ECHOES FROM HAWAII.

The Republic—Its Legislative Assembly—Contest With the Executive—Financial Difficulties—The Two Attempts of Ex-Minister of Finance, P. C. Jones—The A. P. A.—The Silver Question.

A truly Republican government is a roof which not only shelters and protects each and all who live under it, but these are at the same moment the very pillars by which it is supported. This figure of speech is true likewise of government by monarchy, for in this case the dome or source of the highest light and power is held up by the aristocracy and the people who have this common point of union in their loyalty to their ruler.

THREE YEARS AGO A SMALL RING

of sugar planters in the Hawaiian Islands took advantage of a sort of paternal oversight exercised by the United States in primitive missionary days, and under cover of our guns, cajoled a native Queen into giving up her sceptre which was to be restored if the arbitrator so decided. They considered themselves sure of the court before they tried their case. In this, they were not only disappointed then, but at the present moment they are studying political platforms and reading reports of political discussions anent our presidential contests, and doubting the testimony of their own eyes when they can discover nowhere the least reference to Hawaii. They do detect a possibility of a sugar bounty possibly it may be, for the like of which they sold the Master whom their ancestors went out to preach to a heathen people.

But they are willing to take that, so little confidence have they in their own future. "Having sown the wind we must reap the whirlwind, the lack of confidence in the stability of our government acts to paralyze business; if silver is to be installed in your system we must fall into line and take the consequences, for we could hardly import goods from gold-standard countries for exchange would be against us. Our imports would have to come from America, Japan or China where silver would pass." Such is conservative judgement on the effect of a change in the standard of value.

ANNEXATION HAVING BECOME A TIME-WORN

a disappointing myth, they are now harping on the word, protectorate. This means that the United States shall do avowedly what the naval officers have been doing secretly for over three years, namely keep Mr. Dole and his associate conspirators in power.

Do they fear a native uprising? Oh no, there is no danger of that. The noble, resigned, self-sacrificing conduct of the Queen, the dignified silence of Princess Kaiulani unite to keep the amiable natives from insurrection.

It is simply that there are no sustaining pillars to the roof which they hastily built: it may collapse of its own weight at any moment; sometimes when a structure is demolished, we find that rust and dry-rot have almost eaten away its support; we have lived: our only comfort is that we knew it not; but the trouble here is that Dole, Damon & Co. (limited), fully realize their situation.

WE TREMBLE TO THINK HOW NEAR DEATH

The so-called legislature was only valuable as an argument for those who say that a council of seven could govern any one of our large cities far more wisely than any two deliberative assemblies. With her 16,000 registered votes, Hawaii was not instrumental numerically in selecting these men save by about one-fourth; the 12,000 were disfranchised and of the 4,000 voting a large proportion had no further qualification than that of having gone in search of adventure to Honolulu, put on a uniform and carried a musket with as much chance of losing life as any member of our militia in time of peace. The Councils of the Provisional Government were at least united. The legislature seemed to consider that it was there for the purpose of quarrelling with the Executive Department.

A BILL FOR THE REGISTRATION

of all citizens was first passed, after having been law some two months without further enforcement than that of taking the measure of Mr. Dole's thumb, it was found generally offensive and repealed. Some of the measures introduced by the Attorney-General to prevent the spread of contagious diseases cannot be detailed in a public journal, for it has been proposed and even threatened to apply them to both the teachers and scholars of the public schools, and the Catholic sisterhoods. During the session of the so called legislature, this official was as we used to say in college "rusticated" sent to Japan and China at the public expense, because he was supposed to be an embarrassment both to friend and foe. Yet, these very people owe to him,—Gen. W. O. Smith,—a debt of gratitude; why? not because such an official should ever have been needed, but that and Hawaiian rule has never been worthy of any other name, it was necessary to have a "mild-mannered man" who should neither be afraid to "scuttle a ship nor cut a throat," and this describes Gen. Smith's legal course; he was just the man for the place, but it is a disgrace to American blood that the place was provided in advance.

In the matter of finances the situation is no better. Mr. S. M. Damon, the only Minister of Finance since the dethronement, having been obliged to borrow about $150,000 a month from Danmon and Company, bankers, to keep the pot a-boiling, introduced three bills for the purpose of raising money and every one of them was slaughtered by the Legislature without the substitution of any alternative. He became disgusted with the situation and to avoid being present at his humiliation left for San Francisco.

Eureka! There is one particular in which Hawaii is a republic; to the two men to whom the community owes the most, not excepting its President, it shows the most consummate ingratitude.

Now, came onto the scene, Hon. Peter C. Jones, Minister of Finance under the Queen; then amongst the first to join the insurgents; again, losing courage and coming to America; then returning to swear allegiance to Mr. Dole; then to whom he offered two percent of his income as president of the Charles Brewer Sugar Co. if he could be protected at the time when the men who buried the dynamite bombs on the royal premises, dug them up and exhibited them around town for a pleasurable excitement, yet, Mr. Jones offered his invaluable services to the limited liability company, if they would only send him east to place the four million loan. "Place every dollar of it west of the Rocky Mountains,"—such was his boast to his constituents.

Residing in Honolulu.

THURSDAY, NOV. 5, 1896

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The entertainment at the Opera House, on the occasion of the presentation of "Il Trovatore," promises to be an elegant affair. Out of compliment to the amateurs, who have done so much to entertain the public, and to Messrs. John D. and Adolph B. Spreckels and Mr. Wm. G. Irwin, to whose liberality the public is indebted for the building, we hope to see an audience in evening dress that will be a credit to Honolulu society.

We received by the last mail a letter from Captain Julius A. Palmer, which we reproduce on our front pages. It is another of his forcible arraignment of the Government and their friends, who, with the connivance of certain officials of the United States, stole this country from its inhabitants in very much the same way that "perfidious Albion" colonizes weak countries for her commercial or political interest. The only difference is that our resident buccaniers attack England for doing the very thing they have more traitorously and perfidiously done themselves under the hypocritical garb of morality and civilization.

In the current issue of the Friend, Rev. J. Leadingham calls attention to the needs of one of the most important religious powers in the country, the North Pacific Missionary Institute. —The Advertiser.

If the Institute referred to was an important power in the country it certainly would not need to pass the hat around. We do not know who the Reverend Leadingham is and upon enquiry among our numerous Hawaiian friends, we have failed to gain any enlightenment. We presume that he is connected with the North Pacific pastoral incubator, and would not be adverse to get a good salary. That the Institution is a power or a necessity is simply nonsense. How many Hawaiian graduates from the Institute have any influence among their countrymen, and how many churches of the creed and doctrines taught at the Institute can claim even a decent following since the overthrow of the monarchy by the descendants of the American missionaries? We are surprised to see the Advertiser, in advocating the scheme of Mr. Leadingham, admitting "that everything is in a transition state and a strong minority is needed." What in the name of fairness has been done in the past if this is the result of years of missionary work. The official organ also claims that the church of the American missionaries "is the great nursery of morality." After an unbiased and fair investigation into the moral and social condition of these islands, we are compelled to say that the more "religion" we have been furnished with the less "morality" have we to boast. Religion on the Pacific Institute plan should be given a rest. Perhaps the community might then improve morally.

Guy Fawkes' Day. Our friend Tommy Lucas letting off sundry thundering blasts at the new Irwin block on Nuuanu street this morning, recalled to our memory that to-day is the anniversary of Guy Fawkes' day, an anniversary fading away rapidly, even in England, the home of its incidents and its celebration.

In the year 1570 one Guy, or Guido, Fawkes was born of a prominent Protestant family of Yorkshire, England. In his youth he joined the Roman Catholic Church, and served with distinction with the Spanish forces in the Netherlands.

On his return to England with riper years he joined in a political plot, and on November 5, 1605, had planned "to blow up the King and all his Ministers," to quote from the old ballad, upon the opening of Parliament. He was caught in the act, and having endured the torture, was publicly executed the next year.

In remembrance of this event for nearly three hundred years he has been burned in effigy, with concurring bon fires, fireworks and illuminated grottoes composed of oyster shells erected by the gamins of the cities, towns and hamlets of England, who profited by the peace their enterprise and skill gained for them.

The custom, however, for some years has fallen into disrepute as it latterly lead to riotous disturbances and created religious hard feeling.

"Bloomers," said the old-fashioned boarder, "lessen a woman's matrimonial chances." "Dear me!" said the Cheerful Idiot, "I thought they were a distinct aid in striking a good match." —Indianapolis Journal.

Cleanliness is next to godliness, and in this hot and dusty city regular bathing is absolutely necessary as a preservative of health and strength.

To persons of sensitive constitutions and thin blood, the weather is becoming too fickle and cold for regular sea bathing, so the home bath has to be used more frequently.

Enamelled Iron Bath

tub which stands on four iron legs, can readily be placed anywhere, and makes a handsome piece of furniture. The white enamel is fixed and indestructible, looks beautifully clean and appetizing. The fixtures are of nickel, and around the tub, if you prefer it, is a broad wooden rim which adds to the finish.

The price of the bath without the rim is $40 and with it $45. As to size it is a 5 feet bath and unusually deep. In fact it is a beauty.

Nickel Plated Double Faucet

for hot and cold water. It is a very handsome and useful appendage for every bath. Attachable to it is a beautiful little metal soap box, gold lined, and a spray. Hot baths are as medicinal men tell us most beneficial to health in this climate.

This double faucet can be attached to any kind of bath you may already have, and its cost complete is only $9. Call and inspect these novelties at the store.

THERE are at present two devices on the market by which the rider can tell at what speed he is traveling at any given moment. One of these keeps a little bell ringing while the speed is kept up to a certain point which may be predetermined. The other shows constantly the speed which is being traveled, anywhere between one and three minutes to the mile.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

President W. O. Smith presided over yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Board of Health.

Dr. W. T. Monsarrat's report for October showed 317 examinations of females of saleable illicit pleasures. Inspector Kellipio reported 88,000 fish received and inspected at the Fish Market during the past fortnight.

Dr. Weddick was appointed Government physician at Ewa, and an agent of the Board. He will also act temporarily at Waianae.

In regard to the request made through the French Commissioner, as to the visit of two physicians from the Pasteur Institute in France, it was stated that M. Vossion had been informed that the Board would do all in its power to welcome them, and afford them opportunities of studying leprosy. M. Vossion had replied that he would lay the matter before the Pasteur Institute.

T. F. Lansing presented his statistical report on the Insane Asylum, showing 109 inmates, and showing a most unfavorable condition of affairs. This report was supplemented by the following letter from Dr. Day.

To MR T. F. LANSING, Chairman of the Committee on Insane Asylum
Dear Sir:—Fearing that I might not be able to meet you and Dr. Wood at the Insane Asylum before leaving for Hawaii next Tuesday, I drove over there this afternoon.

The situation is critical, and I don't see any way of properly relieving it short of building a new ward of strong cells. Something could be accomplished by weeding out a number of chronic idiots and harmless cases. That ought to be done at once, but it will not relieve the situation much, because the pressing need is for more strong rooms for the violently insane, such cases as cannot be put into a general ward, like Ward No. 2.

Several such cases are now obliged to spend the nights in the chairs used for refractory patients.

Nothing short of another building, with separate cells will meet the requirements, as they should be met.

If, however, that is impossible at the present time, I would suggest restoring the separate cells in Ward No. 2, walling in the eating pavilion and converting that into a dormitory for harmless cases, and erecting a new eating room on the other side of the kitchen.

These changes could probably be made for less money than would be required to put up a new building, and might serve to tide us over until we can put up a handsome new ward, with accommodations for 40 or 50 patients, similar to Ward No. 4.

I will not be here at the next meeting of the Board, but any decision that you and Dr. Wood may come to in the matter, or any recommendation you may make I will endorse. Yours very truly,

F. R. DAY.
Honolulu, Oct. 25th, 1896.

The following resolution was introduced by Dr. Wood and adopted: Resolved, That the Committee on the Treatment of Leprosy recommend the Board of Health to use its influence to have the Hawaiian Government appoint a delegate to attend the Congress of Leprosy, to be held in Bergen, Norway, provided that the said Congress receives the support of the European and other foreign Governments.

The Board then went into Executive session.

She—You never drank a drop before we were married dear. HE—No, I didn't have to.—Life.

DRUNKENNESS A DISEASE.

November 2, 1896, an Institute was established in Honolulu. The gentlemen in charge are well and favorably known in Texas, their home section, and bear with them the unqualified endorsement of some of the leading men of that State. In the short time since the establishment of the Institute, five patients have entered, and are now under treatment.

The Institute is located in the Arlington Cottage on Hotel Street, a central and advantageous location.

THE CURE HARMLESS AND EASY.

It is claimed for the Hagey treatment, that there has never been an instance in which any patient has suffered in the least from taking the treatment. Patients pursue their usual avocations while being treated. The Institute guarantees to absolutely and positively destroy the drink habit and eradicate the desire for liquor, the patient to be the judge in the matter. The same with the morphine, cocaine and tobacco habits.

The treatment is never intrusted to any except competent and reliable physicians, who make an individual study of the case of each patient. Every patient is treated separately and privately and his treatment is made to meet his individual requirement.

ALCOHOLISM.

Sufficient evidence has been given by eminent physicians and other experts, to convince any fair minded person that the liquor habit is as truly a disease as consumption, asthma or any chronic or hereditary ailment.

Then why should the victim of the habit hesitate to be treated? He would not hesitate to be treated for any other disease, why this? Although it might seem a humiliating concession to take treatment for a mere habit, of which he claims to be the master, yet he certainly is not master of a disease. And this habit soon becomes a disease.

NARCOTISM.

The habit of using opium, morphine, cocaine, etc., is on the increase, and much more to be dreaded than the liquor habit. These pernicious drugs count their victims sometimes among the brightest and best of our land, who, unless cured, close their career in a short time, either in a miserable grave or an insane asylum.

The treatment of these habits is practically alike, and they are as easily cured as the liquor habit, but the patient requires very guarded attention, which this institution supplies.

TOBACCO, ETC.

The habit of using tobacco, although not so much to be dreaded as those before mentioned, in some constitutions is as much a disease as the liquor habit is in all constitutions.

Cigarette smoking has become the bane of California young men, and is doing as much or more, to undermine the integrity of the next generation of men, as the excessive use of liquor. Once within the cruel clutches of the vile cigarette, the boy or young man degenerates, and becomes in many cases a wreck.

The tobacco disease is easily cured. Should the patient have the tobacco habit combined with either of the above mentioned diseases, and desire treatment for both, he should so inform the physician in charge, who will put him under special treatment.

Any person desiring to make inquiries concerning the treatment, terms, etc., will always find the secretary of the Institute at the Arlington Cottage.

All communications and interviews will be strictly confidential.

THE UNRIVALED

ST. LOUIS BEER

Will be served ON DRAUGHT at the Hawaiian Hotel.

To meet the times and competition, it will be furnished at

12 1-2 CENTS Per Glass

We quote from letter of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, dated August 8th:

Your honorable firm having represented us for so many years we believe it useless to call your attention to the merits of our article, but we should like to repeat again and call your attention to the fact that ours is THE ONLY PURE BARLEY MALT BEER MANUFACTURED, and corn cereals and other adulterants as well as acids, for the preservation of beer, are unknown in our establishment. With the above you may go before the public in our name.

No encomium of ours can add to the high reputation of Anheuser Beer. Its introduction in any and every market makes it an immediate favorite. It stands without a peer, without a rival, without even a competitor. It received the highest awards at the Columbian Exposition. The reduction of the draught Beer to the prevailing price of places it within the reach of all, and he is a wise man who gets the best quality for the least money.

The holidays are approaching at the rate of a day every twenty-four hours; and this is the month when children fix their attention on literature in which Santa Claus takes a leading part, and wives and daughters allow their's to dwell on the old gentleman's purse. An old lady was once asked the age when girls gave up playing with dolls and the answer came back "When they have children of their own." So it is about Santa Claus; children give him up as the mythical when they are old enough to realize a flesh and blood Santa Claus in their father. If it happens to be a girl she will cling to the old gentleman until she happens to win a Santa Claus who will be her individual property.

It is with these flesh and blood Santa Claus that we wish to whisper. On the Australia which arrived last week, there were several large cases of solid silver ware for us. In turn we will dispose of it to Santa Claus. We will have no difficulty in doing this as the assortment is from four of the largest and best factories in the United States. You will have an opportunity to view the goods later.

LEWIS & CO.

Among the noble delicacies enjoyed by everyone who has tried them are the SPICED ONIONS put up in small bottles and sold at 15 cents a bottle. Assorted pickles go to you at the same price.

PORK and BEANS with TOMATO SAUCE put up in small tins are elegant for lunch and they're cheap. Two tins for a quarter make enough for a big lunch. SMOKED SALMON, too, in one pound tins, is worth considering if you want something really good. So is ANDERSON'S APPLE BUTTER. It is not expensive and you have your choice of quantity two pound or five pound packages.

He came; he went not only west but east of those eminences, he came to Boston where the genial Consul-General welcomed him both officially and personally. Mr. Jones returned to Hawaii a sadder and a wiser man. It was rumored that in the city of New York, he had what the boys call in fishing, "a glorious nibble," that one of those to whom the Scriptural promise was given,

"THOU SHALT LEND UNTO MANY NATIONS," seriously considered the bonds, and asked Mr. Jones for his authority to negotiate them. In his haste to show Minister Damon how readily money could be raised he had forgotten that; so he took the first train to meet the Hawaiian steamer. Now, reinforced by his credentials and probably accompanied by a person who is supposed to have something of an influence in London, Mr. Jones returns to the attack (preferring to place them with us, that there may thereby be an additional inducement for us to protect the insurgent ring), but with a vow expressed by him openly that to place these bonds somewhere shall be the supreme effort of his life. A house divided against itself cannot stand, and since it was written, there was never an example of such a house more prominent than the one erected by the co-operation of the United States on the ruins of Hawaiian homes.

As if there were not enough disturbing elements already, with the Chief Justice of the government as great head-centre, has just been established. Only those familiar with the religious history of these unhappy islands, can realize how great a disturbance this may become. It has already introduced its poison into the Board of Education. It is natural for us as individuals to lay the blame of our sins on another, and it is almost equally common for this to be done in a community. Since 1893, Calvinistic Protestantism has utterly lost its hold on the Hawaiian people; it was impossible for me in personal conversation with those who had been members of Congregational churches all their lives to convince them in 1893, that there could be any Christianity in a faith which had deprived them of the nationality given to them by the Creator. Yet, they were not in the least pagan. They deserted the Protestant chapels by groups.

THE CHILDREN REFUSED TO GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL,

even at the Central Union Church, the rallying place of the very best people in Honolulu, socially estimated, and their parents supported them, and said that their offspring should not be brought up to hear such things said of their own ancestors. In the strictly native churches, if a preacher was even suspected of looking with charitable eye on Dole, Damon & Co., his congregation circulated the rumor and staid at home. The Roman Catholic Church, introduced into Hawaii under the guns of the French frigate Artemise, after priest and laity of that faith had suffered such persecutions as would scarcely be believed were they rehearsed, has ever since prospered. As in the case of our own civil war, which divided many sects, it has known how to keep out of all political difficulty. Its Damien, Maigret, Olba, Conrardy, Lenore, Gulstan, and other leaders.

HAVE WON A REPUTATION FOR SAINTLINESS

unsurpassed in the world; and to its brotherhoods and sisterhoods, there have been born no generation of children to undo the work of the fathers. Instead of recognizing this great success of its mission—for it has by far the greater number of adherents at the Hawaiian Islands—in every defection of the poor native in search of a God of Justice against his oppressor in every sigh for a Saviour, the narrow-minded portion of the community see Jesuitry and political design; hence the introduction of the A. P. A., the government part of whose oaths must complicate very much next year's attempt at an election of legislators.

Hon. Albert S. Willis has returned to Honolulu having declined to enter political life in his own state. There are good reasons for believing that this was in accordance with THE EXPRESSED WISHES OF PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, who did not wish to add to the questions already at issue in the coming election any further complications, which readily might be made by the action of an unskilled diplomatist at Hawaii. Mr. Willis has shown the most consummate wisdom in dealing with the case, as he found it on entering office. He was much misrepresented, especially by one Washington newspaper, in his sentiments, during his stay in this country, but refused to make public any corrections, maintaining more than the usual diplomatic reserve on all official matters.

There are many local matters effecting the future of Hawaii, such as a growing contest betwixt the faithful and the ungodly in regard to Sunday concerts, newspapers and festivities; liquor and opium licenses the freedom with which Mr. Dole's military guard not only carry loaded arms but the return of a few of J. D. Hayne's drafts, protested, he having been a determined opponent of the present ring; this, which is, so say his friends an ordinary business misunderstanding was sent East in the press despatches, the object being in conformity with the course the insurgents at once pursued with the Queen to blacken the personal character of any one who failed to believe in their holiness.

Mr. J. B. Castle, brother of the late Minister to Washington, and himself Collector of the Port of Honolulu who has also been "rusticating" abroad, has the present month, used the following language in public:

"In the necessity for stability, there might be a return to a monarchical form of government, with Kaiulani as Queen; this is a theoretical possibility."

With a local questions or future forms of government, we, of this Union have no concern;

"HAWAII IS A FOREIGN COUNTRY,"

was one of the last utterances of President Cleveland on the subject, and the events of the past two years have proved the wise prevision of that pithy phrase. Had the counsels of such men as Mr. Lodge prevailed against executive wisdom, the complicated condition of politics would have been increased by at least one more problem. Four-tenths of the population of the islands are from countries whose standard is silver, four of the remaining tenths are native Hawaiians easily led by any argument which promises relief from present depression.

WE DO OWE TO HAWAII A DEBT,

but it is not the millions of Mr. Jones' bonds, nor is it the duty of annexation or protection. If we were to open the case at all, it would be to undo the wrong done the native people when a petty minority claiming our name, just two percent of the population, allowing every so-called American to have joined, borrowed our hitherto spotless ensign to wrest from an amiable, hospitable people its nationality. They have never lost either faith or hope, and have within a month been circulating the account of the restoration of their flag after the six months' protectorate of Great Britain, which took place in 1843.
