

THE DAILY BULLETIN

PUBLISHED BY J. W. ROBERTSON & Co.

No. 69.

HONOLULU, H. I., FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1882.

Subscription: 25 Cents per Month.

The bark Amy Turner takes the largest cargo of sugar ever taken by one vessel from this port.

The whaling bark Ohio and whaling ship Young Phoenix cleared yesterday for the Arctic and cruise.

The barks Lady Lampson and Forest Queen sail to-day for San Francisco, with full cargoes of sugar.

Mr. E. P. Adams will sell household furniture, etc., at the residence of T. May, Esq., 99 Beretania st., this day, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Local items have been remarkably scarce this week, just about nothing happening. But the Legislature will meet soon, and then—

The atmosphere has been quite close for several days past; and yesterday all round the horizon to the South and West, a peculiarly brassy color was observed, suggesting a renewed activity by Madame Pele at Hawaii.

The bark Amy Turner, Capt. Newell, which sails to-day for New York, is the third ship which has left in a short time with a lading of Hawaiian sugars for Atlantic ports, her predecessors being the Adonis and C. R. Bishop. The Amy Turner takes 1468 tons of sugar, besides some 8 tons of wool, the total valuation being $185,913.34. There are also two more vessels on the way, which may probably be laid on for the East to load with sugar. The Eastern refiners will begin to think that we are really progressing in the cultivation of sugar, seeing that they cannot possibly mistake what we send them for the Manila article.

Vanity Fair of March 4th, says: The statistics of the last census show that we have an army of 700,000 habitual drunkards in the United States, 100,000 of whom are in the prisons and 300,000 in the Alms-houses; and 300,000 children of drunkards are dependent on private or public charity for support in whole or in part. Besides this, more money is expended for intoxicating liquors than for educational purposes, food and clothing. And what is equally as bad, carefully examined statistics prove that our Insane Asylums are filled with victims of intemperance. The insanity of a majority of the inmates is attributed to intoxicating liquors. To support these institutions of charity and crime, the people are burdened with taxes. Sabbath breaking has had much to do with increasing the army of drunkards.
