McKINLEY TO BECKLEY

PRESIDENT'S ADVICE TO THE HOME RULERS.

Make Appropriations Sensibly and Don't Hamper the Government—The President Will Visit Hawaii Soon.

President McKinley's reply to Representative Beckley appears to have been in substance, that he had better go home and attend to business. Beckley read no letter from the executive this morning in the House but made a verbal report, in which he told what the President had said to him. The gist of the Chief executive's advice was that the Home Rulers should do the best work possible for the public, in the matter of legislation, make friends with the executive department here, forget past political rows and spites and leave the settlement of present troubles to a future time when public business was not pressing.

When granted the floor by Speaker Aldrich this morning, Beckley spoke in part as follows:

"While in San Francisco I had several talks with the President, and the members of his Cabinet. Unfortunately the illness of Mrs. McKinley prevented the President from meeting those who had important business to bring before him. I can say, however, that he listened to what your committee had to say with the closest attention and told us that he would before the expiration of his term, within a year perhaps visit these islands, and examine into existing difficulties. Through me the head of the nation sends to the people of these islands a hearty aloha. The members of the Cabinet also treated the committee with every courtesy. Among the other things, they declared themselves to be against the holding of large land grants in Hawaii by a few capitalists and expressed themselves to be in favor of small land holdings.

"The President told me to tell you to do everything for the advancement of the territory. Do not let petty spite stand in the way of making laws that will benefit all alike who live in the Hawaiian islands, he said.

"The past is past," said President McKinley. "Appropriations must be made from a common sense standpoint. In no way hamper the government. The people are the people, and the government should be for the people."

Condensed, the three points sent by President McKinley in his message to the Legislature were as follows: "First, that the Legislature should at once re-establish friendly relations between itself and the executive and that both should work together for the interest of the whole people.

Second, that great care should be exercised in dealing with the appropriation bill, as it was necessary to the country that ample funds be provided for government expenses and public improvements.

Third, that he would consider the anti-Dole resolution after the Legislature has adjourned.

During his remarks Beckley advised that the appropriation bill be rushed through and adjournment be taken as soon as possible. His impression seemed to be that the best thing to do now was quit bickering, get down to business finish up and everybody leave for home.

The delegate referred also to meetings with Secretary Wilson and an expression by that official of the deepest interest in agriculture of the islands. Wilson desired that the legislature make ample provision for the encouragement of agriculture and the improvement of roads to districts capable of being tilled. Beckley said that the President stated that Secretary Cooper had had no right to sit on the floor of the House.

The Home Rulers in the lobby applauded quite vigorously when Beckley finished.

HAWAII IS ON THE OUTSIDE

ONLY A "POSSESSION" OF THE UNITED STATES.

Territories Not Necessarily Under the American Constitution Says the National Supreme Court.

The transport Lawton on Sunday brought news of a forthcoming decision by the United States Supreme Court to the effect that the constitution does not follow the flag. It is stated by some attorneys that under this decision it is possible for the American Congress to impose tariffs between an American territory and a state, and under this idea there is no legal obstacle in the way of tariffs between Hawaii and the mainland, small as the prospect of such tariffs is. The decision is of far reaching effect on the standing of territories. The following dispatch tells as much of the decision as has become public:

CHICAGO, May 24.—A special to the Record-Herald from Washington says: "The decision of the Supreme Court is that the Constitution does not follow the flag.

"This decision, the most important that great tribunal has ever made, will be handed down next Monday. The decision is in favor of the Government, but by a divided bench. There will be at least five individual opinions, but some of these are concurring opinions, expressing the views of the writers more fully and particularly than is done in the opinion of the majority.

"The Court goes back to the period in which the Republic was formed and the Constitution framed, and endeavors to ascertain what was the intent of the founders of the Nation.

"The opinion of the majority of the Court disposes of the uniform taxation clause of the Constitution as follows:

"The framers of the Constitution, in writing that clause, had no thought of its application to territorial possessions. No such question as is now presented had arisen in their minds."

"The clause, 'all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States,' the courts holds, was placed in the Constitution as a result of the jealousies of the States which united in forming the Nation. It was intended to prevent any State or combination of States securing advantage over another or others, to prevent the ports of one State gaining preference over those of another in the importation of goods.

"This rule of uniformity was made primarily for the States united, the States, not for territories then possessed or afterward acquired, and the Constitutional requirement is satisfied as long as all duties on imports are uniformly imposed at all the ports throughout the United States. The advantage of this uniformity must be extended to territories and possessions not States and not members of the American Union, but that is for Congress to determine under the authority of the Constitution."

KAUAI WORK.

WAIMEA, Kauai, May 25.—Major Wood head of the Salvation Army of the Hawaiian Islands has been visiting this island. He is at present staying here and will leave on Monday for Honolulu. Major Wood expresses himself as much pleased with the progress made by the Army on this island.

GOOD NEWS.

The ladies of Honolulu need have no further trouble as to the dressing of their children. Hitherto, if anything nice or fine was wanted, one had to send away for it; now that is all changed. M. Brasch & Co., of the Lace House, on Hotel street, are now in a position to manufacture all kinds of white dresses for the little ones. An experienced lady from the States has been engaged by them and ladies can have dresses made to order for their children in any style they wish. Although this is the first announcement quite a number of orders have been taken already. M. Brasch & Co. are in a position to make fine hand-sewn dresses also.

THE MILITARY IS ROASTED

NO APPROPRIATION, SAYS HOUSE COMMITTEE.

Soldiers Have Cost Too Much and the Entire Appropriation Should be Turned Down.

The House committee on Military affairs filed its report this morning. In a lengthy document, covering twenty or twenty-five pages, the existing condition of military affairs was roasted by the committee from one end of the document to the other. "Economy and retrenchment" in the words of the report, had been the watchword of the Representatives who had been put at work on this branch of the government expenditures.

The governor's estimate of $45,380 for military was considered too much, in the face of the present condition of things. The report stated that the people of Hawaii are paying too dearly for their military. The period of the Republic, was referred to as a period of "Voicic Brutus," when "personal rights were repressed and subverted, in which two-thirds of the members were made practically parole prisoners," and forced to submit to taxation without representation. In view of this report, it was proposed to have nothing to do with that part of the expenditures which had to do with the Republic, unconstitutionally known in the report as "Exhibit One."

The report declared that to acknowledge Exhibit No. 3 which calls for the payment of interest would be a moral wrong. This, with the $965.20 paid for uniforms the committee designated by the suggestive, but rather indefinite term of "him flam."

All branches of the military service were touched upon, and as regularly criticised for the extravagance exhibited by the expenditures in different parts of the service.

The fact that the United States government had soldiers at Fort McKinley was mentioned. These the committee said, could be used in case of uprising, or trouble of any kind.

The committee concurred with the scriptural injunction that Hawaii beat her swords into plow shares, and her spears into pruning hooks and let the military appropriation lapse altogether.

Emmeluth called attention to the fact that the government was being represented before the Fire Commission by an outside attorney. Emmeluth called this an "indiscreet act." The Attorney-General's office, he said, was being used as a cat's paw by the designing politicians of the different governmental departments who wish to do their lawyer friends a good turn. He offered the following:

Resolved, That the clerk of this House direct inquiry to the Attorney-General requesting information as to why either he or one of his assistants cannot represent the government before the Fire Claims Commission, also as to the evidence collected by the government in either the same is available for use before the court.

After the unanimous adoption of the resolution Emmeluth moved that Beckley had returned, Mosman be allowed to review the report of the Health committee of Saturday, if the Attorney-General moved that a committee be made chairman of that committee permanently, and the return of a gentleman from Maui made no difference whatever.

Dickey moved that the report of the Committee on Public Health be re-read. Mosman objected to reading the report again. Beckley moved that the matter of reading the report of the Committee on Public Health be postponed until tomorrow morning. The motion was carried.

The appropriation bill bobbed up suddenly at this time. Prendergast, out of respect to Beckley, moved that the appropriation bill be reconsidered from the beginning. Beckley when called upon, said that he would like to have his fellow Representatives sweep him that courtesy.

The Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements, asked that they be allowed to report. As the hour of noon had arrived, recess was taken until 2 o'clock.

CONGRESSMAN BOUTELLE DEAD. BOSTON, May 21.—Former Congressman Charles A. Boutelle, of Bangor, Me., died today at the Madras, Astoria, Waverly, where he had been confined for a year with brain trouble. Death was due primarily to pneumonia which developed last Sunday. Mr. Boutelle's head of the household since her mother's death in 1882, was at the bedside today.

TOM FITCH WANTED.

It has been suggested that Attorney Thomas Fitch, whose reputation as an orator is national, be invited to come from Honolulu and deliver the Fourth of July oration. If the committee can persuade the orator to make the journey there is no doubt his presence will add to the attractiveness of the program.—Hawaii Herald.

NEGROES LEAVE MAUI

QUIT WORK ON SPRECKELSVILLE PLANTATION.

Say That The Japs Persecuted Them Until They Determined to Leave For Honolulu.

Evidently there is a great deal of bad feeling between the negroes and Japanese on the Spreckelsville Plantation. No less than 32 negroes arrived here on the Kinau Saturday because of disagreeable conditions which had arisen on the Maui plantation. The crowd came originally from Alabama and were brought here some several months ago by the City of Peking. While waiting in Honolulu for one of the island steamers to take them over to Maui a colored preacher who had accompanied the crowd tried to elope with one of the young women. They were finally located and made to go with the crowd.

For a time the crowd seemed to fare very well on Maui. They proved good field workers but apparently some of them could not control their evil desires, for one night one of the crowd waylaid a Japanese and attempted to rear a time fling the black man had reekoned without his host, however, and instead of the Jap crying and surrendering his cash, the little brown man proved to be a doughty wrestler, and within half a minute was astride the highwayman's neck. After giving the negro a good drubbing the Jap permitted him to depart.

This seemed to arouse the enmity of the Japs and they never lost an opportunity, so it was said, of showing their resentment toward the colored people. The Japs also learned of the negro weakness, for soon stories began to reach the manager that the negroes were committing depredations on hen roosts and various articles.

The Japs tried to make it appear that the negroes were doing the stealing. Manager Lowrie it is said singled out two of the negroes whom he told he would not employ them any longer. He was willing to allow the rest to work.

The negroes discussed the matter but inasmuch as the Japanese seemed to entertain such resentment against them that their further career would not be pleasant, the crowd decided to leave the plantation.

In speaking of the matter the negroes claimed that the pilfering was not done by them. They asserted that if any stealing was done the Porto Ricans were guilty and not they. The crowd did not express any resentment over their treatment at the hands of Manager Lowrie, as he had told all but two that they could work, provided they were willing to take the consequences. Evidently the crowd did not care to run the risk of trouble with the Japs for they determined to come to Honolulu.

This version of the occurrence was given by the negroes after they reached port. Evidently there is something else behind the affair, which they did not make clear. They all said that they had no complaint to make about the wages or the work.

IN FAVOR OF EXHIBIT

APPROPRIATION FOR SHOW AT CHARLESTON.

The Senate Receives Some Committee Reports and Gets Through a Little Work.

Quite a number of reports, most of them on routine matters, were read in the Senate this morning. The first of importance was the report of the Education Committee in favor of an appropriation of $1,000 for sending the Buffalo exhibition to Charleston in November.

Senator Baldwin moved to adopt the report and was seconded by Crabbe, Russell, Kalaauokalani, John T. Brown and others supported the motion. The report was adopted.

Cecil Brown, for the Judiciary Committee, reported on the message of Acting Governor Cooper regarding a public loan. The committee believed that the authority to borrow, if not actually repealed by the Organic Act was certainly so by implication. It was recommended that an item of $799,000 be inserted in the Appropriation bill, which would legalize a loan for that amount. The report will be translated printed and considered.

Mr. Baldwin made the following report: "Item 513 which reads 'One Half Expenses and Freight, Entomologist, $1,000' is the same as the item in the last Appropriation Bill entitled 'Incidentals and Traveling Expenses Entomologist, $1,000'."

"All the other items referred to your committee, except item No. 520, are items which have been heretofore in the Appropriation Bill lumped under the heading of 'Forests and Nurseries, General.' Your committee consider it preferable to have everything under this general appropriation itemized, as has been done in the present bill.

"Item No. 520, Competitive Exhibitions of Fruit, Vegetables, plants, etc., $1,000. The plan is to get up a public exhibition here of fruits, vegetables and plants of the country, and we recommend the passage of the same and also all the items referred to your committee. The sum total asked for is less than was asked for under the last appropriation."

"It is the plan of the commissioner of Forestry to extend tree culture in Nuuanu Valley, a plan that your committee hardly approve of."

WHY FRANK LOPS THRASHED BEN HAAHEO.

The Latter Invaded Lops' Premises and Tried to Get Mrs. Lops to Dance the Hula.

Frank Lops a Portuguese received a heavy fine this morning in Judge Wilcox's court for assault and battery upon Ben Haaheo, a native. It appears that Lops sought to avenge an insult which the native offered to Mrs. Lops. The court did not approve of the manner in which the chastisement was attempted and, after giving Lops a lecture, fined him.

According to the testimony the sister of Haaheo was having an entertainment at her house at Kalaiki. Mrs. Lops resides next door and when she went out into her yard she saw Haaheo dancing the hula kui on the lanai. As soon as he espied the woman he offered her a drink which she refused. He then jumped over the fence into her yard and proceeded to dance the hula, asking the woman to join in. She became frightened and started to cry. Her tears metaphorically washed Haaheo out of the yard, as he soon retired.

When her husband came home she told him of the conduct of Haaheo. Lops then went over to Haaheo's house and invited him to come to a luau at the Lops residence and enjoy a drink. Shortly after Haaheo and Lops started away the latter gave the native a thrashing by knocking him down and kicking him. The court said that he did not approve of this way of settling the trouble. He told Lops that a warrant should have been secured. Had Lops been present when Haaheo jumped into the yard and danced and then whipped Haaheo, the court would have patted him on the back and said "good fellow" but such extenuating circumstances were not evident in the method Lops had taken to thrash the invader of his wife.

Mrs. Lops was called to the stand and, after being asked if she could identify Haaheo, was told to look about the court room and determine if he were there. She sat up and eyed everybody within range of vision. There was a breathless suspense for an instant but it soon became evident that she did not see the man. However the court told her to walk down the room. Then she espied Haaheo and immediately said he had been shut off from her view by an intervening hat which was hanging on a post. The court fined the defendant however, Lops was unable to produce the cash and had to sit in the docket with the other prisoners.

Another Large Shipment of Angle Lamps

"THE ANGLE LAMP"

The Light that Never Falls

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the Islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people) but besides being infinitely cheaper it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.80 up.

Overwork

and Worry bring on Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, and an endless train of Painful Disorders.

Dr. Miles' Nervine.

When the nerves and organs of the body are well and strong, and the worn-out tissues and waste products are quickly removed from the system, a tremendous amount of hard work can be done without serious injury. It is when the nerve tissues and brain cells are used up faster than they are replaced by new ones, when the fires of life consume faster than the fuel can be furnished, that brain, nerves and vital organs suffer—cry out with neuralgia, heart disease, rheumatism, nervous dyspepsia—and finally break down. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is food for the worn-out brain and wasted tissues. It gives a healthy appetite; makes the weak stomach strong; increases the flow of digestive juices and puts the lazy liver to work. It is the greatest blood vitalizer and nerve remedy science has produced.

"I was suffering from sleeplessness and painful nervous sensations, brought on from overwork and anxiety; and although I tried a number of different remedies for this disorder, I obtained little or no benefit from any of them. In fact some of the advertised remedies seemed to increase rather than diminish the difficulty, until one day I determined to give Dr. Miles' Nervine a trial. The first few doses convinced me that I had found a specific for my trouble and I continued its use with the most satisfactory results. It seemed to feed the nervous system, afford restful sleep without any of the after effects of an opiate or any artificial stimulant and can be discontinued at will. I deem it the best remedy for nervous people now on the market."

CHIEF J. H. HUNT IS DEAD

BAND COMES IN HOSPITAL AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Deceased Organized Present Fire Department—In Honolulu Twenty Years—Funeral at 3 o'clock Today.

Chief James H. Hunt, of the fire department, died at the Queen's hospital last night after an illness of more than a month. The funeral will take place from the Masonic Temple, under the auspices of Hawaiian Lodge, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Deceased was born at Waltham, Mass., where his mother and a sister are still living, forty-eight years ago. About twenty years ago he arrived in Honolulu and went to work first for the late James Dodd. As soon as the offices in the fire department were made salaried, Hunt accepted the position of sub-chief, which he held until promoted in 1894 to be chief.

In his term of service, although short, Chief Hunt practically created the fire department. Starting out with merely the facilities of the old volunteer firemen, Hunt added new engines, new wagons, new hose, etc., to the list of appliances until the recreated department was able to cope with almost any conflagration. All of the present fire houses, including the big central station at the corner of Fort and Beretania streets, were constructed during Mr. Hunt's incumbency as chief.

Deceased leaves a wife in Honolulu. The fire commissioners have decided to allow as many firemen as can be spared to attend the funeral this afternoon. Acting Chief Charles H. Thurston will be appointed chief to succeed Mr. Hunt's incumbency as chief. The department about six years and has a reputation for being alert and vigorous in dealing with fires.

LUTHERAN CHURCH OPENED.

Impressive and Interesting Services are Held.

The first German Lutheran Church of Honolulu was dedicated with fitting ceremonies yesterday morning. Shortly before 10 o'clock, about five hundred people, friends and the members of the church, assembled in the rear of the church building. Promptly at 9 o'clock, a procession was formed, and headed by the Rev. Hans Isenber and the Rev. W. Polmy, advanced to the front of the church, where the Rev. Isenber in a short speech in German, delivered the keys of the building to the new pastor. After the doors were unlocked, the waiting listeners were bidden hearty welcome in the name of the church.

The services which followed were in the German language. Professor Berger of the Government band, sat at the organ.

Among the invited guests who occupied seats of honor on the rostrum were Rev. W. M. Kincaid, of Central Union Church; Rev. A. E. Corv, of the Lutheran Church; Mr. E. Gibson of Kawaiahae Church; Rev. Mr. Kitcat, of the Anglican Second Congregational Church, and Mr. S. M. Damon.

The greater portion of the service was conducted in the German tongue, the native language of the majority of the parishioners. The service of yesterday occupied almost two hours.

Porto Ricans Receive Favorable Reports from Hawaii.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, May 21.—Nine hundred emigrants embarked on the steamer California at Guánica for Hawaii today, leaving 400 more ready to sail. Joyous manifestation accompanied the departure of the emigrants. Fourteen weddings and forty-eight baptisms took place Sunday. The emigration agents are spending, it is estimated, about $10,000 in recruiting and maintaining the emigrants. Favorable reports from Hawaii have caused a continuation of the migration.

HIS LIFE SAVED.

By Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I am sure that Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at one time saved my life," says A. E. Laflette of Gregory Landing Clark county, that the doctors said I could not live, that the doctors said I could not live. When I was at the lowest ebb, one of my neighbors brought in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and I took it and got instant relief. I soon got up and around. That was nine years ago and I am still in good health. Since then that medicine has always been in my house and always will be. It is the best in earth. COMING RACES.

The first boating events of the year are close at hand, and interest is being developed as to the rival crews. Practice which has been going on for some weeks upon the waters of the harbor, will be transferred to Pearl Lochs very shortly, and the several crews be wound up for the final contest.

The crews of city have advantages and disadvantages over crews elsewhere. In the East and in England the training and even some of the races take place when the season is still inclement and waters feel icy. Many of the preliminary races both at Harvard and Yale take place when the weather is terribly keen, the great race between Oxford and Cambridge has often been rowed through sleet and a cutting wind. Our oarsmen have nothing like this to contend with. The weather, save for an occasional rain squall, is always balmy and soft, and the only thing that there is to complain of is that it is too relaxing.

On the other hand our men are all workers. We have no leisured class in our community, young men who can take up a sport and devote several hours a day of it. Our oarsmen come from the stores and offices and have to be on hand promptly in the morning, spend the day in what is very frequently exhausting labor and then snatch an hour or two for their athletic practice. It shows energy and vigor when they are able to do this.

Most employers thoroughly understand the value of their young men going in for athletics of this character. It gives a zest to the young men's lives, and gives them something to think about, and more especially so as youth is the time of exuberance, and if it does not find an outlet in one direction it will in another. To give young men an incentive to try and excel in athletic sport may not be a very high ideal, though the ancient Greek thought it was the very highest ideal, and keeps him in paths of clean living. A man cannot be a drunkard and debauchee and a good athlete at one and the same time.

Boating, and in fact any regular form of athletic sport, was unknown on these Islands twenty-five or thirty years ago, with the exception of a scratch match at cricket or baseball when a man-of-war came in, but the officers and crews of men-of-war did not care for athletic sport in those days. The men used to come ashore and get systematically drunk, and the officers used to lounge round and flirt and dance at the primitive parties of the period. A great change has come over the personnel of naval vessels since then, as it has come over the young men of the city as well. Manners have improved, and morals have improved very much.

The boating organizations of this city have not only done much towards improving sport, and bringing up the style and method of rowing, but they have had a distinct social influence. The boat houses form a nice club where young men can gather, exchange ideas, and have a place of their own for leisure hours. The little parties and entertainments which are constantly being got up serve to bring into social intercourse the youth of both sexes, and crabbed are is often asked to look on. In this direction an incalculable amount of good is done, which white not, perhaps, apparent to the casual observer, is very plain to any one who has made a study of social relations under the peculiar circumstances in which settlers here have been placed.

It is a pity that the other Islands do not develop in this direction and give an opportunity for inter-island contests. We have had inter-island baseball occasionally, though not yet as a permanent event of a season. We have had an inter-island polo match, and hope to have many more. But we have had an inter-island polo match, and because there are no boating clubs upon the other Islands. However it is difficult to see where boating clubs could flourish outside of Oahu. There is no calm stretch of water on Hawaii, where shells can be used, and there certainly is not on Maui. On Kauai there might be some chance on either the Hanalei or Hanapepe rivers, but it would be hard to concentrate the boating population. However in yachting there might be a good deal done, but that can furnish material for further thought.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

It is absolutely no use criticising the Legislature. It has risen to a height which it is impossible to follow. When one of the leading Independent members, a man who has devoted time, talents and money to the cause, could say the other day "I wish there were a Cromwell here who would march in and dissolve us," it does seem as if the whole body was very much out of hand.

The exhibition which Representative Mossman made of himself when discussing—but one cannot say discussing, because remarks such as his were not in the nature of discussion—when babbling of post mortem examinations, was certainly a most extraordinary one. The remarks were so utterly stupid, so lacking in common sense, and displayed such a depth of both ignorance and prejudice, that it is a wonder even such an audience had the patience to listen him. And then one has to remember that Representative Mossman is chairman of the Committee upon Public Health. It is certainly a pretty severe comment upon the personal of our committees. If Representative Mossman were on an astronomical committee he would no doubt argue and prove that the sun went round the earth, or that the earth is flat, and if you walk to the edge you will fall over. Anything is possible to such a blank mind as this.

But there is one thing in Representative Mossman's remarks which should be investigated. He said the Sanitary Commissioners were guilty of "malfeasance in office." He stated that property holders for a fee were permitted to keep their places as dirty as they pleased. If this is so it is a matter for the Grand Jury to investigate, and Mr. Mossman should be called before that body and asked to tell what he knows about such transactions, and whether he has clear evidence or is going upon hearsay. If Representative Mossman's charge is true the men implicated should be punished to the utmost vigor of the law.

Now that Representative Beckley has returned the House will probably get a move on, and the sadly crippled wheels of government may be allowed to turn in the direction of progress instead of being buried in the slough of inanition.

Lewis and Turk, that delectable combination, seem likely to get into trouble with the Federal Court. The pitcher that goes to the well many times, gets broken at last. Lewis and Turk have been near to the fall a good many times, but have always managed to wriggle out.

The Consular reports say that Spain has become an exporter of soap. Returning travellers from the Peninsula say that the only reason Spain exports soap is that the inhabitants have no use for the article. They wish the Spaniards would keep their soap at home and wash, if it is only occasionally.

They have a dog pest in Tennessee and the Legislature has passed a law trying to cope with it, which is described as a "cheerful piece of tomfoolery." It does seem as if Legislatures cannot tackle the dog question without themselves becoming asses. The Montana Legislature made fools of themselves over this question, and our own did not cover itself with glory.

The set of negroes who went to Maui have built up for themselves a most unenviable reputation. They have managed to get a large percentage of their number into jail for various offences from attempted homicide to minor crimes and now another negro gentleman has been practicing as a highwayman, it is alleged. The negroes have not been a success.

The opening of a German Lutheran Church must be very satisfactory to the numerous Lutherans resident in Honolulu. There has been a Lutheran Church at Lihue, Kauai, for a number of years, and the Pastor, the Rev. Hans Isenberg, has occasionally visited Honolulu and held service in some public hall. There are quite enough Lutherans to form a good congregation in Honolulu, and it evidently is a source of satisfaction to other denominations that the Lutherans should have a place of worship of their own. Now the Presbyterians should organize and the city would be fully equipped.

The theory that opium is smuggled over the Canadian line and then forwarded from the sound both to this Territory and to San Francisco is quite plausible. It is a very hard thing to properly patrol the Canadian frontier and there must be many places through which the wily smuggler can slip. To ship from Seattle here is dead easy, since packages from any American ports are not examined by the customs authorities. No doubt the revenue officials will find a mean of stopping the trade on time, and then the price of dope will go up with a rush, though at present it is said the market is overstocked. But the advantage of dope is that it will keep.

Consul Saito evidently went systematically to work over the Japanese claims and has somewhere in the neighborhood of two thousand to present. It looks more and more as if the Fire Claim Commissioners would be swamped under the mass of material. Certainly no six months session will clear the work off. The probability now is that the final adjudication of the claims will go over to the next Legislature. But if any claims are actually passed upon by the commission they will become negotiable property and no doubt there will be considerable speculation for the poorer Chinese and Japanese will, in all probability, be willing to sell at very moderate rates for cash. This kind of thing has happened elsewhere and it is but natural that it should happen here.

Captain Berger, Hawaii's far famed bandmaster, completed twenty-nine years of service yesterday. The Captain Bandmaster has done faithful and loyal service to the state. Under his tuition many Hawaiians and part-Hawaiians have required musical skill, and been able to earn a good living. The present Legislature talks of doing away with the band, and Captain Berger's life long connection with the government may cease. All old residents will regret this very much, and no doubt a strong effort will be made to retain Captain Berger's services, but it will never be the same thing as it was. All honor to Captain Berger for the excellent and elevating work he has done for Hawaii during his long and honorable career.

By virtue of an Order issued out of the Circuit Court of the First Circuit, Hon. A. S. Humphreys, presiding, in a cause at Chambers entitled Alexander Malohe versus William Malohe, et al., Equity Division Number 1171, the undersigned will sell at Public Auction to the highest bidder, subject to confirmation by said Court,

ON MONDAY, JUNE 24, 1901,
AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON.

At the mauka entrance to the Judiciary Building in said Honolulu, to the following described lands, to-wit:

APANA 1 (OR LOT A, A. W. MAIOHO)
Bounded by Printer's Lane 51 feet on mauka side; by Rose K. Anahu 135 feet on Ewa side; by Hiram K. Anahu 55.5 feet on mauka side; and by a 9-foot Roadway 145.5 feet on Waikiki side Area 6929 square feet, more or less.
Less than one-half of this Apana will be condemned for a 50-foot street in order to extend Young Street Ewa-way or towards Hotel street, BUT WHAT REMAINS OF THE LOT MAUKA AND MAKAI will hereafter become enhanced in value on account of said proposed extension and also on account of their fronting on the new street. A RARE CHANCE FOR CAPITALISTS.

APANA 4 (OR LOT B, A. W. MAIOHO)
Bounded by Rose K. Anahu 58 feet on mauka side; by said 9-foot Roadway 136 feet on Ewa side; by Government and Bishop Estate about 80 feet on mauka side; and by Pahau Estate about 120 feet on Waikiki side. Area 8830 square feet, more or less.

This Apana 4, the outlet to which is Printer's Lane leading out to Punchbowl Street, could be subdivided into THREE EQUAL SQUARE LOTS, with an outlet to each facing Ewa-way out to said 9-foot Roadway; and the furthest mauka lot, when Apana 4 is subdivided, will still be within 300 feet of the proposed Young Street Extension, thus eventually doing away with the use of Printer's Lane as far as this Apana 4 is concerned. THIS IS A GOOD CHANCE FOR INVESTORS.

TERMS OF SALE are cash in United States Gold Coin, and deeds at expense of purchasers. For further particulars enquire of the undersigned at his office in said Judiciary Building.

THREE JAPS PARDONED.
Acting Governor H. E. Cooper has granted pardons to Ueda, Tanaguchi and Hushida, three Japanese who were sentenced for riot on the Kona Sugar Company's plantation last May. The Honolulu Protective League claimed that the men had not had a fair trial not being properly defended in Edling's court and it was as a result of the league's efforts that the pardons were obtained.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY AT SEA

CHINESE COOK KILLS MATE AND HIMSELF.

He Held the Crew at Bay for Hours Until They Turned Steam Into His Fortress.

Details of one of the most shocking tragedies of the sea, which has come to this port since the famous mutiny on the bark Hesper years ago, was brought yesterday by the four masted American schooner J. A. Campbell, Captain A. E. Smith, 30 days from Port Blakeley, with lumber. The vessel came into port minus her mate and cook. In the loss of these two men lies a story of murder and suicide.

The Campbell left Port Blakeley May 2 for this port. On the evening of May 8 First Mate Adam Lyman and the cook Ah Kee got into a quarrel of some character. The exact cause of the row was not learned by the crew. Ah Kee had accompanied the Campbell on previous trips and was regarded as a very peaceful man while Lyman was also given an excellent reputation for good nature by those on the vessel. In any event, the Chinese cook had incurred the displeasure of the mate, for Second Mate William Manning says that he heard the mate say something about doing up the cook and saw him start toward the galley. Manning followed the mate to see what the trouble would amount to. In order to reach the galley the mate had to descend from the top of the lumber which was piled up on the deck above the top of the deck. Evidently the Chinese took steps to protect himself, for after some angry words had been exchanged Lyman was seen to hurry out of the galley onto the deck. He was followed by the cook who fired a revolver once as the retreating man just before Lyman reached the top of the lumber. Lyman retreated past the mainmast. The cook fired a second time and evidently hit the mate for the latter dropped. Manning hurried to the assistance of the dying man and took him into the Captain's cabin where Mrs. Smith attended Huber. The mate had been shot about the heart and through the left lung and expired within a minute after being taken into the cabin.

Captain Smith and Manning hurried forward to try and capture Ah Kee. Evidently the Chinese feared violence if caught for he barricaded himself in the galley and refused to come out. It would have been futile to force an entrance as the only way the galley could be reached was through the narrow opening from the top of the lumber to the deck. All night the cook remained in his galley, sullen and determined not to be taken alive. As the hours wore on and the Chinese still refused to come out a fresh danger became apparent. The narrow opening through the narrow coal oil and oakum. It was feared that the desperate man, when he found himself at bay, would set fire to the ship. Water buckets were filled and placed close to the galley to fight the fire should it be started. The cook did not start the fire however and the vessel was saved from destruction.

About 3 a. m. of the 10th, the day following the shooting, the cook left the galley evidently for the purpose of jumping into the water or seeking refuge in some other part of the vessel. The second mate pointed his revolver at the Chinese and chased him back into the galley.

Then it was decided to force the man to leave the galley by steaming him out. Mate Manning got up steam in the donkey engine but before the steam was turned into the galley a shot from inside was heard. Captain Smith and his crew suspected that the cook had discharged the revolver simply as a ruse to get some one to try and force the door. So they turned the steam into the room. They were mistaken however for after the steam had been played into the galley for some time and the place was entered the body of the Chinese was found sitting on one of the benches. A hole in the left temple showed that the man had committed suicide. The flesh was cooked by the steam and dropped from the body when the sailors carried the Chinese outside. Both bodies were interred at sea. Mrs. Smith read the burial service.

Mrs. Smith been permitted to try and induce the Chinese to come out of the galley the second tragedy might have been averted. She wanted to go and plead with the frightened cook but her husband forbade her so the man was not taken alive.

AN ASSASSIN'S SUICIDE.

The Murdered of King Hubert Kills Himself.

ROME, May 23.—Brescia, the assassin of the late King Humbert, who committed suicide at the penitentiary of Santo Stefano, had recently been suffering from extreme excitement, declared to be from remorse.
Brescia's violence last week culminated in his attacking a tailor, in consequence of which he was placed in a strait-jacket. Later the prisoner feigned docility in order to secure an opportunity to commit suicide, which he accomplished by hanging himself with an improvised rope attached to the ceiling. In the earlier days of his imprisonment Brescia resented orders to keep silent and threatened to kill himself. At a Cabinet Council at the Quirinal today Signor Giolitti, Minister of the Interior, informed the King of the suicide of Brescia. His majesty remained passive for a few moments and then said: "It is, perhaps, the best thing that could have happened to the unhappy man."
A post-mortem examination will be held and the body will then be buried on a desert island.

MAKAWELI PORTO RICANS.

The Strike and How It Was Settled by Police.

Makaweli, Kauai, May 30, 1901.
EDITOR STAR: In your issue of the 29th instant, you give prominence to an article headed "Labor Riot on Kauai" which is such an exaggeration of the facts that for the sake of quieting any uneasiness which might be felt by persons having friends living at Makaweli, I will ask you to insert this correction. There has been no strike of the community heret any time since the advent of the Porto Rican laborers. The incident to which your correspondent refers was simply this:
On Monday of this week seventeen of our Porto Ricans came to the office and asked for a raise in wages, which was denied them; on the following morning they went to the office of the McBrayde Sugar Company at Eleese and applied for work; the manager knowing that they were men who had been assigned to the Hawaiian Sugar Company, refused to give them any work, whereupon they returned to their quarters, and ten of them, many of whom were only youths, armed themselves with knives, and proceeded quietly towards the field in which other Porto Ricans were at work, in the direction of Waimea, presumably to induce them to join them in a strike. The matter being reported to the office, the deputy sheriff was at once notified and he with a few policemen rode out and met the crowd, which had been joined by half a dozen others, took away their knives, and marched the lot to the Waimea court house, where those from whom knives were taken were fined for carrying weapons.

Not only was there no disturbance, but comparatively few on the plantation knew of the affair until the day was over. All of the Porto Ricans not connected with this affair are at work and contented.
JNO. A. PALMER.

SMALL-POX.

WAIMEA, Kauai, May 25.—The two Porto Ricans afflicted with small-pox are doing well. The one first afflicted is better, and will soon be out.
The second case which was at first quite serious is greatly improved, and there are hopes of his recovery.

DRY AND HOT MONTH.

Prof. Lyons reports that May was the driest month on record on the island of Hawaii. At Kohala it was the driest in ten years, and at Waimea there is already a shortage of water. In Honolulu the fall was normal. The humidity was the highest on record, making it exceedingly warm.

SALVAGE FOR MIKAHALA.

While coming to this port from Kaula last Saturday the Mikahala saved the American schooner Dora Bluhm from being wrecked on the reef near Waialeale, Kauai. The schooner was en route to Hanalei but got into a bad position near the Waialeale reef. Captain Gregory offered to pull her to a place of safety but Captain Seymour of the schooner refused. Finally the schooner was piled on the reef and the Mikahala's services were asked. Captain Gregory pulled the boat of the reef. She did not appear to be seriously damaged. He will probably claim salvage.

Like the flight of the swiftest bird is the progress of a hacking cough into consumption. First a cold, then a settled cough, then slow fever, night sweats, and hemorrhages. Don't neglect your cough. Stop it at once and drive away all thought of consumption. Begin as early as possible—the sooner the better—to take the most effective remedy for coughs of every kind and in every stage.

One of the most annoying coughs is a throat cough, where you have that constant tickling in your throat. It comes on worse at night, keeps you awake, and makes you have that smothered feeling in the chest. It hardly seems possible what one dose of Cherry Pectoral will do for this kind of a cough, it brings such marked relief.

Put up in large and small bottles. When the cough gets down deep in the chest and the lungs are painful, put one of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Plasters directly over the tender lung. It will draw out all the soreness.

RETURNS TO WASHINGTON

McKINLEY AND PARTY LEAVE SAN FRANCISCO.

During Last Days of His Visit the Distinguished Visitor Spends Much Time in Sight Seeing.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—President McKinley's visit to the coast is over. Today, with the consent of her physicians, Mrs. McKinley is to be taken aboard the special train, and is to start Eastward to the national capital.

As his wife became better, the President took more and more interest in public affairs. The improvement of the first lady in the Land had a marked effect upon the spirits of the other members of the Presidential party also. All seemed brighter in spirits and took more interest in what transpired.

On May 22nd, the President reviewed the school children of San Francisco. He said the sight of the bright happy faces was the finest thing he had seen since he left Washington. Children lined the streets along which the President was to pass for more than four miles. It is estimated that there were 50,000 of them to welcome the chief executive.

Quite different, the day following, was the order of festivities. The Knights Templars honored their illustrious brother by a reception at the Mechanics' Pavilion. Masons from every part of California were present. McKinley made a brief public speech, was listened to with the closest attention by the 12,000 people present, in the evening at the same place, the President received the Legion of the Cross Cadets.

One of the most touching incidents in the entire visit of McKinley, was his visit to the Presidio hospital on Friday where several hundred sick and wounded men, just home from Manila, were propped up in bed, in order that they might see the nation's chief. Mrs. McKinley was so much improved that the President attended every public function at which it was possible for him to be. A portion of the day was spent in Oakland. Some of the party visited Mare Island. Later in the day, President William McKinley broke ground in Union square for a monument commemorating the victory of Admiral Dewey in the battle of Manila bay. In the evening, the Grand Army of the Republic was addressed by their comrade, the President of the United States.

McKinley's last public appearance in San Francisco was made at an Epworth League meeting on Friday evening, the 25th. Today, Saturday, the President bade the city of San Francisco adieu, and the City of San Francisco in return bade the President a reluctant farewell.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH. Is it not about time to meet and appoint a committee to make proper arrangements to give a rousing Fourth of July celebration this year? A genuine Fourth of July would be a novelty in Waikapu especially if a barbecue in American style were made a feature of the occasion. Such a celebration would be worth much more than the trouble and expense of getting it up, and there are enough of old time mainlanders on the island to carry it through in good style with speeches, music, barbecue and fireworks. Let us have a rouser.—Maul News.

FEREIRA PROMOTED. WAILUKU, May 31.—John Ferreira Jr., who has been a member of the Chinese Registration bureau on Maui, has been promoted to the office of assistant secretary in Collector Chamberlain's office in Honolulu. During the short period which Ferreira assisted A. W. Neeley on Maui he proved himself very satisfactory, and was recommended by Mr. Neeley for the position. Ferreira went to Honolulu per Maunaloa and will assume his new duties as soon as he arrives in Honolulu. A. W. Neeley, M. H. Reuter, and J. Ferreira Jr., who composed the Chinese Registration bureau on Maui have registered most of the Chinese in Hana the last few weeks, and there is still left Lahaina to be registered.

HONOKAA WANTS COURT. HONOKAA, May 31.—Considerable objection is expressed and felt to the holding of the July term of the Circuit Court at Hilo instead of at Honokaa as usual. Litigants in this part of the country all object to being required to go to Hilo when they had expected to have their cases tried at Honokaa. The business element of the community also feels that it is entitled to the advantage which the presence of the people a term of court brings to a community.

NEEDED RAIN AT HONOKAA. HONOKAA, May 31.—Fifty-one one-hundredths of an inch of rain fell here yesterday. It was very much needed.

CANTATA AT WAILUKU. WAILUKU, May 31.—The Union school teachers, Miss Nape, Mrs. McKay and Miss Hons, are preparing for the opening of the musical entertainment on June 6th, in great fashion. The Cantata, "The Gypsy Queen" abounds with sweet vocal music, and brilliant instrumental passages, and there is no doubt but that it will draw a big house. George Schraeder has kindly consented to play the piano for the Cantata. Those who are to take part in the Cantata are Miss Nape, Miss Hons, Miss Mollie Cummins, Miss Ellen Brown, Mrs. Austin, Miss Mary Garcia, A. Garcia, W. Crowell and two or three others. Reserved seats are on sale now at the Maui Hotel in the same style as the box plan in Honolulu.

SUGAR ON HAWAII. The following sugar left on Hawaii was reported by the Kinau: Waiakae Mill, 12,000; Waimaku, 8,000; Onuomea, 23,000; Pepeekeo, 9,000; Hakalaui, 17,000; Honouua, 9,250; Papeaioa, 15,000; Ookaia, 12,000; Kukui, 2,000; Pauhaui, 10,000; Paauiho, 5,000; Honokaa, 7,000; Kukuihaele, 3,000; Honuapo, 7,426; Punaluu, 10,850.

PEARL HARBOR PLANS. Naval Station and Prices of Island Property.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The naval board having charge of the location of a naval station on Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, has completed its work. The board has the view that Pearl Harbor is the only harbor in the Hawaiian group capable of complete naval defense. It is only five miles from Honolulu. Much of the surrounding land has been occupied for commercial purposes. The board proposed to leave this shore land for commercial purposes and if possible to locate the naval station on the large island lying in the middle of the harbor. As some of this land was raised to a high price since it was learned the Government might want it, the board is disposed to consider a much larger tract of island lands, so that the final selection may be made, with less restriction. The improvement of the harbor contemplates a deep water channel across the coral bar at the entrance and heavy batteries on each side of the entrance.

The guests are members of the Sixth Artillery. Hundreds of visitors have been to look at the battleship Oregon since she dropped her anchor outside the harbor here. She will leave for the coast tomorrow evening on Wednesday. M. Brasch & Co., of the Lace House, make special announcement that they are now in a position to make infants' and children's fine dresses to order. This should prove a great boon to ladies, as they can now have styles made to suit. The See Yun society is still denying the statement that its members had any part in the recent trouble at the Chinese Theatre. They say that Ah Choo the actor who was hit in the eye with a snuffed orange is not a member of their order nor is Ah Sing the man who interfered with the police officers in arresting the Chinese who threw the orange.
