MUST FACE EMBEZZLEMENT MAKES RECORD FLIGHT IN AEROPLANE

Holt Indictment Is Held Valid

Supreme Court Decision Sustains Procedure of Territorial Grand Jury

In a decision handed down this morning, the Territorial Supreme Court holds that the indictment for embezzlement that was returned against former Tax Assessor James L. Holt is valid, and that because the indictment was found against Holt at a meeting of the grand jury at which additional names were drawn to complete the panel, the bill found against Holt is not invalid, as claimed by his attorneys. The opinion of the Supreme Court is written by Associate Justice Perry and deals at length with the problem involved in the drawing of additional jurors, the legality of the procedure constituting the ground for the attack upon the validity of the indictment. The argument advanced in Holt's behalf was that the foreman of the grand jury that returned the indictment against Holt had no power to excuse Jurors Potter, Waterhouse or Grade, and that Juror Beckus, who had returned from the Coast a day or so before the meeting at which Holt was indicted, could have easily been called upon to serve. In dealing with the excusing of the jurors and the summoning of the special jurors, Justice Perry says: "Not more than twelve jurors could be obtained. It is undisputed that three had not been served and that four had been validly excused by the court. Beckus had not yet reported for duty. The leave of absence which the court had granted him was to extend until he should report, and the court by its inaction had acquiesced in his failure to appear, and this it might properly do, for it might well have been satisfied that for business or other

AVIATOR BROCKINS DARES DEATH IN LONG DASH THROUGH AIR

Flew From Springfield, Ill., to Chicago in Fast Time.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 29.—Walter Brookings, the daring aviator, today flew from here to Chicago, a distance of 186 miles, in 2 hours 41 minutes of a total time in the air. He made only two stops.

Brookings' record is remarkable, as it was made in the face of atmospheric difficulties.

BUSINESSMEN TO HOLD MEETING TOMORROW

A wholesale meeting of business men has been called for tomorrow afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce at three o'clock. The call was issued today by a committee consisting of A. L. C. Atkinson, Albert Waterhouse and R. W. Shingle.

The call, which is in the form of a letter to business men, calls attention to the fact that there are certain important matters affecting public interest to be laid before the business men and that the meeting is the result. No program has yet been given out by the committee. It is understood that the meeting will have under discussion prevailing conditions in territorial business, and it is probable that the falling stock market will come in for some attention.

Immigration Is Necessary Here

Expert Declares That Incoming Laborers Are Needed For Hawaiian Industries

That the stopping of immigration into Hawaii would be a hard blow to industry and prosperity in the Territory is the gist of a letter received by Albert F. Judd, candidate for the Senate on the Republican ticket, from Dr. Victor S. Clark, of the Territorial Board of Immigration. The letter was written in response to a request for information made by Mr. Judd. It shows clearly the folly of such a policy as that advocated by Link McCandless, Democratic candidate for delegate.

The letter is as follows: "My Dear Mr. Judd:—I respond with some reluctance to your request for a letter on immigration, because this question has now, most unfortunately, been made an issue in party politics. Please understand that my views on the subject are not based on party affiliation; and were the Republicans of Hawaii now opposing immigration instead of favoring it and the Democrats favoring immigration instead of opposing it, I would not for that reason change a single word of what I am about to write.

To Stop Immigration Endangers the Self-Government of the Territory. One reason why I favor publicly expressed opposition to immigration in Hawaii is because I see no other way to prevent the progressive Orientalization of these islands, leading them towards dependency instead of statehood, and towards government by a commission appointed in Washington.

MAUI REPUBLICANS NAME TICKET AND START WORK WITH HARMONY EVERYWHERE

(Special Bulletin Wireless.)
 WAILUKU, Maui, Sept. 29.—Everything went off practically as scheduled at the Republican county convention of Maui, held here yesterday.

Philip Pali of Lahaina leads the legislative ticket, the defeat of Coe being assured on account of the claim of Lahaina to the right of representation in the Senate for the present term.

Crowell was named for county sheriff in place of Saffrey, who was regarded as a strong candidate for the place. Kaue was the successful nominee for county clerk.

On the Representative ticket, Sam Kellinoh won his contest for the nomination for Representative at Large. A. F. Tavares was named for Representative from Makawao, and Wainohle won the nomination from Lahaina.

The best of feeling appears to prevail, as most of the differences were straightened out in caucus. The ticket named by the convention follows:

Senator—Hon. Philip Pali, Lahaina.

Representatives—Joseph Cockett, Wailuku; A. F. Tavares, Makawao; Wainohle, Lahaina; Geo. C. Cooke, Molokai; J. W. Kawanoa, Hanalei; Sam Kellinoh, at large.

Sheriff—Crowell.

Treasurer—L. M. Baldwin.

Clerk—Kaue.

Auditor—Chas. Wilcox.

Attorney—D. H. Case.

Supervisors—Chas. Lake, Wailuku; W. F. Pogue, Makawao; W. P. Hain, Hanalei; Wm. Henning, Lahaina; T. T. Meyer, Molokai.

TAMMANY IS IN HASKELL SUITS CONTROL AT NEW YORK DISMISSED QUICKLY

(Associated Press Cable.)
 ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Tammany and Tammanism are today in control of the Democratic State convention, which is in session here. With the refusal of Mayor Gaynor of New York to be a candidate, the Tammany element has strengthened.

Judge Alton B. Parker, former candidate for President on the Democratic ticket, has been chosen temporary chairman. The convention adjourned early until tomorrow. It appears now as if a Tammany candidate will be put up and elected, despite some opposition that is manifest.

LANDSLIDE CRASHES INTO CULEBRA CUT

(Associated Press Cable.)
 PANAMA, Sept. 29.—A great landslide today partially filled the big Culebra cut. The slide was due to rains. A large force of men was at once put to work clearing away the dirt and debris.

LAND EXCHANGE FOR ARMORY SITE

Negotiations have been practically completed whereby the Territorial government will secure title to the site on Young street now occupied by the drilled and the old barracks used by the United States quartermaster's department.

The anxiety of the War Department to have the Territory construct a strong armory in Honolulu to accommodate a regiment of full (twelve-company strength has been expressed in a number of letters that have passed between Adjutant-General Jones and the officials of the War Department at Washington. The exchange of land, it is believed, will be reached in the near future, and it will then devolve upon the next Legislature to make the appropriation of $75,000 or $100,000 that has been asked for by the United States government, and which, for the sake of economy, was refused at the last regular session of the Legislature.

Several sites on the waterfront available for the quartermaster's department have been suggested, but nothing definite has been decided upon as far as the exact location of the land to be acquired by the Federal government for the use of

(Associated Press Cable.)
 PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 29.—The Democratic State convention here today nominated Lewis Waterman for Governor. The platform denounces the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill.

BUSINESS LEADERS ADVERTISE

Often the impulse to advertise comes to the younger man in a business. In such event he has a mighty hard time. His associates may, on a pinch, admit the value of advertising to others, but "Our business is peculiar," is their reply to him. This is likely followed by the "sleeping-powder" statement "We have gotten along without it."

It is not the things we do without, but rather those we do with that have brought about the progress of the world, and a firm can do itself no better service than to respect the views of the advertising enthusiast; at least so far as to become really acquainted with what good advertising has done, and what it could do for them.—N. W. Ayer & Son.

If there is one business in the world that requires enthusiasm, it is advertising. Emerson says that every great and commanding movement in the history of the world, is the triumph of enthusiasm. It is certain that the advertising man who possesses knowledge and enthusiasm to the greatest degree, makes the greatest success of his business.

Enthusiastic and Progressive Business men of Honolulu find that advertising placed in the Evening Bulletin brings results that develop enthusiasm and promote higher business.

REGISTRATION BOARD GETS MIXED ON LAW AND TURNS DOWN MEN WHO SHOULD VOTE

When S. P. Chillingworth, chairman of the board of registration, came into the office of A. L. C. Atkinson, chairman of the Republican Territorial central committee, and legally entitled to cast a ballot if asked some advice, a serious mix-up in the working of the board was laid bare. It was discovered that the board has been refusing to register Federal officials and employees connected with such branches of the service as the public health and marine hospital.

Chillingworth and his clerks have been protesting, he says, on the understanding that such persons have no vote and should be classed with the transient army and navy again. How many have been turned down, Chillingworth was unable to say, and an effort will be made to reach as many as possible of those who have been refused.

The board is now registering several made protest, but the board did not consider that their will go to Paoua on Saturday.

ONE GOOD DEMOCRAT QUILTS BOSS' CAMP

"I'm through with McCandless, Fera and Eivenburgh. I will not vote for them under any consideration. In fact, I shall work for John Lane and Kubie."

Dr. J. H. Raymond, a well-known and influential Democrat, made the declaration this morning. Dr. Raymond feels that he was double-crossed by the above named gentlemen in the recent Democratic convention, and that he can not stand for their methods, anyway. Hence his intention to work for a Republican Mayor and a Republican Delegate. Dr. Raymond, in declaring himself as he has, adds another to a long list of Democrats who are refusing to stand for the Boss and his fellow-politicians.

RECORD COAL DISCHARGE MADE

Vessels at Naval Dock Delivering 1,850 Tons Daily.

Record coal discharge is being made from the three ships now lying at the naval wharves, and the average daily discharge from the three amounts to 1,850 tons.

Hustace, Peck & Co. are the contractors doing the work, which is under the direct supervision of Paymaster Hornberger and his staff.

It was stated this morning that the way the coal was coming from the three steamers and being delivered in three directions was the fastest of any discharge ever made here by naval authorities.

Of the 100,000 tons which are to be here under the present charters, 2600 tons are now on the water between Norfolk and Honolulu. This amount is being carried on four steam and one sailing vessel, part of these vessels being expected to show up here by the time those now moored at the docks are finished with their discharge.

Paymaster Hornberger at this station is to be relieved and go to the Coast to await orders soon.

Paymaster H. E. Stevens is en route here from Boston Navy Yard at Charleston to relieve Paymaster Hornberger, and will arrive on the Manchuria next Monday.

WRITERS WOULD LIKE TO COME

Send Word to Secretary Wood That They Will Consider Excursion Seriously.

Regarding the proposed excursion of the National Editorial Association to these islands Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee has the following to say in his report to the committee that meets this afternoon:

On Sept. 1st I wrote to the Secretary of the National Editorial Association at Waterloo, Iowa, asking as to the status of the proposed excursion to Hawaii and making certain suggestions.

Mr. Parrott replies as follows, under date of Sept. 15:

"Your very kind favor of September 1st came to hand yesterday. We will be very glad to follow your suggestions and will write Mr. Hill, also Mr. Stitt, and when in Chicago will visit Mr. Lynch.

My letter of the 23rd covers the situation about as it stands today. We all are very desirous of taking the trip and hope arrangements can be made that will enable us to do so. The propositions received up to date do not look as favorable as they might. We have no other program other than Honolulu and will thrash it out to a finish and only give it up when it is proven conclusively that it is beyond our reach."

HOME RULE TO HAVE ITS TURN

Republicans Invited to Appear at Aala Park Meeting Tonight.

Republican county and legislative candidates will appear tonight at a ratification meeting to be held by the Home Rule party at Aala Park. The Home Rulers endorsed a number of Republican candidates for places left vacant by the convention, and are campaigning as hard for these as for members of their own party. The Republicans endorsed will therefore have the privilege of appearing tonight.

The Home Rule committee today had not finished its list of speakers, but members stated that probably all of the Republicans endorsed would be asked to speak tonight. David Kakuokalani Sr., the "grand old man" of the Home Rule party, who is also a candidate for the Senate, will preside at the Aala Park gathering, and speeches will be made by C. K. Nottley, candidate for Delegate; William White, William Mossman and others of the Home Rule ticket.

Decline Apparently Checked, But Little Trading Done.

The stock market was quiet today, and though there was little rally, the downward tendency was apparently checked. Trading was light, with the figures about the same as yesterday.

Pioneer Mill was the "only stock that suffered. Between sessions a sale was reported at 215, whereas the last sale was at 220. Twenty shares changed hands.

The principal trading was in McDryde and Oahu, all of the sales being of moderate size. McDryde sold at 5, and Oahu hovered between 29 and 29.25. Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company strengthened slightly. Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company was a victim of the general sugar security slump, falling from 20 to 19.

Hawaii will never have a better chance to tell what it thinks of Calamity Howler McCandless than on the coming election day.

There is important work from now on till the eighth of November for the well-wisher of Hawaii on whom no politician has a string.

If President Taft or Colonel Roosevelt were asked their opinion on who Hawaii should send to Congress, what do you think they would say?

Every supporter of the public schools will vote for the Republicans whose school pledge is one that will straighten out Hawaii's school problem.

Quotations are slumping but there are no signs of an increasing number of otherwise sane citizens parting with their sugar stocks at such a needless sacrifice.

Maul Republicans appear to have finished their work with neatness and dispatch. There is another ticket that should be voted straight by all Republicans.

If you believe in Hawaii and its prosperous future you will work with and vote with the Progressive Republicans, who are leading the fight in Hawaii today.

A Democratic Delegate in Washington during a Republican administration would be more lonesome than a spectator and entirely out of place in the scenery.

Honesty in public office and a square deal for all is a platform that is certain to be winning ground for any man in a progressive and intelligent community.

The question for the electorate of this Territory to settle on November 8th is whether we shall go ahead, stand still or back up. The Republican party is progressive.

Kaula is still the comfortable and progressive. Kaula—a standing proof of the community value of making it practically unanimous when Republican principles are at stake.

Would McCandless take Keawehaku and Kaniho to Washington as assistants. And would he there point with pride to the arguments with which he endeavored to entice Hawaiian-Americans into wanting the franchise on a mess of false promises?

It is pleasant to learn that the electorate is to be strengthened this year by the voters' intelligent service of the Federal government. They stand for progressive policies and will vote for candidates who will fulfill their duty in the upbuilding of Hawaii.

This new radicalism that Roosevelt is preaching is creating some curious combinations. It is reported that William Randolph Hearst and Dr. Lyman Abbott are two of the editors who have enlisted under the radical banner and agreed to work hand in hand for the victory of radicalism.

Ninety-eight years ago Lord Nelson said "Let every man do his duty." That is all that is required of the citizens of Hawaii to keep this Territory on the crest of prosperity's wave, a position that it holds largely as a result of the efforts of Delegate Kuhio. Send him back to Washington for more prosperity; he'll get it.

THOSE WHO BELIEVE IN SCHOOLS

There should be no politics in the public schools, but it stands to reason that the citizens of a self-governing community should support the political party that demonstrates its appreciation of the needs of our children and promises to make ample provision for them.

For years past, the people of these islands have been urging a better recognition of the public schools. Various plans have been proposed and many schemes started for meeting the demands of the children.

Up to the time of the last Republican convention the plans and the schemes were temporary make-shifts. No one accepted them as a permanent solution of the problem. The best that could be said was that the school situation was tided over till something better could be provided.

In the educational plank of the present Republican platform, a representative partisan organization goes to the heart of the subject for the first time in the history of the Territory. A clear-cut and definite plan is now before the people, and for the first time in local history the voters who want better schools, the people who

CONKLING'S SELF-FILLING FOUNTAIN PENS

be run so expensively that an increased tax levy will be required, that is a matter for further consideration.

But whatever happens, under the Republican plan, the public schools are not to be sacrificed. The cheese paring and the pinching and the forced economy is to be put upon other departments less vital to the upbuilding of an intelligent and well-trained citizenship.

This Republican platform plan carries out an idea that is new to Hawaii, but not new to the progressive communities of the mainland.

The plan of providing for the public schools first, and appropriating liberally and taxing as much as is necessary, is American through and through. Any plan that makes the children the victims of unusual public economies is thoroughly un-American.

This school question is one that has been before the people for many years. There is just one way to meet it and do it right—make the public school appropriations a first charge upon the revenues of the Territory.

Men honestly in favor of the ample provision for the public schools will vote for the Republican candidates who have made the definite pledge to provide for the youth of the land come what may.

Give the children of the public schools a square deal.

HOLT INDICTMENT IS HELD VALID

(Continued from Page 1) reasons Hoekus should be excused from attendance until the expiration of a few days after his return to the Territory. He was still on a valid leave of absence when the order was made. The court certainly had knowledge of the non-service of the three jurors and of the fact that it had itself excused five. Assuming that it did not know of the reasons for the excuse of Waterhouse, Potter and Glade, it at least, by its ruling granting the motion, ratified the action, whatever it had been, of the foreman in excusing them. It accepted the statement of the prosecuting officer as correct, and ratifying the excuse, ordered five additional jurors summoned.

The decision dismisses the exception upon which the case was brought before the Supreme Court in Holt's behalf by his attorneys, Kinney, Hallou, Prosser & Anderson and A. S. Humphreys.

JOE FERRAJI IS CHARGED

Alleged Garroter Is Accused Of Three Highway Robberies.

Joseph Ferraji has had five different charges laid against him at the police station. Three of his alleged offenses are highway robbery, and he might, if convicted, get sentences amounting to sixty years imprisonment. The other two charges against Ferraji are of larceny in the first and second degree. He has confessed to the larceny charges, and has described to acting Chief Kelleit how he entered a bicycle store during the absence of the proprietor and, after opening the cash register drawer, by ringing up five cents, took twelve dollars.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children. Don't Poison Baby.

FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have paregoric or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the sleep from which there is no waking. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children without you or your physician know of what it is composed. Castoria does not contain narcotics.

The signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria.

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have frequently prescribed Castoria for common ailments of children with good results." W. A. CRANDALL, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I find your Castoria to be very beneficial in the treatment of children's ailments." F. DAVIS, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"As the father of thirteen children I certainly know something about your great medicine and, aside from my own family experience, I have, in my years of practice, found Castoria a popular and efficient remedy in almost every home." Wm. J. McOLAN, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"I object to what are called patent medicines, where nobody knows what stuff is put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use in proper cases. I judge it to be a very useful, as well as harmless family medicine." N. D. SEZEN, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

SHORT SHOTS AT CAMPAIGN

Republicans Have Meeting for Tomorrow Night at Wai'ala.

Republicans will be out on mass at Wai'ala tomorrow night. A meeting has been arranged there, and some of the candidates from Honolulu will probably attend. A large number of the voters there are Portuguese and A. D. Castro, a member of the last legislature, has been asked to speak.

Kuhio's campaign on Hawaii is meeting with good results everywhere, according to news that has reached Republican headquarters here. He is making a vigorous fight and Link McCandless will run far behind what he has predicted on the big island.

The second precinct of the fourth district will hold a meeting tomorrow night at the public baths, Waikiki. Matters relating to precinct work will be taken up.

Things are pretty quiet around Democratic headquarters. There will not be much doing until Link McCandless gets back and supplies some powder.

Charles Chillingworth, Republican candidate for the Senate, says he is well pleased with his prospects. Chillingworth figures a big majority for Kuhio and his party.

William Williamson, of the stock exchange, who is also a Republican candidate for the House, is making a quiet but effective campaign among the business men.

LAND EXCHANGE FOR ARMORY SITE

The transfer of the land to the Territory has been authorized only upon the stipulation that it be used for militia purposes, and it can not be used for anything not connected with the National Guard of Hawaii.

Adjutant-General Jones declared this morning that the old stone building, once the barracks of the Queen's guard in the days of the monarchy, would be used as a storehouse when the new armory was built. Thousands of dollars' worth of government property are now stored in the basement of the Bungalow in the palace grounds, and the Bungalow is a flimsy structure and not fireproof.

It is now believed that the Territory will be in actual possession of the armory site early next year.

PEARL HARBOR DREDGERS BUSY

Work at Drydock Will Be In Full Swing in Short Time. Working on Channel.

Few people realize the amount of work that is going on and the number of men that are employed at Pearl Harbor at the present time. The drydock basin has been dredged nearly to the depth of 35 feet, and following this the dredger Reclamation will get in and clean out 15 feet more, this giving a depth of 50 feet.

There are at the present time four dredgers at work taking the bottom out of Pearl Harbor at different places, employing nearly 300 men in this branch of the work alone, while the drydock builders are working a big gang of men.

It can be said that things will fairly hum about the drydock as soon as the dredging has been completed.

TO DRIVE MULE TEAM ON PENNSYLVANIA AVE.

MOBERLY, Mo., Sept. 28.—If I am elected Speaker of the next House of Representatives I will drive a team of Missouri mules down Pennsylvania avenue.

The foregoing is the promise of Congressman Champ Clark, made to a crowd of visitors at the homecoming celebration here yesterday in the course of an address. The promise pleased the crowd and for several minutes the speaker was unable to proceed with his speech on account of the cheering and yelling. It was Mr. Clark's assigned duty to welcome home Missourians who had strayed from the borders of the "show me" State. He welcomed them all right, but was inclined to ask why they ever went away in the first place.

Also did Mr. Clark reproach his hearers for permitting Missouri to take a back seat, as he said, had been done.

"Missouri has taken a back seat too long," he said. "We have done the work and other fellows have got the glory. Missouri has never had a President, a Vice-President, a justice of the Supreme Court or a Speaker of the House. It is time we had all of these officers and I'm going to see to it that we get one of them right away."

Marriage is also paved with good intentions.

TOUGHS GET CONVICTED

Men Who Beat Up Soldier Are Charged With Crime This Morning.

Four young men were charged with having beaten up a soldier in Aiea Park on the night of September 21. The names of the accused are Kakaie, John Peter, N. Kahookano and John Santos. It was alleged that the soldier and a girl were seated on a bench at the park when one of the accused came up and tried to pick a row with him. The soldier told him to go away and then a bunch of men came along and, after knocking the soldier out, proceeded to kick him about the body. The unfortunate man was picked up unconscious and taken to the Queen's Hospital, where he is at present an inmate.

C. F. Chillingworth appeared for the accused, and A. M. Brown prosecuted for the county. The soldier told his story, and then two other witnesses gave evidence to the effect that they had seen the men both before and after the assault. One witness declared that two soldiers had chased him with clubs and that voice pickets were used as weapons. He then went on to tell how he had returned to the park and found one of the defendants stretched out, and one of the defendants bending over him.

Against two of the defendants the evidence was very clear, and they—Kakaie and Kahookano—were found guilty and sentenced to six months' and forty days' jail, respectively. John Peter was discharged with a caution not to mix with toughs again, and John Santos will learn his fate on Saturday next, as the judge sent the case over till then.

SURVIVES LIGHTNING BUT IS MARKED

MINOT (N. D.), September 17. With his cap burned to ashes, his hair singed close to his scalp, and a red scar down his back, John Hundig still survives the effect of a lightning bolt which struck him near the city. Hundig was working with a binder and five horses on a farm fourteen miles southeast of this city recently when the thunderstorm came up.

He continued the work, and was hurrying to finish the field when a severe stroke of lightning struck him full on the top of the head.

His force knocked him down, also the five horses, and splintered a portion of the binder.

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Camden, N. J.—"It is with pleasure that I add my testimonial to your already long list—hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of this valuable medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from terrible headaches, pain in my back and right side, was tired and nervous, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health, and I shall always have my praise to—Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 902 Lincoln Avenue, Camden, N. J.

Gardiner, Me.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 30, Gardiner, Me.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

NEW CARS HAVE ARRIVED

Special Features that Make for Safety and Comfort of Passengers.

The big new cars that have been expected for some time for the Rapid Transit company have arrived and are being assembled at the shops.

A new feature of the new cars is the arrangement of a safety guard that can be lowered on either side of the car and automatically locked so that passengers can leave the car only nearest the sidewalk whenever the cars are run on a double track, which it is the intention to have on King street in the near future. When the cars are on the single tracks of the city, both sides of the cars are free for the entrance or exit of passengers.

There is an entrance section in the middle portion of each car, so that passengers can get on or off the car without climbing over other passengers or going to the ends of the car for that purpose.

All of the new cars are supplied with a 65-horsepower motor in each end. This is a considerable increase of power over the cars in use at present.

TUNNEL UNDER BAY IS ASSURED SAYS HERON

Key Route Officials Have Not Officially Considered the Project Yet.

OAKLAND, September 14.—E. A. Heron, president of the Realty Syndicate and head of the Key Route Corporation, stated today that the project of a tunnel, to be dug beneath the waters of San Francisco bay for the accommodation of trains running between this city and San Francisco, was not only a possibility, but a probability of the future. He admitted that the much-mooted question had been brought up at various times among the officials of the Key Route Company, stating however, that it had not yet been considered at any meeting of the directors.

"The project is an assured one," said Heron. "It is nothing but a matter of time. When the traffic so demands the tunnel will be constructed. There will come a time, and in the near future, too, when we shall no longer accommodate the traffic by ferry-boats without interfering with the ship in the bay. When that time comes the tunnel must be built. Much more difficult feats have been accomplished before this time, and many more will follow. No plans have been made for this tunnel. It is merely regarded among the railroad officials on San Francisco bay as a thing which will be needed, and needed badly, at some time in the not distant future."

Cecil R. Hess, a medical college student, 24 years old, son of an Oklahoma, Ia., retired farmer, committed suicide in Denver, Col., after being commanded to return home.

HOMESTEADERS' CHANCE FOR COLORADO LANDS

Fifteen Thousand Acre of Rich Territory Will Be Opened For Entry in October.

DEBEQUE, Col., Sept. 15.—In October next 15,000 acres of the finest land in this State will be opened to settlement. The greater portion of this land is in the Battlement Mesa National Park. It formerly was a part of the forest reserve, and the fact that it is ready for settlement proves the contentions that Pinchot attempted to hold good agricultural lands within his authority and control. Although the land is 6,000 to 7,000 feet above sea level, it is well adapted for the growing of alfalfa, grain and for grazing purposes.

A considerable portion of these 15,000 acres will be adapted for fruit-raising, as it is the same quality of soil upon which some of the finest orchards in the plateau country are located. The land is well adapted to dairying purposes and a co-operative creamery, already located at Plateau City, will take care of all the cream and milk which may be produced.

Many inquiries are being received for the land and a steady flow of settlers is expected here. Part of the land is in Mesa and part in Delta County.

Punishing The Child

SPANKING OR MORAL SUASION?

AGAIN the oft discussed question of being debated from one end of the country to the other:

To spank or not to spank the child? Those who believe in physical punishment assert that it is the quickest and best way of keeping the house in order, while its opponents indignantly cry that it breaks the child's spirit and reduces it to the level of a slave.

The truth is there are some children who need to be spanked and others who do not. The reasonable, sensitive child must be governed by kindness or not at all. Such children when punished severely hold it to heart and become bitter or else broken spirited.

On the other hand, there are heedless, rebellious, bad tempered children who when everything else has failed are fit candidates for the rod, and they should have as big a dose of it as they need. Moral suasion does not always work, but it always should be tried.

Reason with your child, appeal to its better judgment and good heart, give sufficient reasons for your commands and then if the child out of pure headstrong willfulness does his own way spank and spank hard.

Never punish a child who tells you of mischief he has done in the right spirit of repentance. This only makes sneaks and liars. On the other hand, do not tolerate for a moment deceit and laying the blame on some one else.

Do not postpone punishment, and once it is over let all be forgotten and the child have a chance to begin over anew. Above all, do not let the consequences of one day go over into the next. Let the child begin the day in the morning with the feeling that it is like a clean slate, waiting for him to write upon it.

HOODOO CLINGS TO ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP

Sixth of the Count's Dirigibles Meets With a Disaster and Is Total Loss.

BADEN BADEN, Germany, Sept. 17.—The latest type of Count Zeppelin's innovative dirigible met with disaster today, when the dirigible balloon Zepplins VI took fire after an explosion while being warped into air.

A score or more of men were engaged in housing the airship when a benzine tank in the rear gondola exploded, setting a fire to an adjacent gas compartment. The explosion of this compartment was followed by the explosion of the sixteen others. There was a gush of flames and the whole structure was destroyed in a few minutes. Nothing remained of Count Zeppelin's latest model except a tangled mass of aluminum frames.

The shed also caught fire, but the blaze was put out without serious damage. Several workmen were burned, but none fatally. The ignition of the benzine occurred while workmen were cleaning the machinery, during which the benzine holders were open. The cause of the fire has not been ascertained.

The Zeppelin VI ascended at 11:20 o'clock with twelve passengers for a trip to Helldrenn. The airship had covered about twenty miles when a motor in the forward gondola acted badly. It was impossible to effect satisfactory repairs and after some time spent in futile effort the craft returned here.

The Zeppelin VI was under charter of the Passenger Airship Company, having replaced in the passenger service the recently wrecked Zeppelin II. It was transferred from Friedrichshafen to this place, and after being fitted with improved propellers and other new features, made a trial trip on August 19. It proved to be the speediest of its type, and it was announced that it could maintain a speed of thirty-eight miles an hour.

The dirigible was reconstructed to carry ten passengers, and in the last few days had made several trips. Many Americans were among the excursionists. Baron Rudolph Goldschmidt-Rothschild had chartered the airship for the use of a private party next Friday. He had agreed to pay $500 for the first two hours of the excursion and $250 for each additional hour.

This is the fifth serious accident which has befallen the Zeppelin dirigibles, the histories of which have been brilliant, but brief.

The Zeppelin I, after making an endurance flight that astonished the world, was torn from its moorings by the wind and threshed to pieces during a thunderstorm. The Zeppelin II was destroyed by a gale at Limburg-An-Der-Lahn on April 25 last. Zeppelin III made a bad landing and was seriously damaged at Mergentheim. The Deutschland came to grief in Teutoburg forest on June 28 last.

The Zeppelin VI was built in 1909, but had since been altered and enlarged. Her navigating and operating machinery was contained in two gondola cars situated in the bow and stern. It was in the stern gondola that the explosion occurred today.

Suspended from the center of the airship was a luxuriously furnished cabin. She carried a crew of ten men.

The measurements of the Zeppelin were: Length, 472 feet; width, 42 feet; gas capacity, 20,000 cubic yards. Her three motors had a total of 400 horsepower, expanded in four propellers and giving her a speed of thirty-eight miles an hour.

WANTS UNCLE JOE TO GO IN FOR VAUDEVILLE

Offers Him $300 a Week for Twelve Minutes' Talk Twice a Day.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 19.—Speaker Joseph G. Cannon can pick up a few odd dollars on the stage if he is willing to give twenty-four minutes a day to that purpose. The vaudeville managers have seen "Uncle Joe" and went to claim him for their own.

A Toledo theatrical firm has wired Cannon an offer of $300 per week for a ten weeks' engagement if he will appear twice daily for twelve minutes at each appearance.

Cannon is not limited as to the subjects he can select to talk about. He may speak on anything from politics to the weather, or he can tell a few of the funny stories the magazines and newspapers credit him with. It's all one to the theatrical men. The money is ready if he will claim it.

A New York theatrical firm is said to be financially back of the offer.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—During the proceedings in the case of Dr. Hawley Crippen, charged with the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, and Miss Ethel Clare Le Neve, held as an accessory, the interest of the real or when the case was called in court, the vicinity of Bow street station has been the scene of the curious by-ones intense. Great crowds occupied the street, and Dr. Crippen as he stood every inch of space about the steam-train within the iron dock for prisoners' trial pier when the couple were land, was no so fortunate.

CONQUERING THE MOSQUITO

Dr. Doty Tells of Vigorous Campaign Against Pest. Methods of Work.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—During a protracted period the residents of Staten Island were mostly annoyed by swarms of mosquitoes in the summer. About ten years ago Dr. Archibald Doty, health officer of the island, with the idea of exterminating the pest, after a long and arduous search, discovered that the mosquitoes were of two kinds. One kind, the striped-legged insect, bred in salt water marshes. The other kind, the brown-legged insect, bred only on inland waters and could not live in salt water. By draining the marshes the mosquitoes lost their breeding places. As a result, there are few of the insects on the island today. Five years ago 120 cases of malaria on Staten Island were traceable to mosquitoes. Last year there were but two cases. Dr. Doty says that the disease, which is due to the bite of the brown-legged mosquito, will not be in evidence a year hence.

Besides ridding the island of a great nuisance, Dr. Doty has reclaimed land which in the opinion of experts from the agricultural department of Cornell university, will make farms which should yield two, three and even four crops a year.

This fight with mosquitoes on Staten Island should convince the public that the proper way to end the activities of the insect to devote attention to swamps, marshes, open rain barrels and cisterns. New Jersey and Long Island today are infested with mosquitoes on account of the authorities having neglected to resort to measures similar to those which met such success under the direction of Dr. Doty. While hundreds of thousands of dollars must be expended before the waste lands in New Jersey are reclaimed, the health and comfort of the people of that commonwealth can be secured only through such expenditure. As for the places along the Hudson river which are familiar with the activities of the brown-legged mosquito, they should be filled in, in acting upon the hint conveyed in the procedure in Staten Island.

PORTO RICAN IN DEFENSE
City, Sept. 27, 1910.
Editor Evening Bulletin:—My attention was called yesterday, when I read in the Advertiser a statement containing free insults against the Porto Ricans in general and I thought that I would say some thing about it.

PORTO RICAN IN DEFENSE
The Morning Mother of Blind pigs said, that should the Planters go to Porto Rico for laborers that the Jail will have to be enlarged, and the hardware stores be doled locked, and as I see it that paper means to say by that, that we the Porto Ricans are nothing but a set of robbers.

Cable News N. Y. DEMOCRATS UP IN THE AIR

(Associated Press Cable.) ROCHESTER, Sept. 28.—The delegates to the Democratic State convention which is to be held tomorrow are swarming into town. The leaders are holding continual meetings, the withdrawal of Mayor Gaylor of New York city from the gubernatorial race leaving the party up in the air for a candidate for Governor. There is still a great deal of uncertainty as to whom the nomination shall fall to, Gaylor's second refusal having been unexpected.

GERMAN POLICE CHARGE RE-GARDLESS.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—The crisis in the trade strikes which have tied up Germany's capital came late today, when a disorderly meeting of the strikers was charged ruthlessly by the mounted police. Sabers were freely used with terrible effect, no mercy being given to those who attempted to oppose the police, and hundreds are seriously injured, many of whom may die.

The correspondent of the Reuter Service, and the World, Times and Sun correspondents of New York were attacked by the police without provocation. They were occupying an auto together watching the affray and were traveling from point to point as the strikers were driven back, when they were attacked and beaten.

JURY ACQUITS HALSEY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—After a few hours' deliberations late this afternoon, the jury trying Theodore V. Halsey on a charge of bribery brought in a verdict of acquittal. Halsey was an official of the Pacific States Telephone Company, and was accused of attempting to bribe the San Francisco supervisors to favor his company over a rival concern. This case is one of the last of the old graft cases which commenced in 1907 in which Mayor Schmitz and Abe Ruef were prominent defendants.

SHORT STORIES FOR EVENING HOURS

A LONELY YOUNG MAN'S ROMANCE

Hartley set his trap down on the table in the luncheon room and then went to supply himself with what is euphemistically known in such haunts as "silver."

"When he came back he found an apologetic-looking young man hovering undecidedly about the place he had reserved for himself. The stranger was a bespectacled young man of quite unnecessary length and almost imperceptible thickness.

"How do you do?" he said ingratiatingly to Hartley. "I was just wondering—I know it's a fierce piece of nerve—but would you mind if I changed your place and put you round here at the side? I'm expecting—that is, I hope there's a friend of mine coming, and I'd like to save a place for her."

"Sure, go ahead and fix it any way you like," Hartley said. "It doesn't make a particle of difference to me where I sit."

"Thank you ever so much," returned the other. "I hate awfully to bother you, but there aren't two seats together anywhere else."

He busied himself arranging the table, anxiously anticipating Hartley in his attempt to move his own tray and other belongings. When he had finished he went back to the serving room and presently reappeared with a tray filled with viands.

"I always try to get here first," he said, "so I can have things fixed for my friend when she gets here. You see, she can't be sure of getting away on time. She's private secretary to the president of a big company and he's not willing to let anybody take his dictation but her, so she just has to wait till he gets through."

Then, leaning near-sightedly over his plate, he devoted himself to his luncheon for a few minutes. Presently he turned and eyed the crowd streaming in.

and cast a look over the people in the room. Finally, however, he gave a disappointed sigh.

"I guess she's not comin'," he said. "I'm sorry, for I wanted you to meet her."

Hartley expressed his own disappointment. "We'll have better luck next time," he remarked. "The young man beamed. 'I come here every day,' he said. 'Whenever Helen can get away she comes, too.'"

During subsequent interviews with the young man—for the girl seemed never to keep the trysts in which her lover so eagerly, hopefully, patiently believed—he learned that his name was Tenney, and that he had been in love with the adorable Helen for three years, that he was gradually making a collection of house furnishings, that some day he hoped to have a home to put them in and that when that day came he would be absolutely the most blissful man in the world, because Helen was going to marry him.

As for the girl, Hartley learned that she was an angel and that no matter what she did it would be, from Tenney's point of view, the right thing. Yet Hartley suspected sometimes that Tenney was growing uneasy, perhaps unhappy. His visits to the luncheon became less frequent and finally ceased altogether.

Hartley had missed him for more than three weeks, when one day he found Tenney in his accustomed corner. He seemed not so much to be eating as to be making an attempt to eat in order to kill time that hung heavily on his hands. He looked more pathetically thin than ever, and as Hartley approached the thick glasses gleamed like two great tear drops. Most significant sign of all, there was no partially upturned chair rearing its hind legs in joyful anticipation of an occupant.

"Hello," said Hartley, cheerily, extending a cordial hand. "I've missed you like everything. How are things coming?"

"Not so very well," said Tenney. "I've been sick. I haven't been down to the office before for a couple of weeks."

He seemed so inert that Hartley looked at him anxiously, for he had become attached to the thin young man.

"I'm afraid you're not well enough to be working," he ventured. "Oh, I'm all right," Tenney assured him, but he seemed to make an effort when he spoke. He was silent for a moment or so. "I guess I haven't got as much backbone as some fellows," he said, broodingly.

He played idly with his fork for a little while. Then he said, abruptly, "She threw me down." There was no rancor in the tone, only a sort of resignation.

"It was another fellow," he continued, as though forcing himself to the explanation from some feeling that an explanation was due Hartley. "She was too good for me, anyway; smart as a whip and with a good education, I don't blame her a bit. I wasn't the kind of a fellow for a girl like her. And I always said so."

He broke off abruptly and stretched one thin hand over the tablecloth as though caught by some sudden pain. "I went home one night and her mother called me up on the phone and told me about it."

"Ah!" Hartley's indignation came out plainly in the sharp staccato of his tone. "And she didn't write to you herself?"

Tenney stiffened. "There wasn't any need of writing between us two," he said. "She knew what I wanted most in the world was for her to be happy. She did just right!"

LILY WHITES ARE BUSY
APPLICATION TO BE MADE TO A. A. U. AT ONCE

Meeting Yesterday Did Good Work and Arranged Details. Papers to Reach New York By November Fifteenth.

Yesterday afternoon the committee of the Hawaiian Amateur Association got together and drafted an application to the A. A. U. All the clubs that have decided to come into the fold will be asked to have their representatives sign the application.

The parent body in the States will be communicated with, and the application for membership will be forwarded to it. The papers have to be in New York by November 15, and an effort will be made to get them off as soon as possible.

At the meeting yesterday there was some talk of starting a purely amateur baseball league, and it was thought that there was a chance of doing so. That would be the proper move, as the Honolulu Cricket Club and several other organizations that have agreed to join the Lily-white ranks are not, and never were, in danger of becoming professionals.

Following is the application to the A. A. U.:
"Board of Governors, Amateur Athletic Union of the United States of America.

"Gentlemen: The Hawaiian Amateur Athletic Association, comprising the following clubs: The Hawaii Yacht Club, the Honolulu Yacht Club, the Honolulu Cricket Club, the Hawaiian Association Football Club, the St. Louis College Athletic Association, the Diamond Head Baseball Team, the McKinley High School, the Kamehameha Schools, the Grammar School League, the Myrtle Boat Club, the Maile Baseball Team, the Oahu College Alumni Association, the Healan Yacht and Boat Club, the Outrigger Club, the Y. M. C. A., the St. Louis Alumni Association, the Kamehameha Schools Alumni Association, the Honolulu Golf Club, the Oahu Country Club, the Oahu Polo Club, the Hawaiian Tennis Association and the Hawaiian Gun Club, hereby respectfully makes application for membership as an active member in the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States of America as the Hawaiian Union of the United States of America.

"The territory to be included in this association is to be the Territory of Hawaii, comprising the five islands, namely, Oahu, Hawaii, Maui, Kauai and Molokai.

"The reasons why the creation of such a proposed association is desired and desirable are as follows:
"First—The Territory of Hawaii is two thousand miles from the Pacific Amateur Athletic Association of the A. A. U., which is the nearest branch of the A. A. U.

"Second—The climate is the same the year around, permitting athletic sports of all kinds to continue uninterrupted, and the various seasons are not strictly observed. The population of the Islands is over 200,000, and there are a number of athletic clubs promoting tennis, baseball, football, handball, basketball, rowing, sailing, surfing, canoeing, polo, swimming, golf, cricket and field and track athletics, but there is no satisfactory association to govern competitions. Young athletes are continually going to the United States to compete, but they have no standing. Many of them have made, and are making, notable records in the big Eastern colleges on the various athletic teams. They have made brilliant records in the Islands, all of which counts for naught for the reason that there is no official record of their achievements. Records are being made in athletic meets in the Territory of Hawaii which compare favorably with the records made in the States, yet by reason of the Islands not being on the athletic map athletes in the Islands can not gain recognition outside their own community, and can not compete except among themselves. There is no encouragement for amateur athletics in the Islands and no incentive to desist from becoming a professional. While there is not enough remuneration in any line of sports to make it a profitable vocation, there is enough professionalism intermingled with amateur sports to work a serious detriment to healthful athletic activities. There is no officially recognized body in the Islands to regulate sports, to see that tracks upon which races are held are exact in length, that various implements used are of the prescribed weight, length or size, and no properly constituted authority to arrange athletic meets and tournaments and award official trophies, or provide suitable medals or prizes.

"Third—As a regularly organized branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States of America the Territory of Hawaii could send a field and track team to the regular A. A. U. meet in the States that might be able to threaten the recorded official records made in the States. The citizens of Hawaii are American citizens and are entitled to recognition in athletics as well as in any other line of effort.

"We the undersigned athletic clubs, constituting the Hawaiian Amateur Athletic Association, hereby make application for membership in the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States of America for the reasons above set forth and we do hereby agree to enroll as members of the Hawaiian Association of the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States of America."

HONOLULU PEOPLE ON BIG AUTO TRIP

A party of motorists consisting of Mr. and Mrs. L. Abrams and C. W. Macfarlane of Honolulu and Miss A. Dequelin of San Francisco passed through Sacramento this week en route to Lake Tahoe in a large touring car. Contrary to the popular idea, the best season for automobile trips to the mountain resorts is during the month of September, rather than July and August. The later tourists escape the discomfort experienced during the heated spell. The mornings and evenings are much more delightful than in midsummer, and the beauty of the mountain scenery is enhanced by the brilliant coloring of autumn leaves.

October is the best month of all for mountain motoring, except that it is not safe to venture beyond the snow-line, for there is danger of being snowed in. Sometimes the first snowfall leaves a deposit of two or three feet in places, and dairymen who put off till the middle of October the transfer of their herds to the valleys are sometimes caught by early snowstorms and subjected to severe hardships.

It did not take George Freeth long to once more get into the breakers at Waikiki, and he started out to his old stamping grounds yesterday afternoon, soon after he had made a trip home and had seen his people. Freeth found the water at Waikiki quite warm after the colder waters off the coast of California. He, however, soon was to be seen away out on the crest of the waves, balanced on a surfboard and rushing in headlong to the beach.

Some swimming was indulged in and Freeth showed that he still possesses the speed that he exhibited here some three years ago. In a race yesterday, the returned expert beat the bunch in from the reef to shore. Alexander Hume Ford, the much-traveled one, was at the beach, and he soon had Freeth recounting all his adventures since leaving Hawaii net. Freeth was loth to talk much, but, little at a time, it was elicited that he had, up to date, saved a great many lives. It was on account of his wonderful feats that Congress donated to him the beautiful gold medal that he so proudly carries around.

During the two years that Freeth was at Venice, not a life was lost at the watering place, and then when the Honolulu man shifted to Redondo Beach, he kept up the great record. Besides saving lives which are frequently in danger through the terrific undertow, Freeth put in a lot of time breaking in a water polo team, and he soon had a splendid lot of players, who could hold their own with any other bunch that could be gotten together.

If possible, Freeth would like to get employment as a diver at Pearl Harbor. He would appear to be an ideal man for such work. He has had experience at diving, and if he succeeded in getting the job he is after, he will remain in the Islands. Otherwise it will be back to the mainland for the expert aquatic man. It was suggested that the beach hotels employ Freeth as official surfboard instructor and life saver.

Antone Kaoo is thinking more about his race with Soldier King than the one with Nigel Jackson, but still imagines that the preliminary run against the New Zealander will do him a lot of good and increase the interest in the big race.

Jackson, the marathon runner, is still putting in hard licks every afternoon on the roads. He thinks that he will be in the pink of condition when the race with Kaoo comes off.

On Sunday, October 9, the Honolulu Yacht Club will have a wren race, and it should be a good one, as the wind has been in the right quarter lately.

FREETH ONCE MORE AT BEACH
CHAMPION SURFBOARDER GOES TO WAIKIKI AGAIN

May Stay In Hawaii for Some Time If Everything Is Satisfactory—Would Like Diving Job.

BOXERS ANXIOUS TO START IN GAME
Promoter Love Looking For Suitable Location.

Boxing Show Promoter Love was seen last night with regard to any possibility of some bouts being seen in the near future. Love said that he was willing to get in and do his part of the business if a hall could be secured for the occasion. Joe McGurn is anxious to have a go at Jim Hono, and the native lad is said to be agreeable to meet the man from the Coast at any old time. The match would be a good one, as Hono is clever with the mitts and McGurn is a slogger who can take a lot of punishment.

Then Sarconi is looking around for a dish of stoush, and he may be accommodated with a match before long. Ironman McCollough wanders around the city with a chip on his shoulder, and no one seems ready to knock it off. The cavalryman, "Bare Socks," as he was called the other night, wants a go, and Charlie Reilly, from the Coast, is also thinking of fight as he works hard at his trade all day.

There is plenty of material around, but managers and locations are scarce nowadays. It should be a paying proposition to put on a boxing show at present, as the town is crowded with fight fans and boxers.

BRODERICK WITHDRAWS COPIT FROM RACE
"No Money In Sight," Says Veteran Horseman.

Jerry Broderick, the well-known veteran trainer and horse owner, writes to the effect that he will not race his mare Copit next Saturday against Lizzie Moore and Mary Winkelfield. "There is no money in sight," writes Broderick, "and there does not seem to be any chance of any appearing. My mare will not race on Saturday, and as for the other two, I don't know and don't care."

The proposed three-cornered race would therefore appear to be knocked on the head by the withdrawal of Copit. Jerry does not see any fun in chasing around trying to get the other owners to put up their share of the purse. He will rely upon John O'Rourke of Hilo bringing his horse to Honolulu, and then a good race should eventuate.

It is to be regretted that the owners of Lizzie Moore and Mary Winkelfield have not come through with their share of the purse, for, according to Broderick, that is all that prevents the race coming off.

Sergeant Barry works nights now, but as soon as he awakes, some time this afternoon, he will be informed that he and his Beatus have got to get a baseball reputation before they can secure a game with the Puns. There will be some tall and strenuous language when Barry gets the news, and if he can reach the Bulletin office before the paper goes to press, there will be some fun all around.

The Manoa night tournament will attract the best tennis players in the city, and the play should be exciting enough for anybody.
