CORRESPONDENCE.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

In the face of the letter calling attention of the O. R. & L. Co. to their flagrant and continued disregard of the laws of their charter, and in the face of the fact that injury has been done to life and limb of passengers in the accident of the 2nd inst., the same method of action is continued. I cite the following instances:

Saturday, Sept. 4th, at 1:45 train, box car behind passenger cars for Waianae.

Saturday, Sept. 4th, at 5:10 p. m. train for Waianae, the air brake on last passenger car would not work, and had to be disconnected at Hala-

Saturday, Sept. 4th, at 6 p. m. train from Waianae, fully loaded, had behind the passenger cars, no less than 11 freight cars (4 box cars, 1 open dump, and 6 flat cars); and to any one who has the slightest knowledge of making up a train and of the state of the road and rails, this is simply criminal and would subject any company or its employees to severe punishment.

The Sunday train due in Honolulu, at 6 p. m. full of passengers had the last two passenger cars entirely disconnected from the air brakes.

Is the company so sure of its political pull that it can afford to say with the noted "American," the "public be d—d?"

In conclusion, allow me personally and in behalf of other travellers, to thank you for your able editorial on the subject, and the chance of ventilating a grievous wrong that for some reason the other papers have failed to comment upon.

Yours respectfully,

TRAVELLER.

The Hawaiian Senate.

The Hawaiian Senate, or department of registration and ratification for President Dole's decrees, is composed as follows:

FIRST DISTRICT, HAWAII.

J. Kaubane, F. S. Lyman, H. L. Holstein, F. Northrup.

SECOND DISTRICT, MAUI.

H. P. Baldwin, A. Hocking, W. Y. Horner.

THIRD DISTRICT, OAHU.

Cecil Brown, J. N. Wright, H. W. Schmidt, J. A. McCandless, Henry Waterhouse, and W. C. Wilder.

FOURTH DISTRICT, KAUI.

George N. Wilcox, W. H. Rice, Sr.

More Annexation in View.

In Germany just now they are experiencing another attack of Samoan fever. One of the chief organs of the Colonial party makes an attack on Mr. Osborne, American Consul at Apia, saying that he is an unscrupulous man who regards all means as justifiable, and thereupon appeals to the Government to act more resolutely to protect German interests in Samoa. Another journal goes further and declares the only way to protect German interests is to annex the islands. It says the opportunity for annexation is favorable, in view of America's taking Hawaii and Great Britain claiming Tonga Island.—Irish World.

A FUNNY LETTER.

Every family in the city which numbers among its members juveniles who believe implicitly in Santa Claus, will appreciate this letter by a little tot who has just mastered the art of printing out her letters.

"Dere Santa Claws:

"Give me a dol with red shos, a stov and a dol buggy and sum candy and a new brother and two bottles of Rainier Bere."

When asked why she wanted Santa Claus to give her two bottles of Rainier Beer, the little writer replied: "Because papa and mama say it is the nicest beer made." Criterion Saloon, phone 783.

Unicorn Uniform

The little Hawaiian Poodle—
 Who dotes on his dear Uncle Sam
 Frisks to the tune Yankee Doodle
 While barking at naughty Japan.

But the little Hawaiian Poodle
 Who wanted a gay uniform
 Forgot all about Yankee Doodle,
 Preferring, you know, English form.

He wanted some Jubilee breeches,
 And God knows what kind of a vest
 All embroidered with Prince of Wales stitches
 And a coat like the sun in the west.

So eager for gay decoration
 Was this foolish and silly canine,
 He forgot all about annexation,
 On his lounging for clothing
 carmine.

He thought a bona fine sample
 From the portion of clothes in the rear
 For what he deserved would be ample
 To render his judgement more clear.

The Lion's red coat tails were flying,
 Caressed by the evening breeze,
 Which our bold little poodle espied
 Concluded he'd capture with ease.

A snip—and the coat tails were his'n,
 And the Lion got along well without.

They acted on the puppy like pizen
 For he never had cared for ragout.

MORAL.

Let Lions tread in clothing red
 For 'tis their custom to,
 But simple tags for common dogs
 Are quite sufficient, too.

SWEET TILLIE TAYLOR.

Honor Their Queen.

The 2d of September, the birthday of Liliuokalani, was observed as a holiday at the Leper Settlement on Molokai.

Bright and early did the unfortunate inmates of the Settlement turn out and all thoroughly enjoyed the jollification of the festive occasion.

After prayers for the Queen in the chapels, the day was spent in viewing regattas, horse races, aquatic and athletic sports. An apple bobbing-eating contest created much merriment.

Refreshments were served during the day and the bands discoursed pleasant music.

It is touching to learn that these 1500 Hawaiians, in spite of their sufferings and terrible afflictions have preserved intact their loyalty to their aliis, and their aloha for their country.

Married.

DONNELLY—HART—In this city, Sept. 4, 1897, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Silva, by the Rev. H. H. Parker, W. J. Donnelly of this city, to May Hart of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. J. T. Silva.

DISCRETION WANTED.

A prominent resident was arrested a few days ago in broad day light on King Street, and escorted by two police officers to the police station, where he was charged with furious and headless driving. We do not wish to say anything in regard to the charge or the result of it. The judge, who tried the case, believed the witnesses for the government, and fined the gentleman who was arrested.

We do desire, however, to say a few words in regard to the indiscreet manner, in which the arrest was made, which shows the existence of a system that the Marshal should abandon at once, and which was never tolerated by his predecessors.

A gentleman, well-known in the community, and whose name, residence and place of business are known to every police officer, is driving along the main thoroughfare with a lady friend of high social position. Two police officers, who, somewhat to the surprise of their acquaintances, claim to be experts on all questions pertaining to horses and their speed, decide, that the gentleman is driving furiously and heedlessly. They chase him up and stop his horse, and insist in dragging him and the lady to the police station.

Realizing, that it would be useless to argue with the men clothed in blue breeches and brief authority, the driver suggests that he take the lady home, and then report at the station. Mr. Dole's gallant and gentlemanly employees, however, could not accept a proposition, which would have deprived them of the satisfaction of dragging two prominent society people through the streets, as if they were common criminal.

When the Legislature provides for arrests by penal summons instead of by warrant, it was done for the sake of showing that Hawaii follows the methods of civilized countries. Formerly a man charged with committing a trivial misdemeanor was arrested by warrant, and put to the inconvenience of furnishing bail for his appearance, although, the authorities knew that he had no intention of shirking his responsibility, and would appear in court whenever he was wanted. By the institution of the penal summons, a step in the right direction was taken, and it was hoped that our authorities would follow in the wake of civilization all along the line.

In London, the largest city in the world, no gentleman is ever arrested or yanked to a police station for fast driving or scorching or other misdemeanors, as long as he is sober and acting respectably. He will be stopped, as soon as a police officer sees him, and he will be asked his name and address, and be invited to not repeat the offence and to appear in the police court the following morning. Should he choose to give a wrong name and address, the whole police force will scour London until he is found and then woe to him.

Now, what can be accomplished in London, certainly can be done here. It is within the Marshal's power to instruct his police to act with discretion and save the public all unnecessary annoyance. We hope, that the "running in" of well-known residents for trifling violations of petty laws, will soon become a thing of the past. The Marshal desires his administration of the police department to be popular and acceptable to the people. The only way he can attain his object and still have an efficient force, is to insist in employing men, who understand when and how to use sound discretion and common sense.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The Following Is a Translation of the Resolutions Presented to President Dole this Afternoon.

To SANFORD B. DOLE, President; HENRY E. COOPER, Minister of Foreign Affairs; JAMES A. KING, Minister of the Interior; SAMUEL M. DAMON, Minister of Finance, and WILLIAM O. SMITH, Attorney-General, of the Republic of Hawaii. Greeting:

WHEREAS, It has been submitted to the Senate of the United States of America by the President of the United States of America and its Secretary of State, a Treaty for the annexation of Hawaii to the United States of America, and which still lies with the Senate for action thereon to be had at its regular session which shall be in December next; and

WHEREAS, A Proclamation was issued by S. B. Dole, President of the Republic of Hawaii, calling all the members of the Senate of this Republic to assemble in a Special Session of said Senate to be convened at the Executive Building in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, on the 8th instant for the consideration of the question of the ratification of the said proposed Treaty of Annexation of Hawaii to the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, The native Hawaiians and a large majority of the People of the Hawaiian Islands have been in direct opposition to the annexation of Hawaii to the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, The native Hawaiians and a large majority of the People of these islands have fully believed in the independence and free autonomy of these islands and to the continuation of the Government of Hawaii as of a free and independent country governed by and under its own laws; therefore be it

Resolved, We, who in mass meeting assembled on the 6th day of September, A. D. 1897, at the city of Honolulu aforesaid, for ourselves and for and on behalf of the People of Hawaii, as well as for the large majority of the People of the Hawaiian Islands, earnestly protest against the annexation of Hawaii to the United States of America in any form or shape.

Signed by 15 committeemen, viz.:— James Keauluna Kaula, chairman; David Kalaokalani, J. K. Kaunamano, Edward K. Lilikalani, Abr. K. Palekaluhi, Enoch Johnson, Jno. P. Kuoha, T. C. Polikapa, J. Kanui, F. S. Keiki, J. Mahai Kanekua, David Lokana Keku, J. P. Kahawai, J. W. Holoua, S. H. Meekapu. Honolulu, Sept. 6, 1897.

A Splendid Chance.

There has recently been fostered a very praiseworthy feeling among the working classes of Hawaii. Their ambition is to own their own homes and become landed proprietors, and lately numerous favorable chances have been given to gratify their wishes.

Mr. S. W. Phillips, late of Washington D. C., who has opened a real estate agency at the office of W. C. Achi on King street has purchased the Kapahulu tract of land next to Kapiolani Park, and is offering it for sale in lots suitable for homesteads.

The land has been surveyed and divided into 100 lots, which Mr. Phillips offers at $50 a lot, payable in weekly instalments.

People wanting to live under their own roofs and on their own lands will do well to look out for the advertisement which will appear in a few days.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

J. M. Pospoe, the great Hawaiian Constitutional lawyer, claims to have discovered that native Hawaiians have lost their right to vote since 1851.

It was expected that the management of the Oahu Railroad would have made a public statement in regard to the accident on the road last Thursday. Mr. Dillingham is entitled to the greatest respect and support of the community in his enterprise and indefatigable energy in promoting the railroad, which eventually will encircle the Island of Oahu. He is not yet a Vanderbilt, however, and he can hardly afford to adopt the motto of that railroad king, "the public be damned." The public may some day resent being treated in a cavalier fashion, and representatives of the voters will meet in a few months to ask questions and, we hope, advance the interests of the public. The accident was evidently not quite a "trivial" affair, as stated by a contemporary. The stockholders may probably obtain a satisfactory explanation, before the public demands an investigation, and these injured, damages.

What Is It?

You can't afford to be without it, around house, mill, plantation and farm, especially if you have wire fences attached to posts by means of Fence Staples. THE RUSSELL STAPLE PULLER AND WIRE SPLICER is a drop forge tool, made of Black Diamond tool steel, and is six useful tools in one, weighs about one pound, and can be carried in the hip pocket with ease. Besides the six tools, it can be used for various other purposes, which will naturally suggest themselves. The six tools are as follows:

- 1—A double staple puller.
- 2—A double wire cutter, and the best made.
- 3—A double hammer and no danger of its breaking.
- 4—A good wire splicer for any kind of wire, barbed wire included
- 5—A good pair of pincers with long leverage.
- 6—A good monkey wrench for plows, machines, etc.

It is good for tightening slack wire by grasping the wire in the jaws of splicer and pressing handle to right or left until it bends the wire and you have it tight enough.

Sunday Fishing.

A Japanese was fined yesterday for fishing on Sunday. The man, who is in the employ of a well-known Hawaiian fisherman, put out his net at 8:30 p. m. on Sunday. He explained to the Judge that in Japan a day means the space of time from sunrise to sunset, and that he thought that Sunday was over at 8:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The Judge told the Jap that he was not in Japan at present, and must comply with the Hawaiian ideas of the calendar, and he fined the Jap $1 and costs. The Judge incidentally stated that it is commonly rumored, that even Government officials are fishing on Sundays, and that was possibly the reason why the Jap got off so cheaply. The proposition that anyone drawing a Government salary should be fishing on Sundays must have been very shocking to Judge Wilcox.

VOX POPULI.

The Honolulu Hawaiians Opposed to Annexation

A Thousand Hawaiian Workingmen Meet in Palace Square After Their Hard Day's Labor, and Adopt Resolutions Against the Sale of Their Birthright by the Oligarchs.

Pursuant to a call quietly circulated by the native Hawaiian Societies, the Hui Aloha Aina (Patriotic League) and the Hui Kalaiaina (Political Association) there was a mass meeting of Hawaiians held in Palace Square yesterday afternoon.

While it is extremely difficult to count a mass meeting it may safely be said that the conservative estimate of the P. C. Advertiser, the leading annexation and Government organ, of 700 may be increased by, at least, 300, making, in effect, a much larger attendance than there are registered voters on the Island of Oahu, these numbering only 816 out of a census population of 40,205, 26,164 of whom are males.

REASONS FOR SMALL ATTENDANCE.

There were several reasons which militated against a much larger attendance; in the first place the arrangements were conducted entirely by Hawaiians who failed to sufficiently advertise the meeting, leaving it in doubt in the minds of hundreds whether the meeting was to be held in the afternoon or the evening, after the toilers of the day had had an opportunity of washing and refreshing themselves, more especially as the native papers differed in the announcement of the meeting hour; in the next place the Government organs and the annexationists had threatened, cajoled and intimidated and so thoroughly mixed up matters that the majority of the Hawaiian anti-annexationists were in a quandary as to whether there was to be a meeting or not, and if there should be a meeting whether or not they would be run in by President Dole's policemen or soldiers.

Another reason for the limited attendance was that the Government organs and the annexationists had endeavored to make it appear that there was to be a joint meeting of Hawaiians and Portuguese, and to this a large number of the Hawaiians objected as they desired the protest on this occasion to emanate solely from the Hawaiians.

AN ORDERLY GATHERING.

The meeting was one of the most unanimous in sentiment, orderly and well behaved ever held in Honolulu and at its termination the assembled masses dispersed as quietly as they had assembled after giving hearty cheers for their country and its independence, and, however fruitless may be their legitimate efforts against their usurping rulers, bearing away with them the credit of having placed themselves upon record as being true patriots.

No requisition was made on the services of the gallant and high military officials in civilian's dress looking on from the Palace grounds or for the few Hawaiian police who moved on the outskirts of the gathering.

The meeting occupied a little more than half an hour, and were greatly disappointed that they were not permitted to spread their eloquence o'er the sultry air as the managers were afraid that the meeting would assume too large proportions and possibly give offence to the Government authorities by becoming too excited.

A NUMBER OF WOULD-BE ORATORS

The meeting was called to order by J. K. Kaunamano, and J. K. Kaulia, President of the Aloha Aina Society, in excellent voice and well selected words introduced the topic of the hour. As is only natural his burning eloquence is much tempered by hasty translation into cold English.

PRESIDENT KAULIA'S SPEECH.

Mr. Kaulia spoke to the following effect and was frequently interrupted with hearty applause:

"Mr. President and the Hawaiian People:—We have gathered here this afternoon to consider a question that has been before us for the last four years—that of the annexation of this, our land, to the United States. Yes, you have heard about it over and over again through the columns of the press and by word of mouth, and you have all considered it well; but, you, who love your country and your nation, you, to whom by rights all things here belong, are you going to allow your land to be given to the United States? (Cries of "No, no!" from the people.) We have been told over and over again by some people what a good thing annexation will be for these islands, the land of our birth? but I tell you, if we ever get annexation to the United States, we may consider ourselves in the position of being buried alive.

"FOREIGNERS WILL POUR IN HERE

and then, my friends, to what place will we be scattered? (Answer from the people: "To the mountains.") I see you are in sympathy with me. Then let us stand as a unit against any such measure as is now being considered. America has done us no wrong, but it is this Government in power to-day that has divested us of our rights and our heritage. They are trying to coax the United States to take us. We must not allow such a thing as long as our protests will do any good.

"If we are annexed to-day, the morrow will bring us no good. Not so with the rich people, the men in power to-day. They will reap the harvest. Our profit will be where? Our gain will be from what source? We meet here to-day as a peaceably-inclined and law-abiding lot of people, but our opinions, freely expressed, we wish all to hear. We come not with arms into a bloody conflict but with thought and resolution into what we believe to be our rights as the people of this land.

"LET US STAND APART

and against this measure that is so obnoxious to us, for if the people with the white skins come they will take everything. Wherever the white man goes the colored races all over the world succumb and die before them and are wiped off the face of the earth or made slaves. You know that. It is the history of all times. If we say 'No' to annexation I do not think the United States will annex us. The people of that great land have always been set down as just. They will not, at this hour, seek to diverge from that path. If annexation ever comes, it will come from us, the rightful owners of the land. We are against it and let us stand together. The Government here is trembling to-day because annexation does not seem to come with the requisite speed. If we are ready to give our land to America, all well and good. Let us do so and pass a vote to that effect. (Cries of 'No, no!') Then it is our work to stand against it, so that in December the United States will see just how the Hawaiian people stand. Let us one and all say: 'No annexation!' (Three cheers.)

PRESIDENT D. KALAUOKALANI

followed Mr. Kaulia and in the course of his remarks, said: "Are you in favor of giving your country to another, to allow yourselves to be swallowed up by another and lose your identity, without a protesting voice? In other words, do you want annexation? (Cries of 'No, no!') Shall we remain independent? (Cries of 'Yes, yes!') To tell you truly, it shall profit us nothing to be annexed. We are under a Republic now and we are getting no good. If we go under another Republic, we may get worse. When we are thrown into the United States, then the deluge. You are here to think over the matter. In doing so, let us be sensible and law-abiding. Fear not,

The Mischief of the A. P. A.

The bigot is generally devoid of that saving sense of humor which greatly helps to make life worth living. If it were not so those secret societies, like the so-called American Protective Association, which are engaged in a deadly warfare against all that is most significant and precious in American institutions, would not insist on parading themselves as "the patriotic orders." Strange patriotism is this, which begins by denying the first tenet of American liberty,—freedom to worship God,—and proposes to punish religious beliefs which it does not share by depriving those who hold them, not only of their political rights, but if possible, of the means of livelihood. The very enormity of the sworn purposes of these orders seems to be what gives them their opportunity; for the majority of honorable men find themselves incapable of believing that such purposes can be cherished by civilized beings, and therefore fail to make any effective resistance to them. Thus they have the field to themselves; and with scarcely a protest, they creep in and intrude themselves in one community after another, gathering together a large mass of the ignorant and intolerant, and by their secret methods and their compact military organization making themselves a power in the local elections. Many communities have awakened when it was too late to find the grip of these secret orders firmly fastened upon their municipal machinery. There should be no need of warning intelligent citizens against the dangers of such organizations. They are the deadly enemies of democratic institutions. There may be business which can be legitimately carried on behind closed doors, but the public business is not of this nature. The attempt to control our politics in this way is an amazing usurpation of power; yet the subversion of republican government which has thus been accomplished in many localities has excited but little comment. On this question the great majority of newspapers are dumb, while thousands of Protestant ministers are helping on the fatal work. Some resistance, indeed, has been made to this domination in a few instances: Massachusetts, in the persons of Senator Hoar and the late Governor Greenhalge, has furnished a commendable example, but very few conspicuous politicians have ventured to challenge the secret power.

The political success of this conspiracy is due, of course, to the machine politicians. A secret organization whose vote can be controlled almost absolutely, whose official head can promise to throw it bodily into either side of the scale, does not need to have a very large membership in order that it may dictate nearly all the nominations of one or the other of the two parties. If twenty or even ten percent of the voters of a community can be handled in this way, one of the parties will be sure to give their leaders nearly everything they ask for. Ambitious minor politicians will make haste to join the society, there will be candidates enough in its membership to fill all the offices, and for a time the party which secures its alliance is sure to elect its candidates. In this way, in many communities, the control of one or the other of the parties has passed almost entirely into the hands of the "patriotic" orders.—The Century.

The schooner Aloha received a first consignment of Kauai sugar yesterday forenoon from the steamer Mikahala. The Irgard wharf is literally heaped with the Aloha in cargo.

A novel and daring feat was performed last month at Geneseo, N. Y., by Tommy Martel, a Buffalo athlete, who on a wager of a hat rode down River Hill, the highest mountain in Livingston County, on a bicycle. He wagered that he could ride a mile down the mountain-side in a minute, and he succeeded in making it in fifty seconds. Martel lost the pedals after going an eighth of a mile. He clung to the handlebars and reached the foot of the hill unharmed, but badly frightened. This hill has never before been descended by a wheelman.

Some Views As to Annexation.

Some of the labor organizations at San Francisco have passed resolutions in favor of the annexation of Hawaii, although it will incorporate into our system one of the most infamous contract labor systems ever devised by the cupidity of man. No one act that this government could do would so degrade labor as this same annexation; but they wanted to get into the whoop! —Colusa Sun.

The oligarchy which controls Hawaii and now offers that country to the United States, does not represent one twentieth of the population, and to annex the islands now would be an acquiescence on the part of the government of the United States to an outrage as great as any which has made the land-grabbing of England notorious throughout the civilized world.—Tulare Times.
