Be just and fear not: Let all the ends thou aim'st at be Thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's.

FRIDAY, JULY 27, 1888.

The committee to which was referred the petition of the Second Adventists and those who think their cause is just, have reported, recommending that the petition be laid upon the table.

Now that the House does not meet in the mornings, in order to allow committees to work, most of the time in the afternoon seems to be taken up with hearing reports, which are generally never directly acted upon, but laid on the table to be considered with some bill.

The Supreme Court gave its answer yesterday to the questions propounded by the House on the 17th. The questions were as follows:

- 1. Has the Legislature, under the Constitution, power to enact a law, making it unlawful for any person to carry on any trade, business or occupation without a license, and giving some designated person or body absolute discretionary authority to grant or refuse to grant said license, or
2. Can the granting or refusal to grant such licenses be based upon the recommendation of a specified number or proportion of the legal voters of any district?

The Court answered both these questions in the negative. The importance of this decision is not likely to be over-estimated, and the full text of the opinion, which has been ordered translated and printed, will be awaited with general expectation.

In another column we publish an extract from the report of the U. S. Senate Committee on Pensions, referring to eight vetoed pension bills. The report is not, in our opinion, a valuable one, but it bears on our present situation and may prove interesting and suggestive on that account. The President has a two-thirds veto, which Mr. Cleveland has liberally exercised, and which it is intended the President should exercise, because he is the constitutional representative of the people, deriving his power from them as directly as any member of the Senate or House. It is because he does so derive his power that he is granted a veto power, which he is expected to use. The Constitution of the United States, happily or unhappily, allows the Executive and the Legislature to be of opposite political parties, and so admits of the possibility of a struggle between those two branches of the Government. Mr. Cleveland's vetoes have not been due to the fact that his party is not in a majority in the Senate or House, but because he, rightly or wrongly, believes that the reckless voting of money for private pensioners is a misappropriation of the public funds, which it is his duty to check as far as lies in his power.

The Report of the Senate Committee is, however, significant, because it shows that even in a country like the United States, where the veto power is exercised by a representative of the whole nation, it is yet possible for a Committee of the Senate to intimate that its unrestrained, although technically legal, exercise is a violation of the true intent and spirit of the Constitution. If the language of the committee be applied to our own situation in these Islands, how appropriate and weighty it becomes. The report indicates clearly that the object of a veto is not to review questions of fact. The findings of the Legislature should be conclusive on all such matters. So much is probably true, even in the United States. In Hawaii it is safe to go much further, and say that the will of the people, whenever it has been really expressed in the action of their elected representatives, should never be obstructed. This is not merely the most just and satisfactory view, but where the right of veto rests upon a foundation so precarious as its foundation here, it is the most prudent and safe view for the Executive itself to take. We have called the veto power here precarious simply because it does not rest on the popular will, and because it introduces an element of conflict and uncertainty into the Constitution itself.

When a Constitution contains a compromise of inharmonious elements, the stronger are sure of final triumph. Wherein the strength of our present Constitution lies, no one doubts. There can also be no doubt that in a Constitution which expresses the theory of Ministerial responsibility, an independent, irresponsible veto power is an utterly discordant element. If such a power, however, be exercised as the Report of the Senate Committee suggests, and as we have endeavored to indicate, its essential lack of harmony with the rest of the Constitution will either be glossed over, or will disappear altogether. Such an exercise of the power will be at once the most peaceable for the country and the safest for the Executive.

A CONTEMPORARY PARALLEL.

The Veto in the United States—What a Senate Committee Considers its Dangerous Exercise.

Senator Dawes of Massachusetts, on June 28th, submitted to the United States Senate a report of the Committee on Pensions upon eight vetoed pension bills, the merits of which the report discusses in detail, and the passage of which it recommends, the objections of the President notwithstanding. Among other things, the report says:

"Since the 8th day of May, 1886, no less than 136 special acts granting pensions to individuals have been disapproved by the President. These disapprovals were based, in a great majority of cases, upon the expressed opinion of the President that Congress has erred in its judgment upon mere questions of fact. It is, of course, impossible for the President to examine the mass of documentary evidence upon which each case depends, and which is invariably signed by the committee. It follows, therefore, that when he disagrees with Congress upon the questions of fact in these cases, his judgment must be based, not on the reports of the committee, in which the facts are always stated with sufficient fullness, but upon the report of some subordinate in the Bureau of Pensions. This bureau, the action of which Congress has reversed, is thus enabled to review the action of Congress by the express direction of the President. This method of consideration is an abridgment by the Executive of the exercise of the right of Congress to waive that straight proof which is refused in ordinary cases in the departments.

"Usurpations move rapidly in republics from small objects to those of greater concern. That the power exists in the Executive to disapprove any legislative measure cannot be denied, but the duty undoubtedly also exists that it shall not be used in such a manner or upon any occasion or pretext so as to make its exercise operate as an encroachment upon powers of the other departments of the Government. The right to so use the power of executive disapproval as to change the ordinary method of legislative action by a majority vote upon proper subjects of legislation merely because the Executive differs from Congress upon the sufficiency of proof or the expediency of relief, does not, in the opinion of your committee, exist.

"Such a misconception of the extent of executive power, making it limitless, is fraught with danger to the independence of Congress and to its constitutional powers, and it certainly implies that a factious or usurping President, who proposes to subordinate the will of that department to which the Constitution has confided the principal powers of government, can rightfully do this, and so prevent the will of the people from taking a statutory form except by a two-thirds vote of each House of Congress."

A letter from the Pope has been read in the Irish churches, to remove misconceptions regarding his decree against certain Home Rule methods.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Forty-ninth Day.

THURSDAY, July 26.

The House met at 1 o'clock p. m., the President, Hon. W. R. Castle, in the chair. Absent: Ministers Thurston and Ashford; Nobles Wilder, Dowsett, Jaeger, Smith, Waterhouse, Wall, Townsend, Hitchcock, Baldwin, Bailey, Richardson, Campbell, Widemann, Makee, Wilcox, Bertelmann, Dole; Repts. Hustace, Kalaukoa, Kaubi, Kamai, Kinney, Maguire, Paris, Nawahine, Horner, Rice, Nakaleka, Kapahaole. Minutes read and confirmed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. Rep. F. Brown reported two bills printed. Rep. C. Brown read the report of the Judiciary Committee on the petition of T. H. Davies & Co., presented 23d inst., for reimbursement of $66 33. Customs duties illegally collected of them in 1884. Committee recite the facts of the case and recommend the prayer of the petition be granted by inserting an item for the purpose in the Appropriation bill. Adopted.

The same member read the report of the Judiciary Committee on the bill to amend the divorce law, and recommend that it pass. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

Noble Widemann read the report of the Committee on the Honolulu Street Railway bill. Committee submit a new bill, recommending that it pass and that the original bill be tabled. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill, and the new bill read a first time.

Rep. F. Brown read the report of Committee on the explosives bill, recommending an amendment. Laid on the table to be considered with the bill.

Noble Young read the following: Hon. W. R. Castle, President of the Legislature. Sir: Your Committee to whom was referred the item of $8,000 inserted in the Appropriation bill for the construction of a carriage road up Punchbowl hill have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to report as follows:

In view of the fact that it is for the best interests of the Kingdom that foreign travel be diverted hither, that travellers when here be induced to prolong their stay, and that when they leave these sunny isles they go from us living advertisers of the attractions of Hawaii, abroad, your committee believe that the expenditure of $8,000 for a carriage road up Punchbowl hill would be, not only a reasonable, but also a judicious one.

We further believe that, considering the number of citizens in and around Honolulu paying taxes on private carriages, the number of carriages for hire, the licenses and the number of people in and around Honolulu who pay road tax, it is no injustice to the taxpayers outside of Honolulu that this sum should be appropriated for building the above road. It should have been built many years ago, but the honor of carrying out this worthy project has been reserved for the first Ministry of the reform Government.

The amount sought to be appropriated will be sufficient to build a safe and serviceable road of easy gradient, say seven feet in one hundred.

Your Committee therefore recommend that the item pass as in the bill, and that the road be built as soon as may be practicable.

Respectfully submitted, ALEX. YOUNG, M. P. ROBINSON, D. L. AONIE, J. MAGUIRE.

Minister Thurston said the members of that committee evidently have the highest foreheads in the House. He moved the report be adopted.

Rep. F. Brown moved it be laid on the table to be considered with the Appropriation bill. Carried.

NEW BILL.

Rep. C. Brown read, a first time, a bill to prevent the catching, taking and selling of young fish in the waters and bays of the Kingdom.

COMMITTEES PROMPTED.

The President stated that he had a list of thirty-four special committees, seventeen of which have yet to be heard from and reminded members of the resolution passed, 23d inst., requiring all committees to report during the present week.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Tuition Fees—Second reading of the bill relating to the collection of tuition fees in Government day schools. Amended and passed to engrossment to be read a third time on Monday next. This vote was subsequently reconsidered and the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Public Instruction—Third reading of the bill to amend the Act to repeal chapter X. of the Civil Code, and to regulate the Bureau of Public Instruction approved the 10th day of January, 1865. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Sedition—Third reading of the bill to amend section 6, chapter XI. of the Penal Code, relating to sedition. Amended and passed to engrossment to be read a third time on Monday next. This vote was subsequently reconsidered and the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Commercial Paper—Second reading of the bill to prevent the issue of commercial paper as a circulating medium, with the report of the Finance Committee, 17th inst., thereon.

The first and principal section of the bill as amended by the committee was printed in full in the ADVERTISER'S report of proceedings under date of July 17th.

Noble Smith said the bill was too bald in its terms. He moved it be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Nobles Baldwin and Waterhouse supported the bill.

Rep. Kinney moved to amend section 1, by adding thereto—or by imprisonment at hard labor not to exceed one month.

Minister Green moved to strike out the words, "other than foreign bills of exchange."

Rep. C. Brown moved the following substitute for section 1, accepting the amendment offered by Minister Green:

Section 1. Any person or any officer of a corporation, or any company of persons who shall issue any note or bill, order, check or certificate of deposit, in any sum of money with intent that the same shall be circulated as currency shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall for every offense be punished by a fine of forty dollars.

Both amendments were adopted.

Noble Waterhouse moved "January 1, 1889," as the date when the Act shall take effect.

Rep. Kinney wanted to know how this will affect commercial paper at present in circulation.

Noble Smith asked what is to prevent any one issuing $100,000 in commercial paper between this and the 1st of January.

Minister Ashford moved to fix the date, September 1, 1888.

Rep. C. Brown thought there ought to be some provision whereby the market may be relieved of the paper now in circulation. He understood that the hon. member for Hamakua was drawing up an amendment to cover this point.

Rep. Kinney—I have not got it into a form of words, but I have got the idea.

Noble Smith—Then hold on by it.

The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements made, or opinions expressed by our correspondents.

Our Savings Bank.

MR. EDITOR: The King's message to the Legislature, referring to the Government Savings Bank, is an important item, and should have prompt attention by our lawmakers, for it must be admitted that the bank is a weak concern as at present organized, though perfectly safe at present, being backed by the Government. But the Government may fall into extravagant hands, and from present indications the deposits in a few years will be large, and the Government using the money without depositing security is very liable to, in fact, will, get the bank into trouble. The bank must, in course of time have considerable deposits drawn from it daily as well as deposits made, and withdrawals some days will far exceed its deposits, and it is not unlikely that a few enemies could and would start a run upon the bank, and as both the Government and the bank would most likely be short at the same time, the bank would have to "suspend," thus disgracing itself and the Government, as well as inconveniencing if not distressing its depositors, as it may be months before the Legislature could meet to give them relief.

The proper thing to do, in the absence of something better, would be for the Legislature to authorize a Government bond prepared of various amounts from $50 upwards, and bearing 6 per cent. per annum interest. This bond should be deposited with the bank at 80 per cent. of its face value as security for the money already withdrawn from the bank, as well as for all hereafter taken from it, and the interest should be promptly paid. This would be business on the part of the Government, and it would enable the bank president or superintendent to enter the money market with these bank securities and sell or hypothecate them for ready money to tide over difficulties the bank is sure to meet with sooner or later, as even with the above named bond, it has no power to sustain its own life, although a prolonged existence would be assured by the bank.

What should be done is this: The bank should be made a business institution so as to be a benefit to business as well as to the Government. It should have an independent existence (responsible only to the Legislature), with power to preserve its own life, which no bank at present existing has power to do.

JOHN M. HORNER.

Another Defense of the Hamakua Assessor.

MR. EDITOR: In the GAZETTE of the 17th inst. is a communication from Honokaa, commenting on the appointment of a native as tax assessor, in defense of whom I would like to say a few words. It is very evident from the tenor of "Reform's" letter that he has cause to object to the native who was appointed to the position, as he had a very earnest desire to secure the place for himself. He is one of the select few in Honokaa, who, when they find they cannot have their own way about things in general, set up a howl. The native in question, instead of being without learning or address, is on the contrary a man of both, and whose only fault is in being a native. He has been a teacher on this island and is well thought of by all who know him, and if all the appointments made would give us as honest and upright men I know your subscribers will not be disgusted, as they would have been had the late royal visitors to Honokaa been in Honolulu in time to keep their promise. Rub some people with the hair and everything is lovely, but rub them the opposite way and you can hear their screech for miles. The taxpayers of Hamakua are to be congratulated on having secured the services of Kaikuahwi, and on having escaped the sorehead who signed himself "Reform."

FAIR PLAY.

Supreme Court.—July Term, 1888.

MR. JUSTICE PRESTON PRESIDING.

THURSDAY, July 26.

The Court opens at 10 a. m., foreign jurors in attendance; at 11:55 a. m. a recess is taken until 1 p. m., and at 4:22 o'clock the Court adjourns for the day.

James W. Gay vs. Joseph P. Mendonca. Action of covenant; new trial, limited to the question of the amount of damages, ordered by the decision of June 5, 1888, of the full Court. A. S. Hartwell for plaintiff; F. M. Hatch for defendant. The following jurors are sworn: E. F. Bishop, J. E. Bidwell, P. Muhlendorf, J. H. Brun, jr., M. Goldberg, F. E. Nichols, W. H. Aldrich, C. J. Deering, H. Johnson, L. T. Valentine, W. J. Forsyth, L. C. Ables.

Mr. Hartwell opens and calls as witnesses, besides presenting documentary evidence, S. M. Damon, C. A. Brown, J. W. Gay and W. E. Rowell. Counsel also notes exceptions to refusal of a certain document.

Mr. Hatch answers with a general defence and calls J. I. Dowsett, sr., J. H. Paty and Joseph P. Mendonca. Instructions from the Court to the jury are requested by counsel on both sides, but refused in each case, to which Mr. Hartwell excepts as well as to the charge.

At 3:38 the jury retire and at 4:10 return with a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $2,230 damages—three dissenting.

Mr. Hatch notes exceptions to the verdict as being contrary to the law and the evidence, and gives notice of motion for a new trial, which the Court orders to be entered.

At 4:20 the Court excuses the jury from further attendance during this term.

IN BANCO.

The opinion of the full Court per Associate Justice McCully is filed this day, in the case of the King vs. Leong Tiam, unlawfully landing or attempting to land in the Kingdom. This was an appeal from the decision of one of the Justices presiding in the Intermediary Division, which sustained a conviction of defendant by Police Justice Dayton. The opinion, signed by all the Justices, holds that conviction may well be on the proof of offering a passport which was sufficient to procure that the Board of Health should thereafter cause defendant to be taken from the ship, and concludes, "We hold that the conviction was legal." eral Peterson for the Crown; A. S. Hartwell for the defendant. The unanimous opinion of the full Court, per Chief Justice Judd, is filed in the case of Opioipo (w.) vs. Kane (k.), plaintiff's exceptions, in a libel for divorce, to the decision of the Second Judicial Circuit Court. It is held by the Court that the order dismissing the libel should be rescinded, and the cause ordered on for trial at next term of said Circuit Court. They deem it unnecessary to consider the second exception—that leave should have been granted to plaintiff to amend. P. Neumann for plaintiff; W. A. Kinney for defendant.

MARINE Germicide Paint

THE MARINE GERMICIDE PAINT IS AN ANTI-FOULING compound for IRON, COPPER, or WOOD, an absolute protection against Barnacles, Coral, Sea Grass, Terebrants, and all Marine Parasites, and an unfailing preventive of rust on iron or steel.

The success of the Germicide Paint, in San Francisco, New York and the West Indies, has been phenomenal. The U. S. Navy Yard at Mare Island is using Germicide exclusively, after testing it against the best paint. Of 460 tests in 1886, they find that Germicide came out nineteen to one better. It is stated that the Naval authorities at Washington are about adopting it altogether for the U. S. Navy. We have numerous testimonials to prove its efficiency.

It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof. H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal brands of powders of the country reported: "The Royal Baking Powder is also entirely pure for I have found it in many tests made for that company and the United States Government. "Because of the facilities that company has for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, for other reasons depending upon the proportions of the same, and the method of preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Jury trials are over for the July term. The Supreme Court will sit in banco today.

The Chinese restriction law holds water after all.

The word "tramway" is the thin end of the wedge of Anglomania.

The St. Louis College closing exhibition takes place this afternoon.

Chinese butcher shops often open up as early as three o'clock in the morning.

St. Louis College band produced very fine music in its concert on Thursday afternoon.

The road beyond King street bridge is being built out with stones against the bank of the creek.

The Vandalia and Omaha baseball nines will play the first of a series of matches on Thursday next.

The trial of Gay vs. Mendonca was reported in shorthand by Mr. Gilbert at the request of the Court.

A party of visitors arrived by the Australia will leave for the Volcano by the W. G. Hall this morning.

Messrs. Hebbard and Vida have the contract for carting the tramway material from the ship Cockermouth.

A large building is begun for the Hawaiian Tramways Company, between the Chinese Theatre and the washhouses.

Mr. W. I. Bishop's performance in Kaimakapili Church has been postponed from yesterday afternoon to Saturday evening.

The bark Forest Queen left San Francisco on the 18th or 19th, and may arrive here before the Zealandia, due on the 4th of August.

The "King's Guards" and "Roads and Bridges" clubs will play a baseball match to-morrow if there be no hitch in the arrangements.

Capt. H. W. Mist, R. N., Secretary of the Foreign Office, and his amiable wife pleasantly celebrated their silver wedding on the 23d inst.

A large herd of black swine, on the way to the abattoir on Thursday, became completely wild in the ascent of the hill at Lelele, and most of them lay down panting on one side of the road.

The weather for the past few days has been unusually warm, dry, and sweltering. The thermometer at 7 o'clock yesterday morning registered 80 deg., and at noon 90 deg. in the shade.

Gay vs. Mendonca promises to be a leading "cause celebre" on the Hawaiian judicial records. After several trials a verdict limited to damages rendered on Thursday was promptly followed by notice of motion for a new trial.

The information that Comancho was still in the cells Wednesday night was given by a policeman on duty at 11 p. m. It appears, however, that he was released on a $2,000 bond by Mr. Vivas at 2 o'clock that afternoon.

Mr. J. M. Vivas has secured the local agency for the improved Hall type writer. It is a very compact machine, different in principle from other type writers, is easily operated and makes beautiful writing. All desirous of getting a writer should see this one at Mr. Vivas' room, in Mr. Magoon's law office.

The conclusion of the discussion of Free Trade vs. Protection by the Debating Society on Thursday evening was scarcely less animated than its beginning the previous week. Next meeting the topic will be: "Would it be advantageous for the country to have Cabinet Ministers elected for constituencies?" Mr. N. Logan will lead the affirmative and Dr. Rodgers the negative.

The public examinations of the Royal School, Rev. Alex. Mackintosh, Principal, will commence at 9 o'clock this morning, and the friends of the school and all those interested in the education of native Hawaiians are cordially invited to attend. The high class, under the charge of the Principal, will be examined in Reading, History, Physics, Latin, etc., after which the recitations and singing will commence.

Just after our Station report, that was a blank, was taken off on Wednesday night, two foreigners were presented at the bar on a charge of disturbing quiet of the night. They had engaged in a sort of fire wrecking practice at a house on Liliha street, tossing household effects out on the ground with a vigor worthy of a more timely occasion, when the police interfered. They each left ten dollars bail-for good it has proved—with the watch on duty.

Farewell Services.

Interesting farewell services took place at the Japanese mission, Queen Emma Hall, on Thursday evening. The occasion was the intended early departure of Rev. M. C. Harris after serving a brief commission from the Methodist body on the Coast, also that of the lay Japanese Christian worker, Mr. Shimizu. Rev. Dr. Hyde presided and introduced Mr. Taro Ando, Japanese Consul-General, who made an address. The departing missionaries and Rev. Dr. Beckwith, Chief Justice Judd and Mr. S. D. Fuller also addressed the meeting. There was singing of praises in English and Japanese, the latter, led by Mrs. Ando, being remarkably impressive. After the services, ice cream was dispensed in the room down stairs.

The Complimentary Concert.

A brilliant assemblage gathered to the complimentary band concert to Capt. McNair and officers of the U. S. S. Omaha at the Hawaiian Hotel on Thursday evening. The building and grounds were never more superbly illuminated with electric lights and colored lanterns. Princess Liliuokalani, Gov. Dominis, U. S. Minister Merrill, British Commissioner Wodehouse, officers of the warships, and a great throng of citizen and stranger ladies and gentlemen were present. A very pleasant dance in the parlors followed one of the band's best played programmes.

The American exchange is still before the London Courts.

A motion to vote urgency in the French Chambers for the credit of $14,400,000 for defences was defeated by 241 to 143.

Death of Mrs. Sarah Dickson.

About 12 o'clock, yesterday noon, this estimable lady died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Laura F. Dickson, in this city. She was born in Boston, November 11, 1798, and had she lived three and a half months longer, her age would have been ninety years. In 1825 she married Captain Joshua Dickson, for many years well known as a very popular commander of several of the Boston and Liverpool packets, and later held the honorable office of warden of the port of Boston. In later years, she removed to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she made her home till she came to Honolulu in 1867, several of her children having preceded her, two only of whom survive her, Mr. Menzies Dickson of this city, and Mrs. Hessie Howard, of Los Angeles. Mrs. Dickson was a most remarkable woman—one of the many intensely patriotic females, who gave an impress to the early history of the American Republic, and seemed to inspire their countrymen with noble purposes. This was shown in the American civil war, to which she sent two of her sons, and to the success of which she devoted all her energies. During her residence in this city, she has had a large circle of acquaintances, to whom she was greatly endeared, and who will long remember her with affection. She had no sickness or pain during her last few weeks, and her death was simply a peaceful surrender to nature—death from old age, gathered like a golden sheaf of wheat in the harvest. It is a beautiful sight to witness such a translation from this terrestrial to the spiritual world. The epitaph on the tomb of the lamented Garfield might well be hers:

Life's work well done, Life's race well run, Life's crown well won— Now heaven's rest.

If Robert Browning had been asked to write a verse for the Milton memorial window presented by George W. Childs to St. Margaret's Church, Westminster, he would have perpetrated the following:

Great poet, here incheate appreciation tame Deluscent shows thy indeciduous fame, Deflagrates occult beauties now grown great And what enchorial was, edulcorate.
