THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN HAWAII

APRIL, 1954

School teacher and some Izena Shima, Okinawa girls, with Canon William Heffner.

Naha City Street Scene, Okinawa.

18 were confirmed at a home in Shimabukuro by the Bishop. Our chapel there is not yet built.

News from the Bishop

The Bishop has been going at such a terrific pace since his departure from Hawaii, visiting Okinawa and Formosa, that he has had little time to give an account of his visit. He spent Holy Week and Easter in Korea, having a very heavy schedule for services.

He was very much pleased with the wonderful work that is being done by Canon William Heffner, but earnestly prays that he will get some help soon with additional clergy. He has far more to do than he can accomplish with the help of only two clergy, the Reverend Stephen Kim and the Reverend T. Kimoto.

While in Okinawa he confirmed 8 at Kadena, our American Congregation; 12 at St. John's, Nago; 12 at St. Peter's and St. Paul's, Mawashi; 18 at All Saints Mission, Shimabukuro, and 18 at the Chapel of Prayer, Airakuen, the Leper Colony, making a total of 66 confirmations.

He had a fine visit with the Reverend Theodore T. Y. Yeh, in Formosa, and confirmed 66 for him. Thirteen of these were Americans. The Reverend Mr. Yeh is working very hard, the Bishop reports, and is very much liked by the people there. We are sure that he will soon be able to establish a church building of his own, where services can be held.

May 2nd to mark Drive for Builders for Christ Fund

It is the sincere hope of the Bishop that our people will respond generously to the appeal National Council has made, by direction of the General Convention, to the Builders for Christ Fund. Its purpose, as its name indicates, is not to obtain day-to-day expenses, but actually the hammer and saw and mason's trowel to create some of the physical equipment needed so badly for our seminaries, for the vitally important continuance and advance of our Church's Mission today, overseas and at home.

On February 18, St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Liverpool, N.Y., was completely razed by fire. Less than a month later, knowing that they had yet to raise $40,000 for the reconstruction of their church, the parish of fifty-four families unanimously accepted their full quota in the BUILDERS FOR CHRIST drive.

The Reverend John D. Hughes, priest-in-charge of St. Matthew's explains: "We want to be a part of this great campaign . . . Despite the fact that our small church was completely destroyed by fire . . . we are confident we can rise from the ashes and assume our full share of the vital program involving the welfare of the whole church."

The BUILDERS FOR CHRIST $4,150,000 drive, to be carried out by Episcopal churches all over the country, will make possible the reconstruction in Japan of churches like St. Matthew's; it will make possible greater expansion of the church's work at home and abroad. Give generously to this fund on May 2nd.

Aloha to Bishop and Mrs. Ludlow

On April 22nd, the members of St. Clement's Parish honored Bishop and Mrs. Theodore Ludlow with a tea, so that the many friends they have made during their stay in Hawaii could bid them Aloha. They sailed for the mainland on Saturday, April 24th.

Bishop Ludlow made a tremendous contribution to the work and life of our Church through his talks and sermons. He is a very forceful speaker and always had much to offer at conferences, etc.

On Monday, April 12, he conducted an evening of instruction for Vestrymen, which was outstanding. The evening had been planned by the Laymen's League, under the direction of Mr. Thomas Major, and was a dinner meeting, held at St. Clement's Church. Vestrymen felt they had a much clearer picture of their duties and privileges than they realized before. Bishop Ludlow is the author of "I am a Vestryman"—a very instructive booklet on the duties of a Vestryman.

It was a real joy to have the Ludlows with us as supply rector of St. Clement's Church. We send them forth with our gratitude and Aloha.

Annual Mite Box Service

The Annual Mite Box service for all churches on the Island of Oahu will be held at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Sunday, May 2nd, at 3:30 p.m.

This service is always one of the great annual services for our children. It is inspiring to see them gather to present their Mite Box Offering. They learn a great deal from it, too, because they are sharing in the wider work of the Church through mission giving.

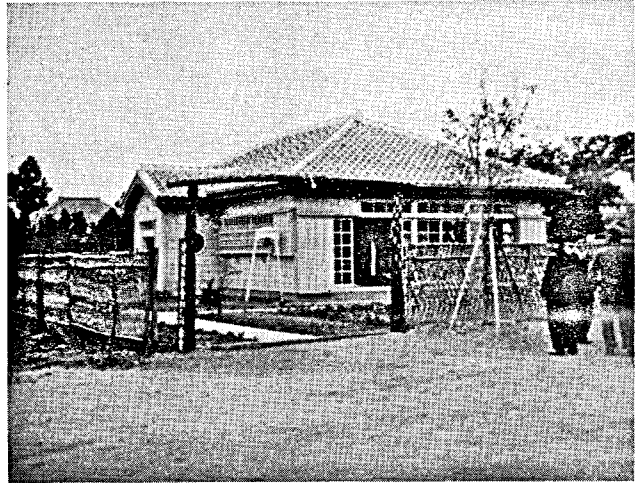

The Reverend Claude F. Du Teil is in charge of arrangements for the service. He is assisted by the Reverend Burton L. Linscott, who is the new Diocesan Chairman for Christian Education.

Following the service in the Cathedral, the Bishop and Sisters of St. Andrew's Priory serve ice cream to the children.

Diocesan Blood Bank

A very worthy project was started some years ago by the Laymen's League, that of a Diocesan Blood Bank. Our people have had the use of this, and we have been pleased to serve them when illness struck.

A recent tragedy in St. Stephen's Mission, Wahiawa, where one child was killed and another severely burned, has drained our blood bank. We hope that members of our parishes and missions will try and build this up again, for it has proven a tremendous aid in time of need.

Resigns as Iolani Headmaster

The Reverend Charles A. Parmiter, Jr., rector and headmaster of Iolani School for the past four years, has tendered his resignation as of August 31, 1954, to return to the mainland because of ill health. He and his family will leave Honolulu on June 9th for the mainland, where he will undergo surgery.

We commend him for the building program that has gone forward on our Ala Wai property, during his administration. In September Iolani School moved its upper school from the Old Nuuanu site to this property, where new classrooms, faculty apartment, gymnasium, athletic field, and headmaster's quarters were built at a cost of $443,989.30. Recently the contract was let and work is progressing on a chapel, dormitory, baseball area, and tennis courts at an additional cost of $175,000.

The following editorial was printed in the Honolulu Advertiser:

* * * * *

The Reverend Charles A. Parmiter, Jr., will be leaving behind him a solid record of accomplishment when he leaves Iolani Episcopal School for Boys because of ill health at the close of this term. During his four years as rector and headmaster, the venerable and respected Honolulu educational institution transferred its upper school to a new 25-acre campus on the Ala Wai where a $500,000 plant has been constructed. In addition to carrying out his administrative duties capably, the Rev. Mr. Parmiter also found time to be active in community civic and educational activities. It is to be regretted that ill health forces his temporary retirement from active teaching. Hawaii's best wishes for a speedy recovery will go with him to the Mainland.

* * * * *

This summer the Rev. Mr. Parmiter and his family will spend some time at their summer home at Cape Cod. Their son, Charles III, and his wife will remain in Hawaii, where he is stationed at Schofield Barracks. Their daughter, Phyllis, who has been a student at St. Andrew's Priory, will accompany them.

The resignation of the Rev. M. Parmiter has been accepted with regret by the Board of Governors of Iolani. Friends of the Parmiters extend their Aloha to them, and wish them every success in any new work they undertake.

Clergy to Hold Conference

The clergy of the Diocese will have a conference at Mokuleia, starting Sunday evening, May 16th, at 7 o'clock, and continuing until after lunch on Tuesday, May 18th.

The Reverend Berton S. Levering, D.D., of All Saints Church, Detroit, Michigan, will be the conference leader. He and Mrs. Levering are spending a few weeks in Honolulu, and will be the house guests of the Reverend Richard U. Smith, St. Christopher's Church, Kailua.

Dr. Levering is one of the very prominent clergymen in the Diocese of Michigan, heading many important Diocesan committees. Our clergy feel most fortunate to have him as leader of their conference.

Arrangements for the conference are being made by the Reverend C. Fletcher Howe, president of the Oahu Clericus.

New Arrival in Challinor Family

The Reverend and Mrs. Robert Challinor welcomed the arrival of Robert Henry Challinor, Jr., on Sunday, March 28. True to the colors of the clergy, he selected a very busy day for his father to make his appearance. He is a strapping young man, and has completely won the hearts of the Hawaiian Congregation, where his father is rector. We all join in congratulating the parents and son. We welcome him into our Diocesan Family with our very affectionate Aloha.

May 23rd to be Ingathering for UTO

Mrs. W. S. Buscher, Diocesan Chairman for the United Thank Offering, has designated Sunday, May 23rd, as the time for the spring ingathering. All women in the Church in Hawaii will join in presenting their offering during a Church service on the appointed day, where it properly can be dedicated to the great work it is to accomplish for the Church.

It is said that the United Thank Offering was started because of the "divine discontent" of one of our Church women. That woman, Mrs. Richard H. Soule, was called upon to count the offering of delegates at 1886 Triennial Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary. The offering was disappointingly small. Mrs. Soule believed the women might give more, if they knew the exact purpose of their giving, and she suggested that a project be adopted. She was right, for in 1889 the delegates gave more than $2000 to send a woman missionary to Japan and to build a little church at Anvik, Alaska. Only delegates at the Triennial Meeting took part in the first offering, but since then all women of the Church have participated in that great offering. In 1952 our women were thankful to the amount of $2,500,000!

And what has the thankfulness of women for their many blessings done for Hawaii since 1947?

1947 — St. John's-by-the-Sea Mission, Kahaluu, Oahu, $8,000.

1949 — St. Luke's Mission, Honolulu, $5,000.

1950 — St. Mark's Mission, Honolulu, $10,000.

1952 — St. Elizabeth's Church, Honolulu, $10,000.

St. Andrew's Priory, Honolulu, $7,000.

Car for woman Church worker at:

St. Mark's Mission, $1,000

Calvary Mission, Kaneohe, $5,000.

In addition to these gifts the U.T.O. helps National Council pay the salaries of women workers, who are National Counsel Appointees.

If every woman in every Church would be thankful to the extent of one cent each day of the year, think what our offering would be! The Blue Box is not for the select few — it is for every woman in the Church. Giving pause for the blessings of life, and making a material offering for them, makes you more appreciative of God's goodness and draws you closer to Him.

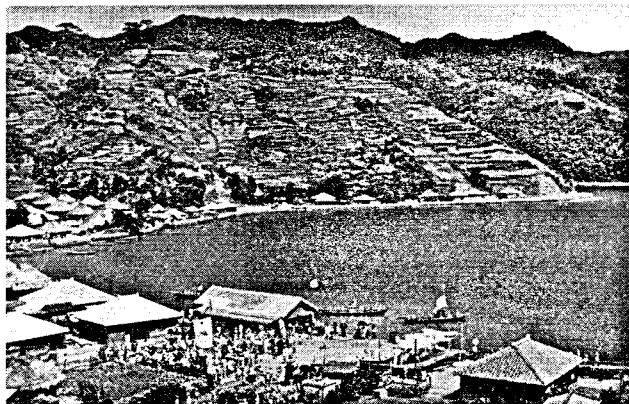

May our spring offering be more than ever before. Women, do not forget May 23rd.

Apology

In the last issue of the Chronicle we failed to give credit to the Honolulu Advertiser for the cover picture and three other cuts in the paper. We are very sorry about this because both the Advertiser and Honolulu Star-Bulletin are most generous in lending us cuts when they are of Church interest. Their pictures have contributed much to our monthly publication, and we are grateful to these local newspapers.

Visits St. Andrew's Priory

The Reverend Mother Louise Magdalene, Mother Superior of the Sisters of the Transfiguration, visited the Priory for two weeks. She had come from Japan, where she had been invited by bishops of the Seikokwai to review the work and see if Sisters of the Transfiguration could be sent to assist them with many projects.

While in Honolulu, the Associates of the Transfiguration had a tea for her, as did the Bishop and Diocesan Board of the Woman's Auxiliary. The latter was held at the Diocesan House. Clergy and their wives, Diocesan and Church staffs, and officers of the Auxiliaries on Oahu were in attendance.

We felt honored to have Mother Louise in Honolulu, and were delighted that she could be with us for two weeks. After leaving Honolulu she was to visit St. Dorothy's Rest, in California, and then return to Bethany Home, Glendale, Ohio.

HURRY! REGISTER FOR CAMP!

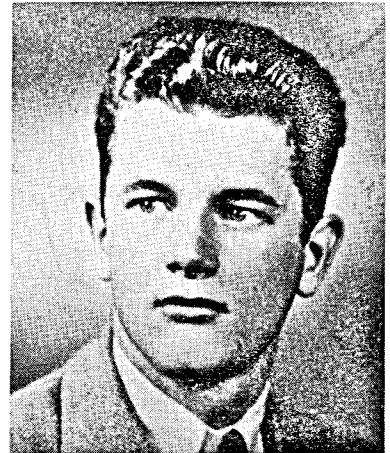

Registrations for summer camp are coming to the Bishop's Office daily. We urge parents to get these in as soon as possible, so that we will know just how to plan our sessions. Remember the sessions:

- 8 and 9 year olds — June 20 - July 2, July 4 - July 16
- 10 and 11 year olds — July 18 - July 30
- 12 and 13 year olds — August 1 - August 13
- 14 years and above — Island wide Youth Conference August 15 - 22

Good fellowship, religious instruction, sports, handicrafts — a full camp program is in store for your young people. This is a church project that pays dividends.

He drew a circle that shut me out —
 Heretic, rebel, a thing to flout.
 But Love and I had the wit to win:
 We drew a circle that took him in.

MR. EDWIN BONSEY, who will be ordained Deacon before coming to Hawaii in June, with his wife. He is to have our Church on the Island of Molokai. He was born on the Island of Maui, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bonsey, Makawao, Maui.

Appointed to National Council

For the first time in the history of the Episcopal Church an American Indian is being brought into the national executive level, with the appointment of the Reverend Vine V. Deloria as Assistant Secretary in the Division of Domestic Missions in the Home Department of the National Council.

Mr. Deloria, a Sioux Indian, will be responsible for the Church's work among Indians in the United States. This work has been carried on for a long time through Episcopal missions on Indian reservations throughout the Southwest and Middle West, but this is the first time that someone has been appointed on the national level to give full-time attention to the program.

Mr. Deloria, whose father, the late Reverend Philip Deloria, was one of the first Indians to enter the ministry, spent more than twenty years in South Dakota ministering to the Indians on reservations in that state. In 1952 he was called to be vicar of Trinity Church, Denison, Iowa, a post he has held until the present time.

Bazaars - Fairs - Luau's

After Easter it is the time of the year when our churches look toward reducing the church debt on buildings, repairs, etc. They work very hard on the projects they plan, and are to be commended for their efforts.

Three of the outstanding luau's will be St. Mark's on April 24th, St. Elizabeth's on May 1st, and St. John's-by-the-Sea on May 15th. Iolani School will have a Carnival on April 23rd and 24th. This is always a very large money raising project, backed by the Parent Teacher Association.

The May Fair sponsored by the people of St. Clement's Church will be May 11th, starting at ten o'clock in the morning and closing at ten at night. Sandwich bar, pet show, evening entertainment, and supper are all on the program.

St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa, has written the following about their Fair which is always cleverly planned for the interest of its patrons:

ST. STEPHEN'S TO HOLD "LITTLE WORLD'S FAIR" SATURDAY, MAY 8

St. Stephen's, Wahiawa, whose "Coronation Fair" last year attracted comment in "The Living Church" in its report on Coronation festivities in America, will sponsor a "Little World's Fair" this year. The theme was chosen as a tribute to our first year of quietness on the fronts where our troops are stationed. The Fair is dedicated to the hope that men will be brought to see their essential oneness in Christ. Accordingly the event will have a cosmopolitan air in its decorations and scheduling. The hot-dog stand will be a "Sidewalk Cafe;" the restaurant will be "The Moulin Rouge" and will feature the "can-can" dance with which the St. Stephen's YPF panicked the 1953 Variety Show at Tenney Hall; white elephants will be sold in "Chinatown;" baked goods will be served from the "Dutch Oven;" and miscellaneous prize items will be offered at the "Bangkok Bazaar," "Hawaii Hale," and "The Continental Shop." The Annual Pie Eating Contest will climax the afternoon, with "Murder in the Cathedral"—Director John Storm and Priory Student Patsy Frisbee defending their titles. The Fair will run from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, May 8.

Holy Nativity Church, Aina Haina, will have one of its lovely fashion shows the afternoon of May 6th and "The Hui Kukua" Guild of St. Andrew's Cathedral will sell rummage to add to this group's treasury.

Remember the dates — you will wish to share in these events.

Peace does not mean the end of all our striving;
Joy does not mean the drying of our tears.
Peace is the Power that comes to souls arriving
Up to the Light where God Himself appears.

THE REV. CHARLES H. LONG, JR., assistant Secretary of the Overseas Department of National Council, who stopped for a brief time in Honolulu, on his way to Hong Kong, to look over the work he is to do there following his resignation from National Council in June. While in Honolulu he preached at St. Peter's Church. The women of this congregation cooked a Chinese dinner for him and the clergy of Oahu following the Church service.

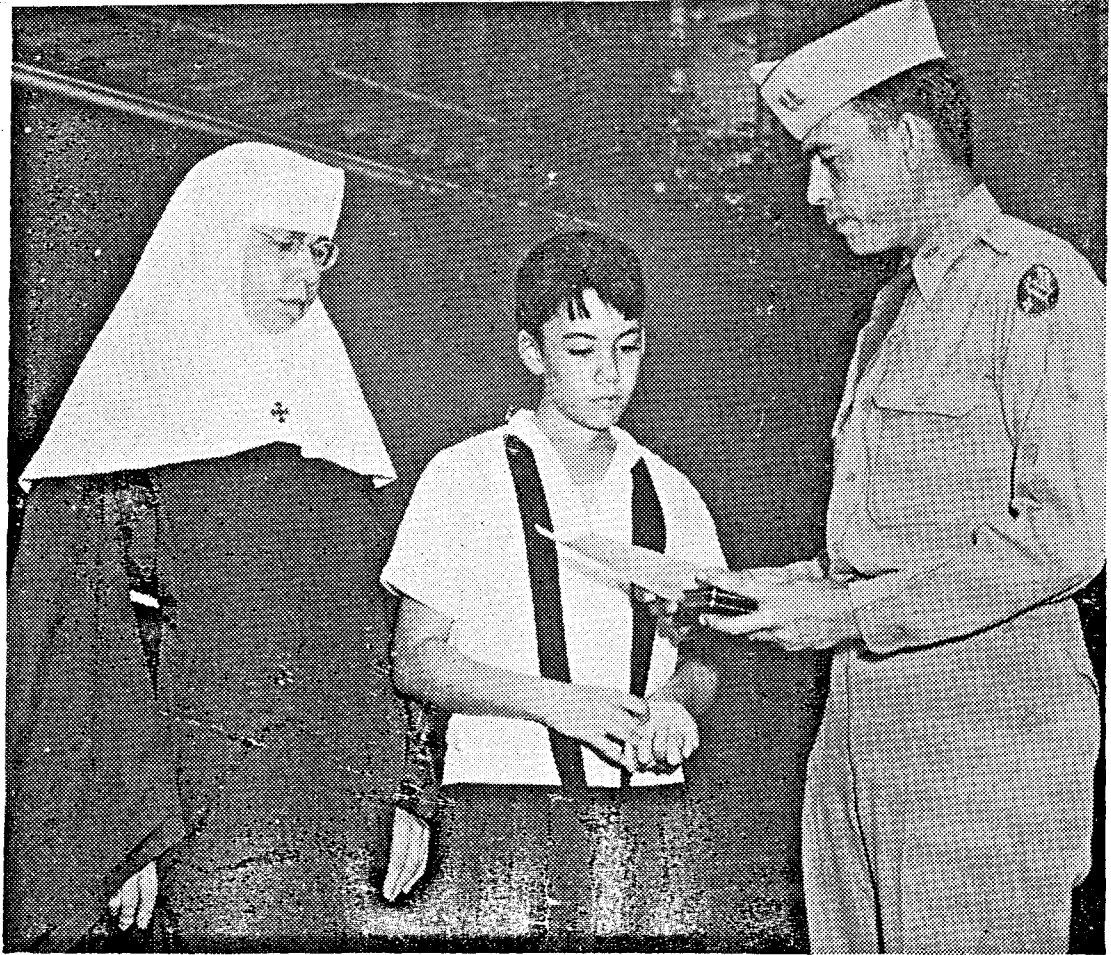

Resigns from National Council

The Reverend Percy G. Hall, S.T.D., for the past seven years Executive Secretary of the Armed Forces Division of the National Council, resigned his post at the Annual Meeting to accept a position as rector of the Church of the Incarnation, Santa Rosa, Calif. His resignation became effective March 31.

The Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, Presiding Bishops of Episcopal Church, on April 12th announced the appointment of the Rev. Robert J. Plumb, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Washington, D.C., as Executive Secretary of the Armed Forces Division of the Episcopal National Council.

The new director will take office May 17. A Commander in the United States Naval Reserve (active), Chaplain Plumb has been a member of the Armed Forces Division since December, 1951, and is a member of the General Commission on Chaplains, with headquarters in Washington.

During World War II he served aboard the battleship U.S.S. Wyoming and the U.S.S. LeJeune and was later senior chaplain at the Norfolk, Va., Naval Base.

Resolution Adopted at the Annual Meeting of the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work

Resolved that the Presiding Bishop's Committee on Laymen's Work believes that the laymen of the Church have four main responsibilities:

1. To deepen the spiritual life of the men through a continuing emphasis on the sacraments, prayer and study of Holy Scripture.
2. To extend the impact of Christianity in our time through personal evangelism and the establishment of new churches.
3. To provide the proper financial support for the kind of program the Church should have.
4. To enlist laymen's special skills and talents in Christ's service.

The Committee assumes the task of:

1. Stimulating the acceptance of these responsibilities by the men of the Church.

2. Making available the best information as to the methods by which these objectives may be accomplished.

Presiding Bishop Heads Committee

The general board of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A. adopted, by a vote of 90 to 2, the following statement presented to them by their Committee on the Maintenance of American Freedom. Chairman of the permanent "watchdog" Committee is the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church.

Deeply concerned by certain trends in American public life the National Council of Churches in March, 1953, created a "Committee on the Maintenance of American Freedom" and instructed it to "watch developments that threaten the freedom of any of our people or their thought, through Communist infiltration, or wrong methods of meeting that infiltration."

New Hostel to be Built

When the Presiding Bishop was in Honolulu, he could see a great need for a hostel, to take care of the many people coming and going through Honolulu, and to house our clergy and their families, when they are in Honolulu from our outer islands. With this in mind, he asked National Council to appropriate $12,000 toward the building of a hostel.

Lemmon and Freeth, Architects, are now working on plans for the construction of such a hostel. We hope soon to be able to go forward with the actual construction of the hostel.

Enters the Air Corps

Lt. Fred Chalmers, who for the past two years has been head of the Acolytes at St. Andrew's Cathedral, and who for many years has served as Acolyte, left for the mainland to enter the Air Corps. He will probably be stationed in Mississippi.

We send him forth with our Aloha. He not only made a great contribution to the life and work of the Cathedral, but shared in making our Diocesan services at the time of Convocations more beautiful because of his training of the Acolytes who served in these united services.

He has been in the Air Corps Reserve for some time. He is the son of Mrs. Alice Chalmer, and comes from one of our Kamaaina (old) families of Hawaii. Before her death his grandmother was one of the most devout and most beloved members of the Cathedral. She was Mrs. Abbie Green, more affectionately known to all as "Nanna Green."

Diocesan Treasurer to have Lead In Civic Performance

The Oratorio Society of Honolulu will sing the Gloria Mass by Puccini on April 27th, at McKinley High School. Mr. Joseph Reed, Diocesan Treasurer, is to sing the tenor solos.

In addition to his duties in the Bishop's Office, Mr. Reed is a member of St. Andrew's Cathedral Choir and finds time to direct the choirs for St. Luke's Korean Mission and Good Samaritan Mission. His gifted voice and his graciousness in sharing it, has contributed much to the life of the Church in Hawaii, as well as to the community life of our Islands.

God be in my head, and in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes, and in my looking;
God be in my mouth, and in my speaking;
God be in my heart, and in my thinking;
God be at mine end, and at my departing.

He received his discharge in order that he might study for the ministry. Marine Corps Photo

Cluett House Gets Needed Coat of Paint

One of the most evident improvements in the Cathedral Close is the new coat of paint on Cluett House. Although we know that the termites in the house are doing what we term in Hawaii as "holding hands" under the freshness of the paint, we are delighted and amazed to see the improvement that has been wrought by the brush and paint.

Visiting in Hawaii

Mrs. Albert Stone, of Hemstead, Long Island, is visiting in the Islands for a few weeks. She is the wife of the late Reverend Albert H. Stone, former Headmaster of Iolani School. During his time at Iolani the school was placed upon the firm foundation it now enjoys. Working with Bishop Littell the present site of Iolani was purchased. It was their foresight that really made possible the Iolani that now exists.

We extend an Aloha to Mrs. Stone and welcome her to Hawaii.

IF . . .

I Am Considering Leaving a Memorial to My Church, What Would You Suggest?

We would suggest first of all that you consult your Rector or Bishop as to what is needed most.

Many unnecessary, and inappropriate memorials are left to Churches just because the Rector or Bishop were not consulted.

If you are interested in some memorial in the way of church furnishings, by all means check, as the furnishings must be of a harmonizing nature. Sometimes we give memorials to the Church that are out of place.

Your Rector or Bishop know what is needed, and will be only too glad to help you reach a decision on something that will be an excellent memorial, and useful.

Then, what about your Parish or Diocesan Endowment Funds? One of the finest things you can do for your parish is to leave money for the endowment funds, with no strings attached. Trust the Bishop, Board of Directors, Rector, Wardens, and Vestry to carry out their duties, as God's stewards.

Such gifts of money are working for you and God in the Church Militant years and years after you have left the Church Militant for the Church Expectant. See that your work continues, even after your death. Your Church needs more farseeing members.

Christ's Entry Into Our Lives

Enter Jesus. For weeks, perhaps for months, the scribes and pharisees of Jerusalem had been wondering whether Jesus would come up to the Passover. Some of them hoped He would stay away so that they would be spared the decision of what to do with Him. Others, perhaps, more bitter, were hoping He would come so that they might put a speedy end to this disturber of their peace.

Enter Jesus. He did not stay in the quiet country as He might have. He never does. He always comes riding into the thick of life. He came in such a way that He could not be ignored. He never can be—for long.

We may try to set Him aside. We may want to keep Him out of certain decisions and situations in our lives, but try as we will, we find that eventually Jesus will enter—enter, perhaps, as He did of old, only to be crucified—but enter He will.

The fickle crowd in days gone by on Sunday cried "Hosanna!" and on Friday "Crucify Him!" There are still people who on Sunday cry "Hosanna!" and even as soon as Monday by their acts and attitude crucify Him in the spirit.

Improved

Little Susan DuTeil, who spent three weeks in Children's Hospital, Honolulu, is home now with her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Claude F. DuTeil, of St. Stephen's Church, Wahiawa. We are very happy to report that she is much improved. We shall continue to keep her in our prayers and wish her a speedy recovery.

Conducts Easter Service at Molokai

The Reverend Burtis L. Dougherty, Iolani School, Honolulu, went to Molokai on Easter to conduct services for the congregation. We appreciate his helping in this way. On April 11th, Mr. Ernest Halford, Lay Reader at Holy Nativity Church, Aina Haina, took the services for us.

St. Mary's Mission Installs New Window

On Maundy Thursday night the new stained glass window that has been placed above the altar at St. Mary's Mission, Honolulu, was dedicated. The window, wrought by Peter Clysen, of Tilburg, Netherlands, has as its theme "The Last Supper." It is an unusual, but beautiful interpretation of this scene.

The Reverend John R. Caton, Vicar, dedicated the window, which was given as a memorial to David Kam by his family and members of the Mission.

To be Preacher for Island of Hawaii Mite Box Service

On May 9th the churches on the Island of Hawaii will hold their annual Mite Box Service at St. James' Church, Kamuela. The Reverend Manu Bennett, Assistant Vicar at Holy Nativity Church, Aina Haina, will be the guest preacher. He and Mrs. Bennett will go to Hawaii on May 7th. He will also preach at Holy Apostles Church, Hilo, on the morning of that day.

St. Luke's Mission to have Rectory

Looking toward the day when St. Luke's Mission can have a priest in residence, a building has been purchased that will be renovated and made into a two-bedroom rectory. Work will start on this in the very near future.

Light looked down and beheld darkness.

"Thither will I go," said Light.

Peace looked down and beheld war.

"Thither will I go," said Peace.

Love looked down and beheld hatred.

"Thither will I go," said Love.

So came Light, and shone.

So came Peace, and gave rest.

So came Love, and brought life.

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.

You Tell on Yourself

You tell what you are by the friends you seek,
By the very manner in which you speak,
By the way you employ our leisure time,
By the use you make of dollar and dime.
You tell what you are by the things you wear,
By the spirit in which you your burdens bear,
By the programs in which you delight to dial.
You tell what you are by the way you walk,
By the things on which you delight to talk,
By the manner in which you bear defeat,
By so simple a thing as how you eat.
By the books you choose from the well filled shelf.
In these ways and more you tell on yourself,
So there's really no particle of sense
In an effort at false pretense.
You tell on yourself, for your neighbors can tell
Whether you are bound for heaven or hell,
And your mirror can't talk, but the Bible can,
And it tells what lies in the heart of man.
So read it to learn what you are, my friend,
And follow its precepts unto the end,
Take Christ as your Master, and near and far
You'll tell on yourself what you really are.

God be in my head, and in my understanding;
God be in mine eyes, and in my looking;
God be in my mouth, and in my speaking;
God be in my heart, and in my thinking;
God be at mine end, and at my departing.

Why the Church?

I ought to belong to the church because I ought to be better than I am. Henry Ward Beecher once said: "The church is not a gallery for the exhibition of eminent Christians, but a school for the education of imperfect ones."

I ought to belong to the church because of what I can give to it and do through it as well as as because of what I may get out of it. The church is not a dormitory for sleepers, it is an institution of workers; it is not a rest camp, it is a front line trench.

I ought to belong to the Church because every man ought to pay his debts and do his share toward discharging the obligations of society. The church has not only been the bearer of good news of personal salvation it has been and it is the supreme uplifting and conserving agency without which "Civilization would lapse into barbarism and press its way to perdition."

I ought to belong to the church because of memories; memories of things I can never forget; memories of faces that will never fade; memories of vows that are the glory of youth.

I ought to belong to the church because of hope; hope that lives when promises are dead; hope that paves the way for progress; hope that visions peace and social justice; hope for time, and hope for eternity — the great hope that casts its anchor behind Jesus Christ.

I ought to belong to the church because of the strong men in it who need reinforcing; the weak men in it who need encouraging; the rascals in it who need rebuking. If I say that I am not good enough my humility recommends me. If I sit in the seat of the scornful my inactivity condemns me.

I ought to belong to the church, but not until I am ready to join a going concern; not until I am willing to become an active partner with Jesus Christ.

FOUR INSURANCE QUESTIONS

You believe in Insurance, of course. We don't have to sell you on its value.

Four questions are of the utmost importance in planning your insurance program.

1. How much can you afford?
2. Is it the kind you ought to have?
3. Are the companies in which your policies are held substantial and dependable?
4. Are the general agents representing these companies experienced and reliable?

We will be glad to help you answer Questions 1 and 2. Questions 3 and 4 will answer themselves.
