miserable sufferer for four or five years. The doctors said it was Change of Life and I suffered untold agonies.

"I had read that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good for female troubles so started to take it. I found great relief at once, and to-day I am a well woman. I thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for it, and gladly recommend it to any woman suffering from Change of Life or female troubles." — Mrs. Wm. Somerville, 195 Hamburg Ave., Paterson, N. J.

Melbourne, Ia. — "I am thankful for the great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I suffered many years from chronic inflammation and bearing down pains and was unable to do my work.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health after all other means had failed, and to-day I am a living advertisement for it." — Mrs. Clara Watermann, R. D. No. 1, Melbourne, Iowa.

There is absolutely no doubt about the ability of this grand old remedy, made from the roots and herbs of our fields, to cure female diseases. We possess volumes of proof of this fact, enough to convince the most skeptical.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

AWFUL HAVOC BY AVALANCHE
(Associated Press Morning Service.)
SEATTLE, March 2—Twenty-three killed, a score more seriously injured, twenty-five missing, two trains, seven locomotives and a depot swept away and buried under a mountain of snow and boulders—this is the toll of disaster created by an avalanche which tore down the mountain side near Wellington last night.
The two trains were passing each other at the west entrance to the Cascade tunnel when the great mass of snow came thundering down upon them. The cars were crushed and tossed from the track like paper shells. Two hundred feet over a precipice the doomed train went, landing at the bottom under a crushing weight of snow. The passengers were asleep at the time.
The avalanche picked up seven locomotives housed at the station and swept them down into the mass of mangled humanity, twisted steel and general ruin. The railway station was also caught in the leviathan grip and with its occupants pitched to its doom on the rocky ledge beneath.

Attention was called to the meeting of the Oahu Baseball League tomorrow night at the office of C. F. Chillingworth, and the club unanimously kokoned the idea of getting under way for the new season as soon as possible. John K. Notley and Moriyama will represent the club at the meeting.

liminaries. The first one of these (to precede the senior game on the 13th) will be Mu Hocks vs the second team of the J. A. C.
The Japanese Athletic Club's team is in fine shape—financially and physically. They expect to put in a team this year that will again annex the championship.

TELLTALE JUNK IN OPIUM JOINT

An important opium raid was made yesterday, conducted by District Attorney Breckons. It resulted in the arrest of Leong Ling, the capture of some tins of opium bearing the revenue stamp, and the discovery of 500 empty tins, unstamped, which had been knocked down into flat sheets of tin junk. This find indicated that half a thousand five-act tins of opium had been brought in, which had never borne the revenue stamp, and the contents of which had probably reached customers in stamped tins used over again.
When the searchers came across a wooden box under a bed, they were told that it contained peanut oil but they wanted to be shown. So the box was pulled out and opened, revealing the telltale junk that had once been unstamped opium tins.
Opium smokers were first encountered in the raid. A son of the occupier of the premises, a bright lad, proved filially uncommunicative. A very intelligent daughter, in charge of the dwelling, said her father did not live there and told the visitors that in consequence of that fact they had no right to search the house. Mr. Breckons was out to search notwithstanding and took the responsibility.

Republicans, Attention!

There will be an enrollment of all legal voters who wish to join the Republican party in the City and County of Honolulu, between Monday, March 7th, and March 12th, 1910, for the purpose of obtaining a complete roll in every precinct of those who wish to take part in the primary election of the Republican party, for the ensuing General Election. According to the rules of the Republican Party, enrollments are made until the day of nominations of delegates to the respective Conventions.
Such enrollments must be made with the secretaries of the precinct club organizations, whose names and addresses are stated below.
