HAWAII'S EXHIBIT CAUSES A SMILE

Q. H. Berrey Writes of Travels and His Stay in Paris.

FRENCHMAN IN CHARGE CAN'T SPEAK ENGLISH

Governor's Picture Adorns Keg of Rice--Mr. and Mrs. Berrey Ex- tend Their Tour to Rome.

Writing from Rome, Italy, under date of August 21, Q. H. Berrey gives the following interesting account of the travels of himself and wife: Since we left Honolulu, March 30th, we have spent most of our time traveling. We toured the Southern States and visited many bathing resorts on the Atlantic Coast. Previous to our departure for Europe, we visited Middletown, N. Y. There we met a number of the boys in blue who were stationed in Honolulu. They gave us a grand reception. Capt. McIntyre made it very pleasant and the boys could not do enough for our pleasure.

The voyage across from New York to Antwerp was very pleasant, neither of us were sea sick. The first five days after our arrival were spent in Antwerp and Brussels. The fort at Antwerp, constructed in the tenth century and the old cathedral are worth seeing. They are very ancient. Some of Rubens' best paintings are in Antwerp.

My wife is fully enjoying this tour. She is continuously on the alert for good kodak shots? She thought the Belgians rather cruel to harness up dogs and make them work. They are used in place of horses to draw the milk, express and vegetable wagons. When a dog is properly harnessed with a heavy wire muzzle over his head, a chain leading to the front of the cart and fastened prevents him from going either side. If he refuses to pull and falls back he comes in contact with sharpened rods arranged to prod him.

In Brussels we saw something new in the street car line, that is equal to our Honolulu Rapid Transit. The cars are two-story high with five wheels. The fifth wheel is made with a flange. When running on a street that has no track the front flanged wheel is raised with a lever. Arriving on a street having a track the flanged wheel is lowered without stopping. This wheel catches the track and holds the car on.

We were in Paris a couple of weeks. The Exposition as a whole was good. The exhibits from South American countries and islands of the Pacific were not equal to their exhibits at Chicago in 1893. Say, about that Hawaiian exhibit. We were really ashamed to find no better. We visited the space set aside for Hawaii three different days. A young Frenchman not able to speak a word of English was in charge. Through an interpreter we made him understand that we were from Hawaii. What few shells and beads are on exhibition were not arranged with any taste. We only saw two small dusky native hats. I know there is quite a variety of hats and fans made in the Islands. If the W. C. T. U. exhibit of Honolulu could have been sent over and arranged as it is there, it would have been a credit. The few sacks of sugar and kegs of rice placed off from where the spectators pass attract very little attention. One portion of the exhibit caused a smile--when discovered. That was Governor Dole's photo small size, no frame, mounted on a keg of rice and just above hung a large picture of a Hawaiian girl in a beautiful frame. My wife was indignant and wanted to get a frame for it but the man in charge would not allow us to remove it. I saw that E. Halstead had left his card.

Now, if you are in the newspaper business and can make your press go fast enough to print, cut, fold and stamp a 14-page newspaper at the rate of 50,000 papers per hour, you will have an idea of what we saw in the newspaper line while visiting in the United States pavilion. This is only one of the many interesting things we saw and the rapid strides in science during the past few years is surprising.

Paris is a lovely city, with high stone buildings and beautiful streets, parks, etc., but she is lacking in many modern improvements, such as our modern buildings have. Very few buildings in Paris are equipped with electric fixtures and most all are from seven to eight stories high with no "lifts" (they do not say elevator) Paris is considered the finest and most fashionable city of the world, but I have my doubts if Americans having any desire to adopt some of her style, especially that of the beer gardens, where the women dressed in silk sit with men on the sidewalks and drink beer and soda as we do water.

From Paris we visited Geneva, Switzerland, which is a wonderland. I have read and been told of this beautiful city but never anticipated finding such a garden of Eden on earth as Geneva is with its splendid wide streets and elegant shops. The museums are excellent and here we find the famous Swiss field glasses, music boxes and watches known the world over for their durability.

The death rate is only fourteen to the thousand, which alone speaks for the healthy locality. The city is located on Lake Geneva and if I could command the artist's brush and the poet's pen I might give you a faint idea of the lake which is the largest in Europe but as I have not this power, will not attempt to describe the beautiful hills and mountain homes we saw as we sailed over the lake in a steamer. A great portion of the scenery between Geneva and Genoa, Italy, is often lost to the traveler as we passed through seventy-two tunnels. It requires twenty-five minutes to go through one of them.

For historical places--Geneva can rightfully be called the "City of Palaces" for where do we find so many old homes of noted people. We visited the royal palaces, saw the rooms of the Royal Palace, saw the rooms of the late King and went through all of the royal rooms. I wish some of our Americans could see the furnishing of this palace and compare it to the White House in Washington. The house in which Columbus spent his boyhood days is situated in a narrow street not over 12 feet wide. We were not allowed to enter as the building is considered unsafe and kept locked up, but we went through the old home of Charles Dickens and found it occupied by a number of poor families. At Allaro we found the home of Byron and a large marble slab on the wall still tells one that the famous poet once lived there.

In the St. Ambrogio we found the interior draped in mourning for the late King and it was something grand. I have seen royal funerals in Hawaii, but not equal to this. There are a number of other very interesting things and places I might mention but I feel the city of ruins holds more. To enter Rome we passed through a large gate, for, like Peking it is a walled city. The wall is about thirty-five feet high and all produce brought from the country is taxed before entering these gates. How would a Hawaiian like to pay a tax on a bowl of poi ere entering Honolulu? The first thing we do after securing rooms when arriving in a city is to secure a guide. In all European cities of note it is necessary to have a guide, who speaks English and the language of the country you are in. These guides who know the history of all interesting places can be employed for 25 to 30 francs a day, this does not include tips or carriage nor entrance fee which is required to visit the galleries, museums, cathedrals, etc. Then the porter wants a tip that opens the door. This is from 50 centimes to one franc. If you even ask the name of a street the person expects a tip, so that it is necessary to carry your purse in one hand and give out with the other. My wife tries to convince me that she should have a tip when I ask a question. One of our visits in Rome was the Colosseum of Flavian Amphitheater which were commenced A. D. 72 and required 30,000 slaves seven years to finish. Titus opened it with a series of games lasting one hundred days, at which 9,000 animals were slain. This structure is immense, the circumference is 1848 feet. The area accommodated 87,000 spectators, under the arena is a perfect network of rooms or caves that run under the ground for 800 feet in which the animals for the games were kept. My wife has several kodak views of this structure.

From here our tickets call for Venice, Milan, St. Gothard, Switzerland, Lucerne, Olten, Basle, thence through Germany and Belgium to Antwerp then we go via steamer to England. Sailing for New York Sept. 22d. I will write you again from other points.

With best wishes, I am,
Yours sincerely,
Q. H. BERREY.

BIG PAY FOR DENTISTRY

There is another incident to be told in connection with Mrs. Sturtevant's unwitting possession for several years in a lump of ambergris. Some time ago she had a little work done by a dentist in San Francisco, and when she wanted to pay him he said he would prefer Hawaiian South Sea curios to money. Mrs. Sturtevant on returning home sent him some pretty Gilbert Island shells and, as an exact, a chunk of the curious mass that has now been discovered to be ambergris. The dentist thus probably got the value of $300 or $400 for a mere trifle of his profession's services.

REPUBLICAN RALLY HELD AT PALAMA

Five Hundred People Are Addressed by Party Leaders.

HON. SAM. PARKER STANDS FOR DELEGATE

Hawaii's Interests Lie With Grand Old Party--A. V. Gear Pledges Payment of Fire Losses.

W. C. Achi gave up the verandas and lawn of his home at Palama last night to a great Republican rally. It was the first blowout of the election campaign proper, the mighty McKinley and Roosevelt ratification having preceded the Republican primaries. The grounds were illuminated with electric lights and Chinese lanterns. Fully half a thousand people assembled, fairly balanced between natives and pale faces. Music was furnished by the campaign quartet and Mr. and Mrs. Kalekai.

Besides a large muster of Republican leaders many front rank Democrats were in attendance. John L. Kaulukou was unanimously called to preside. Samuel Parker was the first speaker. He said it was a great pleasure to meet the people. By request of Hawaii and Maui, as well as Honolulu, he had consented to run for Delegate to Congress on the Republican ticket. He denied having offered to retire in favor of Prince David, but would stand loyal to the Republican party. There were three candidates in the field--Robt. W. Wilcox for the Independents, Prince David for the Democrats and the "Cowboy of Hawaii" for the Republicans. He could not see how Mr. Wilcox would be able to exert any influence at the coming session of Congress if elected. The speaker could not promise to make any effort at restoration but it would be his work to see that Hawaii should obtain extensive harbor improvements. There was really only a choice between the Prince and himself. What benefits had the people ever received from Mr. Wilcox? It was Republicans and Democrats who had given them their rights, the Independents having done nothing.

Mr. Achi congratulated his fellow-workers on the splendid meeting. He pointed out that the main credit of having given every Hawaiian the full and free franchise was due to the Republican party. President McKinley and the majority of both Houses were Republicans, and it was they who had placed the Hawaiian masses on the same plane as Prince David Kawanakoa. Watch for the Republican candidates and vote for them. Sam. Parker was a close friend of President McKinley and it would be wise to elect him as Delegate to Congress.

John D. Paris of Kona, Hawaii, made a strong and terse speech for undivided allegiance to the Republican party. Judge Waiipulani urged the wisdom of starting right in this campaign, and commented on the poor selection of candidates by the Independents in Kona. The natives there might yet be brought round to support the Republicans.

Enoch Johnson related that when the Aloha Aina delegates went to Washington to plead for restoration, it was a Republican, Senator Hoar, who helped them while the Democrats looked askance at them. Wise courses now were the means of obtaining Statehood.

James H. Boyd denounced John F. Colburn of the Democratic party, who was present, as having been one of the authors of the loss of Hawaiian independence.

T. McCants Stewart spoke at length, arguing the futility, under any circumstances, of the cause of the Independents. Even if successful they could have no influence with a Republican administration against the advice of the Republican party of Hawaii. He gave the Independent leaders credit, however, for meaning well and predicted that in time they would be good Republicans, standing in line with such friends of the people as W. C. Achi and A. V. Gear. It would be a barren victory even for the Independents to obtain control of the Territorial Legislature. Their acts would be subject not only to the Governor's veto but to the disallowance of the President. He raked the record of the Democratic party, saying Cleveland was the most popular President who ever served and at the same time the most unpopular Democrat with his party who had ever been President. In conclusion he invoked the people's support for such men as Sam. Parker, W. C. Achi, John L. Kaulukou and A. V. Gear.

A. V. Gear's opening "Aloha" was answered with a chorus of the same greeting from the assemblage, and he went on to say: Fellow Americans, when you choose a friend you always want to prove him. You want to know that he has been your friend in the past, that he is your friend today, and that he will prove your friend in the future. When you choose a party you want to know that that party has been friendly to you in the past, is friendly to you today and will be friendly to you in the future. The Republican party is such a party. You ask why it has been your friend in the past, and I answer that it has given to you and to me, and to all of us, the same right to go to the polls and deposit our ballots for any candidate in the field from the lowest to the highest without distinction. It is your friend today and you ask why. Because when you see such men as the Honorable Samuel Parker, who is your friend, and the Honorable W. C. Achi, who is your friend, and Judge Kaulukou, T. McCants Stewart, Arch. Gillilan, Clarence Crabbe, J. H. Boyd, L. L. McCandless, Chas. Wilcox and others who you well know are all your true friends when you see them, I say, standing as sponsors for the Republican party you know that the Republican party is today your friend. The Republican party will prove your friend in the future. You ask why and I will tell you. The Republican party will send as their own Delegate to Congress the Honorable Samuel Parker, who through the influence of a Republican President and a Republican Congress will secure for you lighthouses, Federal buildings and harbor improvements, so that you will find an increased field of activity which will render employment to hundreds of men and will greatly increase the prosperity of the masses. The Republican party in Hawaii promises you--and the Republican party has always kept its promises--that all its actions will be for the advancement and increased prosperity of the Islands, and to you, all those of you who have lost your business, your homes and your clothing, your all, through the visitation of that great pestilence, the black plague, the Republican party pledges that every dollar which has been lost will be paid in gold coin of the United States of America. In choosing your party weigh carefully in the balance the good points and the bad of each one. Listen to the Independents. Listen to the Democrats. Listen to the Republicans. Hear what they all have to tell you, and in choosing after careful thought I am sure that you will select as your party the aloha Republican party.

After the speeches the people came forward as one man to shake hands cordially with Messrs. Achi and Parker. McKinley and Roosevelt buttons were shelled out right and left and eagerly appropriated by the natives.

GEO. RODIEK HONORED.

Geo. Rodiek of the Hilo branch of H. Hackfeld & Co. was a passenger in the Kinau this forenoon on his way to his home in Germany. To show how greatly Mr. Rodiek is esteemed in Hilo, Commodore Beckley gave the following to a Bulletin reporter today: "At Hilo yesterday, Mr. Rodiek was given a send-off he will not forget very soon. The eighteen Masons who had just been given their 32d degree and a large number of citizens of Hilo, met Mr. Rodiek at the Waiakea bridge and carried him for about a third of a mile. There was singing and shouting and a liberal display of the flags of many nations. Even the Chinese and Japanese turned out. The whole demonstration was arranged as a farewell to Mr. Rodiek who has done so much for Hilo and Hilo people."

The Orpheum. Tonight will positively be the last opportunity to see the minstrel company as they leave for the Mainland next Wednesday, therefore a special program has been prepared for the farewell performance. Mr. Hen Wise the popular and clever comedian and the bright, vivacious comedienne, Miss Kittle Milton will put on their funniest sketch. Miss Bradley will sing a native song composed by Mr. Coelho. Jerry Mills and all the others will help to make up the best performance yet given by the company.

Cowan Paid Up.

A. Cowan appeared in the Police Court this forenoon on the charge of embezzlement. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth explained that Mr. Macfarlane did not wish to prosecute Cowan and then asked that a nolle prosequi be entered. This was granted. It appears that Cowan scraped together enough money yesterday to pay for the two typewriters over which the trouble arose and, as this money was handed over to Mr. Macfarlane, the latter did not care to press the case further.

HILO MASONS TAKE DEGREES

Large Number Raised to Thirty Second Rank by Cooper.

NEW LODGE FORMED BY LEADING CITIZENS

Progress of the Two Railways--Hilo Road Extension--Gehr Writes of Progress of Kohala Line.

Hilo, Sept. 21.--H. E. Cooper under special dispensation for the Grand Lodge has raised eighteen members of Kilanua Lodge, No. 330, to the Thirty-second Degree of Masonry and established the following lodges with corresponding officers: Lodge of Perfection: John T. Moir, Master; Arch. C. Steele, S. W.; Chas. H. Fairer, J. W.; Lodge Rose Croix: John H. Bole, Master; Geo. H. Williams, S. W.; Allan S. Wall, J. W.; Lodge Knights Kadosh: Philip Peck, Preceptor; Wm. McKay, Sub-Preceptor; August Humbert, Asst. Preceptor; Olaf Omsted, Secretary; Frank A. Metcalf, Treasurer. Those who have received the Thirty-second Degree obtainable in the Islands are: P. Peck, J. T. Moir, A. C. Steele, Chas. H. Fairer, Wm. McKay, Geo. Rodiek, A. Humbert, Wm. Vonnatta, J. H. Bole, A. Wall, W. S. Wise, Geo. H. Wilbur, Louis Andrews, E. N. Wilfong, Ed. Metcalf, O. Omsted, E. D. Baldwin, Dr. Archer Irvin, Dr. Grace. These together with Florentine Souza, J. U. Smith and H. H. Renton are the charter members of Kalana Lodge of Perfection, Lehua Chapter of Rose Croix and Waiannuene Preceptory of Kadosh. --Tribune.

Kohala-Hilo Railroad.

Hilo, Sept. 20.--H. E. Soule in receipt of a letter from President Gehr of the Kohala-Hilo Railroad in which he says that the arrangements made for the construction of the line from Hilo to the north are eminently satisfactory to him. Material will be shipped to Hawaii so that the work of grading and construction may begin without delay.--Herald.

Hilo Sidewalks.

Hilo, Sept. 20.--The street commissioners have recommended that sidewalks of cement or cut stone be placed on Waiannuene, Shipman, Front, between Shipman and Waiannuene, and on Pitman street, between Waiannuene and the mauka line of the bridge across the Wailluku. The proposition to have sidewalks on the mauka side of Front street, between King and Church streets, was voted down, the commissioners preferring to wait until the Government provided means for widening that thoroughfare. This recommendation carries with an order for the removal of all wood sidewalks now on the streets named.--Herald.

Hilo Railroad Extension.

Hilo, Sept. 20.--Arrangements have been completed whereby the tracks of the Hilo Railroad Co. will be extended two miles farther in the direction of Oia. The grading of the line to Puna is almost complete and the rails will be in position so that trains will be running by January 1 next. Mr. Dillingham has ordered rails from the factories at the coast to be used in the Oia Extension.--Herald.

Hilo Masonic Temple.

Hilo, Sept. 20.--The Masonic fraternity in Hilo has secured a building site on Waiannuene street, on which they will erect a handsome temple. This step is made necessary by the large increase in membership and the erection of the Lodge of Perfection, Chapter Rose Croix and Preceptory of Knights Kadosh during the past week. Plans will be prepared as soon as the details are completed.--Herald.

Miss Bradley Will Sing.

Miss Vincent Bradley who leaves soon for England, will sing for the last time at the Orpheum tonight, Wm. Coelho's popular composition, "Lei Poi Moi." While Miss Bradley was in Hilo the Hawaiians present during the various nights that Miss Bradley appeared, showed great appreciation of the excellent rendition given. Mr. Coelho has done his teaching well.

Democratic Street Talk.

There was talk on the streets this morning that Prince David Kawanakoa, who was so sure yesterday that he would accept the Democratic nomination to Congress, is wavering today. There is one side pulling one way and another in a different direction.

The Tribune is a gentleman's wheel.

For lightness of construction, durability and appearance it is in a class by itself.

REPUBLICANS GATHERING

Arrivals by the Kinau today included a large number of delegates to the Republican convention that meets Monday in Progress Hall. The Maui delegation will be completed when the Claudine comes in tomorrow.

It is now practically settled that H. P. Baldwin will be chairman of the convention, he being the choice of the Maui delegates. There is no opposition to him from any source.

Talk today is centered on the platform. It is certain that the platform adopted by the convention will favor municipal government.

NOTES OF THE COURTS

The Carson-Claudine collision case reached submission to the Supreme Court shortly before noon. This was the third day of hearing.

In the matter of the Ulbricht minors, Judge Humphreys has made an order to show cause why the guardian should not be allowed to sell real estate, the hearing to take place on Monday, October 1.

On the petition of Milla Perry, of Waianae, widow of the late John Umi, Judge Humphreys has appointed Christopher J. Holt as administrator, under $60 bonds.

Mary Ann Lee has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Mrs. Amalia Joy under $750 bonds.

John Ena has filed his bond in $2,500, with J. L. McLean, surety, as the guardian of Carl Julius Hoting, a minor now living in Geary street.

ZERBE BRINGS SUIT.

H. Zerbe, late head clerk of the Honolulu Tobacco Co., has brought suit against that corporation for the sum of $800. Plaintiff claims that, on May 11, 1900, he made a contract with the Honolulu Tobacco Co. to serve as bookkeeper and clerk for one year, or until May 11, 1901, at a salary of $100 per month. He claims further that he is entitled to the salary for the remaining eight months. Davis & Gear for plaintiff.

Prince Too Young.

It is reported on good authority that, during a recent interview between Queen Liliuokalani and Prince David Kawanakoa on the subject of the latter's running for delegate to Washington on the Democratic ticket, the Queen addressed her nephew as follows: "I would advise you not to make the attempt. You are too young."

Kalaupapa Heard From.

C. B. Reynolds, who returned from the settlement at Kalaupapa yesterday afternoon reports that 315 voters have been registered at that place. This is a very good showing for the settlement.

Alsen Portland Cement
The strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength, than any other brand. It is therefore the most economical.
ALSEN has NO EQUAL IN COLOR, FINENESS AND SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. IT WEIGHS LESS PER BUSHEL, (measuring about 100 PER CENT. MORE CEMENT TO A BARREL than other brands, which very materially REDUCES its cost as compared with other cements) it is therefore an ECONOMIC cement to use and SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR FINE CONCRETE WORK.

McKinley's Acceptance A Forceful Document

Silver Issue Cannot be Shadowed by Imperialism Bugbear—Philippines Will Not be Turned Over to Murderers of Americans—Trust Combinations Should be Checked.

Washington, Sept. 9. — William McKinley's letter accepting the republican nomination for the presidency, which was made public tonight, will be the political text book of the republicans in the present campaign. Placing the monetary issue first, the president shows that the financial and industrial interests of the United States would be as much endangered by the election of Bryan this year as they would have been had he been elected in 1896. Mr. McKinley reviews with satisfaction the record of the republican party during the last four years and then takes up the issue of "imperialism," which the democrats have declared to be paramount. His answer to the demagogue charges is a review of the action of the administration and congress regarding Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines, concluding with the declaration:
"The American question is between duty and desertion. The American verdict will be for duty and against desertion—for the republic against both anarchy and imperialism."
Following is the substance of the letter:
Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., September 8.
To the Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, Chairman of Notification Committee—
My Dear Sir: The nomination of the republican national convention of June 19, 1900, for the office of president of the United States which as the official representatives of the convention you have conveyed to me, is accepted. I have carefully examined the platform adopted and give to it my hearty approval. Upon the great issue of the last national election it is clear. It upholds the gold standard and indorses the legislation of the present congress by which that standard has been officially strengthened. The stability of our national currency is therefore secure so long as those who adhere to the platform are kept in control of the government. Our antagonists, however, are not satisfied.
They compel us to a second battle upon the same lines on which the first was fought and won. While regretting the reopening of this question, which can only disturb the present satisfactory financial condition of the government and visit uncertainty upon our great business enterprise, we accept the issue and again invite the sound money forces to join in winning another, and, we hope, a permanent triumph for an honest financial system, which will continue inviolable in the public faith.
Our industrial and agricultural conditions are more promising than they have been for many years; probably more so than they have ever been. Prosperity abounds everywhere throughout the republic.
Unless something unforeseen occurs to reduce our revenues or increase our expenditures, the congress at its next session should reduce taxation very materially.
In the unfortunate contest between Great Britain and the Boer states of South Africa the United States has maintained an attitude of neutrality in accordance with its well known traditional policy.
A subject of immediate importance to our country is the completion of a great waterway of commerce between the Atlantic and Pacific. The construction of a maritime canal is now more than ever indispensable to that intimate and ready communication between our eastern and western seaports demanded by the annexation of the Hawaiian islands and the expansion of our influence and trade in the Pacific. Our national policy more imperatively than ever calls for its completion and control by this government, and it is believed that the next session of congress, after receiving the full report of the commission appointed under the act approved March 3, 1899, will make provisions for the sure accomplishment of this great work.
Combinations of capital which control the market in commodities necessary to the general use of the people by suppressing natural and ordinary competition thus enhancing prices to the general consumer, are obnoxious to the common law and the public welfare. They are dangerous conspiracies against the public good and should be made the subject for prohibitory or penal legislation.
The past three years have been more satisfactory to American workmen than many preceding years. Any changes of the present industrial or financial policy of the government would be disastrous to their highest interests. With prosperity at home and an increasing foreign market for American products employment should continue to wait upon labor, and, with the present gold standard, the workman is secured against payments for his labor in a depreciated currency.
We have been in possession of Cuba since January 1, 1900. We have restored order and established domestic tranquility. We have fed the starving, clothed the naked and ministered to the sick. We have improved the sanitary condition of the island. We have stimulated industry, introduced public education and taken a full and comprehensive enumeration of the inhabitants. Our military establishment has been reduced from 43,000 soldiers to less than 6,000. An election has been ordered to be held on the 15th of September under a fair election law already tried in the municipal elections to choose members of a constitutional convention, and the convention by the same order is to assemble on the first Monday of November to frame a constitution upon which an independent government for the island will rest. All this is a long step in the fulfillment of our sacred guarantees to the people of Cuba.
We hold Porto Rico by the same title as the Philippines. The treaty of peace which ceded us the one conveyed to us the other. Congress has given to this island a government in which the inhabitants participate, elect their own legislature, enact their own local laws, provide their own system of taxation and in these respects have the same power and privileges enjoyed by other territories belonging to the United States and a much larger measure of self-government than was given to the inhabitants of Louisiana under Jefferson. A district court of the United States for Porto Rico has been established and local courts have been inaugurated, all of which are in operation.
For the sake of full and intelligent understanding of the Philippine question and to give to the public authentic information of the acts and aims of the administration, I present at some length the events of importance leading up to the present situation. The purposes of the executive are best revealed and can best be judged by what he has done and is doing.
In order to facilitate the most humane, pacific and effective extension of authority throughout these islands I appointed in January, 1899, a commission consisting of the Hon. Jacob Gould Schurman of New York, Admiral Dewey, U. S. N.; Charles Denby of Indiana, Professor Dean C. Worcester of Michigan and Major General Elwell E. Otis, U. S. A.
After the most thorough study of the peoples of the archipelago the commission reported among other things:
"Their lack of education and political experience, combined with their racial and linguistic diversities, disqualify them in spite of their mental gifts and domestic virtues to undertake the governing of the archipelago at the present time. Should our power by any fatality be withdrawn, the commission believes that the government of the Philippines would speedily lapse into anarchy, which would excuse if it did not necessitate the intervention of other powers and the eventual division of the islands among them. Only through American occupation, therefore, is the idea of a free, self-governing and united Philippine commonwealth at all conceivable."
In March, 1900, I appointed the following civil commission: The Hon. William Taft of Ohio, Professor Dean C. Worcester of Michigan, Hon. Luke I. Wright of Tennessee, Henry C. Ide of Vermont and Hon. Bernard Moses of California.
This commission, under date of August 21, 1900, makes an interesting report, from which I quote the following extracts:
"Hostility against Americans originally aroused by absurd falsehoods of unscrupulous leaders. The distribution of troops in 300 posts has by contact largely dispelled hostilities and steadily improved the temper of the people. Nearly all of the prominent generals and politicians of the insurrection except Aguinaldo have since been captured or have surrendered and taken the oath of allegiance."
They report that there are "calls from all parts of the island for public schools, school supplies and English teachers, greater than the commission can provide, until a comprehensive school system is organized. Night schools for teaching English to adults are being established in response to popular demand. Native children show aptitude in learning English. Spanish is spoken by a small fraction of people and in a few years the medium of communication in the courts, public offices and between tribes will be English. Creation of central government within eighteen months, under which substantially all rights described in the bill of rights in the federal constitution are to be secured to the people of the Philippines, will bring to them contentment, prosperity, education and political enlightenment."
This shows to my countrymen what has been and what is being done "to bring the benefits of liberty and good government to these wards of the nation."
And was it not our duty to protect the lives and property of those who came within our control by the fortunes of war? Could we have come away at any time between May 1, 1898, and the conclusion of peace without a stain upon our good name? Could we have come away without dishonor at any time after the ratification of the peace treaty by the senate of the United States?
It is our purpose to establish in the Philippines a government suitable to the wants and conditions of the inhabitants and to prepare them for self-government and to give them self-government when they are ready for it, and as rapidly as they are ready for it. That I am aiming to do under my constitutional authority and will continue to do until congress shall determine the political status of the inhabitants of the archipelago.
Would our opponents surrender to the insurgents, abandon our sovereignty or cede it to them?
The effect of a belief in the minds of the insurgents that this will be done has already prolonged their rebellion and increases the necessity for the continuance of a large army, is now delaying the establishment of peace and civil government in the islands and has influenced many of the insurgents against accepting the liberal terms of amnesty offered by General MacArthur under my direction. But for these false hopes a considerable reduction could have been had in our military establishment in the Philippines and realization of a stable government would be already at hand.
The American people will not make the murderers of our soldiers the agents of the republic to convey the blessings of liberty and order in the Philippines. They will not make them the builders of the new commonwealth. Such a course would be a betrayal of our sacred obligations to the peaceful Filipinos and would place at the mercy of dangerous adventurers the lives and property of the natives and foreigners.
No government can so certainly preserve the peace, restore the public order and establish law, justice and stable conditions as ours.
We will not give up our own to guarantee another sovereignty. Our title is good.
There were those who two years ago were rushing on us to war with Spain who are now unwilling to accept its clear consequences, as there are those among us who advocated the ratification of the treaty of peace, but now protest against its obligations. Nations which go to war must be prepared to accept its resultant obligations, and when they make treaties must keep them.
There is a strain of ill-concealed hypocrisy in the anxiety to extend the constitutional guarantee to the people of the Philippines while their nullification is openly advocated at home. Our opponents may distrust themselves, but they have no right to discredit the good faith and patriotism of the majority of the people who are opposed to them. They may fear the worst form of imperialism with the helpless Filipinos in their hands, but if they do, it is because they have parted with the spirit and faith of the fathers and have lost the virility of the founders of the party which they profess to represent.
If our opponents would only practice as well as preach the doctrines of Abraham Lincoln there would be no fear for the safety of our institutions at home or their rightful influence in any territory over which our flag floats.
Empire has been expelled from Porto Rico and the Philippines by American freemen. The flag of the republic now floats over these islands as an emblem of rightful sovereignty. Will the republic stay and dispense to their inhabitants the blessings of liberty, education and free institutions, or steal away, leaving them to anarchy or imperialism?
The American question is between duty and desertion—the American verdict will be for duty and against desertion; for the republic against both anarchy and imperialism.
The country has been fully advised of the purposes of the United States in China and they will be faithfully adhered to as already defined.
The nation faces the new century gratefully and hopefully, with increasing love of country, with firm faith in its free institutions, and with high resolve that they "shall not perish from the earth."
Very respectfully yours,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

REMOVE OUR LEGATION.
New York, Sept. 10. — A special to the Tribune from Washington says that unless Minister Conger, in reply to questions sent by cable to him nearly a week ago by direction of the president, gives better reasons than are now conceived here for his continuance at Peking he will be instructed to remove the American legation without delay to Shanghai. General Chaffee's troops will escort the minister and legation to Taku and Admiral Remy will take them on the Brooklyn to the Chinese metropolis, making that port the meeting place for his fleet. The main American military force will probably not remain on Chinese territory after October 1, and its withdrawal from Peking may be a matter of less than ten days.

FOR PRESIDENT,

WM. MCKINLEY.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

THEO. ROOSEVELT.

Independent party committees need to read up a little before again attempting to put Stewart and other Republican speakers up a tree.

The Republican party recognizes no close corporation rule or dictation. It is the party of the people in which the majority rule, and no bosses need apply.

The Chamber of Commerce's urgent request for improvement of the telephone system has not accomplished such a marked reform that anyone can notice it.

The Galveston horror serves as another important item in the fulfillment of the prediction that the close of the nineteenth century would be marked by death and disaster. War, pestilence and famine are all adding to the roll of the grim reaper.

From the description of the Hawaiian exhibit given by Mr. Berrey, it would appear that such indifferent attention has been paid Hawaii by the exposition authorities that the secretary doesn't feel proud to claim ownership of the affair. It was supposed, however, that the indifference would not become so apparent as to cause friends of Hawaii to turn from the exhibit with feelings of disgusted disappointment.

Already organs of the Democratic party and even Bryan himself are making use of the big strike of coal miners for political purposes. As the campaign progresses it will doubtless be well established that the strike with all the suffering it will entail is the direct result of Democratic manipulators who see in it a possibility of party success, well knowing that the families of the miners will gain no favors after the election of Democratic politicians.

As has been the contention of the Bulletin from the outset of party organization the Republican party will go into the fall campaign with a unity of purpose and hearty cooperation of all working forces that will assure success. The single object of the party is to defeat the political forces that, appealing to prejudice or personal jealousies seek to blind the people to the real issue that of electing men who as legislators will enact such laws as will assure the continued prosperity and stability of the Territory. Candidates will be put forward by the party whose personal integrity cannot be impeached and who have proved their constant watchfulness for the people's interests.

If there was any doubt about the Associated Press being "used" as a medium of factional politics in the Territory, the following contained in the latest despatches sent out from Honolulu serves to dispel the doubt:

Honolulu, Sept. 4.—The Republican party held its primaries September 1st to elect delegates to the convention that will nominate candidates for the Legislature and for a delegate to Congress. On this island about 1600 voters were polled, twice the whole number of registered voters at the last election under the Republic. The natives very largely appeared at the primaries and voted, though many of them were brought there by the novelty of the thing. Where there was anything but a personal issue at the primaries, it was a contest between the so-called "earnest patriots" or "machine element," the element that was led in a measure by Harold M. Sewall, and the so-called missionary element. The latter won at all but one or two precincts. On Maui the missionary element also won, but in Hilo the "earnest patriots" were victorious.

Urged to Keep Perce.

Shamokin, Pa., Sept. 15.—At a meeting of the executive board of district No. 9 at this place last night a proclamation was issued to the miners of Northumberland, Schuylkill, Columbia and Dauphin counties, advising them to remain at home next Monday, obey the law, avoid the use of intoxicating liquor and not to become involved in quarrels of any description. The clergy, business men and public at large, are asked to aid in the fight against the operators. The men were advised to be very careful when soliciting miners to refrain from work and also advised that no one shall be coerced.

AGUINALDO FORCED WAR.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The War Department has made public a report of Major General Otis giving details of the operations of the United States army in the Philippines from September 1, 1899, to May 5, 1900. The report covers the operations of the armies and commands of Generals Lawton, MacArthur, Wheaton, Schwan, James M. and J. F. Bell, Hughes, Bates and Young as well as different colonels, who had separate or independent commands during that time. Nearly all the facts contained in the report and all important matters were published during the campaign. Besides containing an account of the movements of the United States forces there is considerable space devoted to the policies of the insurgents, shown to a great extent in the publication of the captured correspondence and documents found in the possession of persons in sympathy with the insurgents.

General Otis says he desires to correct an "erroneous impression that the war with the insurgents was initiated by the United States." After explaining the conditions that existed at the breaking out of hostilities, he says: "War with the insurgents was forced upon us and was unavoidable." He asserts that this is shown in Filipino correspondence captured by the Americans, which he says, proves that the war was planned by Aguinaldo. He says another erroneous impression prevails that the Filipinos endeavored to stop hostilities after the first outbreak but were refused by the United States.

FRENCH SMASHER BOERS.

London, Sept. 15.—Lord Roberts reports to the War Office under date of Machedorp, September 14th, as follows:

"French occupied Barberton yesterday with the cavalry which he took across the mountain. He met slight opposition, the enemy being completely surprised, twenty-three officers and fifty-nine men who were prisoners, were released and forty-three locomotives and other rolling stock were captured. The former will relieve us of a great difficulty, as we had to put up with a few rickety engines. "French reports that he has sufficient supplies for three weeks for his force and for a week for his horses. One hundred Boers with many Mauser rifles and a quantity of ammunition were captured. There are large quantities of cattle and sheep in the country which is good news.

"French intercepted large convoys, showing that Barberton was used as a depot of supplies for the Boers in the south and southeast. The bulk of French's force is still thirty-five miles behind the cavalry owing to the difficulty of getting the wagons over the pass leading to Barberton."

STRIKE AND COAL SUPPLY.

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—Now that the coal market is face to face with a strike in the upper anthracite region, the answer to the question as to whether the miners in the Schuylkill district will strike sympathetically is anxiously awaited. Should the trouble not extend to the Schuylkill mines, no grave coal famine is to be feared, though the collieries there could fully meet the normal demand. Speaking of the stocks of coal on hand in the Reading Company's distributing depots, Vice President Henderson said that there are 100,000 at Port Richmond. The very heaviest shipments from that port have never exceeded that amount in a single month. While there was no change in the circular prices for coal at wholesale at the mines yesterday, the indications were strong that an increase is to be expected in the next few days. While orders for delivery in the next few days were taken at the regular prices in this city, some dealers took advantage of the brisk demand and obtained as high as 50 cents a ton advance on coal for immediate delivery. At the Reading offices it was stated that they are accepting orders at the circular price, and that no advance has as yet been asked.

MAINE'S BIG MAJORITY.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 10.—J. H. Manley, chairman of the Republican State Committee, sent the following dispatch to M. A. Hanna tonight: "Maine stands by the splendid administration of William McKinley. The voters of the Pine Tree State have given today the largest Republican majority ever given in the history of the State to any party, with the single exception of four years ago, when our opponents were completely paralyzed and threw the smallest vote they ever cast in a Presidential year since 1850. The Republicans, against a determined and united Democracy, have carried every county save one in the State, electing more than 150 out of 181 members of the Legislature, which will return to the United States Senate William P. Frye. We have elected our delegates to Congress by majorities ranging from 7000 to 10,000. We have carried the State by 31,000 majority out of a total vote of 115,000."

LOSS OF SHIP MAY FLINT

San Francisco, Sept. 8. — The American ship May Flint, Captain Woodside, collided with the battle ship Iowa tonight in the bay off the mail dock and sank.

The Flint was coming in under full steam when she struck the Iowa. The current rendered the Flint unmanageable. Captain Woodside, her commander, realized his vessel was doomed and ordered all hands to take to the boats.

From the Iowa the vessel drifted sidewise with the tide, and the crew practically tried to save their few effects and launch the boats. A few minutes later and before any assistance could be rendered she had drifted beam on upon the bark Vidette, laden with lumber and anchored off the Pacific Mail dock.

The May Flint arrived from Seattle about 7 o'clock tonight with 5,000 tons of coal consigned to R. B. Cornwall. The Vidette, with which she collided, also arrived from the north today with lumber. The May Flint was a former-torpedo boat and was formerly the Persian Merchant.

It is probable that she may be raised if her back is not broken, in which event she will be blown up, that her cargo of 5,000 tons of coal may be saved. She rests at the bottom of the bay in eighteen fathoms of water, and in the very heart of the fair way for vessels which ply between San Francisco to the mole of the narrow gauge railroad on the other side of the bay.

Very commonly those who put their chests affectionately, while planning themselves as "conservatives" and the very elect in politics, are simply greedy politicians who want to hold all they have got and grasp for more.

Pure food laws that only provide inspection without a rigid enforcement of penalties against offenders, great and small, amount to nothing more than tantalizing the people with the information of how they are being poisoned, with the interrogation annexed.

"I knew a man in Australia," said a serious-looking veterinary surgeon, "who suffered from a frightful headache all the time. His father left him wealth and he went to Sydney, where he had the doctors make an examination of his skull. They found he had something attached to his brain and undertook an operation to remove the ulcer. After this operation the man turned out to be one of the smartest men in Sydney and amassed a fortune amounting to millions. He made a will in which he directed that his head should be dissected after death in behalf of medical science. When he died a post mortem examination was made, and it was found that the doctors thirty years before had removed the man's brains and left but the ulcer in their place."

Monitor Wyoming Formally Christened

San Francisco, Sept. 8. - The United States monitor Wyoming was successfully launched at high tide this morning from the ship yard of the Union Iron Works. Thousands of people lined the shore or crowded on excursion steamers and other craft, shouting themselves hoarse as the low hull of the new war vessel plunged into the bay.

The launching was managed by Superintendent Dickie of the Iron works, and everything worked without a hitch. Only persons with passes were allowed to enter the gate, but every foot of space around the huge cradle in which the Wyoming rested was occupied.

About the bow of the vessel a platform had been built for the guests of honor, including Governor Richards of Wyoming, Adjutant General Frank H. Stitzer, Colonel A. H. Panson and wife, Major Thomas Wilhelm, Captain P. Cover and Captain Patrick Sullivan, commanding his staff, and Miss Hattie Warren.

To Miss Warren, who is the daughter of United States Senator Warren, was assigned the duty of christening the latest addition to the American navy. This she did in regulation style, breaking the usual bottle of wine and exclaiming, "I name thee Wyoming," as the two supporting props were removed and the monitor started from the ways and slid slowly into the sea.

When the vessel's stem touched the water the spectators set up a mighty cheer, which was seconded in the din made by scores of steam whistles.

The coast defense monitor Wyoming is one of four similar vessels designed by Chief Naval Constructor Hiebhorn, with a view of securing the greatest results at the least expenditure of money. Her sister ships will be named the Arkansas, Connecticut and Florida.

The dimensions of the Wyoming are: Length on load water line, 225 feet; breadth, 50 feet; mean draft, 12 feet 6 inches; normal displacement, about 2,700 tons; total coal capacity, 200 tons.

The hull is of steel, not sheathed, with double bottom and close water-tight subdivisions. The protection of the hull against injury to the water line is afforded by means of a slide armor belt from 11 inches to 5 inches thickness, the depth being 5 feet.

The maximum thickness is abreast the engines and boilers; thence forward and aft it is reduced to a minimum thickness of 5 inches at the bow and stern. The barbettes for the big guns have 10-inch armor. The turret is of the Hiebhorn balance type. The slide plates of the turret armor are to be 9 inches thick. The main or protected deck is 11-2 inches thick. The conning tower is 7-1-2 inches thick.

The vessel will be driven by twin screws. The engines are to be of sufficient power to drive the vessel twelve knots an hour.

Berthing space is provided for the captain, six officers and a crew of 125. There will be one military mast, fitted with fighting and searchlight tops.

Two high-power 12-inch breech-loading rifles in the turret and four 4-inch rapid-fire breech-loading rifles, all to be used with smokeless powder, complete the main battery. The secondary battery will consist of three 6-pounder rapid-fire and four 1-pounder automatic rifles.

Li Hung Chang's Authority to Act

Washington, Sept. 11. - A cable dispatch from Earl Li Hung Chang has been received giving the text of an imperial edict, directing him to proceed at once to Peking and there co-operate with Prince Ching in the negotiations for peace. The edict is issued by the emperor and is dated August 27. Sir Robert Hart, director of imperial customs, is directed to secure facilities for the trip. The officials are also asked to afford Li Hung Chang protection and to facilitate his movement.

In accordance with this last instruction from the throne, Earl Li asks that a request be made for a government vessel on which he can make the trip from Shanghai and Minister Wu will probably ask that the United States designate a vessel to carry the Chinese statesman.

The edict was delivered by Minister Wu to Acting Secretary Hill this morning. The text will not be made public until the reply of the United States is determined upon. If the United States decided to comply with Li Hung Chang's request, there are now available for this purpose the gunboats Nashville and Princeton and the battleship Oregon. The two former vessels are at Shanghai and the battleship is at Woo Sung, the man-of-war anchoring just below Shanghai. The cruiser New Orleans was at Woo Sung until yesterday, when she sailed for Shanghai. She could have been employed for this service to great advantage owing to her high speed capacity. It is presumed that Earl Li has asked for a United States vessel because of rumors that the allied commanders at Taka had decided to take him into custody upon his arrival there. Earl Li has had information that Admiral Remy had dissented from such an agreement.

There are undoubtedly Chinese warships in the neighborhood of Shanghai that could take him to Pien-tsin, but he is afraid if he boards one of them he will be interrupted by some foreign power.

Roderick Dhu's Flag.

San Francisco, Sept. 9. - Not discouraged by his inability to remain in port and participate in the festivities last night, Captain Johnson of the bark Roderick Dhu had the vessel again decorated as she sailed for Hilo yesterday. The chief feature was a sixty-foot American flag, which streamed from the peak, the wind being strong enough to carry the folds out over the water and make a pretty sight. The Roderick Dhu carried a full cargo of freight and several passengers.
