THE PRINCESS LIJIUKALANI

Tells About the Women of Her Own Nation and What They Are Doing.

[Boston Globe, May 15th.]

H. R. H. the Princess Lijiukalani, of the Sandwich Islands, with the Queen, has been spending the past week in Boston, in a large, magnificent-looking woman, with all the stately graciousness of movement and manner that we have always imagined as belonging to that royalty which republican eyes so seldom see.

An American woman could not fail to look at her with feelings of the most intense curiosity. The sister of the King, and heir-presumptive to the throne of that distant island nation, which two generations ago was sunk in savagery—the question that naturally arose in each mind was, what could such a woman be like.

After seeing her every day for a week, and after several long talks with her and with intimate friends about her, I feel that I have sufficient ground for my opinion that

SHE IS A ROYAL WOMAN. In every sense of the word, an unusually intelligent and talented woman, and one who realizes to the full the privileges, the opportunities and the duties of her high position.

"I wish very much to know if the women of your people have imbibed at all the modern spirit of independence, and if they have ideas of supporting themselves, and perhaps others?" was the first question.

"Oh, yes; many of our women earn their living if left widows or orphans in reduced circumstances, just as your women do."

"What sort of work do they do?"

"Many of them sew and do embroidery, or manufacture various small articles for use or ornament. For instance, these 'lei' (lay-ee), or necklaces of small feathers, are now made in great quantities out of the dyed plumage of white chickens by young women, who make a livelihood by selling them. They sell for $5 a pair and we who are interested in women's work help by collecting feathers for them.

"Have any of the native women become teachers?"

"Oh, yes, many of the graduates of our seminaries have become instructors in our schools."

"Will you tell me about your schools and how your girls are educated?"

"We have a system of public schools like yours here in America. They are graded in the cities and ungraded in the country districts. Boys and girls are both taught in these schools, and then we have many excellent private seminaries as well.

"How do you select what children shall be thus cared for?"

"A great many of them are brought to our notice through the Ho-o-a-lu-La-hu-i Society."

Her description of the workings of this society, of which the Queen is the President, shows it to be on the same general principle as our associated charity organizations. It is composed of women, and their work is to help the sick and needy, of whatever age, sex or class. They have learned already the truly charitable principle, and though the sick and those in absolute need are helped at once, yet in every possible case they give "not alms, but a friend," and with sympathy, encouragement and advice, they help them to help themselves.

QUEEN KAPIOLANI

IN BOSTON.

How the Royal Visitors Spent the Second Day in the City.

Mayor O'Brien's Breakfast to the Queen at the Parker House.

The Distinguished Guests Who Were Present.

Attendance at the Globe Theater to Witness "Ruddygore."

[From Boston Exchanges, May 10th.]

Queen Kapiolani has evidently come to the conclusion that Boston is not the worst city in the world to visit, either for enjoyment or profit. Fine weather has been the rule since her arrival, and everything is certainly being done to make the visit a most enjoyable one.

The breakfast tendered to Queen Kapiolani by His Honor Mayor O'Brien, in behalf of the city of Boston, at the Parker House yesterday, was preceded by a pronouncement by Baldwin's calet orchestra.

Of ascension lilies and lilies of the valley, intermingled with orchids, two baskets of Louise and La France roses, Jacquemonts and violets. The tables were also decked with Ferns, ferns, moss roses, nasturtiums, lilies of the valley and violets.

After the invited guests had taken their places the Royal party entered. The Queen was attired in black silk, with a broad border of old gold and olive brocade, with a tiara of old gold feathers on her head.

After the invited guests had taken their places the Royal party entered. The Queen was attired in black silk, with a broad border of old gold and olive brocade, with a tiara of old gold feathers on her head.

At the close of the banquet Governor Iauka addressed the company in the Hawaiian language. He tendered the grateful acknowledgments of the Royal guests for the courtesies so cordially extended, and his remarks were warmly applauded.

Mr. Nathaniel H. Taylor and lady. Rev. M. J. Savage and lady. Col. Jonas H. French and lady. Mr. John F. Andrew. Hon. John E. Fitzgerald and lady. Mayor William E. Russell of Cambridge. Gen. John M. Corse, Postmaster of Boston.

The menu cards were very handsomely gotten up on cream-tinted Bristol, decked with tiny knots of red, white and blue, and were inscribed as follows:

BREAKFAST TO Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani AND Her Royal Highness the Princess Lijiukalani, Of the Hawaiian Islands, BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON. Parker House, on Monday, May 9, 1887.

The following was the menu: MENU. FRUITS. Strawberries and Cream, Hamburg Grapes, Peas. FISH. Spanish Mackerel, a la Maitre d'Hotel. Soft-shell Clams, a la Turque. Cucumbers, Tomatoes, Radishes.

As the guests entered the banquet hall, the Boston Calet band, under the baton of Mr. J. Thomas Baldwin, performed the national air, newly arranged by Mr. Baldwin.

Following is the musical programme performed by Baldwin's Boston Calet orchestra: MARCH—"Souvenir" Baldwin introducing the Hawaiian national hymn Overture—"Jollity" Kela Bela Concert Waltz—"My Queen" Bucalose Potpourri—"Popular Airs" Kowell Serenade, flute and cornet. Parnum Cornet Solo—"Air et Varie" Levy Thomas W. Henry. Selection—"Ermine" Jacobowski Concert Polka—"Bright Faces" Waldteufel

At the close of the banquet Governor Iauka addressed the company in the Hawaiian language. He tendered the grateful acknowledgments of the Royal guests for the courtesies so cordially extended, and his remarks were warmly applauded.

Colonel Boyd at once complied with the Mayor's suggestion, saying: Her Majesty wishes me to make the kindest acknowledgment to you, Mr. Mayor, and to this distinguished gathering, for the very hearty manner in which all of you have been pleased to honor her presence here and that of her party.

After the invited guests had taken their places the Royal party entered. The Queen was attired in black silk, with a broad border of old gold and olive brocade, with a tiara of old gold feathers on her head.

At the close of the banquet Governor Iauka addressed the company in the Hawaiian language. He tendered the grateful acknowledgments of the Royal guests for the courtesies so cordially extended, and his remarks were warmly applauded.

ker House, Dr. Judson Smith, one of the Secretaries of the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions, delivered the following address: To Her Majesty, Kapiolani, Queen of the Hawaiian Kingdom, health, prosperity and peace in the Lord.

Since Your Majesty's arrival in this country, the representatives of the United States, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and of the city of Boston, have vied with each other in the proofs of courtesy and honor which they have bestowed upon Your Majesty.

We recall how quickly your people responded to those better influences, and how eagerly many Royal and princely personages welcomed and aided these beneficent labors; we wish to mention here with special honor three women of Royal descent—Kapiolani, Kaahumanu and Kapiolani—whose names and services are of blessed memory.

We hereby tender to Your Majesty the freedom of our official residence at No. 1 Somerset street, and we venture to express the hope that we may be honored there by a visit from Your Majesty at your gracious pleasure.

As a mild sensation has been created in social circles in Chicago by the filing of a bill for divorce by Mrs. Lena Theresa Clausenius against Gustavus Adolphus Clausenius, the eldest son of Henry Clausenius, the Austrian Consul.

The Dominion Government will at once increase the defenses of British Columbia with a battery of artillery, to be established at Esquimalt, near Victoria, and with the view of making the corps thoroughly permanent, the Imperial authorities have been asked to send out 100 men of the British Army Reserve to form a nucleus.

U. S. S. ADAMS.

Her Arrival at This Port from Acapulco—List of Officers, Etc.

The United States man-of-war Adams, Louis Kempff commander, arrived off port early yesterday morning, thirty days from Acapulco, via Hilo, Hawaii.

The Adams is a third-rate wooden vessel, bark rigged, 185 feet in length, 35 feet beam, 10 1/2 feet draft aft and 14 feet 6 inches draft forward.

Several of her officers have been here before. Commander Kempff was here in 1872, in the U. S. S. Callifornia.

It is not known how long the Adams will remain at this port. Her Commander holds a "roving" commission, and asked permission to visit this port, which was granted him.

Soon after the arrival of the Adams Commander Kempff called upon the Hon. J. H. Putnam, United States Consul General.

At 10:30 o'clock this morning Commander Kempff will call upon his Excellency Hon. Antonio Rosa, Acting Governor of Oahu.

Second Lieutenant of Marines—J. G. McWhorter. Assistant Engineers—Chas. W. Dyson and Wm. L. Danah.

BETHEL UNION CHURCH.

The Members Favor Consolidation with Fort Street by a Close Vote.

Last evening a meeting of the members of the Bethel Union Church was held at the Lyceum to finally decide upon the question of consolidation with the Fort-street Church.

Mr. A. D. Smith said he did not look at the question in so dark a manner as Mr. Carter did. What little debt there was, he said, it was anything but a pleasant duty.

Mr. R. J. Greene said that he should leave the financial point, and pass on to the higher moral point of the question. It was a question first and last that concerned the body of Christ.

Mr. Bishop moved that a vote be taken. Mr. Carter said the chief obstacle to carrying on the church was the lack of funds. He knew three families that would join Fort-street whether the question was decided yes or no.

Total number of votes cast, 73; for consolidation, 49; against, 24. It required a two-thirds vote to carry the question.

LOCAL AND GENERAL. A large number of passengers left by the Likelike yesterday.

Messrs. R. More & Co., blacksmiths and machinists, are prepared to fill all orders in their line.

The interior of the Club House Dining Rooms has been repainted, and is much improved in appearance.

The race horses Hancock and Col. Gift were offered at public auction yesterday.

The Boston "Globe" says: "Aloha oe!" is now the popular salute of Boston's young men to their sweethearts.

At 10 o'clock this morning Mr. Lewis J. Levey will sell several walnut bedroom sets, dining-room chairs, extension chairs, marble-top tables and kegs of nails.

ECLIPSE

CHAMPAGNE!

EXTRA DRY.

WE ARE NOW PLACING ON THE market the ECLIPSE CUVEES of 1879 and 1880, which for dryness and bouquet are unsurpassed, and are pleased to inform you that our efforts in producing a Champagne competing with the best Foreign Wines, have been appreciated, dispelling, in a great measure, the prejudice against pure native wines. The ECLIPSE will not only be found in every city in the Union, but has also found a market in the Republic of Mexico and on the Continent of Europe, where it is much appreciated by connoisseurs for its purity, lightness of alcoholic strength and exquisite bouquet and flavor.

WE GUARANTEE OUR

SPARKLING WINES

As absolutely pure, and they are par excellence the SPARKLING JUICE OF THE GRAPE. They are produced precisely as the high-grade French Champagnes, by fermentation in the bottle, REQUIRING TWO YEARS' CURE AND RACKING TO PERFECT, but differing from their foreign competitors in being neither strengthened with spirit nor flavored in any manner. We claim, and can substantiate our claim, that our Champagnes are the purest Sparkling Wines in the world, and quote from the report to a comparative analysis made by the U. S. Department of Agriculture: "Of 200 samples of wines analyzed, nothing has been found on this continent equal to the ECLIPSE. Containing only the normal percentage of alcoholic strength in dry wines 10 1/2 per cent., and only 6.51 of Saccharine, and no fictitious flavorings." As a stimulant the ECLIPSE bears the highest recommendation of the leading faculty of the United States, and wherever exhibited for competition with any other Champagnes, either foreign or native, its merits are attested by the highest awards.

We caution you against the impositions of parties East and on the Coast, who are foisting on the market a "gas" or charged wine, under the name of California Champagne. Remember, none are genuine except those bearing our name and brand, on both cork and label, and which are sold with the guarantee of absolute purity.

HONOLULU, May 7, 1887.

HAMILTON JOHNSON, Honolulu:

Dear Sir—I have made a chemical examination of the sample of Haraszthy "Eclipse" Champagne taken by me from your store, and find that this wine contains no adulteration whatever, the acid present being the natural acid of the grape, while the "bouquet" and gas present are such as would result from the natural fermentation of the wines. Yours very truly,

GEO. W. SMITH,

Of Benson, Smith & Co., Druggist.
