LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

The Bark Lady Lamson Brings Dates to July 1st.

From San Francisco papers of July 1st, received on the Lady Lamson, we clip the following items:

In the U. S. Senate, June 30th, Morrill gave notice that he would at the earliest practical moment move to take up the Tariff bill. Platt said that much as he believed in the Tariff bill, and anxious as he was to see it passed, he would not consent to its coming up until the Idaho bill is disposed of.

The second race between O'Connor, the Canadian carman, and Stansbury of New South Wales, which was rowed owing to a claim by O'Connor that he was fouled by Stansbury in the first race they rowed, took place June 30 and was won by Stansbury, who thus wins $5,000 and the championship of the world. The water was smooth, but the tide was adverse. O'Connor led for three-quarters of a mile. At the end of the first mile Stansbury was a length and a half ahead. He won by eight lengths. Time, 22 minutes and 29 seconds.

By the will of Lawyer Charles M. da Costa, Columbia College will be $100,000 richer.

Francis Bennoch, a prominent merchant and intimate friend of Hawthorne, Longfellow and Dickens, died June 30.

Osman Digna led the Dervishes who were defeated by the Italian allies at Keren.

M. Fonquier slightly wounded the editor of the Matin in a duel at Paris, June 30.

A dispatch, dated London, June 30, says England is likely to require all the cereals that America can send her this year, for continued wet weather and cold, blighting winds are rapidly destroying our own crops. Hay is rotting on the ground, wheat is getting mildewed, fields are being turned into ponds and nothing is ripening.

The bark Altance, from Nova Scotia, reports that the Norwegian bark Norcap was burned at sea on June 9. Out of a crew of twenty, six were killed by falling yards while fighting the flames. The remaining fourteen took to the boats and were rescued after being adrift four days.

An American Woman.

A Boston lady, knowing that the translation of Dante had just then appeared, and having heard that the aged monarch (the king of Saxony) was proud of his literary ability, had a good opportunity of alluding to his chief d'œuvre, which she immediately seized. The king addressed her in turn, saying: "You are from America, I believe. I think I have seen you in the Grosse Garten. Why have you not been presented before?" "I am from America, she replied, "where we have no kings. I have waited for the proper time to be introduced to your majesty, and now may I be permitted, as an American, to utter a few words?" "I feel it less an honor to be presented to the king of Saxony than to 'Philistines,' the translator of Dante, whom I trust I may be allowed to congratulate on the successful achievement of the work." The king had published the translation under the above sobriquet. He was much pleased with the compliment thus bestowed, laughed with delight and said the lady had been prompt in examining the new publication.—Boston Post.

Lady Duff Gordon's Pet.

She had a tame snake and used to carry her pet about with her wound round her arm (inside the large baggy sleeves that were then the fashion), and it would put its slender head out at the wrist-hole and lap milk out of the palm of her hand with its little forked tongue. It was as fond of sucking things as Lucie herself, and when she took her many rings off her fingers and placed them on different parts of the table, it would go about collecting them, stringing them in its little body and finally tying itself in a tight knot, so that the rings could not be recovered, till it chose to untie itself again.—The Spectator.

Jones—Ha! I believe that boy you recommended to me the other day is only half-witted. I sent him to the bank for fifty dollars, and he lost twenty-five dollars coming home.

Robinson—Don't discharge him, John. A full-witted boy might have stolen the whole of it and said nothing.—Judge.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Thirty-first Day.

TUESDAY, July 15.

House met at 10 A.M. Prayer by the Chaplain. Minutes read and approved.

Rep. Kalua read the report of the Judiciary committee on the petition against the return of Hon. O.K. Apiki as Representative for Kau. The petition alleged that some voters for Apiki were taken to the polls in a mule cart belonging to Hilea Sugar Co.; that banners caricaturing the opposite candidate were carried about in mule carts; that J. W. Smithies and J. Kai, runners for Apiki, were inside the polling places; that these runners were paid for their services. From the evidence the committee doubt whether the complaints have been sustained. There was no proof that the use of the carts was paid for by Apiki, or that they were employed at his request. The alleged runners were watchers and no more were paid than the law authorized. The committee cannot find reason for recommending that the election be voided.

The report was adopted.

Rep. Brown reported that he hoped the optium committee would be able to report Wednesday or Thursday.

Rep. Rickard moved that as thirty days of the session had passed and little business done, hence, as much time was wasted in useless talk, he resolved that no member be allowed to speak more than ten minutes on any subject, including the time occupied in interpretation, except with the special permission of the President.

Rep. Paehalo moved the rules already limited the time, and moved the resolution be laid on the table. Lost.

The resolution carried.

Rep. Paehalo moved that the Minister of Interior be requested to order the Postmaster-General to present a written statement of the names of all mail carriers and their monthly pay, also of the names of postmasters and their salaries. Carried.

Rep. Marques read a first time by title his bill to create cantoniers or permanent laborers on the public roads.

Noble J. M. Horner moved that inasmuch as the statement of Rep. J. N. Wainaina, made at the request of the convention and native teachers only $4, is untrue, be it resolved that Rep. Wainaina be requested either to prove the said statement or to withdraw it. The mover said they had to listen to many hard things in the House. If this statement was true the honorable Board of Education deserved the indignation of the House.

Rep. Nawahi said the honorable Noble need not say any more, as he was prepared to prove his statement now.

Noble Isenberg said the President of the Board of Education and the Inspector-General were both present at the meeting of the education committee this morning, when a statement of expenses of teachers from Hilo was submitted, showing that native and foreign teachers were paid $25 each without distinction.

Rep. Kalua moved that the resolution be referred to a select committee for investigation. If the statement could not be proved it was very improper to have made it.

Rep. R. W. Wilcox was sorry the resolution had been introduced, as it brought up the rottenness of the Board of Education with regard to the pay of teachers.

Noble Isenberg called Rep. Wilcox to order. He had used offensive terms toward Hon. C. R. Bishop in this House, and such conduct was highly objectionable.

Noble Horner called Rep. Wilcox to order, as the pay of teachers was not before the House.

President Walker asked Rep. Wilcox to confine himself to the resolution.

Rep. Apiki moved that the House be a committee, but asked that no member of the Education committee be appointed, as that committee showed its disposition already.

Noble Macfarlane did not believe the Board had decided in the manner stated, and thought the matter should be investigated by a Select committee.

Rep. Bush said the report of the Board of Education showed discrimination against native teachers, therefore this matter should go to a Select committee. The motion passed.

Minister Peterson gave notice of a bill to regulate the drawing of telegrams in jury trials. Also, of a bill to amend Sec. 429 Civil Code as amended by Chap. 10, Laws of 1887.

Rep. Hoookano read a first time by title his bill to amend Sec. 12, Chap. 74, Laws of 1888, and repeal Sec. 3 of the same law.

Noble Phillips read a first time by title his bill to regulate the licensing of lodging houses in the District of Kona, Island of Oahu. Also, his bill to amend Sec. 72 Civil Code with regard to licenses to keepers of hotels and victualling houses.

Rep. Apiki gave notice of a bill to amend the internal revenue laws.

Noble von Tempels read a first time by title his bill to transfer the island of Kahoolawe from the District of Lahaina to that of Wailuku.

Rep. Rickard gave notice of a bill to amend the act relating to the sale of land, Chap. 78, Laws of 1888.

Rep. Nawahi moved that the Committee on Education request the President of the Board of Education to present reports of all school agents on the amounts paid each teacher for the past year, and to the teachers' convention.

Rep. Kahookano thought a time should be mentioned.

Rep. Nawahi amended his resolution by adding "within fifteen days."

Rep. Paehalo thought five days enough.

The resolution passed with five days as the time of answer.

President Walker appointed as the select committee on Noble Horner's resolution: Reps. Kalua, Kauihi, Knudsen, Nobles Hind and Cornwell.

Rep. White moved that as it was common talk that aliens were in Government offices, therefore, resolved, that the Hon. J. A. Cummings be requested to present a statement of the names of such aliens, also to state the intention of the Cabinet in regard to continuing aliens in office, who have not been naturalized according to law.

The matter was treated as an ordinary question to Ministers and allowed to stand.

President Walker suggested that the resolution be addressed to His Majesty's Ministers.

Rep. White said the Minister of Foreign Affairs called himself the Premier when he announced the new Cabinet, and although that position was not mentioned in the Constitution, he addressed him as head of the Cabinet.

The matter was treated as an ordinary question to Ministers and allowed to stand.

Noble Isenberg gave notice of a meeting of the Education Committee Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The order of the day was taken up. Bill to amend Secs. 1 and 3, Chap. 70, Laws of 1888. It gives magistrates discretion of imposing a fine without imprisonment for violations of the optium law.

Minister Brown explained that the bill was introduced by the late Minister of Finance. It was the intention, however, of the Attorney-General to introduce a bill affecting other portions of the Act. Therefore, he moved this bill be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Rep. Rickard moved it be laid on the table to be considered with a bill of which notice had been given by the honorable member for Honolulu.

Rep. Lucas supported the motion, saying his bill was to regulate the importation and sale of optium.

Rep. Paehalo said the proper motion was to refer to the Judiciary committee, to which the other bills on the subject would be referred as they were introduced.

Rep. Brown supported the point raised by Rep. Paehalo, that the bill could only be passed, committed or rejected, at this stage. He moved it be referred to a Select committee to be considered on the subject.

Rep. Bush was in favor of a Select committee to consider all optium bills. As he was strongly opposed to optium he hoped he would be appointed on that committee.

Rep. Nawahi hoped it would not go to the present optium scandal committee, as that was too long-winded.

Rep. Kalua moved to amend Rep. Brown's motion by making the Select committee consist of seven members—three from the House and four from the Senate. The amendment was accepted and the motion was amended carried.

The House took recess from 12 to 1:30 o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

The House resumed at 1:30 and continued with the order of the day.

An Act to repeal Secs. 109 to 117, inclusive, Civil Code, relating to the vaccination of children.

Rep. Kahookano said he introduced the bill at the request of some of his constituents. He moved it be referred to the Sanitary Committee; carried.

An Act to amend the Act of 1889, providing aid for the establishment of hospitals for the benefit of sick and disabled Hawaiian seamen.

Minister Brown said the bill was introduced by the late Minister of Finance. Its object was to reduce the tax on passengers entering the kingdom, imposed by the country districts to $100, and to $2 a head to $1, and make the ship responsible for it. The bill also extended the meaning of "Hawaiian seamen" to all seamen employed on vessels of Hawaiian registry. He moved the bill pass to engrossment.

Rep. Kalua thought the tax would be taken from the passengers anyway. It would be better to repeal the law altogether, but for the present he would only move it be referred to the Finance Committee.

Rep. Rickard considered the bill a good one, and supported the motion to pass it.

Rep. R. W. Wilcox knew from his own experience, the last time he came from San Francisco, that the tax was obnoxious to passengers. This bill was very plain as it stood, and he thought it should pass.

The bill passed, to be read a third time on Friday.

An Act to amend Sec. 22, Chap. 55, Laws of 1876, relating to stamp duties, as amended by Sec. 1, Chap. 20, Laws of 1888.

Minister Brown explained that the object of the bill was to enable residents of the country districts to obtain the adhesive stamps required for affixing to documents. The Postmaster-General was to be charged with the distribution of these stamps through the country post-offices. He moved the bill be passed without hesitation.

Noble McCarthy thought the bill should go to a committee. The Finance Committee had found 22,000 and odd impressions stamps in the Custom House when the books called for. The blanks were distributed to merchants without account of the number, on the theory that the stamps were not negotiable till they passed over the counter. He thought the impression stamps should be abolished and adhesive stamps substituted. The bill should go to the Committee on Commerce.

Rep. Kalua moved it be referred to the Finance Committee; carried.

An Act to amend Chap. 31, Laws of 1889, to admit fertilizers into the kingdom free of duty.

Rep. Kalua moved the bill pass to be engrossed. It was intended to assist in developing our agricultural interests.

Rep. Kahookano moved the bill be referred to a committee. It was an important bill and a committee should ascertain whether it was for the benefit of the whole country or only of a few people.

Rep. Rickard thought there would have been no discussion of the bill if it had been referred to a committee. The honorable member for Kohala might as well have asked whether the fertilizers, if placed at the root of a tree, would benefit the whole tree or only a few branches. If the same was the case with the bill, it was the country, the case might be different. Even the barbers and the dentists here owed their living to the agricultural interests of the country.

Rep. White moved the bill be referred to a committee. It was possible that bad-smelling fertilizers cause much disease in the country.

Rep. Lucas did not see what the Sanitary committee had to do with it. It was not proposed to keep fertilizers out, duty or no duty. The bill was a very nominal one. He supported the motion to pass the bill.

Rep. Rickard explained that he was not speaking for his personal interest, as they used no fertilizers at Honolulu.

Noble Muller saw no reason for referring the bill to a committee. Fertilizers should be admitted free, also material for making fertilizers here.

Noble McCarthy agreed with the previous speaker. Agents came down here representing that certain fertilizers were suitable for all kinds of soils. Planters should be enabled to import materials cheaply, so that they could compound them here to suit different soils.

The bill passed to engrossment, to be read a third time Friday.

An Act to provide additional facilities in acquiring homesteads.

Rep. Brown moved the bill be referred to the public lands, Lands and Internal Improvements. Carried.

An Act to establish branch hospitals on the different islands.

Noble Marsden, saying the bill involved important changes in the laws relating to the public lands, moved it be referred to the Sanitary committee.

Rep. Rickard, introducer of the bill, accepted the motion, and the bill went to the Sanitary committee.

An Act to provide for a Police Justice for the District of Makawao, Island of Maui.

Rep. Rickard moved it be referred to the Judiciary committee.

Rep. Brown moved it pass to engrossment. No point of law was involved. The bill simply raised the District Justice to be a Police Justice the same as that of Wailuku and other Districts. It was due to the increased importance of the District that the change should be made.

Rep. Paehalo did not see the necessity of a Police Justice in Makawao, there being one at Wailuku close at hand.

Rep. Halstead spoke as the introducer of the bill, saying the reason for the change was that there was a large mixed population in the District, and it was necessary to increase the jurisdiction of the magistrate. It would be very inconvenient for residents to have to go to Wailuku whenever they wanted a Police Justice.

Rep. Paehalo did not see that sufficient cause had been shown for giving the magistrate of Makawao criminal jurisdiction over the whole island. Hana and other districts would be wanting police justices, and the magistrates in these places would have to get higher salaries.

Rep. Kalua agreed with previous speaker. Makawao was so near Wailuku that there was no necessity for the change. He had never heard of any difficulty from the present position of the magistrate.

Rep. Rickard supported the bill on the ground that changed conditions made the measure desirable. He intended to ask the House to pass a similar bill for his own district.

Noble Baldwin believed the time had come when Makawao should have a Police Court. In 1886-7 the fines collected in Makawao amounted to $5,613 and those in Wailuku $4,296, while in 1888-9 the amount for Makawao was $5,486 and for Wailuku $4,372. Their relative positions of importance, as shown by amounts of fines, had become reversed. The House had already passed a salary to a Police Justice for Makawao.

Rep. Paehalo was called to order by Noble von Tempels, for having spoken three times. The speaker smiled and held on the tenor of his way. As to the bill being already passed, he said items were often increased on the third reading. What he meant was that the time would come when increased salaries would be asked. Therefore he moved the bill be indefinitely postponed.

The bill passed, to be read a third time Friday.

An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the garnish process to facilitate the collection of debts," approved the 19th day of September, A. D. 1876.

The bill provides for extending the garnish process to the collection of debts from persons employed by the Government.

Rep. Rickard moved the bill be referred to the Judiciary committee, because it imposed onerous duties on the superiors of Government employees, as well as hardships on the employees. These might have wives and young children and it would be very hard to garnish half their salaries from month to month, especially when their financial troubles were caused by sickness in their families.

Rep. Lucas could not see why this bill should not be engrossed. Persons not in Government positions often had sickness in their families, and had as much right to be free from liability for their debts as officials. It was a bill to compel public servants to be honest, and it ought to pass to be read a third time tomorrow.

Noble McCarthy, who introduced the bill, did not think it was so harsh a measure as had been represented. It was only to prevent officials from being above the law, as some of them snapped their fingers at their creditors. If the bill was passed it would probably not need to be used, as if heads of Government offices were dragged into Court to answer for the debts of subordinates, they would soon fire those subordinates out. It was not those on small salaries who were most remiss in paying bills, but those on the larger salaries.

Rep. Brown sympathized with the object

Heavy Rains on Hawaii.

A letter from Lanapohoe, dated July 13th, says: "We have had a heavy rainfall extending along the whole coast, and the streams have been very high. Two bridges are washed out between Lanapohoe and Hilo. The Kaulahala bridge, about sixty feet long, has completely disappeared, also one near Hakalau. The Kinai was unable to land at Lanapohoe on account of heavy fog and rain. The roads are almost impassable, with landslides and washouts. Several plantations are at a stand still, owing to the motor heads being destroyed."

SUPREME COURT—JULY TERM.

MR. JUSTICE DOLE, PRESIDING.

Tuesday, July 15.

The King vs. Joe Correa. Larceny of fowls the property of Captain McIntyre. Appeal from Police Court, Honolulu. Tried before a foreign jury who return a verdict of guilty. Sentenced to three months' imprisonment at hard labor. A. Rosa assisted prosecution; C. W. Ashford for defendant.

The King vs. Arthur Johnstone. Libel. Paul Neumann files motion for discharge of defendant on the ground that the Crown failed to prosecute the indictment against him during the April term, 1890, of Supreme Court, in which term said indictment was found, and that no order was made by the Court during said term either changing the venue of this action or postponing the same as will be seen from the records.

As a similar motion was filed in the Freitas libel case, and the Attorney-General wished to be heard, the case was continued and a time will be fixed to hear the motion.

The King vs. Louis Seymour. Aiding a prisoner to escape. Plea of guilty. Sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor and to pay a fine of $100.

AT CHAMBERS—BEFORE BICKERTON, J.
In probate, estate of J. C. Kirkwood. Petition of W. O. Smith administrator for allowance of accounts, discharge, and a final order of distribution. The Court refers the accounts to a master, W. O. Smith, administrator, in person; F. M. Hatch and W. A. Whiting for the heirs.

The Tivoli Gaiety Company.

There was a large audience at the Opera House last evening when "Peck's bad boy" was presented by the Tivoli Gaiety Company. Harry Connors was Henry Peck, the bad boy. There was nothing to the play to arouse any enthusiasm among the audience, some parts of it falling very flat. The redeeming feature was the excellent singing of Messrs. W. H. Hamilton and Harry Gates. The former rendered "The old sexton" with telling effect. In a duet the two gentlemen sang beautifully. Mr. Wallace as Pat Duffy the policeman gave several songs. Mr. Harry Bell as the groceryman carried his part well.

On Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock "Peck's bad boy" will be repeated at a matinee performance, Saturday evening the company present "Forbidden Fruit."

A SCENE IN COURT.

Louis Seymour Receives Sentence and then Attempts to Kill Himself.

In the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, Louis Seymour, the expoliceman, who was charged with aiding and abetting J. R. Mills in his unsuccessful attempt to escape from the Station House, was brought before Mr. Justice Dole to receive sentence. He had withdrawn his plea of not guilty and entered one of guilty. After Mr. J. L. Kaulukou had spoken in mitigation on the prisoner's behalf, Deputy Attorney-General Creighton said that the prisoner had lent himself for a small sum to aid Mills in escaping from prison. What would call for more severity was the fact that the prisoner was a police officer in whom his superiors placed confidence. He had been trusted by them. Any man holding such a position who violates the confidence placed in him should be punished. He did not ask for the severest penalty, but he ought to receive a substantial punishment, and one that would be a lesson to others.

The Court—The facts bring the case in the first degree.
Mr. Creighton—They do, your honor.

The Court, addressing the prisoner, said—The fact of a plea of guilty is a favorable consideration. Your offense is heinous, but it is a breach of fidelity. You were false to your trust. There are elements of treachery in it which increases the offense. I sentence you to be imprisoned at hard labor for six months and to pay a fine of $100.

The prisoner—I thank you; it is a very lenient sentence.

At this point the prisoner, who was standing at the opposite end of a table at which the ADVERTISER'S representative was sitting writing, made a movement with his hands, that is, he placed them behind him inside of his coat, and again said "I had no sooner escaped his lips than he pulled out a revolver from his pant's pocket and pointed it close to his heart. By this time there was considerable confusion in the Court room. Nearly all present were on their feet, a good many made their escape from the room. The pistol merely snapped, and there was a slight relief. Seymour then tried to cock the pistol again and in so doing brandished it around considerably. He looked excited and seemed as if he did not know what he was doing. Quickly Capt. Folger picked up the chair the ADVERTISER'S representative had been sitting in, and making a dash at the prisoner, knocked him down. He was overpowered and Mr. George P. Castle took the pistol out of his hands and handed it to Mr. Justice Dole. Seymour, who said that the folks in the room looked mighty brave because he had not done it, was taken to the Station House.

Half an hour later he was asked by our reporter what made him make the attempt on his life. He said "he was innocent of the charge, and would sooner die than serve a moment on the reef. It would disgrace him. He had to hide the pistol the night before and the cartridges must have got wet—the reason they did not go off. He did not intend to harm anyone in the court room." He was handcuffed, and a police officer took him to Oahu Jail. The prisoner, who had been on bail, was very much excited, even when he went into Court before sentence was pronounced.

The Hyde-Hyde Wedding at Ware.
The following item in regard to one of our island boys is from the Springfield (Mass.) Daily Republican:

The marriage of Miss Lucy R. Hyde, second daughter of William S. Hyde, president of the Ware National bank, and Henry Knight Hyde, cashier of the national bank, was celebrated last evening at the bride's home on Maple street in that town, and was the center point of attraction for over 200 guests, most of them from out of town. It was a charming wedding. Delicate flowers adorned the rooms and hallways of the house, and Ingraham's orchestra of Worcester stationed in front of the house, furnished sweet music. The ushers were Dr. R. Leslie Carson, F. J. Fessenden of New York, C. B. Knight of Troy, N. Y., and A. T. Safford of Boston. Messrs. Fessenden and Safford were members of the groom's class and society at Williams college, where he was graduated in 1887. The bridemaids were Misses Maudie L. and Mary J. Johnson of Milford and Misses Bessie and Sylvia Hyde, sisters of the bride. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Dr. C. M. Hyde of Honolulu and Rev. Dr. A. E. P. Perkins of Worcester.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

The Second Day's Proceedings—A Fine Display of Work from Schools on the Other Islands.

After roll call Tuesday morning the regular order of exercises was resumed, which consisted mainly of a continuance of Monday's discussions.

Mr. Moore, in taking up his subject of higher arithmetic, instructed the teachers how to write and read numbers, proceeding through division to fractions. As to the latter he stated that, "common fractions are simply unexecuted division."

Miss Coursen continued with her class in primary teaching. The class for first year pupils certainly has done very well in writing. She failed, however, to tell, as many of the teachers would like, how she commenced and how she brought the pupils up to the point obtained. The drill in numbers was more nearly what is expected, showing in a comprehensive manner how she taught the subject.

Miss J. Deyo followed Miss Coursen with primary arithmetic. The time was taken up in discussing the way of teaching the youngest pupils, and in giving the advantages of the Grube method.

Mr. T. H. Gibson gave another talk on reading and questioning. During the instruction a discussion arose as to directing envelopes and to names. The Inspector-General spoke of the importance of teaching the subject. Mr. Lord brought out the difficulty of distinguishing by names as most natives have but one name, advocating that teachers should revert far enough to obtain more than one. John Unea told how promiscuously names of friends of the family were used as those of relations.

The tonic sol fa instruction was re-taken up before adjourning at noon.

Prof. Scott resumed his talk on composition, dwelling specially upon obtaining attention and securing reproduction. The suggestions offered can be successfully followed by pupils familiar with English, but those not having a fair command of the language would find it difficult to practice them.

During the same period occupied by Mr. Scott, Mrs. Thatcher was discussing, in another room, the subject of primary reading.

Mr. P. L. Lord took up his penmanship, reviewing what he gave Monday and furthering his work by pointing to instruction already given.

Perhaps one of the most noticeable features of the convention is the display of work from the various schools of the other islands. For variety and execution the exhibits are difficult to be outdone. The Board of Education should feel gratified at the results shown by these, and it would be a most gratifying thing to both the Board of Education and the teachers to have citizens and others interested in educational work to visit the room containing the exhibits. The members of the Legislature, or a committee appointed by the Legislature, should by all means inspect the work. The teachers and Board of Education combine in giving one and all an invitation.

Hog and Poultry Remedy

A Certain Cure for the Diseases of

HOGS AND POULTRY

1st. It puts your pigs in first-class condition.
2d. It stops cough, and regulates the bowels.
3d. It will keep sows healthy during pregnancy, and superinduce a sound progeny.
4th. It will arrest disease in every instance, if administered before the vital parts are beyond the reach of aid.
5th. It destroys worms and hastens maturity.
6th. It is a thorough preventive. Feeders who use it all the year round have no disease among their swine.
7th. It will repay its cost many times over in the extra pounds of pork it will make without extra feed. Hogs treated with it will gain two or more pounds, while others are gaining one. The reason is it regulates the digestive functions and enables the animal to convert every particle of food eaten into pork, involving no waste. Hundreds of testimonials from breeders in England, Germany, Scotland, Ireland, the United States, New Zealand, and Australia.

TESTIMONIALS:

"Dr. Hass' Hog Remedy is a certain preventive of disease, making pigs thrive well and gain flesh fast."
(Sd.) J. N. WALTON, Birmingham, Eng.
(Forveyor to H. M. the Queen and H. R. H. the Prince of Wales.)
"Our experience has shown that Hass' Remedy will prevent disease in hogs and that the increase in flesh by its use more than covers the cost."
"GILLILAND, HACKWORTH & BUCKLES,
"Coffeyville, Kansas.
"A good investment as a pork producer, to say nothing of its preventing disease."
"L. R. WOODS, Keene, Kentucky."
"I do not think it safe to be without Hass' Remedy to prevent disease. After a thorough test I am sure it is a valuable medicine as well as a pork producer."
