FOREIGN NEWS

Cape Colony in Revolt.
LONDON, Dec. 22.—"We understand that private reliable advice have been received in London," says the London Daily Mail, "to the effect that virtually all the districts of Cape Colony in the vicinity of the Orange river are in more or less open revolt, and that there is likely to be sharp fighting on a rather large scale before the invasion is crushed. The tactics of the Boers in rallying as many as possible of the Dutch in the back country to their cause in proving successful."

Kimberly in Peril.
LONDON, Dec. 22.—The Evening Standard says it hears a report has reached London that Kimberly is seriously threatened by the Boers. None of the leading South African firms interested in Kimberly have received information tending to confirm the Evening Standard's report.

British Re-Enforcements.
LONDON, Dec. 22.—The War Office made the following announcement last evening: "In view of the general position in South Africa the following re-enforcements of mounted troops have been arranged: Eight hundred will start next week. Two cavalry regiments have been ordered to leave as soon as the transports are ready. The colonial police will be increased to 10,000. Detachments will leave as fast as they are formed. Further drafts of cavalry will be despatched at once."

CAPE TOWN, Dec. 20.—The situation in the northern districts of Cape Colony is most serious. Fully 2,000 Boers have invaded that section. Grave fears are entertained that Dutch sympathizers will join the rebellion and that this will spread. Although there is no fear as to the ultimate result, the lack of a sufficient number of mounted troops is felt by the British. The enormous waste of horses in South Africa was never fully appreciated until now.

Is the Ultimatum Signed?
PEKING, Dec. 21.—Once more there is a pronounced hitch in the proceedings. The preliminary joint note has not yet been signed. Conger, the United States Minister, says he does not believe that there are sufficient reasons why it should not be signed in the near future, and Sir Ernest Satow, the British Minister, takes the same view. Dr. Mumm von Schwartzstein, speaking for Germany, believes that the existing agreement will be signed sooner or later. The other Ministers also say that consider the probabilities in favor of signing.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—It now appears that the British Foreign Office has not received direct information from Peking that the joint note has been signed, but in view of the fact that it had received assurances from ambassadors in London to the effect that all Ministers had been instructed to sign, the Foreign Office accepted as correct alleged semi-official dispatches from Berlin and Paris announcing the signing. The Foreign Office declares it has every reason to believe the signing is an accomplished fact and that the telegrams to the contrary are possibly anterior thereto.

Negroes Bound for Honolulu.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 19.—About two hundred negroes will leave Nashville tomorrow on a special train for Honolulu. They will sail from San Francisco.
The negroes are going to work on sugar plantations. Another large expedition will leave in a few weeks, as the sugar plantation owners want want 10,000 Southern negro families. They are paying their expenses and agree to give them lucrative employment, their work hours being from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. They are also exempted from taxation for three years.

Grip in Russia.
ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 22.—The influenza epidemic here is so severe that the mortality returns for the last week have been the highest for a decade. A meeting of physicians was summoned to discuss remedies, but scarcely half a dozen responded to the call, the rest being overworked, or themselves victims of the malady. The weather is conducive to the spread of the disease, being changeable, snow and slush alternating.

Rioting at Antwerp.
ANTWERP, Dec. 22.—A fresh attack was made by the striking dock laborers and others on non-unionists today at the Ockerill wharf. A detachment of fifty policemen charged the strikers, firing their revolvers into a crowd. Thirty men were wounded, ten of them severely. The strikers then withdrew, taking some of their wounded. Their attitude is menacing; the police are being reinforced, and more fighting is imminent.

The California miners who took the contract to put in a stone and concrete breakwater at Iao bridge, are rapidly turning out a neat and substantial job.

Lieutenant George Cummings, who has been spending the Christmas holidays in Honolulu, drifted ashore at Kahului, on Thursday morning, a total but smiling wreck.

Judge McKay has received his commission as first District Magistrate of Wailuku. The judge is honest, capable and popular, and commences his new term with the good wishes of all.

There have recently been quite a number of violations of the law forbidding the use of giant powder in fishing, two Hawaiians having each lost a right hand in the dangerous and unlawful sport. It should be suppressed.

The Porto Ricans at Lahaina express themselves as very much pleased with the conditions surrounding them in their new home. Some of them have been assigned to work in the mill and some on the plantation, and they have gone to work cheerfully.

Gus Schumann of the Carriage Repository in Honolulu is over visiting some of his old friends and customers on Maui. Gus says she does not need to be eloquent, as his entire stock speaks for itself. He has by far the finest stock of surreys, hacks and buggies in Honolulu.

Mr. R. O. Bean, of Tennessee, Travelling Passenger Agent of the S. P. R. R., accompanied the consignment of negroes to Wailuku. Mr. Bean came to make a personal observation of conditions on the Islands, and states that if favorably impressed, he will be able to bring a large number of colored laborers of the better class to the Islands.

Pioneer Plantation, like this side of the Island, is enjoying the benefit of white labor, a number of white men having been brought down to do reservoir work. A large number of white men are shortly to follow, and if a number of California rancho hands could be brought with them to work in the cane fields, the lazy, independent Japs of Maui would find themselves outclassed.

The Pioneer Plantation has let a contract for the construction of two larger reservoirs for the purpose of utilizing the waste waters of freshets. It is the intention of the Plantation to construct at least 15 of these large reservoirs which, when completed, will save the cost of a two or three months run of the pumps, besides supplying fresh mountain water to overcome the excess of salt in the pumped water.

COMPANY I.

Pursuant to Order No. 1, issued by Captain Keola, a meeting of Company I was held at Walluku Court House on Dec. 27.

Captain Keola presided and 30 members were present. Charles Selmon was elected Secretary and W. T. Robinson treasurer. J. P. Sylva, W. E. Beland Chas. Crowell were appointed an executive committee and G. H. Cummings, W. H. King and M. C. Ross a range committee.

A committee of five, composed of Chas. Crowell, W. R. Boote, W. T. Robinson S. B. Harry and G. B. Schrader, to which the chairman was added, were appointed to draft and report a constitution at the next meeting, which was appointed to be held on Thursday, January 4, 1901. An armory committee was appointed to consist of Capt. Keola, and Lieutenants Cummings and Boote.

Capt. Keola posted the appointments of the following non-commissioned officers; 1st Sergeant, G. B. Schraders; 2nd, W. E. Bal; 3rd Chas. Crowell; 4th, W. H. King; 5th, S. B. Harry. 1st. Corporal, C. F. Siemson; 2nd, W. T. Robinson; 3rd, John Ferreira, Jr.; 4th, M. C. Ross; 5th, A. Garcia.

On Thursday evening of this week, a second meeting of the company was held for the purpose of receiving the reports of the various committees. The Committee on Ranges reported progress and asked for further time, which was allowed them. The armory committee reported that the skating rink had been secured on favorable terms, and the action of the committee was approved.

The committee on constitution and by-laws presented its report, which was adopted with some minor amendments. Among the more important provisions of the constitution as adopted, are weekly meetings every Wednesday evening for drill, business meetings on the first Wednesday of every month, Company target practice on the second Sunday of every month, at 1, p. m. and numerous other minor provisions.

On reading in the NEWS of the social gatherings, luaus, etc., it would seem that the people of Maui are a sociable folk. But the Demon of Doubt still enters and asks, "How much of that social feeling is dictated by business rivalry, and how much by genuine good feeling, peace on earth and good will to all?"

Scotland's poet, whose song on the reunion of long parted friends is still popular all round the world, puts it in the business form:

As surely you will be your pint stoup
So surely I'll be mine;
We'll drink a cup of kindness yet
To the days of Auld Lang Syne

That's business,—drink for drink, dance for dance, luau for luau,—even business cropped out in the welcome to long absent friends. "Maui no ka oi" in many things, more especially in its social festivities. But amid such social festivities there is no room for the malihini. He's an Ismailite.

Honolulu, with its hotels, churches, public bands, amusements, reading rooms, etc., gives at least the welcome of public hospitality to strangers at this festive season, and it is true that parting strangers leave it reluctantly. Without hotels in Kahului and Lahaina, they can only be considered nice places to leave. Self respecting strangers do not desire to be taken into the bosom of private families on Maui more than elsewhere, but the inhospitable exclusion from the large gatherings of the Island, of all strangers, will not tend to make Maui a tourist's paradise.

In Maui, you are ostracised if you are a stranger. Even the ship captains are tabooed as strangers. A gaily decked ship is rarely seen in Kahului harbor, except on the day of its leaving. We have generous, whole souled, high minded, sociable people on Maui, but until they can give some such inducements to strangers as Honolulu offers, they should not invited them to visit Maui.

Death of David Center.

The distressing news came by the Claudine, of the death of David Center on Wednesday afternoon at Honolulu. He was taken to Honolulu on last Saturday's Claudine, and stood the trip quite well.

On his arrival he was taken to the Queen's Hospital, and Dr. Wood took charge of the case, assisted by Dr. Herbert and Dr. Armitage. On Monday morning a successful preliminary operation was performed, but he was deemed too weak to stand the final operation, which was postponed to Wednesday morning. On Wednesday morning it was decided to further postpone the final operation.

His death occurred unexpectedly on Wednesday afternoon, so that it was impossible to obtain particulars as to the immediate cause.

Mr. Center was admittedly one of the best plantation managers on the Islands, and his loss will be keenly felt by the community at large as well as by his many friends and his bereaved family.

Our Honolulu Letter.

New Years came in with a boom in Honolulu. The old year was watched out and the new one in hundreds of houses and by a large concourse in Central Union Church. A program of music prayer and discourse was carried out from 9 p. m. to 12 m. the last number being carried out amid the tooting of horns and the explosion of bombs. Rev. Mr. Wetiwelt, formerly pastor of the foreign Congregational Church of Wailuku delivered the principal discourse. He is now assistant pastor of Kawaiahao Church.

New Year's day was kept in various ways according to the tastes of the individual. Races, luaus, trips to the country etc., abounded. The electric cars up Pacific Heights were crowded all day long.

The weather has been lovely for the past week, cool and pleasant. The thermometer registered 56 in town one or two mornings.

Messrs. C. W. Baldwin and S. Kellini are both in Honolulu engaged in preparing their reports of the school of Hawaii and Maui for the use of the coming legislature.

Miss Kennedy late book-keeper of Paia Plantation Store has accepted a similar position with the Honolulu Market Company the opposition to the Metropolitan Meat Company. The starting of this new Market has caused great joy to housekeepers, who now have a choice of markets and the benefit of the competition.

The rapid transit seems now to be in a fair way to get started. The tracks are built from Punahou north nearly to the center of town and the power house approaching completion. It will be a great relief to the travelling public when the line is in working order. It is not quite comfortable to drive down a narrow street with a two foot trench taking up the middle third and just room for a carriage track on either side. The Superintendent of Public Works has interfered and insists now on their completing one block before they begin on another.

The Automobile building is also approaching completion and the company only wait for that event to precipitate thirty houseless carriages on to the streets of the city. Then look out for runaways and smash ups. When the automobiles and electric cars both get to going the nervous horse will have no chance at all. The streets of Honolulu are now congested far beyond the point of comfort, what will it be with these additions? A dozen of the main streets ought to be widened, and the street cars and drays banished from Fort street.

January 2nd seems to take the place of the first of May of the States as moving day. Vans of household goods are met in the streets at every point and every other man you meet has an anxious care worn look as though he had been trying to fit joints of old stove pipe.

Trade is dull of course as every one has exhausted his money and credit on Christmas and New Year.

A fine polo club has been established in Honolulu the leading spirits are Ed. Damon, Will Dickey, Alfred Carter and John Flanning. They have already played two sets on the grounds of Mr. S. M. Damon at Moanalua. Enthusiasm in this direction is growing and Maui polo horses ought to command a good price. Other clubs will probably soon be formed.

HIGH SPY.

Tortured a Mouse.

A gentleman prominently connected with the Spreckelsville Plantation was the other day passing by a house occupied by some of the plantation Chinese. Hearing a pitiful squeaking in the rear of the house, he went round to investigate the noise. There he found two Chinese who had caught a little mouse and mailed its two hind feet to a board, and were amusing themselves by frightening it and watching its useless struggles to free itself. He released the little animal, and it is more the pity that he did not have its torturers arrested and properly punished for their deviltry.

Personal Mention.

Colonel W. H. Cornwell returned from Honolulu on Thursday's Claudine.

The police department of Wailuku gave a luau at the Court House on New Year's Day.

Dr. Armitage, who accompanied the late David Center to Honolulu, returned on Thursday's Claudine.

Mr. Chas. Jacox, of the New York Life, arrived on the Claudine Thursday, in the interests of his company.

Twenty nine colored persons from Tennessee arrived on Thursday's Claudine, to work on the Wailuku Plantation.

Mr. A. von Graevemeyer is visiting Wailuku. He is an experienced cane cultivator, and would make a valuable assistant on some of our cane plantations.

Matt McCann and Mr. Cantin of Lahaina drove over to Wailuku on Thursday, returning to Lahaina the same day. Mr. McCann will take a trip to Honolulu today.

Gus Schumann, John Raden, Manuel Reis and James Quinn, of the United Carriage Company, Honolulu, took a run over to Maui on the Claudine, spending Wednesday night as the guests at Schrader's New Hotel. On Friday morning they left for Lahaina.

Ex-queen Liliuokalani, Prince David and suite chartered the Kinau at Hilo, arrived at Lahaina this morning, and where the party stopped to enjoy a luau with Hon. John Richardson. At 10 o'clock tonight they leave Lahaina on the Kinau for Honolulu.
