TO-MORROW'S DOINGS.

AFTERNOON Legislature, 1.

THE HAWAIIAN COINAGE.

ITS ACTUAL VALUE.

Our new born friend, the Daily Hawaiian, has already become infected with the prevailing disease of the country, one of the symptoms of which is a desire to enlighten the public upon the subject of the National currency, and the whys and wherefores of the rise and fall of exchange. The infant has a mild attack, however, and with vigorous treatment, begun in time, we hope it may survive. A nice little story is told, in last Friday's issue, about Mr. C. E. Williams going into the Bank of California and producing $150 worth of our silver certificates, which the teller told him were worth 95 cents on the dollar; on the basis of which the Hawaiian jumps at the conclusion that, as the certificates represented silver, the silver itself was worth 95 cents on the dollar. This looks plausible enough, but we do not know the date or circumstances of the transaction. The Bank of California is the agent of Bishop & Co., and they may have been willing to take the risk of accepting the certificates at 95 cents, forwarding them to the Honolulu house, where they would be worth 100 cents, and making the five per cent. less the then cost of exchange. But what the Bank of California may or may not have said about what they would give for $150 worth of silver certificates has nothing to do with what Hawaiian coin is worth. There is no need of there being any doubt as to the value of the coin, it is simply a matter of computation from fixed tables.

The following is made up from the tables of the U. S. Mint, and shows the exact real value of the several U. S. silver coins. The Hawaiian coinage is on a similar basis:

Denomination	Finesness	Weights in grs silver	Weights in grs alloy	Gross weight in grains	Value of silver contained
$1	900	371.252	41.25	412.502	.90002
1/2	900	173.61	19.29	192.90	.42088
1/4	900	86.805	9.645	96.45	.21844
1/10	900	34.722	3.858	38.58	.08417

For value in San Francisco deduct 2 1/2 per cent.

From this it appears that a Hawaiian $1 coin has 90 cents worth of silver in it, and that $1 in half dollars, quarters or dimes contain but 84 cents worth of silver. But although a Hawaiian Dollar has 90 cents worth of silver in it, it can not be sold for 90 cents in San Francisco, any more than a handful of quartz containing 90 cents worth of silver is worth that amount. It is worth 90 cents, less the mint charge of refining, which is 1 1/2 per cent. It costs 1 per cent. for freight and insurance on the coin from here to San Francisco. A Hawaiian Dollar is therefore worth to a Honolulu debtor who wishes to pay a San Francisco creditor, in coin, 90 cents less cost of transportation 1 per cent., less cost of putting it in a marketable condition 1 1/2 per cent., or 87 1/2 cents. The other denominations, by a similar computation are worth 81 1/2 cents on the dollar.

The question may be asked, if Hawaiian coin is of the same weight and fineness with U. S. coin, why should it not pass for the same? The answer is simply this: The American Congress has seen fit to make a law that 90 cents worth of silver stamped in a certain way shall be called, and shall pass for $1; and that 42 cents worth of silver similarly stamped shall pass for, and be called a half dollar. The same amount of silver stamped in any other way is therefore good for us more, and is worth only that amount less the cost of changing it into the legalized form.

THE LAWMAKERS.

The largest and handsomest member is the Honorable Noble Paul Isenberg.

One o'clock sessions admit of Noble Macfarlane's having breakfast before attending.

President Rhodes presides over the House in a masterly manner—without fear or favor.

Why is the Saturday Press like the Report of the Minister of Finance? Because its full of Gibson.

During the debate on the Corporation Act last Saturday, Noble Widemann talked a good deal but didn't say much.

The Finance Committee began work in earnest to-day. The Attorney General's department is first honored. Prepare for developments.

The only ones who have not spoken on the floor, to date, are Nobles Kuhlani, Bush, Kanoa, Parker, Martin and Kaee.

There is a standing bet of ten dollars that Mr. Kamakele can produce the greatest number of petitions, with the most signatures, of any man in the House.

Why is the Report of the Minister of the Interior like the Attorney General? Because its lame.

Why is it like Governor Dominis? Because its thin and says but little.

Why is it like John Lot Kaulukou? Because what it does say doesn't amount to anything.

Why is it like E. K. Lilikalani? Because its flat.

A FAIR THAT WILL BE "FAIR."

It is undoubtedly true that Fairs have been brought into considerable disrepute in some places by the unfair devices of the Fair ones by whom they are gotten up and managed. No objection of this kind can be urged against this Library Fair. A Fair valuation will be placed on all goods and they will be sold so far as possible at the same prices at which they can be purchased at retail at the stores. No one who patronizes this Fair will receive any unfair treatment or have any reason to complain of having fared badly.

THE SATURDAY PRESS AND MR. GIBSON.

The lurid phenomenon who inspires the editorials of the Saturday Press should have Mr. Gibson's life insured forthwith. To be sure the law does not allow a person to insure another's life unless he has an interest in the insured; but we think that the Press has a larger insurable interest in the life of the aforesaid than any other man, woman or child in existence. We sadly fear that were Mr. Gibson to be removed from the scenes which are won't to be made glad by his presence, that the Saturday Press would scarce survive to mourn his loss.

We all know that Mr. Gibson is a gay deceiver; that he has no more principal than a hawk in a hen roost, and that he is not to be trusted further than you can fling a bull by the tail; but what of it!

If you catch him stealing your chickens, neighbor, give him fits, and we will shout "haul in" and do our best to help you put him in the lock-up. But if you are going to kill him, take a rapier, not a bludgeon. It is as effective and a great deal cleaner.

THE LEGISLATURE

MONDAY, MAY 5.

The House assembled at 1 P. M. After prayer by the Chaplain, the Secretary read the minutes of Saturday's proceedings, which were finally adopted.

Petitions being in order, Mr. Kamakele presented one from Makawao, that employers be prohibited from imprisoning their employees when absent from sickness or any other pitikia. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Kamealii, a petition from Wailuku, that all fathers having four or more children be exempt from school tax. Laid on table.

Mr. Pilipo, a petition from Molokai, which had been handed to him, that the election of Messrs. Kupihea and Nakaleka, as representatives from Molokai, be void, for the following reasons:

First—That a number of aliens, not subjects, were allowed to vote. Second.—That the inspectors had allowed to vote a person committed for bribery.

Third.—That persons not duly qualified on the lists were allowed to vote. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Kauwila, that no fees be charged parents who send their children to English schools. Referred to Education Committee.

Mr. Pilipo, that patients in Kakaako be kept there and receive treatment and not be sent to Kalawao. Referred to Sanitary Committee.

Mr. Nakaleka, that the regular police on Molokai be increased to eight. Laid on table.

Mr. Kauwila, that persons affected with leprosy be allowed to remain in their district, and be treated by their friends.

Mr. Nahunu, that a suitable hospital be erected in South Kona. Referred to Sanitary Committee.

Mr. Kupihea, that a foreign doctor be appointed for the Island of Molokai. Referred to Sanitary Committee. Also that the Government do dig two wells on Molokai for which an appropriation was made last session. Referred to Committee on Public Lands. Also that wharves and bridges be built at different places on Molokai. No reports being presented from the various Committees: resolutions were in order.

Mr. Kaubane, presented a resolution that an item of $7,000 be inserted for improving the roads district of Kau as follows:

$3,000 for roads in district of Punaluu, and $4,000 for roads in other districts. Laid on table.

Mr. Kaunamano, a resolution to introduced an Act to amend Section 1 Chapter 90 Penal Code.

Mr. Pilipo, a resolution to insert the following items in Appropriation Bill:

$2,100 for improving landings, and $2,500 for improving roads, North Kona. Referred to Committee on Government Lands.

Mr. Nahunu, that the following items be inserted in Appropriation Bill:

$1000 for improving and deepening landing at Hookena.

$500 for improving and deepening landing at Napoopoo.

$500 for improving and deepening landing at Hoopuloa.

Referred to Committee on Government Lands.

Mr. Kaunamano, a resolution that this House take a recess of two weeks, to meet again at 10 o'clock May 19th. In support of his resolution, the hon member said he thought it would curtail the expenses, as they were only having very short sessions, and the expenses were going on just the same. It would give the Committees plenty of time.

Mr. Kaubane, doubted whether it would be economy to adjourn for two weeks.

Mr. Aholo was on favor of the resolution for the sake of the Finance Committee, who ought to do their work properly. He read the duties of the Committee on Finance, and thought they had a great deal to do.

Mr. G. Brown, as Chairman of the Committee on Finance, said the committee had plenty of time, if they wanted more they would ask for it. The true inwardness of the resolution is that certain legal gentlemen wanted to attend the Circuit Court at Hilo.

Mr. Smith spoke in favor of the adjournment, he said there were other committees who needed time besides the Finance Committee.

Mr. Aholo said he for one did not intend to go to Hilo.

Mr. Kaunamano said he introduced the bill so as to give the Finance Committee plenty of time. The newspapers have stated certain facts and I want a full investigation.

On a vote being taken the resolution was lost.

A post-mortem was held on May 3rd, on board the stmr. Iwalani on the body of Aia (native) by Dr. Walters, cause of death was, Pulmonary Tuberculosis, accompanied by heart-disease. Deceased was 26 years old, his body arrived yesterday morning.

Last week was the first holiday Capt. Sears, commander of the Kilauea Hou, has taken for over six years.

The whirligig was well patronized on Saturday last. Horses were in such great demand that 50 cents were offered for a ride.

It would be a good plan to have the Ministerial Reports offered for sale at news dealers. Many who desire to peruse them are unable to procure copies.

By the courtesy of Chief Justice Judd we have received a copy of the Biennial Report of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to the Legislative Assembly of 1884.

The Kilauea Hou, on her last trip was in command of Captain Marchant, and on his arrival at Maui he was feasted and warmly received wherever he went.

The "D. C. Murray" which sails about the 12th inst., has splendid accommodation for about 25 Cabin and for about 20 steerage passengers, any one wishing to go to the Coast will find a good chance and at greatly reduced rates, the present time of the year being the most favorable for making quick passages. 705 3t.

A rumour has been circulating round town the past few days that the Pacific Mail Steamship Co., would resume carrying passengers and freight between San Francisco and the Islands. On enquiring at Messrs. Hackfeld & Co's office this morning we find the rumour is without foundation.

Two horses were seen in town yesterday, in a most disgraceful state of emaciation and rawness. Without in the least reflecting on the officer whose province it is to attend these cases, we would suggest that an agent be appointed by the society for prevention of cruelty to animals, who has more time to attend to the business of the society.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Oliver Gullixson, which took place this morning at half-past three o'clock at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. H. P. Lewis, Beretania street. The deceased gentleman came to these islands about five months ago, a victim to consumption. His death was hastened by a fall from a horse some three weeks ago, which brought on paralysis. The funeral will take place this afternoon at four o'clock.

An inquest was held yesterday on the body of Mrs. Burns, who died at her residence at 6 p. m. Saturday night from an overdose of laudanum, a dimistered in ignorance by Frank Metcalfe.

Deceased had been in the habit of taking doses of laudanum to counteract the effects of opium.

Albert Smith had given Metcalfe doses at various times, who it appears gave some to deceased. After Mrs. Burns death Metcalfe gave himself up to Deputy Dayton, it appears that poison can be obtained, in the town without certificates and in unlabelled bottles. This elicited a rider from the jury, that it would be well for the authorities, to look in to the matter, and enforce the "Act to regulate the sale of Deadly Poisons."

RAIN FALL ON HAWAII.

The rainfall in the Hamakua district was unusually heavy during last month, as will be seen from the following table kindly supplied us: Rainfall at the Honokaa Plantation office, for April, 17 17-100 inches, distributed as follows: From 3rd to 5th April, inclusive, 1.85; from 6th to 12th April, inclusive, 2.38; from 13th to 19th April, inclusive, 9.95; from 20th to 26th April, inclusive, 1.83; from 27th to 30th, inclusive, 1.77.

FAIR AT HAMAKUA.

The new English school house at Hamakua being completed, the residents have determined to hold a fair at Honokaa, in the middle of June, to raise funds to defray the expense of furnishing and lighting the room. The building has been erected by voluntary contributions chiefly from the residents, and they hope that some of their Honolulu friends will now assist them with a few of the multitudinous articles that are necessary to ensure the success of a fair. A grand concert will also be given in Hamakua Lyceum, and the presence of ladies from the capital is expected to hear Mr. Joe Marsden, the king of Hawaiian tenors, and the great violinist, who has consented to sing and give selections on the auspicious occasion. All donations should be forwarded by the C. R. Bishop and the promoters of the Honolulu Library Fair might send any of their unsold goods to aid this good Cause in Hamakua.

THE SQUATTER WRESTLES.

An old fellow with grizzly beard, and lips indelibly dyed with tobacco juice, sat on a log near a rude house in Arkansas. A "stranger," well dressed, and muscled in no delicate way, rode up, dismounted, tied his horse to a sapling, approached the old man, and said, "I am lost."

son's hand. "I thought something strange when I felt yer grip. I mouter knowed then that yer belonged ter the family. Mur, s'lute yer son. Tom, fetch the bottle an' my yaller coat. This is a occasion for puttin' on style."

One of the fairest of our opera-bouffe artistes—no, we are not going to tell you her name—was becoming ennuyee of an afternoon caller, a masher of the deepest dye. He had been there for an hour and a half, and she had nearly dislocated her dear little lower jaw with yawning.

"Do you like fruit?" he said at length. "I do," she answered wearily. "Which is your favourite fruit, may I ask?" "Mango."
