

AMERICAN COMMISSIONERS HERE.

Senator Cullom and Congressman Hitt Express Interesting Views.

Their Plans are Indefinite Thus Far—Will Make Tour of the Islands—Want all the Views Possible on the Situation.

The Congressional members of the Hawaiian Commission arrived in the steamer Mariposa this morning. They are quartered at the Hawaiian hotel. Senator Cullom, wife and daughter have the mauka suite on the first floor close to the lanai. Senator Morgan and son have No. 27 and 29 on the second floor. Representative Hitt, wife and son occupy Snow cottage.

Senator Cullom, chairman of the Commission, was met in the hallway, returning from a stroll, by a representative of the BULLETIN. He received the visitor very cordially, inviting him at once into his parlor.

"Then you are an American citizen," the Senator said on learning, in answer to a question, that the BULLETIN man was a voter of the Republic of Hawaii.

On being told that this was just what a great many in the same position were anxious to learn, Senator Cullom intimated that the general understanding was that Hawaiian citizens became American citizens without any protracted formalities.

Then the interviewer became the interviewed for a brief space and answered questions. When done he asked Senator Cullom as chairman as to any plan of operations that might have been formulated for the Commission.

"We have no definite plans arranged. Our object is to find out all we can about the conditions, industrial as well as political, of the islands and report to Congress such legislation for Hawaii as we may conclude to be advisable.

"With this object we shall visit different parts of the islands and ascertain everything possible about their inhabitants and industrial and commercial conditions. We hope to get through with our work in about a month."

Asked if the Commission would hold stated sessions like a constitutional convention the Senator replied:

"That matter has not been considered. Many things of course were left until we should meet with the Hawaiian members—President Dole and Justice Frear—who will I presume call on us in the course of today."

Senator Cullom assented to the statement previously made by Mr. Dole to the BULLETIN, that the Commission would probably call before it numbers of representative people to give their views along with special information.

"That is what we want," he said on this point, "all the information we can obtain."

Would the Commission complete its deliberations and formulate its report to Congress before leaving the islands, or hold its final sessions at Washington with the Hawaiian members in attendance?

"Well, that has not been considered. I suppose from their positions here that the Hawaiian members are very busy men, and it might be a serious inconvenience for them to leave the islands."

Had the Senator any views regarding the question of the voting franchise in Hawaii, which was really one of the most burning ones, locally, of the situation?

"No. That will be one of the matters considered and decided by Congress upon the recommendations of the Commission. Everything bearing upon the question will be fully investigated and you may depend Congress will do what it deems best for the United States, and that will be the best for the people of the Hawaiian Islands."

A remark was made about local concern lest what would, under the American Constitution, be virtually class legislation, should be adopted for Hawaii.

"I think you need have no fears on that score," said Senator Cullom. "The laws of the United States, generally, will be the laws to govern the Hawaiian Islands."

He was asked, finally, if there was anything he would like to say, further, to the Hawaiian public.

"No, there is nothing to say until the Commission gets to work. Then there will be a good deal to say, but we want to hear from the people themselves. You know," he smilingly added, "I am not a great talker."

The rejoinder was made that so the papers in the States said, but he was evidently a man of action as his present appointment sufficiently indicated. In seeing the reporter out the Senator replying to thanks for his courtesy, made remarks proving that it was unfeigned pleasure to him to meet representatives of the press.

Hon. Shelby M. Cullom, United States Senator for Illinois, is a man who would be picked out of a throng as distinguished. Of tall and erect figure he wears an ample crown of gray hairs and a full but neatly cropped beard of the same venerable hue. With spare yet mobile features his countenance, illuminated with a genial expression and a rare stamp of shrewdness, suggests a resemblance to that of the immortal Lincoln.

COMMISSIONER HITT.

Mr. Hitt was met on the veranda of Snow cottage talking to a local reporter, and his son, a tall young man of about twenty, was with him. He received the BULLETIN representative with unaffected cordiality, asking him at once if he had met the chairman of the commission.

As a matter of course, it was deemed unnecessary to bother Mr. Hitt with questions regarding the Commission which had been already answered by the chairman. The interview took the form of a general conversation, in which the Congressman said many interesting things in a very striking way. He proved to have a fine flavor of wit in his discourse.

Mr. Hitt expressed a particular desire that the Commission should see as much as possible of the industrial conditions of the islands. He feared for the time required to visit all of the islands.

Being informed that the ordinary trip to Hilo and return, including a visit to the volcano, only took one week, Mr. Hitt ejaculated:

"We did not come here to see the volcano. That would be like going to the theater. The volcano is only fireworks. And I understand the performances are suspended. Even your volcano has become peaceful like everything else under annexation."

He was told that even the regulation volcano trip gave some time to see large sugar plantations and mills, besides taking one through the large coffee fields of Oloa.

Mr. Hitt, on the mention of coffee, questioned his callers regarding that industry. First he said:

"It seems to me your coffee is something like beet sugar in the States. There is a great deal said about it, but nobody can tell what it will amount to. About forty years ago, there was a great deal said about raising hemp in the States. Horace Greeley wrote about it."

He asked about the volume of the crop and was informed on that point, approximately, for the present and two years to come. It was new information also to him that Hawaiian coffee commanded about twice as much as Brazilian, in the San Francisco market.

Mr. Hitt talked pleasantly of conversations about Hawaii he had enjoyed with the Congressional party that visited the islands last summer. Senator Morgan was more of a Hawaiian than ever, after he returned home.

In the course of conversation Mr. Hitt adverted to the past relations of Hawaii with the United States.

"I have always considered," he said "that the reciprocity treaty, as an economic proposition, was a poor one for the United States. Countervailing advantages were urged and to some extent did exist, but they came far from balancing the twelve millions annually we gave to Hawaii. Yet I have supported reciprocity because I realized that it was necessary for retaining the grasp of the United States on the Hawaiian Islands. If they went to another country it would one day require a large fleet to take them for the United States."

Mr. Hitt had a doubt if the provision in the Republic of Hawaii's Constitution, intended to avoid giving Japan a "peaceful conquest of Hawaii" by making it impossible for any foreigners to naturalize, would have availed for the purpose.

"Diplomacy is a flexible weapon and can be bent in many ways. Besides, what does diplomacy amount to against a big navy?"

The Congressman from Illinois certainly gave the impression that, as an adept in gathering information quickly, he is one of the right men in the right place on the Commission. His experience as chairman of the House committee on foreign relations has doubtlessly in this role contributed to making him a past master.

Hon. Robert M. Hitt, Congressman from Illinois, is a portly figure of medium height, with a decidedly military appearance. He would look well in a general's or an admiral's uniform. His countenance is strong in feature, candid and genial in aspect. With gray and partly bald head and a gray moustache, he well fits into the trio of mature statesmen whom President McKinley chose for the very important work of framing a body of legislation for the Territory of Hawaii.

SENATOR MORGAN.

Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama was not in his room when the reporter sought an audience with him. He is so well known to the people of Hawaii, however, that an introduction of him is unnecessary. And there is no doubt that, respecting the work of the Commission, Chairman Cullom speaks for the whole body so far as anything can as yet be said.

NIGHT ATTACK AT MANILA

Pennsylvania and California Boys Hold Their Own.

Nine Dead and Forty-six Wounded—Sol. Sheridan Tells of the Fight—Insurgents Were Missing.

(By SOL N. SHERIDAN to the Call.)

Camp Dewey, Aug. 1, via Hongkong, Aug. 9. — Nine dead; forty-six wounded. That tells the story of the baptism of fire the American army has undergone before Manila.

The American trenches before Malate, thrown forward some days ago to displace the insurgents, and extending from the beach a half-mile toward the passage where General Norrial's headquarters, were held last night by the Pennsylvanians and Batteries A and B, Utah Artillery, with three rapid fire guns. Between the American extreme right and the insurgent barracks at Pasay there is about a half mile of bamboo swamp, interspersed with mango trees, which the insurgents were supposed to have covered and did cover heretofore. After some desultory firing from the insurgent guns, to which the Spaniards replied at intervals, the insurgents retired to Pasay, leaving the American right uncovered. Colonel Hawkins of the Pennsylvania had thrown three companies—D, E and M—outside the trenches to cover the right of Companies A, H, C and E, which held the trenches down to the beach, with Utah's company, B, lying as a reserve back along Calle Real, toward Camp Dewey.

At 11:30 o'clock at night the Spaniards in front opened fire on the American right, drawing the Pennsylvanians' fire outside the trenches, and thus getting their position. Then from a dense bamboo thicket, 250 yards to the American right, there blazed the fire of 2000 Mausers, while the Malate batteries sent shrapnel shrieking in upon the American works, and from the front came a galling fire from Nordenfeldts.

While the Spaniards swept Calle Real the insurgent batteries on the Pasay side remained ominously silent, protected by thickets and covered by darkness. The Spaniards attempted to rush the American right. The plan apparently was to double the troops up on the beach and sweep across the flats on to the camp.

Company D of the Pennsylvania Regiment was cut off from the main body, but fought its way back.

The Spaniards repeatedly advanced within sixty yards of the American intrenchments, but fell back before the steady fire of the volunteers. A shell from Malate buried one of the Utah guns and the position was rapidly becoming untenable, when Hawkins dispatched a messenger to the camp for reinforcements. The messenger struck the Third Artillery and Major O'Hara, without awaiting orders, hurried two batteries into action as infantry rushed into trenches. The Pennsylvanians had four rounds for the man when succored. Major O'Hara then sent information to

SWEET PEACE IN SIGHT

Armistice Probable in the Near Future.

McKinley Unrelenting in His Terms—Spain Can Do Nothing But Submit.

New York, August 10. — A special to the Sun from Washington says: McKinley, by construing the Spanish note as a complete acceptance of the terms set forth by the United States as the necessary preliminary to the negotiations of a peace treaty has put the Spanish Government in a position of being unable to parley further. A protocol providing for the meeting of the commissioners and the negotiation of a treaty was drawn today, and Spain must authorize Cambon to sign it or suffer the penalty of a continuation of the war.

Secretary Day today made the following statement: "We have agreed upon a protocol embodying the proposed terms for the negotiation of a treaty of peace, including the evacuation of Cuba and Porto Rico, and it is expected that the protocol will be executed."

In substance the protocol provides for the withdrawal of the Spanish forces from Cuba, cession of Porto Rico to the United States, cession to the United States of an island in the Ladrones and surrender to the United States of the city, bay and harbor of Manila, to be held pending the negotiation of the treaty of peace. These are the American terms without qualifications. All suggestions contained in the Spanish note as to the Cuban debt and other matters are utterly ignored in the protocol. The American terms or demands are not changed or made subject to future provisions. Other sections in the protocol provide for the meeting of the peace commissioners in Paris, fix the number of commissioners and arrange a basis for an armistice during the arranging of the peace terms.

A Cabinet officer said this evening that the acceptance of the provisions of the protocol by Cambon made it necessary for Spain to ratify that acceptance by giving Cambon authority to sign the protocol, unless the Madrid Ministry wanted to lose the sympathy of the French Government. He contended that Cambon's action had morally bound France to an acquiescence in the provisions of the protocol.

ON TO THE PHILIPPINES.

Forces in California to be Hurried to the Front.

The Examiner of the 11th says: Yesterday morning this answer was received from Adjutant-General Corbin:

The Secretary of War orders all Philippine expeditionary troops in San Francisco to be sent to Manila. You are to forward them as fast as you can obtain transports for that purpose. Advise the Department as soon as possible as to your ability to get proper transports.

On receipt of this dispatch General Merriam instructed the Quartermaster's Department to immediately inquire about vessels on the Coast suitable for transports. It is understood that a report will be made today that in all probability the steamers Tartar and Athenian at Vancouver can be obtained. They can jointly carry 3000 men.

The City of Sydney is due here on the 15th and the Australia is looked for about the same time. The City of Peking left Nagasaki on August 6th and is expected here on the 21st. These are the three steamers which formed the first expedition to the Philippines. All three vessels have been released by the Government and there will be some objection to their being taken a second time.

DEATH OF MRS. HOCKING.

Sad Event Occurred Early This Morning.

The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. May Hocking wife of Senator A. Hocking this morning will be a great shock to a large circle of friends and acquaintances of the family. The lady's death was due to a hemorrhage following child birth and occurred at 5 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Hocking has been a resident of the Islands about eight years and was married to Mr. Hocking about two years ago. She was born in Mendocino County, California, her maiden name being Glass. Her father and a sister residing in Southern California survive her. The child born was a girl which is very healthy and doing finely. Miss Genevieve Pensing, a niece of the deceased, arrived on the Mariposa this morning just a few minutes after the death of her aunt.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 3:30 from St. Andrew's Cathedral.

Secretary Day, Senators Lodge and Davis, Justice White and Lawyer Couderc are mentioned as members of a commission to investigate whether the Philippines will make a desirable American colony.

RUSSIA WINS SO FAR

Knocked the Bottom Out of British Concessions.

Balfour Takes an Optimistic View of the Situation—Diplomatic Condition at High Tension.

London, August 11.—The Peking correspondent of the Times says: The Tsung-Li-Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office) has given formal assent to all the conditions imposed by the Russian Charge d'Affaires, M. Pavloff, regarding the contract for the New-chwang railway extension loan. These conditions are in direct conflict with the terms of the signed contract, and are designed to block the completion of the final contract.

Objectionable clauses in favor of Russia are removed. M. Pavloff's conditions as to the New-chwang Railway are that the lines should not be mortgaged as security and that no foreign control or interference should be permitted, even in case of a default.

So far as the Peking-Hankow contract is concerned a separate agreement appoints as arbitrator in any disputed question the Minister of that country having the largest financial interest. This gives the Russian Minister absolute power.

The Times, commenting on the dispatch of its Peking correspondent, says: M. Pavloff has knocked the bottom out of the British concessions. The news makes short work of all Mr. Balfour's demonstrations on the subject of the "open door."

The Daily Mail says this morning: "We understand that the Franco-Belgian contract for the construction of the Peking-Hankow Railway has been ratified by the Tsung-Li-Yamen and actually signed."

On the contrary, the Peking correspondent of the Times, telegraphing Wednesday, says the contract is still unratified; that the Belgian Minister is pressing for an imperial rescript directing its ratification and that England should endeavor to delay the ratification until objectionable clauses in favor of Russia are removed.

Miss Carrie A. Gilman, until now teacher at Punahou Preparatory school, left in the Belgic to take a three years' course at a Coast institution in the new healing science of osteopathy.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. SHARP TIPP IN COURT.

Attorney Davis Censured and Refused Privilege of Explaining.

The report of Circuit Court term proceedings of yesterday did not contain anything about the Hamilton murder case. Yet that was the first matter called before Judge Stanley.

Geo. A. Davis, of counsel for the defendant, announced that he retired from the case. This was a naturally a surprise, as it was expected Mr. Davis would file a writ of prohibition—as stated in yesterday's BULLETIN—to stop proceedings.

E. P. Dole, Deputy Attorney General, upbraided the action of counsel opposite, saying it was "trifling with the Court."

The Court took the same view and spoke in terms of censure regarding the conduct of Mr. Davis. Upon the attorney's rising to explain, he was informed that explanations were inadmissible. He had to sit down.

Out of court, later, Mr. Davis expressed his sense of feeling injured.

"You see Mr. Davidson had been in the case, he having been admitted to a consultation with the prisoner in the police station," said Mr. Davis.

"I was afterward called into the case with him and, as it was a matter of life and death, I felt a great amount of responsibility. Accordingly, I wanted to have a certain share of the management of the case—in short, I wanted to direct the trial on the defendant's side and make the closing address to the jury."

"Mr. Davidson would not agree to my wishes, so that I could only withdraw from the case."

Here Mr. Davis explained that he might "play second fiddle" to such a practitioner as one he named, but claimed that he has the option in every case to decide whether he should take a subordinate position with associate counsel. He had acted on the same principle in the Eastern courts.

"We had a difference as to the conduct of the case, and I consider the most honorable course for me was to quietly withdraw from the case. For this I am censured and refused the privilege of making explanations in open court."

Police Courts Notes.

In the Police Court Tuesday forenoon, four Chinamen were fined $10 and costs on the charge of gambling. Two others had their cases nolle pro'd while Kaawalaule had sentence suspended for three months on the same charge.

The case of Wm. Rathburn of Waiialua, charged with larceny in the second degree, was set for the 18th inst.

Ah Ping was fined $20 and costs on the charge of having che fa tickets in his possession.

Three young men had their cases nolle pro'd on the charge of assault and battery on Kkahio.

Trouble of Lawyers.

Lawyers who called at the police station Tuesday a. m. were in very much of a quandary. Marshal Brown was busy in the Circuit Court, Deputy Marshal Hitchcock is on Maui and Deputy Marshal Chillingworth was at Waiialua. There was naturally all kinds of trouble.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

Balfour's Statement.

London, August 10.—During the debate on the appropriation bill in the House of Commons today Sir Charles Dilke [Advanced Radical] made an attack on the Government's foreign policy and especially in the Far East. The Liberal leader in the House, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, followed in the same strain.

The Government leader, Mr. Balfour, replying to the last speaker, contended that there was no evidence of preference having been given to foreign manufacturers or traders in China. It was impossible, he said, to foresee how the struggle for concessions would end, but he saw no reason for the pessimistic views entertained in some quarters.

Regarding Shantung, Mr. Balfour said: "We must treat Germany as we expect her to treat us."

Referring to Russia, Mr. Balfour said he saw no necessity for taking a pessimistic view of the situation, and he would be surprised if the British concession accounts did not get their full share.

Mr. Balfour's speech appears to have been intended as a statement of the Government's policy in China, which the opposition has been demanding before the close of Parliament. He did not enter into details of the complications, and the drift of his explanation was that the Government's critics expected impossibilities.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Balfour said it could not be pretended that the British empire alone, or in alliance with another empire, could prevent the legitimate development of other commercial and military empires.

Mr. Balfour then said: "Though we may not anticipate maintaining our old relative superiority in China, it is expected that the volume of their trade will increase as rapidly in the future as in the past. The question of equal facilities of trade is distinct from the question of concessions."

Real Merit

Is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is manifested every day in the remarkable cures this medicine accomplishes. Druggists say: When we sell a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to a new customer we are sure to see him back in a few weeks after more—proving that the good results from a trial bottle warrant continuing its use. This positive merit

Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses by virtue of the Peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process used in its preparation, and by which all the remedial value of the ingredients used is retained. Hood's Sarsaparilla is thus Peculiar to itself and absolutely unequalled in its powers as a blood purifier, and as a tonic for building up the weak and weary, and giving strength to the nerves. Be sure to get

"I Consider it Unequaled"

Mr. Edwin Bright of Brisbane, Queensland, gives this strong testimonial:

"I am pleased to say I have used

both in the United States and throughout Australia whenever I have felt the need of a tonic. As a remedy for loss of appetite, weakness and debility, and to tone up the system to withstand the oppressive heat and sudden changes I consider it unequaled."
