HOUSE IN DEBATE ON IMMIGRATION

FIGHT OVER TAX BILL RAGING IN THE HOUSE

ACTION DEFERRED ON THIRD READING TILL THIS AFTERNOON—MEMBERS WANT FURTHER TIME TO CONSIDER—COHEN WANTS TO KNOW IF LEGISLATORS ARE SERVING THE PLANTERS OR THE PEOPLE—RICE, SHINGLE AND CASTRO DEFEND.

One of the best days of the session was had in the House this morning from point of argument and eloquence and it was all over the administration immigration tax measure, originally a Senate bill and introduced in the House by Castro, to provide for an additional income tax, over $4,000 incomes, for purposes of revenue for the bringing into Hawaii of European immigrants and for conservation and development of natural resources.

While Kalelopu had nothing to say against the merits of the bill, he indulged in talk that tended only to delay the action on the measure, arguing that the bill had not been properly introduced.

The only definite outspoken opposition to the merits of the bill came from Cohen who, with considerable eloquence, asked Hawaiians to "read the writing on the wall, in letters of fire," which plainly read, he said, that if this bill pass, the country would be flooded with alien paupers who would snatch the bread from their mouths and take away their opportunity to represent the people in the Legislature. "Are we here to represent the planters or the people?" he cried.

Rice, Shingle and Castro spoke emphatically for the bill.

Rice clear-headedly showed that he represented the people's cause as much as anybody did, but it was foolish to pretend that the sugar interests were not also the very important interests of the country; there was good philosophy in feeding the planters that the planters might, through taxation, feed the community. Help the plantations get labor and then let the plantations prosper and then let the people benefit by the increased taxes paid by the enterprise for profit that was run by the planters. That was Rice's teaching.

And Shingle carefully and painstakingly went over the history of the bill and what it proposed, and declared and showed it to be a just and equitable proposition whereby the poor or middle class would not suffer and whereby the whole Territory would be benefited.

NINETEENTH DAY.

Morning Session.

The administration immigration taxation measure, H. B. 108, introduced by Castro was on the order of the day for third reading and was at first deferred until Shingle, chairman of the promotion committee, should be present.

At 10:45 Shingle was present and the matter was taken up, together with the favorable report of the House committee on agriculture, immigration, forestry, promotion and manufactures. The report of the committee had been printed ed in both English and Hawaiian, and distributed.

Castro moved the passage of the bill.

Kalelopu arose declaring there was the surety of the death of the bill if forced at this time. The bill had not come from this House, it had come from the Senate without the record of the House showing and regular introduction in the House. As the bill stood it was in direct violation of the Organic Act which required that all bills must be introduced in English.

Long asked that Castro's original bill be produced.

The speaker declared that the bill was on the desk and in English.

It seems that Kalelopu had got muddled over the method of the distribution of English copies of the bill. The bill was a Senate measure and introduced in the House to save time in handling, so that it pass Senate and House contemporaneously. Copies of the Senate bill in English were handed round to the House members while Hawaiian revisions of the Senate bill, numbered as House Bill 108, were distributed also. Kalelopu had apparently forgotten the distribution of the English copies.

CASTRO IS ELOQUENT.

Castro made an eloquent speech in favor of the passage of the bill, remarking by way of introduction that Kalelopu seemed to have no objection to the bill itself, for he had not attacked its merits. He urged the passage, believing the measure would result in great benefit to the Territory, the taxation proposed for the sake of obtaining good European immigrants, not the scum of city slums, would not be a hardship to the poor. If this bill was passed it would mean the tabling of all other taxation measures.

PLANTERS OR PEOPLE?

Cohen wanted to know if the members were in the House to represent the sugar planters or the people. For himself, he represented the people. "Are you going home to tell your people that you dared not oppose the will of the sugar barons? Are you to have to say that you could not work the will of the people for good roads and the like, because the measures you were occupied in backing were the desires of the millionaire sugar planters."

"This is a measure to flood the country with three hundred thousand pauper laborers who will crowd out citizen laborers and reduce the price of labor. Let the planters, if they want to do good, spend $300,000 in raising the pay and allowing citizens to get the benefit."

Cohen said there were opportunities of obtaining labor from the United States—there were Portuguese in New

HOUSE JUDICIARY REPORTS ON MUNICIPAL ACT AMENDMENT PROPOSITION.

The House Judiciary Committee, E. A. Douthitt, chairman, this morning reported on Douthitt's bill to amend the Municipal Act, to this effect:

"The purpose of amendment to Section 17 is to avoid any unnecessary delay in the passage of resolutions which do not involve the appropriation of public money.

"The amendment of Section 20 is to avoid any unnecessary delay in the passage of ordinances, etc., over the Mayor's veto. The old section provided that the Board could only take action upon bills and resolutions after veto after five days, and within thirty days.

"The object of amending Paragraph 2, Section 23, is to give the City and County power to maintain and care for highways, streets, etc., as well as to regulate the use of the same. The power to maintain and care for the same is not given in the Municipal Act, except by implication.

"The amendment to Paragraph 7, Section 23, and Paragraph 9, Section 23, is for the purpose of making clearer the powers of the City and County, relative to the maintenance of certain public services.

"The amendment to Paragraph 20, Section 23, gives the Board the power to engage employees and subordinates for the carrying on of the public service.

"Under Section 81 of the Act, the Mayor is given power to appoint officers. Nowhere in the Act is it provided who shall have the power of engaging employees. The Board under the Act having been given the power to do all things necessary to carry into execution all powers vested in the City and County of Honolulu and in the Board, it seems proper that the power to engage employees should be left to the Board.

"The amendment to Section 78 is for the purpose of permitting the Mayor to engage in any other profession or calling during the term for which he is elected.

"The amendment to Section 121 is for the purpose of giving the City and County Clerk the same power to appoint necessary assistants as is given to the other elective officers under the Municipal Act.

"The remaining amendments contained in House Bill 125 are for the purpose of avoiding inconsistencies at present existing in the Act, and for the purpose of making the Act more workable as a whole.

"For these reasons your committee recommend its passage."

SENATE FACES LIQUOR BILL

MEMBERS OF SENATE TAKE A BREATHING SPELL WHEN THE LIQUOR BILL COMES UP FOR SECOND READING—MOORE MOVES TO TAKE UP SUBSTITUTE BILL—INTERESTING DEBATE ON COUNTY HOSPITAL BILL.

Besides a lot of work put through, more fully appears in Chapter 17 of the Session Laws of 1888 and known as Sections 1957 to 1962 inclusive of the Revised Laws of Hawaii. During the sessions of 1905, Sections 1958, 1959, 1961 and 1962 of the Revised Laws were repealed, leaving only two Sections of said Act in force. Sections 1957 and 1960, which we consider obsolete, because the matters there in contained are already provided for in Sections 991 and 993 of the Revised Laws as Amended by Act 42 of the Session Laws of 1905, which provide for the abatement of nuisances and sources of filth and providing for the infliction of a penalty for maintaining such nuisances.

Coelho introduced a bill to amend the law relating to merchandise brokers' license.

THE SENATE.

NINETEENTH DAY.

A communication from the Waialua Improvement Association covering a resolution protesting against any change in the liquor law was received.

A letter from Jaz. W. Pratt, Commissioner of Public Lands, giving the number of his clerks as four and their hours 8:30 a. m. to 12 m. and 1 to 3 p. m., was referred to the Ways and Means Committee.

MANUFACTURE OF POI.

Coelho presented a report of the Health Committee recommending the passage of Senate bill relating to the manufacture of poi. The report says:

"The bill has received the careful consideration of your committee and find, the Act was enacted in 1888 to regulate the manufacture of poi in the city of Honolulu. From the reading of the said original Act it seemed to us, that the main object of the same was, to place the control of the business in the hands of one person or corporation. Since the enactment of the law however, its provisions have never been carried out, on the ground that the successive legislatures since 1888 refused to appropriate money for the purpose of providing the buildings requisite to the proper enforcement of the said Act.

AFTER BURGLARS

Another bold attempt at burglary was committed at the residence of M. Phillips, head of the wholesale house of M. Phillips & Company, at noon today, and as this is being written several detectives, armed with a description of the trespasser, are on the trail of the latter. Mr. Phillips lives at 1540 Kewalo street. Mrs. Phillips came upon the would-be burglar in one of the rooms of the house, in the plain act of looting it. The lady was greatly frightened and cried out, and the burglar, taking fright, flew out and away before he could be intercepted. Mrs. Phillips says that the intruder was a Hawaiian and she has a very clear idea of his general appearance.

"Well, I consider myself lucky," said Mr. Phillips this afternoon when asked about the matter. "Only this very morning I told my wife that in view of the many burglaries going on I had better take our valuable jewelry, etc., down town and lock it up. She agreed with me and I did so. What do you call that if it isn't luck?"

At noon today Detective Kalaketa took in the entire Rosa family, dark Portuguese, living in a lane on the extension of Wilder avenue toward Marquessville. In the bunch are Joe Rosa, believed to have been the principal in the burglary at the Turner house in Manoa valley and his father, mother and sister—believed to have had some hand in the crime. They boy has told a story which has implicated his whole family in the affair. In view of the fresh outbreak of burglaries detectives early this afternoon brought in one Korean and two Chinese who have been under surveillance for several days. No specific charges are made against them, but they will be required to give a pretty good account of themselves.

Three Portuguese boys were also arrested today and will be charged with stealing two bicycles. They are believed to be the boys who stole all the fruit from a Chinese orange tree at the home of F. B. McStocker, and may be mixed up in other cases of petty thievery.

C. A. C. MEETING.

The Chinese Athletic Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Chinese Y. M. C. A. hall on Friday night, March 12, 1909, at 7:30 o'clock. Important business will be transacted. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Times of the tides are taken from the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey tables. The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur about one hour earlier than at Honolulu. Honolulu standard time is 10 hours 30 minutes slower than Greenwich time, being that of the meridian of 157 degrees 30 minutes. The time whistle blows at 1:30 p. m. which is the same as Greenwich, 9 hours, 6 minutes. The Sun and Moon are for local time for the whole group.

THE LOG-BOOK

The transport Logan will be looked for about 10 o'clock Saturday morning, coming from San Francisco. She will likely sail again Sunday afternoon for Hilo.

The Kukui left this morning for the Molokai light, taking out the local light house officials to inspect the beacon over there. The tender and her party will arrive back in the harbor early this evening.

Castle & Cooke have received advices that the cut rate on freight from San Francisco has gone by the board, an understanding, presumably, having been reached between the rival companies.

British Consul Forster was one of the first callers aboard H. B. M. S. Cambrian yesterday, after which he and the commander called upon the Governor. The latter returned the call aboard the cruiser this morning.

Purser Kibling, of the Claudine, arriving at 5:13 this morning, reported very rough weather crossing the channel last night. Otherwise the trip was without special incident. The Claudine's cargo consisted of the following: 32 cords wood, 15 bbis. wine, 112 cs. pineapples, 41 hogs, 50 mt. bbis., 63 pkgs. copier and bypass, 66 pkgs. mt. bottles and 137 packages.

The bark Andrew Welch was towed out at an early hour this morning and sailed away for San Francisco. As a fine wind was blowing outside, the vessel was soon out of sight. She took a cargo consisting of 1534 tons of sugar. No passengers.

The W. G. Hall, sailing at 5 o'clock this afternoon, will take mail for all points on Kauai, as there will likely not be another mail leaving for that island until next week.

Frank C. Poor, clerk of the Inter-island wharf office, who has been laid up with pneumonia for several days, was reported to be much improved this morning but is staying close indoors on account of the stormy weather. If all goes well, he will be on deck Monday morning.

Captain William A. Clark, for about thirteen years wharf superintendent here for the Oceanic S. S. Co., has been appointed port surveyor for Honolulu. Clark is an experienced, careful and popular man, and his appointment is already spoken of with the heartiest approval by both waterfronters and shipping men. He took charge of his new office this morning.

Chicago, Ill. — "I want to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was so sick that two of the best doctors in Chicago said I would die if I did not have an operation. A friend told me how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped her, and I tried it, and after the third bottle was cured." — Mrs. ALYVENA SPELLING, 11 Langdon Street, Chicago, Ill.

If you are ill do not drag along at home or in your place of employment until an operation is necessary, but build up the feminine system, and remove the cause of those distressing aches and pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

James F. Morgan presided at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce held at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Stangenwald building, and H. P. Wood was present as secretary. The attendance was small, but business was transacted methodically and quickly.

The treasurer's report showed receipts for the month to have been $1,249.49, and a balance on hand of $665.17. The report was referred to finance committee.

President Morgan brought up the subject of a building for the quarters of the Chamber. He had been looking over several buildings that had been offered, and suggested that the matter be left to a committee of three to further investigate and report. This suggestion, together with a motion that Mr. Morgan be made chairman of the committee, carried, the other members of the committee to be appointed later by the chair.

On recommendation of the chair authority was given for the publication of the following letter from Delegate Kuhio:

"I have seen the Commissary General in regard to the purchase of army supplies in Honolulu.

"General Shaw advises me that he will be glad to favor the purchase in Honolulu of all classes of supplies that are produced locally; he thinks however that, under the present army regulations, it will be impossible to make purchases of general supplies in Honolulu. As has already been explained, the Commissary Department does not have to figure any freight cost on the transportation of heavy supplies; this would make it evidently impossible for Honolulu merchants to compete in such items as flour, canned goods and fruits, which the government buys in California, direct from the producer.

"Another great obstacle imposed by the army regulations is the requirement that all supplies purchased in quantity must be inspected by a professional inspector. This would necessitate having a number of inspectors kept at Honolulu, and would require the establishing of a general commissary depot there, which he says would not be justified by the amount of supplies that could be economically bought in that market.

"General Shaw did say, however, that he would favor the purchase of coffee, sugar, fresh meat, pineapples, and other fruit and vegetables in Honolulu, so far as the prices offered by local merchants would justify local purchases. While we were still in his office, General Shaw dictated a letter to the department commander, indicating his desire that Honolulu bids be considered on locally produced supplies. The General suggests that your Chamber take up with the Chief of Commissary, U. S. A., Department of California, San Francisco, this whole subject, stating to him your reasons for believing that you could furnish certain supplies for army use at prices that would be satisfactory to the government."

Ayer's Hair Vigor

A gentleman residing at Dunedin, N.Z., writes under date Jan. 7, 1907:

"It is with gratitude I write you that I have now a splendid head of hair, both thick and very soft, all owing to my having used your wonderful Hair Vigor. I was almost bald headed before I used the Hair Vigor. I still use it every day, rubbing it well into the roots of the hair. I used to wear a skull-cap, and I am very grateful to Ayer's Hair Vigor for the improvement it has made in my looks."

Be warned in time. Use Ayer's Hair Vigor and preserve your youth.

GUS BECHERT BACKED FOR FIRST SIX HOME

Gus Bechert received a lot of support in The Star's Marathon contest yesterday and is now well up in the double figure division. F. A. Bechert has withdrawn from the race but Gus is evidently looked to worthily uphold the honor of the family.

Cheatham and Sam Hop both held their own yesterday and Scharach, Nelson, Downey and Ayres received the most votes of the remainder of the probable contestants.

A very heavy vote is looked for today, tomorrow and Saturday morning, as votes are being reserved until the form of the entrants becomes better known.

The standing of the contestants to date is as follows:

E. M. Cheatham	128
Sam Hop	91
P. Scharach	81
F. H. Nelson	75
H. M. Ayres	71

The contest will remain open till next Saturday and changes in the standing of the intending competitors will be published every day this week.

The contest furnishes a chance for anyone who has an opinion as to what men will be first home or what time the race will be won in, to earn a couple of prizes well worth winning. It costs nothing to enter. All that is necessary is to fill in the appended form and forward same to the Sporting Editor of The Hawaiian Star.

The sender of the list corresponding most closely with the placings of the first six men in the race will receive $10.

The nearest estimate to the actual time made in the race will gain for the sender a prize of $5.00.

There is no limit to the guesses allowed but a fresh coupon must be filled out in every case. In case of a tie the coupon bearing the prior date will win.

resembling a pike or sea-dog, distinguishing feature is that the back half of its body as well as the dorsal and ventral fins are spotted with white.

The Latin name of this fish is Hemitus guttatus. The Albatross expedition was unable to obtain one while here and the only description obtainable was made from one preserved in alcohol.

The second malinal fish was Alutera monoceros, the native name of which is "iokai." This is an East Indian species and was not taken by the Albatross expedition of these islands, the description given in the bulletin of the United States Fish Commission being made from a specimen preserved in alcohol. There is a painting of this fish in the collection of Mrs. Dillingham.

The body is oblong, much compressed, and the skin has a fine velvety touch. It has a spine over the eyes. The body color of the specimen in the market last week was a dirty olive plentifully mottled with turquoise blue.

FROG CHORUS GREET'S AUTOS

A queer thing has been noticed of late at Moili where the taro-patches by the roadside are well populated with bullfrogs.

Passers along the Waialae road near where the sentinel corva aims keep watch and ward over acres of succulent taro, have recently observed something peculiar with the howling of the greenbacks whose habitat is under the green, fanlike leaves of the taro plant, (Colocasia esculenta).

They did not begin on their greetings one at a time, privatim et serialim, as of old, but seemed to unite in a deep bass chorus, as though at the command of a leader.

It fell to a Kaimukite to solve the problem and to make a discovery which is likely to create a sensation in natural history circles all over the world.

The individual in question, was taking his morning constitutional the other day, and while near the big taro-patch on the makai side of the Waialae road noticed an automobile approaching him. As the car neared him it tooted vigorously and at the same instant a chorus of deep-voiced toots came from the taro-patch, ceasing at the same time the auto's horn quit giving voice.

Not satisfied with the conclusion to which he hastily came, the pedestrian determined to wait until another car came along, in order that he might determine whether the froggy chorus he had heard was merely a coincidence or a premeditated and practiced effort, as he more than half suspected.

He had not long to wait, for presently a great tearing car rolled down the hill, tooting like one possessed.

The bull-frogs acted exactly as they had when the first car passed, emitting a chorus of not unmusical toots, in perfect time with the tooting of the automobile.

There was no longer any doubt in the investigator's mind. The intelligent frogs, lonesome in their boggy retreat, had heard the voices of the autos and thinking they belonged to some monster cousin's or fetters who were polite enough to pass the time of day with them, en passant, determined to return the compliment and give them a friendly salute whenever one of them passed by.

All of which goes to show that

THE AFTERNOON SESSIONS

THE HOUSE

EIGHTEENTH DAY. Afternoon Session.

The administration immigration tax bill was up for second reading in the House yesterday afternoon, bringing forth a warm argument between Shingle and Kalelopu, Shingle urging the adoption of the report of the committee which recommended the passage of the measure, and Kalelopu, while he did not attack the bill, for some reason or another best known to his occasionally inscrutable mind, calling for delay. He declared that to hurry the bill, although only he could see any sign of untimely haste, would result in the killing of the bill. Kalelopu evidently forgot that he had had as much opportunity as anybody else to understand the bill, for it had been discussed at a public meeting at which Kalelopu was present, had been discussed in the press and had before been up for consideration in the House. The favorable report of the committee was finally adopted and the bill is ready for third reading.

Kalelopu wanted the report of the agricultural and promotion committee on the immigration tax measure, above noted, House Bill 108 translated and printed, and Shingle, touch and ball, at their respective offices, free of charge.

Contestants are asked to put their own towels in their grips.

Bonnie will take pictures at the finish.

The Waialae band will play at the finishing point which will be in front of the Haleiwa hotel.

The latest withdrawal from the race is Fun Honan. He was violently assaulted by a cow while going home the other night and is reported to be in a state of nervous collapse.

DETAILS OF HALEIWA RACE

A meeting of the executive committee of the Honolulu-Haleiwa race was held last night in the roof garden of the Young Hotel. The following things were decided upon:

The start will be from a line drawn from the mauka end of the Aala park pavilion to the junction of the Hotel street bridge and the park.

There will be five refreshment stations distributed equally along the course, starting at the Honolulu mill.

There will be a seven-hour limit placed on competitors and anyone taking longer than that to cover the course will be ineligible for a prize.

There will be a three-hour limit placed on the bicycle riders.

The distribution of prizes will be in the hands of a committee consisting of Messrs. Densham, Vierra and Ayres.

All contestants must report at the depot at 7 a. m. to receive their numbers and safety pins. At this time they will turn in their grips containing their ordinary clothes, to be for of the Haleiwa hotel.

The bicycle race will start at 7:30 and the runners and walkers five minutes later.

Return transportation will be furnished for the bicycle riders but their machines will have to be sent back on a regular train at a cost to the owner of 25c as there will be no baggage car on the Marathon special.

The Marathon special will leave Honolulu at 9 a. m. and will leave Haleiwa at 4:30 p. m. The fare will be $1.50 for the round trip.

Dr. Macdonald and Dr. Victor E. Collins have kindly offered to examine any contestant who may call on them

STRANGE FISH IN MARKET

Fishing in the channels and off the reef continues very poor. The fish are evidently spawning and have left the shallow water of the reef for the deep holes outside where they can conduct their domestic affairs in greater security.

In another month fishing should pick up and the warm nights of April and May produce good sport among the big eyed night-feeders.

The rough weather of late has been instrumental in driving some strange fish inshore and two rare specimens have been noticed in the market within the past two weeks, which have been seldom, if ever, seen on the slabs during the last ten years.

One of these is a fish somewhat

Residents of Hawaii purposing to visit Seattle during the time of the Exposition, June 1st to October 15th, will find it to their advantage to call at the rooms of the Hawaii Promotion Committee and register in order that assistance may be rendered them in securing desirable hotel accommodations.

Deputy Sheriff Rose sent a prison trustee out to Diamond Head today to bury the bones of L. R. Kadernachet, the Los Angeles man who committed suicide there two years ago. Of jewelry, only a sleeve button was found. The soil is very soft there and cracked, and if the man had any money or heavy jewelry, like a watch, the sand may have covered it over. Deputy Rose will make a thorough search later.

KAWAILANI IS BREAKING UP

The northerly wind and swell, which set in yesterday toward this island, sounded taps for the schooner Kawailani, which was still on the reef off Mokapu point.

At the time the wind freshened up David Wasson and ten men were engaged in taking out the masts of the vessel. They had already saved the masts. The masts were hurriedly cut down and landed just before the heavy seas started coming in.

In the early part of the blow it was plain that the little dented craft stood small show, and as the wind kept up all night hope of save any other part of her was given up this morning. The Kawailani is now in the class of total wrecks. She is breaking up on the rocks and all that will ever be saved of her after this is stray lumber that may be brought up on the sand by the tide.

Search for the missing Korean sailor has been abandoned. It is thought probable that he made a breakfast for a bunch of sharks two days ago.

THE GEM.

Tonight will be the last night of the present program at the Gem theatre. Those who have not been to the Gem should do so tonight as the program is varied and interesting and affords no end of amusement to young and old. Tomorrow night's program will be a hummer.

SECOND BIG GUN LANDED

Shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the second big gun was landed from the large schooner and straightway started on its journey to Pearl Harbor. The double car returned during the early afternoon and was backed upon the track to receive the heavy ordnance. When the tackle was adjusted on the piece it came up and was placed on the cars as neatly as though it had been a toy.

At Pearl Harbor today the gun is being taken off the cars by means of jack screws and tackle. It will be cleared out today, and then the great job will have come to an end.

Captain Bedford, and his corps of assistants, were heartily congratulated upon the completion of their difficult task. The former certainly made a good job of a very ticklish proposition.

EDITOR WILL TRY THE JURY

Chong Chak Lai, alias Chong Yee Pak, the Chinese editor whom the Chinese consul had arrested last week on the charge of libel, was arraigned in police court this morning, waived examination (or, rather, demanded a jury trial) and was committed to the Circuit Court. Bail was continued at $500. The accused has retained A. F. Todd as his attorney.

At Sun, a Chinese woman living in south street near Halekuanla, pleaded guilty to the charge of selling liquor without license and was fined $100 and costs. This place had been watched by Inspector Fenner for some time, and two nights ago it was raided with complete success. The illicit booze was there in plenty and several of the lady's drunken customers were in the house.

Pua, a man who has been up many times for drunkenness, was this morning given thirty days on the reel as a corrective.

Mr. Fennell won another case at Waiaina yesterday afternoon. Last week he pulled a blind pluggery down there and arrested two men, a Chinaman and a Jap. The Jap pleaded guilty last Saturday and was assessed $100. The Chinaman decided to fight the case and retained Senator Charles Chillingworth to defend him. Deputy Sheriff Oscar prosecuted and well he did it. So thoroughly had he worked up his case that the defense was completely routed, and the Chinaman was also fined $100 and costs of the trial.

M. Hoshi, of Laie, was arrested by Officer McGregor, a country postman, at the Oahu railway depot yesterday afternoon and charged with embezzlement. He was taken back down there this morning for trial. It appears that he was on some collecting dodge and gathered in a good many dollars from Japanese. The latter suspected that he was intending to skip out for Japan and had McGregor follow him to Honolulu.

Lim Sing an old Chinaman who has stood on the sidewalk near Hotel and Kekaulike streets for months and lectured his imaginary enemies, was this morning sent to the insane asylum for treatment. He is harmless but has been a kind of street nuisance for a long time.

YET ANOTHER NEW THEATER

Ground was this morning broken for one of the swiftest moving picture and vaudeville theatres in Honolulu. The site of the new resort is the vacant lot back of the present Art theatre, and extending out to a wide entrance on Fort street. Mr. Larsen and his associates of the Art theatre are the promoters of and will operate the new pleasure house. The land concerned in the project changed hands yesterday. Work will be pushed with all possible energy and the place will be opened before the coming of the rainless, pleasant summer evenings.

The new theatre will have an elaborate and beautiful front on Fort street, and a wide half-way leading to the play house. The theatre will be equipped in the finest style, will have two balconies and an easy seating capacity of 1500. At the back, and so placed as to supply music for both the new theatre and the old Art, will be an electric pipe organ, of immense size and volume—the largest and most expensive musical instrument in the Hawaiian islands.

The expense will be great, but Mr. Larsen feels that the generous patronage given the old Art will justify the outlay.

In connection with this matter it may be stated that the plan of the Widemann Estate to put in a block of four or five stores on the lot between the Club stables and Fitzpatrick's cigar store has not been abandoned; but on the contrary, now that the new theatre is a certainty, this building

INTERESTING CASE DECIDED

By a unanimous decision the Supreme Court overrules the exceptions of defendant in the case of Mary Kaula Kaula against Albert Waterhouse, administrator of the estate of A. Kaula. It was a suit for $12,359.10. A jury gave a verdict for plaintiff for $7200 and Waterhouse appealed.

Ass Kaula, a well-known public man of his time, had for some years prior to his death over two years ago acted in the relation of a foster father to Mrs. Kaula, who married at the age of eighteen, and in that capacity Kaula managed some property and money left to her by an aged couple who with her had made their home with him.

Justice Ballou is the writer of the opinion, the syllabus of which reads thus: "An account book shown to be in the handwriting of a deceased person is admissible in support of a claim against his estate as an admission against interest."

"An action of assumpsit having been brought at law, it is not a ground for dismissal that it is founded on a long and complicated account."

"If the absence of a demand, the statute of limitations does not begin to run in favor of a fiduciary agent managing his principal's estate until the death of one party."

M. C. Achi for plaintiff; C. F. Peterson for defendant.

CHANGES IN ROAD BUREAU

The road department is in the midst of what may be fittingly termed a "transition" period today. This morning the "outs" or appointees of the Mayor, showed up at the main office and at the government stables. The old gangs were already at both places, but were doing nothing except the ordinary routine work of the morning.

This consisted largely of feeding the mules at the stables and manuring the larder stalls at the office.

John Wilson, the new road supervisor-to-be, arrived at the office shortly before 9 o'clock and was received and congratulated by the retiring supervisor, Thomas F. Cummins. As it is understood that the change will not be completed until after the 15th, Wilson and Cummins started out for a look over the roads, the latter pointing out to the former what was being done and contemplated.

Robert W. Cathcart, the new book-keeper, made a start on the work of stocktaking, but had to give it over for the day as he is on a jury to-morrow. This work will be finished by Monday at the outside.

Charles Cosler, head of the stables, was around but doing nothing. His successor, Kaawahaku, and his men appeared at the stables and were admitted without question, but the old gang is doing the little work that is necessary.

Mr. Cummins is not yet certain what he will drive at in future, but is understood to have his eye on another government billet. He is a first class office man. Charles Cosler will leave
