The Woman Who Was Not Athletic

There was once a Woman who wore High-heeled Shoes and a Tight Corset. Both these are Highly Injurious and Inartistic to the Last Degree. One Day she Went out to the Links with a Sensible Friend who wore a sweater and Man-fashioned Shoes. There they Met two Men playing Golf.

"I Fear I shall only Be in your Way," said the Woman who was Not Athletic. "I Can Not Play the Game at all. I do Not Know a Caddy from a Bunker, nor a Four-some from a Tee."

"Not at all. I will Describe the Game to You," said the Men.

"Oh, Thank you, but One will be Quite Enough," she replied, and she Selected the Best-looking, and the Other Went out after the Sensible Friend.

"May I Carry your Parasol?" said he when they had Started.

"If you will Be so Good," she answered. "It is very Foolish, I know, but my Skin is so Absurdly Thin, and the Sun Blisters it so."

The Sensible Friend came up just Behind, and Mopping her Face, she said: "You are too Ridiculous. A Rose-colored Parasol on the Links! You are keeping Him from playing, too. He will get Out of Practice."

"Oh, I Hope not," said the Woman who was Not Athletic.

"Do not be Alarmed," said the man, "It is All Right."

"Moreover, I saw him Help you Over a Fence," said the Sensible Friend, as she Waded through a Muddy Brook. "That Game is Out of Date."

The Woman who was Not Athletic looked Pensively and for Some Time at the Man.

"I am Spoiling Everything," she said, softly. "Let me Go Home, and then You can Play."

"But then You could Not Learn the Game," said he, Sitting down under a Kind of Artificial Water-shed and Watching the Rose-colored Reflection of her Parasol.

"Is this a Bunker?" she asked.

"Yes," he replied; "Its Purpose is to shield People Who wish to be Alone from Observation."

"Oh!" said she. "Then What is a Hazard?"

"Well," he replied, "This is sometimes Called a Hazard, too, because There is a Chance that Some one may Come By after all."

"Oh!" said she. "Then over That Wall Behind that Big Rock is one of the Best Bunkers on the Links, isn't it?"

"It is, indeed," he replied. "You Pick Up the Game very Rapidly. Come over There, and I will Explain it Further to You."

"You are so Good," she said, as he Lifted her Over the Wall.

"Not at All," he replied, Politely. Some Time Afterward the Sensible Friend, who was Engaged in Wallowing Through some Underbrush and Falling into a Pond in Search of her Ball, Passed by Them on the Return Course, and Seeing them Seated against the Wall, noted their somewhat Unoriginal Attitudes. She was surprised.

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room, where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases. Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

WHAT DOES HE MEAN?

Judge Humphreys yesterday sentenced two Japanese who were charged with having thrown kerosene oil tins at a horse driven by Mrs. Dr. Atcherly, out of revenge for having been discharged, and causing her horse to run away and thereby jeopardizing the life of her and others, one ($1) dollar each and remitted the costs of the court.

Is the man becoming a fit subject for the asylum or the rock-crusher? A jury of twelve good citizens found the Japanese guilty after hearing the evidence. The prosecuting officer in addressing the jury, said that there were places in this country where people would, in such an instance not have brought the matter into court, but "settled" it right there and then.

It is such actions of a Court which bring justice into contempt, and compel the people to take the law in their own hands. Mrs. Atcherly is a skillful driver and succeeded in holding her horse without any damage being done. But the precedent established by the Judge's outrageous sentence is a menace to the public. Had Mrs. Atcherly been a white lady instead of a Hawaiian the Judge would have sent the two assaulters to the reef for a year. The insult to the Hawaiians in imposing such a sentence on the Japanese scoundrels will not be forgotten. It has shocked the whole community and people are inclined to believe that the Judge must have a special grievance against the young lady, who might have been killed through her spirited horse running away on account of the unparalleled outrage by the culprits. It is matter for the Grand Jury to investigate any public actions of any official, and we think the next one should start on Humphreys—if Dr. Emerson hasn't "investigated" his mental powers, before the jury meets.

The proceedings are reported as follows:

"The court in passing sentence, told the prisoners that the jury did not find them guilty of not working for Mrs. Atcherly. 'I will not undertake to punish you for what might have happened,' said the court, 'though Mrs. Atcherly might have been seriously injured. You both appear to be hard working men. It shall be the sentence of the court that you each pay a fine of one dollar. The costs will be remitted.'

"The jury hearing the case was composed as follows: H. C. Bickerton, Guy Livingstone, Alexander K. Aona, Edward Woodward, John W. Smithies, Benjamin R. Campbell, John L. Hausman, Henry S. Swinton, Alex. G. Nicholas, Geo. K. Kaia, John W. Davis and James Kahalepua.

"During his argument to the jury Deputy Attorney General Douthitt took occasion to refer to the fact that in some states men guilty of a crime such as these defendants were charged with, have been summarily dealt with.

"I want to express my disapprobation of such summary proceeding," said Judge Humphreys after the prisoners had been sentenced. "I believe the lowliest man in the land has a right to justice, and the practice in some communities of summarily dispensing punishment has done more to lower the standard of civilization, and depreciate the value of property in those states, than anything else."

THEY WANT CHINESE.

Since when was "Hawaii generally" represented by W. O. Smith, J. B. Atherton and F. M. Swanzy? We think that the time has come that the Washington authorities should be made to understand that the sugar barons are not running this country, and that the people of this territory doesn't care a snap for the welfare of the planters outside of their rights as other citizens. The admission of Chinese to Hawaii may be good for the planters but it is opposed by the great majority of the voters, and in America, majority rules. The following interesting dispatch explains the mission of missionaries W. O. Smith and Atherton and Consul Swanzy to Washington. It reads:

"WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—W. O. Smith, J. B. Atherton and F. M. Swanzy, citizens of Hawaii, and R. Rithet, of San Francisco called on the President today to discuss with him the conditions of industrial affairs in the Hawaiian Islands. They told the President that Hawaii generally was opposed to reciprocity arrangements between in the United States and Cuba, which would admit sugar from that island at a customs rate. The interests of Hawaiians in this respect, they declared, are identical with those of the best sugar growers of the West and the cane sugar producers of the South, and they expect to join with them if the matter should come to an issue during the approaching session of Congress.

"The delegation subsequently called on Secretary Gage and discussed with him the labor situation in the Hawaiian Islands. The sugar plantations, they told the Secretary, were becoming less productive each year because of the planters' inability to secure desirable labor. The solution of the question, as the delegation viewed it, was the free admission to the islands of Chinese, at least for a time, as they were the best laborers among all those who had been tried on the sugar plantations.

"Representative Long of Kansas, who is a member of the Ways and Means Committee of the House, was one of President Roosevelt's callers today. He joined with his Eastern colleagues on the committee in opposing a revision of the tariff."

Lucky Evans.

Captain Harry Evans of this city is a happy man today. After lawsuits which have lasted for some years, and general red tape, he has secured a fortune from property in Wales, owned by him and his family, which has been purchased by a big railroad company which needed the land and the buildings on it. About three years ago W. Horace Wright, since deceased, who was well known among the members of the London Bar, received a letter from one of the most celebrated law firms in London explaining the case, and asking him to ascertain whether Harry Evans, a Welshman was in Hawaii, and stating that the case in question in detail. Mr. Wright, who was unwell at the time assigned the task to the editor of this paper, and after a diligent search, by going along Merchant street, Mr. Evans was located, and told about the necessity of the railroad company to obtain his signature to certain deeds. The usual legal correspondence in the matter took place then between Attorney Wright and the London lawyers, and, if we remember rightly, Mr. Evans received at the time a sum of money already due him. Being a good financier he invested the money in Kamalo stocks and a lawsuit. However, the news has been received now that the transactions between the Evans people and the railroad company have been finally settled and approved by the authorities, and the share of the popular captain will probably, as far as we can judge from the original papers, amount to about $380,000 after expenses, etc. have been paid. Harry Evans expects to leave for London soon as he has settled his affairs here. His presence there is absolutely needed, and Harry says, he will be back as soon as a settlement has been finally arranged. And then — say, has anybody got a fine four-hand span for sale? Owners of sugar stocks need not apply, Evans has all the stock and experience he cares to get. Congratulations, old man! Wales is good enough for you.

The Catholic Fair.

Everything is getting ready for making the Catholic Fair for next Saturday a pronounced success.

The executive committee is as follows: Mrs. S. C. Allen, president; Mrs. F. C. Macfarlane, vice president; Mrs. J. F. Bowler, treasurer; Mrs. A. E. Murphy, secretary. The booths and the ladies in charge are as follows:

Fancy Work Booth—Mrs. John Lucas, Mrs. J. Sullivan.

Hawaiian Fancy Booth—Princess Kalanihanoale and Mrs. Pierre Jones.

Portuguese (Cushion Booth)—Mrs. Larnach and Miss Perry.

Japanese Booth and Art Table—Mrs. Iminishi and Mrs. J. Podmore.

Chinese Fancy Work Booth—Mrs. Wo Leong.

Grab Box and Punch and Judy—Mrs. Charles Herriek and Mrs. McVeigh.

Flower Table—Miss May Damon.

Ice Cream—Mrs. John Dow.

Lemonade—Miss Nellie McLain.

Candy—Mrs. Bruhn.

Coffee—Mrs. Zeigler.

The foreign lunch table, one of the important adjuncts of the fair, will be in charge of the following ladies: Mrs. J. A. Hassinger, Mrs. Noonan, Mrs. Herbert, Mrs. Soper, Mrs. A. Fuller, and a corps of ladies and young women will be in attendance to attend to the wants of the large crowd expected. The luncheon will be looked after by Mrs. Lucy Peabody, Mrs. C. K. Stillman and Mrs. Charles Clark.

The Pope is Right.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A dispatch to the World from Rome says: The Pope has addressed a cordial letter to Monsignor Chappelle, Apostolic delegate to the Philippines, congratulating him upon his enlightened action in favor of religion and civilization.

The Pope, however, alluded to the American occupation in rather hostile terms, calling it an "upheaval and revolution which has greatly damaged the interests of the church in those distant regions."

Easy For Jeffries.

"SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—James J. Jeffries retains the title of heavyweight boxing champion of the world. He defeated Gus Ruhlin handily last night in five rounds at Mechanics' Pavilion, showing such ability as to stamp him at once the master of the ring. No man who aspires to the championship today has a chance with the dark-skinned Angelino, who, if he retains his present form, will be champion for many years to come."

Bloodless Girls

Doctors have given the Greek name Anemia, meaning "bloodlessness" to a disease which is much more prevalent among young women than is generally believed. In its early stages the disease is not marked by any decided symptoms and often makes considerable advance before its presence is noticed. An unusual feeling of fatigue after slight exercise, breathless and pallor are the first noticeable signs. In anemia the blood becomes thin, the heart flabby, the skin pale and waxy. If the disease become chronic (persistent anemia) it often results fatally. The one successful method of treating this disease is to build up the blood. The best blood builder in the world is

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

This remedy has cured more cases of anemia than all others combined. Miss Cordelia Moore, of Malone, N. Y., until recently, has been a life-long invalid from palpitation of the heart and weakness of the blood. In speaking of this experience she said: "I was in a terrible condition. I could not eat. My face was ghastly white, and my hands were almost transparent. I was so weak it was utterly impossible for me to go up stairs. I met a friend who spoke of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and advised me to try them. Before the first box was used I began to regain my appetite and felt better generally. I bought six more boxes and took them. I grew strong rapidly and gained in flesh. I became better in every way. I never felt better in my life than now and consider myself cured. I cannot say too much regarding Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."—From the Gazette, Malone, N. Y.

No discovery of modern times has proved such a blessing to mankind as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Acting directly on the blood and nerves, invigorating the body, regulating the functions, they restore the strength and health in the exhausted patient when every effort of the physician proves unavailing.

These pills are sold in boxes at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

The Hancock Ashore.

NAGASAKI, (Japan), Nov. 15.—The United States Army transport Hancock went ashore on the south side of the strait of Shimonoseki and remains there. The bottom is sandy. A German gunboat is assisting the Hancock.

The Hancock is the third United States transport to meet with a mishap in the Japanese waters recently. First the Sheridan, having on board a number of returning troops and the Congressional party which has been visiting the Phillipine Islands, was detained at Nagasaki by a broken tail-shaft. Her passengers were transferred to the Warren, which sailed from Nagasaki November 3d. Two days later the Warren sustained damage which made it necessary to return and dock at Nagasaki. The Hancock was ordered to proceed from Manila to Nagasaki and take on board the delayed passengers, and it was expected she would sail from the port named November 13th for San Francisco.

The Congressional party was composed of Senator Bacon of Georgia and Representatives Mercer of Nebraska, Smith of Illinois, Burleson of Texas, De Armond of Missouri, Driscoll of New York, Gaines of Tennessee, Green and Jack of Pennsylvania and Weeks of Michigan. Of this number half a dozen left the ship and are now on the way to the United States by regular liner.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Orders were cabled from the War Department to day, directing the quartermaster at Nagasaki to utilize the Sheridan to bring the passengers of the Hancock to the United States.

Tilley's Expensive Jag.

Two naval vessels, with three admirals and other officers, are on their way to Pago Pago to investigate the charges of drunkenness against Captain B. F. Tilley. It is estimated that these charges against Captain Tilley will cost the United States anywhere from $150,000 to $200,000 to investigate, no matter what the outcome may be to Captain Tilley—a sum equal to or in excess, perhaps, of what the Schley inquiry will cost. The battle-ship Wisconsin burns about one hundred tons of coal a day, and, at eight dollars a ton, her bill for fuel on her return to the Pacific Coast will be $35,000 or thereabouts. The Solace burns about sixty tons a day, and from San Francisco to Pago Pago and thence to Manila, whither she is bound, will burn about $25,000 worth of coal. There are three admirals on this duty, six captains, lieutenant-commanders, senior lieutenants, junior lieutenants, ensigns, warrant officers, and members of the crews. The expenses of the court will probably be $2,500. Most of the officers will return by the steamer, which will make an additional $1,500 or $2,000. It is easy to figure out a total cost of $150,000 or $200,000, all to determine whether Captain Tilley really was intoxicated.—The Argonaut.

The Usual Result.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The savings of forty-five years of active service in the United States Navy have been eaten up by the expenses of inquiry by which Admiral Schley hopes to clear his record as a naval officer. Since the final adjournment of the court the Admiral has been attempting to extricate himself from the financial tangle caused by the inquiry. He finds that every cent of the $20,000 which he had expected to leave his family, in addition to all the prize money which he will get for his part in the Spanish-American war, has been expended on the inquiry.

Mrs. Schley insists that the money has been well spent. Her children agree with her. During the inquiry witnesses were brought from long distances, stenographers were employed and clerks were kept busy. "I cannot say I wish I had it back," said Admiral Schley, "but I do wish that I had the assurance now that I had a year ago that my wife would never come to want."

The Idaho Girls.

When coon songs were all the rage in London, Leslie Stuart, the composer of the music of "Florodora," decided to try his talent in composing rag music for the London music-halls. "I soon mastered the new time to my own satisfaction," said Mr. Stuart the other day. "but I was all at sea for titles and subjects for my first song. I secured a map of the United States and found that Idaho was by far the best rhyming State, so in a few days 'My Girl from Idaho' was ready to be sung. I sent it to a popular singer in the music-halls, and the audience that heard it first seemed to like it. The next day the following message was sent to the theatre and later turned over to me. It was signed 'An Idaho American,' and read: 'You blasted Englishman, don't you know there isn't a coon in all the State of Idaho? But there are girls in Idaho. They can't shuffle their feet; they can't all sing. But they can shoot, and Lord, how they'd like to have you for a target.'"

A School Publication.

Editorial Staff—Mary Aylett, editor; Catherine Silva, Henry Aylett, assistant editors.

From South Africa.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Dispatches to the Daily Mail announces that the Cape Town Guard has again been called out and that Lord Kitchener has issued an order directing that all Boers captured in British uniforms be shot.

The Daily Mail gives today another alleged peace scheme which Kruger is said to be willing to conclude. This would be on the basis of granting autonomy to the two republics under a convention guaranteed by France and Russia in exchange for concession to Great Britain of the Rand district and the gold fields, which should be regarded as the total Boer indemnity.

The story circulated in the United States by a news agency today under Amsterdam date, purporting to give the peace terms which the Boers are willing to accept and alleging that they are to be embodied in a formal document for circulation among the powers, was seemingly started in an English provincial paper and is denied by the Boer delegates at The Hague.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 11.—The administration counsel of the iron tribunal will meet November 20 to decide on the appeal of the Boers against the ruling that the war in South Africa is not subject to the court's consideration.
