JURY SECURED, TRIAL WAITS

Examination of Jurors Finished--Six Are Excused--Defendants Use All Their Peremptory Challenges-- Trial July 1st

The members of the jury who will listen to the evidence in the conspiracy case are: Sam Pupahi, Henry H. Piemer, Hiram Kalomoku, Charles A. De La Nux, Sam M. Hamakau, D. P. Fuller, George Townsend, Jr., John D. Padaken, John P. Mitchell, William E. Tirrell, Thomas C. McGuire and Charles A. Yarrick.

"What papers do you take?" asked Attorney Lightfoot in examining B. R. Campbell.

"The Evening Bulletin," "Do you read it?"

"Of course I do," replied Campbell, "what do you suppose I take it for?"

Everybody in the courtroom laughed, and Judge De Bolt ordered Bailiff Hopkins to rap for order.

But in the end Campbell had to go. Lightfoot and the leaders of the Beach and Wage Association, on trial, could not stand for anybody who read the Bulletin.

Deafness seemed to occupy considerable time this morning in the examination of jurors. Juror Seymour was the first man who complained he was deaf in one ear, and often raised parts of sentences spoken to him.

He caused laughter by saying: "I got trouble from my wife because I misheard."

"Then," said Mr. Kinney, "you don't hear all the things said to you?"

"No, sir; I don't always."

Thomas O'Brien was another afflicted with deafness in one ear, but was certain he could hear most everything until the judge spoke to him in a low tone.

"You'll have to come again, Judge," he said, planting one hand over the good ear. Lightfoot asked him if he would not call for testimony to be repeated, in case he did not hear plainly. He said he would, but it was evident that the juror's hearing capacity was defective, and he was excused.

Lightfoot discovered in the examination of John A. Bortfield that his son worked as a time-keeper on a plantation.

"Don't you think," asked Lightfoot, "that if you sit on this jury and acquit these defendants, that the plan-

CONSPIRACY CASE TAKES PRECEDENCE

Riot Trial Blocked Till Tomorrow For Completion of Jury

An inevitable clash was looked for this morning when the riot and conspiracy cases were called for hearing in Judge De Bolt's and Judge Robinson's court, but unusual conditions straightened out the matter.

In the case of the Territory against Makino, Negoro, Soga, Tasaika and Kawamura, in Judge De Bolt's court, a jury had not been secured up to today.

If by tomorrow night the actual trial of this case had not begun, the case would have to go over until the next term. On the other hand the riot trial is well under way and could be continued until next month. The conspiracy case will now be pushed ahead and unless something unforeseen happens the taking of testimony will begin today.

The riot case is set for continuance until tomorrow, but there is no certainty as to whether it will proceed or again be continued in preference to the other case.

As it stands, Attorney Lightfoot has temporarily succeeded in blocking the wheels of justice in one case at least, whereas if he would have consented to the appointment of another attorney to defend the men charged with riot, both trials would now be forging ahead in which case the attorneys for the prosecution would divide themselves up to carry on the two trials.

Palama Hospital May Close

Reports have been circulated that the Palama General Hospital, commonly known as the Chinese Hospital, is to be closed the latter part of August.

When seen this afternoon Frank Atherton, treasurer of the hospital, said that the matter of closing the hospital had come up before the trustees, and that if it was to be done it would be solely for the reason that other like institutions would make its continuance necessary and that the money spent could be of greater use elsewhere.

He denied the assertion that any alleged enmity against Dr. O'Day had anything to do with the matter, but said that if it was patronized more by the doctors, and if they thought its continuance would be a benefit to the city, it would be continued.

Mr. Atherton stated that the suggestion had been made of using the hospital as a tuberculosis camp, but he does not know whether this will be carried out.

LLOYD CONKLING FOR TREASURER

Chief Clerk Executive Department Named As Choice Of Governor Frear--Appointment a Great Surprise--An Old Newspaper Man

David Lloyd Conkling is Governor Frear's choice as Treasurer of the Territory. The formal announcement will be made upon the return of Mr. Conkling from Hawaii tomorrow, where he went on business connected with the Secretary's office. The appointment comes as a great surprise to Mr. Conkling's host of friends, as the general opinion prevailed that James W. Pratt, Commissioner of Public Lands, would be the man selected to fill the position.

However, the Governor could not have chosen a better executive officer, a more faithful public servant, nor a more willing worker in behalf of the people's interests. And Conkling is an old newspaper man, which makes his appointment all the more interesting. For nearly four years he was identified with the Bulletin, and made a wide circle of friends through out the Territory while serving in this capacity.

Governor Frear said regarding Mr. Conkling: "I hold a very high opinion of the others available for the position. Mr. Conkling has shown a high order of ability in his present position, and has had much to do with finance in the course of his work. He is a good all around man."

Mr. Conkling has held for two years the position as chief clerk under Gov-

GRAND EXCURSION WILL DRAW CROWD

Many Plan To See Volcano and Hilo On The 4th of July

Tickets for the big Hilo and Volcano excursion will be ready Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co.'s office. It will be necessary for all those who have already booked to call for their tickets Wednesday, otherwise it will be presumed that they do not intend to go and their places will be sold to others.

There is already a great demand for tickets for the excursion and the Inter-Island's office will be a very busy place Wednesday when the tickets are issued.

The Mauna Kea, which will take the excursionists, will leave Honolulu at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon and arrive in Hilo about 5 o'clock Sunday morning. The train will be waiting at the dock for volcano passengers and will take them through the lovely tropical jungle that lies between Hilo and the Volcano House. They will have the greater portion of the day and all the night at the Volcano.

Lycurus has planned the choicest viands the region of the volcano can furnish, along with choice edibles from all parts of the world, for the delectation of guests at his popular caviar-sary on the brink of the crater and Madame Pele has promised a display of Nature's own fireworks that will do honor to the glorious 4th of July.

After viewing the volcano, guests will be taken back to Hilo to witness the splendid sports program furnished by the people of the big island metropolis. The Mauna Kea will arrive in Honolulu Tuesday morning so that business men will lose no time from their work.

The Inter-Island Co. requests all who intend to go to book Wednesday morning and they will be given good accommodations. Round trip to Hilo $15; to volcano $10 extra.

H. C. Club Beaten
By Bishop &
Co's Team

There was a good game of cricket on Saturday at Makiki and resulted in a team from Bishop & Co. defeating the H. C. C. by the respectable margin of 67 runs.

The result of the game was a surprise to many people, but is about the best thing that could have happened for the good old game in this city. For now that there is an outside team which has proved capable of defeating the H. C. C., there will be much more interest taken in the game, and the members will get out to practice more than they have done in the past.

The H. C. C. won the toss and sent their opponents in to bat. That action showed confidence, but, alas, it was misplaced, as the Bishop team piled up no less than 131 runs in quick order.

Macconel and Cockburn showed good form and knocked up 77 runs between them. The former's batting was a good exhibition of clean, vigorous hitting. He never gave a chance and was finally caught and bowled by Maclean for 43.

Cockburn, who also played in excellent form, hit up 34 before succumbing to one of Anderson's wily slows, which he hit to McGill, who made a nice catch.

Gray, who, with Macconel, opened the inning for Bishop & Co., made 13 in his usual neat manner before Morse cleanly bowled him with a well-pitched ball, which came in a little from the off.

There were no "duck eggs" on the Bishop side, and each man managed to score at least one before getting out. The extras in the shape of byes, etc., mounted up to ten runs, and helped to swell the total considerably.

Balley and Beardmore opened the ball for the H. C. C., but the latter was brilliantly caught by Sinclair off Baird. Morse filled the vacancy and knocked up 9 before hitting one to Sinclair, who easily held it.

Bob Anderson was disposed of before he had got properly set, and Sinclair was responsible for his dismissal. Maclean was top scorer for H. C. C., making 15 before he was run out in attempting a short run.

Fiddes, who was bowled by McIntyre, knocked up 11, and seemed to be at home to be bowled until McIntyre pulled one out of the box and knocked the off stump back a foot or so.

The H. C. C. total of 64 is very small, and it is hard to account for it. The wicket was as usual, and the team a fairly strong one. Anderson was got rid of cheaply, and Morse also went for a few. The fact that no less than five men went for cyphers effected the result a lot, but the H. C. C. team, on paper, should have done better.

Bob Anderson accounted for no less than eight wickets and bowled in excellent form. Sinclair, for Bishops, had a hand in getting rid of five men, catching three himself and getting the other two with the ball.

McIntyre's average of 3 wickets for 8 runs was remarkable, as was Simpson's who captured 2 wickets for the same number of runs.

There was a large crowd of spectators present and the game was much enjoyed. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and a good time was had by all.

The scores are as follows:

Denison, Mana and Betsy; and Dillingham, Paulos and Stumpy.

Dr. Irwin was on the ground ready to play substitute if called upon, but his services were not required. The line-ups were: Oahu Polo Club — Dr. Baldwin, No. 1; George Denison, No. 2; Walter Dillingham, No. 3; John Fleming, No. 4.

Fifth Cavalry—Lieutenant Barnard, No. 1; Lieutenant Queckmeyer, No. 2; Lieutenant Sheridan, No. 3; Lieutenant Hanson, No. 4. Umpire, Lieutenant Conner, U. S. Engineers. Time of periods, 7 1-2 minutes. Actual time of game, 1 hour, 23 minutes.

Quite a number of people remained at the barracks for dinner, and a most enjoyable dance was held afterwards. The officers were most hospitable and treated everyone right royally. The entire trip was a most enjoyable one, and many were the wishes that another polo match be played in the near future.

The trip home was made in fast time, and the marvelous pineapple fields were only glanced at. And more is the pity, for one felt inclined to linger and inspect this new industry which is rapidly making such strides. The roads were in good order, and except for a little dusty patch here and there, the run to the city was as good as could be hoped for.

The general opinion is that the Maui players will have to be at their best to defeat the Honolulu team, and that when they come to town to do battle with our representatives the biggest crowd ever seen at a polo game in these islands will turn out to see the match.

SWIMMING RACE RESULTS IN DEAD HEAT

The fifty-yards swimming race which was held at the Waikiki Inn yesterday resulted in a dead heat between W. Battersby and W. Kinslea, with one second start. The third man was J. Peenoh, who started off the 11 seconds mark.

The race, which was watched by a large crowd, was a most interesting one. There were six starters, and they all finished in a bunch, inches only separating the different men.

The starters were Battersby, Kinslea, Edmunds, Peenoh, Waldon and Kent. The favorite for the race was unable to start, owing to a slight indisposition, and Fairweather also did not face the starter. The time put up by the two dead heaters was two seconds slower than "Smacker" covered the distance in last week. It is to be regretted that the champion was unable to swim in the race.

It was decided to swim off the dead heat next Sunday afternoon, and another race over 100 yards will probably also be pulled off at the same time.

BASEBALL ON HAWAII BOOMING IN GREAT STYLE.

Baseball is booming on the big island, and large crowds attend every match. In the present series the Hilo team has won no less than five out of six matches and lead in the competition.

Last Sunday's baseball game between the Mooheau and Hilo teams proved a walk-over for the latter, who won by 6 to 0. The Mooheaus were entirely at the mercy of the Hilo pitcher, D. Kealoha, and were only able to secure one bludge off his delivery, which was made by Todd.

Great Interest Is Shown In Scraps

As the time approaches for Jack Cordell and Dick Sullivan to step into the ring, interest in the event is becoming very keen. Tickets are going off in great style, and from present indications the Orpheum will be crowded on Saturday night next.

Sullivan is a slight favorite over Cordell, but that is only natural, as Dick has been so long in this city and has shown what he can do in the squared circle.

Cordell has impressed everyone by his cleverness and good condition, but it remains to be seen if he is as quick as Sullivan. Both men are in the pink of condition, and both are determined to do their level best on Saturday night.

Cordell has been going in a lot for swimming lately, and he is becoming tanned and bronzed looking. He looks upon a fifteen-round contest as only a short journey, and reckons he will get through without much trouble.

Sullivan knows exactly what he is up against and is taking no chances in his training. He is watching his weight closely and is just hovering around the 159 pound mark now. He will step into the ring as fit as hands can make him, and there is no doubt but what he has a great chance of winning.

Sullivan's supporters laugh at any suggestion as to the champion being beaten. He, in their opinion, cannot possibly lose to Cordell.

The new comer, on the other hand, has a following of barrackers who say he will beat the stuffing out of Dick. Well, both sides cannot tip the result correctly, and, anyhow, what about a draw?

It is sure going to be a fine scrap from the tap of the gong, and it will be a touch, a touch, and yet more a touch, for ten rounds or so.

The preliminaries will also be good, and everyone will be glad to see McCollough in the ring again.

The second preliminary will probably be between Sarcon and a sailor from the St. Louis, and yet one more will be between "Kid" Franklin and another St. Louis man. The Sydney bloke is a pretty smart glove artist, and will make the man-of-warman sit up (or rather down) before the bout is finished.

WAILUKU BASEBALLERS EXCITED OVER GAME.

That the Maui baseball players are excited over the prospects of the inter-island game is very evident, and the following from the pen of a Wailuku fan will be read with interest:

WAILUKU, Maui, June 25.—(Special)—All the baseball fans and players are enthusiastic over the offer made by Honolulu men for Oahu team to come up and try conclusions with a picked Maui team of crack ball players July 3 and 4, Saturday and Sunday.

The Maui men held a meeting Monday evening last and arranged to play the Saturday game at the Kahului Park, and the Sunday game at Well's Park, Wailuku. All the gate receipts, after deducting expenses, to go to the Honolulu team.

The All-Maui team will line up as follows: Meyers, c; Kruger or Ah Hoek, p; Wm. Bal, 1b; J. Garcia or Nowell, 2b; Bailey, 3d; Ah Yau, ss; Cummings, lf; Walker, cf; Wm. Morris, rf; Dan Arisa and P. Epsinda, subs; W. S. Mountcastle, manager; Meyers, captain. A sob arm will prevent Upton, the Maui crack pitcher, from taking part. Meanwhile all the loyal Maui fans will get the Kuhunas at work to have the Honolulu men pick up the carefully worked over bats with the big invisible holes in them.

185 editorial rooms—256 business office. These are the telephone numbers of the Bulletin office.

In the second inning. As there was no one on base at the time the lone bludge did no damage. The standing of the teams in Hilo League, including the games of last Sunday, is as follows:

MISS HELEN TAFT AND SHAFT SHE UNVEILED AT GETTYSBURG

Gettysburg.

Miss Helen H. Taft, daughter of the President of the United States, appeared for the first time in a public function today, when she unveiled the monument erected by Congress to the memory of the regular army officers who fell in defense of the Union. The President, Jacob S. Dickinson, Secretary of War, and army officers of high rank from every section of the United States joined in making the observation of Memorial Day one of the most noted since the Civil War.

Veterans and cadets, statesmen, diplomats and civilians all paid homage, and in spite of the fact that the experience must have been novel to one who had never ventured beyond the limits of her school, Miss Taft carried herself with a quiet dignity and self-possession that won the admiration of all.

Marks Historic Spot.

The monument she unveiled, and before which her father, the President, delivered an oration is a magnificent shaft on Hancock avenue, just south of the "high-water mark" of the war, where Pickett's men were finally stopped in their historic charge.

Upon the great bronze shafts at the base of the shaft are the names of all the officers in the cavalry, artillery, infantry and engineer commands of the Federal regulars that participated in the operations about Gettysburg. The monument cost $200,000 and was built with money appropriated by the National Government.

On the fields in the peach orchard and upon the hills surrounding the spot where the monument stands, other stones have been erected, each seven feet in height, to mark the location of the different commands during the engagement.

President Taft's private car Olympia reached Gettysburg Station attached to the regular passenger train from Hanover. A detachment of regulars met the party and acted as escort of honor to the battlefield. The presidential party included the President, Miss Taft, Wendell Mischler, assistant secretary to the President; Capt. Archibald Butt, his military aide, and the usual secret service guard.

President Greeted.
As soon as the President appeared in the rear platform of the car, all the soldiers within view came to attention, and the artillery battery planted on the eminence a few hundred yards away boomed out the 21 guns of the presidential salute. The Thirteenth Coast Artillery Band played "America" as the President and his party took their places in the stand facing the monument, and when the familiar strains of the national anthem died away Chaplain H. N. Chouard of the Fifth United States Infantry offered prayer.

President Taft's address followed, and was an appreciation of the heroic deeds of the regulars in the great war. The States had built monuments to their native sons on many shell-scarred fields, he said; the deeds of the volunteers had been commemorated on both sides of the Mason and Dixon line with scores of noble statues and granite shafts. It remained for the National Congress fittingly to remember the valor of the regulars at Gettysburg—those men whose duties called them to a life of arms and made them bear the brunt of every charge.

As the representative of the Government those soldiers fought to save, as well as any American citizen whose blood still stirs the intrepid courage displayed by the men who wore the Federal blue. As President he felt honored in assisting at the ceremony of giving to the world the Government's token of praise.

Miss Taft Unveils Monument.

Upon the conclusion of President Taft's remarks, Miss Helen Taft took her station at the base of the granite shaft, grasped the cord that held the enshrining flags around the monument, and at the word given by one of the officials, swiftly and silently the flags were flung aside. As they floated in midair above the heads of the crowd on either side of the monument the band burst forth with the "Star-Spangled Banner." The cheers of the throng well nigh drowned the music, and then the guns of the Thirtieth Artillery added to the noise with a

BRILLIANT WAS THEIR SEAMANSHIP

Party of Adventurers Come to Grief on Rabbit Island

Good old Rabbit's Island came with in an ace of playing the role of Juan Fernandez Island and a party of four punk mariners by the same token nearly did the Robinson Crusoe act, yesterday. The party were from the steamer Mokolii and were landing grub and breakfast paraphernalia preparatory to taking a hungry bunch off the same steamer. The latter event never occurred for the simple reason that the commensariat boat hit a snag in the shape of a rock and ripped the side of the boat, spilling the provisions on the briny deep and spilling the crew into it likewise. The party consisted of C. D. Wright, George Humphreys, D. L. MacKay and a Jap sailor, one of the crew.

The boat was unloaded in a hurry and pulled up on the beach. Thereupon tacks, hammer and tarpaulin were dispatched by the captain from the steamer via E. F. Patten by the swimming route. Patten got the cramps when half way over and had to be rescued by Humphreys, and the boat was patched up sufficiently to allow transferring the balance of the provisions, consisting of nil, and the wrecked ones back to an admiring bunch on board the boat, who ordered the boat headed straight for the nearest food, not having eaten since the night before. The party left the foot of Fort street Saturday night, and it was originally intended to be a fishing expedition, but one was rock cod caught by accident was the only trophy.

The ceremonies were concluded by Secretary of War Dickinson, formally presenting the monument to the Gettysburg Battle Field Commission. The latter received it through Chairman Lieut. Col. John P. Nicholson. Laurel wreaths then were placed on the base of the monument by the oldest surviving battery commander present, and "taps" were sounded.

The President and his party returned to Washington at 3:30 p. m., being due there shortly after 5.

SPORTS

POLO MATCH WON BY OAHU TEAM

Big Crowd Attends Polo Game at Lilehua and Cheer Honolulu Men on to Victory—Dillingham and Baldwin Show Excellent Form—Sheridan and Hanson Do Well.

It was well worth the fifty-mile journey to and from Lilehua on Saturday to see the Polo game between the Oahu and Fifth Cavalry teams. The result surprised most people, for, although it was expected that the town team would win, such an overwhelming victory as a score of 9-1-2 to 1-2 goal was not for a moment anticipated.

The trip down to Lilehua was made by most people in automobiles, and a great number of machines were in evidence. The press party made the trip in style—that is, for the first fifteen miles. Then everyone began to wonder who the Jonah was, for small mishaps began to happen every mile or so, and finally it looked as if the party would just about get to Schofield barracks in time to "walk right in and turn around and walk right out again," as the song states.

However, by the liberal use of handfuls of earth from every plantation en route the reluctant clutch was at last induced to grip, and the final stage of the journey was made in great style. To a man who is making the trip to Lilehua for the first time in an automobile the "figure eight" curves in the road, with the sheer drop of hundreds of feet on either side, rather makes the mailman's hair stand up.

However, all's well that ends well, and the arrival of the press machine was celebrated with eclat, as just as the machine slowed up into line at the side of the polo field, all the honk, honk, honks in creation were turned loose to celebrate the fact that Walter Dillingham had scored the first goal three minutes after the hit-off.

The delight of the Honolulu contingent was unbounded, and the Lilehua crowd could hardly believe the fact that they were up against it from the jump. But the worst was yet to come—that is from the Cavalry point of view, as, shortly after changing ends, Fleming took a beautiful pass from Baldwin, and, riding in dashing style, hit clean and true between the goal posts. More honks and yet some more.

The ladies of the cantonment were much in evidence, and the old gold colors of the Cavalry team were everywhere to be seen, and even when defeat was obvious the fair sex rooted splendidly for their team. Shortly before the recall was sounded for the end of the first period, Baldwin scored after a fine run down the field. More honks.

With the score of 3 goals to nil, in favor of the Oahu team, things looked very bright for the town players, but the fair barrackers for the Fifth did not lose heart. Cries of "We score a goal this time sure" greeted the cavalry team when the bugle summoned them to the field once more. But it was a false hope, as the Oahu team simply outrode and outplayed the other team at every point of the game. At the start of the second period Quekemaier and Hanson made a determined attempt to score, and come racing down the field with the ball at their mounts' feet. Fleming, however, saw the danger, and, riding brilliantly, rode Hanson off, and Dillingham, coming up on the run, took the ball down into the cavalry territory. After several attempts at scoring, which were all blocked in excellent style, Dillingham once more whanged the sphere through the posts. Honk, honk!

Just before time was up for the second period, Denison scored with a very pretty shot. A foul was called against the Oahu team early in the second period through a Honolulu player riding off a man at right angles. This period ended with the Oahu team leading by 5 goals to 1-2.

In the third period another foul occurred and another half point was added to the Oahu total. Then Hanson made a good run down the field, and cheers went up from the Lilehua fans, but Fleming got in a beautiful backhander and Denison took the ball out of the danger zone. The ball then went out of bounds, and after the hit-off Baldwin passed to Denison, who scored the sixth goal for Oahu.

Shortly afterwards Baldwin got in some good work, and one of his tries for goal only missed the posts by inches. He, however, made another beautiful drive and hit clean and true between the goal posts, making the score 7-1-2 to 1-2.

In the fourth and last period the Cavalry team did their best work, and they threatened the Oahu line several times. Still they could not score, and Baldwin, who was playing in brilliant form, scored with a lovely drive after a fine run down the field. Fleming a little later got on to the ball and added the last goal to the Oahu score, which then stood at 9-1-2 to a solitary 1-2 for the Cavalry.

The game was well worth watching, although one sided, and the spectators were kept on the qui vive all the time. Sheridan, for the Cavalry, played about the best game of his side, and Hanson did well at times.

The most conspicuous thing about the Cavalry's team play was their want of combination, and that was fatal to their chances of winning. The ponies of the Cavalry were a fairly good bunch, but the Honolulu gee gees had it over them for pace all the time. The Fifth did their very best, and actually were improving as the game went on. No doubt, now that they have seen what concerted play can accomplish, they will practice all the harder and the next time they meet Oahu will play a much better game.

The names of the ponies ridden by the Cavalry men could not be obtained, as the miniature horses have not yet been christened. Each man had two ponies, and they certainly worked them to a finish. Dr. Baldwin rode Princess and Comet; Fleming, Mallet (late Pony) and Pats; (Continued on Page 10) appointed by the English Government to inquire into the merits or demerits of beer as a beverage has reported that the idea that beer is primarily an alcoholic drink is erroneous, and that beer, when well and properly made, is a beverage containing a very small amount of alcohol and a relatively large amount of nutritive material.

Says The Hospital [London], in part, in an editorial about the report: "It is time the erroneous view that beer has no nutritive value in itself, and merely consists of a beverage upon which a certain portion of the community intoxicates itself, should be exposed and discredited. The results of our Commission show that beer is par excellence the nutritive alcoholic beverage. All beverages because they contain alcohol should not be regarded in the same light. The spirit-nipper is committing quite a different act from the beer drinker. . . . When a man drinks good beer he drinks and eats at the same time, just as when he eats a bowl of soup. . . . Our Commissioners point out that a man might more properly be said to eat beer than to eat certain kinds of soup, or indeed watermelon."

The whole story is told in "The Literary Digest" of May 29th, and its chief importance lies in the fact that the conclusions arrived at by the Government Commission are becoming recognized by scientific people all over the world today.

Good beer is the ideal beverage for Honolulu. It will give you new strength and vigor; but, to get good beer you should order

CLIFFORD KIMBALL GOES TO HALEIWA

Well Known Colfer Will Succ-ed Bidgood As Host

Clifford Kimball will succeed St. Clair Bidgood as the host at Haleiwa hotel. Tomorrow afternoon he will go down to Waiaina to receipt for the stores and so forth, and at 12:01 o'clock on the morning of July 1, he will ceremoniously take over the whole establishment, bag and baggage, Bidgood having arranged for his resignation to go into effect the end of this month.

Kimball is now making his arrangements to take up his residence at Haleiwa. He will not give up his business interests here entirely, having made arrangements for the handling of his agencies.

Kimball plans to boost the golf feature of Haleiwa to the full limit. An enthusiastic sportsman himself, he will doubtless be able to draw golfers to his excellent links in large numbers and Haleiwa will probably share pret-

JAPANESE WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Mrs. Nakayama, a Japanese laundress, swallowed three quarters of a bottle of corrosive sublimate last night, and, although alive at an early hour this morning, is not expected to live through the day.

It appears that the unfortunate woman is said to have attempted suicide twice before, but without success. Her husband is employed at the fish market, and on his return home he found his wife in a hysterical condition. Shortly afterwards she obtained a bottle of ant poison and drank three-quarters of the bottle.

Dr. Haida was summoned, and on arrival did all he could to alleviate her terrible sufferings. He then reported the matter to the police, who, on the doctor's recommendation, did not remove the woman to the hospital.

The unfortunate woman was in a sinking condition at noon time today, and, according to the doctor, has very little chance of recovery.

HIGH SHERIFF MOVES OVER TO OAHU PRISON

The sign of the High Sheriff and the pleasant smile of William Henry will soon be missed from the Palace. It is house moving time with the High Sheriff and his clerk, Patrick Gleason, and they will shortly be established within the walls of Oahu Prison.

It came about because of the fact that the demands on Mr. Henry are so numerous, and the inconvenience of distance between the Prison and Palace offices compel him to arrange a different system. Also a deputy is needed in attendance at the office of High Sheriff, and by the transfer he will be in close touch with one of his men. Mr. Henry will now have his permanent headquarters at the Prison, and as to what disposition will be made of his old quarters has not been decided.

GREAT TRIPS FOR CONTESTANTS

Alaska-Yukon Managers To Show Them About Puget Sound

DETAIL OF TRIPS AS TOLD BY PUBLICITY DEPARTMENT

Two Days for Side Trips Arranged for Visitors Who Are Sent to Fair by Newspapers.

Three steamer trips covering several hundred miles through the waters of Puget Sound, including a visit to the largest salmon canneries in the world, great Alaska cod-fish curing plants, lumber and shingle mills, together with a near view of Mt. Rainier and the snow-clad Olympics, have been arranged for members of newspaper contest parties visiting Seattle this summer.

Puget Sound is the greatest body of water in the world, and with its bays, inlets and other attractions offers more of the real beauties of nature than might be found anywhere on traveled highways.

Fast steamships will carry the sightseers to Tacoma, to the Puget Sound Navy Yard, to Anacortes, Port Townsend and to Bellingham, covering every point of interest on this great inland sea. Visitors to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition will marvel at the wonders of nature, at the mountains, the rivers, the forests. Surely it is a rare combination of beautiful things, an inspiring highway for the pilgrims of pleasure.

Two days will be required to make the side trips already arranged. In one day Tacoma, the metropolis of Pierce County, and the Puget Sound Navy Yard may be visited. At Bremerton Uncle Sam has on display some of the largest battleships in the navy, besides submarines, torpedo boats, training ships and the largest dry dock in the world.

The Navy Yard is situated fifteen miles from Seattle, and is reached by the Port Orchard Route's new steel steamship H. B. Kennedy, the latest addition to the fleet of magnificent passenger boats on the Pacific, and built especially for summer tourist travel.

An afternoon can be profitably spent in Tacoma, a city of 125,000. Surrounding Tacoma is perhaps the most natural scenery in the world. The city boasts of many attractive parks, automobile and carriage drives, beautiful residence districts and long rows of warehouses where vessels load cargoes for coastwise, Alaska and foreign ports. Arrangements have been made to carry the contest parties on the steel steamship Indianapolis, the cost of the trip to be included in a special rate offered for the three outings.

The second day is a voyage to Port Townsend, Bellingham and Anacortes. This trip will be made in the ocean-going steamship Chippewa, and will require a full day. Several hours will be spent on shore at Anacortes.

Leaving Seattle, the Chippewa will steam out of the harbor, giving a fine panoramic view of Greater Seattle with its ten miles of waterfront through quiet bodies of water. Port Townsend, the seat of government activity on the Sound, is reached in three hours. Near at hand are Forts Casey, Worden and Flagler. At Port Townsend are headquarters of the customs service, immigration service, quarantine station, revenue cutter service and many other branches of the government work.

On Port Townsend Bay is situated the immense plant of the Hadlock lumber mills, and the Ironside iron smelter and coke ovens. The sardine canneries at Port Townsend are alone an attractive feature. Arrangements have been made by the Puget Sound Navigation Company, operating the steamship Chippewa, whereby contest parties will be admitted to mills, canneries and other places of interest.

Anacortes is rightly called the "Gloucester of the Pacific," and here it is no unusual sight to see more than 100,000 salmon in a single cannery ready for packing, later to be shipped all over the world. Here the various canneries have a daily capacity of 20,000 48-pound cases. This is the cycle year in the salmon canning business. Every fourth year the sockeye, the great commercial food fish, appear in great numbers from the depths of the ocean, and this is an opportunity seldom offered tourists to gain knowledge of just how the salmon are caught, cured and packed for shipment.

The canning season lasts from May to November, and every part of the big plants will be open for inspection. In Anacortes are two cod-fish packing concerns where the fish from Alaska are cured and packed. The by-products of the various canneries go to make glue, and at Anacortes is an immense cement plant.

The trip for the day concludes with a visit to Bellingham and a cruise through the San Juan Islands, the pearls of Puget Sound, a rival of the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence. Here an entire county, San Juan by name, consists entirely of islands. For more than twelve years both American and British troops occupied San Juan Island, until the boundary question was settled and the sites of the old military camps are places of much historical interest, now marked by granite monuments. The total land and water area of the islands is about 200 miles.

Thousands of tourists take this voyage every year, and, combined as it has been with the Tacoma and Navy Yard trips, will enable the contest parties to visit all parts of Puget Sound in a short length of time, making the most attractive water excursion in the world and one forever to be remembered. This is the first time that the San Juan Islands trip has been combined with the Port Townsend, Bellingham and Anacortes trips, and offers a most delightful outing.

At Seattle the special excursion steamers dock at the Colman wharf, one of the largest on the Pacific and one that compares favorably with the big railroad piers of the Atlantic Coast. Taken all in all, visitors to the Exposition City this year have a rare treat in store in the side trips which the exposition will be able to offer through the special rates to be given newspaper contest parties.

NOTED ARTIST WILL PORTRAY PLANTS

Oscar Maurer Here To Record Hawaii's Flora

Hawaii's tropical grandeur soon will be far from a closed book to the mainland, for Oscar Maurer, famed far beyond the boundaries of the United States as a camera artist, plans to record her glorious South Sea foliage by means of the Lumiere achrome process.

Maurer's successes with color photography have been as pronounced as his achievements in monochrome, and his Hawaiian plates will doubtless form one of the most interesting and beautiful portions of his already priceless collection.

Maurer came to Honolulu without any blare of trumpets, and his presence has remained unknown to all but a few devotees of the art photographic. He is preparing to render indelible the memory of Hawaii's plants and shrubs through the medium of silver and gelatine, however.

COMPLAINT MADE ON AMERICAN BID

The Attorney General has under consideration the papers relating to the bids of the American Sugar Company and the Parker Ranch to furnish the Leper Settlement on Moloiki with beef cattle during the coming year. The bid of the American Sugar Company is conditional and was referred by the Board of Health to the Attorney General to determine whether it was legal or not.

The condition contained in the Sugar Company's bid is that the trail up to the Settlement be maintained and kept in good condition by the Board. The Parker Ranch people protested against the condition. The matter will be settled today and the papers turned back to the Board of Health.

DRIVER ACQUITTED

Leong Nam, a hack driver, was up before Judge Long this morning on a charge of heedless driving. It appears that the Jehu was driving along Beretania street and managed to collide in some way with a cyclist who rode in his path.

C. F. Chillingworth appeared for the accused, and A. M. Brown prosecuted. There were several passages at arms between the attorneys, and some of the remarks were very warm.

It being proved to the satisfaction of the court that the Japanese cyclist was a good deal to blame himself for the collision, Judge Long discharged the accused.

PROSPER NOT BACK

The Prosper, as stated in the Star this afternoon, has not put back into port, nor has she been sighted headed in this direction at all. Officials at the Custom House saw her early this morning far off the harbor and evidently trying to get wind to get off on. The Pilot House reports a schooner standing in, but do not know her, saying however that she is not the Prosper. The Prosper is probably by this time settled down for her trip to Redondo.

Governor Frear is, in the opinion of Julian Monsarrat, a pretty good traveler after doing 15 hours on the slopes of Mauna Loa on his first day in the saddle, and 11 hours on the second day. The Governor explained that anybody who had occupied the executive office as long as he had would be the possessor of a pretty tough skin.—Hawaii Herald.

The Oahu Prison Commission held a meeting this morning with Governor Frear presiding. The principal matter discussed was the turning over of land for the jail, the new additions, and the expenditures connected with it. High Sheriff Henry was later summoned, and practically turned over the jail to the County officials. Sheriff Jarrett and all of the members of the Commission were present.

MONDAY JUNE 28, 1909

Every duty we omit obscures some truth we should have known.—Ruskin.

Work before Waghs can be considered.

Should the Mayor have an automobile? If the service of the people can be promoted, yes. If not, no.

Land Commissioner Pratt as the last act of his official career could well afford to give the people the latest correspondence in the Kapaun land deal.

Honolulu should send out a special call for "Sunny Jim" Sherman, the Vice President of the United States, to lead the Congressional visitors this year.

It is again appropriate to call attention to the fact that while New York and the East sweaters in blistering, deadly heat, the fortunate people of Hawaii keep cool all the year round.

According to the lively words that have been exchanged on the floor of the United States Senate between Senators Aldrich and Beveridge, there is every prospect of a new national party being formed. Who can tell but President Taft saw it coming when he called Democrats to his cabinet?

This is the time when diplomatic representatives occupy their vacation periods with conferences with the officials at headquarters if there is important work on hand. The return of Ambassadors Takahira and O'Brien to improve the opportunity of the summer season undoubtedly means that important negotiations are under way regarding the open door in the Orient. There can be no possible connection between these conferences and the recent interesting events in Hawaii. Our little domestic scrimmage is largely a matter of differences among Japanese residents. The majority of them want to work and a few are banded together to prevent them, by fair means or foul, from doing so. In view of the probability of important work on hand in Tokio and Washington, it is more than likely that the local agitators sprung their scheme at a most inopportune moment if they were at all disposed to serve the country to which they claim allegiance.

THE NEW TREASURER.

D. Lloyd Conkling, whom the Governor has selected as Territorial Treasurer, was for a number of years an efficient employe of the Bulletin. It is therefore impossible for the Bulletin to conclude that as Territorial Treasurer Mr. Conkling will do other than make good.

The appointment is a complete surprise. This paper believes the community had reason to expect the selection of Mr. Pratt, whose experience and very general endorsement made him a logical candidate for the position in consequence of the office of Land Commissioner being eliminated on the first of July.

AUTO SCORCHING AND MANSLAUGHTER.

Too much publicity cannot be given the remarks of Judge Mulqueen of New York City when sending William Darrach to seven years in State Prison for running down and killing a thirteen-year-old boy in the streets of New York City.

Darrach was indicted for murder in the first degree and after a long trial the jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter in the first degree. The account of the trial published in the New York papers indicated that the man was going so fast through the street that he had no control over his machine. The boy killed was playing "tag." After being struck by the machine he was dragged nearly a block before his useless and mutilated body dropped to the ground.

What Judge Mulqueen said applies to every driver of an automobile who sends it recklessly through a city street, well knowing that he is taking chances and placing in jeopardy the life of any person who may come unexpectedly in his path. "The automobile has come to stay," said the Judge. "Properly used, it is a source of healthful recreation. It is an important factor in business. It affords remunerative employment to many.

"But it is clear that its use is fraught with the gravest danger to the people. Therefore, all drivers and owners of these machines must be extremely careful. Recklessness and negligence will subject them to severe penalties. They must not seek their own pleasures or convenience at the risk of the public."

It was after the motion for a new trial had been denied that the Judge addressed remarks that should sink into the soul of persons who come under the head of automobile scorchers:

"It is the paramount duty of the State to protect the lives of our people.

"No new or obscure law has been invoked in this instance. The statute defining murder in the first degree is very old. It provides as follows: 'The killing of a human being, unless it is excusable or justifiable, is murder in the first degree, when committed: By an act imminently dangerous to others, and evincing a depraved mind, regardless of human life, although without a premeditated design to effect the death of any individual.'

"It was urged by your counsel that you did not intend to kill your victim. But it is an elementary legal rule that a man's intent may be inferred from his acts.

"When you took your seat in that car, you were free to drive carefully or recklessly.

"You chose to go at a most reckless pace. And you knew that you bore a message of death for the unfortunate in your path.

"You knew that all the people had at least an equal right to our streets and roads.

"You cared more for your own pleasure than for the life of any other person.

"You had the power to cease and you elected to do that which destroyed an innocent life.

"If any motive swayed the jury other than a sense of duty it was not a desire for revenge, but rather a spirit of mercy. Indeed, I am convinced that if you had been a rich man, or a dissolute man, the verdict would have been murder. The legal proof of murder was overwhelming."

DR. GOODHUE WRITES OF BERGIN CONFERENCE

Editor Evening Bulletin: In your issue of June 16th, last, I notice a reference to the possibility of there not being a Territorial representative at the Bergin Conference on Leprosy, owing to the failure of our Legislature to appropriate the necessary money, and mention is made of Dr. Currie's appointment as representative of the U. S. Government. There is no connection whatever between Dr. Currie's appointment and my own. He goes to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Brinkerhoff, and is detailed by the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service.

Dr. Wise of Washington, goes to represent the U. S. Navy, and I was appointed as a third delegate by the Department to represent the U. S., as a sort of "free lance," with orders to take up special matters before the Conference.

For this purpose I hold a special Commission which is now in my hands issued by the Department of State.

Upon my acceptance, and with the understanding that I should bear my own expenses, Governor Frear kindly asked me to represent Hawaii, to which I agreed, so that the Legislature was not asked to appropriate any money for my fares, and, so far as I am concerned, was not expected to make any such appropriation. Unforeseen demands upon my limited exchequer, and the difficulty of securing a satisfactory substitute for a field which barely pays living expenses, made it doubtful whether I could go when the time arrived, so last month, in order not to stand in the way of another appointment, I wrote the President and the Secretary of State, asking them to release me from my obligation.

Also, I stated that I should be pleased to have Dr. Clegg, of Manila made a special representative in my place.

So far as representing the Territory is concerned, Dr. Currie could act as a delegate from Hawaii, and would do so probably at no expense to the Territory, if commissioned by the Governor.

Or if, as you say, money to pay the expenses of a special Hawaiian delegate is available from the Contingent fund at the Governor's disposal, there are several physicians in Honolulu who might be charged with the business, all of them better qualified by training and experience than I am to assume this important and honorable office.

Yours truly,

"The Shanty," Honolulu, Hawaii, June 24, 1909.

(Dr. E. S. Goodhue evidently thought the Bulletin referred to his going to the Norway conference. The Dr. Goodhue at the Settlement was the one to whom attention was drawn. It isn't so much a matter of personality as it is of representation. Dr. Currie is all right, but being in the service of the Federal Government, he may be ordered to another post at any time. There are a number of physicians permanently established in the Territory and making a special study of leprosy who ought to be present at the conference, and if any of them can afford the expense the community ought to see that they go. The problem is the biggest Hawaii has, bar none.—Editor Bulletin.)

NO SUNDAY SALUTE HONORS IJICHI

Admiral Requested That Honor Be Omitted On Sabbath

Out of respect to Sunday, Admiral Ijichi, commanding the Japanese training squadron, yesterday declined the official salute as he was leaving the cruiser St. Louis.

Admiral Ijichi, accompanied by Captain Sato of the flagship Soya, and Captain Ishii of the Aso, and Flag Lieutenant Shimomura, yesterday returned the call of Captain Albert Gleaves, Admiral Ijichi asked the captain to waive the official salute to be fired in his honor.

Flag Lieutenant Shimomura, of Admiral Ijichi's staff, said this morning that the Admiral declined the honor because of Sunday.

Admiral Ijichi's cruisers, which were open for inspection yesterday afternoon, will be taken again. The public will not be permitted to visit the ships any more, in view of the arrangements which they are making for their homeward-bound journey, next Thursday. Those who have intimate friends on board the two cruisers, however, will be allowed to call on them during the stay of the ships in port.

Admiral Ijichi, Captains Sato and Ishii, and the Admiral's staff, will attend a banquet to be given tonight at the Commercial Club.

Tomorrow night, the two Japanese cruisers will be illuminated in honor of the Admiral's banquet to Governor Frear and other prominent officials and citizens of Honolulu. The Admiral's band will play during the night.

Another banquet on board the flagship will be given next Wednesday night by Admiral Ijichi, in honor of Consul General Uyeno and prominent local Japanese merchants.

Next Thursday morning, Admiral Ijichi's ships will leave for Japan. They will proceed to Hakodate, a seaport in the northern part of Japan, on the island of Hokkaido. After a short stay there, they will cruise around the other inland ports, terminating their cruise at the Yokosuka Naval dock, near Yokohama.

On arrival there, Flag Lieutenant Shimomura of Admiral Ijichi's staff, will probably leave the ship for a short vacation.

SOCIAL NOTES

The beautiful Waikiki residence of Mr. William G. Irwin was on fire Friday evening, the occasion being a ball given in honor of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Richard Ivers. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated by hundreds of electric lights enclosed in Chinese lanterns, quite putting out the soft radiance of the moon, which endeavored to peep down upon the animated scene. The grounds extend to the ocean, and there were little tables and seats for confidential couples placed about the waves of the Pacific lapping the shore making a gentle accompaniment to the murmur of the voices.

Mr. Richard Ivers received the guests at the door and Mrs. Richard Ivers assisted Mr. Irwin in greeting all comers. She looked handsome in a white and silver tulle and was an admirable hostess. Mrs. Ivers, Sr., was most distinguished, her beautiful toilette of satin and lace being most commendable. The quiet club was on the lawn and a buffet near them seemed most popular throughout the evening. Tall palms and many flowers lent themselves artistically to the decorative scheme, and the supper was served on the lawn, the guests being comfortably seated at little tables. This was a pleasant interlude and many healthful were drunk in champagne, which flowed like water. Mrs. Irwin was not forgotten, but often spoken of, her gracious presence and charming personality being much missed. After supper the dancing continued until a late hour, the barn dance being a popular number. Among those present were Admiral Ijichi of the Japanese cruisers, accompanied by Captain Sato and Captain Oshi. Princess Kawananakoa, Major and Mrs. Dunning, U. S. A., Governor and Mrs. Frear, former Governor and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mott-Smith, British Consul and Mrs. Ralph Forster, Mr. and Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. C. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Dr. and Mrs. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. George Davies, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kinball, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. A. Judd, Mrs. Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Hanney Scott, Mrs. M. M. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was held at the Waikiki Inn on Thursday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bergin celebrated the third anniversary of their marriage. The ball room was just nicely filled by the dancers, of whom there were some twenty couples. The decorations were very pretty and consisted of flags, ferns and pot plants. The music was of the best, and as the floor was in excellent condition the dreamy waltz and lively two-step were enjoyed to the utmost. There were some very pretty dresses worn by the ladies, and the whole scene was an animated one. Mrs. Bergin proved to be an ideal hostess and busied herself the whole evening in helping people to enjoy themselves. Light refreshments were served during the evening, and when the last dances were finished cheers were given for Mr. and Mrs. Bergin, and many wishes of long and happy lives offered them.

Mrs. Mary Shigum, who is a guest of Mrs. Lorrin Thurston of Hono street, had been extensively entertained during her visit here. She has hosts of friends who are vying with each other in the number of their entertainments, and on Monday Mrs. Charles Lyons gave an elaborate luncheon for her and Mrs. McGroves, the hostess of a luncheon in her honor. Mrs. Lorrin Thurston's "pat house" on Friday was an unusually characterized affair, the guests of honor, Mrs. Shigum and Mrs. Lyons, dressed in a fashion creation. The house was filled with flowers and the little tables on the final were gorgeous, all the afternoon.

A polo luncheon was given by Mrs. Charles Chillingworth on Wednesday, the decorations of the luxuriously spread table being in crimson and white, and immediately ferns and flowers contrasting. The guests included Mrs. Kawananakoa, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Stratemeyer, Mrs. Alexander Schmitt, Mrs. Lutz, Miss M. MacIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse gave an elaborate dinner at their Nuuanu City residence on Wednesday evening, their guests including Princess Kawananakoa, Mr. and Mrs. H. Atton, Mr. W. Melton.

HELENE WINS YACHT RACE BY FIVE SECONDS.

The Beckley cup was won by the Helene after a very pretty race which took place yesterday. The Gladys, as usual, made a bold bid for victory, but could not quite get up in time to win.

There were five starters, viz., Helene, Charlotte C., Gladys, Kamehameha, and Hawaii L. and they finished in that order. The Helene won by the narrow margin of five seconds and it appeared as if the Gladys should have been the first to cross the line.

The five yachts were close together at the start, and all crossed the line within a few seconds of one another. The run down to Diamond Head was made in fast time, and the yachts presented a very pretty sight as they passed Waikiki, where a lot of people had congregated to watch the race.

The finishing times were as follows:

Yacht	Time
Helene	3:59:05
Charlotte C.	4:04:02
Gladys	4:13:19
Kamehameha	4:19:45
Hawaii L.	4:25:00

ST. LOUIS BOYS AT BANQUET BOARD

Alumni Reunion Held Saturday Evening At College Hall

The fourth annual reunion of the St. Louis College Alumni, held in the dining hall of the college Saturday evening, was the largest and most enthusiastic assembly that has marked the very successful getting-together affairs of the young men of the college. Brother Henry, the beloved principal of the institution, presided at the head table. Beside him was Emil Berndt, who very efficiently filled the office of toastmaster through a program of great variety and interest. Ranged on either side were the guests of the occasion, including Mayor Fern, Supervisor Logan, Admiral Beckley and W. R. Farrington. Brother Frank of Waialuku and several of the Brothers from the Hilo school were present, and came in for many happy references from the "old boys."

Interspersed with the remarks of the Brothers, members of the Alumni and the guests were some very interesting stunts by the Alumni Glee Club, Mr. Kerr, Mr. May, Geo. McCriston and Mr. Vierra. The luncheon provided by Mayor Fern was cooked in the finest style and included all the delicacies of the season. The Mayor "brought down the house" when, after recounting his boyhood experiences marked principally by hard work, he said that if he could be allowed to attend school one day he would gladly become a St. Louis alumnus, and during that day he would turn the duties of his high office over to Supervisor Logan. The Mayor stated that being the youngest of fourteen children he had never been able to attend school a day in his life. All he learned he had picked up by studying at night and asking questions of others. He had to work all his life, but his children—he has fourteen—shall all attend St. Louis College.

Toastmaster Berndt started the ball rolling by calling on Brother Henry, who always has a fund of wit that he sandwiched in with good advice and common sense. Then came Dr. Cowes, who spoke for the Alumni. J. S. L. Holt, Brother Albert, Brother Frank, Mayor Fern, Supervisor Logan, C. H. K. Hopkins, W. R. Farrington, and A. Rocha of Hilo. Brother Henry gave an Irish oration that shows what a lot of wholesome fun there is in the teacher when he is out of school.

The reunion was marked by a letter from George Cooper of Maui, who is always heard from on such occasions and this time asked for a contribution for a church in Hana, which he had assisted in building. A good fund was contributed by the alumni present at the banquet. The session closed in time to catch the last car and the ernor Frear. He accepted the position shortly before the resignation of Governor Carter, and continued in office when the present Governor became the Territory's Chief Executive. Before he succeeded to this position, Conkling was connected with the Bulletin. Prior to that he was one of the most popular employees of the Inter-Island Steamship Company.

The Treasury portfolio became vacant when the Senate refused to confirm the appointment of A. J. Campbell. When Campbell's term of office expired, Attorney General Hemenway was appointed acting Treasurer. Governor Frear said Mr. Hemenway's services had been highly appreciated and satisfactory, and he had thought of a consolidation of the offices of Treasurer and Attorney General, if the Legislature was in session.

Mr. Conkling left for Hawaii last week to secure a record of Japanese births on the island, as under the present arrangement he is registrar of vital statistics, as well as being chief clerk in the Executive department. He has ably carried on the large amount of varied business passing through his hands, and it is believed that he will prove a very efficient Treasurer.

Mr. Conkling came to Hawaii from San Francisco, where he was chief clerk of the Law Library. Becoming attached to the climate and people of the islands, he joined the Bulletin business staff. He was later with Hackfeld & Company, representing them on Hawaii at Kailua, then returned to the Bulletin to join the editorial staff. From there he became Governor Carter's chief clerk.

Secretary Mott-Smith, when interviewed this morning regarding the appointment of Lloyd Conkling as Treasurer, was pleased in one way, that Lloyd got the job, but he is perplexed over the predicament he will leave him in.

"It is no easy matter to break in a new man or get a good one. I think the Governor handled me one," he said. Just now Mr. Mott-Smith is very busy getting the new forms and system of Vital Statistics in shape, and he is also swamped with other work. He has not considered any person specially for the position that he is willing to endorse.

Attorney General Hemenway said: "I am very much pleased to hear of Mr. Conkling's appointment. He has made good as chief clerk in a very hard position when a great many things are demanded of him. I know he will be an efficient Treasurer."

KILLED WHILST RIDING HANDCAR

Mrs. Louisa M. G. Sylvester, of Hauula, was fatally injured in a handcar accident on Saturday night. She died while being taken to Kahuku plantation hospital for medical attendance.

It appears that Mrs. Silva and some friends were enjoying a ride and at Kipapa, nearly opposite the residence of J. R. Castle, suddenly met another handcar which was coming down the grade. As soon as the car was seen the occupants began jumping, and all of them, with the exception of Mrs. Silva, escaped without serious injury.

Mrs. Silva's dress in some way got caught on the car, and she was thrown on to the track in front of the rapidly approaching handcar. She was struck on the head and dragged some distance along the track. She was at once picked up and put on board one of the handcars and conveyed to the hospital, but was found to be dead upon arrival there.

An inquest will be held today. The funeral took place this morning.
