Mr. Herbert Yamamoto
Executive Secretary, Club 100
520 Kamoku Street
Honolulu, Hawaii

Dear Herbert:

I sincerely regret that I have returned to Washington to tend to my Senatorial duties and cannot be with you to participate in your annual installation banquet.

I am particularly chagrined because I was hopeful of being able to remain in Hawaii to renew old acquaintances with the men of the 100th.

Please extend to the new officers and members of Club 100, my sincerest best wishes for continued success in the service of our community.

Warmest aloha.

DAN K. INOUE
