Total Bulletin Fund
at 3:30 today $290.

The people at the Settlement will have their moving picture machine. There is no doubt about it. The Bulletin subscription list shows what a prompt response the citizens of Honolulu make when there is good work to be done.

Learning from Superintendent McVeigh that the people at the Settlement wanted one of these machines to put them in touch with the outside world, the Bulletin immediately set to work to get the money and with what excellent result will be noted in the list of names and figures given. The exact amount has not been determined, but if there is any surplus there is no doubt that it can be well expended in the purchase of additional films. Superintendent McVeigh of the Leper Settlement can think of nothing else but "moving-picture machine" this morning, according to his own statement. He told how some of the recent arrivals at the Settlement brought the news to the old inmates of the wonderful sights and scenes that were brought before the eye from all parts of the world by the little machines. Straightway the people of the Settlement had a great hankering for the thing that would put them, though isolated all their lives, in touch with the doings of the whole world.

They planned a concert which will be given at the Settlement September 5th, and for which they have been training and practicing consistently for considerable time past. In this manner, they planned to raise what money they could among themselves with which they could make a start on the fund to purchase a moving-picture machine.

"I understand that some friends of the lepers here in Honolulu are planning a minstrel show to be given for the benefit of the moving-picture fund," said McVeigh this morning. "Who these people are I am not certain as yet, but I think that it would be a good idea. I did not make the statement that the people at the Settlement had already raised $100 toward the fund, but I said that we would and would raise that amount, if necessary."

In speaking of the home proposed for the white lepers, McVeigh waxed warm, for he said that this was a project which he believed should have been carried out long ago. The plan which he has in one which he drafted considerable time ago, but was unable to get the matter before the Board in the right manner. The plan is to have cottages placed around a square compound, in the center of which the common mess-room, bathrooms, and lounging-rooms could be placed.

Ask Bower To Umpire

Bert Bower will be asked to again handle the indicator in the games of the Honolulu Baseball League.

At a meeting of the League held this noon, a motion was carried to have a committee of one go to Bert and offer him again the place which he has for a long time filled as no other man in this city has ever done it. The committee was made Frank Thompson. It is hoped that Bert can be gotten in for the games Saturday and Sunday. This knocks out the plans of the Jewels to have him on third sack, as they have announced that they will, but it means a good deal to the fans.

It means snappy baseball again, and the old orderly way of things, and the clean decisions which made Bert a favorite, and about the only man on the job for any considerable length of time who ever gave a great deal of satisfaction to all parties concerned in the games.

Jewels Win Cup

The Diamond Head Athletic Club won the Isenberg Cup offered for the best aggregate average in batting, fielding, and base-running in the "Triangle" series. The Puns came in second, and the Santa Clarus, who captured the most games, wound up in third place for the Cup.

The thing was all figured out by Monday, but was reported only this noon at the meeting of the league regularly held weekly. Scorer Babbitt figured stolen-base averages on the number of attempts made to steal and the number which were successful, and this was agreed to be the only fair way of figuring it out.

The Jewels have shown up well in all departments. It was thought that the Kelos would have everything their own way in the stolen-base line as they have made far and away the most steals of any team, but it was

REVIEW OLD YEAR, PLANS FOR THE NEW

The Chamber of Commerce held its annual meeting this afternoon with a good attendance of members. The first business was the reading of the report of President Morgan, in which was reviewed at considerable length the work of the year.

President Morgan was elected for another term of office, the list of officers not being materially changed from last year.

President Morgan's address in part follows: Gentlemen:—It affords me much pleasure to be able to present, here with my annual report and to know that arrangements have been completed whereby it will appear with other matters of interest in printed form, and I trust that this first annual publication to be issued by the Chamber, may be but the beginning of an uninterrupted series which will increase in value from year to year. It should be our endeavor to make the Annual of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce a publication of such merit that it will be looked upon as an authority on island matters and find a welcome in the library of every commercial organization throughout the world.

It is pleasing to note by the Secretary's report that the membership of the Chamber has shown a healthy increase during the year. All of the Territory's leading interests are now well represented and find in the Chamber an excellent medium for expounding the best interests of the islands, systematically and effectively.

Upon becoming a Territory, it of course followed that the Shipping Laws of the United States were applied to Hawaii, which means that passengers or freight cannot be carried between Honolulu and San Francisco or any other American port, except in vessels flying our flag. It was felt by many that being over 2000 miles from the mainland, Hawaii ought not to be subject to this construction of the law and an effort was made by the Board of Trustees to secure the passage of a Bill by Congress, exempting the islands from the ruling for a period of years until at least there were enough vessels flying the American flag plying on the Pacific to readily and at all times care for the passenger traffic between Hawaii and the mainland. This Bill will be brought up for consideration at the next session of Congress.

Mr. Morgan goes into the work for Pearl Harbor in detail, saying "Perhaps the most important piece of work undertaken during the year by the Chamber was its effort to bring about the early improvement of Pearl Harbor."

The Chambers of Commerce of the entire Pacific Coast were particularly urgent in their demands for early and favorable legislation, while among others, the New York and San Diego Chambers of Commerce addressed special letters in regard to the matter to every Senator and Representative. President Roosevelt took occasion, more than once, to express his pleasure at the way in which the commercial bodies of the United States looked upon the great undertaking and was of the opinion that the stand they had taken would remove the matter entirely out of politics; would show that it was not simply a pet scheme of the Army and Navy, but an absolute and well understood need of the greatest importance to the entire country.

The work the Chamber set out to do was accomplished, the commercial organizations throughout the country, without exception, leading their help and when the matter came to a vote in Congress, but one single voice was found to be against it. Honorable J. K. Kalaianalo, the Territorial Delegate, and his secretary, Mr. Geo. B. McClellan, deserve the thanks, not only of the Chamber of Commerce, but of the entire community, for the splendid work they have done for the islands at Washington in furthering Pearl Harbor legislation and safeguarding the interests of Hawaii generally.

The thanks of the Chamber are also due to Hon. Francis M. Hatch, its regular representative at the National capital, who is ever on the alert to advance Hawaii's interests, nor should we forget our friends in Congress and the many Chambers of Commerce who have never failed to come to our aid when asked, to whose assistance we are certainly materially indebted for the final action taken by Congress. Increase in Number, Board of Trustees. On November 20th, 1907, in compliance with a change in the by-laws, the number of trustees was increased from twelve to fifteen. Messrs. F. J. Lowrey, L. T. Peck and W. M. Giffard being elected as the new members.

The report reviews the work done for better delivery of mails, land for Camp Shafter, Chamber of Commerce building, National Council of Commerce—National Board of Trade, invitation to congressmen, resolutions passed, revenue cutter, special committee of Public Health, Army and Navy Committee, representatives at Lake Mohonk conference, Trans-Mississippi Congress, special addresses

COL. SPALDING CALLS ON FREAR

Col. Z. S. Spalding and George Fairchild called on Governor Frear this morning, and the subject of the Kapaa lands was referred to, although it was not gone into deeply and there was nothing definite done. So far as the proposed exchange, the Governor stated this morning that the Territory was finished and the matter was at a standstill unless the Makee Sugar Company came through with some sort of a counter-proposal.

Mrs. Dreier Starts Suit Against Brown

M. F. Prosser today served the papers in the big suit against Cecil Brown in the matter of the property trust deed. The complaint alleges held by the latter under a trust deed that on the 5th day of November, 1907 from August Dreier. Besides Cecil and up to the date of his death, Aug. Brown, Anna Dreier Markham, Adele Dreier, August Dreier, Jr., and Edward Dreier are named as defendants. It is also alleged that on the 5th day of the suit in which Emma Dreier, November, he executed a purported widow of the late August Dreier is the deed of trust of part of his property, plaintiff.

The main point of the suit hinges upon the time of the execution of the deed. This complaint alleges that on the 5th day of November, 1907 from August Dreier. Besides Cecil and up to the date of his death, Aug. Brown, Anna Dreier Markham, Adele Dreier, August Dreier, Jr., and Edward Dreier are named as defendants. It is also alleged that on the 5th day of the suit in which Emma Dreier, November, he executed a purported widow of the late August Dreier is the deed of trust of part of his property, plaintiff.

The matter will come up for final adjudication in November. Manager V. Akai, of the Yokohama Specie Bank, is improving in health. At one time his physicians considered his condition most serious, but his recovery is so rapid that he may be convalescent in about a month. Mme. Aral, the talented French singer, who has been sojourning in Honolulu for many weeks, departs for the mainland the second week in September, and owing to the near date of her departure the hope is expressed by many musically-inclined people that Mme. Aral will give a farewell concert. T. Clive Davies, who will sail in the Manuka this afternoon for England with Mrs. Davies, called on K. Abe, the Japanese Acting Consul this forenoon. Mr. Davies was until recently Vice Consul for Great Britain at Honolulu. After chatting for some time with Mr. Abe, Mr. Davies said aloha and came away. Through a transfer that has just been effected, the Department of Education has become the possessor of the Mehrens property, on which the Agricultural College now stands, from Cecil Brown, the owner. There are approximately 39,299 square feet of land in this tract, and the appraised value of it is $4,737.50. The Government will give Mr. Brown, in exchange, land of an equal appraised value. The land adjoins the new High School site. MRS. DREIER STARTS (Continued from Page 1) consisting of shares in August Dreier, Limited, to the approximate value of $800,000. The complaint also states that the purported deed of trust was not recorded in the Hawaiian Registry of Conveyances until the 19th day of May, 1908, after the death of the grantor, August Dreier, therein named. Again it is stated that immediately after the execution of the trust deed by August Dreier, he executed a certain document purporting to be his last will and testament. And, by virtue of Mrs. Dreier's dower right, being entitled to one-third part in all land owned by her late husband, and also to one-third of all his movable effects, she is therefore entitled to one-third absolute interest in the shares of stock purported to be conveyed under the deed of trust to Cecil Brown, as trustee. The complaint alleges that Emma Dreier has demanded from Cecil Brown, trustee, and Cecil Brown and F. A. Schaefer, executors of the will, her dower in the shares of stock, but she has been refused by them, leaving her without other means than her dower under the will. Mrs. Emma Dreier therefore, through her attorney, M. P. Prosser, after giving numerous other reasons, prays that the purported deed of trust be declared null and void. The papers were served on Cecil Brown this morning. THE MEXICAN and the Arizonan, of the American-Hawaiian line, are expected to arrive at any moment, the former from San Francisco and the latter from Seattle. They both bring large freight for this port consigned to Hackfeld & Company.

Text: 'It may surprise those who have always thought of the German people as "heavy drinkers" to learn that competent authorities have attributed their success as a nation chiefly to their temperance: The secret is that, though they drink a great deal, they drink Beer only, while other nations have their wines, whiskies, and vodkas containing a large percentage of alcohol. Those who drink beer as a beverage are always the most temperate. In Honolulu you should drink the beer that is brewed to suit the climate — PRIMO BEER. This soft, mild beer contains less than three per cent. of alcohol.' Includes Primo logo and 'The Home Brew' text.

Japanese Is All Ready No Citizen For Fleet

Masakechi Susuki, the Japanese who would be a citizen of the United States, was this morning turned down by Clerk Murphy in his application for naturalization papers. Cables were sent yesterday afternoon on the matter, and it is inferred that these brought back the order not to grant the naturalization. However that may be, the local officials are puzzling over the question as to how the son of Nippon ever was allowed to take out his declaration of intention papers in New York. It has been found out that these papers, which he showed as evidence, were genuine, and the only explanation that can be given is that they were made out by some under-clerk who did not realize what he was doing.

The latest development in the whole case is the fact that the Japanese, when he asked for his naturalization papers, stated that he wished to get work at Puna, at Pearl Harbor, where the Federal work is going on. In order that he would not be turned down in his application for a job because of his non-citizenship, the man thought that he would take out his naturalization papers.

Whether or not, Susuki will make a test case of it is not known as yet. On account of the fact that it has been established that the declaration papers were genuine, it might seem that he would have a fairly good case.

H. T. Moore For Sheriff

The latest candidate in the political field for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket is H. T. Moore. His friends, who have been quietly working in his behalf, are now certain that he is the strongest man they can put up at the coming election.

One of the staunch Democrats in speaking of the situation today said that Moore will be given unanimous support of the party. Wm. Jarrett, the present Deputy Sheriff, will be induced to hold his position rather than aim for the Sheriffship. Some Democrats think that Jarrett is not strong enough to get the support of the majority of the party and on that account a committee will be selected to consult with him before the convention takes place.

Moore could not be seen today and therefore his views could not be ascertained.

"I shall run for the Senate on the Republican ticket if given the nomination," said Hon. Cecil Brown today. Mr. Brown leaves in the Manuka for a trip abroad, his health demanding that he take a rest.

"But I shall be in the game when I get back," said Mr. Brown, "and will go to the Senate if the people say the word. I am to be considered as a Republican candidate."

REVIEW OLD YEAR

Dealing with future work, the report says: As to future work, first of all, as I have previously stated, I should like to have our Chamber of Commerce building with its assembly hall, exhibit room, library, board room, information bureau, etc.

Among other matters of importance to which the incoming Board of Trustees should give their attention may be mentioned:

TARIFF REVISION. As it affects our principal industries, sugar, pineapples, coffee, rubber, tobacco, ginseng, etc. This matter is now being given consideration by the Governor of the Territory, Delegate Kalaniana'ole, a special committee for the Chamber of Commerce consisting of Messrs. L. A. Thurston, E. H. Wadehouse and W. F. Dillingham, and delegates from other commercial and industrial bodies.

While our work in favor of the improvement of Pearl Harbor was of great importance, the matter of tariff revision is of ever greater importance and I sincerely hope that the result of the Conference called by Governor Frear and Delegate Kalaniana'ole may lead to the adoption of a plan that will result in our securing complete information relative to our needs in the matter and should it be decided to send special representatives to ap-

Every possible facility is being arranged for the Pacific Fleet, by the local naval authority.

Paymaster Hornberger this morning stated that the ships will be supplied with food immediately upon their arrival here. The launches and lighters will be placed in readiness so that as soon as they are docked or anchored, the supplies will be put aboard without delay.

As to the coaling of the ships here it is rather uncertain. The coilers which will come along with the fleet have certain orders to comply with. It may be possible that they will save their coal and re-coal the ships at Samoa, where there is no coal pile on shore. The coaling station here is amply provided for all emergencies and the ships will be given prompt despatch.

near before Congress in this connection, the delegation should not be made up of men who are sent simply because they can afford the time to go, but should be an able representative body, thoroughly prepared for controversy and well able to protect Hawaii's interests.

TERRITORIAL LEGISLATION. The next session of our Legislature will convene early next year and those of our members interested in securing the enactment of satisfactory legislation should lose no time in bringing these matters to the attention of the Legislative Committee of the Chamber, which in the past has accomplished much good in forwarding needed legislation and correcting mistakes in existing laws and in this connection I might say that while the Chamber does not take any part in politics I feel it incumbent upon me to express the hope that the members of the Chamber may take an active interest in their prerogatives as citizens of the Territory and do their part towards securing competent, honest men for all elective positions.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The past year has been one of great prosperity to the industries of the Territory and all indications point to a continuance of this prosperity during the coming year. It is a matter of great congratulation that during the financial depression so severely felt on the mainland, Hawaii's resources were equal to all demands, business and financial transactions being in no way disturbed.

Steamship Passenger Service.

Conditions warrant an early improvement of the steamship service between Island and Coast ports. Honolulu should be brought within five days of San Francisco.

The boats providing this service, which might well be built and operated by Island capital, would also serve to care for any develop our fresh fruit industry.

An effort was made by this Chamber to interest the United Fruit Company in the development of our fresh fruit trade by establishing a line of swift passenger steamers between Honolulu and San Francisco. Complete data concerning conditions in Hawaii has been sent to the Company, which still has the matter under consideration.

I have mentioned the effort to secure the passage by Congress of a Bill allowing the suspension of the Coastwise Shipping Law that will permit passengers for mainland ports sailing on vessels flying a foreign flag. I believe it to be the policy and wish of this Chamber that the coming session of Congress pass laws so assisting American shipping as to build up this industry and render unnecessary any change in our present shipping laws.

Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition.

An unusual opportunity is being offered this Territory to advertise its products and natural attractions by the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, that will be held at Seattle during the months of June, July, August, September and October, 1909.

The building for Hawaii will be erected by the Federal Government from an appropriation made by Congress. In addition to this a fund of $25,000 for expenses of the exhibit has been provided. A good representation will enable Hawaii to become better understood by the large population of the Northwest. It is a splendid opportunity for us and I hope that all assistance possible may be given the Hawaii Commission by the residents of the Territory that the exhibit may be thoroughly representative and a very attractive one.

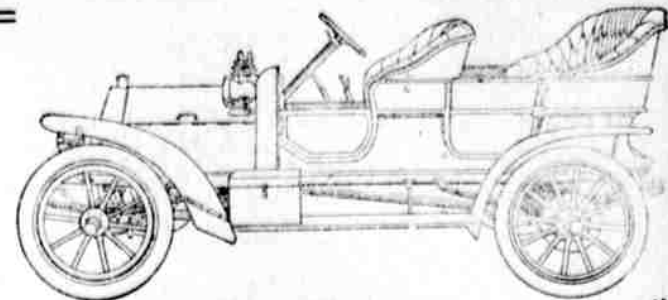

The Chamber of Commerce year just ended bears record of two very months of persistent effort with much good work done. I believe, however, that though a great deal has been accomplished in the past that even greater opportunities for valuable work are before us and I would call the attention of every member of the Chamber, submitting to the Trustees, ideas that in their opinion may prove of interest to the Chamber and of benefit to the Territory. The trustees will gladly welcome any and all suggestions.

Before closing this report, however, I would like to suggest and recommend that, sometime during each year, the members of the Chamber meet together at a dinner, to be made an annual affair as a means of getting together, becoming better acquainted and popularizing our work.

I desire at this time to attest to the valuable assistance rendered by our Secretary, Mr. H. P. Wood, during the past year.

Ninety-nine thousand pounds of oleomargarine were sold in these islands during the past fiscal year.

DESERVING PROJECT PROMPTLY FINANCED.

The way to do a thing is to do it. The Bulletin has taken this view of the appeal for funds in connection with the moving-picture machine for the people at the Molokai Settlement.

As a result of the activity of this paper and the deep interest of the people there are already sufficient pledges of money to buy the machine and other contributions will furnish a surplus for a first-class list of films.

There is no doubt that the moving picture, which is a source of such continuous interest to the people of the world at the present time, will bring more happiness into the lives of the residents of the Settlement than any form of instructive amusement that could be thought of.

The prompt response of the people to the Bulletin fund is another evidence of the readiness of Honolulu people to give with extreme liberality for any project that will make the days brighter for the unfortunate ones.

MAINE PROHIBITION AS PRACTISED

The story of the Maine Prohibition law has been told in one of the popular magazines of the month by a man best able to relate the facts with accuracy and comment with unprejudiced common sense.

Holman Day is the author of the work. Mr. Day has come before the reading public outside the State of Maine as a writer of interesting "Down East" stories. In his own State where he is known intimately he gained his first reputation as a newspaper-worker. He knows the prohibitory law. He has observed politics from the outside and practised them with the leaders on the inside. He speaks from the book and certainly without prejudice against the prohibitory law, for he is a Republican, a member of the party that made the law and keeps it on the statute books.

Mr. Day in his article emphasizes at the outset the fact that the prohibitory statute has never been enforced throughout the State, and the opinion is expressed in this connection that general enforcement of the law cannot be expected in the future. "There is no better outlook for Maine," declares Mr. Day, "than erratic, spasmodic, and sporadic enforcement." When and where local sentiment demands it the law is enforced; otherwise various modes of evasion are practised. In short, the Maine law in its actual operation is nothing more than a clumsy kind of local option under the guise of State prohibition. It is a pretentious fraud.

The best that can be said for the law is that it has outlawed the open saloon and thus protected the young against the lure of the drink habit. But this advantage has been purchased at a big price. The Hon. Charles F. Libby, leader of the Portland bar, sums up the other side of the case thus: "The good the law has done is more than offset by the evils it has brought with it. It has bred hypocrisy, encouraged perjury in our courts, led to corruption of our officials, given prominence in public life to a poor set of politicians, has destroyed the frankness in statesmen that ennobles men in other States, and has not been effective. This demoralizing statute was conceived in fanaticism, born of hypocrisy, cradled in corruption, and nourished on graft."

The extraordinary prevalence of drunkenness in Maine, which is one of the most conspicuous features of the prohibitory regime, is graphically portrayed by Mr. Day. Arrests for intoxication the past year in Maine cities averaged 25 1/2 to the thousand of the population; in Portland arrests were over 55 to the thousand, and in Bangor 199 to the thousand. The average for all New England is only 18 1/2 to the thousand. Mr. Day writes:

"In considering the ways for getting liquor, we come to the so-called kitchen barrooms—places where strong drink is dispensed in the homes, and in Lewiston, where they flourish most rankly, there are hundreds of such places. There is no regulation of them. The veriest toper who has the price can buy. The quality of the liquor dispensed can hardly be described. Chemists who have analyzed some of it after its capture by officers say that it is composed of alcohol, tobacco steepings, and stupefying drugs. Much of this stuff is compounded in Maine and the makers of it buy labels, corks, and caps in New York or Boston and produce a neat 'long-necker' of apparently good whiskey. Many victims of this stuff have died after being arrested for intoxication and men apparently crazed by the compound have hanged themselves in their cells.

"I am advancing no arguments from these statements. I am simply mentioning some facts that may be interesting to those unfamiliar with conditions in a State that has been practicing prohibition—in its statutes—for 57 years. Visitors to Maine always have occasion to speak of the prevalence of drinking on railroad trains in the State. The passed bottle is universally seen in smoking cars. In rural communities various patent medicines are used as intoxicants, and 'jaky drunks' are common. The last is the Maine name for a Jamaica ginger jag. Men will drink down a bottle after bottle of that fiery stuff."

According to Mr. Day, there is no prospect of repeal or amendment of the prohibitory law. It is a fixture. The agitation for resubmission will accomplish nothing. The "great silent forces of Maine" in the rural sections are unwaveringly in favor of retaining the prohibitory law as it is. The farmers of Maine simply stand pat on this issue. But the "rum question" remains unsettled. "We cannot settle it here in Maine," says Mr. Day. "We have given it up. We can merely do the best that poor human na-

REPORT ON IAUKEA MATTER TONIGHT

At a meeting of the Supervisors to be held this evening, the special committee which was appointed to investigate the Iauke-kea matter is to report. The report was not finished this noon, but it was expected that it would be in time for submitting it this evening.

The nature of the report is not to be learned, but one of the Supervisors who is serving on the committee intimated this morning that it will be merely a submitting of the evidence found, on which the Board at large may take action.

The draft of the evidence taken was finished this morning by Deputy County Attorney Milverton, who conducted most of the examinations.

The nature of the findings is not known to other members of the Board.

PACIFIC FLEET COMMITTEE NAMED

Governor Frear yesterday appointed the Pacific Fleet committee, as follows: George W. Smith, James F. Morgan, A. L. C. Atkinson, F. L. Waldron, L. T. Peck, J. W. Jones and H. P. Wood. This committee is to have full control of arrangements for the entertainment of the Pacific Fleet during its two stays here.

MANY HOTEL AND RESTAURANT HERE

Inspectors for the Board of Health have been busy, according to the report of Chief Sanitary Inspector Venhuizen to the Board yesterday, "scrubbing" and having hotels, etc., placed in sanitary condition.

A portion of his report was as follows:

"There were 166 recommendations for hotel, restaurant, and lodging-house licenses issued, and 13,104 persons can be lawfully lodged in the buildings licensed."

"The great portion of the inspectors' time during the month was devoted to scrubbing and having the hotels, restaurants, and lodging-houses placed in sanitary condition as required by law previous to issuing permits for licenses."

"There were 28 1-2 days' special duty during the month, of which 26 days were devoted to cleaning up tin cans, oiling cesspools, vaults and various other mosquito-breeding holes in the various inspectors' districts. This cleaning up of tin cans throughout the city, aside from being a great aid in the mosquito campaign, is making a great showing in the cleanliness of the districts where the work is being carried on."

WHITE LEPELERS TO HAVE HOME

Preliminary plans have been drawn for a $12,000 home for the white lepers at the Molokai Settlement, and from present indications, the project, which has been fathered by Superintendent Jack McVeigh for some time past, will probably go through. James F. Morgan has promised to render all the assistance in his power in the matter of raising the necessary funds for the home.

As conditions now are there, the white leper receives the equivalent in groceries of the poi allowance, and this has not proven satisfactory. The Hawaiians are well satisfied with this, as poi is their staple food, but to the haole who does not care for the natural food of these islands, matters are in a very unsatisfactory way. The commuting value of one poi per week amounts to only about 63 cents, with which groceries of all kinds must be purchased.

By virtue of a donation from public-spirited people for white lepers who are without means, some of them received $5 per month extra ration allowance. It is the idea of Superintendent McVeigh that if a home can be established for all the white lepers, to pool the total allowance for food for the men, thus forming a common mess at which desirable, wholesome, and suitable rations could be doled out.

The matter was brought up at the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday afternoon and received the unqualified approval of that body. The matter of raising sufficient funds to carry out the project is now the serious consideration.

BABIES HOME IS NOW COMPLETE

The general hospital and nursery at the Leper Settlement are both now complete and ready for occupancy. The nursery was built in order that all babies born could be separated from infection and the constant danger of becoming lepers. There are at present thirteen babies to be removed to this nursery, according to Superintendent McVeigh, and these will be moved at once.

Dr. Sinclair was given leave of absence for twenty-five days, with pay, his vacation dating from August 11. Two girls who had been confined to the Kailhi Home for Non-Leperous Girls, but who had broken out with what appeared to be the disease, have been sent back to Kailhi, for their attacks have been so susceptible to treatment that in one case the disease has disappeared altogether, and in the other it has almost disappeared.

HEALTH BOARD CARES FOR SICK

Four hundred and twenty-two cases were treated at the Board of Health Dispensary during the month of July, according to the report made by Frederick R. Nugent, chief dispenser. The following report was made:

Number of cases treated, 422; number of eye cases treated, 281; number of prescriptions filled, 252.
The nationalities of those treated were: Portuguese, 249; Hawaiian, 58; Porto Rican, 24; Spanish, 18; American, 17; part Hawaiian, 17; Korean, 12; Negro, 7; Chinese, 5; Japanese, 5; German, 3; Irish, 2; Mexican, 2; Dane, 1; Malay, 1; Russian, 1.

Golfers Play At Two Links On Next Sunday

Golfers will have a busy day Sunday. Colonel Bogey's classic score will be hotly assailed at Moanalua, and the fourth round of the Melner Cup play will be started at the Country Club.

The bogey at the Moanalua links is 40, and not an easy one to assault. First and second prizes are up for this fixture of the club's yearly calendar of events, which are worth while trying for, and for which no doubt some of the best of the local club-swingers will be out.

The outcome of the third round of the play at the Country Club for the Melner Cup leaves the players starting the fourth round as follows: Dr. High vs. E. J. Waterman; H. C. Waldron vs. T. Gill; S. Beardmore vs. H. C. Carter; and A. F. Ewart vs. Prince Cupid.

They have until the 31st of this month in which to play off this round.

GUNNERS AFTER Doves; DUCK SEASON SOON

The Hawaiian Gun Club is taking a lay-off which is likely to last until about the first of the year. The members are finding some dove shooting with which to keep busy, and can get along without the trap work. Probably the semi-annual prize shoot in February will mark the real reopening of activity in the club.

Doves are found in fair quantities this season, contrary to the experience of the gunners last year, but it is feared that there is to be no pheasant shooting, for the reason that no birds can be found. Ducks are expected to call around later, when the shotgun experts will do a little work very much to their hearts' desire.

DEFT FOR "SONNY"

This deft from the tall timbers is meant to bring about a return match both between horses and between Jockeys Willie and Ferreira.

KELEKOLIO HEADS JR.

Bernard Kelekolio was again elected last evening to fill the post of president for the Riverside Junior Baseball League. The league is to open up for business on the first Sunday in September.

SPORTIVE SPLURGES

The question of an endurance run around the Island for automobiles is being again agitated. But it is hardly a new idea, as it has been pretty well exploited in the press here before.

S. Ketchel Wins Again

Thomas Is Beaten In Their Fourth Meeting

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Aug. 18. Stanley Ketchel defeated Joe Thomas here tonight, by the knockout route, in the second round.

This is the fourth meeting which these men have had. Eddie Smith, the third man in the ring, was the referee in the famous Marysville meeting of these two, when Ketchel leaped into the limelight by giving the then welter champion one of the hardest 25-round draws he ever fought.

Speaking of the Marysville fight recalls the position then occupied by the two men who faced each other for the fourth time on August 14. On July 4 a year ago Thomas was the king-pin of his class and Ketchel was a second-rater who was boxing for "coffee and sinker" money. Luckily for Ketchel, Thomas was having difficulty in getting top-notchers to fight him, as he had cleaned up most of the prominent welters, and when the Marysville promoters offered him a fat purse to box an unknown 20 rounds, Joe grabbed at it. He didn't deem Ketchel of much consequence and instead of training hard he just did enough work to keep within the weight.

The day was a torrid one and Joe found the Michigan biffer to be a tougher nut than he had bargained for and the stiff pace and heat soon told on him. His class, however, helped him over the rough spots until the middle of the fight, when he slipped and got cornered and before he could get away from the ropes, Ketchel planted a haymaker on his jaw that brought visions of the next world. Joe managed to stall through the round and by clever head-work husbanded what little strength he had left to make a garrison finish and earned a draw.

This fight brought Ketchel into the limelight, and as Thomas thought the wallop he got was simply an accident and a lucky swing, he readily consented to a 45-round fight before Coffroth's Colma club. He made the mistake in this instance of signing up at too low a notch and although he hadn't eaten any solid food for three days prior to the fight and had to go to the Turkish baths to dry out, he put up one of the most stubborn and bitterly fought battles ever witnessed. In the twenty-sixth round he almost scored a knockout as he toppled Ketchel over on the mat and it was all the latter could do to struggle to his feet, but Thomas had shot his bolt and couldn't follow up his advantage. The fight went 32 rounds with Ketchel the victor.

Their third meeting was also a memorable one for more reasons than one. It was a thrilling fight, but many lost interest in it because the wind and rain made Jack Gleason's tent-arena do a skirt dance which wasn't on the program. The fans were busily engaged in dodging flying tent poles and trying to avoid a shower bath and many of the hot mix-ups were missed. But as in his second fight, Thomas was improperly trained and it was only his remarkable stamina which enabled him to hold his own with the cyclonic mixer for 20 rounds, and he lost the decision by a slight margin.

This last go seems a conclusive victory.

White Sox take a spectacular 13-inning game from the Boston team recently.

Baron Rounding Roller Into Shape To Get World's Title

Doctor Roller, the Herculean wrestler, has placed himself in the hands of Professor Pete Baron unreservedly. In getting ready for a trip back to the Coast, when he expects to meet the world's best in an attempt to capture premier honors in his line.

"He has done wonders for me," said Roller yesterday. "I came here to put on weight, and I have been doing it all right. I never had so much good done me in the same length of time in my life before."

He exhibited an arm like the trunk of an oak tree, and mentioned that it has increased in size half an inch since he went in training with Baron. It is now 16 3/4 inches in circumference.

"I didn't come here to wrestle," he pursued, "but if Professor Baron says I am in condition, I shall be willing to go on with some of the local men. Yes, I will try to down the three champions within an hour; I don't say that I can do it—I'll say that after I have done it—but I am willing to try."

Pete Baron interposed to state that his pupil will be ready in a very short time to go on the mat for a sustained bout, but said that he wanted to put a little more weight on him first.

About town, interest in seeing Roller on the mat is growing. It is worth while to see such a specimen in action, and much more so to see him at his favorite game with such a man as Sallor Roberts, or the big Kanoe, or the wily Mitsuke.

Roller already has a good sheathing of fat over his muscles. And he wants more. It is necessary, he says. The boxer must knock off weight until all his muscles stand out free from surplus flesh. But this won't do for a wrestler. He must have reserve, and then bulging muscles can be seized by an opponent with disastrous results to the owners of the said muscles.

"Goth and others of the best ones are built very smoothly," said Roller. "The muscles do not show up much until they are contracted, and then they amount to quite a bunch."

In fact, his arm looks like a woman's, except for the bulk, until he contracts the big muscles, when lumps and knots show through the covering of flesh that are very suggestive of some Greek statue of Hercules or Atlas, or some of the other strong men who won the purses in those days.

"He can go on the mat for half a day when I am through with him," said Baron, "and he can do things to the best in the world."

JEWELS ANNEX COWES AND BOWER TO TEAM

Here is something for the faithful fans—the Jewels have at last turned their line-up all around, and will hardly be recognized as the same old team when they come out for their next game. Bowers is to cover third sack. Fernandez will abandon his post at first and take up the troubles of Phoney Davis behind the stick. Sam Chillingworth will play around second. And Doc Cowes will be on the initial sack. Isn't that going some for wholesale changes?

But all this is necessary, to say the least. The loss of Evers, the crack shortstop; of Costello, the dependence on second; and of Davis, the handy man at the backstop position, all in rapid succession, put the Jewels in a bad hole, out of which they now seem to be climbing.

The best part of it is said to be the showing of Bower as a player. The ex-umpire scoops up everything which comes his way around third, and has a nice wing. He has his eye on the ball when he is handling the stick, and is declared by Captain Fernandez to be a valuable asset. Cowes is making good at first. Sam has been in the infield for quite a while, and it is probable that he will show up at second even better than at third, from which position he is being moved. Sing Chong will stay at short for a while.

Fernandez behind the bat is a new stunt. He is known to have caught one game and to have done it creditably. Considering the fact that he is probably the best all-round player in this city, it would be a surprise if he couldn't make good anywhere.

Catchers are scarce here. That is his reason for donning the breast-pad and the face-cage.
