RESUMING THE TWANG.

For very obvious reasons the Star has resumed its cant and rant about a variety of evils that it assumes to have been identified with the monarchy. It strings out a list—"immorality, bribery, debauchery, opium, lottery and despotism"—as products of the monarchical system of government. This is nothing but hypocritical bombast, as all who have been long resident here know. There has been nothing of evil here which might not have flourished more rankly by far under a republic, while in many respects Hawaii has been an example of orderly government to any other nation that might be named. In fact, the social order prevailing here had become proverbial abroad long before the monarchy was overthrown. There has been infinitely more "immorality" imported here than ever grew on the tree of the native monarchy, and no foreigner can afford to contrast his own color with that of the Hawaiian, in the latter's disfavor, on that score. Where would the vestiges of immoral customs here indigenous be to-day, if it were not for the patronage of the cultivated men and women of outside civilization who seek them out as among the chief attractions for strangers? They would simply be dead and buried if they had depended all these years on native vice and superstition.

There is not indeed a moral offense in the whole category quoted from the Star, with regard to which foreigners can afford to display their broad phylacteries of innocence. Many fortunes of high-toned white people are, for instance, in common belief and repute founded upon the unlawful traffic in opium. How many natives have made more than an occasional breakfast out of the same trade? Everything, excepting for obvious reasons the lottery, above enumerated are still as thriving as ever they were under the monarchy. It is only because the Louisiana lottery is now forbidden the American mails that the outgo of money from our highly moral foreign community does not continue to the former tune of $60,000 a year. And, even with regard to the attempted introduction of a semi-national lottery, for which the Queen was and is being condemned, the censors of morality have persistently declined to meet our challenge for a full discussion of the whole business. They have never explained how it is that lottery men then, who are lottery men in principle still, have been the present Government's choice for preferment. Neither have they deigned to explain the fact that the lottery propaganda's headquarters were in the Bureau of Information, an organization at the head of which was the prime revolutionist, now Minister L. A. Thurston. Give us an answer or give us a rest.

DEPARTURE OF THE CHINA.

Scenes and Incidents on the Wharf—A Piper Afloat.

The departure of the P. M. S. S. China for San Francisco this morning drew to the Pacific Mail wharf quite a number of people, some of them to see their friends and relatives depart, but the larger number for sight-seeing. On the deck of the steamer for a half hour before departure Admiral Skerrett, the retired naval chief, and staff, received the adieux of their friends and admirers, most of whom had garlands of flowers to entwine around their hats and necks. Admiral Irwin, U. S. N., who was present to bid Admiral Skerrett good-bye, was the center attraction on the wharf after coming off the steamer. He walked to and fro among the crowd as if utterly oblivious of the importance with which such a personage as he is regarded by Honolulu people generally, and remarks were heard as to his unostentatious demeanor. The vessel swung out from her moorage shortly after 10 o'clock. Admiral Skerrett, who was in full view of the crowd bedecked with leis, stripped himself of all these ornaments and threw them into the sea, where they were picked up by native boys who were engaged in diving for dimes. He disappeared from view for a few minutes and was seen later standing on the bridge. When the vessel began to move seawards a salvo of thirteen guns from the U. S. S. Philadelphia belched forth, as a parting salute to her retiring commander, and the dipping of flags by the steamer and the men-of-war in the harbor wound up the interchanges of courtesies between the departing and the remaining naval dignitaries. The P. G. band played on the wharf for about an hour before the steamer's departure. A thorough passenger who was the possessor of bagpipes, and who undoubtedly believed that he was a whole band by himself, walked forwards and backwards on deck playing what seemed "opposition" music, while the on-lookers regarded him with curiosity.

Presents His Credentials to the Provisional Government.

Address by the Minister and Reply by President Dole.

Hon. Albert S. Willis, the new United States Minister, presented his credentials to President Dole at the Foreign Office this morning. Before the appointed hour of 11 o'clock, Companies E and F, regular troops of the Hawaiian National Guard, were drawn up as a guard of honor to the left of the carriage way going from King-street gate to the main entrance of the Executive building. Major McLeod was in command of the troops over Captains Good and Ziegler, and the companies were subdivided for battalion exercises.

President Dole and colleagues, with the field officers of the military, members of the Judiciary, and a few others watched for the coming of the distinguished visitor from the upper balcony of the building. As a carriage drawn by two spirited white horses whirled into view on Palace Square, the President and party withdrew to the gold room and stationed themselves to receive the Minister. President Dole stood at the head of the room facing the entrance from the hall. On his right Chief Justice Judd and Associate Justices Bickerton and Frear, of the Supreme Court; Judges Whiting and Cooper of the Circuit Court; Marshal E. G. Hitchcock, Mr. Geo. C. Potter, secretary of the Foreign Office; Captain Camara, commissary officer (in uniform), Mr. W. R. Castle, Rev. S. E. Bishop and Mr. Shepard of New York, the last named a guest of the Chief Justice. Representatives of the BULLETIN and Star, with a few unalloyed spectators, occupied odd corners. On the left of the President were Mr. F. M. Hatch, Vice-President, and Ministers J. A. King (Interior), S. M. Damon (Finance) and W. O. Smith (Attorney-General); Col. J. H. Soper, commander of the forces; Lieut. Col. Fisher, Captain Rodgers, Hall and Garteberg—all these officers being in full dress uniform with swords.

James Carty was driving the team that drew the Minister's carriage, and he held the horses well in hand when they began dancing to the music. As the carriage entered the gate the P. G. band at the head of the line played "The Star Spangled Banner." At the same time the grand presented arms. The carriage swung round in a graceful curve to the steps, and Mr. Ellis Mills, Consul-General, alighted, followed by Mr. Willis. The United States diplomatic and consular representatives were conducted up the grand stairway and into the gold room. There they advanced to the middle of the room and bowed to the President. Mr. Potter stepping forward introduced Mr. Willis, who in turn introduced Mr. Willis to the President. The Minister then delivered the address, which appears in full below. He spoke in a low but clear tone with great deliberation and emphasis. He did not use the manuscript of his prepared speech. As he concluded his address the Minister handed the President the original letters of President Cleveland, of which he had previously transmitted copies, they being the letter of recall of Minister Blount and the letter of credence of Minister Willis.

President Dole replied in a slightly higher key than that of the Minister, only glancing once or twice at the paper he held in his hand. The full text of the President's reply is given below. On the conclusion of his speech President Dole introduced Minister Willis to the functionaries present, beginning with Chief Justice Judd. After a few minutes of conversation with the President, Ministers and Chief Justice, Minister Willis with Consul-General Mills bowed to the company and retired. As the Minister's carriage rolled away, the band again played "The Star Spangled Banner," the guards again presented arms, and when the carriage had passed out of the gate, the troops marched out in fine order to a lively march. At the departure of the Minister, some of the notables took great interest in an inspection of President Cleveland's autograph signature, which is remarkable for such a burly man in being as fine as that of a lady.

Speech of Minister Willis.

MR. PRESIDENT: Mr. Blount, the late Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to your government, having resigned his office while absent from his post, I have the honor now to present his letter of recall and to express for him his sincere regret that he is unable in person to make known his continued good wishes in behalf of your people and his grateful appreciation of the many courtesies, both personal and official, of which while here he was the honored recipient.

I desire at the same time to place in your hands the letter accrediting me as his successor. In doing this I am directed by the President to give renewed assurances of the friendliness and hearty good will which our government entertains for you and for the people of this island realm. Aside from our geographical proximity and the consequent preponderating commercial interests which center here, the present advanced civilization and Christianization of your people, together with your enlightened codes of law, stand today, beneficent monuments of American zeal, courage and intelligence. It is not surprising, therefore, that the United States were the first to recognize the independence of the Hawaiian Islands and to welcome equal and sovereign nations, nor is it surprising that this historic tie has been strengthened, from year to year, by important mutual reciprocities and agreements alike honorable and advantageous to both governments.

Invoking that spirit of peace, friendship and hospitality which has ever been the shield and sword of this country, I now, upon behalf of the United States of America, tender to your people the right hand of good will, which I trust may be as lasting, as I know it to be sincere, expressing the hope that every year will promote and perpetuate that good will to the honor, happiness and prosperity of both governments.

Reply of President Dole.

MR. MINISTER: It is with much satisfaction that I receive the credentials you bring from His Excellency the President of the United States of America, accrediting you as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to represent that country at the capital of the Hawaiian Islands. Your assurances of the continued friendship of your government for me and the Hawaiian people add to the gratification which a long experience of the generous consideration of the United States for this country has fostered.

Permit me to assure you that we heartily reciprocate the expressions of interest and good-will which you on behalf of the American people have conveyed to us. Partly from proximity, partly from the leading influence of American citizens in the work of inaugurating Christian civilization and industrial enterprise in these Islands, but still more from the repeated acts of friendly assistance which we have received from your government during the past half century, we have become accustomed to regard the United States as a friend and ally and have learned to look first to her for help in our emergencies.

I regret the inability of your predecessor, Mr. Blount, to personally present his letter of recall and to afford me the opportunity to express to him my appreciation of the agreeable official and social relations that existed between him and our government and people during his residence here. We congratulate ourselves, Mr. Minister, that the government of the United States is to be represented here by one who, we are assured, is familiar with the questions arising from the relations between the two governments, and with whom we look for the maintenance of pleasant official intercourse.

Letter of Recall.

GROVER CLEVELAND, President of the United States of America. TO HIS EXCELLENCY SANFORD B. DOLE, President of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands.

Great and Good Friend: Mr. James H. Blount, who has for some time past resided near the Government of Your Excellency in the character of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of America, having for personal reasons resigned his office while on leave of absence in the United States, and being thus unable to present his letters of recall in person, I have entrusted to his successor the duty of placing them in the hands of Your Excellency.

I am pleased to believe that Mr. Blount, during his mission, devoted all his efforts to strengthening the good understanding and the friendly relations which have happily so long existed between the two countries, and I entertain the hope that while fulfilling satisfactorily the trust imposed upon him, he succeeded in gaining Your Excellency's esteem and good will.

Written at Washington, this 27th day of September, in the year 1893. Your Good Friend, (Sgd.) GROVER CLEVELAND, Acting Secretary of State.

Letter of Credence.

GROVER CLEVELAND, President of the United States of America. TO HIS EXCELLENCY SANFORD B. DOLE, President of the Provisional Government of the Hawaiian Islands.

Great and Good Friend: I have made choice of Albert S. Willis, one of our distinguished citizens, to reside near the Government of Your Excellency in the quality of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States of America. He is well informed of the relative interests of the two countries and of our sincere desire to cultivate, to the fullest extent, the friendship which has so long subsisted between us. My knowledge of his high character and ability gives me entire confidence that he will constantly endeavor to advance the interest and prosperity of both Governments and so render himself acceptable to Your Excellency.

I therefore request Your Excellency to receive him favorably and to give full credence to what he shall say on the part of the United States and to the assurances which I have charged him to convey to you of the best wishes of this Government for the prosperity of the Hawaiian Islands. May God have Your Excellency in His wise keeping. Written at Washington, this 27th day of September, in the year 1893. Your good friend, (Sgd.) GROVER CLEVELAND, Acting Secretary of State.

Caught With Opium. C. B. Maile and Ki were arrested on the Pacific Mail wharf about 7 o'clock yesterday evening by Customs Officer Luahiwa with six tins of opium in their possession. Four tins were found in Maile's blouse and two in Ki's pockets. The men had been on the S. S. China buying canary birds. Both are out on $1000 bonds, and hearing has been set for the 9th.

Saturday, Nov. 4, 1893. It makes no difference whether you use kerosene or electricity for lighting your dwellings, you cannot have too many lamps; electricity plays out sometimes while kerosene, like the odor of onions, is with you all the time. Our stock of Banquet and Stand Lamps has never been equalled as to excellence of designs, and our Hanging Lamps are strong and serviceable with all the ornamentation consistent with good taste. The prices are in harmony with your purse.

Abraham Lincoln once said "you can fool some people all the time, you can fool all the people some of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time." A few years ago, before we went into business, a lot of Fence Wire was imported to Honolulu. We may add that fence wire has been imported many times since but this particular wire was of a quality that would enable the dealer to sell at a low price and the buyer would feel, and did feel, that he had a bargain. The wire was soon sold and fences built, but in a few months the dealer found himself in a hornet's nest because the wire was of a poor quality, and his customers forced him to take it back and replace it with better wire. That bit of experience was a lesson to the merchant who had been in the habit of importing cheap things and getting high prices, but it in no way applied to us. The quality of our goods has never been questioned, and this applies particularly to wire. When ours was imported we directed our agent to procure the best and they did it. We have sold a great many tons of it and have never had a complaint. In connection with fence wire we want to give you a few figures on fence building. By the old method of placing your posts 8 feet apart a mile of fencing costs you $108.60 for posts and staples only without counting freight and expense of digging holes. By the new method, the materials for a Locked Fence costs you for the same distance $88.38. This of course does not include the wire.

Like anything else, a farming implement requires testimonials from people using it before the public will buy. Our Hendry Breaker jumped into prominence and favor because people who were first to use it wrote to us what a good thing it was. The same may be said of our new "HENDRY DOUBLE FURROW PLOW." The demand for it is growing because people who are using it tell their neighbors, and Hon. W. Y. Horner of Lahaina tells us in the following what he thinks of it:

"Replying to your request for my opinion of the Hendry 'Double Furrow Plow, I would say that I have had one of them at work on my plantation for a year past and find it admirable in every respect. In having the mould boards of extra height you accomplished a point which other inventors seem to have overlooked. I mean by this that in every other plow I have ever seen used the mould boards were so low that the dirt would fall back into the furrow. The opposite is the result in using Hendry's 'Double Furrow Plow; the furrow is left perfectly free from loose soil and is ready for either planting or irrigating. Another advantage over other plows is the lightness of draught which you obtain by having the strong straight beam with the iron rod running from the clevis to a point over the mould board. I believe you have in your plow the best I have ever seen for the purpose. You seem to have combined all necessary points of excellence in a perfect plow in this one implement."
