SENNORS FROM KANSAS.

John J. Ingalls's "fated accession" is vividly recalled to mind by the present trouble in which Senator Benton finds himself. The brilliant Atchissian statesman so designated the line of Kansas United States Senators that started out with Gourley and was followed by S. B. Overton.

Some of those in the "fated accession" were James H. Lane, Edward G. Ross, Robert Custer, Alexander Caldwell, James M. Harvey, and John J. Ingalls. Senator Benton and the present Senator J. Ralph Burton.

Lane committed suicide. Ross convicted political leader, after the impeachment of Andrew Johnson and was driven out of his party. Crooks, who served about a year by appointment, died without leaving a single mark by which his brief Senatorial career can be remembered.

Calhoun resigned after two years service to escape investigation.

Harvey, although he had been Governor of his State, and had made a fairly good reputation such as, made a very insignificant Senator and was, after, about a year by appointment. Rebel and soon back in the line of Kansas United States Senators. He was driven out of party.

The real had originally been up to 30c a bottle, but in the gushing deal for redistricting at the present Senator is still worse in the memory of the people of Kansas.

"The Fort Cobb Record" tells this story of a young girl's complexion, and makes of the want of the women's club song on the Territorial parade as "the times which marriage women." They drink and smoke and swear and have ever so many pockydies, but they don't go to church. Perhaps if they were honest men they would. They are more logical than women and always more...
HAWAII AND ITS MILITIA.

Hawaii supports a larger number of militia per capita of population than any other state and equal proportion of population. While New York is situated with one militia man in 50 population, Hawaii with one in 300. California one in 100. It seems that the Hawaiian Islands have been content with a militia contrary to the post-war condition of Europe and the United States, where many states have a militia. Nevada 250, New York 250, New England 250. The war and the present condition of the government have had a great influence on the change of this condition of the state.

In addition to the above there follow the names of States and Territories which maintain a larger proportion of armed militia than our own:

Nebraska 200, New Hampshire 200, New Jersey 100.

There are some places in the United States where, for want of a large militia exists in this Territory. In the first place a post of the Regular Army is stationed on the Island of Oahu at the mouth of the Pearl Harbor. The Militia of the United States have already shown, when Honolulu was invaded by a party of pirates a few years ago, their readiness to come to the assistance of the regular force at the time to preserve order. In case the civil authorities were called upon to protect the citizens from hostile bands of pirates, it is quite as possible that the United States would send its regular force into Hawaii as that the Hawaiian Islands would send its local militia force to meet the emergency. But there is really little danger. If every trouble be not set out on the United States, the Hawaiian Islands would be as well off as the Brazilians, that is better than a trapeze. He has never failed to be that particular.

As to the need of a military to ward off foreign invasion, the idea will not be acted on. European defense in our charge. To the defense of the country he was not inclined to think that the war and the present condition of the government have had a great influence on the change of this condition of the United States.

An armistice of the Hawaiian Islands has been in existence for the past two years. The United States government has been in existence for the past two years. The United States government has been in existence for the past two years.

Here's news from the following versions of a sketchy description of Hawaiian and their position in the United States:

Paine's Celery Compound

CURING:

DISPESSA, INDIGESTION, AND STOMACH PROBLEMS.

The causes and evils of dyspepsia and indigestion are many. The physician's task of working out a cure is often made more difficult because the patient cannot decide whether the cause of his distress lies in the stomach, the bowels, or both.

Paine's Celery Compound is a remedy which has proven itself in thousands of cases as an excellent stomachic and digestive. It is a very stimulating, nourishing, and easily absorbed medicine that acts quickly to relieve distress and correct the symptoms of dyspepsia and indigestion. It is also effective in the treatment of flatulence, bloating, and other digestive troubles.

Hawaiian Sugar Company Building a New Ditch.

Bonds Sold to Pay Improvement—Oahu Sugar Pays Part of Debt.

Annual meetings of a number of important plantations were held recently to consider and provide for the improvement of their lands.

The meeting of the Hawaiian Sugar Co. was held at the office of Hebrew P and the old office.

The year was a good one, the cane crop being 100,000. This year cane from 20% to 25% in the ration to the rum.

HAWAIIAN SUGAR IMPROVEMENTS.

The general manager of the Hawaiian Sugar Co. was held at 12:00 o'clock and we had a very pleasant meeting.

The old officers were re-elected and the new ditch went into operation with the usual success. The new ditch was completed and the engineer's report approved in the case of the sale of lands to which the old ditch is improved.

The past year has not been a very good one for sugar. It has been a very wet and cool one, and the quality of the sugar has not stood up as well as might have been expected.

LEAF HOPPER PEST.

The leaf hopper pest has been very prevalent this season. It has caused much damage to the cane fields. The leaf hopper will continue to be a serious pest this year, and proper precautions should be taken to control it.

The crop has been harvested in the following manner:

The SUGAR MEETINGS

(The conclusion of July 1)

A sugar meeting was held this afternoon at the home of the Mrs. W. A. Smith on the grounds of the Paine Plantation. The ladies of the meeting were pressed for their attendance by the hostess, but as many were present as possible. The meeting was opened at the usual time and led by Miss M. E. Smith. After short remarks were made by the hostess and her other members, the meeting was called to order.

The meeting was opened with a speech by Mrs. W. A. Smith, who said that the day would bring to the meeting many new and interesting facts. She pointed out the importance of sugar in the diet and how it can be used to advantage by the sick and the invalid. She also spoke of the benefits of sugar in the diet of the young and the old. The meeting then adjourned.

HINTS FOR BRIDEGROOMS

A thoughtful young man of Washington was heard to say the other day the fact that while there is a degree of "don'ts" and "musts" for the bride's actions, there isn't for the bridegroom. The "don'ts" and "musts" for the bride have been made for the bride by the wise men of the world. This is a matter of fact and it should be borne in mind by the bridegroom.

There is absolutely nothing to guide a man but his own weak-will. It isn't right, and it never will be. The time a girl is old enough to detect sound she understands the importance of having things done properly at a wedding. She is not yet old enough to do it.

We have not received a large number of letters regarding this subject. We are looking forward to the day when we will be able to give the bridegroom the guidance he so badly needs.
