Message to Hawaii Fruit & Produce Dealer's Association

I have always harbored a fond expectation to be able to accept at least one of your kind invitations to your annual New Year's party. However, since the early part of the year is the beginning of the session in Congress, I regret that I am unable to be with you again.

Nevertheless, I would like to extend my best wishes and aloha to all of you for a successful year and assure you of my continued interest in and support of all of the endeavors of your association.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
