A CASE OF SUNSTROKE

THE FIRST ONE ON RECORD IN HONOLULU.

A. F. Clark Narrowly Escapes Death From the Effects of Heat—A Former Case on the Island.

A. F. Clark of Huestace and Company is recovering from an attack of sunstroke, said to be the first on record in Honolulu and the second on this island. He was stricken on Saturday, the 15th, which was one of the hottest days of the year. On that day the maximum midday temperature was 85 and the humidity was 84 per cent. The latter is below the average, though higher than some other recent days. On the record day when the temperature was 85, the humidity was 66 per cent and last Saturday with a temperature of 84 it was as high as 62 per cent.

Clark was attended by Dr. Wood, who pronounced the case one of sunstroke. The patient had a narrow escape with his life. When the doctor was called in the evening after Clark had passed through a day of suffering his temperature was 106 1/2 and his pulse was very high. His recovery was only due to careful attention and a strong constitution. Mrs. Clark is a trained nurse and was able to greatly assist the doctor.

Clark recently recovered from an attack of pneumonia and had not entirely regained his strength and this fact is mentioned above. Mr. Goettinger avers that though often requested to do so, the defendant has since failed to pay any part of the principal or interest.

Kinney, Bailou & McClanahan have asked the court to appoint Samuel Rosheim a notary public at San Francisco to take the testimony of M. A. Itoehild, Morris Feintuch and George Goettinger in the matter.

In the Hogan case in Circuit court, Robertson & Wilder, attorneys for the Canadian-Australian Steamship Company, have moved for a ruling on whether or not the local courts can consider the bill, an identical complaint having been filed and being now under consideration before a court in San Francisco, the business home of the firm.

J. O. Carter has filed a certificate in court that he has examined the books of Cecil Brown and finds that the income of James Campbell for the year ending January 1, 1900, was $96,902.24.

In the matter of C. F. Jenne vs. Campbell & Pettus, assumpsit, defendants have moved for a ruling on whether or not the local courts can consider the bill, an identical complaint having been filed and being now under consideration before a court in San Francisco, the business home of the firm.

Mr. Vierra, owner of the old Louvre saloon on Nuuanu street, intends putting up a brick building there as soon as possible. For the present the government is not permitting any houses in the burned district. The Vierra building will be one story only, but will be a very neat structure.

SPORTS FOR THE FOURTH. At the meeting to be held at noon tomorrow the committee on sports will report on yachting events for July 4, and prizes to be given. Indications are that the regatta will be a success. There may be a long list of sporting events, both aquatic and field, with numerous prizes.

Yachtsmen will hold another meeting tomorrow evening, at which details concerning entries, etc., will be arranged.

BOGGS & HAERWARD. Boggs & Haerward, a team of actors, well known locally, are having a successful season at the Chutes in San Francisco.

"CAPTAIN LETTABLAIR." First Production in Honolulu of Marguerite Merington's Success.

At the Opera House this evening, the Neill company will present for the first time in this city, the four-act comedy, "Captain Lettablair," by Marguerite Merington. This play was originally produced by E. H. Sothorn and ranks as one of his most successful productions. The story of the play is extremely interesting and contains a well defined plot, a charming love story and a great deal of clever comedy. It is one of those plays peculiarly adapted to the Neill company, and in it the organization will be seen at its best; the scenic embellishments, as in all the Neill productions, will be elaborate and appropriate.

ORPHEUM MANAGER SUED

SAN FRANCISCO WANTS $2,652.82 OUT OF HIM.

Proceedings Begun to Recover on a Big Suit—Bishop & Co. and Orpheum Garnished—Other Matters.

George Goettinger of San Francisco, has, by his attorneys, Kinney, Bailou & McClanahan and George A. Davis, entered suit against J. C. Cohen, manager of the Orpheum in this city, for the recovery of the sum of $2,652.82 and interest, alleged to be due on a promissory note given at San Francisco on June 30, 1898, to Wertheimer & Co., and assigned by that concern to the plaintiff, Bishop & Co., and the Orpheum Company are named as garnishees, and are required to hold any property in their hands belonging to the defendant.

Following is a copy of the note in question: "San Francisco, California, June 30th, A. D. 1898. $2,652.82. 'One day after date, without grace, I promise to pay to the order of the Wertheimer Company $2,652.82 for value received, with interest at 7 per cent per annum from date until paid, both principal and interest payable in United States gold coin."

Endorsed on the note are two small credits and an assignment to the plaintiff mentioned above. Mr. Goettinger avers that though often requested to do so, the defendant has since failed to pay any part of the principal or interest.

Kinney, Bailou & McClanahan have asked the court to appoint Samuel Rosheim a notary public at San Francisco to take the testimony of M. A. Itoehild, Morris Feintuch and George Goettinger in the matter.

WARNING TO TRESPASSERS

ROONEY'S ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASES FAIL.

His Face Beaten to a Jelly and His Body Kicked, But He Ought Not to Have Trespasped.

Frank Rooney was a trespasser when he had his face beaten to a jelly and was kicked over the arms and shoulders last Wednesday night, and therefore his action for assault and battery could not be upheld. This was the decision given this morning by Judge Wilcox, in the case of Rooney against Miller and Hoppe, which has occupied more or less of the court's time for the past three days. Rooney swore that the two defendants were the men who beat him till he looked as if he was an unpopular shipping master, but the judge dismissed both defendants, saying that Rooney had no right to be where he was at the time of the beating.

Rooney told his story this morning in the Hoppe case. He swore that he had made a call at the Miller place at about half past eleven last Wednesday night and had been asked in, only to receive a straight razor blow in the stomach from Hoppe, when he stepped through the door. He knocked Hoppe down and had him fast when Miller came and after that there was a shower of blows that fearfully bruised Rooney's face. The distorted visage was not much improved even this morning, though it was somewhat smaller than when it first appeared in the court room last Friday. There was a long list of witnesses, who swore to widely different stories. At the end the judge said that Rooney had no right to be making calls at a private house at midnight, and was guilty of trespassing, he couldn't complain if he was done up. "The defendants had a right to use all the force necessary to eject him from the premises, as I do not think from the testimony that he was invited in," said the judge.

PLANTATION MANAGERS DECIDE TO ACT.

Japanese Strikers Must Go to Work, or Make Room for Laborers Who Will—End of Soft Words.

High Sheriff Brown and Interpreter Chester Dayle leave this afternoon on the steamer Cladine for Spreckelsville, to take part in the trials of the Japanese who assaulted some policemen. The Japs who are to be tried made an attack upon a census taker and then attacked some officers who went to the rescue. The case is regarded as an important one as giving the Japs an opportunity to learn that they must show more respect for the authority of the officers.

A delegation of Japanese laborers came over from Maui by the last steamer representing principally the laborers of Waialuku plantation. They came over to confer with the Japanese consul and with the Immigration companies, regarding the present situation. Consul Saito is away on the Island of Kaula, and it is supposed the delegation is awaiting his return before visiting the Immigration companies, as it has not yet waited the latter.

It is understood that the plantation managers have about decided to temporize no further with the Japanese. They have increased the wages beyond the contract price, paying as high as $17 a month when the contract price is only $15 a month. They have met every demand of the laborers. Contracts have been given back, though that is not necessary, as the law itself terminates the contracts. And still the Japanese will not go to work, or if they do they quit on the slightest provocation, though they still continue to occupy the houses provided by the plantations, and to receive the other benefits which were a part of the contract price for their services.

The determination has been reached by some of the managers, it is said that the thing must end. The Japanese must either go to work or leave the plantations. They will not be allowed to refuse to work themselves and intimidate others who want to work, and generally by their presence demoralize the whole plantation force. Manager Lowrie of Spreckelsville, has fixed a day on which the men must either go to work or quit entirely and make room for those who will work. Other plantation managers have decided to do the same thing.

There have been no strikes at any of the plantations on this Island except at Heeia, which has been settled, but there has been a good deal of unrest. From Ewa, Waialua, Keolu and Honolulu plantations, delegations have been sent to Honolulu to see the Japanese consul and the Immigration companies. These interviews have been satisfactory, and no strikes have occurred.

On Kakaia it is reported that one of the Japanese laborers who considers himself quite an orator, tried to stir up trouble. Fortunately, however, he is without much influence among the laborers, and they decided before acting on his advice to send a delegation to the Japanese consul. The result was that the laborers did not strike.

The representatives of the Immigration companies think that the troubles on Maui will quiet down and settle themselves very soon now. They think that the soberer and more conservative of the laborers understand their rights and will not be led by the demagogues that they see nothing can be gained by striking or causing trouble.

VISITING SCHOOLS. The Philippine Educator Looks Into Hawaiian Primary Schools.

Superintendent of Public Instruction for the Philippines, F. W. Atkinson, this morning visited a number of the public schools in company with Superintendent of Public Instruction for Hawaii, A. T. Atkinson. The Superintendent of Public Instruction is particularly interested in the Philippines, where the pupils represent a number of different nationalities, and it was to schools of this kind that the first visit was made. Afterwards a visit was made to schools where the children are mostly Chinese, where it undoubtedly is a number of schools of this kind throughout the Philippines.

Later in the morning the visiting superintendent went to the Bishop Museum and was shown through that interesting institution by Prof. Brigham. At noon Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Atkinson were entertained at lunch by Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Atkinson.

The party took a wagonette and visited the Kakaia, Pauoa and Kaula schools. The first two are small institutions. At the latter the visitor found just what he was looking for—a school of various nationalities. There he examined minutely into the details of management and methods of instruction.

When the tour was finished the Philippine superintendent expressed himself as more than pleased and professed by his visit to Honolulu, and the schools here. He requested of the local education authorities copies of the various school forms and pay rolls, the latter to guide him in making up his schedules. All the data required will be supplied him this afternoon.

GRAMP STUFF AT AUCTION

THE FURNISHINGS OF A PALACE SOLD.

Board of Health Provided Fine Goods for its Wards—Parlor Tables and Cow Bells, Chairs and Beds.

Charles F. Schermerhorn, acting for Auctioneer James F. Morgan, yesterday sold all sorts of material from the various detention camps of the Board of Health. This stuff was purchased during the plague epidemic, but a large part of it was never used. The auction took nearly all day, the end not being reached until about 5 o'clock.

As a rule fairly good prices were realized. The list of articles sold included almost everything a man could think of. In fact, just what use there was for some of the plunder it is impossible to guess. For instance there was a big chest of drawers. There were also a couple of cow bells, and it seems hardly probable that a necessity existed for being any of the unfortunate refugees there.

This was not all. There were several dozen fancy center tables. It was at that time that these were used for afternoon teas and ice cream parties in the camps, but on the best authority it was learned that such was not the case. The tables were very fine, such as any citizen would buy for his reception room, and appeared to have passed over to the Board of Health without much injury. They bought fair prices.

A big lot of office chairs went cheap. A local dealer bought them and felt that he had struck a Klondike. They were well made, and readily command a good retail price.

Other tables were "no slouches." Fetal boards of fine wood, and extension leaves in detention camps! The Japs and Chinese there had previously been used to the rough side of a northwest plank. Many of the beds were fine enough for a New Mexican wool merchant or a Parsee prince. Mattresses, many of them, were of the best, and the sheets and blankets were such as to make the poor Asiatics in the camps dream of marble halls and the like. Bedspreads by the hundreds were sold by the auctioneer at about $3.50 a dozen, and some as low as $1. They could not be duplicated for many times this figure, and the purchase bill for them was evidently quite large.

The quarantined band lived well at the camps. This is self-evident. It is not strange that they did not wish to leave. The Board of Health certainly looked out for them in the best possible way. It is not surprising that some Chinamen are not afraid of the plague; they should and do rather like it.

JOHNNY FLOUCON IS FREE

EIGHT YEAR OLD SCHOOLBOY RELEASED.

Commissioners of Education Promptly Mitigate the Sentence of Judge Waipulani.

Johnny Floucon was set free early this morning and sat in Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth's office waiting for his mother to come and take charge of him. The boy said he had not stolen any books or papers, but that the other boys had, and had given him some of them. His parents have decided to stay in Honolulu for the present. At about ten o'clock the mother took away the youngster who so narrowly escaped a two-year term in the reformatory school.

Johnny Floucon, eight years old, convicted of the awful offense of joining with half a dozen boys of his own age, and in a boyish prank taking papers from the schoolhouse, which had been told not to do, is now free.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Atkinson and the Commissioners of Education acted promptly in the matter when it was brought to their attention. The boy arrived by the Kinau, as was stated in yesterday's Star. His father and mother, broken hearted, had given up their employment on Pahala plantation and come to Honolulu to live in order to be near the boy. High Sheriff Brown interested himself in the case as soon as he heard the circumstances of it. So did F. A. Schaefer, the Austrian consul, the parents of the boy being Galicians, and subjects of the Austro-Hungarian empire. The mother petitioned the Commissioners of Education to release the boy.

The petition of the mother sets out that the boy is only eight years old, and has always been well behaved. His offense consisted in going into a schoolhouse and taking some papers that did not belong to him. As soon as the mother found out about the matter she caused the papers to be returned and as complete restitution was made as possible. What he did, the petition avers, was more in the nature of a boyish trick than anything else, and was participated in by several other boys, though these were allowed to go free.

The petition further avers that the mother and father are perfectly able to take care of the boy, and feel that his future life will be much influenced for the bad by his two years' stay at the reformatory school.

F. A. Schaefer, the Austrian consul, who forwarded the petition, says in his letter regarding the matter: "There is no question in my mind but that in the case the parents are able and willing to take charge and care of the boy than the reformatory school, and it would be an act of undue severity fraught with dangerous consequences to the future life of a very young boy, to detain him in the reformatory school for further time. Certainly the mother will not live through such a trial, and the boy, who I am assured is not by any means a boy of a bad disposition, would not benefit by a two-year's detention in the reformatory school, but the reverse."

High Sheriff Brown called the attention of the Commissioners of Education to the case in a communication, setting out the facts of the offense, and saying: "The boy's parents were employed on the Pahala plantation, Kau, and state that the boy's previous conduct and behavior has always been good. The parents are very much broken hearted over the matter; in fact, have left the district of Kau and moved to Honolulu, in order to be near the boy."

Upon receiving the petition, the Superintendent of Public Instruction immediately sent them around to the Commissioners of Education, and received their approval of the boy's release. Commissioner E. J. Mart-Smith, E. Van O. Hall, A. C. Jordan and J. W. J. Smith signing their approval, and then the following letter to W. G. Needham, superintendent of the reform school, was written:

"In accordance with section 1405 of the penal code, I hereby authorize the discharge of John Floucon, a Galician, aged eight years and six months, who was convicted by Judge Waipulani at Kaula, Hawaii, on the first day of June, 1900, for the offense of malicious mischief, and sentenced to two years' detention at the reformatory school."

VISITING MOLOKAI. Superintendent Reynolds of the Molokai settlement left yesterday for his post. He will remain on the Island about two weeks. The Bishop of Pannopolis also went up to dedicate a new mission chapel there. While at Molokai Mr. Reynolds will arrange for the coming visit of the Board of Health, which will take place some time in July.

SPECIAL AGENT SENT. Ernest W. Russell leaves by the Claudine this afternoon for Maui to take the census at Spreckelsville, where a failure was made by the native enumerator. It will be remembered that the enumerator was assaulted by Japanese laborers of the plantation, badly beaten and driven from the place. He might have been killed had it not been for the timely arrival of the plantation officials on the scene. Mr. Russell was commissioned by Superintendent Atkinson this afternoon. He was lately on the census in Honolulu, and proved a most trustworthy man.

TO FLOAT PLANTATION. McClanahan's trip to the Malahad was in the interest of the new plantation at Wahiawa near Waialua. Financiers on the Coast are anxious to take up all the stock that is to be let out and Mr. McClanahan's business will be to close with them. The attorney expects to be back early in July.

THE CATS CAME BACK

FROM KAKAOKO TO THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

Storekeeper Kelly's Vain Efforts to Get Rid of Some Felines Ends in a Decision to Keep Them.

Storekeeper Kelly of the custom house has been trying for some time to get rid of a cat and several kittens, but after a last supreme effort he has given it up, and this morning he was buying food for them. Kelly's last attempt was by tying them up in a sack and having them taken to Kakaoko, but when he arrived at his office this morning the mother rubbed against him with a plaintive mew and now she is working hard at the task of bringing the rest of the family home.

Kelly's cat is an old timer at the custom house, and no one thought she was a bother till the kittens came. Then it began to be difficult for a tender-hearted man to work in the same room with them. They seemed to be looking for chances to be stepped on. One day last week Kelly came in and found one of them having a fit in the middle of the office. While the while he stepped away from his desk onto something soft and heard a painful scream on the floor. Kelly jumped so quickly that he upset an ink bottle, and then he decided that the cats must go.

The pretty creatures were presented to a native who assists the storekeeper. They were tied up in a sack and carried to the native's home in Kakaoko. This was on Saturday afternoon. Sunday and Monday passed and the office of the storekeeper was without cats or kittens to be stepped on. This morning Kelly found the mother rubbing against his legs with her tail in the air, and the native reports one of the kittens gone. The latter is supposed to be on the way. Kelly was mad at first, but later he submitted and rustled up some food for the cat. Kelly thought that if the cats were taken to Kakaoko inside a sack, not being able to see their way they would never be able to find their way back.

The next time he wants to get rid of them he will drown them or send them to another island.

SATURDAY'S RACE. Interest in the match race between Aggravation and Ahuhimani, which will take place at Kapiolani Park track Saturday afternoon, is growing daily. Wagers are apparently even, although the friends of Aggravation appear to be most numerous. This is due in part to the announcement that Nichols will steer that animal. As previously announced, the race will take place at 3 o'clock sharp.

PROTET TO LEAVE. The French cruiser Protet leaves tomorrow for the Marquesas Islands, to enroll whence she will go to Tahiti. Her officers have enjoyed their stay here, and express the wish that they might remain in Honolulu longer.

MRS. GLADSTONE DEAD

WIDOW OF THE "GRAND OLD MAN"

Passes Away After Seventy-two Hours of Unconsciousness—Sketch of a Remarkable Woman and Wife.

LONDON, June 14.—Mrs. Gladstone, widow of William E. Gladstone, died at 5:40 p. m. today. Mrs. Gladstone, who had been unconscious for about seventy-two hours, died without recovering consciousness. She was over 80 years of age.

The news was immediately conveyed to Queen, the Prince of Wales, the Dean of Westminster, the Dean of Lincoln, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Arthur J. Balfour and others. In the course of the evening William Gladstone heir to Hawarden, arrived from Eton, shortly followed by two sisters from London. The bells of Hawarden Church rang muffled peals.

By courtesy of the Dean of Westminster and in accordance with arrangements made in 1839, the funeral will be held in the Abbey. The interment will probably take place on June 19th, being of a private a character as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone were married on July 25, 1839. Mrs. Gladstone was the eldest daughter of Sir Stephen Richard Glyne of Hawarden Castle, Flintshire, and sixty years ago she and her sisters were known as "the beautiful Miss Glynes." Unlike the wife of any other Prime Minister, Mrs. Gladstone never ceased in her having a salon for surrounding herself with rich and powerful friends who would simply care to be received at the house of a Prime Minister, and yet have no real interest in the cause which he so thoroughly and entirely championed. Instead she gave her time to caring for him, to seeing that he was, under any and all circumstances, as comfortable as possible, and that in this way his health was preserved for the nation for whom he did so much good. It was in charity work rather than in the political field that Mrs. Gladstone believed women can do best, and she herself set this good example by not confining her work to those about her own home or near her, for during the dreadful cholera epidemic of 1876 she visited without fear the London hospitals every day and established convalescent homes.

Among those participating in the program were: Miss Cordelia Hyde, Miss Maud Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mott-Smith, Miss Peck, Miss Della Griswold, Mrs. Tenney, Miss Castle and P. D. R. Isenberg. Thirty children from Kauihali school also sang a couple of part songs.

MADE HIS ESCAPE.

HILO, June 21.—After much trouble with his crew Captain Bailey sailed out with the Susquehanna for New York on Tuesday morning. One young sailor who got away three times and was each time captured and put aboard in irons on the 13th, and three days later jumped overboard with handcuffs on and reached Cococanut Island in safety. There he was met by the carpenter, and when the latter tried to capture him the sailor neatly knocked him down and made his way to the mainland, where he went into hiding until yesterday morning. The boy had worked hard for his freedom and earned it.—Hawaii Herald.

Don't Preach

Economy these good times some one says—but the smokers we cater to are men of affairs who know what's what and we'll get their cigar trade if we convince them they save money buying here.

We pay a little more than some dealers for cigars to get extra care in the selection of the tobacco leaf and for better work.

Our specialty is selling imported cigars that you pay more for elsewhere—and don't get as good tobacco either.

Alsen Portland Cement

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a large shipment of this celebrated Cement, which is the STONGEST AND MOST SERVICEABLE CEMENT MADE, and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand; it is therefore the most economical. ALSEN has no equal in color, fineness and sand carrying capacity. It weighs less per bushel, measuring about 10 per cent more cement to a barrel than other brands, which very materially reduces its cost as compared with other cements; it is therefore an economical cement to use, and specially adapted for fine concrete work. The following tests, made in actual work by Col. D. C. Houston, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A., at the seawall around Governor's Island, New York Harbor, has never been equaled by any other cement. It is as follows: Tensile strength per square inch—One day, 384 pounds; seven days, 600 pounds; thirty days, 818 pounds. For sidewalks it gives the best color and the most durable wearing surface. A few of the large contracts in which Alsen Cement was used: Cable R. R., Baltimore, 35,000 barrels; Quebec Harbor Improvement, 20,000 barrels; Northern Pacific R. R. bridges, 20,000 barrels.

PREPARING FOR TOMORROW

WORK OF MASS MEETING LAST EVENING.

General Committee Appointed and Sub-Committees at Work—Preliminary Program Adopted.

A gathering in Company B's room at the drill shed last evening laid the foundation for a proper celebration of the Fourth of July this year. Immediately following the meeting Chairman George W. Smith appointed a committee of twenty-one to take charge of the program to carry out. A meeting of this committee will be held in the Chamber of Commerce between the hours of 12 and 1 tomorrow afternoon.
George W. Smith the chairman of the old committee called the meeting to order and outlined the work to be done.
He drew attention to the fact that native Hawaiians were now American citizens and should be honored on the committees and as factors in the celebration. In closing the speaker announced that he could not under any circumstances accept the office again.
Mr. McCants Stewart deplored this condition of things and appealed to the chairman to reconsider. The community had had a particularly great strain upon it lately in the way of public functions. Now very little time was left for arrangements and unless there was a good executive head and one who understood how to press matters to satisfactory results quickly a successful program on July 4 could hardly be hoped for.

Mr. Stewart thought a Hawaiian should be elected chairman.

Mr. Stewart insisted that for many reasons the old chairman was the only one that would fill the bill. He then put a motion unanimously electing Mr.
Smith to succeed himself.

Clarence Crabbe who was hidden in the back of the hall, was located and unanimously elected secretary.

Chairman Smith reported that there was $975 on hand, left over from last year, and that with this very little more money would have to be raised.

Mr. Stewart moved that the chairman be authorized to appoint a committee of twenty-one with power to add to its own number, and to appoint sub-committees. Carried.

Mr. Stewart moved as a suggestion to the committee that a program of literary exercises and music be made out.
He thought the literary exercises should have as a feature three or four twenty-minute speeches, the purport and central idea of which should be educational. There were many new citizens in Hawaii this year, and the object of the celebration should be to teach them as far as possible the meaning of the day, and the institutions and principles of their new country.

Mr. McCandless thought the suggestions good. There would be ample material here for the carrying out of the ideas. On motion of Ed Towse it was given as the sense of the meeting that the committee work on the lines suggested by Mr. Stewart.

The question of a ball came up. There was considerable opposition to it, however, for several reasons. One was the expense, a ball being the principal item in the bills of a Fourth of July celebration; next, the town is hardly over the effects of the big Admission Day ball; again, with the season at the opera house and other social functions of the summer, the town has about as much as it can attend to. On motion of Mr. Towse the meeting agreed that the program should include salutes, a parade, aquatic sports, literary exercises,
field sports in the afternoon and fireworks at night, leaving the question of a ball to the committee.

After the meeting Chairman Smith announced the following committee of twenty-one and sub-committees:

G. W. Smith and C. L. Crabbe, ex-officio; William O. Smith, treasurer; T.
McCants Stewart, J. J. Kelley, W. G.

were suggested for speakers on the Fourth.

ON MAUI.

Some Peaceful Themes From the Troubled Island.

PAIA, Maui, June 22.—Mrs. J. B. Castle and party arrived last week for a sojourn for the summer at their deli-
The cool, delightful climate is a boon,
after the heat of Honolulu.

Messrs. J. P. Cooke and E. R. Adams,
of Alexander & Baldwin, arrived
Wednesday, for a look over the plantations here. They return tomorrow.

Census takers have about finished their labors, and with a few exceptions,
have experienced very little friction.

Most unusual clouds of Kihel dust have covered the mountain side the past few days.

Maui people are on the lookout for that first wireless telegraph message.

Misses Simpson and Hart of the Bern-hardy, and F. C. Atherton, returned from their trip around Esat Maui yesterday, and report a fine time. Miss Simpson leaves for Honolulu tomorrow,
en route for her home in the States,
after a residence of several years on Maui. She and her party, especially Makawa District, will miss her greatly,
as she has been an active and popular member of Makawao society, both musically and socially. The best wishes of her friends go with her.

WHARF RATS AGAIN.

The police are after the wharf rats
again in full chase. On Saturday David Kaapa made a raid on the wharf front and gathered in no less than twenty-three, most of them engaged in an exciting game of seven-eleven. They were of all sizes and ages. Yesterday all were convicted in the police court. Fifteen who were Hawaiians, were given sentences of ten days, and eight Portuguese paid fines.

A GOOD THING.

There's one good thing when they feel dry. That business men cannot pass by.
For far and wide it's fame you hear.
They stop to drink of "Rainier" beer.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26, 1900.
 SUFFER LITTLE CHILDREN.

John Floucon, aged eight years and six months, criminal. Judge Waipulani of Kau, justice. Poor little John Floucon sentenced at eight years and six months to be taken from his father and mother, who would no doubt have spanked him for his terrible sins, and condemned to two years in the reformatory.

Perhaps one has allowed a sense of injustice to come into the statement above made. Justice is justice, and wherever crime is committed it should be properly punished. At eight years of age one has so thorough a knowledge of right and wrong, such a clear idea of meum and tuum. Why, little toddlers of that age steal grandfather's spectacles and hide them, and grandfather smiles, and says, "What little rogues they are," and there go grandmother's gloves, hidden away, found tomorrow, next day, never, yet grandmother finds little or no fault, even if grandmother has a tendency to get cross, as old people have a tendency to do.

But it is necessary to consider this dreadful criminal, John Floucon, eight years and six months of age, as his mother's petition says he is. He must be a desperate criminal to have got into the meshes of the law. What black-hearted crime he must have been condemned for, to be torn from the protecting arms of his mother and father and consigned to the somewhat untender mercies of an ill managed and so-called reformatory school? Did he murder a school fellow? No! Did he burn a house, a church, a school—in fact, did he do really any criminal act?

This poor wretch of humanity was charged with "malicious injury." He had destroyed some papers and some books, in which two other boys joined. The rest were let off, but this eight-year-old ringleader was brought up with a sharp turn. The full force of the law was poured forth on the baby. For what is an eight-year-old child but a baby?

Just think of the majesty of the law dealing with this hardened sinner. Think of the fact that this unregenerated little sinner, aged eight, had evidently started upon a career of crime of unprecedented ferocity which at nine might hardly have been curbed, and then think of the wonderful foresight and humanity of Judge Waipulani, who consigned the child to the reformatory school among his fellow criminals for two years.

What this poor little fellow has suffered up to now, no one can tell? What his parents have suffered, who cares? But it does seem that an unnecessary cruelty has been committed. A cruelty against humanity which should be marked by the strongest reprobation. This baby, with other babies, stole something or other out of a schoolroom, it may have been books or papers. What of it? The thought of Sir Isaac Newton when his dog destroyed the abstruse work of twenty years by overturning a candle and burning up the papers, naturally recurs. Said the philosopher, "O, Dimond, Dimond, little thou knowest what thou hast done."

And we may say to Judge Waipulani in very much more stringent terms, "Thou little knowest what thou mightest have done." Unless there were a power that could undo what the judge had done, he might have very well have wrecked a soul and a family. It is acts like those of Judge Waipulani which make men defy order and law; who say that there seems no justice on earth, and who wonder in this black world, where they can turn for mercy. What man of American birth; what man of English birth, but would resent even to the breaking of the law, the consignment of his eight-year-old child or baby, practically, to a reformatory for a trivial, or even for any offense, no matter how heinous.

The commissions of justices will have to be renewed; no one can feel thoroughly satisfied that the Supreme court will be justified in reappointing the sapient magistrate of Kau to his position. He has covered himself with judicial honors; he has shown a wisdom greater than that of Solomon or of any other jurist; he has had the honor (?) of making a criminal of a baby. And yet there was one who said: "Suffer little children to come unto me, For of such is the kingdom of Heaven." And among those who came to those protecting arms, those tender Christ embraces, might have been some errant little wail of eight who had done wrong, and who founded that bosom in which we all, with our sins blacker than midnight, hope to receive forgiveness, a gentle, restful, motherly spot which Judge Waipulani refused to the baby criminal of eight years of age. The dying thief on the cross received absolution; would Judge Waipulani be harder?

It is needless to add to the above that the commissioners of education were at once informed of the case through High Sheriff Brown, and that as soon as the necessary machinery could be put in motion the action of Judge Waipulani was reversed. The section runs as follows: "Section 1495. The Board of Education shall have power, for good reasons shown to its satisfaction, to discharge * * * any child committed to or admitted to any industrial school." This section of the law allowed the enlargement of the baby criminal, and long before these words appear in print the little chap will gladden the mother's heart, who has left her position in Kau, to come and look after her offspring. She would have been less than a mother had she not done so. For once a wrong has been righted, and High Sheriff Brown deserves credit for bringing the case before those authorities who could act.

NOT AT ONCE.

The arguments in favor of a special session at once have been laid before the Governor, also the arguments against such a use of the executive power. After careful consideration by himself, and consultation with his executive officers, he has decided that a special session, before the general election in November is inadvisable. In this decision The Star thinks the Governor is right. The effect of a double election, a double registration, and the general turmoil of a political struggle for many months is not one that any one, outside of the worthless professional politician, would look upon with favor.

The Territory has suffered very seriously, how seriously only the merchants can tell from their books, from the plague and its inevitable concomitants. Business is just beginning to make its way—untrammelled it can make it. Trammelled it can not. Start a legislative boom in a month and you will have the whole country by the ears, business neglected and the very advancement which we all are eager for will have, to use a common phrase, "gone by the board."

The arguments against a special session are cogent. There is necessity to look over the field for so much and before action is taken, so much that will commend itself to voters. There is necessity for the proper organization of the executive. In this direction nothing can be settled off hand. The interpretation of the organic law is no easy task and in the absence of telegraphic communication with the central government, it will always be difficult.

The Governor decided yesterday that he would call no special session, but at the same time he proposes to call an extra session after the general election in November. It is a solution of the difficulty which will commend itself to every one who has the interests of the Territory at heart and Governor Dole is to be commended for his political acumen in proposing such a solution of a very difficult problem.

B. P. HERE.

The Hawaiian Islands entertained a hero embryo some time ago. Baden-Powell, the hero of Mafeking, made a tour through the group some years ago, but he was then a man of no particular mark; only a British officer on leave of absence, traveling for pleasure, besides he was only a major then. A paragraph going the rounds just now, runs as follows:

"A most gruesome experience of Baden-Powell's was his voyage in a little twenty-ton steamer in company with a dozen lepers en route to Molokai, the famous leper settlement of Hawaii. Powell did not realize the situation until it was too late to retreat, and when he remonstrated with the captain he got the cool reply: 'They won't hurt you. You don't catch leprosy like that.' They were all packed like herrings in a barrel, and the future hero woke during the night to find a leper's head reposing on his feet."

The anecdote is evidently apocryphal, because lepers were always carefully segregated from the other passengers, but it serves to point out the fact that the gallant B. P. as his countrymen like to call him, was on the Islands and took in the sights.

Wireless telegraphy will soon be no novelty to us, and we shall get as accustomed to it as we have to the telephone, which at first was such a wonder to us, or the railway train which was a wonder to our forefathers. In a year or so we shall be grumbling that the service is unsatisfactory.

Census taking on Maui seems to be somewhat of a dangerous pursuit. One census taker had to bolt before an infuriated mob of Japanese, while his interpreter was badly man handled. This is probably the only case in the whole of the United States, where such a thing has occurred. The census will be taken nevertheless.

The appointment of Theodore F. Lansing to be Treasurer, fills up the territorial positions in a satisfactory manner. Mr. Lansing has had considerable experience as locum tenens of the office of Minister of Finance during lengthened absences of S. M. Damon, and therefore goes into the office with a thorough knowledge of the manner in which it has been conducted so successfully in the past.

An effort at regular house numbering is to be made. The details are to be in the hands of the Superintendent of Public Works. Of course it will require a law, when the legislature meets to enforce the numbering, but no doubt property holders will willingly assist the department in carrying out this reform even before any law is passed. By the way this is the third or fourth time the houses have been numbered it is to be hoped that the present plan will prove permanent and satisfactory.

BOXERS KILL AN ENVOY

FOREIGN LEGATIONS AT PEKING BURNED.

This Sensational News Comes by Associated Press, But is not Confirmed by Official Government Dispatches.

The Pacific Commercial Advertiser this morning publishes the following special Associated Press dispatches received by the transport Thimast:

LONDON, June 16, 4 p. m.—A special dispatch from Hongkong says all the Peking legations have been destroyed and that the German Minister, Baron von Ketteler, has been killed.

DETROIT, June 16.—Baron von Ketteler, the German Minister to China, who is reported to have been killed in the Boxer riots, was a son in law of Henry B. Ledyard, president of the Michigan Central Railroad. The Baron was married to Miss Ledyard in 1891. When the news was conveyed to the Ledyard home, it was their first intimation of what is said to have occurred. Members of the family stated that the Baron's wife was with him in Peking and that a cablegram had been received from them a week ago saying that all was well.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Nothing has been heard here by officials to confirm the alarming reports of the destruction of the embassies and legations in Peking, and in view of the fact that the government itself is not able to open communication with the scene of the troubles, the officials are inclined to doubt whether private enterprise could do more.

In other words, they do not believe the report. Minister Wu of the Chinese legation here, called at the State department this forenoon, but he declared that he was without any advice from his own government and said that his visit to Secretary Hay had reference to a personal matter.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Unless telegraph communication with Admiral Houghton is restored speedily, a fast vessel will be ordered to proceed from Manila to Taku for news. Secretaries Hay and Root are now in conference with the President regarding the sending of troops to China.

HONGKONG, June 16.—The British first class cruiser Terrible, with troops, sailed for Tien-tsin this morning.

Capt. Percy M. Scott of the Terrible, previous to sailing, arranged to land a twelve-pounder and other ship's guns for land service.

The British first class cruiser Undaunted has suddenly been ordered under sealed orders. She will sail immediately.

Trouble is brewing near West river. Riots have broken out at Bunchow, whence over a hundred refugees arrived at Wu Chow June 12. About 5,000 rebels have assembled at Kwei Li Sien.

Bodies of Canton troops passed through Wu Chow June 12 on their way to meet the rebels.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Chinese situation has not been improved during the last twenty-four hours, avers the London correspondent of the Tribune.

Admiral Seymour, with 2,300 marines, is not more than three-fifths of the distance between Tien-tsin and Peking, and the Boxers are destroying the railway in front of his force and burning bridges behind it. The excitement at Shanghai and Tien-tsin is increasing, and it is rumored that the relief column is itself in need of rescue. Admiral Seymour is a cool, intrepid officer of excellent judgment, and can be depended upon to conduct the force to Peking if supplies hold out. The foreign admirals may have miscalculated the strength of the Boxers, and it may be necessary to send a Russian military force to support the marines. The Russian reserve of seventeen hundred men is already on shore, with guns and horses, and this can be increased by 4,000 men from Port Arthur. Englishmen who have a confirmed habit of seeing a deep intrigue in everything Russian, are convinced that the bridges are burned and the marines isolated in order to provide the garrison at Port Arthur with a pretext for sending an army to Peking. In this Chinese affair it is difficult to find out what is on the carpet without trying to look under it.

NORMA AT KAUALA.

The hoodoo schooner Norma has arrived safely at Anahole, in spite of the predictions made that she would not get there this time. Such predictions are nothing unusual. There is nearly always someone saying she will never be heard of again, when the Norma goes out. The last time she went out she struck the reef on one side of the harbor, got afloat and then struck bottom on the other, but she simply went ahead when she got off again, and now she is reported safely at Kauai.

MYRTLES TO DANCE.

The Myrtle Boat club will give a ball on the evening of July 4. Arrangements are being made for an elaborate affair and undoubtedly it will be duly patronized. Committees are already at work and preliminaries will all be arranged before this week is out.

So far as known the fire works will be the only other event that evening. It was at one time thought that the Neill Company would play but Mr. Neill is disposed to alter his original program.

The board fence around the old Parthenon block was entirely removed this morning.

HER MOTHER'S GIRL.

A bright, handsome girl on the borderland between childhood and womanhood, is at once a source of pride and anxiety to her mother. But she has grown fast and is still growing. Nature makes stern demands upon the slender body. The skin is dull, the eyes lustreless, the cheeks and neck are sunken, the appetite is capricious, and the movements languid. The trouble is impurity of the blood. It needs the life-giving elements from which alone the body derives its vigor and health.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

of the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry, has saved many such girls. It contains all the flesh-forming and strengthening qualities of the oil without its loathsome taste. Taken before meals it creates an appetite, stops the emaciating process, puts flesh on the thin and bony body, and ruddy cheeks soon tell the story of pure blood, good digestion and recovered health. It is a scientific modern combination of the best of curatives made palatable as honey. Taken in time it prevents consumption: taken in time it cures. "Dr. J. L. Carrick says: I have had remarkable success with it in the treatment of Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Catarrh and Serofulous Affections, and consider it a marvelous success in medicine." It is food and medicine combined. To give it a trial is to believe in it always thereafter. Genuine only is effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists.

Pure, Rich Blood

Gives Appetite, Tones Up the Nerves.

When the blood is bad everything is bad. There is loss of appetite, great depression, the nerves are weak, no energy, the face is pale, and there is loss in flesh. Mrs. Annie Power, of Spring Hill, Brisbane, Queensland,
sends us her photograph and says:

"I have suffered greatly from loss of appetite, great weakness of the nerves, thin blood, and from the trying climate of this part of the country, especially during the summer. I have used

AYER'S
Sarsaparilla

with perfect satisfaction for these troubles.
Other members of my family have taken it and many of my friends. I believe it to be the best family medicine there is in the world."

If you are constipated, bilious, tongue coated, or if your food does not digest well, take Ayer's Pills.

QUARANTINE KNOCKED OUT

SAN FRANCISCO HEALTH BOARD
NOT SUSTAINED.

Judge Morrow Decides It Was Admit-
tered "With An Evil Eye and An Unequal Hand."

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Judge
Morrow of the United States Circuit court, this morning knocked out the quarantine of Chinatown, and put an end to the health board's reign of terror. In an elaborate oral opinion he held that the Circuit court had jurisdiction to question the reasonableness of the quarantine as a police measure;
that the quarantine was unreasonable
because it included a large and popular section, while communication with houses, supposed to be infected, was not prevented, and thereby the health board, by keeping 10,000 Chinese exposed to the plague, had increased and not diminished the danger of contagion, if any disease or danger existed; that the quarantine discriminated against the Chinese and was, therefore, in violation of the federal constitution; and that the health board had administered the law "with an evil eye and an unequal hand."

Judge Morrow said forcibly that in his opinion bubonic plague did not exist and had not existed in this city, and that he would so decide if it were necessary. He granted an injunction and ordered that the quarantine of Chinatown cease.

District Judge De Haven was not present, but concurred with the opinion of Judge Morrow.

RENO, Nev., June 16.—An order was received last evening by Federal Health Officer McQuestin in this city. It was sent by Quarantine Officer Kinyoun in San Francisco. The local officer was ordered to search all east bound trains for passengers from San Francisco at the State line. These were to be required to present certificates signed by the United States marine officer. In the event of their failure to produce this document, they were to be turned backward in their flight.

WOMEN IN THE PUBLIC EYE.

The Massachusetts Daughters of the American Revolution have purchased for the Medford, Mass., cemetery a monument to Sarah Bradley Fulton, one of the State's revolutionary heroines.

A monument to cost $3,800 is to be erected over the grave of Mrs. B. M.
Goldberg, in Forest Home cemetery, Milwaukee. It will be a granite and a statue five and a half feet high will surmount a column thirteen feet in height. The statue will be an exact likeness of Mrs. Goldberg.

The last descendant of John Bunyan has just died at Lincoln, England. In the person of Mrs. T. M. Keyworth.
The last male descendant died many years ago, and a monument is erected
to his memory in Lincoln cemetery.
Now the honored line is extinct. Mrs.
Keyworth was nearly 99 years of age.

The will of Mary Adams Bulkley, who died at her home, N. Y., on May 1, was filed in the surrogate's office at White Plains recently. The will is written in the testatrix's own handwriting. Mrs. Bulkley wrote the will on December 5, 1898, and she was 70 years old at the time she made the instrument. The estate is estimated at about $250,000.

Mrs. Laura A. Alderman owns the largest orchard in South Dakota. According to W. N. Irwin, chief of the division of pomology of the department of agriculture in Washington, Mrs. Alderman has near Huxley, Turner county,
two acres being given over to plums.
Besides the trees there are 1,000 currant bushes, 1,000 gooseberry bushes, 500
grapevines, and three acres of strawberries.

TOBACCO FOR HAWAII.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The change to American methods of the internal revenue collection of Hawaii has caused some trouble among shipping people.

A number of eastern shippers of tobacco and opium sent freight to this coast for shipment to Hawaii previous to the 14th of June. By having the freight leave this port by that date the shippers escaped the internal revenue tax. The freight was delayed on the way, however, and the bark Rhodrick Brim was unable to get away till 2 o'clock yesterday. The internal revenue officers learned the fact today, and the vessel will be stopped at Hilo and a tax collected on the taxable goods, which consist of two carloads of bottled beer and a large quantity of tobacco.

The schooner Robert Hinds has almost completed loading for Honolulu.
She has a quantity of tobacco way down in the hold.

Revenue Agent Towne said it was subject to tax and would have to be unloaded. An appeal has been made that the tax be collected at Honolulu, as the cost of reaching the tobacco and taking it out would be $625.

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES.

SACRAMENTO, June 14.—The Democratic State Convention today selected the following as delegates at large to the Kansas City convention:
James G. Maguire of San Francisco;
James D. Phelan of San Francisco;
Stephen M. White of Los Angeles; M.
P. Tarpey of Alameda.
