The Rev. Shelton Hale Bishop, S.T.D., on his arrival to Honolulu.

Visiting Clergy in Our Midst

On July 11th the Rev. Dr. Shelton Hale Bishop, retired rector of St. Philip's Church, New York City, the largest Episcopal Church in the world, arrived aboard the Matsonia, after serving his Church as Deacon and Priest for forty-three years, and St. Philip's for twenty-four years. He went there in 1923, serving for ten years as assistant to his father, Hutchens Chew Bishop, and then succeeding his father as Rector. Together they gave eighty years to this famous parish. At a service of thanksgiving for his rectorship he and his father were given tribute by these words, "Rectors of this parish—they gave reason for all men to glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ—Preachers of the Word."

He has come to us that he might further serve his Church in these Islands, ministering wherever there is a need, and without remuneration. He is a man with a wealth of experience as a priest and preacher. At his departure from New York he had many great and heart-warming tributes paid to him. One was a testimonial luncheon given in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, by his Wardens, Vestry and congregation. Many of his distinguished colleagues in the ministry, of various denominations, members of the parish and friends from all walks of life and from many states were in attendance.

With a tremendous interest in social welfare, he has been the father of many organizations and institutions for the betterment of mankind. He is a man with a rich devotional life that has spiritually nurtured young and old, rich and poor, saint and sinner. We count it a great blessing that he is in our family in his life of "retirement", which has more the zest of atomic energy than anything else. He is to serve as interim Vicar of St. Matthew's Mission and has purchased a home in the Kaneohe Bay area.

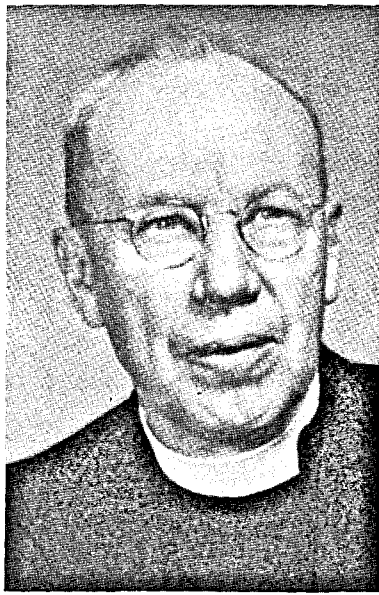

The Reverend Donald Glazebrook

The Reverend Donald Glazebrook, D.D., and his wife have been in the Islands since July. The Rev. Dr. Glazebrook had served as rector of St. James'-by-the-Sea Church, La Jolla, California for many years, where he was very much beloved. Before leaving California he was honored by his parish and given a substantial purse so that he and his wife could enjoy a trip to Honolulu and later a trip to his home in England.

He has very graciously assisted with services in our missions where we have been without clergy during furloughs. It has been a great joy to have him and his wife as members of our Diocesan Family and we hope they may continue to be with us for some months. They are staying at the Tradewinds Apartments.

The Very Reverend Paul Roberts

In October one of the Church's outstanding preachers will come to Hawaii to assist the Church in any way possible, without remuneration, in his retirement from the active ministry. The Very Reverend Paul Roberts, well known to our Church people in Hawaii, will arrive with his wife to spend an indefinite period in the Islands. He retired recently as Dean of St. John's Cathedral, Denver, Colorado, where he served for twenty-one years. Dean Roberts has been here on two previous occasions—once in 1952, when he conducted a Clergy Conference for us and again in 1955, when he was guest speaker for our Convocation. He and Mrs. Roberts will be welcomed by many friends upon their return.

Men and women in all walks of life feel the impact of his ministry. A tribute in a recent issue of the Churchnews had the following editorial about him:

Denver's Dean Roberts—Gallant Christian

The city of Denver is a mile high. It has a big heart, a big soul, and a big vision. Mounting guard above the city stand the great mountains and in the city are men to "match these mountains." Since 1936 Paul Roberts has been the dean of Denver's St. John's Cathedral. His ministry in this exciting city has been one of the glories of the contemporary Church in America.

Dean Roberts has been in the midst of nearly every good thing in Denver. He has preached and lived a Christianity which is relevant to the world in which we live. He has been unafraid to champion unpopular causes. His vestry and his people have supported him, even when some of them have not agreed with him, because they have always known that he was an honest and humble disciple of Jesus Christ. His great heart has leaped across every barrier of race and class and creed. A powerful preacher in one of the great pulpits of America, Paul Roberts' finest sermon has been the life he has lived. He has practiced what he preached, with an eloquence which has touched every corner of his city.

A few weeks ago Dean Roberts retired. Denver is a bigger city, in its soul and in its vision, because of the noble ministry of this gallant Christian. There are only a few really great priests in every generation. Paul Roberts is one of them in our day.

The new kindergarten at Mawashi, Okinawa is a beautiful and needed addition to our Church property there.

Another view of the Okinawa kindergarten.

New Kindergarten in Okinawa

An important step forward in our work in Okinawa has been the completion of the kindergarten building at Mawashi, near St. Peter's and St. Paul's Church. It has been completed at a cost of $27,500, $20,000 of which was given by the United Thank Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary and the rest from special gifts. Miss Constance Applebee, of Hants, England, gave $1,500 toward the building and Mrs. Robert Belleville raised over $1,000 by speaking about Okinawa. The rest was realized from various gifts from women throughout the Church.

National Council Member Here

Mr. John Reinhardt, Director of the Department of Promotion of National Council, with Mrs. Reinhardt, stopped in Honolulu enroute to Australia, where he is to be the guest of the Department of Promotion of the Anglican Church. He will visit Victoria, Queensland and New South Wales, lecturing on the promotion program of the American Church.

While in Honolulu he was the guest of the Bishop at a dinner meeting at the Pacific Club for the clergy on Oahu and laymen representing each parish and mission. He presented the new program of promotion of National Council and some of the Every Member Canvass materials.

We were pleased to have the Reinhardts visit the Diocese.

Visit in Hawaii

The Reverend Douglas H. Loweth and his wife, parents of the Venerable Gerald P. Loweth, Archdeacon of Hawaii and Vicar of Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, visited their son and daughter-in-law for a few weeks this summer. He is rector of Christ Church, Norwich, Connecticut. It was a great pleasure to meet them when they stopped in Honolulu enroute to Hilo.

To Attend Meeting of the House of Bishops

The Bishop will leave on September 9th to attend the meeting of the House of Bishops, which will be held at the University of South, Sewanee, Tennessee, September 14th to 18th.

Before going to Sewanee he will address the Woman's Auxiliary Convocation in the Diocese of Kentucky, September 12th and 13th. He will address men in the Diocese on the night of the 12th, in Louisville.

Following the meeting of the House of Bishops he will be in the Dioceses of Rhode Island, North Dakota and Iowa, on speaking tours.

The Bishop plans to return to Honolulu on October 24th. When in San Francisco he will confer with our seminarians at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific.

Candidates and Postulants in Seminary

This year we have the largest number of Candidates and Postulants in seminary we have ever had. At Virginia Seminary we have Mr. Ivor J. Torgerson, Jr., a middler, and Mr. Edwin Covy Blackmon in his first year. Both of these men are from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Wailuku, Maui.

At the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, California, we have Mr. Norio Sasaki in his last year, Mr. Roger Melrose, a middler, and the following in their first year: William Aulenbach, Bradley Allen, and Bruce Kennedy. In St. Andrew's Seminary, Manila, Philippine Islands, we have Thomas Lingayo.

The Reverend E. Lani Hanchett, Vicar of Holy Innocents Church, Lahina, Maui, is to spend four months at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, taking special courses. He will enter the seminary in September.

The happy faces on these Okinawa children express their delight in having a lovely new kindergarten to attend.

Service for Parochial and Parish Day School Teachers

On Sunday, September 8th, a service will be held in St. Andrew's Cathedral, at 4 p.m., for teachers of our Parochial and Day Schools. This is not for Sunday School teachers.

Last year was the inauguration of this service, which we hope to make an annual affair. We hope that all of our teachers will be in attendance.

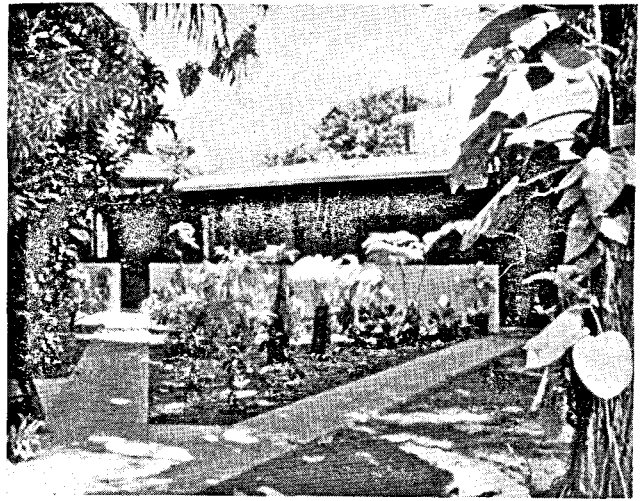

Dr. Shelton Hale Bishop will be the preacher for this service.

Clergy Conference

A Conference for all clergy in the diocese will be held on September 8th, starting with a service in the Cathedral at 4:00 p.m. This will be a service for Teachers in Parochial and Parish Day Schools (not Sunday Schools). The preacher for this service will be the Reverend Shelton Hale Bishop, S.T.D.

Buffet Supper will be served in Davies Hall, with Mrs. Gordon T. Halstead, of St. Clement's Church, in charge. A presentation of the Diocesan Program will be given by the Bishop, the Reverend Paul E. Wheeler, Rector of St. Clement's Church, Honolulu, and Mr. Koon Loon Ching, Diocesan Chairman of Laymen. Dr. Bishop will have a Meditation and Preparation for Holy Communion in Parke Chapel following this meeting.

Monday a Quiet Morning will be held, starting with a service of Holy Communion in Parke Chapel, at 8 a.m. Mrs. George Goss, of Holy Nativity Church, will be in charge of the breakfast that will be served in Davies Hall. Dr. Bishop will lead the Quiet Morning. Luncheon will be served by Mrs. Robert White, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, in Davies Hall. In the afternoon heads of Diocesan Departments will report on plans for the year. The Archdeacons of Kauai, Hawaii, and Maui will report of their work. The Fall Program for the Diocese will be outlined by the Bishop. The Conference will adjourn at 3:30 p.m.

New Diocesan Duplex Apartment House

Queen Emma Square Duplex Completed

At long last a program to get rid of the termite-eaten and dilapidated cottages in Queen Emma Square has been started. Two cottages were torn down and a duplex apartment was built in their stead. It was completed the first of August and is a great improvement to the Cathedral Close property. The two apartments are to be occupied by the Rev. Canon Paul P. Savanack, Administrative Assistant of the Diocese, and Mrs. Kenneth O. Miller, Secretary of St. Andrew's Cathedral Parish.

Classrooms to be Dedicated

The beautiful new classroom building at St. Andrew's Priory will be dedicated on September 5th by the Bishop. This is a dream realized by the Sisters of the Transfiguration who are in charge of the Priory. They have greatly needed science laboratories and additional classroom space. This attractive and modern building will provide this.

Collection of Dolls given to St. Andrew's Priory

Mrs. Blackshire M. Bryan, wife of General Bryan, recently stationed in Honolulu, gave a beautiful collection of Japanese dolls to St. Andrew's Priory when she left for General Bryan's new assignment. It was a most thoughtful gift and one that will give great pleasure to all who see it. The dolls are to be placed in a case in the library of the Priory.

Welcome Third Child

The Reverend and Mrs. David P. Coon, former Vicar of St. James' Church, Kamuela, Hawaii, welcomed their third child, Karen Elizabeth, born July 4th. She was born in Flint, Michigan. We congratulate the parents and welcome her into our Diocesan Family.

In September the Rev. Mr. Coon will join the staff at Iolani school as a chaplain and teacher.

The Rev. E. Lani Hanchett, director of Camp Pecusa, gives the counselors instructions. The Ven. Claude F. Du Teil, Archdeacon of Maui, and Rector of Good Shepherd Church, Wailuku, and assistant at Camp, stands in the back row with Mrs. Lani Hanchett and Mrs. Du Teil and Irene Asato. Front row: Bobby Asato, Heymac McConkey, Jo-Ann Evans, Sue Hanchett, Janet Tokunaga. Second row: Skippy Hawkins, Susan McNair, Judy Packard and Carol Hanchett. Susan McNair and Judy Packard are from the Diocese of Los Angeles.

Diocesan Christian Witness Endeavor Prayer

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, help us to seek thee and to find thee and to know thee. O Saviour of the world, Son of God; teach us to love thee and follow where Thou leadest. O Holy Spirit, guide and inspire us in our Christian Witness Endeavor to know Him whom we worship and to fulfill His will for us. Bless our undertaking to bring to Him those who have not yet known Him. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Four Things to Do

1. To pray daily, using special prayer which has been given to me.
2. To attend at least one Church service every Sunday and as many weekday services as possible.

3. To endeavor to bring with me to each service attended on Wednesday nights at least one non-Church goer.
4. To try to bring someone to Baptism or confirmation or both.

The Bishop is writing to every adult, every young person and every boy and girl in the Diocese, asking their help in this project, to become missionaries as it were, to bring others to Christ. Too often we have a passive attitude toward our religion and our endeavor to make our Master and our Church known to others. This big program is to stir up in us a live and acting witness of our faith.

Join us in making this a big and important step forward in our Church life.

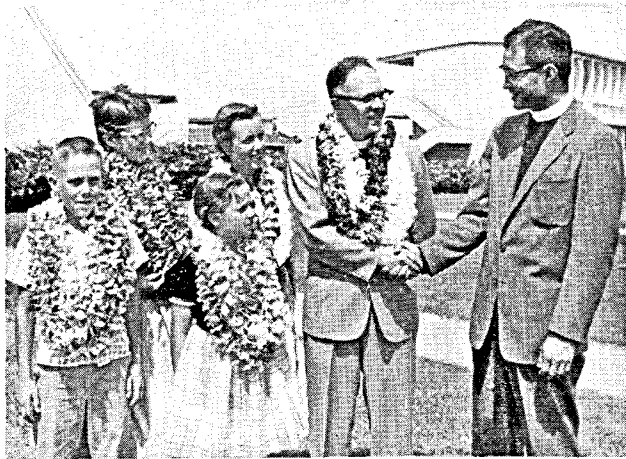

(The Rev.) Paul M. Wheeler

Diocesan Chairman of Stewardship

To spend a Year in England

The Reverend E. Harvey Buxton, Jr., will leave soon to spend a year in the Diocese of Chichester, Sussex, England. He has been serving as a Chaplain at Iolani School and has assisted in several of our congregations where we have not had clergy. This summer he has been at St. Mark's Church Honolulu, for the Rev. Joseph Turnbull, who has been on furlough.

The Rev. Mr. Buxton has made many friends while in Honolulu and we shall regret seeing him leave. We send him forth to this new venture with our very deep Aloha and wish him every happiness in his new work.

The Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Ward being greeted by the Rev. Shunji Nishi, Chaplain of Iolani School, with Stephen 12, Caroline 14, and Sally 9.

New Members of Our Diocesan Family

Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Clarence E. Hobgood has arrived to serve at Hickam Air Force Base. His last assignment was Kirtland Air Force Base, New Mexico. In World War II he served in the China Burman India Theater.

He is a graduate of Yale Divinity School and the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Massachusetts, and Wake Forest College, North Carolina. He and Mrs. Hobgood arrived in early August. We welcome them as members of our Diocese Family.

New clergy arriving to serve as chaplains at Iolani School are the Reverend Robert N. Stretch and the Reverend Arthur B. Ward. The Rev. Mr. Stretch has until recently served as a chaplain in the United States Navy. He is a graduate of DePaw University and Seabury-Western Theological Seminary. He was ordained to the Diaconate in 1937 and to the Priesthood in the same year.

The Rev. Mr. Ward has been rector of All Saints Church, Newark, New Jersey since 1951. He has had a rich experience as priest in the dioceses of Montana and New Jersey. He has served as Chairman of the Department of Christian Social Relations in Montana, and of the Department of Christian Education in New Jersey. He, his wife and three children arrived on the 29th of August to take up their work at Iolani.

When the Rev. Mr. Ward left All Saints' Church, his congregation, knowing that he was coming to Hawaii, gave $4,000 toward an Island home for their departing rector. Iolani School matched this amount so that a prefabricated home could be erected on the campus grounds for the Ward family.

Mrs. Ward is to teach in the kindergarten at Iolani.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Milton T. Dayton, U.S.N., Retired, and sons, Charles and Ted. The Admiral will teach at Iolani.

Retired Admiral on Iolani Staff

Rear Admiral Milton T. Dayton, (USN Retired), his wife and two sons arrived on August 21st to take up residence on the Iolani Campus. Admiral Dayton will teach mathematics. His two sons, Ted, a senior, and Charles, in the fifth grade, are both enrolled in Iolani.

Between 1953-1955 Admiral Dayton was Assistant Chief of Staff of the 14th Naval District, Honolulu. This was his second tour of duty in the Islands.

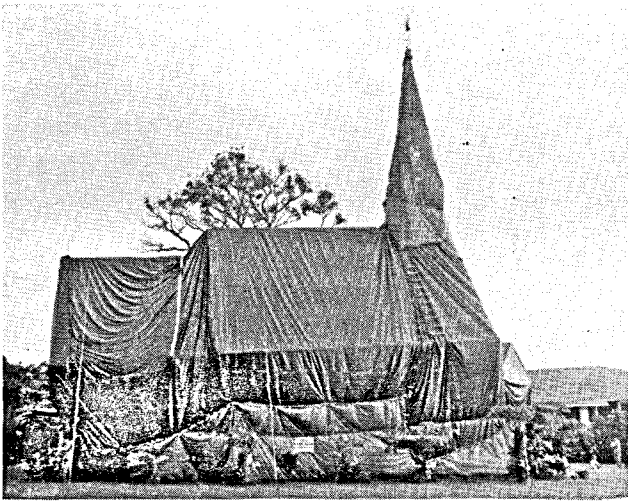

Mrs. Dayton is the sister of Mr. Charles Bernard, Chief of the United Press Bureau, Honolulu.

We are pleased that they are to serve at Iolani School and know that the entire Diocese will gain by their presence.

St. Elizabeth's Parish to Have New Rectory

Work has started on a new rectory for the Rev. Canon Wai On Shim, of St. Elizabeth's Parish, and Mrs. Shim. This is a much needed improvement to the parish property, since the former rectory was badly termite eaten. The men of the parish have done all the work of razing the old rectory, thereby saving the church a considerable amount of money.

Next year the parish hopes to replace the present parish hall and day school building with a new educational building. The men will also raze the present building so that the cost of this can be applied to the new building.

Christ Church, Kealakekua, Hawaii, attired in a fumi-seal wrapping to exterminate the termites, who have taken a toll on the building.

A Bus for Leper Colony in Okinawa

Through the generosity of the Rt. Rev. Walter Gray, Bishop of Connecticut, $1,000 has been given toward the purchase of a used bus for the Leper Colony at Airaku-en, Okinawa. The Bishop is trying to get more than one bus so that the people in the colony can be taken on sight-seeing trips around the island. Many of them have been within the colony walls for over thirty years. Others were born in the colony and have never seen anything but the confines of their home. They are now permitted to take such trips, if transportation can be provided for them by our mission.

Supervisor of Grounds and Buildings at Cathedral

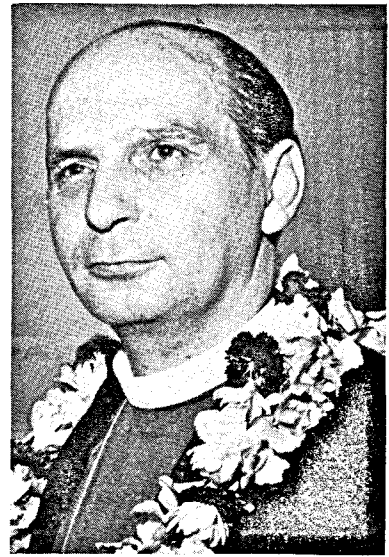

Mr. Walter V. Rodenhurst, a long time member of St. Paul's Church, Makapala, Hawaii, and Mrs. Rodenhurst are living at 222-B Emma Square. They have been faithful members of the Kohala Mission for many years, and their departure from St. Paul's Church has been a great loss. However, we feel most fortunate to have these devout members working at the Cathedral.

Church School

There are three things regarding our children and the Church School:

First, that parents be interested enough to see that their children attend Church School regularly, that they take their children's Christian education as seriously as they do other education in the schools, that they get them to the Church School on time and with some degree of regularity. We only have one hour a week to help you in your child's Christian education.

Second, that parents show some interest in what their Archbishop Joost de Blanc, the new Archbishop of Capetown, stopped recently in Honolulu enroute to London and then back to Capetown. We enjoyed having him stop with us for a brief visit.

child is doing in Church School. To spend a few minutes each week with them, not asking them "what they learned in Church," but going over some of their material with them, and taking an active interest in what they are learning from week to week. This will help your child and the Church School.

Third, that parents get to know the teachers of their children. Have them to your home, or go to theirs. Ask them about the course they are teaching so that you can talk intelligently with your child concerning their Christian education. Try and help out our staff by helping them to know your child intimately. Otherwise our staff works with many children in a vacuum and only the parents can fill that vacuum.

This is a minimum request. Our Church School Staff is doing a wonderful job and now I think it's up to us parents to respond in like manner.

"He that gives good advice, builds with one hand; He that gives good advice and example, builds with both; but he that gives good admonition and bad example, builds with one hand and pulls down with the other."
