HAWAII HOLONUA

PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, AUGUST 31, 1894.

THE CHAPTER CLOSED.

The Hawaiian "unpleasantness" is ended as far as the United States are concerned. The quicker all good Hawaiians realize that fact the better it will be for their country. Mr. Bush whom we no longer can stigmatize as a fool is now acting as a rogue in telling the people that the commissioners brought secret dispatches which assure the Queen of her restoration through the assistance of the United States. The virtuous moralist of Printer's Lane cannot publish the said secret dispatches because, they contain matters of state. He doesn't mention what "state" he refers to, but we have a suspicion that he is alluding to the state of his very muddled mind.

The commissioners have been seen and they emphatically state that the "jig is up" for the restorationists as far as the United States are concerned. We now hope that Messrs. Parker, Widemann and Cummins will take the earliest opportunity to publicly tell the people how the true situation is. The Queen is aware of the facts and is assured that the original policy of Cleveland cannot and will not be carried out. Mr. Bush will find out that he is handling a boomerang; when the natives finally learn that he has deliberately cheated them and lied to him they will discard him and his ilk for good and for ever.

The republic of Hawaii is an established fact. We pay our taxes to it, and we obey their laws and their authority. The government is undoubtedly constituted of a minority of the people, but as long as the majority bow down to it they place themselves simply in the position of a loyal constitution. When they cease to be a loyal opposition the government ceases to exist or if victorious become a military despotism. What is to be done in the future seems clear to us. The people cannot afford to be locked out of participation in the government. They have accepted the situation and the present regime, and they might as well carry out their policy to the utmost, and try to defeat the government at the polls in the manner prescribed by the laws which they beyond doubt obey and sustain today. Before a plan for a political campaign can be decided on, it is absolutely necessary for the Hawaiians to disabuse themselves of the erroneous idea that the United States will interfere in the domestic affairs of Hawaii. When it is made clear, that the destiny of Hawaii is in the hands of her people and that no help will come from outside, perhaps the people then will wake up to the fact that they have duties to perform to their country the principal of which is to further its prosperity by all means and place the welfare of the whole above the welfare of the individual. Accept with good grace the situation which is inevitable and stand shoulder to shoulder for HAWAII.

FUNNY that Emmeluth did not think of the bad location of the Insane Asylum before taking the contract to build a wind-mill for the place. The ground is rather rocky, but it might be excellent taro patches for some of the "family compact."

GEORGE HOUGHTAILING was arrested the other day on a charge of illicit liquor selling. While at the station house, he surrendered all the coin in his possession. He was acquitted by the judge, and he demanded from the police authorities the money which had been taken from his person. The full amount has not been restored to him. A certain percentage has been kept by the police captain (senior). Is this a Republican way in which to get rich?

A FAIR CHANCE.

The Hawaiians are constantly getting away with the idea that the Board of Education prefers to appoint foreigners as teachers instead of Hawaiians. While the appearance of the present teachers may give some color to this idea we can state that the Board wherever it can find suitable material among Hawaiians will give the preference to them. But the Hawaiians must help the Board in its efforts to replace foreigners with the children of the soil. No Board can employ an incompetent Hawaiian in the place of a more competent foreigner. And a great number of Hawaiian aspirants to offices as teachers are weighed and found wanting.

The normal class now to be started at the Kamehameha schools will give the Hawaiians the chance which they need. The class will be conducted on the most liberal terms and it is safe to say that every Hawaiian graduating from it and recommended by the schools to a teachership will be appointed at once. The educational department of this country is certainly anxious to help Hawaiian and if the Hawaiians through careful study and tireless energy will put his shoulder to the wheel official patronage will not be lacking. We sincerely hope that such Hawaiians who can qualify and who desire to become teachers will apply for admittance to the normal class at the Kamehameha schools. The class will be limited in number but no restrictions have been made in regard to eventual pupils as to the schools from which they have graduated. Hawaiians from the Kamehameha school, St. Louis College, Iolani College or the government schools are equally welcome. If Hawaiians allow this chance to go by they deserve no sympathy in their complaint over the alleged preference of holes by the Board of Education.

A QUESTION which is now exercising the minds of many people relates to calling of the Legislature. Will the government organs please state when the first Legislature will be convened—Hawaiians intending to register and vote object to electing men on the 29th of October, and have no Legislature before the end of 1896. Will an extra session be called?

THE tax-payers are commencing to grumble at the continued payment of a salary to an Hawaiian Commissioner at Washington who is a practicing lawyer in Honolulu. Likewise, "Jim" Garwin who is gazetted as a Consul at San Diego, and is yet doing office labor in the Foreign Office at Honolulu. When one belongs to the "family compact" he can be in salaries with both feet.

CORRESPONDENCE

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or the utterances of our correspondents.]

EDITOR HOLONUA:

A wise man may change his mind, but a fool, or an ass, never." Referring to the above apt quotation mention is made of the "Ties" late notice of "Brudler" Creighton's display of the insignia of the American League in his button-hole. but no mention is made of the fact that the very rev. (with a small r) Dr. N. B. Emerson was lately seen loaded down with HOLONUA'S.

The appointment of Kalua to the Circuit Judgeship on Maui has not yet been confirmed. Perhaps the Attorney General desires to wait until the rather "fishy" Nott case has been settled and Mr. Kalua whitewashed or otherwise.

Mr. C. N. Wetmore, a "war correspondent" here formerly for the Chicago Tribune, but now on the staff of the S. F. Examiner, arrived, accompanied by his wife, by the steamer Alameda. Health are pleasure, not business, are the object sought.

Cleveland's Position

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—At the meeting of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs Boutelle's resolution recognizing Hawaii and congratulating the little Republic, was taken up and a lively time resulted. The Democrats were playing for time, while the Republicans hoping that they would not adopt the resolution because of the political capital to be obtained by such neglect, bothered them unmercifully. After a two hour's discussion of the question the Democrats carried a motion to adjourn by a party vote, except for the position taken by Mr. Geary, of California, who again stood with the Republicans in favor of recognition.

"We might as well admit that the Democratic party has blundered in its treatment of this Hawaiian question," said Mr. Geary, "and we can not afford to make another blunder."

The Administration leaves the whole matter of recognizing Hawaii to Congress. The President has not approved Willis' resignation as yet, and does not intend to do so, it is understood. While he leaves the matter to Congress he really hopes that Congress will take no action during this session, and that is the reason that McCreary and the other cuckoos of the Foreign Affairs Committee stand out against the Boutelle resolution, hoping to delay it until Congress has adjourned. The Administration in the meantime either has withdrawn the American war vessel from Honolulu or proposes to do so soon. It is the idea that the Republic should be given an opportunity to get along without American protection. The Administration really hopes there will be some disorder, and that it can thus claim the Hawaiian Republic is unable to stand alone. That would be regarded as a triumph for Cleveland's diplomacy, but as a Republican said to the Commercial Gazette correspondent to-night: "If there should be disorder there the President will be responsible, and we will hold them to account on the stump and in Congress. The taken away of a naval vessel at this time would be a crime, and if disorder follows the American people would denounce it."

The Envoys from Queen Liliuokalani, who are now in Washington, have not yet succeeded in obtaining an audience with President Cleveland, and they have begun to lay their cases before members of Congress who belong to the House and Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs. They do not conceal their disappointment over the coolness of the Administration toward them, and although careful to say nothing acrimonious they convey the understanding very plainly that they think President Cleveland is treating them rather shabbily in view of his former attitude toward the defunct Hawaiian monarchy.

Messrs. Parker, Cummins, Wideman and their associates had an interview to-day with a prominent member of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. The Royalist Envoys were not very clear in their statements of what they expected to accomplish by their visit to America. They said they expected to stay here until President Cleveland gives them definite information of his intentions towards Hawaii. They said that the President had abruptly broken off his efforts for the restoration of the Queen, which, they understood, he had determined upon, and had never given the Royalists any information regarding his position or intention for the future.

The interview closed without any statement to indicate that the mission has any financial object to attain.

Cincinnati Com. Gazette.

The Emperor of Japan.

The Emperor and Empress of Japan are fond of horseback riding and other outdoor exercises. Their Imperial Majesties are often seen cantering together along the generously shaded bridle paths of Uyeno Park, one of the largest and most beautiful pleasure grounds of the world.

Emulating Peter the Great, with perhaps a memory of Haroun Alraschid, the Emperor sometimes goes out alone and unobserved and mixes quietly with his subjects. He occasionally stands in large crowds in the principal streets of Tokio, listening to the conversation of the lowest classes with evident interest. Thus he keeps constantly in touch with his people.

Think of it! Twenty-five years ago no one would have dreamed that the Heavenly King, as the Mikado is called, could walk the streets unobserved by his subjects, says the New York Morning Journal. Indeed, at that time it was impossible to see his Imperial Majesty in the street at all, and it was against the law of the land for any one, save the very highest officials, to look at him at any time.

Emperor Mutsuhito is the one hundred and twenty-first of his line. He is forty-two years old, and one of the most learned men of the world. If his Royal Highness Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, is the first gentleman of Europe, his Imperial Majesty Mutsuhito is certainly the first gentleman of Asia.

Mutsuhito is very much larger than the average of his subjects. He is tall and well-proportioned, and when he appears in the handsome uniform of the Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese army he is quite as imposing as any monarch of Europe. His complexion is very light for a Japanese. Though his eyes are rather small, they are of a brilliant dark-brown, and seem full of quiet force. He has a broad, high forehead, and his hair is jet black and very thick like most of the men of his race.

His eye brows are well arched, which is an important feature of manly beauty, according to the Japanese conception, while his nose is straight and strong. He wears a large mustache and an imperial of dark brown, which are turning gray. In a word, he is a man of strikingly pleasing appearance. The Emperor, though strictly just and a stickler for private as well as public morality, is extremely kind hearted. His acumen is astonishing, and he is the wisest and soundest judge in whatever he undertakes. He is allowed $3,000,000 a year by the Parliament for the expenses of his household, but as he is a good business man he has invested part of his allowance every year in lands and railroads, which investments yield him a large private income. The managers of his various enterprises are held strictly to account by him. They find in him a shrewd but gentle master.

A number of loud reports at occasional intervals, from the direction of Portuguese town, were heard last evening, and it was thought at first, that Company D. was trying to take the Palace. Instead it was found that one of the lady friends of the Co. was celebrated.

The former residence of the late Princess Ruth was occupied by a large assemblage of the missionary element, last evening. The frequent female shrieks during the evening indicated ebullitions of vocalism of a peculiar order. No arrests.

Hawaiian Hardware Comp'y.

August 30, 1894.

The thousands and thousands of people who read the daily papers and get the news happenings from the four quarters of earth, do so with little thought of the expense attached to getting out a paper and the trials and tribulations of the editor and frequent loss of money to the owners. The difficulties which be set the paths of newspaper people vary according to locality; in the Northern States, where there are "nine months winter and three months very late fall," it frequently happens that the roads are blocked with snow, just about the time the paper supply is exhausted, so the editor has to fall back on his polished-surface book paper to get out his edition. In Vicksburg, Mississippi, away back in the sixties an entire stock of wall paper was used in getting out a weekly paper, newspaper was not obtainable.

In some places the people will demand a maximum of news, telegraphic and local at a minimum price, and then want to pay their subscription and advertising bills in wood or vegetables. But when Saturday night comes around the gentle and ungentle compositor rebels, when he is offered anything, but coin in payment for his services, and this accounts for the fact that half the editors in United States are troubled with insomnia. We have known compositors in country towns to actually refuse to live on a diet of roller composition and strike if the editor would not divide the contents of the paste pot.

In Honolulu, things are different; paper is manufactured in California, and the ocean never freezes so hard that the vessel can't run, so there is no delay there in getting a stock of paper; the "typos" usually meet the business Managers on Saturday with a broad smile which they give in exchange for good gold coin, and the editors who do not wear search lights in their shirt fronts leave them off, because they do not wish to be mistaken by tourists for capitalists. The compositors, too, are of a better class than you will find on the Pacific Coast; they dress better, live better and are better citizens than you will find in other places, even at twelve and a half cent beer is not inducement enough for them to take on "jag."

If there is anything that will set off the appearance of a home, a good hanging Lamps is the thing. We have a new stock of Lamps that is so varied in styles and prices that we can suit the tastes and purses of everyone. The burners, which is really more important than the decorations, have been selected with a to securing the most powerful light with the least possible amount of heat. We offer these to the public at prices sufficiently low to induce more people to buy than we have Lamps to sell.

Garden Hose is as much a necessity as a telephone. The long stretches of dry weather kills the grass unless it is irrigated and you cannot very well irrigate unless you have Hose, the water supply is meagre but with a little cunning one can always get enough to keep the grass and plants alive. Table Knives, Carvers, Spoons and Forks are cheaper than they have ever been before and we have a big stock of them. The Knives are the best made in the States and the Spoons and Forks the best quadruple plate. These will last as long as solid ware that costs four or five times as much. We keep always a full line of these goods and can supply any demand.

We neglected to mention when writing about Garden Hose that we have a quantity of the latest improved water sprinklers that we can sell very cheap and which are bound to give satisfaction, if for no other reason than they will not get out of order and very little force of water runs them.

LADIES' COLUMN.

We have made this discovery that when the tide of trade sets one way there is always a cause for it. That there are few, a very few, who buy of us out of compliment, but like the masses, they buy here because they can do the best, because the variety, the qualities and prices are here and defy criticism.

We have not an Unparalleled Bargain House full of Smoke, Fire and Water or Panic Prices—but a house where goods are sold at a profit to us—a just and good value to. If you want more than that, you will have to find some Philanthropic (?) merchant who would not recognize his goods under a search light.

Eminent physicians believe in a frequent change of UNDERWEAR. Nothing more has such a decided hygienic effect upon the system, or should be changed as often. Nothing adds to your comfort more, or should demand such close inspection. We always thought we carried the BEST stock in Honolulu, and we know we have never been undersold. Let us show you our MUSLIN UNDERWEAR the trimmings alone are worth looking at.

Sometime ago we spoke about P. D. Corsets—smiles and comfort, etc. The demand for them caused us to run short of many sizes—fortunately we had a large order placed direct with the factory in Brussels. The goods are here and your size is with them. Talking about Direct Importations,—it means the manufacturer's profit and our profit. No middle men—there is saving for you, as will be seen in embroidered and scolloped HANDKERCHIEFS from $2.00 per dozen up. FLANNELETTES at 8 yards for $1.00.

The Declaration War.

The following is the text of the Imperial Rescript through which the war is raging between the two Oriental giants Japan and China:

"We, by the Grace of Heaven, Emperor of Japan, seated on a Throne occupied by the same dynasty from time immemorial, do hereby make proclamation to all Our loyal and brave subjects as follows:—

"We hereby declare war against China, and we command each and all of Our competent authorities, in obedience to Our wish and with a view to the attainment of the national aim, to carry on hostilities by sea and by land against China, with all the means at their disposal, consistently with the Law of Nations.

"During the past three decades of Our reign, Our constant aim has been to further the peaceful progress of the country in civilization; and being sensible of the evils inseparable from complications with Foreign States, it has always been Our pleasure to instruct Our Ministers of State to labour for the promotion of friendly relations with Our Treaty Powers. We are gratified to know that the relations of Our Empire with those Powers have yearly increased in good-will and in friendship. Under the circumstances, We were unprepared for such a conspicuous want of amity and of good faith as has been manifested by China in her conduct toward this country in connection with the Korean affairs.

"Korea is an independent State. She was first introduced into the family of nations by the advice and under the guidance of Japan. It has, however, been China's habit to designate Korea as her dependency, and both openly and secretly to interfere with her domestic affairs. At the time of the recent civil insurrection in Korea, China despatched troops thither, alleging that her purpose was to afford succour to her dependent State. We, in virtue of the Treaty concluded with Korea in 1882, and looking to possible emergencies, caused a military force to be sent to that country.

"Wishing to procure for Korea freedom from the calamity of perpetual disturbance, and thereby to maintain the peace of the East in general, Japan invited China's co-operation for the accomplishment of that object. But China, advancing various pretexts, declined Japan's proposal. Thereupon, Japan advised Korea to reform her administration so that order and tranquility might be preserved at home, and so that the country might be able to discharge the responsibilities and duties of an independent State abroad. Korea has already consented to undertake the task. But China has secretly and insidiously endeavoured to circumvent and to thwart Japan's purpose. She has, further procrastinated, and endeavoured to make warlike preparations both on land and at sea. When those preparations were completed, she not only sent large reinforcements to Korea, with a view to the forcible attainment of her ambitious designs, but even carried her arbitrariness and insolence to the extent of opening fire upon Our ships in Korean waters. China's plain object is to make it uncertain where the responsibility resides of preserving peace and order in Korea, and not only to weaken the position of that State in the family of nations—a position obtained for Korea through Japan's efforts,—but also to obscure the significance of the treaties recognizing and confirming that position. Such conduct on the part of China is not only a direct injury to the rights and interests of this Empire, but also a menace to the permanent peace and tranquillity of the Orient. Judging from her actions, it must be concluded that China, from the beginning, has been bent upon sacrificing peace to the attainment of her sinister object. In this situation, ardent as Our wish is to promote the prestige of the country abroad by strictly peaceful methods, We find it impossible to avoid a formal declaration of war against China. It is Our earnest wish that, by the loyalty and valour of Our faithful subjects, peace may soon be permanently restored and the glory of the Empire be augmented and completed.
