WA LEE SUES HACKMAN MANUEL CORREA.

Chinaman Wants Money From Man Alleged to Have Ridden Over and Killed His Child—Today's Court.

COURT CALENDAR ISSUED

COMES OUT THIS MORNING IN BOOK FORM.

Only One Criminal Case, But More are to Follow—Over 200 Civil Jury Actions—Divorces, Etc.

The book-form calendar of the First Circuit Court for the February term, which will begin next Monday morning, has been issued.

A remarkable feature, or one that may seem strange at first sight, in the new calendar, is that there is only one original case.

There are twenty-four jury waived cases, all of which are civil. Among them are the Palea land matters from Koolau which the Supreme Court has ordered on the calendar.

KUKUMA INQUEST.

Murderer of the South Sea Islander Escapes.

The inquest in the case of the South Sea Islander Kukuma will be held tomorrow. The police have not found any new clues in the case and it is practically certain that the murderer of the old man will never be found.

The old man was attacked by a robber some months ago, but he defended himself successfully then. He was awakened by an intruder in the night-time and, seizing a piece of gaspise which he had close at hand, he struck the unknown individual.

On this occasion there were tracks showing the course taken by the robber in the mud, but the police were not able to find him among the many Chinese and Japs living in the locality.

VOTING BY MECHANISM

REMARKABLE MACHINE TO BE EXHIBITED HERE.

George R. Carter Has Ordered New Contrivance So It Can Be Inspected By Honolulu People.

While in Rochester, New York state George R. Carter became acquainted with what is probably one of the most remarkable mechanical contrivances of the age, the Standard Voting Machine.

"I regard the machine," said Mr. Carter "as one of the most remarkable and ingenious contrivances of the age. It is absolutely correct, there is no chance of a voter voting wrong and above all, there is no chance of voting fraudulently.

The machine is about four feet square, ten inches deep and is supported by legs, the top being perhaps six feet from the floor.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of Kihel plantation held yesterday the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: H. P. Baldwin, president; E. E. Paxton, vice-president; L. A. Thurston, secretary; J. P. Cooke, treasurer; and J. B. Castle, auditor.

TO AGITATE LOCAL OPTION

ENTIRELY NEW TEMPERANCE CRUSADE PLANNED.

Rev. Chapman Will Explain Purpose of Anti-Saloon League of America. Seeks Relief Through Ballot.

An entirely new aspect of the temperance movement will shortly be presented to the people of this community. Rev. Dr. E. S. Chapman of Los Angeles who arrived on the Soanoma is the state superintendent of California of the American Anti-Saloon League and he has been invited by the Ministerial Union to elucidate the scheme of the league, by which it hopes to abolish the saloons.

Dr. Chapman is a man of striking personality and although his hair is snowy white, he possesses the vigor and enthusiasm of youth which he infuses into his crusades against the saloons.

"I have now been three years state superintendent of the league in California and during all of that time I have not heard one person venture to oppose or criticize the plans, purposes and aims of the league.

"Our plan is to submit the existence of the saloon to a majority of the people in every locality. If they want it let them have it. If they don't want it let us abolish it.

Dr. Chapman evidently is in sympathy with Mrs. Carrie Nation the terror of the saloon keeper in Wichita, Kansas where she has gained considerable notoriety by demolishing several resorts.

"Many questions have been raised by people as to whether Mrs. Nation is pursuing the law into her own hands and some have criticized the resort to such drastic measures.

DEPUTIES ARE SWORN IN LAST GOVERNMENT DEAL AT WORK.

Chief Deputy Hasson Warns Them Against Fraud and Charges of Fraud. The Registration Office.

Thirteen deputy collectors of internal revenue were sworn in before Notary N. Fernandez at 8 and 10 o'clock this morning and entered upon their duties at once as registrars of changes. They will be under District Deputy Drake, and Deputy Smithies will be the sub-head of the office force.

Chief Deputy Collector W. F. C. Hasson assembled the new deputies at 9 o'clock and gave them preliminary instructions. The following answered roll call: Archie Smithies, in charge of office force; A. Cowen, A. W. Neely, R. L. Scott, James Olds, Jr., J. M. Sims, H. Jagers, W. Gibbs, Madden, Carroll, Lou Joe and Spencer.

"Now, gentlemen," continued the chief deputy, "I wish to caution you that in all your acts you so conduct yourselves as to avoid even the suspicion of fraud.

"Another thing: There is a strike now on at the postoffice. As officials of a government bureau, it occurs to me to be your duty to willingly lend your services to another bureau, should such an arrangement be deemed advisable by the heads of the respective offices concerned.

NOT YET WANTED.

Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon Postmaster Oat had not accepted the offer by the deputy collector of the revenue office of the services of two men to take over the strike in the postoffice. Mr. Oat will not make the call unless a rush of mail should make it absolutely necessary.

NIPPON MARU ARRIVES.

The Nippon Maru arrived at about two o'clock this afternoon from China and Japan. She has about 700 tons of freight for Honolulu and will leave here at eight o'clock in the morning, taking snail.

NAHUKU MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Nahuku Sugar Company was held yesterday, but the election of officers and other business were postponed until March 28. No business was transacted. It is understood that some important negotiations are in progress and that at the meeting in March a reorganization of the plantation may take place.

A CONVINCING ANSWER.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmons drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism."

EXCHANGE OF LAND ON WEST SIDE OF HARBOR.

Get's Wharf Room For Two Fish Ponds Near the Prison—Deal Approved by War Department.

The settlement yesterday between the Territorial government and the Oahu Railroad Company in regard to the exchange of certain lands on the west side of Honolulu harbor for other lots on the Waikiki and Ewa side of the harbor has settled a question that has been open for more than two years.

The immediate and most important result of the exchange is that the work of dredging the slips and constructing the wharves on that side of the harbor will now go ahead without any possibility of interruption.

It will be remembered that Mr. Dillingham's plan was to construct three wharves on the west side of the harbor all running back parallel toward the prison. The first two on the mauka side to belong to the railroad, and the third, or main wharf, on the mauka side, was to be owned and controlled by the government.

The Territorial government will have to dredge a half of the slip on the mauka side of the main wharf and all of the big slip on the mauka side. It is the intention of the superintendent of public works to recommend an appropriation for this purpose, believing, as he does, that this will be the best disposal of the harbor lands.

A very generous contribution has been received by the Honolulu Eye and Ear Infirmary from S. E. Damon who sent the institution a check for $250 today.

ENDOWMENT BOND.

Do you know that an Endowment Bond in the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society combines protection and investment, and at the end of twenty years the principal sum would be paid to you in cash with accumulated profits, and in event of death during the premium paying term, a cash addition to the principal sum assured, representing a return of from thirty to ninety per cent of the total premiums paid would be included in the amount then due and payable to your beneficiary? I. R. Burns, resident manager, New Magoon Building.

MEMORANDA.
The gasoline schooner Surprise is expected on Sunday morning from Kauai. The steamship Sonoma did not get away for the Colonies until about three o'clock yesterday afternoon, making her stay in port over 24 hours.
Four foreign steamers leaving in one day was yesterday's record. The Zealandia and Albion left for San Francisco and the Hongkong Maru and Sonoma for their destinations in China and the Colonies respectively. By tomorrow there will probably be two more, the Nippon Maru and Sierra, on the way to San Francisco.

WAIILEALE ARRIVES.
The steamer Waiialeale arrived yesterday from Kilauea, towing the schooner Fannie Adele. She picked up the schooner at seven in the morning. The schooner was sailing from Eleele.

ROSAMOND REACHES PORT.
SAN FRANCISCO, January 22.—After a passage of twenty-one days from Honolulu, the schooner Rosamond arrived yesterday with a few passengers and a cargo of sugar. Captain Ward reports that for almost the entire distance from Honolulu to this port his vessel was in company with the bark Olympic, sometimes one in advance and again the other, until the Olympic caught the wind Saturday that brought her into port ahead of the Rosamond.

SUB PORTS OF ENTRY.
WASHINGTON, D. C., January 18. Congress yesterday passed the first bill of the session which will affect the Hawaiian Islands in its operation. This was the bill to provide for the creation of new sub-ports of entry at the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury. The bill was introduced by Senator Frye in the Senate and was reported from the Commerce Committee, of which he is chairman, at once.
It was put on the calendar of the Upper House, and under a suspension of the rules, it was passed without objection during the first hour of the session. The bill was drawn by William Haywood, and has for its object the placing of aids to the commerce at the command of the business community. Under its provisions the Secretary of the Treasury, whenever he sees fit, may declare any landing in the islands a sub-port, for the transaction of business of the Customs Department. This will permit the designation of such places in Kauai and on windward Hawaii as he sees fit as ports.
Further than this it means that should the usefulness of a sub-port be passed there will not be any action of Congress necessary to change the location of the port, but this may be done by the Secretary directly.
Another bill was introduced in the Senate, by Senator Perkins of California, for the purpose of granting to the ports of Honolulu and Hilo the rights of immediate transportation, and has passed the upper body and is now in the hands of the House. It will be taken up by the Committee on Commerce at once and will be pushed.

FOR A CABLE.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15.—Once more there will be made a determined effort to have the bill for the construction of a Pacific cable placed before the House and with good prospects. Delegate Wilcox began a canvass of the members of the California delegation yesterday with hopes of enlisting their sympathy and aid. He was successful to the last degree, and at once arranged for a hearing of the combined delegations with the Speaker.
There are enough votes ready to pass the bill should it ever get before the House, but the reluctance of the controlling spirits has thus far been the stumbling block. There is little real objection to the bill, but there has been some feeling against the expense which this measure will entail at this time. The strength of the Pacific Coast delegations will be put behind the measure, and it seems that there will be a material accretion of strength when the full force of the Westerners is in working order.

THE DOLLAR IS AT FAULT.
Bishop Potter says we chase the dollar too hard. Then let the dollar let up a little on its rapid gait.—Minneapolis Journal.

UNUSUAL.
In these days of disputed wills a case in which a man's wishes are fulfilled in regard to giving his money to charity, without his having left any specific provisions, is rare. The heirs of the late David Whitney of Detroit have given $125,000 to some 39 charitable and religious institutions of that city in the belief that he would have so provided had his life been spared.—Springfield Republican.

THEIR CLAIMS SET AT REST.
The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Company, general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

"THE ANGLE LAMP" The Light that Never Falls

It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the Islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people) but besides being infinitely cheaper it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble, is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light from every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $1.80 up.

Nerves Unstrung.

Weak Stomach; Pain in the Chest; Sleepless, Nervous, Irritable; all run Down. Cured by Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Nearly every disease is the sign of poverty, either of the blood or of the nerves. When the brain cells and nervous tissues are used up faster than they are repaired, not only the brain and nerves, but every vital organ of the body cries out for help. Headaches, neuralgia, heart disease, nervous dyspepsia and liver and kidney troubles run rampant in the helpless system, destroying whatever strength remains until at last the break-down comes and then—while the nervous system is rapidly built up again and put to work without confusion, thus bringing all the important organs into harmony and restoring perfect health. "About seven years ago I was all run down with nervousness and heart trouble and was so bad that I had to give up work. I was nervous, sleepless and irritable all the time and although several doctors treated me I did not improve any under their care. Hearing Dr. Miles' Nervine well spoken of for such troubles I commenced using it and grew better from the start. When I had used three bottles I felt that I was cured; but I still keep a bottle of the Nervine on hand, and when I am unusually tired or nervous I take a dose and am all right again. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine and Liver Pills along with the Nervine and found them the best Liver Pills on the market." ALBERT CRANE, Newark, Ohio. Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold at all drug stores on a positive guarantee. Write for free advice and booklet to DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

THE NEW KING'S HEALTH

MUCH DIVERGENCE OF OPINION ON IT.

He Has Become a Careful Liver, Smokes Less Than He Did—He Has a Robust Appearance.

NEW YORK, January 21.—A cable to the World from London says: In the light of his succession to the throne the health of the Prince of Wales is eagerly discussed in society. There is much divergence of opinion among his friends as to his prospects of life. In appearance he is certainly better now than he was before the accident to his knee in July, 1898. This is due to the fact that while invalided he acquired habits of careful living which he has observed since. True, he is somewhat stouter, and, while his color is that of a healthy man, it is unquestionably noticeable that one side of his face is drawn and he suffers from an incessant twitching of the left eye. The Prince dines sparingly at his meals, either of whisky and soda or champagne and seltzer. He rarely takes wine nowadays unless it is altogether faultless in quality. Formerly he was fond of heavy, highly seasoned dishes, such as Irish curries, salmon and the like, but these he now avoids. While the Prince was waiting on Sunday evening for the arrival of the Kaiser at Charing Cross the World correspondent scanned him narrowly. A very short distance intervened and it was possible to see every movement of the Prince's face and every action of his carriage. One could not help being struck by the appearance of physical robustness of the heir to the throne in walk, gesture and general demeanor. As if in training for the kingship the Prince has of late greatly limited his cigarette and cigar smoking. In the country outdoors he has always smoked a brier pipe. The Prince will be King in fact, as well as in name. He has energy which all the others of his family lack entirely. It is said that the Princess when Queen, will efface herself much as Victoria has done, being devoted wholly now to religious exercises and the golf between husband and wife is impassable. At the same time the Prince's relations with the Duke of York, his heir, are said to be none too affectionate. The Duke despises Sassoon, the Rothschilds and other friends of his father. These men, for their part detest the Duke of York, declaring that he gives himself far more airs than his father. In fact the family of the Prince is divided against itself, but its head holds the course strong and is the undisputed ruler. SUBMIT THEIR CASE. Street Car Lamb and Lion Lie Down Together.

THE RAPID TRANSIT AND HAWAIIAN TRAMWAYS COMPANIES have agreed to submit their issues in regard to tracks on King street to the Justices of the Supreme Court and to abide by the decision. The following are the facts agreed on for submission: That said Tramway Company proposes to lay a double track, other than the necessary turnouts and switches along King street, and to operate thereon a tramway by electricity.

That the said Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company is the lawful holder of a franchise granted to Clinton G. Ballentyne and others by Acts 69 and 70 of the Session Laws of 1898, and having received a petition from the majority of the owners of property on King street, asking it to lay a railway along said street, and the Executive Council having consented thereto, for that portion of King street lying between Nuuanu Stream and Thomas Square, it proposes to lay such railway and to operate the same on said street between said points, the distance between said points being greatly in excess of 1,700 feet.

The question to be submitted to the court, and concerning which the parties have agreed to abide by the decision of the court, are as follows: 1. Has the Hawaiian Tramways Co., Ltd., the right to lay a double track along King street as above described? 2. Has the Hawaiian Tramways Co., Ltd., the right to operate a tramway by electricity? 3. Has the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company the right to lay a track on King street for more than 1,700 feet? The judgment of the court is asked to settle these questions of difference.

IT WILL BE CALM.

It is strange, but it is a fact, that there is always much speculation when a sovereign dies as to what may be the result. One would think that experience would have shown that however great a sovereign may have been however strong the influence, in constitutionally governed countries the progress of the nation is not changed by a change of titular rulers. In constitutional countries parties rule, not men. Men may impress themselves upon the party, but they can disappear and the party goes on. Occasionally a party may make a mistake in its leader, and thus alienate people who would otherwise work with it, but the mistake can be remedied and the party marches along to progress. And what is true of parties, which as such acknowledged exist only in constitutionally governed countries, is true of sovereigns or presidents or whatever appellation may be given to those who are put into or acquire the representative position of a nation.

Let us for a moment consider modern history, much of which has passed under the eyes of those who read these words. Lincoln was a great man, one of the greatest men of his age. He was emphatically the embodiment of the advancing thought of his time and he showed the most excellent judgment in guiding that thought. It is needless to write words of praise over the work and to the memory of a man who was above all praise. Lincoln was cut off, untimely. But did that death stay the advancement of the cause or causes to which Lincoln had devoted his life? Most emphatically it did not. The man died, but the spirit lived.

It was not so many years ago that Bismarck seemed the embodiment of Germany. When Bismarck was gone, what would happen? The Deluge? But Bismarck retired, died and Germany still progresses, still forces forward her great commercial policy, and is still successful. Bismarck, the man, as Lincoln, the man, did his duty for his time, but because the hand was lifted from the tiller, it was not to be supposed that there were no other hands ready to grasp the lines and guide as well as ever guidance had been given before.

There have been cases where everything has dropped to pieces when the end came, but that has been when all power and every detail has been centered upon one man or woman. No better instance of this could be cited than the Empire of Napoleon. It was magnificent. It was grand. But it was built, not upon the nation but upon a personality, and it disintegrated. Had the battle of Waterloo never been fought, or even had it resulted in a defeat of Wellington, the personal empire had gone. The king pin was broken.

Go back into history and the same thing is displayed. Alexander of Macedon conquered an empire wider than any one has dreamed of before or since. He seemed for a brief space of time the arbiter of the then known world. But power was centered in himself and when he died, chaos ensued. The vast fabric he had built up became disintegrated, and from the fragments other personal governments were constructed, which went the way of all personal governments, past, present and future.

These thoughts naturally occur at the present time, when there has been a change of monarchs in Great Britain and Ireland, and an Emperor, not an Empress rules over India. The policy of the country remains the same whether Edward VII or Victoria were on the throne. The policy of the country is the policy of the majority of the people. As a fact the general policy of the United Kingdom will be less changed by the accession of Edward VII, than would have been the policy of the United States had Bryan been inaugurated on March 4 of this year instead of McKinley.

There is much speculation as to the results of the policy of the new King of England. As a fact there need not be. Kings in the United Kingdom are not supreme. There may be pomp and circumstance about the lives, there may be deference paid to them, but the policy of the country is guided by the voters for good or ill. Whoever may be king, in title, the voter is king in reality, and it is just on this account that there will be no momentous change in British policy, and both those who fear and hope, may rest in peace.

WE FIND IT STRANGE.

A strike of the post office officials is an oddity on these Islands. We have so long been accustomed to work when work is needed, whether it was in time or over time, that a discussion and action upon such a matter as the distribution of mail, which every one is eager for, comes quite as a surprise to our community. Whether the present clerks who have walked out will get redress or not, remains to be seen, but they have most undoubtedly established a precedent which will be listened to and acted upon by the Postmaster-General.

The men who are working in the post office are working under a system. They are supposed, and indeed obliged under certain penalties to be present each day at a certain time. They are obliged, whether there may be work or not to be at their posts during certain specified hours. There is no specification that they should work over time without pay. Because it was the custom here to have men work over time without pay, is no reason for men working for the Federal Government on similar terms. With our easy system of working, when business was slack, clerks could get off for a day or so at a time. The Federal system demands that there shall be no let off, save on certain specified times.

The city of Honolulu may have lost something in the way of getting its mail, but it has learned a lesson in the ideas of civil rights. It was a surprise to the population that men in Federal employ should have asserted themselves as these men did. But this is the true idea of Americanism. Whether the employ is federal or state every employe wants to have his rights respected. When working for the government he feels that he is under hours, and naturally feels that calling for his work after those hours is an imposition. Feeling that it is imposition the men have taken, in this post office matter a very strong step. The chances are that will lose their places, but the result will be that extra time will be paid for. It is very noble to be a pioneer in any cause, but it sometimes smashes up the pioneer pretty badly. It is to be hoped that the Hawaiian post office pioneers will not be badly hurt.

TO BE SOLVED.

Gambling among the small boys is growing in proportions and threatens to become a very serious evil. The boys are chiefly, if not entirely Hawaiian or part-Hawaiian. There are regular gangs of them on the wharf, on Liliha street, at Kewalo, up the Valley, and probably a dozen places besides. These gambling games are carefully guarded, and it is next to impossible to break them up. A crap shooter can in a moment become "a whining school boy, creeping like small unwillingly to school," and when the school police get after him, he runs like a goat and perches upon inaccessible rocks, meanwhile like Ingoldsby's monk follows the example of that worthy gentlemen who is shown as follows:

"The Sacristan said not a word to indicate a doubt, But he put his thumb unto his nose and he spread his fingers out."

One may smile at the difficulties of the school police, and laugh over it, and yet there is a very serious side. Judge Wilcox's court shows that there are many children who should be in school, and should be cared for, whom it is almost impossible for the educational authorities to reach.

We need on this Island a better reformatory system. We need money for it. We need it for boys and we need it for girls. Reform of morals is going to come from below with this class of people. It is all very well to throw up hands at results and say "Oh, how dreadful!" but where has the money of the community been which would make things better. There has been a pitiful dole which has been used as best it could be, but there has been no real work.

What this community should have is two Industrial Schools at least in which the waifs and strays,—and how many they are few people can imagine—should find a home first, and education afterwards. We allow our waifs to grow up and we wonder why the boys become thieves and the girls go astray. The coming Legislature must grapple with this question and help to solve it partly. That it should be wholly solved is impossible.

If the contractor advertise himself upon the concrete side walks, why should not any one else. Between the Opera House and the Telephone office there are probably half a dozen flags with the contractor's name marked on them. The next thing we may expect is the patent medicine man with red paint, the showman with brilliant leaflets, and then the auctioneers with variegated colors. Seriously, it is absurd to allow a contractor to mark public work in this way and The Star recommends it to the attention of the Superintendent of Public Works.

It is true that we have many vices here, it is not true that vices are worse than those found elsewhere. On these Islands vice is more concentrated and the evil minded naturally gravitate to that which is vicious and having wallowed in their mess, leave here and proclaim their own shame. Then there are the prurient who go to see vice, though they do not indulge in it, and they speak and write of its evils, plus their own visual experiences. There are moral questions which require the deepest thought. There are possibly means of alleviation, but one doubts very seriously whether legislation can reach such blots upon the social system. That they are blots, that they are festers is true. That they have been blots and festers for thousands of years is true, as any one who knows his bible from cover to cover must acknowledge. But how is one going to deal with this question. To do away with one phase of it by law is only to invite a far worse condition of affairs. But one hesitates to say what the results would be, but any man or woman who has made a study of history will know. The second state would be worse than the present. Upon such matters legislation should be very careful and very slow.

THE SEATTLE-MANILA LINES PNEUMONIA THREATENED

TWO LARGE NEW STEAMSHIP ENTERPRISES.

The Waterhouse Company Establishes The First Line From the Coast to The Philippines.

M. J. Bissell, the Honolulu agent with Alexander & Baldwin of the Waterhouse line of steamers, has received news from Seattle that that city has in prospect two steamship lines to Manila. The Colonial Steamship company of New York and Seattle, and the China Mutual Steamship company are both preparing to establish regular lines between the Sound port and Manila. The first named has settled upon definite plans and it will give to Seattle the first line to be established between the Pacific Coast and Manila.

A monthly service will be inaugurated in April, with the steamer Strathgyle as the first vessel on the route. F. W. Smythe, who has been government contractor for many thousands of tons of freight sent on transports, to the Seattle agent of the line. In an interview forwarded here to Mr. Bissell from Seattle he made the following statements regarding the service:

"Seattle is to be the first field of Pacific trade with the Philippine islands, with a well-equipped and financially responsible line of steamships operated by the Colonial Steamship Company, of which the principal owner is the well-known shipping firm of C. T. Bowering & Company, Limited, of London and New York. A month ago I left Seattle for New York to complete negotiations which I have had under way for a year past, having as their object the establishment of a line of steam vessels between this city and Manila. The project would have been inaugurated some time ago but for the Boxer outbreak in China and the consequent disturbances in the Orient, which raised the charter price of steam vessels materially.

"As a result of the negotiations the firm of which Mr. Bowering is the head decided to at once make preparations to place at least three vessels on the Seattle and Manila run. We have made traffic arrangements with transcontinental railroads to carry our freight from the Atlantic seaboard to Seattle, where it will be transhipped by steamer to Manila. The freight will be billed through from the East to the Philippines.

"The steamers employed on the line will have a carrying capacity of approximately 5,000 tons each. The Strathgyle will carry 7,000 tons and will immediately on her return from the Orient on her present voyage.

"After the Strathgyle we will load the steamship Royalist, capacity 5,000 tons, and she will be followed by the Belgian King, a vessel of the same size as the Royalist. This will give us at least a monthly service.

"From Seattle to Manila we will have full cargoes as a rule the principal commodities to be carried being flour, feed, beer, lumber and staves, including manufactured products from the East. I do not believe there will be any difficulty in getting all the freight we can handle from Seattle to the Philippines.

"Coming this way, our principal cargoes will be hemp at least at first. It is not expected that the steamships will have full cargoes coming east, at any rate not until peace has been permanently restored in the Philippines and the country is again made productive.

"In a short time we will be able to obtain shipments of hard woods for furniture manufacturing and interior finish of buildings and railroad passenger cars. For these uses there is a good demand even now."

DEPUTY SHERIFF CHILLINGWORTH SERIOUSLY ILL.

Overwork Causes Invaliding of an Officer Who has Done Several Men's Work.

Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth is still confined to his bed by illness. He is suffering from an attack of grip and is threatened with pneumonia. The breakdown is the result of a long siege of overwork under a police court and morgue system which many people have called very "jazy" for a town like Honolulu. For many months Chillingworth has filled the offices of deputy sheriff, coroner and prosecuting attorney all at once, besides leading in nearly all the detective work done by the local department.

When the transport Grant was here her officers commented upon the many sidedness of the office of deputy sheriff in Hawaii. The officer had some men under arrest and went to find out about them. Chillingworth was busy receiving the morning callers who wanted warrants. They came later and found that Chillingworth was prosecuting cases before Judge Wilcox. Judge Wilcox adjourns court at twelve o'clock and the officers from the Grant showed up a few moments afterwards, hoping to get the official ear and get their men out. An inquest had been set for twelve, and the deputy sheriff was closeted with a coroner's jury.

For many months Chillingworth has been up against the duties of the several jobs and he has spent his nights in hard police work, optimum raids, gambling raids, coroner's calls and a variety of police work took up a lot of the nights and the days were occupied in prosecuting, holding inquests and attending to other routine matters. Honolulu has practically no force of detectives at all, such as other cities of similar size have ready at hand to investigate whatever comes up, and the exigencies of the work have fallen upon the deputy, who won a well deserved high reputation for clever and energetic work.

This morning the deputy was reported to be quite seriously ill, and it will be some day before his physician allows him to leave his bed.

BULKHEADS TO BLAME.

Why Bullets Fly to Sea and Endanger Yachtsmen.

The principal cause of bullets flying seaward from the Kakaako rifle range is the condition of both the target and the marksman's bulkheads. After over three years of service the bulkheads have been practically shot to pieces. It is very doubtful that much sand remains in a number of them, as on several cases of heavy southern seas the lower sections have been swept by waves. The marksman's bulkheads, eight in number, are in better condition.

There is a pressing necessity for renewing all of the target bulkheads at once, for in their present state bullets will pass through most of them. The department is doing a little work on them already, but only one bulkhead has been taken up at a time and as the force of workmen is so small it takes weeks to complete it. Some day some island steamer or yacht, approaching the channel, will receive a 45-70 and then the military authorities will wish they had got a move on.

That man failed to shut the door, and the strong draft struck you squarely in the chest. A draft means a cold, a cough, pneumonia, and often the beginning of consumption itself. You shun a draft. But you can't when riding in the street-cars; either in the closed or open cars. Then keep at hand a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It will cure a "street-car cold" in a night. The moment you feel chilly or feverish, want to cough, or have any tightness in the chest take a dose. The relief is immediate. Put up in large and small bottles. HAWAIIAN WHISKEY CASE BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT OF THE NATION. Where Duties on It Illegally Collected? Suit Involves Constitution and Flag Question—Appellant's Argument.

WASHINGTON, January 17.—When the hearing in the United States Supreme Court had been completed in the other cases involving the connection of the United States with their insular possessions, the case of George W. Crossman et al., appellants, vs. the United States was called. This case is one covering the entry of goods from Hawaii, consisting of whisky, brandy and jam, at the custom house at New York, April 25, 1900, and is the only Hawaiian case in the list. Duty was assessed under the provisions of the Dingley law. The importers protested against collection of duty on the ground that the Hawaiian Islands were a part of the territory of the United States, and that the provisions of the act which continued the customs laws of the republic of Hawaii in force until Congress should legislate was unconstitutional.

Wickham Smith presented the case for the appellants. He laid down the following propositions, upon which, he said, his clients rely: 1. At the time of the importation of these goods the Hawaiian Islands, having been by the action of Congress, approved by the President, annexed as a part of the territory of the United States, were not a foreign country within any sense of that term, and certainly not within the sense of that term as used in the enacting clause of the Dingley tariff act.

2. The action of Congress in providing in the joint resolution of annexation that the customs relations of the Hawaiian Islands with the United States and with other countries should remain unchanged until Congress should further legislate on the subject was a violation of the provision of the Constitution that "all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States."

3. As such joint resolution provided for the collection at the ports of the Hawaiian Islands of duties upon articles imported from other parts of the United States, this was, in effect, a violation of the provision of section 9 of the Constitution that "no tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state."

Counsel argued that this case was not like others before the court recently, for the reason that there was no question involved as to the force or effect of a treaty, the government of the republic of Hawaii having ceded its sovereignty to the United States, which cession the Congress ratified. There is no question of a military government. The language of the annexation act provides that the islands were annexed "as a part of the territory of the United States."

Mr. Smith then argued that in the places where the words "United States" were used in the Constitution, with but one exception, the term includes the states and territories as well. The exception is that clause providing for the election of presidential electors. After considering the application of the naturalization and bankruptcy laws in territories and states alike, counsel said:

"It would be a strange view of language to hold that the words 'throughout the United States' in article 1, section 8, were narrowed or more limited in their scope than the words 'the United States' in the fourteenth amendment. There is no principle of grammar, logic, law or common sense on which the words 'throughout the United States' in the uniformity clause, with regard to taxation, can be restricted to the states excluding the territories."

"A long line of decisions by this court that certain fundamental limitations upon the power of Congress contained in the Constitution are in force in various territories of the United States, are disposed of by those on the other side of this controversy by the statement that the Constitution operates in these territories because Congress has seen fit to extend it to them by its own act. In other words, they advance the doctrine that the Constitution has no force or operation in any territory until Congress extends it to them and, of course, this logically implies that it only extends there to the extent to which Congress puts it there can remain there only so long as Congress chooses to permit. In other words, those who hold that Congress puts the Constitution into the territories, cannot escape from maintaining that Congress has power at any time to take the Constitution out of the territories. If the Constitution operates today in Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma only because Congress has chosen to extend it to those territories, it must be within the power of Congress tomorrow to enact that the Constitution shall no longer be operative in any of its parts in these territories. Indeed, it is a question whether Congress would need to go through that form. A special subsequent statute repugnant to a prior general statute obviously repeals the latter (the Cherokee tobacco case, 11 Wall, 616) and, therefore, according to those who are opposed to us in this case, Congress must have a right tomorrow to create an order of nobility in Oklahoma or to pass a bill of attainder in Arizona."

Counsel then cited cases had been cited where it was held that countries captured in war or ceded by treaty should be held as foreign until Congress had legislated to define their status. This, he said, would not help the government in this case, as the islands were not conquered or annexed by treaty, but by legislative action.

Mr. Smith then cited a treasury decision of April 17, 1900, holding that Porto Rico was not a foreign country within the meaning of the drawback clause of the Dingley law, and asked why Hawaii should have been considered a foreign country at that time.

Counsel followed with arguments tending to show that the uniformity clause of the Constitution with reference to indirect taxes is one of the fundamental limitations upon the powers of Congress, and that in consequence the provision of the annexation act which continued in force the customs regulations of the republic was a clear violation of the uniformity clause. From this he went on to argue that in case the islands were considered foreign any tax collected there upon goods coming from this country would be a tax on goods from a state to the islands were taxed at the point of shipment or at the destination, as the charge would be from the time the goods were shipped.

The decision of the supreme court of Hawaii, to the effect that the Constitution of the United States had been in force in the islands since August 12, 1898, was cited, and the argument closed thus:

"May Congress in legislating for territory which it has annexed as a part of the territory of the United States disregard the fundamental limitations upon its power written in the organic law to which Congress owes its existence? If it may, the judgment below is correct. If it may not, that judgment cannot stand."

THE NEW WOMAN CRUSADE. MRS. GABRIEL NATION AND HER SALOON SMASHING. Has the Saloon Keepers of the Wichita Region in Terror—Her Latest Exploits—Often Arrested.

TOPEKA (Kas.), January 23.—A capital special from Enterprise, Kas., says that Mrs. Carrie Nation, the Wichita saloon smasher, had a very busy day in Enterprise, she began her crusade in that town today by demolishing one joint and making an attempt upon another. She also made several speeches. The most interesting incident occurred in the evening when the wife of the man whose saloon Mrs. Nation had wrecked in the afternoon encountered her and deliberately administered personal chastisement in the way of reprisal. The crusader received a badly bruised eye.

Mrs. Nation arrived on the early morning Santa Fe train from Wichita and went at once to the home of C. B. Hoffman, the well-known Populist leader. Hoffman was away, but his wife was at home and a temperance meeting was held at the house at 2 o'clock, attended by a dozen or more women.

After perfecting plans, Mrs. Nation secured a hatchet and started for the business part of town, accompanied by Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. L. A. Case, a leading woman's Christian Temperance Union worker, and another woman who was valued. The two saloon-keepers had locked their places and were in hiding.

Mrs. Nation went to Schilling's place and attacked the glass doors. She smashed the glass out of the frames and stepped into the deserted barroom, leaving the others outside. She smashed the big mirror, chopped glasses in the bar and broke all the glasses and bottles. Then she went to the refrigerator and commenced bringing out cases of beer. She handled them easily, and lifting them high in the air, dropped them on the floor, deftly cracking each bottle left solid after the fall. The floor was soon covered with a mixture of drinkables. But she kept up the work until Marshal W. R. Benham entered, and, taking her by the sleeve, told her she must get out.

"What are you," she demanded, "but a murderer and perjurer in protecting this unholy traffic. Either let me alone or take off your star." But she followed him out, and, calling her companions, proceeded to give the Marshal a blistering arraignment in the presence of the crowd.

She then started for the other joint, but it was well barricaded and offered no plate glass for her to attack. The Marshal refused to allow her to chop down the doors and she finally went home with her companions. She said she had only begun her work and expected to clean out many more places.

About 8:30, as Mrs. Nation was lecturing on the streets, Mrs. Schilling, the wife of the saloon-keeper whose place of business was demolished, came up to her. "I've got you now," she said, and she struck Mrs. Nation twice in the face. A slight gash was cut over the eye and it bled profusely. Mrs. Nation went to a neighboring house and had her eye bandaged and continued her lecture in the street. The crowd was too noisy, and she adjourned to a church near by, where she made a long address.

It is reported she will move on Abilene tomorrow and the Abilene joint keepers are preparing for her coming.

BURIED ALIVE. Louise Schaefer, a New York public school teacher, came near being buried alive last week. The family were in deep grief, and the undertaker's preparations were being made, when one saw the supposed corpse move, and breath returned, although the doctor had decided that death had occurred. After she was revived from her trance, she said that she had at times been conscious of what was going on, though powerless to make it known, and yet she felt no anxiety, which is not the way that persons in her fix feel in the stories.—Springfield Republican.

TWO YEARS NOW. In future enlistments in the National Guard of Hawaii will be for two years in place of one as heretofore. This is in order to conform to the custom on the mainland. The first regiment is to be changed from artillery to infantry, the colors being white in place of red. Dress uniforms for the rank will be one of the first things to come in the immediate future. This will be a big contract, but can probably be gotten through before the parades of the May and July holidays.

THE CHINESE SITUATION

CHINESE GOOD FAITH MUST BE EVIDENT.

Reply to the Latest Note of the Plenipotentiaries Will be Made by the Foreign Ministers Thursday.

PEKING, January 22.—Today the foreign envoys discussed the report of the Chinese plenipotentiaries, especially in the matter of punishments, and exempted Tsi Lian and Tsi Wing as being less guilty than the others. The report to the Chinese was delivered Thursday. It will emphasize the point that the signing of the agreement will be without value unless good faith is shown by acts, and that it will be absolutely useless to expect the removal of the troops or concessions upon the part of the allies until China conclusively proves her good intentions.

Russia has almost completed the turning over of the railroads to the Germans, Count von Walderssee expects to leave early in April. The Germans say they will keep the railroad temporarily as a military necessity. The British object to this course, and the matter will be referred to the home governments.

TIEN TSIN, January 22.—It is reported in German circles that unless the peace negotiations are satisfactorily concluded early next month an expedition will be organized to bring Emperor Kwang Hsu and Prince Tuan to Peking.

LONDON, January 22.—"The Russian troops evacuated Tien-tsin Sunday," says the Tien-tsin correspondent of the Standard writing Saturday, January 19th, "but yesterday they were suddenly recalled here."

WILL NOW MAKE BEER.
Hops and most of the final odds and ends of material for the new brewery arrived at the Zealandia. In a very few days the machinery will be set in motion and a try at beer making will be had. The ice and refrigerator departments of the brewery are already in full working order.

WANT OPEN MEETINGS.
It is understood that the Independents in the coming session of the Legislature will insist that if the governor is to continue his executive meetings for the transaction of public business that those meetings shall be open to newspaper men and the public.

MRS. LEASE SUES FOR DIVORCE.
WICHITA (Kan.), January 21.—Mary E. Lease today filed suit for divorce from Charles L. Lease in the District Court of Sedgewick county. Accompanying the petition is a waiver signed by Mr. Lease signifying his intention of not contesting.

SMITHSONIAN OFFICIAL DEAD.
WASHINGTON, January 21.—Colonel C. H. Hilder, chief clerk of the Bureau of Ethnology of the Smithsonian Institution died today aged 70 years. He was well known as a magazine writer and lecturer.

AGAINST KINYOUN.
SACRAMENTO, January 23.—In the Senate this morning the joint resolution introduced by Cutter of Yuba early in the session asking the President to transfer Dr. Kinyoun, the Federal quarantine officer at San Francisco from the position he has filled to that city's detriment was passed by a vote of 28 to 9.

THE KINCAID RECEPTION.
New Central Union Parsonage Given a House Warming.

The four hundred among church goers attended the reception given by Rev. and Mrs. William M. Kincaid at their beautiful home on Punchbowl slope last evening. The reception was in the nature of a house warming for the new parsonage of Central Union Church, in which the pastor and his family have just become settled. The receiving party consisted of Rev. and Mrs. Kincaid, Mr. Brown, Mrs. Castle and Mrs. Guilford Whitney. Features of the evening were music and refreshments.

The musical program of the evening was under the direction of Miss Caroline Castle. The opening number was Newton's famous hymn, "Zion City of Our God," selected at the request of "Mother" Castle, and sung by the entire assemblage. This was followed by a violin solo by Miss Maud Kinney. Mrs. Otis, Miss Hyde, Mrs. Guilford Whitney and Miss Griswold rendered the "New Year's Hymn;" Miss Winne gave a Madrigal by Harris; Marchetti's "Holy Redeemer" was sung by a sextette consisting of Mrs. McDonald, Miss Winne, Mrs. Yarrow, Miss Needham, Miss Griswold and Miss Yarrow, while a piano duet by Miss Hyde and Mrs. Richards closed the program. Refreshments were served by the young women of the Christian Endeavor Society of the church.

EXPERIMENT STATION.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—The House Committee on Agriculture will put into its forthcoming bill a provision for the establishment of an agricultural experiment station in the Territory of Hawaii, at an expense of $12,000. This amount was agreed upon at a meeting of the committee when DeLozier, Wilcox presented the claims of the Territory for such recognition. The amount asked was $15,000, but when it was seen that Alaska and Porto Rico did not get more than the sum finally fixed, there was no attempt to force the larger appropriation.

This appropriation will be available immediately and will be expended under the directions of the Secretary of Agriculture. It is the hope of Secretary Wilson that he may send to the islands several new things in the way of small fruits and berries, and the station will be one for the close study of conditions in the tropics.

THE SENATORIAL DEADLOCKS.
LINCOLN (Neb.), January 23.—The vote on United States Senators today resulted as follows: Allen, fusion, 54; Thompson, fusion, 50; Cronin, 7; Currie, 20; Hainer, 5; Hinshaw, 15; Melkieson, 25; Rosewater, 16; Martin, 7; Harrington, fusion, 5; scattering, 15; necessary to choice, 65.
DOVER (Del.), January 23.—The eighth day's joint session of the Legislature failed to elect two United States Senators for Delaware. The vote showed little change.

BIG FIRE IN MONTREAL.
MONTREAL, January 24, 1 A. M.—One of the most destructive fires from which this city has ever suffered began at 8 o'clock last night, and, notwithstanding the efforts of the entire Fire Department, the progress of the flames was not checked until 1 o'clock this morning. By that time it had destroyed property valued at between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000, and was still burning.
