DR. COFER MAY LEAVE ATKINSON CALLS FOR CANDIDATES

Chanler To Oppose Hughes

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The Democratic State Convention assembled here today nominated Lieutenant Governor Chanler for Governor. The nomination was made by acclamation and a spirit of harmony prevailed among the delegates. Chanler led his ticket at the last election, in which Hughes defeated Hearst for the office of Governor.

Wm. J. Bryan will speak tonight and the session is planned to be a great demonstration for the National leader.

Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler is of the wealthy Chanler-Anstorf family. He was born in 1869 and practiced law since 1891.

Edward VII. To Sultan

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, Sept. 16.—A cordial note of congratulation from King Edward to the Sultan has caused no little surprise in diplomatic circles.

CONNECTICUT DEMOCRATS NAME THEIR CANDIDATE

HARTFORD, Ct., Sept. 16.—The Democratic State Convention in session here today nominated A. H. Robertson for Governor.

A. H. Robertson is a New Haven lawyer. He was born in 1859 and is a Yale graduate. He served many terms in the State Legislature and is a director in many railroad and financial corporations. He was Democratic candidate for Governor in 1904.

MAINE AND ALABAMA SALUTE PORT OF NAPLES

NAPLES, Italy, Sept. 16.—The American battleships Maine and Alabama passed the port today and exchanged salutes with the arsenal.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.

Chinese-American Alliance Is Now Feared By Japan

(Special Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1.—That Japan is very greatly concerned regarding the probabilities of a Chinese-American alliance has been made apparent here by the activity of Ambassador Takahira, who has held a number of conferences with the President and Secretary Root during the past few days.

Sounds Roosevelt

The mysterious visit of the Japanese Ambassador to Oyster Bay last Saturday is said to have been for the purpose of sounding President Roosevelt on the question of the Chinese-American alliance. Baron Takahira was anxious to know if the President favored such an alliance, and if he did not the Ambassador suggested that it would be much appreciated by the Tokio Government if the President would give out a statement saying that he did not favor the rumored pooling of interests.

Baron Takahira has also made a number of visits to Secretary Root, and only returned yesterday from Secretary Root's summer home, near Utica, N. Y., where he held a conference with the Secretary.

Worries Japan

Baron Takahira, it is understood, told the President bluntly that he had been ordered by the Mikado to inform Mr. Roosevelt that the presence of two American fleets in the Pacific was causing much concern to the Tokio Government. This, coming on top of the agitation in certain quarters for a Chinese-American alliance, the Baron said, had aroused public opinion in his country to such an extent that changes might have to be made in the plans for the reception of Admiral Sperry's Fleet in Japanese waters.

KOGORA TAKAHIRA

Minister Wu Silent

The reason for the reported recall of the Chinese Minister, it is believed, is based upon an interview or statement attributed to him and published abroad, and particularly in Japan, in which he was made to speak in favor of an American-Chinese alliance.

In this connection, Minister Wu said this evening in the course of an interview as to the likelihood of his recall, that he was entirely without information apart from that contained in the news cable.

"I have not heard anything from my government on the subject, and I don't know anything about it," he declared.

CHINESE ACCUSES BOYS OF ROBBERY

Henry Leslie, Silva and Robert Hobron Held By Police

Henry Leslie, Joseph Silva, and Robert Hobron Jr., three well known young men, were arrested last night by Chief of Detectives Kalakela and locked up for investigation. The arrest was made upon the complaint of a Chinese, who claimed that the boys held him up on the Wallapai road and robbed him of $25. The (Continued on Page 4)

Elder of Skippers Brings Arizonan To Port Today

Captain Charles Nichols, who was supposed to have sailed for his last trip from Hawaii when he went out in the Arizonan last trip, brought her off port this morning, from San Francisco, being the only man the company would or could use to bring the vessel here, that she might get her new master, Captain Joe Nichols. The elder Nichols retires at once, after an active lifetime a sea. He took her out to San Francisco before as a short cut to getting to the Coast, and being relieved, but on arrival there it was found that there was no man to bring her back here, and the old skipper returned with her. Captain Joe Nichols will take her (Continued on Page 2)

Land Commis'ner Pratt Outlines Tracts On This Island

F. H. Newell, director of the United States Reclamation Service, will arrive here on the transport Crook on or about the 23d of this month, and, as soon as he arrives, will take up the matters of interest to his department and work. Land Commissioner Pratt this morning outlined the different tracts of land on this island which are very suitable for farming were it not for the fact that they are without water. In Kulaauu there are about 518 acres of land going to waste for lack of wetness; almost the whole of the Waialanao valley, about 7,000 acres, could be reclaimed; at Nanakuli there are 3,500 acres; at Luualae (Continued on Page 4)

Lunch To Kuhio

The Commercial Club will entertain Delegate Kuhio and Secretary McClellan at luncheon on Friday noon. It is probable that the Delegate and very likely Mr. McClellan will be heard from regarding the work at Washington and the course to pursue in the future.

Carlos Long is considering the proposition of running for Sheriff more than ever. The Second, Third, and the Puna precincts having urged him strongly to try for that nomination. Long says that he cannot make any definite statement as to his intentions until he has consulted with certain of his political friends, whose advice on the matter will govern his decision.

Feds Will Blacklist Cathcart

John W. Cathcart will be placed on the blacklist of the Civic Federation after he has been nominated by the Republican party for County Attorney. The same will, as might be expected, be the case with Willie Crawford and Charlie Clark, should they realize their ambitions and get the nominations for Representative, and it is also to be expected that Jas. H. Boyd, should he be nominated for the Senate, will join the procession.

The Federation has not been doing much in the past few weeks, but as soon as the conventions of the leading parties are over, the leaders of that organization will meet and will sort their goals from their lambs, and the result of this sorting will be published for the benefit of the members of the Federation. The Federation claims to control a large enough vote to enable it to defeat any candidate whom it determines to make a fight.

The candidacy of Jimmy Boyd is a new thing, the announcement being made only today. As a sort of counterweight to the Civic Federation the forces of Charlie Aehl will probably come into play. Aehl is stated to have announced yesterday that he intended to throw his forces against any candidate whom the Advertiser might back.

The proximity of the Republican County Convention, which will be held next Saturday, has caused the mentioning of a great number of candidates for various offices. The Fifth District seems to have discovered that unless it gets a move on, it may not get as many of its men in office as it may wish, and for this reason a meeting of the district leaders will be held in the near future, at which possible candidates will be discussed. Dr. Baldwin Resigns; Cofer Expects Transfer, Won't Take Presidency

Muddle is just about the word that expresses the condition of affairs in the Board of Health these days, and the meeting tomorrow, postponed from today, will probably be one of the most interesting for many moons. Dr. W. D. Baldwin, one of the medical men who has been in charge of the Territorial Dispensary, has resigned, by request, it is said, on account of the criticism of his actions which appeared in the papers some time ago.

It may be stated as almost positive now that Dr. L. E. Cofer will not accept the position of President of the Board of Health, if it should be offered him, for he expects to be transferred by the Government to some other station. He is head of the U. S. Marine Hospital Service here at present, but he is understood to have made the statement that he expected to be transferred from this station in the not far distant future, and there-

Denies Looking Into Breckons Charges

What did H. B. Duncan, a special assistant to Attorney General Bonaparte at Washington, make a flying business trip to Honolulu for? He says that his business is official, but goes no further. However, he denies all talk of a honeymoon with fervor, as he has been married a year now, and the assumption is absurd.

The rumor has become current this morning that Mr. Duncan came down here to make an investigation of the charges made by E. W. Thwing against United States District Attorney R. W. Breckons. Mr. Duncan stated positively this morning that his visit had nothing to do with these charges.

Mr. Breckons stated that he had had several conferences with Duncan, but he did not say what matters they concerned.

Mr. Duncan has made special study of one phase of the law, and that is the enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law; and this fact gave rise to the rumor that he had come down here to look into the Beef Trust and Lumber Trust cases. This is probable, as Mr. Duncan smiled and equivocated when the question was directly put to him just before he left on the Alameda this morning.

"I would rather not answer that," he said, when the question was repeated. Further than that he had nothing to do with the charges against Breckons in his visit here, and that the HEALTH NOTICE Every citizen of Honolulu should take immediate steps to free his premises from rats, the primary cause of the dreaded bubonic plague. Use a reliable poison like Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste, which can be depended upon to drive the rats out of the house to die, and clear the premises of the deadly vermin. Nearly all druggists now have Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste, and a 25c box is usually all that is needed, as it will kill all the rats in an average house in a single night. For barns, warehouses, etc., it is better to buy a dollar box which contains eight times as much as the 25c size. Everyone should get to work at once in the fight for sanitary conditions.

President Mark Robinson of the Board of Health the other day sent a wagonload of bananas and sugar cane to the boys at the home for the non-tuberculous boys of leprosy parents. It was thoroughly enjoyed. The funeral of the late Walter S. Marchant of the postoffice staff, was held yesterday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of H. H. Williams. Clarence Crabbe had charge of the arrangements on behalf of the family. President Mark Robinson of the Board of Health in his annual report says that the number of deaths from tuberculosis during the year ending June 30 were 206, as against 343 the year before. He advocates a pavilion for the treatment of those suffering from the disease. The regular monthly literary meeting of the Chinese Students' Alliance of Hawaii will be held at its hall in the Chinese Y. M. C. A. premises on Friday evening, September 18th, 1908, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Seuder of Central Union Church will deliver an address. All friends are cordially invited. Hon. Frank B. Loomis, United States Commissioner to Japan in connection with exposition matters, will give an informal address at the regular bimonthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce room, Stangenwald building. Business and professional men generally are invited by the board of trustees to be present. Word has just been received by letter that Prof. C. H. Hitchcock, the distinguished geologist and scientist of Dartmouth College, and his family are coming to Honolulu by the Siberia early in November to take up their temporary residence here. His family consists of his wife and two daughters, all of whom are well known here, having spent a year here some seven years ago.

A FAMILY OF RELIGIOUS LEADERS It is rare that one family produces four such distinguished men in Christian leadership as the Pedley family of Canada. Three of the four are in charge of three of the greatest Congregational Churches of the Dominion and the fourth, Rev. Hilton Pedley, is one of the foremost missionaries in Japan. Fortunately Mrs. Oramel H. Gulick, of this city, and Mrs. Pedley are consoling, hence on the return with the family to Japan a stopover at Honolulu was planned. The Asa brought the visitors here last Monday. Mr. Pedley is a very popular speaker in two languages, being known in Japan as one of the ablest users of that knotty tongue. During his recent trip in America he has been in constant demand both north and south of the boundary between Canada and the States. FEDERAL MEN AND POLITICS

Circular Sent Out To Warn Employes In Campaign

RULES ARE VERY STRICT AGAINST POLITICAL WORK

Any Coercion Promptly Punished. Even Laborers Are Included. Naval Station Employes

Postmaster Pratt has received a circular from the Postoffice Department which clearly outlines the limits of political activity imposed on Federal officials. The circular has direct bearing on the Postoffice Department but the quotations from the general law will be of particular interest, as Hawaii now has a large number of employes in Federal departments. The circular follows:

CIRCULAR RELATIVE TO POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN THE FEDERAL SERVICE.

Office of the Postmaster General Washington, D. C., June 6, 1907. Order No. 1679.

To Officers and Employees of the Post Office Department and the Postal Service:

Attention is directed to the following orders of the Postmaster General:

Washington, D. C., June 6, 1907. Order No. 407.

Under date of June 3, 1907, the President amended Rule I of the Civil Service Rules to read as follows:

No person in the Executive civil service shall use his official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with an election or affecting the result thereof.

Persons who by the provisions of these rules are in the competitive classified service, while retaining the right to vote as they please and to express privately their opinions on all political subjects, shall take no active part in political management or in political campaigns.

It is hereby ordered that all employees of the Postoffice Department and the postal service shall govern themselves accordingly.

Washington, D. C., March 30, 1908. Order No. 1221.

The attention of all officers and employees of the Postoffice Department and Postal Service is directed to the following letter addressed to the President by the Civil Service Commission:

"The Commission in recommending punishments for violations of Subdivision 1 of Civil Service Rule I has heretofore been guided by the fact that the rule was one only adopted in June, 1907; and that while the President's instructions prohibiting political activity on the part of competitive classified employees have been public ever since 1902, yet in actual practice the effective and thoroughgoing enforcement of the President's instructions in this connection has only dated from the adoption of the rule in June last, which gave the Civil Service Commission the right to investigate and report on charges of improper political activity on the part of those in the competitive classified service. For this reason the Commission has heretofore been lenient in recommending punishments. But a sufficient time has now elapsed for us to assume that the Civil Service Rules are understood throughout the service, and we believe therefore that the time has also come for a somewhat greater degree of severity for the penalty inflicted, at least in aggravated cases. We recommend therefore that the several Departments be requested to publish to their employes in the competitive classified service the fact that any man violating the provisions of the rule in question renders himself liable to punishment by removal. We desire that the subordinates in the several Departments be acquainted with this recommendation, so that in the event of any misconduct by them in the future the Commission may feel at liberty to recommend their removal.

"We have the honor to be, very respectfully,
 "JOHN C. BLACK,
 "HENRY F. GREENE,
 "JOHN A. M'LENNY,
 "Commissioners."

civil-service law which have occurred in connection with political campaigns in the past, the Civil Service Commission has furnished the following memorandum, which is published for the information and guidance of officers and employees of the Postoffice Department and the postal service:

WARNING AGAINST POLITICAL ASSESSMENTS AND PARTISAN ACTIVITY OF OFFICE HOLDERS.

Political Activity Activity of Competitive Employees and Laborers Forbidden.

On May 14, 1908, the Navy Department issued the following circular letter to commandants of navy yards and naval stations:

Laborers and mechanics at the yard or station under your command will be subject to discharge for political activity in the same manner as competitive classified employees.

Similar instructions have been issued by other Departments placing the same limitations in regard to political activity on laborers in the unclassified service as are applied to competitive employees.

The following forms of activity have been held to be forbidden by this provision: Service on political committees; service as delegates to County, State, or district conventions of a political party, although it was understood that the employees were not "to take or use any political activity in going to these conventions, or otherwise violate the civil service rules;" continued political activity and leadership; the publication of a newspaper in the interests of a political party; holding office in a club which takes active part in political campaigns and management; the circulation of petitions having a political object; service as a commissioner of election in a community where it was notorious that a commissioner of election must be an active politician; accepting nomination for a political office with intention of resigning from the competitive service if elected; recommendation by clerks and carriers of a person to be postmaster; activity in local option campaigns; service as inspector of election.

Political Coercion

The civil service act contains the following provisions:

"... no person in the public service is for that reason under any obligations to contribute to any political fund, or to render any political service, and ... he will not be removed or otherwise prejudiced for refusing to do so. (Sec. 2, clause 2, par. 5.)

"... no person in said service has any right to use his official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body. (Sec. 2, clause 2, par. 6.)

Political Assessments.

The following are provisions of the civil service act:

Officials Not to Solicit or Receive Political Assessments from Other Officials.
 "... no Senator, or Representative, or Territorial Delegate of the Congress, or Senator, Representative, or Delegate elect, or any officer or employee of either of said Houses, and no executive, judicial, military, or naval officer of the United States, and no clerk or employee of any department, branch, or bureau of the executive, judicial, or military or naval service of the United States, shall directly or indirectly, solicit or receive, or be in any manner concerned in soliciting or receiving, any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political purpose whatever from any officer, clerk, or employee of the United States, or any department, branch, or bureau thereof, or from any person receiving any salary or compensation from moneys derived from the Treasury of the United States. (Sec. 11.)

Discrimination Not To Be Made on Account of Political Contributions.

"... no officer or employee of the United States mentioned in this act shall discharge, or promote, or degrade, or in any manner change the official rank or compensation of any other officer or employee, or promise or threaten so to do, for giving or withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or other valuable thing for any political purpose. (Sec. 13.)

Officials Not To Contribute To Other Officials for Political Objects.

"... no officer, clerk, or other person in the service of the United States shall, directly or indirectly, give or hand over to any other officer, clerk, or person in the service of the United States, or to any Senator or Member of the House of Representatives, or Territorial Delegate any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the promotion of any political object whatever. (Sec. 14.)

Solicitation or Receipt of Political Assessments in Public Buildings Prohibited.

"... no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States mentioned in this act, or in any navy yard, fort, or arsenal, solicit in any manner whatever, or receive, any contribution of money or any other thing of value for any political purpose whatever. (Sec. 12.)

Misdemeanor to Violate the Four Foregoing Sections.

"... any person who shall be guilty of violating any provision of the four foregoing sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or by such fine and imprisonment both, in the discretion of the court. (Sec. 15.)

Solicitation By Letter

In the case of U. S. v. Edward S. Thayer, the Supreme Court, on March 9, 1908, held that solicitation by letter or circular addressed and delivered by mail or otherwise to an officer or employee of the United States at the office or building in which he is employed in the discharge of his official duties is a solicitation "in a room or building," etc., within the meaning of section 12 of the civil service act, the solicitation taking place where the letter was received.

HARMONY FOR REPUBLICANS.

Certain self-styled "independent" voters go at their malicious criticism and selfish campaign of making the tail wag the dog without any apparent thought that the independent-voting business can work both ways.

At the present time, following a custom of years, an ancient gang are doing their utmost to create dissension within the Republican party. All the while they are talking of "harmony."

Their demands are not backed by a sincere desire to assist the party or promote the cause of good government.

These people, a confessed minority, have made up their minds as to what THEY want. Whereupon they go to the party workers and proceed to hold them up with the threat: If you do not do as WE ask, WE shall do our utmost to wreck the party.

Now suppose party workers turn about and pursue the same tactics. What if they retaliate with the promise to use the knife with equal force, and probably better effect, because they are more numerous than the self-styled independents?

Suppose everyone follows the example of the SUPERIOR people and turns independent? What a beautiful situation! And what good purpose would be served?

Yet this is the logical conclusion of the campaign of the hold-up crowd that calls itself independent—knifing all along the line and a general disorganization in which the worst elements of all parties will be the winners.

The fact that American history has demonstrated the ability of a few men to slaughter an able man presented to the people for public office does not in any degree prove that the knife-wielders are public benefactors.

In the promotion of harmony among members of the Republican party this year it is well for the managers to realize that they must reckon with the majority as well as the sour-ball minority.

If good men are to be forced off the ticket by malicious threats, it may be discovered that the devil will be fought with his own weapons.

There has yet to appear any good reason why an aggregation that is proud of and responsible for the incompetence of an luncheon in the office of Sheriff should be considered a competent authority to stalk into the Republican convention and tell the Delegates what to do.

If that represents Republican "harmony" and political common sense, and civic decency, the sooner the rank and file learn wisdom the better.

Is the Republican convention and the Republican campaign to be run by the supporters of the Isol-note business?

We believe not. At all events, it is better that such should not be the result.

HAWAII'S RECORD YEAR.

"SHIPMENTS OF DOMESTIC MERCHANDISE FROM THE UNITED STATES TO HAWAII:

Twelve months ending June 1908	$14,638,717
Twelve months ending June 1907	14,124,376
Twelve months ending June 1906	11,771,155

"SHIPMENTS OF DOMESTIC MERCHANDISE FROM HAWAII TO THE UNITED STATES:

Twelve months ending June 1908	$41,595,708
Twelve months ending June 1907	29,054,581
Twelve months ending June 1906	26,850,463

These totals taken from the statistical report of the Department of Commerce and Labor for the end of the fiscal year speak for themselves as a demonstration of the development of these Islands. If the figures for the amounts and values of merchandise that Hawaii purchases from the mainland were absolutely exact, we believe that the record of our shipments from the mainland would go above fifteen millions.

Our shipments out of the Islands are made up of two principal products, pineapples, and sugar. The values are easily estimated and accurately stated. On the other hand, shipments from the mainland include everything from a toothpick to a railroad engine, and there is consequently greater probability of Hawaii not securing credit for all that it buys in the mainland markets.

Under any circumstances, however, the totals make a splendid showing that should be highly gratifying to the citizens of Hawaii and the mainland.

Better freight service enters into the relatively large surplus in Hawaii's favor, when compared with former years. Sugar shipments are the largest item, and while our sugars have been sold at a much higher price than usual and the crop is the largest on record, the shipments have also gone forward much more speedily than in any former years. Hawaii had a larger proportion of its crop in the market on June of this year than in any period of its history.

The hope that the pineapple shipments would reach a million dollars in the fiscal year of 1907-08 has not been realized, but the increase has been a hundred per cent. over last year, when the total under the heading of "Fruits and Nuts" was $383,979. This year the total is $797,186.

Our purchases from the mainland have run along without marked change in any special item. The growth has been general all along the line. Hawaii is still buying dairy products at the rate of about ten thousand dollars a month, and our purchase of eggs for the year ending with June amounted to 60,190 dozen, valued at $16,511. Thus are we again reminded that although oppor-

"I do not know much about the tariff, but I know this much, when we buy manufactured goods abroad, we get the goods and the foreigner gets the money. When we buy the manufactured goods at home we get both the goods and the money."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Hawaii's Prosperity and rapid American development depends on continued tariff protection, and the vote of the people in November should be a demonstration of where Hawaii stands.

ties and market are not lacking. Hawaii fails to supply its own demands for some of the most easily produced necessities of life. The total under the head of vegetables, which includes "beans, onions, potatoes, canned vegetables including pickles and sauces" amounts to $222,012.

Our whiskey bill has apparently decreased, which should make the anti-saloonists happy. This year our purchases in the mainland markets were $512,727, against $558,009, in 1907 and $540,109, in 1906. The cigar and tobacco bill is also reduced.

Another point of general interest is the amount of our purchases from Japan, which has increased to nearly two millions a year. In 1908 Hawaii imported merchandise from Japan valued at $1,874,670, and for 1907 it was $1,557,441. Our total foreign imports for 1908 were valued at $4,682,399.

In going over the statistical record, the citizen of Hawaii has one ever-present complaint which should be put in the form of a request to the department. The statistical bureau refers constantly to the shipments from "Hawaii to the United States." We know what is meant, but certainly Hawaii is a part of the United States and the phrase, while no particular convenience, serves to keep alive that old idea which prevails among the ignorant, that Hawaii is a "possession." Why not put it "Hawaii to the Mainland markets"? That would do no harm and might assist in correcting a very common error.

"Civic Feds" will "blacklist" Cathcart, will they? And in so doing get an Isol-note signer in the County Attorney's office?

Arkansas pouring a record majority on top of Maine's slump ought to start Brother Taft out hot-foot for the upbuilding of a greater enthusiasm.

Let the Republican party enjoy harmony without hatchets. Then it will not be necessary to have the coming campaign characterized by two factions playing at the same game.

The Maine situation was mightily mixed. The Democratic Governor, a farmer, was before the people on a platform to resubmit the Prohibition amendment to the people. Yet one of the features of the campaign was an open letter from a life-long Prohibition-supporting Republican, in which he announced his intention to vote for the Democratic Governor. He knew the Democratic candidate to be a temperate man and he knew the Republican candidate was not. The latter had also been instrumental in making public life unpleasant for Congressman Littlefield, one of the staunchest of temperance workers. Here was an instance of the independent voter whose knife may be found to have slashed National campaign prospects very seriously. And to what good purpose?

Albert McBurn, who was employed at the police station during the Brown regime, is also being mentioned for the office of deputy sheriff.

The Fifth appears to have plenty of candidates for the House. Among those who have been mentioned are Representative Correa, Joe Kalama, the hackman; Bernard Kekelolu, the Boy Orator; David Kama, who was a police officer under A. M. Brown; Harry Auld, a prominent member of the Kamehameha Alumni Association, who is employed by the O. R. & L. Co.; Nahoru Hipsa, and finally Charlie Clark and Willie Crawford.

Supervisors are, however, going to be scarce as far as the Fifth is concerned. S. P. Maloia, a pooler of the 12th of the Fifth, being the only new man named so far. It is stated that Dwight will run for no political office, although he has been asked to run for both the Board of Supervisors and the Senate, and Frank Archer is out for the office of County Auditor. Andrew Cox of Waihala will run for Supervisor if he lands the nomination.

Edgar Henriques of Nuanu valley has announced himself as a candidate for Senator. He is well known among the Hawaiians, especially in Koolau, where he lives part of the year.

A plan has been suggested to leave the nomination of a Mayor as the last thing on the order of business at the County Convention next Saturday. It being urged that much time would probably be saved by pursuing this course. This is, however, being strongly opposed by both Lucas and Lane, the latter stating, when the matter was mentioned to him, that the proposition looked too much like a trap, and that no good purpose could be served by thus departing from the traditions of the party.

Poor little fellow! He coughs so hard he cannot sleep. That makes him weak and sickly all the next day. His brother thinks this coughing is terrible. So do we, for we know that just a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will stop the cough. For sixty years it has been the standard remedy with men, women, and children for colds, coughs, and all throat and lung diseases. It contains no narcotic or poison of any kind. Be sure that you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Accept no cheap and worthless substitute.

Reilly and Young Nelson On October 3rd Will Don Padded Mits

FRED SMITH MAKES SENSATIONAL MATCH

Charlie Reilly and Young Nelson, the lightweights, have been matched within the last 24 hours by Promoter Fred Smith of the Central Club to box 15 rounds before that organization on the 3rd of October. This is the sensational match which has looked good to the promoters for a long time, and which many of the fans have doped out as a good one, if it could be brought to pass. And Fred Smith, who has had Reilly under his wing all along, has actually made the match now.

Jack Scully is managing Young Nelson. Jack and Fred have gotten together in the proposition of the men, and everything is lovely. Nelson will make Reilly come to his weight, and thus have an additional inducement to hang out to his backers.

He is a strong boy, and can't be worried by any amount of punishment about the face and head, and will for this reason stand well against Reilly's jabbing tactics, which spelled disaster for both of the men with whom he has been seen in the ring here.

Reilly is keeping himself constantly in trim, while Nelson is beginning now with his training. Both boys are working at the boat house.

It would be hard to imagine two boxers more divergent in their methods; Nelson for slashing in, Reilly always cautious and methodical. The former has sent down to defeat some of the best of the boys who ever donned a glove here. He has a punch, but the best of it is his great powers of endurance and stamina. Last summer, he boxed a ten round draw with Rafferty, champion lightweight of the battleship fleet, when he would have had his man out with 3-minute rounds or with straight rules. His forte is infighting, and if he manages to get close to Reilly, the clever one will come nearer to seeing his fate than he has yet in Honolulu.

It is a great match between two fine boys, and promoted by a man who recently made a phenomenal success of the management of a show at this same club. The work done by Fred Smith on that occasion has been the subject of any amount of favorable comment.

Hawaii and Luka In Race Event of Season

The committee in charge of the yacht Hawaii is determined that she shall win some race before the year 1908 is over with which determination in view they may take up a proposition to sail a match race with Captain Miller's schooner Luka. Of course, there's doubt over the outcome of such a match.

The Luka has just been refitted as a pleasure craft, and so will not really be out of her class with the Hawaii. Commodore Wilder is cautious about such a match, but hopes that if given a stiff breeze and the smiles of Fortune, he will be able to sail the racing machine to the winning side of the former trading schooner.

WELSH BEATS CARSEY

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 15.—Freddie Welsh knocked Kid Carsey out in the fourth round.

Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight champion, who recently made a chopping block out of Joe Thomas, one-time championship aspirant, adds another scalp to his belt, by taking Carsey into camp—hardly so hairy a scalp as Thomas's, but a scalp all the same. Carsey is not looked upon as even a near-champion. He got about what was to be expected.

Hairy Hero Is Now In Center of Athletic Stage

The football season is on. Now comes the long-haired hero, with his padded armor of moleskin and his leather-lunged cohorts of noisemakers. Now come the days when the girls wear gay ribbons, insignias of their heroes, and the mere fellows who know nothing of the pigskin sport purr the even tenor of their way undisturbed by any female blarney. The air is filled with hoarse shouting, with "Rah! Rah! Rah!" and with mystic strings of numbers that bewilder the ears of the layman with their terrible sound. Glory is to be lost or won on the white-washed gridiron.

Some time next week the first of the excitement will begin in earnest, when the yets, and the raw recruits will turn out at the various training places, at Makiki field and at the Oahu campus, to be put through the preliminary paces by the coaches. They will fall on the ball—not gently, but as roughly as possible. They will try a flying tackle or two, and wonder if it feels anything like the real thing.

Every telephone post is legitimate game for the man in training. A tackle or buck or two will help to enlighten the aspirant as to what happens when an irresistible impulse meets an immovable mass. The answer is: Bing!

The barber shops will be out of a good percentage of their business for some months to come. Self-preservation and a clinging to established ideals demand it.

Both the collegiate game and association football are on the calendar this year. The game which is dear to American hearts will probably occupy the center of the stage until the inter-scholastic season here is over.

SHY AT HEARST.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 29.—It became known today that the managers of Hearst's Independence party had sought to induce three labor leaders of Indianapolis to accept the party's nomination for Congress from the Seventh district. The first man approached was Edgar D. Perkins, president of the State Federation of Labor. The second was Henry Friedman of the Agents' Union, and the third Everett McGinnys, secretary of the Central Labor Union.

All declined to identify themselves with the Hearst party, and the leaders have turned to a young lawyer named Ross, who has the subject under consideration.

Four officials of the Owensboro Savings Bank and Trust Company and the Davies County bank were indicted on charges of embezzlement, subornation of perjury and receiving deposits after the bank was known to be insolvent, by the grand jury at Owensboro, Ky.

BANGALORE'S FATE DUE TO ICEBERG

So Says One of Her Old Skippers In Interview

Capt. A. N. Blanchard, of No. 626 Fiftieth street, Brooklyn, owner of one-fifth of the missing American ship Bangalore, who was also her master from 1897 to 1906, has not given up hope, says the New York World. Captain Blanchard was followed by his brother, Capt. P. B. Blanchard, as master of the ship, and he by Capt. Coley, her last commander.

It is 278 days since the Bangalore, one of the big fleet of American bottoms that have met disaster and unknown fate, in accepting charters to supply the Fleet in the Pacific with coal, sailed out of Norfolk.

The last time she was ever seen was on Nov. 24, 1907, when she was spoken in 7 degrees north and 26 degrees west, describing a wide curve under the influence of the gential trades across the line.

The Bangalore, a stately three-masted, with six yards on each mast, was built in Stockton, England, by Richardson, Duck & Co., in 1886. George Crshaw of London was her owner.

Her first master, Capt. Ray Congdon of Rhode Island, was a relative by marriage of her owner. Capt. Congdon had sailed since the Civil War under the British flag. Within that period many American vessels procured British registry. It was due to these facts that the Bangalore was rigged in conformity with American ideas.

Changes Registry

It is a coincidence that nine years later this ship, which had been rigged with Yankee wrinkles uppermost in her first skipper's mind, should have actually passed under the Stars and Stripes. Again she became a Britisher and yet again a Yankee.

At any rate the missing ship was American in more senses than one, her style aloft and her first skipper having been American before she was twice brought under the flag.

Capt. Congdon, according to Shipping Illustrated, was landed in St. Helena fatally ill, and died several months later in Egypt. As her name indicates, she was built for the East India trade, in which she was engaged for nine years.

In 1895, while on her way from Java for Boston with sugar, she went ashore at Cape Henry. Her plates and decks and one mast were badly damaged. She was floated and repaired in an American shipyard at a cost sufficient under the law then existing to enable her to change her flag. She was bought by the Maine Navigation Company, Capt. Solon E. Turner, of Nos. 59 and 61 Pearl street, New York, manager.

Her ownership was represented in 450 shares, valued at $75,000, of which less than two-thirds is insured. The Bangalore was 1,743 tons gross, 1,560 tons net, 260 feet long, 40 beam and 23 feet deep. Among her owners is A. D. Carver of Baker, Carver & Morrell, ship chandlers, of No. 75 Front street.

Capt. A. N. Blanchard, who knows her like a house, says that if she is lost an iceberg probably caused the catastrophe. He has a theory that the Bangalore met with bad luck near the Horn and finally turned and squared away for Honolulu to the southward of the Cape of Good Hope.

"Fire could not hurt her seriously," says Capt. Blanchard, "as was once proved while she was under my command. We put her into Valparaiso on her way from Philadelphia to Honolulu with her coal cargo afloat forward. She hardly noticed the fire. She's a mighty strong ship. Her donkey engine and steam pumps will throw a stream over her mainmast-yard."

"She carried about 150 tons less cargo than her capacity and sailed therefore a bit light, but I don't believe that has bothered her much. She is not a fast sailer, but made several passages of 82 days from Calcutta to New York. The best I ever got out of her was 315 knots in 24 hours."

"The Bangalore once went from New York to Java in 83 days and covered the distance from Cape Agulhas to Anjer in 21 days. "If she is lost, I feel pretty sure it was caused by ice, for neither fire nor collision could hurt her much without her being heard from before this. "A Deep-Water Voyage"

The brothers, the Capt. Blanchard, hail from Searsport, Me., where, as well as at Bath, the Bangalore is well known.

In 1904 Paul Eve Stevenson of New York took passage on the Bangalore, writing as the result of his trip "A Deep-Water Voyage."

After landing Capt. Congdon at St. Helena in 1895, the captain later going to Tenerife for treatment, the Bangalore proceeded for Delaware Breakwater in charge of Mate Harvey. She was not heard from again until Feb. 18, 1896, when a pilot boat discovered her aground in the Swash channel a few miles above Cape Henry in the Chesapeake.

Her entire crew then deserted her, going ashore in the pilot boat Relief. The crew of the Pilot, relief vessel of the Chesapeake pilots, then captured the Bangalore, a rich prize. They floated her all right, but could not tow her. The hawser parted and she went ashore on the Horsehoe.

After Mate Harvey and the crew, who had been removed by the Relief to Old Point Comfort, had breakfasted at Chamberlain's Hotel, the English sailors repented of their act and tried to get a tug to return. A Merritt wrecking tug finally took them back to where they had abandoned the Bangalore, but they could not find her. After a little search they rediscovered her on the Horsehoe, and on the second day she was successfully floated.

The owners hurried Capt. Cannell to the ship, whose mate had already cost them $700 for a tug and $170 for cables. As Capt. Cannell was descending the cabin stairs, the ship lying in Hampton Roads, Mate Harvey was just affixing his signature to a document agreeing to give the Merritt Wrecking Company $75,000 salvage.

Knocks Pen From Mate's Hand
Capt. Cannell knocked the pen out of Harvey's hand and exclaimed, dramatically: "You're no longer captain of this ship; I am in command here."

The claims of the Merritt company and the pilot-boat Relief were adjudicated for a small sum, and allowance made to pay for some damage inflicted by the tug in ranging alongside.

Thus it was that the Bangalore, abandoned once, abandoned twice, and re-captured by her own crew, was finally purchased by American capital and became a real Yankee ship.

She was destined again to go back under the British flag, for after the Spanish-American war started, her new owners, fearing that she would be taken by the Dons, changed her registry back to British.

When she returned here from the Dutch East Indies in 1899 her owners put her back again under the Stars and Stripes, and Capt. Blanchard broke out a new 25-foot American flag from her mizen gaff.

Capt. P. B. Blanchard is only 29 years old. He has been a master since he was 19. The Bangalore left Newport News on Oct. 22, 1907.

Her last captain was Luke S. Colby, of Thomaston, Me. Her mate was John J. Cox, 21, of this city, and second mate T. B. Davis, 43, of Baltimore. She carried a carpenter, steward, cook bosun and fourteen seamen, being greatly undermanned for her size.
