WEST MAUI NOTES.

Mr. H. G. Treadway took possession of his office as Sheriff of Maui, Lanai and Molokai this morning. The honorable and universally esteemed Thomas Everett vacating after thirty-six years of continued service—first as deputy-sheriff, appointed in 1856, and latterly as sheriff, appointed in 1874. A gentleman full of years and honor; may peace and prosperity be with him through life is the sincere wish of all who know him.

Mr. W. H. Daniels, recently appointed Police and District Judge for the district of Waialuku, Maui, heard his first case this forenoon. It seems natural to old residents of these parts to speak of Judge Daniels, owing to the fact that the present incumbent's father, Wm. Daniels, Sr., was judge of this court for twelve years or more.

David N. Johnson, who was brought up from Honolulu recently to stand trial as gross cheat, was found guilty and fined $50 and costs, amounting to $21.80—total $71.80, which was paid by Mr. Bruce Cartwright, and the prisoner went free.

Ahona, the prisoner charged with rape committed at Waihee, at a preliminary examination before his Honor Judge Noah Keopikoi, sitting as a committing magistrate, Tuesday, June 30, was committed for trial by jury to the Circuit Court which convenes next Tuesday the 7th.

The port of Kahului is without a vessel, the Skagit having sailed the past week with a full cargo of Paia sugar.

The weather has been excessively warm and without rain, vegetation beginning to show the effects of the sun's scorching.

Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert and family with their visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. Penney and family, returned from a most delightful sojourn at Olinda, Haleakala.

The general public health is good. 2-0

THE DIVING CONTEST.

A special train left the O. R. & L. Co.'s depot on Saturday afternoon for Remond Grove, where a diving contest was to take place between the noted Hawaiian diver Pelehu and Captain Beach, the man-fish. Over sixty went down to witness this novel contest. Captain Beach went down into the tank first and remained under one minute and forty-nine seconds. Pelehu maintained his reputation as champion diver by staying under two minutes and fifty-six seconds. Pelehu is nearly eighty years of age and in his younger days was known to stay under over five minutes. Good boy, Pelehu. Come again, Captain.

A traveling man who chanced to be in the store of E. V. Wood, at McKees Rocks, Pa., says while he was waiting to see Mr. Wood, a little girl came in with an empty bottle labeled Chamberlain's Pain Balm and said: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. Fifty cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.

Daily Bulletin

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, Not established for the benefit of all.

MONDAY, JUNE 6, 1892.

Will the Advertiser kindly state when Mr. Macfarlane has expressed himself in the BULLETIN upon the Memorial Day episode? If it cannot do so, it should own up to a deliberate fabrication. The case championed by our contemporary must be a weak one, when it has to be bolstered up by a calculated untruth.

The Legislature has decided to squelch all investigation into the American Minister's alleged interference in local affairs in his Memorial Day oration. That is certainly within the competence of the Legislature, but it will likely fail to increase the respect of the great American nation, amongst whose characteristics are a love of independence and a disposition to champion weak countries with which she is on friendly terms. Americans will not defend their Ministers to other nations in anything that they would condemn in foreign Ministers accredited to their own Government.

THE MARIPOSA'S DEPARTURE.

The S. S. Mariposa resumed her voyage to the Colonies at 10 o'clock Saturday night. There was a large number of people to see her off, including many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ovide Musin, Mr. Scharf and Dr. Marcuse. The Royal Hawaiian band was on the wharf and under the direction of Baudmarter Berger played several selections, also singing Aloha Oe and Alii Wela to the intense delight of the passengers on board. Mrs. Musin sang a selection from the deck of the steamer, Ovide Musin accompanying her on the violin. She was loudly applauded and had to respond to an encore. As the steamer slowly left her dock, the band played Auld Lang Syne, Star Spangled Banner, The Girl I Left Behind Me, German and British National Anthems and Hawaii Pono. While Mr. Berger conducted these numbers his handkerchief was tied at the end of his baton. The Musins will make their first stop at Auckland, playing there a week and then visiting Dunedin and Wellington. After that they leave for Sydney.

BAND CONCERT.

The Royal Hawaiian Military Band under the leadership of Professor H. Berger will give a concert at Emma Square this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The following is the program:

- PART I. March—Vienna.....Schrammel Overture—Raymond.....Thomas Finale—Lucia.....Donzetti Selection—Rose of Castille.....Balle Hone Ae Nel. Wai Mapuna. Ahea Oe. PANT II. Medley—Night in New York....Brooks Fantasy—Dance in the Green.....Fantasy—Dance in the Green.....Eilenberg Waltz—Where the Citron's Bloom.....Waltz—Where the Citron's Bloom.....Strauss Quadrille—The Rat.....Strauss Hawaii Pono.

AN ISLAND BOY.

Heald's College Journal, San Francisco, for May, has the following: "The members of the Initiatory Book-keeping Class who have just completed their examination papers on the nature and classification of accounts, have been so prompt, neat, careful, and generally correct in their work that Professor Capp asks for their honorary mention." In the list given of "the students whose faithfulness to their duties are thus commended" appears the name of Willie Nott, son of Mr. John Nott of Honolulu. It is pleasant to see island boys holding their own so creditably.

HOW FAR A CHILD TRAVELS.

Many a healthy man, if he has to walk a mile or two, complains of the exertion and fatigue. But few realize the distance covered by a healthy child, and how we grumble when we find that the little ones so soon need new shoes! A gentleman of Pittsburgh recently made some curious experiments as to the distance covered by a child. An instrument fixed to the ankle of an eighteen-month-old baby showed that in the course of a day it had taken 6,483 steps, which, allowing six inches to the step, makes something like three-quarters of a mile for the toddler's ramblings. He next put a pedometer on his nine-year-old boy, which revealed the fact that the urchin daily traveled an average of about ten miles.—Examiner.

A Pittsburg bicyclist has just started on a tour of the world on his wheel. The prospect is that he will never accomplish the journey as there are few men who possess the nerve and resources of Thomas Stevens, the only bicyclist who has ever put a girdle round the earth. Stevens would have been turned back several times on his journey had he not shown pluck and presence of mind that are not given to every man who rides a wheel. S.F. Chronicle.

THE LEGISLATURE.

EIGHTH DAY.

MONDAY, JUNE 6, 1892.

Morning Session.

House convened at 10 o'clock, President Walker in the chair. Prayer by Chaplain Waiama. Minutes of Saturday's business were read by Secretary McCarthy and Interpreter Wilcox and were approved.

Rep. Akina, from the district of Waimea, Kanai, presented the following petitions: (1), that the law relating to the segregation of lepers be repealed; (2), that people on Kauai afflicted with leprosy and now residing at Kalalau be permitted to remain at that place; (3), that the law relating to compulsory vaccination be repealed. All referred to Sanitary Committee. (4), That the introduction of free rice be prohibited. To Committee on Commerce.

Minister Spencer reported as having been signed by Queen Liliuokalani bills (No. 1) relating to the payment of expenses of courts not otherwise provided for amounting to $2000; (2), appropriating the sum of $25,000 for the expenses of the Legislature of 1892.

The President appointed Noble Cornwell and Reps. Kanehahala and Kamaoaha as a committee to wait on the Chief Justice and request his presence to swear in Noble Thurston who had just presented himself. The Noble was duly sworn in and took his seat.

Noble Neumann from the Judiciary Committee presented a majority report on the matters touching upon the eligibility of members of the Privy Council and attorneys to sit as members of the Assembly. The report was opposed to considering the members of the Privy Council as executive officers of the Government and approved their sitting in the Assembly. Rep. Smith and Noble Peterson joined in the report. Rep. Ashford presented a minority report on the same subject, signed by himself and Rep. White. Their opinion was that members of the Privy Council were executive officers of the Government. They had extensive power in the granting of pardons, etc. On motion the report was made the special order of the day for tomorrow.

Rep. Kamaoaha read for the first time a bill to amend Section 57 of the Civil Code by inserting the words "salt salmon" in place of "merchandise."

The same member offered the following resolution: "WHEREAS the Honorable E. C. Macfarlane has before this House charged the U. S. Minister with 'unwarrantable action on a recent public occasion'—action which could only be intended to interfere with and obstruct the Administration, without naming the occasion, or defining the action referred to; and whereas, there has heretofore been no opportunity for this House to express its opinion on this subject; Now therefore be it resolved, that it is the sentiment of this House that such language and action of the Honorable E. C. Macfarlane concerning the Minister Resident of a friendly foreign Government is entirely uncalled for and without justification by any facts which have been presented to this House; and be it further resolved, that all minutes relating to this matter be expunged from the records of this House.

Noble Marsden was in favor of the passage of the resolution; he considered that it was the wisest course. He was willing to give Noble Macfarlane all due credit for being jealous of any slight which may have been considered as cast upon the Hawaiian Kingdom, but he thought that the action of the honorable member was hasty and ill-considered. He had read carefully the address of the American Minister as delivered on Memorial Day and only by assumption could any reference be found to our local affairs and no one had a right to construe that assumption into a direct reference. He hoped that this would be the last heard of this matter.

Noble Macfarlane said that besides his question on the matter there had been a question addressed to the Minister of Foreign Affairs by Representative Bush, that the Cabinet say before the House all the correspondence on the subject. He had not heard anything more on this matter outside of the Minister's asking for further time. Thought it would be unwise to take action on this resolution until that matter was laid before the House. When that happened he would have something to say to justify his course in the matter.

Rep. Ashford favored the resolution. He had heard the resolution read by Noble Macfarlane, in which he proposed that the American Minister be rebuked. He could not understand how that could be when there were no charges or specifications presented; it was generally understood that it was for a speech made by the Minister on Decoration Day at Nuuanu Cemetery, but all were left in the dark relative to the objectionable portion.

Noble Young—I am in favor of this resolution and I trust it will be adopted. I know of no way of preventing members of this House asking questions of the Ministers, neither do I know how to prevent the answers of the Minister questioned, and more particularly so when the answer follows the question with such cut and dry rapidity as did the answer of His Excellency the Minister of Foreign Affairs to the question of Hon. Noble Macfarlane the other day, looking toward rebuking His Excellency John L. Stevens, the American Minister, for some supposed unwarrantable language used by him on a recent public occasion. At the same time it will be well to bear in mind that any member of this House having the temerity to spring absurd and nationally hurtful questions the answers to which he may or may not know to be cut and dry in the mind of the Minister interrogated places himself, and it may be the Minister also, in the hands of the members of this honorable body, to use their only remedy for being made appear to tacitly acquiesce in that which they do not endorse or even perfectly understand. In order, therefore, that the Nobles and Representatives composing this Legislature may have an opportunity of nipping untimely insults in the bud and of setting themselves right before their constituents, I solicit a unanimous vote in favor of the adoption of this resolution. I regret exceedingly that a gentleman possessed of such prudence and general good judgment as the honorable Noble should have allowed himself, being chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, to be made use of for the introduction of such an ignominious question. His child, adopted or otherwise, bears no resemblance to, and cannot be fathered by this House.

Minister Parker said that a question propounded the other day by Rep. Bush to him was that all the correspondence in the matter touched on by the question of Noble Macfarlane be laid on the table. He would say that the Government did not deem it proper to do so unless so instructed by a resolution of the House and not by the question of any one member. With regard to the cut and dried manner in which the question and answer seemed to have been presented he would say that Noble Macfarlane had called on him before coming into the House, had asked him questions on the subject of the policy of the Government toward the American Minister, and had left after stating that he (Macfarlane) intended to bring in a question officially before the House to the Minister on the subject. Minister Parker had simply prepared himself in a simple way, not knowing whether it would be effective or not, but it happened to fit. I have a reply from the American Minister to the Hawaiian Government but do not feel called to place it before the House without it is the expressed sense of the members.

Noble Young said he had no intention to cast any serious reflection upon the Minister, but the manner in which the question and answer came gave no chance for any other construction. Rep. Kamaoaha was in doubt whether the questions proposed by Noble Macfarlane and Rep. Bush were in accord with Rule 94. The resolution passed, after further debate, by 33 to 13.

THE TREASON CASES.

Preliminary Examination Before Judge Dole.

MONDAY, JUNE 6.

Judge Dole opened his Court at 10 o'clock this morning, when the prisoners charged with treason were presented. His Honor rendered a decision on defendants' motion for their discharge, giving reasons for his refusal to grant the motion.

He held that plotting was an overt act under this charge of "treason by plotting." Where arrangements are made for providing arms and cartridges, and organizing squads—all these are overt acts. Authorities are quoted for holding that overt acts are evidence of intention, any act of conspiring, etc. Any organizing, recruiting, swearing in recruits, for the purpose of establishing a republic, is an overt act, because there can be no republic here without setting aside the Queen.

There were only two meetings as to which more than one witness had testified of plotting; and on the evidence of these alone could these defendants be affected. The object of getting a new constitution by force of arms was clearly testified to by several witnesses. The remark by Nawaakoa about setting aside the Queen was not clearly established at the particular meeting mentioned by him.

At the meeting of May 8 the object was more clearly set forth as being to establish a republic and set aside the Queen by force of arms. All these things about recruiting members and procuring arms show intention to destroy the government. Kila, Manuel Espinda, Jim Crow and Kahahawai are not implicated in these meetings by more than one witness, therefore it is my duty to discharge them. In the case of Baloka there is no evidence whatever. He is discharged without any implication against him as far as these proceedings go.

All the others were at one or another of these two meetings, the evidence against them, respectively, being of various strength and, as regards the 8th of May, most pronounced. They are held over for further examination.

The five defendants whom the Court discharged were then motioned to retire, and they walked out of the box with satisfied expressions of countenance.

THE DEFENSE.

Mr. Hartwell addressed the Court, saying they should present evidence now to show that there was no intention to act in conflict with the Queen's wishes and also that the evidence of witnesses for the prosecution was not true.

Attorney-General Whiting—Counsel means that they are going to present a defense. Mr. Hartwell—Just so. KAHAWAII, one of the defendants just discharged, sworn—Was a member of the league spoken of in evidence; it was a patriotic league, with love of the land and equal rights as its objects, also love of the Queen; was at Bipiikane's can't remember how many times, at Kila's once.

Q.—At Ashford's? Mr. Creighton objects and objection is sustained. Q.—At what other places? A.—At Ashford's, I think twice; that was all; can't remember being at Bush's, Printer's lane; Geo. Nawaakoa was present at some of the meetings; Nawaakoa said something, that we must prepare ourselves with pistols, so that in case of arrest by the police we could resist said so at meeting at Bipiikane's; saw Nawaakoa with pistol at meeting; that was only one I noticed with pistol, because he took it off and showed it; don't remember hearing Wilcox say anything about getting a new constitution.

Q.—Did Wilcox say anything about an attempt to dethrone the Queen. Mr. Creighton objects on the ground of the ruling already made. After further argument the question is allowed, the Court observing that the examination was not so technical as a trial. An answer to a leading question had not so much weight as another.

Witness—Evidence of Geo. Nawaakoa was not true, where he stated that Wilcox told us to buy guns and that this was the only way to gain the objects; did not understand what Ashford said, as he spoke in English; don't recollect if anything was said about promulgating a new Constitution; when oath was administered the clause about death to traitors was intended to restrain strangers from divulging the business; we never talked about dethroning the Queen, nothing was ever said on that subject; we thought we would think the matter over and have somebody that was decent submit the question of equal rights to the Legislature.

Cross-examined by Mr. Rosa.—Equal rights we were after were between the poor and the rich; the equal rights wanted are in regard to the property qualification of voters for Nobles; maintain that under present Constitution the natives are deprived of their rights by the property qualification. Q.—Did the natives ever have the right to vote for Nobles? Mr. Hartwell—Are we going into a political discussion?

Mr. Rosa—We want to show whether there is any meaning in this expression of "equal rights" as used. Witness—No; think some had the right in old times; don't know who they were; Kalsaka had the right of appointing Nobles; the people had nothing to say in it; the subject was discussed at the league meetings; we went into details to submit to the Legislature; no records were kept of the meetings; the secrets for which the death penalty was appointed were matters of love to the country, equal rights, etc.; attended some public meetings at the old Armory; don't remember talk there like that; don't recollect hearing anybody there say "we want equal rights" heard some talk at election but did not understand it, there was no explanation given; Wilcox or Bipiikane may have said at public meetings that we couldn't get equal rights from the Queen, I don't recollect; don't think much about the oath to keep the secrets; know an oath is binding, but don't consider an oath like that much; was a police officer two years ago; that oath is not binding because there is no law behind it; don't recollect having sentries at meetings; took oath in company with the others at each meeting I attended; all I remember about explanations prior to oath being given was what I said already about love of the land, etc.; nothing was said about a new constitution; I am a member of executive council, didn't attend any of its meetings; sometimes when I went it was all over; no, I never attended any council meetings; it was not told me that men were to be divided into squads, don't recollect that it was ever mentioned; I was appointed a committee for my district; my district was Nuunuu Valley, I am the only member I know in my district; I am telling the absolute truth; had no title except a committee to represent my district; nothing was said about my duties, they had not been made known to me; (questioned in detail as to each defendant) don't remember anybody but myself on the committee; was appointed by Wilcox; thought I had no right to ask him about my duties; have been at meetings of people where committees were appointed, but always came late and never heard of duties of committees; have visited the Legislature sometimes.

Mr. Hartwell objects that Christmas will be here before this line of cross-examination is over. Mr. Rosa (warmly)—Counsel must see the point. This witness is not telling the truth. He says he has always come late to meetings. Witness—Wilcox is president of the league; don't know who is vice-president; don't know which is chief or deputy, Wilcox or Ashford; they are the leaders, first the foreigner would speak and then Wilcox; they would consult and then tell us what to do; don't know what they told us; I paid no attention to what they said; there was no secretary; don't know which of the two (A. and W.) took down the names; am not sure who was the treasurer, or that anybody subscribed funds; I never subscribed anything and don't know of anybody having subscribed; have not a gun, my house was searched for one; didn't take it across the way; never owned or fired a gun in my life.

Geo. MARKHAM, sworn—First heard of the league latter part of March or first of April; Geo. Nawaakoa and Robt. Wilcox were among first to speak of it; Wilcox said the Queen wanted to promulgate a new constitution, and he asked me what I thought of it; I asked him how it was proposed to promulgate the constitution, and he said it was to be backed by force of arms, the Queen's Guards and the police to be employed; I told him I didn't like the proposition, that we should look to the Legislature for a constitutional convention; told him he was a member of the Legislature and he should bring up a constitutional connection; I was also asked by hangers-on and scullions and favorites of the Palace, also by a couple of soldiers, by Kanui and Sam Nowlein, at the Elele office, the office of the Palace party; I answered them that I didn't believe in the proposition, but wanted to work through the Legislature; they told me the Queen wanted the old prerogatives back which were taken from Kalakaua; I told Kanui and others I did not approve of the proposed measures, that they would be dangerous to peace and property; heard Nawaakoa's evidence and a great deal of it is false; it is false in regard to getting firearms; saw Nawaakoa with a pistol at meetings but nobody else; Nawaakoa advised members to arm with pistols in case of surprise; first meeting I attended was at Ashford's; Ashford told me object was to ward off promulgation of the constitution that the Queen was expected to proclaim before the meeting of the Legislature; told him I would join any organization that proposed to act legally, but none that would use force of arms; Sam Nowlein is Captain of the Household Guards; his proposition to me was that the Queen wanted to promulgate a new constitution; I told him I was against it; he said it was intended to arrest the leaders of the 1887 movement, that Chief Justice Judd gave a decision, saying that victorious revolution was not treason, and therefore if the old constitution was promulgated the revolution of 1887 would be treason.

COLLOQUIAL NAMES FOR SHIPS.

[American Notes and Queries.] As opposed to "cutter" and "clipper," legitimate class names of vessels, from their cutting and clipping the water, the title of "bruiser" is applied to a bluff-bowed vessel, one that bruises or breaks the water, with which compare French "briser," to dash or break a wave, "briser," breakers.

This action upon the water recalls the suggested connection between "bruiser" and "bruiser," "skute" and "skud" or "skoot" and "schooner" and "sonon." Wet vessels, that take much water on deck, are known as "drying-bellies" from their plunging into the waves instead of riding over them. A vessel that pitches heavily is called a "pile-diver"—another term that can be appreciated only by those who have felt such pounding, well described in German as "stamp-fretten," to pitch when riding at anchor. A lighter degree of somewhat the same kind of movement seems to be the source of the legitimate terms "skip-jack" and "dandy," applied to light, speedy vessels. "Tea-wagon," formerly applied to the ships of the East India Company, from their usual cargo, is a colloquial example of the large class of ship names referring to cargo and trade. The wagon idea appears again in "wheel-barrow" and applied to steamboats having a large stern paddle-wheel, which gives it a general appearance, fully justifying the name. In allusion to their characteristic shape, the canal-boatman calls his boat a "chunker" and the sections of it "boxes." Under the same idea "butcher-box" was formerly applied in England to a beamy trading vessel. The ship as a box is regularly exemplified by German "Buse," Dutch "buysse," Spanish "bucha" and English "buss," a kind of fishing boat. So "monitor" and "unboat," originally proper names, are now names of kinds of vessels. In nautical nomenclature "ship" and "bark" have particular technical meanings, though their almost indiscriminate use ashore, and such compounds as "shipmate," "embark," and the like, perhaps indicate that formerly their meanings were more general. "Bark" however, is used for any kind of a vessel by the poets, doubtless, owing to its convenience for rhyme, and the sailor familiarly, affectionately and perhaps less poetically, applies the diminutive "barkie" to a favorite vessel or that to which he belongs. Indeed, "vessels," though too comprehensive, is the only term strictly applicable to any kind of craft—except the very term just slipped from the pen. Anything intended to float and move by pole, oar, sail or steam, is known to the sailor as "craft." Resorting again to analogy, as French "batiment" is a building and particularly a vessel, and if "craft" is from Anglo-Saxon "craeftan," to build, the "guess" that "frigate" is from Latin "fabricata" (sc. navis) is worthy of consideration. Tacitus uses the Latin word in reference to ship-building in Annals 14 29: "Pallius Suetonius naves fabricatur."

When in need of SOAP that you will be better suited every way by going to a store that keeps a large assortment of the article required. We believe it may interest you to know that this store is that place. This week we call your attention to a new soap in this market. As the manufacturers have not been in business for centuries they are willing to part with their products for less money than ordinary er houses, and you receive the benefit. Jas. S. Kirk & Co. are striving to make as good an article as the other soap makers and their Shandon Bell Soap is equal to the best. These cuts do not represent the size of the cakes, but the difference is in the price. The store that sells the best soap will sell the most soap. You are a judge of good soap.

INSURE IN THE Equitable Life Assurance

Society of the United States.

An Eminently Conservative and Safe Company.

FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

The consideration of first importance in judging of the condition of any financial institution (and notably of a life assurance company, the majority of whose contracts extend over long periods of years) is its surplus strength. The Equitable has, over and above all liabilities, a larger surplus than any other assurance company.

Assets, Dec. 31, 1891, $136,198,518.38
LIABILITIES, including the Reserve on all existing Policies, (4 per cent. Standard) and Special Reserve (toward the establishment of a 3 1/2 per cent. valuation) of $1,500,000 109,905,537.82
Surplus, $26,292,980.56

This Surplus remains after making provision for every obligation, on a rigid calculation of Liabilities based on the standard prescribed by the Insurance Law of the State of New York, which assumes that Assets will be invested so as to realize interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum. In addition to this, in a spirit of conservatism, the Directors of the Society, on the recommendation of its Finance Committee, have set aside a Special Additional Reserve, looking towards even a more stringent and conservative future standard of valuation than the law now prescribes.

AMERICAN LETTER.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28, 1892.

PACIFIC COAST EVENTS.

The preliminary examination of Illinois Wise, the colored cook of the barkentine W. H. Dimond, charged with murdering a Chinaman in the harbor of Honolulu, was commenced
before United States Commissioner
Sawyer last week.

A pitiful case has just come to the notice of the people of Oakland.
Not long since a man and his wife and two months old child, hailing from Hawaii, arrived at Oakland where they have since made their home. The wife was taken ill not long after their arrival and the two doctors called in failed to decide what ailed her, although they had very grave suspicions in regard to the nature of the disease. A third doctor was called into consultation and at once decided that it was a case of leprosy. The family are about heart-broken and the people living in their neighborhood are very much alarmed. As yet no pesthouse has been prepared for the afflicted woman, but something will be done
within the next few days.

Jos. A. Devoto of this city has been appointed California representative at the Italo-American exposition
for the celebration of the fourth centenary of the discovery of America by Columbus. It will be held in Genoa, and will open in July and close in December. The exposition commission earnestly desire that Americans should take a leading part in an exhibition in which their national pride is to an extent interested, and that may tend to increase the commerce between Italy and the United States.

The crew of the ship St. Charles,
blown up at sea on the Oregon coast,
reached San Francisco last Wednesday on board the steamer Willamette Valley. The second mate "Buck" Flynn was terribly injured and will probably die. He received a great hole in his scalp, and his legs from his body down were burned to a crisp. Captain Chapman had his spine broken and has since died.

California has been busy the past week entertaining the Editors' Convention. About 600 delegates were present from the Western and Southern States, and they have been wined
and dined and shown the principal places of interest in the State. They are delighted with their trip to the Golden State. The excursion will start on the return trip Friday. But one event has occurred to mar the pleasure of their visit, and that was an accident which occurred, not to one of their own party, but to Fred C. Wells, a member of Battery B of the Second Artillery. Wells for nearly seven years was Sergeant Bugler of the Battery, but he resigned
a short time ago and has since served as a private. To add eclat to the occasion and in respect to Gov.
H. H. Markham, a guard of honor of twenty picked men from Battery B
had been detailed to attend an excursion on the bay given the visiting editors. No one knows how the accident happened, but in some mysterious manner Fred C. Wells, who was detailed to fire the first salute,
had his hand blown off at the wrist.
He narrowly escaped death, but will be maimed for life.

It is said that extortion is being practiced in the public schools of this city under the direction of the teachers and with the approval and consent of the Board of Education.
Girl High School graduates are forced to pay a large amount and if they refuse to do so are excluded from the class exercises.

Opium amounting to about $1000
worth was smuggled in on the Ura-tulla. The two men who were hurrying away from the vessel dropped the valise containing the opium on finding they were pursued and made good their escape. Inspector Noyes and Patterson captured the booty.

Abc. Jones, the stage robber, has been sentenced to twenty years in the State Prison.

State Senator E. H. Heacock of Santa Barbara has been appointed Standing United States Court Commissioner by Judges McKenna and Morrow concurring. He has also been appointed Examiner and Referee by Judge McKenna. He at once took the oath of office and is now installed in the office formerly occupied by Commissioner Houghton.

Senator Stanford is thinking of giving his Nob Hill residence in this city to the State to be converted into a free public library.

The latest intelligence in connection with the Nicaragua Canal project is that the Bank of California, in this city, has been made the local agent of ex-Senator Warner Miller, President of the company. The arrangement was effected during Mr.
Miller's late visit to the city and coast.

The Republican delegates to the National Convention will leave this city June 1st for Minneapolis in a special Pullman car.

Rev. Dr. Vidaviv, rabbi of the oldest Hebrew congregation in the State, has been paid $1200 by a dissatisfied congregation to resign from the pastorate of Sherith Israel.

Mrs. Frates, a leper, disappeared from her sister's home in Oakland last week and nothing is known of her whereabouts, although it is thought she has taken refuge on a Portuguese ranch in Contra Costa County.

Elder Miller of Pasadena died recently and left a widow and a fortune of from $250,000 to $500,000.
The bulk of this was left to his widow and many thousands to various charitable institutions and missions. He failed to leave anything to his adopted daughter, because she refused to remain a celibate and go to India as a missionary, and insisted upon marrying a worthy young man. Owing a slight error in the drawing up of the will the daughter will get half the fortune and the churches and missions will mourn

their loss.

The melting of the snow in the Sierras is causing fears of an overflow of the Sacramento river.

The steamer Oceanic arrived from Hongkong and Yokohama May 21st.
Among the passengers was Lieut. J.
H. Hetherington of the U. S. steamer Marion, who was recently acquitted of the murder of Gower Robinson at Yokohama. He was accompanied by his wife and child. There have been heavy rains followed by floods in different parts of Japan.
On the 20th ultimo a slight shock of earthquake was felt at Tokio, and two violent ones at Nagoya, but no damage was done.
