Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands.
In Banco.
July Term, 1890.
YUEN CHOCK VS. CHUNG HOY.
 BEFORE JUDD, C. J., M'CULLY, BICKER-TON, J., DOLE, J.
 Section 933 of the Civil Code does not authorize the arrest of a fraudulent debtor after judgment.
OPINION OF THE COURT PER JUDD, C. J.
 On the 18th of April last the plaintiff obtained a judgment against the defendant in the Police Court of Honolulu for $220.30. The action was assumed to recover the amount of two promissory notes. The defendant had no counsel, and confessed judgment. On the 18th of July the plaintiff made a complaint under oath to the Police Justice that defendant seeks to evade the payment of the said debt by transferring and intending to transfer his property to certain other persons unknown to the deponent. The plaintiff tendered the statutory bond, which was approved. A warrant for the arrest and detention of the defendant was issued, and he was accordingly arrested and imprisoned. The next day the defendant's attorney moved the Police Court to dissolve the attachment and discharge him from custody on the ground that the warrant was issued without authority of law. The Police Justice granted the motion, and discharged the defendant, from which the plaintiff appealed to the Supreme Court in banco upon the points of law involved.
 Section 933 of the Civil Code confers upon a court of record or a police court the authority to issue process for the arrest and detention of a fraudulent debtor. This statute affecting the liberty of the person should be construed strictly. Its plain intention is to secure the presence of a defendant in a civil action.
 It is ancillary to such a suit. The complaint must be verified by the oath of the plaintiff in a suit, or some person on his behalf. The complaint must allege that the defendant has contracted the debt in a fraudulent manner, or that he seeks to evade the payment of the debt, first, by secreting his property, second, by transferring or intending to transfer the same to any third party, third, or is about to remove the same out of the jurisdiction of such court, fourth, or is about to quit the Kingdom. The process issued arrests and detains the defendant until he shall have entered into security with sufficient sureties to abide the result of such suit, and to pay the amount of such judgment as shall be rendered thereon. This language implies the pendency of a suit, and detains the defendant in custody in order that he may not make away with his property. Section 953, which property is subject to constraint last paragraph of sec. 953, which provides that no process of shall be issued until the p. files a bond to reimburse defenda. for damages and costs "which he shall sustain in consequence of such arrest, in case the plaintiff shall fail to sustain such suit," has no meaning if the warrant of arrest issues after judgment, for in such case the plaintiff has already sustained his suit.
 The warrant of arrest, therefore, was not authorized by the statute. It is not necessary to consider the further point made by plaintiff's counsel, that the Police Court, being of limited jurisdiction, has no power to discharge its own writ, there being no especial authority in the statute for this. The defendant has been discharged from custody, and he is now at liberty. He is in no danger of being arrested again on the same ground.
 The appeal is dismissed.
 C. W. Ashford for plaintiff; J. A.
 Magoon for defendant.

A few minutes before ten o'clock last evening two white men were seen by three native boys, attempting to open the door of the kerosene warehouse. They ran away when they saw the boys approaching.

The boys told Capt. Crane, who looked around to see if he could find the two men, but was not successful. The captain reported the matter at the Station House. One was a tall man, the other a short one, so the boys said.

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE AGAIN. Mr. Wilson Shows the Committee Up. BUREAU HONOLULU FIRE DEPT., HONOLULU, Sept. 8, 1890.

Hon. E. C. Macfarlane, Chairman Finance Committee Legislative Assembly, 1890. SIR: At the last monthly meeting of this department, reference was made to the comment in your report on pages 7 and 8 respecting the $50 retainer of Mr. F. M. Hatch.

Although the suit you refer to is entitled E. B. Thomas, plaintiff vs. George Norton, defendant, allow me to inform you that Norton was merely a nominal defendant, and that the real defendant in interest is the Honolulu Fire Department itself. This fact would have been made apparent to you, had you undertaken the trouble of enquiring into the merits of the matter.

Your comment that the matter was merely a dispute between candidates is unfair. As a matter of fact Mr. Norton had previously been installed in office, and was therefore an officer of the department at the time of service of the writ sued out by Thomas.

THE HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE WILL ASSEMBLE ON APRIL ISLAND CONTINUE IN SESSION FOR SIX MONTHS, and I warrant you, from East and West, from North and South, the tourists will come fast. Why should not Hawaii attract thousands by its "Comedy of Errors"? Try it. It's bound to be a grand success.

Notice of Prof. James D. Dana's "Characteristics of Volcanoes," by W. L. Green, Honolulu, 1890.

This is a small pamphlet of fifteen pages, devoted to a criticism of Prof. Dana's new volume on Volcanoes, or to so much of it as refers to Mr. Green's theories relative to volcanoes, as are given in his Vestiges of the Molten Globe, Part II., which was published here some three years ago. Mr. Green corrects and explains some of the statements of Prof. Dana, where they seem to differ, but on the whole, their theories seem to rest on the same basis.

Application for foreign money orders per R. M. S. Mariposa will be received at the Post-Office up to 4 p.m. Friday the 19th.

CORRESPONDENCE. We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements made, or opinions expressed by our correspondents. "Quite an Idea."

Mr. Editor: Our Legislature is in session. The great thinkers and mental acrobats of Hawaii have been for some time assembled together in council. Their keen minds and bright intellects have been brought to bear on many all important matters relating to the economic, social and comical welfare of this country.

Now, gentle readers, if this is a true forecast of the future if these roads are built, let me ask what is our duty and the duty of our lawmakers, to our country, to our people and to the coming generations?

Can we afford to neglect this important district and turn a deaf ear to these petitioners and slight this largest of all the islands? We must be just. This improvement has been long projected and until now neglected.

While other improvements will yield only thousands, this will yield scores of thousands for the Government. Yes, more than all other improvements now projected for improving the country.

Although his is the largest and most promising enterprise of public improvement now before the public, it is not the only one, but certainly it deserves assistance.

No more improving means that the maximum of wealth and production have already been reached. In that case, there will never be but little more wealth or business than at present. Hence no more mechanics, lawyers, merchant's clerks, judges, policemen, etc., than we have now will ever be wanted.

The natural advantages of these Islands if fully developed would no doubt sustain comfortably, half a million of people, but we must move forward, we can't stand still and prosper. I business, activity is life, stagnation death.

THE HAWAIIAN RAILWAY. (Continued.) Mr. Editor: Statistics in America tell us "that for every dollar expended in building railways in a new country adds $10 to the value of land and other property."

eighty millions of dollars of wealth were added to the taxable property of that country by the building of that road.

Is it any wonder that the United States is the richest country on earth, seeing it has more railroads than exists elsewhere in the world? Suppose we apply these statistics to this region after it becomes developed by the building of this road and see how it figures.

Now, gentle readers, if this is a true forecast of the future if these roads are built, let me ask what is our duty and the duty of our lawmakers, to our country, to our people and to the coming generations?

Can we afford to neglect this important district and turn a deaf ear to these petitioners and slight this largest of all the islands? We must be just. This improvement has been long projected and until now neglected.
