MANY CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE

AHLO'S PROPERTY VALUED AT $50,000 IS SOUGHT BY NUMEROUS CREDITORS.

The probating of the L. Ahlo estate this morning attracted many lawyers to Judge Robinson's court. It appears that there is going to be a lot of claims against the estate, which is valued in the petition for appointment of an administrator at $50,000.

The petition, by Mrs. Ahlo, asked for the appointment of A. Hanneberg as administrator. It was presented by J. O. Lightfoot. One after another Henry E. Cooper, B. L. Marx, D. L. Withington and E. A. Mott-Smith moved that their firms be entered as counsel for various creditors, and they were duly entered. Cooper represents Hackfeld & Company, who have a general blanket mortgage on most of the real estate.

Withington's questions to Hanneberg indicated that there would be disputes between his clients, Castle and the Castle estate, and Hackfeld & Company, and there were hints that Hanneberg, as a Hackfeld man, might favor the Hackfeld claim, but he satisfied all present as to his plans for managing the affairs of the estate, and all joined in the request for his appointment. Mrs. Ahlo testified to the death of Ahlo, and his leaving no will.

Ahlo was at one time a very wealthy rice planter. His various plantations are now under numerous mortgages, and the claims about to be filed against the estate may eat it all up.

Hanneberg was appointed under $10,000 bonds. O. H. Stevens, P. H. Burnett and Will E. Fisher were appointed appraisers.

BIG TRUST DEED

The trust deed of the Kohala Ditch Company to the Bank of Hawaii, trustee securing the bond issue of $500,000, was executed Saturday by John Hind as President and A. Lewis Jr., as secretary of the Kohala Ditch Company and P. C. Jones first vice president and C. H. Cooke cashier of the Bank of Hawaii.

The execution was made before John Guild, Notary Public, and conveys all of the property of the Kohala Ditch Company as security of this issue of $500,000 of bonds. It is dated August 1, 1906 and the bonds are to be dated October 1, 1906. The trust deed will be filed for record today. It has been printed in book form.

He has achieved a number of successes with grand opera presentations and musical productions.

CHRIS HOLT RAMS HARPOON INTO HENRY

SAYS THAT HIGH SHERIFF WAS PROBABLY TRYING TO REWARD ONE OF SUPPORTERS.

Deputy Sheriff Chris Holt gets after High Sheriff Henry regarding the remarks of the latter about the appointment of a jailor at Waianae. Henry declared that he had to put up a $50,000 bond and he did not propose to allow Chris Holt to dictate to him who should be appointed.

"There has never," said Holt "been any attempt on the part of myself or of the precinct club of Waianae to dictate to High Sheriff Henry regarding the appointment of a jailor at that district. As president of the Republican Club I called the meeting to take action regarding the endorsement of candidates for jailor. I called the meeting at the official request of members of the club. We did not insist upon any person being appointed. We merely followed the usual precedent of the party in giving our endorsement to whatever applicants applied to us for such endorsement, provided, of course, that the applicants were in the belief of the club, fit persons for the office."

"The man appointed by High Sheriff Henry did not seek our endorsement and we contended that such endorsement should have been sought. The man is not even a Republican. I am given to understand that he is a Democrat. William Henry received three votes at Waianae when he ran for sheriff last election and this man is one of them, so I presume that Henry is rewarding him for his support."

HAWAII'S POPULATION INCREASED

SCHOOL ENROLLMENTS THIS YEAR INDICATE THAT THE TOTAL POPULATION OF THE TERRITORY IS OVER 200,000—A CONSIDERABLE INCREASE SHOWN SINCE 1900, WHEN THE LAST CENSUS WAS TAKEN.

Figures collected by Governor Carter for his annual report, indicate that the population of the Territory is now over 200,000. In other words, there has been an increase of about a third since the last census was taken, in 1900. The estimate cannot be made accurately, but it is based on a school census which should, it is thought, show fairly correct results.

RECEPTION TO BISHOP HARRIS

BIG RECEPTION GIVEN BY THE METHODISTS TO BISHOP HARRIS AND DR. JONES THIS EVENING.

This evening from 8 until 10 o'clock the English speaking and the Korean Methodists will give a reception in honor of Bishop M. C. Harris who has charge of the mission work in Japan and to Rev. Dr. George Heber Jones D. D. and his family. The reception will be held in the newly purchased property of the Methodist church on Punchbowl street which is to be used as a training school for Korean workers.

Bishop Harris is passing through Honolulu on the Korea for a rest at home. He will make an address this evening to which all are cordially invited to hear. It is hoped by the committee in charge of the affair that a large number of the townspeople are present.

HOW IT IS DONE. By handling large quantities of goods and by selling these goods at a very small margin of profit we are able to make prices on Japanese articles that cannot be duplicated in Honolulu. K. Yamamoto, wholesale merchant, Hotel near Nuuanu.

BONINE WILL COME HERE AGAIN

SAYS HE LIKES THE COUNTRY AND HOPES TO SHOW HIS MOVING PICTURES.

Bonine, the moving picture man, who leaves on the Korea tomorrow, is planning to return here himself, with the moving pictures to be developed from the films he has accumulated while here. Bonine has a fine collection of Hawaiian pictures, having done the Islands very thoroughly. He expects to return here and show the pictures himself.

It is believed that the pictures of Hawaiian scenes will be a great attraction, and that they will prove one of the biggest drawing cards ever shown here.

KELLOGG DID NOT LIKE HIS JOB

NUUANU DAM EXPERT WAS GREATLY DISSATISFIED WITH THE TASK THRUST UPON HIM—BELIEF THAT HE HAS PASSED THE PROBLEMS UP TO ANOTHER EXPERT—SURPRISE AT HIS FAILURE TO WRITE.

Engineer Kellogg though he promised to write by the Sonoma whether his report was ready or not, did not send a line to Superintendent Holloway or Governor Carter. It is believed by some that he is in Los Angeles consulting with Schuyler the engineer who designed the Wahiawa dam, and is consulting other authorities before sending his report on the Nuuanu dam. It is also more than ever believed that his report will call for numerous changes.

REFUND BILL IS UP TO CANNON

GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, THE DELEGATE'S SECRETARY, SAYS IT DEPENDS ON THE SPEAKER—KUHIO HAS MADE ALMOST EVERY CONGRESSMAN A WELLWISHER OF HAWAII—HAS ADOPTED A STATESMANLIKE POLICY AND DELIVERED THE GOODS.

"Kuhio has never been given credit for the real ability he has shown," said George B. McClellan, private secretary to the delegate, who arrived by the Sonoma Saturday. "Even his personal friends have not appreciated the splendid ability he has shown and the real and tangible success he has met. Kuhio is one of the best known men in congress, and he has carried himself so that almost every congressman is a well wisher of Hawaii. This makes it easy to secure attention to Hawaiian matters."

MORGAN TALKS OF FRISCO'S FUTURE

JAMES F. MORGAN, RELIEF AGENT IN SAN FRANCISCO FOR HAWAII RETURNED ON THE SONOMA.

James F. Morgan, Hawaii's relief agent in San Francisco following the April disaster, returned home on the Sonoma last Saturday. Mr. Morgan spent five weeks in San Francisco as the relief agent then going east to Connecticut.

Mr. Morgan expresses hope for the future of San Francisco and believes that they will rebuild in time but there will be no hurried growth as was at first predicted. "Of course," said Mr. Morgan "a lot of temporary shacks went up so that business could be resumed at once and that will further the delay for many of the firms will wait until they are making money once more before attempting to erect new modern buildings. A few of the firms however are rebuilding at once such as Shreve & Co. They will have a fine new building on Van Ness Avenue and one to be proud of."

"I did not realize what a great undertaking I was going up against when I accepted the position of relief agent in San Francisco. I went expecting to stay 11 days and I stayed 5 weeks. And all of the time I was working too and there was no mistake about that."

CHRONIC BUM GOES TO SEA

McELROY WILL NO LONGER BOTHER JAIL OFFICIALS WITH HIS DEMANDS FOR LODGING.

A. B. McElroy has departed from the shores of Oahu. McElroy is the chronic bum who has been making a business of going to jail for a living. When he feels hungry he walks into the police station, says he is a vag and wants to be sent to jail. He is sent over the road, and after serving his time goes back to the police station. McElroy wore a trail from the police station to jail and from the jail back to the police station.

Last week he was put aboard the S. S. Sonoma to work as a coal passer. He was shipped for the trip. Whether he will find the work congenial is a question. If he had taken half as much trouble to keep out of jail as to break into it, he would be worth his salt.

PULPIT DEFENSE OF THE KOREANS

THE REV. GEORGE H. JONES STRONGLY RESENTS THE RESENTS THE REMARKS OF JUDGE

The Rev. George Heber Jones, for many years a missionary in Korea, occupied the Methodist church pulpit last night, and took for his subject the recent letter of Circuit Judge Robinson, which called forth a Portuguese protest last week. The Rev. Jones dealt with the Judge's references to the Koreans. After quoting the paragraph which aroused the indignation of the Portuguese, the minister said:

"The sting of the accusation lies in the statement that in their own country: 'These alien pauper laborers (the Portuguese, Koreans, Porto Ricans and Molokans who have come to the islands) were in many instances social pariahs, moral lepers and religious fanatics.' Coming from a Judge before whose court these people may at times stand in search of justice and over whose persons and welfare he possesses very unusual significance. Is it true? Our Portuguese fellow-citizens here in a most emphatic manner vindicated themselves from this charge and received from Judge Robinson the 'unqualified retraction that "he did not intend or desire, and did not have in mind or in heart to cast any aspersions or reflection on the morality or moral standing of the Portuguese people nor to charge them with being alien pauper laborers, social pariahs, moral lepers or religious fanatics."

Thus in the case of the Portuguese Judge Robinson admits he made a mistake. Now, I submit that in any court of evidence this declaration of error vitiates his whole testimony. He is by his own confession an unreliable witness in the matter where he has spoken.

I will speak of the Korean, for I can not speak of the others. Judge Robinson says that many of the Hawaiian Koreans were in their own country 'social pariahs.' This statement leads me to question whether he is acquainted with the social order of Korea at all, or has an extended acquaintance with the Koreans now in the islands. As to the classes who are the social pariahs, in Korea they consist chiefly of the slaves, actors, butchers, Buddhist priests and common executioners. I have personally seen about 1500 of the 5000 Koreans on the islands and have never seen one of the so-called social pariahs. I have diligently inquired and have learned of possibly one half-dozen of butcher class here, out of the butchers it is only fair to say that the Korean Emperor, about eight years ago, by an act of imperial grace, decreed that their social disabilities should be removed, and they they are no longer in the outcast classes. If Judge Robinson is ready to come before an American public and denounce our butchers as social pariahs, I am afraid he will find himself in hot water. So as far as the "social pariahs" accusation is concerned, I think the Judge has ventured into unfamiliar territory.

Judge Robinson charges the Hawaiian Koreans with being "moral lepers" in their own country. A moral leper is one so diseased morally as to be beyond recovery. This I take it is his sense. But again I must say that the Judge is incompetent. The most he can say is that those with whom he has dealt were guilty of moral turpitude. There are vicious men among the Koreans and these possibly are the men with whom Judge Robinson in the performance of his official duties is most familiar, and apparently these are the men he takes as typical of the Korean people! It is the most specious of pleading to hold up the criminals of a nation as typical of its mental and moral character. Suppose a Korean should come to America go to our courts of crime and draw from their grim records the materials with which to portray American character, the result might be a moral monster to match Judge Robinson's Korean moral leper. But it would be no characterization of the American people. Flowing in the midst of the Korean camps spread over these beautiful islands are currents of life which if known would show how baseless is this charge. But few of the Koreans can communicate with the residents here and few of the residents know the Korean language, so that these ideals—these manifestations of helpfulness to each other, these expressions of severe condemnation on the misdeeds of the vicious are unknown. They have been in these islands but three and a half years, they come from a form of civilization ancient and admirable in some of its features, but utterly different from ours, everything is new and strange and segregated by lack of means of communication from many of the ideas in our life, toiling in hard but honest manual labor, they need and plead for the kind word and friendly look. And I am very glad to bear testimony to the fact that with but rare and conspicuous exceptions they are receiving this. The charge of being moral lepers, as brought by Judge Robinson is only a case of "calling hard names in the midst of an argument." It indicates a subjective condition in the speaker's mind but is unrelated to any objective reality.

It is hard for me to believe that Judge Robinson is serious in charging the Koreans with being "religious fanatics" either in their own land or here in the islands. Speaking for those here, I would say that as far as my personal observation goes, no Korean has brought to this country his heathen gods, and no Korean temple looks skyward from Hawaiian soil. If there is religious fanaticism in that it is for Judge Robinson to point it out. But "many" of the Koreans are found

EMBEZZLER BACK TO FACE CHARGES

FORMER MAYOR OF PATERSON FORCED BY POVERTY TO RETURN TO OLD HOME.

PATERSON, N.J., July 30.—Former Mayor William H. Belcher surrendered himself at the jail today after having been a fugitive from justice for about a year. He said he had been in nearly every state in the Union since he went away.

"What have you done with the money you got?" was asked.
"That is a subject of which I am not willing to speak at this time," replied Belcher. "If $100,000 is gone $700,000 else must have got it and blamed it on me, but I shall implicate no one in what I did."

A dozen indictments have been found against Belcher, in which he is accused of embezzling about $150,000. The Manchester Building and Loan Association, of which he was president, was forced into bankruptcy.

Belcher was forced by his poverty to give himself up. He had been in New York for several days. He declared he had no means with which to make restitution of the funds which he is alleged to have obtained before he fled from the city, and that he was back to answer the charges against him.

Belcher has not been out of the country, in spite of rumors that he was in the Hawaiian Islands and China. Since his disappearance he has wandered about the country, obtaining employment where and when he could, and was finally forced by stress of circumstances to return to the city where he once had friends.

Belcher has been missing since August 1, 1905. At the time he left Paterson a few of his close friends were ready to help him out of financial difficulty.

in attendance upon Christian services. One Roman Catholic priest whom I had the pleasure of meeting told me he had Koreans in his congregation who made better Christians than some of the other nationalities under his care. Due doubtless, to "religious fanaticism." In many camps they have secured halls from the plantation managers, where they worship God according to the teachings of the Christian religion. I found one case where an earnest Christian man—a laborer in the fields—in order to provide a place for Christian service in a camp where there were but a handful of Christians, secured a hall and out of his own money that he had saved expended $40 in fitting it up for worship. This, I suppose, is "religious fanaticism." At another camp, where there is a strong church of 150 members, the young men of the church have raised among themselves $145, with which they have purchased a horse and carriage, and on Sunday those among the gifted in public speech are sent in rotation to various camps to preach the Gospel and urge the careless and thoughtless to become followers of Jesus Christ. Due, I suppose, to "religious fanaticism." In still another camp I had the almost unique privilege of baptizing at the same time three generations of Koreans—grandfather (65 years old), son and grandson (12 years old). These people had come to our shores and had accepted our Christian faith and in the solemn act of baptism dedicated themselves to the newer and better life. Surely Judge Robinson will agree with me that "religious fanaticism" of this kind is healthy and desirable.

Then these "alien pauper laborers, social pariahs, moral leper and religious fanatics" recently subscribed over $2000 (of which they have already paid over $500) towards the purchase in Honolulu of a proper mission headquarters where Korean boys and girls can be educated under American auspices; a healthy moral and safer rallying place be provided for those who visit Honolulu, and should it again be possible for Koreans to come to Hawaii, a center be provided for the Christian activities which it proposes to continue among this people. Surely, in view of these facts Judge Robinson, having abandoned his position regarding the Portuguese, will go one step further and withdraw the Koreans from this class, for thus only can he escape the fate of the man who was laughed out of court.

"In the case of such opinions as his," answered the other, "it isn't courage. It's foolhardiness."

A RELIABLE REMEDY FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.
As the season is at hand when diarrhoea and dysentery are prevalent, a reliable remedy should always be kept in the house for immediate use. The success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel trouble, has brought it into almost universal use and the following letter indicates it is giving satisfaction in South Africa. Mr. J. H. The Grand Army
Of The Republic

The announcement that 50,000 people had arrived at Minneapolis to attend the opening of the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, shows how busily death has been with that remarkable organization. A few years ago an annual encampment would bring together twice that many old soldiers, to say nothing of the families and friends of the old soldiers who came. In some of the grand parades there have been as high as a hundred thousand old soldiers in line. Now when fifty thousand people arrive to be present at the opening of the encampment, it is considered a matter of enough interest to be cabled.

It is now just forty years since the civil war was officially over according to that decision of the Supreme Court of the United States. It is more than forty-one years since Lee surrendered and fighting ceased. It is more than forty-one years since the grand review of the armies of the Union in Washington just preceding the mustering out of the thousands who had gone to the defense of the Union and of the flag. Most of those men were young men then. But forty years added to youth or young manhood brings life well on toward the three score years and ten for those whose days are lengthened toward that limit. Forty years cuts down the great majority of any generation. So it is that death and old age, and the ills of years, and alas! poverty in some cases, has steadily and of late years rapidly cut down the number of the old veterans who journeyed to the annual encampments of the Grand Army, to renew the comradeship of their youth, and live over again in reminiscence the most stirring part of their lives. It is but a phantom army now but about its memory cluster memories of patriotism and heroic deeds as lofty as ever animated a great people in a noble cause.

The Grand Army of the Republic is passing away. But the cause for which its members fought, the cause of human liberty is stronger today than ever, and stronger largely because of their sacrifices.

Dangerous
Generalization

The Portuguese have spoken for themselves, and spoken emphatically. Rev. Dr. Heber Jones has spoken for the Koreans, and spoken earnestly and convincingly. No one has as yet spoken for the Porto Ricans, but if anyone would, he could show from the testimony of the planters, of the Salvation Army people, of the priests of the Catholic church, and of others having opportunity for observation, that in spite of a proportion of vicious, vagrant, industry and intelligence lacking, among them a very large proportion of even the despised Porto Ricans brought here, have settled down into industrious, peaceful, orderly and law-abiding workers, seeking to better their condition mentally, morally and materially, and according to their lights proving themselves useful citizens. This would leave no one of the four nationalities mentioned by Judge Robinson in his letter, to Senator Perkins, to bear the onus of the derogatory epithets applied, except the Molokans, and they have all gone away.

The lesson to be drawn from this is the danger of generalizations, especially when speaking of an entire people; the danger of drawing conclusions as to the character of a race or a nationality from the specimens that thrust themselves into prominence enviable or unenviable. Judge Robinson is not the first to do this—nor the first to be sorry for it. Whole generations of English have lived and died believing the French people to be vicious and degenerate beyond hope. In America today there is a very prevalent belief that all Englishmen are of the type of a few of offensive manner and mien; and to thousands of the English people the term "American" is the synonym for nearly everything in matter, manners and morals, that is to be avoided. It is an almost universal rule that better acquaintance with any people improves the opinion of that people as a whole, or at any rate discovers good qualities which first acquaintance would never lead to be suspected.

Pauperism In America

The census bureau has just issued a very interesting report on the pauperism of the United States as represented by the paupers in almshouses during the year 1904. The number of paupers enumerated in almshouses on December 31, 1903, was 81,764 and the number admitted during 1904, 81,412, making a total of 163,176 persons who were in almshouses during the whole or a part of the year 1904. Of this total 111,817 were males and 51,359, females. The number enumerated included 52,444 males and 29,320 females and the number admitted, 59,373 males and 22,039 females.

The number of paupers enumerated in almshouses in 1880 was 66,203 and in 1890, 73,045. But although the number of almshouse paupers is increasing, the increase has not kept pace with the growth of population and consequently the ratio of almshouse paupers to population is decreasing. In 1880 it was 132 per 100,000 of population; it decreased to 116.6 in 1890 and to 101.4 in 1903. In part at least this decline in institutional pauperism is due to changes in the treatment of the mentally and physically defective poor, who in former times were sent to almshouses but are now cared for in hospitals or asylums, and also to the development of rationally organized charity, which strives to make the poor self-supporting and to place destitute children in families rather than in almshouses.

During the decade 1880 to 1890 the number increased and the ratio decreased for both male and female paupers in almshouses, but during the period 1890 to 1903 the number increased and the ratio remained nearly stationary for the male paupers, while both the number and the ratio decreased for the female paupers. At each census the ratio was less for females than for males.

Although pauperism is less prevalent among females than among males, the chief distinction between the two sexes seems to be that females, having once entered an almshouse, are there permanently, while men, to a large extent, only winter boarders.

The percentage of discharges do not, however, signify that the discharged never return, for of thousands who are discharged with the opening summer, the majority can be depended upon to return with the cold weather. In fact, the number admitted during 1904 were, for the most part, seasoned inmates.

This mobility of the almshouse population suggests that many inmates are able to provide for their own support for a part of the year at least, and this is found to be the case, since about three-fourths, 74.6 per cent, of those discharged were discharged "to their own keeping" rather than to the care of relatives or friends.

Negro paupers do not constitute so large a proportion of the almshouse population as negroes form of the general population, which is surprising, since the position in the economic scale usually determines the extent of pauperism. A probable explanation of this seeming paradox is that negroes are represented in the almshouses in accordance with the provision made for them rather than their necessity.

The foreign born whites, whose economic position is not high, show a greater tendency towards pauperism than the native whites of native parentage and native whites of foreign parentage. There is, however, no reason to believe that many immigrants drift into almshouses soon after their arrival in the United States, for only 2.3 per cent of all the foreign born in almshouses had been in this country less than 5 years. Among the different nationalities of foreign born whites the degree of thrift, combined with racial characteristics, seems to determine, in large part, the tendency towards pauperism.

That pauperism is in a large measure a concomitant of age and its accompanying evils is shown by the large percentage (59.7) at least 50 years of age and the rapid increase in the number of almshouse paupers in each of the succeeding quinquennial age periods between 55 and 65 years, after which the high death rate prevents any further increase.

A controversy as to whether it was Delegate Wilcox or Delegate Kalanianoʻe who introduced the measure giving franchise to the Hawaiians must be amusing to those who drafted the Organic Act, which gave the Hawaiians franchise at the same time that it created the office of delegate.

The prospectus of Archdeacon Jeffrey's lectures issued by Mr. Winton Stanley Webb, his manager, reads in much of it like it had been written by Victor Hugo or Charles Dickens in the style of some charlatan they were pillorying.

Won't some one come forward to defend the Porto Ricans?

It begins to look as though Judge Robinson would have to admit that he really had no one in mind but the Molokans when he was talking of paupers, social pariahs, moral lepers and religious fanatics.

The land question, which Judge Robinson started to agitate, seems to have been entirely lost sight of in the race and nationality question.

The announcement that W. Porter Boyd has been successful in the appeal from the consular court of Shanghai in his suit against the American-China Development Company, is of much interest to his many friends here. He had a contract with the company for a long period of service. The company had extensive concessions and contracts for railway construction there. It sold out its interests to a Dutch company and undertook to ignore its contract with Boyd. He sued for damages and was successful in the Consular court. The company appealed from the judgment of the court, and Boyd was again successful.

ENTERPRISE TO WAIT FOR OIL FOR FUEL

VESSEL WILL BE UNABLE TO DEPART FOR HILO AND SAN FRANCISCO UNTIL LANSING ARRIVES.

There is a bad shortage of fuel oil at this port. Owing to the shortage the S. S. Enterprise will have to remain until the arrival of the S. S. Lansing with a large consignment of fuel oil. The Lansing is due here the latter part of the week from some oil port

THE KOREA CARRIES INTERESTING PEOPLE

LINER ARRIVED THIS MORNING FROM THE ORIENT AFTER A PLEASANT TRIP.

The S. S. Korea arrived this morning from the Orient after a delightful passage. She left Yokohama August 4 and spoke the S. S. Mongolia a day out from that port. Nothing of interest occurred during the trip of the Korea. She is discharging 1,202 tons of freight and landed eight cabin passengers and three Chinese and 585 Japanese from the Asiatic steamer for Honolulu.

The vessel has a good sized crowd of passengers for San Francisco. Among the business passengers are the following people of interest:

Judge L. R. Wilfrey of the U. S. District Court at Shanghai who is on a visit to Washington and St. Louis.

Dr. R. M. Kirby-Smith, U. S. A., accompanied by his family, who have been sojourning in Japan.

Dolmar Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Abbott, who have been on a tour to the Orient and returning to San Francisco.

Mrs. W. P. Boyd, wife of W. Porter Boyd of Shanghai, accompanied by her young son on a visit to Honolulu.

H. G. Walker of Honolulu, who has been in Japan for the past six months.

Mrs. Fred Klamp, Miss H. A. Alexander are returning to Honolulu after a trip to the Orient.

Major G. W. Patterson of the British Army, who is en route to New Zealand after a visit to Honolulu.

T. H. Barnes and family of Grand Rapids, Minn., who are returning after a visit to the Orient.

Bishop Merriman C. Harris, a pioneer of Japan, who is on a visit to California and the states.

Milward Adams and Frank A. Bostwick of Chicago, who have been on a visit to Japan.

Dr. C. H. Dawe, R. N., who has been stationed on the Yangtze river for the past two years, en route to London.

Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, wife of the Deputy Collector of the port of San Francisco, accompanied by her son and Mrs. Cooke, are returning to San Francisco after a visit to China and Japan.

Mrs. Sarah V. Parks of Boston, who is returning after a tour of the "Orient."

Samuel T. Wellman of Cleveland, who, with his wife and son, are returning after a visit to Japan.

Armond H. E. Van Der Does de Bye and Johan H. de Sitter are government officials of the Dutch Colonies in Asia who are en route to Amsterdam.

T. J. Wellman of Cleveland, who with his wife and son, are returning after a visit to Japan.

T. J. Kenouye, mining engineer of Tokyo, en route to Paris.

Felix Duedorf, German official at Formosa, en route to Berlin.

Bishop M. C. Harris is at the head of Methodist affairs in Japan. A good sized crowd of passengers will depart by the vessel tomorrow for San Francisco from Honolulu. She is scheduled to depart from the Hackfeld wharf at 11 a. m. tomorrow.

HAWAII'S POPULATION INCREASED

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT.		Population
1900	1905	1900
Hawaii	4,425	5,585	46,843
Maui, etc.	2,304	4,001	27,920
Oahu	6,615	9,199	58,504
Kauai, etc.	1,691	2,257	20,734
	15,537	21,143	154,001

Assuming the proportion of children to adults is the same now as in 1900, if school enrollment of 15,537 took place with a population of 154,001, the population indicated by a school enrollment of 21,143 is about 209,000.

"I do not know of any reason to suppose that there has been a very great change in the proportion of adults to school children," said the governor. "At any rate the school enrollment has increased 33 1-3 per cent, and it must mean a considerable increase in population."

"A number of new schools have been built since 1900 and it is thought possible that a larger proportion of all the children here are in the schools. On the other hand, the use of truant officers has been abandoned altogether. Another factor which might make a difference in the proportion of adults and children in the Territory is that a majority of the departures have been of laborers without families. It is thought that these considerations may indicate that the total population is something less than 209,000, but that there is still a probability that the increase over 154,001 has been considerable.

He expected to stay here during the four days of the Alameda's stay and was greatly surprised to find that he had to investigate the whole dam and report on its safety.

The engineer's failure to write was quite a surprise to Superintendent Holloway, to whom the report will probably be addressed. Before leaving Kellogg told Holloway that he would write by the Sonoma whether he sent his report or not. The Sonoma was several days later in leaving San Francisco than her schedule called for, and yet Kellogg sent no word.

Schuyler, who Kellogg is thought to be consulting in an engineer of high reputation in dam matters. It is thought that Kellogg has probably submitted to him the Nuanu dam plans and specifications with the facts collected by Kellogg while here, and will ask Schuyler's aid in deciding the problem of safety.

The impression among those most interested, that the report is to be a condemnation of the dam, is increased by Kellogg's silence and delay. In this connection it is pointed out that he will assume a terrible responsibility if he approves the dam, for if he should declare it safe, and it should give way after the great reservoir is filled, his reputation would be utterly ruined and he might have the painful experience of feeling responsible for considerable loss of life and great destruction of property. Kellogg will be very certain indeed, it is argued, before he says the dam is all right.

Incidentally, it is stated, Kellogg had an experience himself some years ago with a breaking dam. He was the engineer for a dam in Arizona and just as in the local case, another expert was called in to report on its safety. The expert made a very brief report, saying that if the reservoir was ever filled the dam would "bust." A week or so later the reservoir was filled and the dam did bust, so completely that when the water stopped running there wasn't anything left to show where the dam had been. This story is one that is told of Kellogg and whether true or not, it perhaps illustrates the sort of criticism that is likely to be directed at him when his report comes.

It is now expected that the report will come on the Alameda next Friday.

Day and night we went after it. We not only had to give out relief where it was needed but we also had to cook and work at night by candle light. It was nothing easy to do.

"My assistants worked hard and credit is due them. When one had one hundred dollars for some one and found that they had moved five different times it was not easy to look them up and give them the money. And it was a thankless job too. Many people came for relief because they heard that Hawaii sent $250.00 up for relief and they wanted it. Of course those that we refused were sore and said hard things of us but we can stand that."

Mr. Morgan has plunged into his business matters here that have been piling up for many months. This morning he had the appearance of the busiest man in town.

REPUBLICANS OUT FOR KUHIO

FIRST MEETING OF CAMPAIGN IS A BIG RALLY FOR THE DELEGATE.

The crowd at the Republican meeting on Saturday evening at Aala park is estimated to have numbered about 1,500 people.

Delegate Kuhio received an ovation and was heartily endorsed by all the speakers.

On the platform with Chairman John C. Lane and the Delegate were A. G. M. Robertson, members of the National Committee and chairman of the Territorial Committee; Charles Hustace, Jr., chairman of the County Committee; B. Zablan secretary of the committee; George W. Smith, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors; E. W. Quinn, David Kanuha, W. O. Smith, W. W. Harris, James Quinn, Kaneali, and others.

Senator Lane introduced A. G. M. Robertson as the first speaker. Robertson praised Kuhio's work and declared for party consistency. A primary law was needed, he said, to prevent candidates who fail to get their party's nomination from running independent, and it would prevent voters from being Republicans, Democrats and Home Rulers all at once. He said that the Republicans had reason to be proud of their county bill, and that the voters should leave to them the duty of amending it to make it more perfect. Robertson also mentioned the exodus of citizens from the territory, and said that it was a matter calling for careful consideration.

Senator Kanuha said that Kuhio would go to Washington next time prepared to work for a law to shut out Japanese and give all work to the Hawaiians. George W. Smith urged the election of Kuhio, saying he had many friends in Washington and had showed ability and tact. W. O. Smith, in similar strain, said that he had had many opportunities to see the respect and confidence Kuhio had inspired in Washington.

The delegate was received with loud applause when he rose to speak. He repeated an account of his doings in Washington and denied the Home Rule contention that the act giving franchise to Hawaiians had been introduced by Wilcox, saying that he, Kuhio, had introduced it. The delegate urged Hawaiians to become either Republicans or Democrats, saying that the Home Rule party could not accomplish anything.

The last speaker was Lane, who warned his hearers against Achi's "labor" party scheme.

KELLOGG DID NOT LIKE HIS JOB

ry his measures through—and that is real statesmanship. No Delegate, whatever his abilities, can do a great deal, for the reason, if for no other, that he has no senators back of him, as every congressman has, to see that his measures have justice done them at the other end of the capitol. But I think that the results secured show that Kuhio has delivered the goods, and no severer test ought to be applied.

"As to the refund bill, I think it is just about a toss up whether it passes or not. It is squarely up to the Speaker. There can be no doubt that he strongly opposes it, as do a number of strong men in congress. But I have the assurance of Col. Hepburn and others that the Speaker's refusal to let the bill come up at the end of this session was a refusal for this session only. It is in position to come up at the next session if the Speaker will let it.

"But whether it passes or not, I feel that the Territory is already well repaid for the time and money and effort spent in behalf of the bill. Counting the $200,000 for the harbor the appropriations secured this session will come right up to the percentage of the federal collections asked for in the bill.

"I came particularly to post myself on River and Harbor matters. I have been assured that there will be a River and Harbor bill at the next session, and I want to be prepared to help get as much for Hawaii as possible. Among the things that will be asked for will be an appropriation for a breakwater in Hilo harbor, and for cutting off lighthouse point in Honolulu harbor. I expect to be here only three or four weeks."

Mrs. McClellan has not fully recovered from her severe illness of last October, and she is in the Allegheny mountains for the summer. During his stay here, Mr. McClellan will be the guest of General Edward Davis.

DANCE FOR KOREA AT THE SEASIDE

A dance will be given this evening at the Seaside Hotel in honor of Captain Seabury and the officers and passengers of the S. S. Korea. The famous Kawaihau Quintet Club will play both during dinner and afterwards for the dance. The usual cordial invitation to the public is extended.

Mrs. Chadwick's Home Falling To Ruin

An air of utter desolation hangs over the Cleveland, Ohio home of Mrs. Cassil Chadwick, where she lived in the height of fashionable luxury upon her fictitious millions. The fine old homestead is slowly falling in pieces and its once spacious and well kept lawn is now a wilderness of weeds and is the browsing place for a thrifty farm or neighbor's cow. The house will soon be torn down to make way for a fashionable apartment house.

CAPTAIN LAWLESS A DISCOVERER

ON HIS LAST TRIP TO TAHITI HE DISCOVERED A NEW CURRENT UNKNOWN BEFORE.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 1.—The Oceanic liner Mariposa, Captain Lawless, arrived yesterday direct from Tahiti, with thirty saloon, six second-class and three steerage passengers, in addition to the usual full cargo of tropical products from the South Seas. This freight included 11,000 bags of copra, 1048 bags of coconuts in husk, 590 coconuts, 175 cases of vanilla, 69 crates of vanilla, 22 packages of curio and a large quantity of pearl shells.

The Mariposa was in a great north-west gale for forty-eight hours before reaching port, and everybody on board, including the veteran skipper, Captain Lawless, became more or less seasick as a result of the plunging and rolling of the steamer.

Captain Lawless reports that he encountered a new current on the trip from here to Tahiti, in latitude 15 degrees north, longitude 136 degrees west, running strong to the southwest at the rate of a mile an hour. The same current though not so strong, was encountered nearly all the way back from Tahiti. Captain Lawless will make a report of the matter to the branch Hydrographic office.

REPUDIATED BY JAPANESE

TALK OF WARSHIP BEING STATIONED HERE IS RESENTED BY SHINPO.

Hawaii Shingo Saturday published the following:

"The Hawaii Shingo joins with Japanese here generally in protesting against an absurd article which appeared in a recent issue of the Japanese Daily Chronicle, in English, asking that the imperial government station a war vessel here to protect the rights of Japanese. The article does not represent the sentiments of Japanese here. It was probably written either as a joke or by some crazy mischief maker. It is only fair to say that the editor of the Chronicle does not read English and probably had little idea of what he was publishing. Nothing like it appeared in his Japanese columns. The article is calculated to do much harm. We are very glad to see other Japanese papers follow Shingo's example and publish articles in English, but editors who do not know the language should be very careful. We are surprised to see that some of our American contemporaries here taken the article seriously and are commenting upon it. It should have been ignored entirely or merely laughed at."

Tired Feeling—Blood Trouble—Grip Cured—Fought Off—Vanquished—The Homes of the Nation Send Their Thanks and Praise for Paine's Celery Compound

MISS ANNA BALLOU. Grip was cured—Blood was Purified—Her Whole System Strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound.

Tunbridge, Vt.—"I began taking Paine's Celery Compound in the spring after having spent a year and a half confined to my bed on account of having pneumonia and a bad knee, due to blood trouble. At this time I began taking your medicine I was very nervous and did not want to see any one—only my own folks. "The doctors all said that there was not anything else they could do for me, and also said they did not think that I would ever be any better, and if I was better I would never be able to walk again. "A friend of mine was taking Paine's Celery Compound at the time and I thought I would try it. I took several bottles before I saw much improvement. But soon my nervousness left me. I again enjoyed seeing all who called at the house. "I kept right on gaining until now I call myself VERY WELL AND HEALTHY. "I had a light attack of the grippe and I took one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound. It helped me to regain my strength. I can truly say your medicine has been of great benefit to me."—Anna C. Ballou.

Canned meats, when prepared under the supervision of cleanly people and processed as Armour & Co. process them, are better than meats you buy and "fix up" because they are more uniform in quality. You probably prefer the best of everything, including your supplies. Then why dribble along on inferior goods when Veribest is here at less money? All grocers handle canned meats because of their adaptability to the needs of hurry-up people on the one hand and to satisfy the demands of the class who demand a superior article on the other. Veribest fills both bills, it is beautifully cooked, the meats are selected from the best at the disposal of Armour & Co. The different varieties are put up in attractive style and meet with ready sale at all grocers who have first class goods. We do not advertise on the bill boards, only in print. When you want canned meats for a quick lunch ask for Veribest because it is better prepared, cleanly, hearty and is full weight.

REPRESENTATIVE SEEKING TRADE

W. A. MEARS OF PORTLAND HERE TO WORK UP TRADE WITH THESE ISLANDS.

W. A. Mears, who arrived on the Sonoma last Saturday, is the duly authorized agent of the Portland Chamber of Commerce to try and work up trade between the northwest and the islands. He is to try and get the residents of Hawaii to do a part of their trading in Portland instead of doing it all in San Francisco.

Mr. Mears realizes that he has to work against business relations that have existed, some of them, for the past fifty years. But he is undaunted and will do the best that he can for the parties he represents.

Mr. Mears outlined his reasons for the visit here as follows: "I am here to try and impress upon the merchants and business men of Honolulu and of the Territory of Hawaii generally, that Portland is willing and is able to supply Hawaii with the necessities of life. I am here to open up trade relations. I realize, however, that I have undertaken a big task for I must compete with business relations some of them established over fifty years ago.

"When I have thoroughly worked over this port I shall proceed to Hilo and work in that locality also." The Merchants' Association will meet this afternoon or tomorrow morning in order to make plans for a dinner to be given Mr. Mears.

ADAMS WON'T RUN

E. R. Adams has written to friends here that he will not be a candidate for supervisor again, and will not return here until next January. This makes another vacancy on the county supervisorial ticket, as Adams was expected to run again. Adams says his duties as representative of Alexander & Baldwin will take all his time, however, and he is therefore out of the contest.

ANOTHER COMBINE

It is announced that the drug house of Benson, Smith & Co. has bought the entire stock in trade, fixtures and good will of the Hobron Drug Company, and that the transfer will be made this week. Benson, Smith & Co. have been in business for twenty-three years; the Hobron Drug Company for fourteen. T. W. Hobron retains an interest in the consolidated concern but retires from active conduct of the drug business.

CHISWICK REGUNNED FLEET

The S. S.
