SHEBA'S ASSAILANT SAYS "NOT GUILTY" PROGRAM FOR VISITING CONGRESSMEN

MORI PLEADS "NOT GUILTY"

Mori appeared before Judge De Bolt of the Circuit Court at 2 o'clock this afternoon and was arraigned on the charge of having assaulted Editor Sheba of the Shingo with a deadly weapon with intent to murder. He was represented by Joseph Lightfoot, the Higher Wage Association lawyer, and attorney for Makino, Soga and others in the conspiracy case now on trial in the Circuit Court.

Mori pleaded not guilty to the charge, and his bail was fixed at $5,000. Lightfoot made no plea for bail, and as bondsmen failed to appear on behalf of the Japanese he was committed to jail, and his case will take its regular course on the calendar, which will probably be heard during the December term.

HEAVY SENTENCE FOR JAPANESE

KUROIWA GETS SEVERAL YEARS IN OAHU PRISON.

First Sentence Passed in Criminal Cases Strong Reply to Plea of Difference in Orientals Made by Counsel.

One of the stiffest sentences that was ever passed from the Federal bench in similar cases was this morning awarded to Kuroiwa, who was given 2 years imprisonment on a charge of adultery. This is the first sentence given since the court commenced on the criminal cases this term.

Previous to giving sentence, Judge Dole said "The Japanese in this country have had opportunities to know what the law is and the attitude of the courts." This is an answer in part to the usual plea of counsel urging consideration of the difference between Oriental and Occidental ideals and reasoning.

alert to the court procedure. In answer to a question as to whether he wished to waive examination in the Police Court, he replied: "I want to consult my lawyer this afternoon."

In answer to an inquiry as to what attorney was to represent him, Mori replied: "Mr. J. Lightfoot is my lawyer and I want to see him this afternoon."

Judge Andrade remanded the accused till tomorrow morning, but as the Grand Jury has found a true bill against him, he was taken to Judge De Bolt's court this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Although the press is not allowed to interview Mori, tales of his doings come to hand. On being questioned again about his actions last Tuesday he replied: "The stenographer who was in the office when I was examined has all the notes; you had better see her." He has quit talking of the case and refers everybody to the stenographer's report.

Mori no longer gets his meals from the outside; the risk was too great. It was thought by the police department that if anyone else had an idea that Mori would say too much under

TREASURES GO TO COOKE LIBRARY

The last will and testament of Sereno Edwards Bishop, deceased, was this morning filed in the Circuit Court. In it Jonathan Shaw and Arthur C. Alexander were named as executors and released from bond requirements by the terms of the will. Judge Robinson issued letters testamentary to the two named.

According to the will, the Cooke Library of Oahu College will be the richer by the late Mr. Bishop's splendid collection of early Hawaiian printing, including primers and gospel. A tortoise-shell cover, a number of the historic handwritings of his parents, which will also be presented to the library.

400 MEN MOVE IN AT WAIPAHU

OLD STRIKE GUARD AT AALA IS NOT RECONCILED

Manager Bull Now Has About Five Hundred Japanese in Camps—Returning to Aiea—What Men Are Saying at Aiea.

Between four and five hundred Japanese laborers moved into the camps of Oahu plantation during the noon hour today. These men with their families have been in the town of Waipahu for the last two days and returned to work today.

Those men, with the workers already in the camps, gives Oahu plantation in the vicinity of eight and nine hundred Japanese.

At Honolulu plantation a good number moved into the camps last night and during Saturday and Sunday the return to work will be general.

There is still an atmosphere of bitterness in Aiea lane.

While there remains any of the strike fund available in the hands of the committee, certain of the hard-headed strikers will not return to work in Waipahu or Aiea. They may try for work on other plantations, but they may not try for this until the strike fund is exhausted.

They seem to think that they are entitled to the support of strike leaders, since they were encouraged by them to strike. On the other hand they still believe that all the strikers who have returned to work are making a big break. They hold that in the future they will not receive the same consideration at the hands of the planters. In other words they feel

MORI CRIPPER AND DEFIANT

Mori, who attempted to slay Editor Sheba, is as chipper and bright as you please. He called at the Police Station in the patrol wagon on his way to the County Jail. He hopped out of the wagon with a cigarette in his mouth and seemed to treat the whole matter as a joke.

"Oh, yes," he remarked to a Bulletin man, "they are sending me to the jail. Mr. Lightfoot is my attorney. I want to get my clothes and some books that I had at the Police Station. My hand is nearly all right again now."

Before any further conversation could be had the police invited Mori to step into the wagon and he was driven off.

The Chicago baseball team defeated the Detroit nine by a score of 23 to 12 this noon. Out of the five games played the Chicago have won three and lost two; the Detroit have won two and lost three. There are five games more to be played in the Bulletin cup series.

WHEEL OF JUSTICE SLIPS A COG---STOPS

NON-APPEARANCE OF JUROR PUZZLES COURT.

But Problem Is Solved When Faint Scent of "Scotch" Is Wafted Through the Halls of Justice—Conspiracy Trial Adjourns.

The Wheel of Justice, oiled with Scotch whiskey, runs but poorly and in the conspiracy trial this morning, stopped altogether upon the failure of Juror C. A. Yarrick to put in an appearance. Yarrick applied the Scotch whiskey, or its equivalent—personally, and being a cog in the above mentioned wheel, threw all out of gear.

It is reported that his condition was largely brought about through the influence of parties desiring to outeat the prosecution.

He was missing from his seat this morning when court was called, and an officer of the court went to look him up. He was not at his home and was later found in a saloon at the corner of Nuananu and King, in an intoxicated condition. A woman near his house on Likelike Lane saw him go out this morning early and when he was found he was unable to stand. High Sheriff Henry took temporary charge of him.

The court waited about twenty minutes and Kinney expressed himself as willing to proceed with the trial with eleven jurors but Lightfoot asked for adjournment to permit him to prepare certain papers which he wishes to enter in his case and which he has not yet had time to hunt up. The trial was adjourned until 8:30 Monday morning.

The matter of Juror Yarrick will come before the court Monday and he will give his explanations then.

SHEBA IS IMPROVING

A telephone message from Queen's Hospital at 1:30 this afternoon gives the information that Editor Sheba is doing well, and is well on the way to recovery unless unforeseen complications set in. Owing to the fact that absolute quiet plays such a vital part in his condition, the physicians are not allowing visitors to see him yet. While the wounds give him considerable pain, Mr. Sheba rested well last night and felt refreshed and much improved this morning.

Three boys from Palama were today tried before Judge Whitney, in the juvenile court for stealing sugar cane. They were let out on probation.

PROGRAM FOR VISITING SOLONS

Fewer lauds for the visiting congressmen and more time to be devoted to oversighting of an educational nature, were the two conclusions that were emphasized at the meeting of the reception committee in the office of Governor Frear this morning.

The meeting was attended by Governor Frear, Prince Kubio, Senator Chillingworth, Senator W. O. Smith, Robert Shingle, Secretary of the Territory Mott-Smith and Manager Kennedy of the Inter-Island Steamship Company, who was called into consultation.

A tentative program was agreed upon by the committee after Prince Kubio was elected to the chairmanship and Mott-Smith as secretary. There was a disposition on the part of those present to leave the details of the reception on the other islands

Japanese Money Orders Decrease

A marked falling off in the numbers and amounts of postal money orders issued for payment in Japan during the period of the strike among the plantation laborers is shown in the report that has been submitted to Governor Frear by Postmaster Pratt.

In submitting his report to the Governor Postmaster Pratt says that he is pleased to report "a marked increase in the volume of business generally, and particularly in the amount of revenue derived from sales of stamps, stamp paper and second-class mailings, as also in the number of letters and prints despatched over preceding years. AMBIGUOUS AGE OF LASS PUZZLES

Asks for a Guardian, and Judge Robinson, When About to Give the Order, Finds Out That She Doesn't Need One.

It took a session of the Circuit Court this morning to discover that Gulthermina de Fraga was 18 years old.

A. D. Castro filed a petition to be appointed guardian of Gulthermina and her sisters, Tivilina, Mariana and Marie and her brother Ernest. In the petition

Miss Gulthermina's age was given as 17 in accordance to the written law that gives members of the fair sex the right to wink at the other eye at time.

However when Judge Robinson testily asked how old she might be she decided that Time assisted by the Majesty of the Law must not be winked at and blushingly acknowledged that she was eighteen.

"What?" said the Judge. "Why, she don't need a guardian, she's 18 of age."

Gulthermina investigated and discovered that the petition had been drawn up before her eighteenth birthday, the month she was 18 years old.

The guardianship of the other children was awarded to Mr. Castro. It was stated in the petition that there is $2000 due the heirs from the Lusitania and San Antonio, Benevolent Societies.

Mori Is Indicted

Charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, Tomakichi Mori was this morning indicted by the Territorial Grand Jury and will be arraigned before Judge De Bolt this afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the language of the indictment, the act was committed with "deliberate premeditated malice."

NEW PARK IS ASSURED

Waialae is now assured of a public park. At last night's meeting of the Waialae, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club, a tract of fifteen acres was offered by a member of the Club at very low figures with the understanding that if the Territory purchased the land, it was to be used for park purposes alone.

The teams in the Newsboys' League did not put up their usual steady game today, the excitement of the race being too much for the boys. The score was 23 to 12, with Chicago on the winning end.

The Chinaman at once appealed to the Federal Court and his case came up in chambers this morning before Judge Dale and he is held on a $2500 bond.

Under ordinary conditions the amount of money orders for the period covered by Postmaster Pratt's report this year would have been considerably in excess over the same period of 1908, and the difference in favor of the past period is taken as a convincing indication of the financial loss that has been inflicted upon the Japanese by the strike on the Oahu sugar plantations.

TAFT'S EXCUSE FOR SIGNING IT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5. — President Taft today issued a statement, in which he said that he signed the tariff bill because he believed it to be the result of sincere effort at downward revision on the part of the Republicans. Nevertheless, he does not consider the bill perfect, nor in complete compliance with the promises made by the party.

PROGRAM.

It was agreed that the first week of the Congressmen's presence in Hawaii shall be devoted to sightseeing on Oahu, and the program as printed is considered as final except as to the minor details and arrangements.

The program as referring to the other islands is strictly tentative, and nothing will be decided upon until the committee on the other islands are heard from.

The question as to the date of leaving for Kauai proved to be a perplexing one, and was complicated by the statement of Manager Kennedy of the Inter Island Company that he could not disarrange the regular schedule because many school children were returning to Honolulu at that time, and for whom passage had already been engaged.

It was suggested that it would be wise to make some diplomatic intimation to the visitors that the Territory would only pay the expenses incident to the regular itinerary, and that expenses of a private nature, such as laundry bills, would not be met from the fund appropriated by the last Legislature.

The tentative program agreed upon is as follows: Aug. 30, Monday—Party arrives from San Francisco. Surf riding in the afternoon.

Aug. 31, Tuesday—Visit public institutions, military posts, etc. Reception at Governor's in afternoon. Dance and band at Moana.

Sept. 1, Wednesday—Visit Pearl Harbor, Lilehua Camp and pineapple plantations. Lunch at Lilehua and polo game.

Sept. 2, Thursday—Automobile ride via Pal to Haleiwa and return to town. Sept. 3, Friday—Mue's and Seaside dance. (Day off.) 9 p. m. sail for Kauai.

SCHOOL MIX-UP

Waialae, Kaimuki and Palolo have asked the Board of Supervisors for an eight-room school house, and they have been informed that they would have to look to the Territory and Commissioners of Public Instruction for the land and building.

It was the understanding of the Improvement Club, according to the resolution passed by the Board of Public Instruction in accordance with Act 101 to amend Section 23 of Act 118 passed by the last Legislature, that the Supervisors build the school houses when requested and equip them, but it seems now they are in a mix-up over the matter.

Superintendent Habbitt stated at the first session of the Commissioners of Public Instruction that the Board of Supervisors had absolute power, given them by the Legislature, and that the Board of Public Instruction were little more than an advisory commission. A copy of Act 10 is given below, which says distinctly that the Supervisors shall build, equip and maintain school buildings.

Act 101, to amend Section 23 of Act 118 of the Session Laws of 1907, relating to the powers of the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu.

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of Section 23 of Act 118 of the Session Laws of 1907 is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"To establish and maintain water works and sewer works; to collect rates for water supplied to consumers, and for the use of sewers and for the placing of signs on bridges as required by law. To take over from the Territory existing water works systems, including water rights, pipe lines and other appurtenances belonging thereto, and sewer systems, and to enlarge, develop and improve the same. TO BUILD, REBUILD, EQUIP, MAINTAIN AND REGULATE HOSPITALS, SCHOOL HOUSES, court houses, jails and other houses of detention, punishment, confinement and reformation, and to give aid to hospitals. IT SHALL BE THE DUTY OF THE BOARD TO PROVIDE FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR OF ALL EXISTING SCHOOL HOUSES OTHER THAN THE NORMAL SCHOOL AND THE BOYS AND GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS, police stations and jails, other than Oahu Prison, fire department buildings and court houses, other than the Judiciary Building."

Section 2. This Act shall take effect on the first day of July, 1909.

Articles of incorporation were today filed by W. W. Hall, Ltd., in the treasurer's office. The capital stock is fixed at $10,000, with the limit at extension at $25,000.

Sept. 14, Tuesday—Arrive at Honolulu. Rest, Surf-riding in afternoon. Sept. 15, Wednesday—Honolulu. Visit schools. Reception and dance at Young hotel in evening.

Sept. 16, Thursday—Honolulu. Sept. 17, Friday—Sail on Mongolla for San Francisco.

Messrs. H. L. Holstein with his colleagues, Palmer Woods and H. L. Kawewehi, should arrange, without delay, for the appointment at Hilo of a reception and entertainment committee, say of five members.

In like manner Messrs. S. E. Kalama and R. J. K. Nawahale should have committees appointed on Maui, and Messrs. E. A. Knudsen and G. H. Huddy should do the same on Kauai.

THE UNITED STATES cruiser St. Louis is due to arrive from Samoa tomorrow, probably in the morning. Yesterday she wireless stated that she was 600 miles away from Oahu. As soon as she arrives she will take on coal, and then proceed to Hilo. During the stay of the cruiser it is expected that her baseball team, which is one of the best in the navy, will probably play one of the local teams.

THE OIL STEAMER W. S. Porter, Captain McDonald, arrived from San Francisco this forenoon, docking at the railroad wharf, where she is discharging 43,000 barrels of oil. She made the trip in eight days and a half, experiencing fairly good weather.

THE FLAGSHIP Mauna Kea of the Inter-Island fleet will arrive early tomorrow morning for Hilo and Maui ports, bringing passengers and general freight. She sails again next Tuesday.

THE STEAMER Maui, arrived this morning from Hawaii, bringing besides her cargo cattle from Waimea. She is docked at the railroad wharf, discharging the live stock and general cargo.

RECREATIONS

MAN WITH THREE WIVES.

The attraction at the Gem theater tonight will be a Hawaiian hula in real life. The Actophone will tell of "The Man With Three Wives," "Eat, Drink and Be Merry," a dying scene from Verdi's "La Forza del Destino," and "In the Coon Town 400," all of which are interesting.

THE ORPHEUM.

The Orpheum continues to be crowded nightly, the moving pictures and the show in its entirety having proven more than satisfying. A cavalry detachment in action is shown in the moving pictures and the maneuvers are of a nature that make their depiction as moving pictures highly successful. One of the pictures shows a cavalryman descending a steep trail which seems almost perpendicular, and in several cases fall with spectacular results.

THE ART.

At the Art Theater this afternoon and evening the feature film will be "Left Out," which carries a lesson of reform that helps to save a family from misery. The plot of the story is dramatic and the picture is interesting for beginning to end.

THE PARK.

Real Indians are shown on the moving pictures at the Park Theater, that particular class of aborigines being from South America, where they are shown in their native habitata in an interesting manner. Mr. Carlisle will be heard in his songs and monologues.

CASTLE AROUSES IRE OF SCHWERIN

Pacific Mail Manager An Objector To Joy Rides

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—The teacups of the Pacific Union Club are still agitated from the shock of conflict that occurred in the lunch room Monday, when William L. Castle of Honolulu and R. P. Schwerin of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company sat down to settle their differences over the mutton chops, and ended with a challenge from the man from Honolulu to the autocrat of the Pacific ocean that he (Castle) would repeat the performance that caused all the trouble and that no one, not even Schwerin, should stop him.

$1,100. I am offering you a new large house with three bedrooms, never occupied, near St. Louis School, with iron roof, modern plumbing, and lot 4089 sq. feet right in town, for only $1,100. Very cheap. Rare bargain. This is $300 less than cost. Here is your chance.

P. E. R. Strauch
Waity Bldg. 74 S. King St.

Then Schwerin arose from the table for two, and, walking across the room, seated himself in the corner farthest removed from Castle, and the teacups are still quivering. It seems that Castle has acquired a taste for joy riding on the liners of the Pacific Mail, and that following this inclination he went out on the Mongolia on Saturday last, when she sailed for Honolulu and the Orient, and returned to port on the pilot boat.

"I will do it again, and as often as I like. I will go out on the Newport on Friday, and Schwerin cannot stop me." Thus speaks Castle. Calls Him Unfortunate. "Castle may be an unfortunate young gentleman. I cannot understand his persistence," says Schwerin, whose authority on the high seas has never thus been challenged before. If he is discovered by the Federal authorities on board a ship illegally he may be compelled to work his passage as a stowaway.

And the ears of the teacups are tingling with the rebuke they heard in the lunch room. Castle started out to gratify his desire for a short ocean trip by writing a formal application, which he mailed to Schwerin, asking him for the privilege of going out on the Mongolia on Saturday, and concluding that if he did not receive an answer by 12 o'clock on Saturday he would consider his request granted and go.

THE PACIFIC MAIL liner Siberia is due to arrive from Yokohama tomorrow morning with a few passengers for Honolulu. She will leave in the afternoon for San Francisco.

DE BOLT THREATENED CRIMINALS AT WORK

Judge De Bolt has received a threatening letter from a Japanese sympathizer with the Thug element, and the manner in which the matter is handled by the papers for the defense of the law-breaking Japanese shows a peculiar alliance.

It appears as if the information was taken from De Bolt's private chambers by some one who wished it shaped for the benefit of the dangerous element among the Japanese. The threat is represented as meaning that the Japanese will quit their strike operations if the prosecution of the leaders is called off, and that "the letter to Judge De Bolt is taken more as an intimation of this nature than as a determined threat."

One of the interesting phases of the development of the trial of Japanese for crimes they have been committing is the studied manner in which a certain section of the English press is striving to belittle the crimes and defeat justice in punishing the criminals.

CLAIMED HOTEL WAS LODGING HOUSE

H. Mamiya, who was up before Judge Andrade on a charge of running a hotel on Liliha street without taking out a license, was defended by Charlie Chillingworth.

The attorney took the point that Mamiya was not conducting a hotel, and that since the strikers from the plantations had come to town the place had only been run as a rooming house.

It came out in the evidence that all the Japanese hotels had adopted the same method when the plantation strikers came in. The object was to avoid having to feed the strikers as well as to provide them with rooms.

The judge took this view of the matter and discharged Mamiya from custody.

POLICE COURT JOTTINGS.

Itala Keokoki, the youthful native who is accused of several offenses, is under eighteen years of age, and consequently has been sent up to the Juvenile Court.

Mrs. Christensen appeared in court this morning on a charge of consuming too much spirituous liquor, and as her defense was not very strong, she was fined $6 and $1 costs. John Unana, who also departed from the paths of sobriety, faced the music and had to contribute $4 to the revenue.

Sing Moo was charged at the receiving station with an offense against the license laws. Inspector Turrell is rounding up all the store keepers and dealers in the city, and finds in many cases that licenses have been obtained, but are not properly displayed.

Kauli Moses, wahina, who kept everybody in the vicinity of her home awake last night, was fined $4 this morning for the disturbance.

THE STEAMER Claudine, which came in yesterday from Maui, will start this afternoon at 5 o'clock. She will have a small load of general cargo.

FRIDAY AUGUST 6, 1909

Our country's welfare is our first concern, and who promotes that best, it proves his duty.—Havard.

Who alone could profit by getting the of the jurors in the conspiracy into a state of intoxication?

San Francisco may find in the recent trip of the steamship Korea a splendid example of Honolulu's value to the Pacific Coast as a sanitary port. The steamer entered this port carrying a suspicious case of plague, and was immediately put through a rigorous cleaning up. No time lost was comparatively slight, and the boat with its large passenger list was sent on its way. Thanks to the efficient work of the Marine Hospital officers at Honolulu the vessel on arrival at San Francisco was given prompt practice, and her passengers landed without delay. Had this port lacked the equipment for handling the vessel and caring properly for its passengers and crew, San Francisco could have had an infected ship to deal with, and a week or more in quarantine for the passengers would have been added to the pleasure with which the travelers could have remembered the metropolis of the West.

FARM WAGES IN CANADA.

Speaking of the price of labor, it should profit the citizens and residents of Hawaii to study the wages paid the agricultural laborers of the mainland.

Eighteen dollars a month with house, wood, water and medical attendance has been paraded before the public in this Territory as epitomizing the limit of meanness and parsimony.

Under the heading of "Good News for Farmers" the Peterborough Review of Peterborough, Ontario, announces that a circular letter has been sent to one hundred and eight of the best booking agents of the British Isles by the assistant superintendent of the following offer:

"Mr. G. H. Howson, Canadian Employment Agent at Peterborough, Ontario, informs me that he requires between now and the first of August twenty-five experienced farmers' laborers at wages ranging from $10 to $15 per month according to ability. If you can see Mr. Howson either the whole or part of this number before the first of August, they will be perfectly sure of securing good positions. He also desires fifty domestic servants, whose wages would be at the rate of $8 to $15 per month."

Canada is sometimes known as "God's country," where every prospect pleases and only man is vile. The laborers sought are white laborers from the favored land of the British Isles, and it is apparent that the people of Canada do not feel they are disgracing the race and the nation by offering wages of from $10 to $15 per month for laborers in the fields.

Yet here in Hawaii we are told that farm laborers' wages run as low as $18 per month the year round bespeak the condition of the miserable serf ground down and trampled upon by the mighty baron-lord.

MISCHIEVOUS ADVICE FOR IGNORANT STRIKERS.

In the cross-examination of Mr. Negoro Thursday Mr. Lightfoot personally came prominently into the investigation, and the facts elicited furnish excellent reasons why Mr. Lightfoot has figured in the "shyster" class.

Mr. Negoro was being examined as to the mass meetings held by the Higher Wage Association in Honolulu, in the month of May last, on the eve of the strike. On the question of whether or not there had not been inciting talk used by the speakers at these mass meetings, Mr. Kinney read the following quotation from Mr. Lightfoot's speech made at the mass meeting in question, contained in the Advertiser, as reported in shorthand by Mr. Taylor:

"Now, just another word about these newspapers. In this morning's Advertiser there is a letter from a man who I am sure has very long ears, who says that we ought all to be arrested for conspiracy. Now that is as stupid as ridiculous, and only a fool would talk that way, BUT IF THEY WANT TO ARREST US LET THEM BRING THEIR POLICEMEN AND SOLDIERS TO ARREST THE THOUSAND MEN WHOM I SEE BEFORE ME TONIGHT, AND A PRETTY TIME THEY WILL HAVE TO DO IT."

Mr. Negoro admitted that something of the kind was said, and stated that Mr. Taylor of the Advertiser was present and was taking down Mr. Lightfoot's remarks in shorthand. It is understood that Mr. Taylor expressly and emphatically confirms the correctness of the very words used by Mr. Lightfoot, as above quoted. Mr. Negoro being questioned as to another public meeting of Japanese, held in May last, at which Mr. Lightfoot was also a speaker, virtually conceded the correctness of the following statement in Mr. Lightfoot's speech, as translated from the Nippu Jiji:

"If the planters try to force the laborers out of their home, the laborers must fight, even resorting to violence to protect their families. Japanese must manifest the same spirit of unity and determination in the present struggle as their fellow countrymen have shown in their war with Russia."

Mr. Negoro testified that the reference to the Russian war came on later and did not immediately follow the reference to eviction and resistance thereto. There is no room to doubt the substantial correctness of these reports of Mr. Lightfoot's speeches.

We do not believe many people can be found who would claim that it was within the scope of Mr. Lightfoot's employment as an attorney for the strikers to take the platform in behalf of the strike movement, even if he gave conservative and prudent advice.

He was acting on these occasions purely as an officious volunteer, so far as his position of attorney was concerned, and when one goes further and considers what kind of talk he put up to these ignorant people, speaking to them with the prestige of an attorney, an officer of the court, it will be hard to find language sufficiently to the point to characterize such conduct.

His hearers naturally believed that he was taking no reckless position and uttered no dangerous advice; they were justified in believing that in following the counsels of their attorney they would surely be well within their rights.

It must be borne in mind also that these men in May, when the mass meetings were held, had been worked up to a dangerous pitch of excitement and animosity. The daily incendiary campaign of the Jiji had been on at that time since December of the preceding year, and no one knew better than Mr. Lightfoot when he deliberately sowed in the minds of these people the thought of resistance to the police in case arrests were to be made.

What did Mr. Lightfoot mean by suggesting that the police and even the soldiers would have a "pretty time of it" making the arrests he referred to?

In what spirit did he say to that audience "Let them try it on?"

The promiscuous advice to resist evictions from the plantation quarters with force and violence, even if it was good law, was uncalculated. A prudent lawyer, a right-minded man, would not have referred to the remedy of force and violence in public meetings. And when one considers that, according to the overwhelming opinion of the Bar, the advice was not only mischievous, but thoroughly and utterly bad law, his offense seems the more inexcusable. Under the circumstances, the Bulletin feels that it would be not only well within its rights, but well within its public duty, in char-

Characterizing the action of this House of the Bar as that of a shyster. We think we put it mildly in using the word "shyster," for there is in the use of that word the suggestion of a limited amount of mischief.

The utterances and the attitude of Mr. Lightfoot, being put as he has been by the irony of fate in control of the conduct of seventy thousand of these aliens at a critical time in the history of this country, gives him infinite powers for mischief, which he seems to have used in a manner wholly discreditable to the position he occupies as an officer of the courts of this Territory.

BIG CONFERENCE TO UNIFY LAWS

Gathering at Capital Will Discuss Range of Subjects of Great Importance.

In line with the Taft policy of improving instrumentalities for giving efficiency to governmental administration, the President has determined to call another convention of the States, looking to uniformity of legislation on a wide range of subjects. The gathering will be held in Washington, January 5, 6 and 7 next. It has been called as a result of initiative by the National Civic Federation, whose committee laid the matter before the President.

The range of subjects which the conference may discuss is almost infinite. It includes all the aspects of interests commerce regulations; uniformity of marriage and divorce laws among the States; uniformity of laws relating to commercial paper, in which already much progress has been made; standardizing the employers' liability acts of the State and the national government; unifying the pure food legislation, child labor laws, &c.

This conference, if the suggestion of the President is followed, will be composed of men carefully selected for their experience and qualifications to consider such a subject. They will be named by the Governors of the States and Territories. With them will meet similarly equipped representatives of the different departments of the national government for consideration of the subjects falling within their jurisdiction.

It is not expected that this conference will be able to do more than the preliminary work of providing an effective organization through which such a tremendous task may be carried forward. For many years there has been insistence that such harmonization of State and federal procedure ought to be effected. The American Bar Association has been a leader in the movement, and its model code of laws governing negotiable paper has now been adopted by something less than half the States. But as a whole, progress has been painfully slow, and the dual scheme of government has been brought under many criticisms as a result. It has been particularly difficult to regulate great corporations because of the fact that a corporation may take out a charter in any State and then transact business all over the country. The expectation is that national incorporation would be urged as one of the important reforms, and just as vigorously opposed by those who do not believe in it.

RANDELL OF TEXAS WOULD STOP GIFTS

Says Congressmen Are Receiving Presents From "Special Interests."

Washington, July 23. — Openly charging that "congress and the courts" had received and were receiving valuable gifts, employment or compensation from public service corporations, trusts and persons engaged in interstate commerce or having an interest in legislation, Randell of Texas in the house today presented a resolution directing the speaker immediately to appoint the judiciary committee in order that it may consider the question of amending the law so as to prohibit such conduct. The resolution was voted down.

Randell declared the opponents of such legislation had not only succeeded in preventing the passage of a law of that character, but even suppressed discussion of such measures on the floor of the house. "Looking the facts squarely in the face," he said, "the conclusion forced upon us causes a blush to mantle the cheek of every patriot and self-respecting man."

He declared the beneficiaries of special interests "intrenched in power and firmly combined with the dominant political party" openly derided the American people and brutally demanded the pound of flesh. Should the committee be appointed, he said, there should be passed a law which would "sever the connection of the servants of

The BLACK BAG

By Louis Joseph Vance
Copyright, 1920, by the Bobbe-Merrill Co.

With more courage, now that he had the hateful thing under cover, he found and entered the Hotel du Commerce. In the little closet which served for an office, over a desk visibly groaning with the weight of an enormous and grimy registry book, a sleepy, fat, bland and good natured woman presided, a benign and drowsy divinity of even tempered courtesy. To his mis-leading inquiry for M. Calendar she returned a cheerful permission to seek that gentleman for himself.

"Three flights, m'sieu," in the front. Suit 17 it is, M'sieu" does not mind walking up?" she inquired. "M'sieu" did not in the least, though by no strain of the imagination could it be truthfully said that he walked up those steep and redolent stairways of the Hotel du Commerce d'Anvers. More literally, he flew with winged feet, spurning each third padded step with a force that raised a tiny cloud of fine white dust from the carpeting.

Breathless, at last he paused at the top of the third flight. His heart was hammering, his pulses drumming like wild things; there was a queer constriction in his throat, a fire of hope in his heart alternating with the ice of doubt. Suppose she were not there! What if he were mistaken? What if he had misunderstood? What if M'Calendar had referred to another lodging house? He passed down the corridor to the door whose panels were the painted legend 17 and there he knocked.

Believing that he overheard from within a sudden startled exclamation, he smiled patiently, tolerant of her surprise.

Burning with impatience as with a fever, he endured a long minute's wait. Misgivings were prompting him to knock again and summon her by name when he heard footfalls on the other side of the door, followed by a click of the lock. The door was opened grudgingly a bare six inches.

Of the alarmed expression in the eyes that stared into his he took no account. His face lengthened a little as he stood there, dumb, panting, staring, and his heart sank, down, deep down into a gulf of disappointment, weighted sorely with chagrin.

Then, of the two the first to recover countenance, he doffed his cap and bowed. "Good evening, Mrs. Hallam," he said, with a rueful smile.

CHAPTER XXIII.
NOW that Kirkwood's emotion was predominant, Mrs. Hallam's astonishment paralleled and her relief transcended it. In order to understand this it must be remembered that, while Mr. Kirkwood was aware of the lady's presence in Antwerp, on her part she had known nothing of him since he had so gallantly fled her company in Sheerness. She seemed to anticipate that either Calendar or one of his fellows would be discovered at the door, to have surprised it without any excessive degree of pleasure.

Only briefly she hesitated, while her surprise swayed her. Then, with a hardening of the eyes and a curt little nod, "I'm sorry," she said with decision, "but I am busy and can't see you now. Mr. Kirkwood," and attempted to shut the door in his face.

Defiantly Kirkwood forestalled her intention by inserting a foot between the door and the jamb. He had dared, to greatly to be thus dismissed. "Pardon me," he countered, unabashed, "but I wish to speak with Miss Calendar."

"Dorothy," returned the lady with spirit, "is engaged."

"I intend," he told her quietly, "to see Miss Calendar. It's useless your trying to hinder me. We may as well understand each other, madam, and I'll tell you now that if you wish to avoid a scene—"

"Dorothy," the woman called over her shoulder, "ring for the porter."

"By all means," assented Kirkwood agreeably. "I'll send him for a gentleman."

"You insolent puppy!" "Madam, your wit disarms me!" "What is the matter, Mrs. Hallam?" Interrupted a voice from the other side of the door. "Who is it?" "Miss Calendar!" cried Kirkwood hastily, raising his voice.

"Mr. Kirkwood!" the reply came on the instant. She knew his voice. "Please, Mrs. Hallam, I will see Mr. Kirkwood."

"You have no time to waste with him, Dorothy," said the woman coldly. "I must insist!" "But you don't seem to understand; it is Mr. Kirkwood!" argued the girl, as if he were ample excuse for any impudence. Kirkwood's scant store of patience was by this time rapidly becoming exhausted. "I should advise you not to interfere any further, Mrs. Hallam," he told her in a tone low, but charged with meaning. How much did he know? She eyed him an instant longer in sullen suspicion, then swung open the door, yielding with what grace she could. "Won't you come in, Mr. Kirkwood?" she inquired, with adulterated courtesy. Big League And Other Ball Notes

Tomorrow afternoon will be heard the old familiar sound of the festive fan at his best. And the reason is not far to seek, far are not the old favorite Jewels and Puna to renew their ancient struggles on the diamond?

Everything is shaping up well for the opening of the season of big league ball and it only needs the support of the public to make the series a great success. And it is really up to the public to get in and boost the national game for all they are worth, or else we will be dropping out of the line as regards first-class ball.

The Minor Leagues seem to be in favor of allowing their members to play big ball if they are considered good enough, and that is the only sensible way in which fresh blood can be introduced into the game.

In fact it is strange how the rule prohibiting juniors from trying their luck with the seniors ever came into force. If a minor league player gets into big company for a while but does not make good, why should he not be allowed to return to a minor league?

Is it thought that the junior has improved so much and so suddenly by his association with the "big" men that he will prove too strong for the minors?

Why cannot the whole matter be adjusted as in other sports, where a promising youngster is given a chance of making good in first-class teams, and if he fails, of course, returns to the junior ranks till he, by further practice, shows that he really has the makings of a good man in him. Then on his second, or even third, attempt he makes good and remains in the first flight?

There is no use in the dog-in-the-manger style of business, and the sponsor the seniors and juniors get together for the good of the game as a whole, the better for everybody.

Gee Wins Final In Wall Cup

E. S. Gee clearly proved his title to be one of the best, if not the actual best, tennis players in these islands yesterday when he defeated A. L. Lowrey three sets straight, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2.

The man from Manila certainly showed his class on the courts yesterday and by all around brilliant play became eligible to compete against Warren, the present holder of the Wall cup, for the honor of holding the trophy for the season.

The first set was a triumph for Gee, and at one stage Lowrey had five games to his opponent's one, and the set looked a certainty for him. However, Gee, pulling himself together in great style, overhauled his man, and after a struggle made it five all, and then, going on in faultless manner, took the set 7-5.

In the second set the two experts were at their best, and some of the strokes were worthy of Norman Brookes. Gee's passing shots were well nigh perfect, and he found the side lines time after time.

Gee also took the second set, 6-4, but the game was a much closer one than the scores would indicate. Most of the games went to deuce and advantage several times before the winning point was made.

Things did not look bright for Lowrey when the men made a start for the third set, as Gee, with two sets to the good, could, if he cared to, take it easy for a set and then sparkle up in the fourth. However, there was nothing like that doing, and Gee, forcing the play, soon had the set 3 to 1 in his favor.

Lowrey then got hold of himself and took one game more from Gee, and then the set ended in Gee's favor, 6-2.

Gee will play W. L. Warren for the Wall cup Saturday at 4 p. m., and the play is sure to be as good as has ever been seen in these islands.

Country Club Golf Tournament

In the McInerney cup play the results, so far, have been: Campbell beat Waterman, 3 and 2; Hartwell beat Walker, 5 and 4; Cushman Carter beat J. S. Dougherty, 5 and 5.

The following matches must be played before sunset on Saturday, August 14: M. A. Robinson vs. A. Ewart, F. W. Klebahn vs. J. C. Evans, Geo. H. Angus vs. A. F. Judd Prince, Kuhio vs. Wm. Jamieson, Dr. High vs. C. E. Edmunds, Harold Giffard vs. J. D. McInerney.

In all cases the first named is the appointer of dates, and should the match fall to be played, the first named in each case will be considered as the defaulter, unless the greens committee is otherwise notified.

On Sunday, August 15, the second round will commence. The winner of number one match in the first round will play the winner of number two, and so on, until the winner of number nine will play W. Simpson, and the rest of the byes will enter the second round and play as follows: W. Bobb vs. O. Sorenson, H. A. Walker vs. C. Weight, G. R. Carter vs. J. O. Young, Captain Campbell vs. Jas. F. Fenwick, Francis Brown vs. S. G. Wilder, J. H. Fiddes vs. F. Munro, J. A. Wilder vs. F. E. Atherton, S. Beardmore vs. D. W. Anderson, A. W. Thayer vs. E. A. Mott-Smith, R. B. Booth vs. T. Gill, F. H. Armstrong vs. A. C. Robinson.

The Country Club is in fine shape now and most of the members are in good form, and looking forward to the play for the cup. The next important event at the club, once the McInerney cup is disposed of, is the Medal Play on September 6.

Dick Sullivan is quickening up in his work and is being handled by his faithful aide de camp, Heine, who takes the greatest pains with his principal. Fort Shafter is an ideal place to train, and Dick is lucky to have the use of such a splendid gymnasium.

Jack Cordell is feeling the want of good sparring partners, and his trainer, Tony Lane, is trying to get hold of some hard hitting young fellows who would be willing, for a consideration, to stand up to the middleweight and mix things a bit.

The relay swimming race between the Myrtle and Healan clubs has been postponed till Saturday, August 14. A race for married men over a distance of 50 yards will also take place on that date.

Junior Sailors Welcome At Club

Special efforts are being made by the veteran yachtsmen of the Territory to interest the younger generation in the sport of sailing. It is realized that it is to the interests of the club, and the sport in general, that the youth of the city be given every opportunity to become acquainted with the delights of sailing.

Commodore Wilder of the Hawaii Yacht Club has sent out the following notice for publication:

"The cruise of the Hawaii Yacht Club on Saturday and Sunday, August 14 and 15, is arranged especially for the younger yachtsmen. I should be pleased to see the crew of the Hawaii made up of youngsters almost entirely. They need not necessarily be members of the yacht club. The club will welcome aboard the Hawaii all the boys who are now taking an interest in sailing and those who have been sailing small boats in the harbor on Sundays are particularly invited. There will be no expense whatever for the juniors who want to come on the Hawaii. All they have to do is to let me know in good time that they are coming. The more the merrier, Abies and Hough are two of the names that are connected with junior yachting and I should be pleased if they would let all the other young yachtsmen know about this and communicate with me at the Tax Office. The cruise will start on Saturday afternoon, August 14, and finish before Sunday night.

"C. T. WILDER, Commodore Hawaii Yacht Club."

Ewa Pitcher Is Training Hard

On Sunday the Athletic Park will be the scene of no less than three games of baseball. In the morning the final game of the plantation championship will be played, and Ewa and Waianae will fight it out to a finish.

Both teams think they have a mortgage on the championship, and there is sure going to be some roasting done before the last inning is played.

George Clark will pitch for Ewa, and he is in the best of form just now. This young athlete is always in training, and goes through stunts that would make a professional boxer look to his laurels. "Tom" Collins of Ewa is looking after Clarke, and as that young man has had considerable experience for his age in the handling of runners and other athletes, the pride of Ewa is in good hands.

Collins, who is a nephew of Magnate West, ran sixth in the half-mile championship of New South

Kapiolani League Championship

On Sunday the first of a series of three games to decide the championship of the Kapiolani League will be played at Atkinson Park. The Kailela won the championship of the second series, and the Reach team won the laurels in the first series.

The extra three games will decide which team is the better altogether, and much interest is being shown in the play. Whichever one wins two out of the three games will be declared the champions.

The league used to play out at Kapiolani Park, but owing to the distance it was decided to play at Atkinson Park instead. Some good games have been put up by the teams and the play all around has been very even.

Cricket At Makiki On Saturday

There will be an interesting cricket match at Makiki tomorrow afternoon, when the married and single members of the club will meet on the field.

The club will take on the look of a practice match for the team which is going to make the Maui trip, and, taking it all around, should be an enjoyable afternoon's sport.

Cricket is booming now-a-days, and the play of the local men is improving a lot. The batting, as a rule, is fairly good, but the fielding is away behind first-class form.

Still as the practice afternoons are increased in number an improvement is noticed, and as some of the new players are getting onto the Wales, and as a field of thirty-three started in that event the Ewa lad did very well.

Clarke can put in a very good out-curve, and his work is always good on the diamond. All the Ewa people will be in to see their team try and hand Waianae theirs, and as the latter's supporters will also be on hand, the rooting should be one thing of joy from the start.

The charges at the gates will be the same as on Sunday afternoons, and there is no doubt that the grandstand will be crowded with the supporters of both claimants for the championship honors.

Barney Joy will umpire the game, and his expert opinion of the various points of the game will be listened to with great interest. Play will start at 8:45 a. m., and it behooves everybody to set their alarm clock at the usual week-day hour, so as to be on time at the park.

AL KAUFMAN TALKS BIG.

Al Kaufman, who is on his way to Seattle to engage in an exhibition bout with Dr. Roller, has issued the following statement:

"It has repeatedly been stated of late that I am sidestepping matches and demanding exorbitant prices. As I hold an entirely opposite position, I trust you will publish the following: "In the first place, I did not like to harass any boxer who has an affair on his hands, like Ketchel and Langford at Nevada; for that reason I have held aloof. Now that it appears that that match is off, I will make the following proposition to Messrs. Ketchel, Britt, Hall, et al. Britt announced a few days ago that Ketchel would meet me for $17,500. Now if the Nevada offer is bona fide, I will take Langford's place and allow Ketchel $17,500 for his end, lose or draw, and $2000 of the purse if he stays over twenty rounds. If the Nevada offer is off, I will make him the following terms, as I do not demand a guaranteed purse. If some of the local promoters will allow a reasonable percentage, I will give Ketchel 4 per cent of the boxers' end for every round he stays, merely reserving for myself 1 per cent, to cover my training expenses. Or I will allow him two-thirds of the contestants' end, win, lose or draw.

"I do not desire to place myself in the position of a heavyweight bounding a middleweight, but as Britt has been talking considerably, in an effort to place me in a wrong light, I feel fully justified in this stand. In regard to Johnson, I was sincere for my part, but listened to my advisers—who have older heads, for the following reasons:

"I am only 23 years of age and the only one at the present time to whom the public can look to retake the title. I expect to be ready for him a little later on, but they want me to be sure of myself when I start, and when I do, they believe the sporting fraternity and the public in general, will bestow a little credit on a native son who will be the third champion of the world to hail from California."—AL KAUFMAN.

A RETURN SHOT.

"If you want to be up to date, Mrs. Masher, you'll have to get a side-board," remarked young Slopay.

"And if you don't come up to date with your payments soon, Mrs. Slopay," rejoined the landlady, "you'll have to get outside board."
