Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But Established for the Benefit of All. MONDAY, MARCH 26, 1894.

Machine politics is to be further promoted Tuesday evening by the election of two delegates from all district clubs of the American Union party to a "national central committee." Where does the "nation" get on in all this "national" business?

In this issue a correspondent, who it may be said is one who was "in it" in January, 1893, insists on a fair division of tangible results. The receding of annexation into dim futurity has brought other objects of the revolution into very high relief. There is only one way to satisfy all of the men from whom the Government hold their commissions. It is simple. Billet them for their support on those who have held back from the movement, making the poor ones work for them and the rich ones pay them tribute according to wealth.

In a reference to the energetic work being done in London by Hon. Robert Reid, Minister of Defence for Victoria, Australia, on behalf of subsidies for Pacific steamers and cables, a London despatch dating before the elevation of Lord Rosebery says, "It is considered here that in event of Lord Rosebery's becoming premier the cable scheme would be made a certainty." Elsewhere in this issue will be found an article from the San Francisco Chronicle, which tries to prod the insular-minded members of Congress up to a realization of the United States' interest in the matter of a Pacific cable.

On the 21st ult. a letter appeared in the BULLETIN from a casual correspondent at Kau, Hawaii, reflecting on the conduct of the assistant teacher in the public school at Pahala. The publication was made in good faith, on the strength of verbal evidence to the integrity and standing of the writer, and under the conviction that the things alleged were of public importance. When the allegations were challenged later by the legal representative of the teacher assailed, a letter was addressed to the correspondent asking him either to furnish proof of the assertions in question or to take the full responsibility of the writing. He chose the latter alternative, authorizing the editor to give his name up. This statement of facts is published in justice to the aggrieved teacher, pending proceedings he is about to take for satisfaction in the courts. We have been shown a number of most complimentary testimonials to his character, conduct and ability from some of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of Honolulu and of the island of Hawaii.

Wanted Popular Government.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—

The article signed "Fair Play" published in your columns is most interesting and pertinent. The suggestions made therein are sound and opportune. There is no reason in the world why positions of high trust should not be filled by men taken from the rank and file of "those brave men by whose permission" the P. G. exists. Why should attendance at the Central Union Church or family connection be a necessary qualification to obtain a position such as Tax Assessor, Marshal, Deputy Tax Assessor, etc.? This is permissible only as long as the brave men whose commission the present personnel of the government hold remain passive.

The class of men composing the American League are the bone and sinew of the P. G. supporters. They are always relied upon and appealed to in emergencies where men are required. As long as the main question of annexation was trembling in the balance these men stood by the government stolidly, without asking or showing any inclination for a more popular form of government. At last brought to their senses these men are beginning to realize that the fact that one is a good preacher, or a member of the "cousins", uncles, aunts' protective and mutual benefit compact" is hardly a sufficient reason to justify giving him a soft government billet with big pay.

Knowing that the family coteries have by no means a "cinch" on intelligence, even if they have on mortgages and corner lots, they deem it time to call a halt and cry for fair play. A spirit of independence is arising which will ere long have such force as to put an effectual "taboo" on the secret council method of governing a country. There are many men among the mechanics of this country from whom to pick good material for a government. The suggestion that T. Murray receive the appointment to the Marshalship is not by any means a bad one. Mr. Murray is a popular man, a prosperous mechanic, and I, for one, fail to see that the present incumbent is one whit more entitled to the position.

Let us have government of the people, for the people and by the people. Let the offices be filled by the people. Make the heads of the different bureaus elective offices. There are breakers ahead of the oligarchy element, and it's big round cartwheels to little green apples that their name is.

An Australian Cable.

There has been a great deal of talk in this country about a trans-Pacific cable from California to Australia by the way of the Hawaiian Islands, but there has been nothing but talk. While we have been expending our breath and eloquence in demonstrating the advantages and benefits of a self-evident proposition, the Australasian colonists have been at work, and the result, in all probability, will be a cable from New Zealand to British Columbia, via Samoa, Fanning Island and Honolulu.

Commenting upon this proposition the London Times advises England's support of the project, it being shown that the cable, with the exception of Samoa and Hawaii, would be exclusively on British territory. It may occur to some Americans who have been hanging fire over the cable proposition that it will be very difficult to stand off British influence in Samoa if British capital, and the Government of Great Britain behind it, shall control the cable; and in view of recent news from Hawaii it may be just as well to consider what influence the control of the cable may have there.

Our Government is an excellent one in many ways, but it certainly lacks flexibility. We have in Congress too many cheap patriots whose horizon is bounded by the confines of their own district, and who are always ready to oppose an appropriation unless they can see in it some distinct and immediate gain for their own constituents. The crying need of the United States is the cultivation of the national idea, in its broadest and most liberal sense, and the inculcation of the belief that what is best for the country is best for the people of the country from one end of it to the other.

It is very probable that a trans-Pacific cable would not prove an immediate source of revenue, but what of it? Had we possessed cable communication with Hawaii the United States might have saved a great deal of annoyance and mortification of late, and the preservation of a nation's dignity and self-respect ought to be considered at least an equivalent for the interest on the first cost of a trans-Pacific telegraph cable. — S. F. Chronicle.

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. Simply what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit. One has been cured of indigestion or dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache or biliousness, while others report remarkable cures of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, salt rheum, etc.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Decision on Divorce Sundry Matters at Chambers.

A unanimous decision of the Supreme Court by Justice Frear has been rendered, in the case of Akoi (w.) vs. Keu Kau (k.), divorce. The case is remanded to the Fourth Circuit, on the ground that the libel was improperly dismissed, under the circumstances, for want of service of an amendment upon the libellee. S. K. Kane for libellant; D. H. Hitchcock and W. R. Castle for libellee.

Judge Whiting has granted the petition of Waioa for appointment of S. P. Kuaiva as guardian of Pa Kaloa, her son. Kane for petitioner, and the latter with the ward present in person.

The Supreme Court heard the case of Provisional Government vs. Mura, exceptions from Fifth Circuit Court, this morning. Wildor for prosecution; Kaulukou for defendant.

Judge Cooper has granted the petition of Malie (w.) for probate of the will of Nabolowaa (w.) and appointment of S. K. Aki as executor. The bond is $500.

A discontinuance has been filed in the McGrew child habeas corpus case, which leaves the subject in the undisputed custody of the mother. The divorce case is to be pushed by C. L. Carter, guardian of H. G. McGrew, to the utmost.

Before Judge Cooper this afternoon the guardian, on an order to show cause why he should not pay counsel fees in the divorce case, promised with the Court's acceptance that on realizing money from securities in hand the fees would be paid. Guardian in person; C. W. Ashford for respondent.

A Bostonian Abroad.

Curtis Guild, Jr., says, apropos of Boston manners: "I have seen one Boston citizen brush in a tumbled heap the coroneted bags and shawls of a titled Frenchman who occupied four seats in a crowded railway station and left his poorer compatriots, including several ladies, to stand. 'Place aux dames' was the only French the Bostonian could muster, but he had that solid." — Boston Saturday Evening Gazette.

Japanese Swords.

Officers on the Japanese cruiser Takachiho have a beautiful collection of swords and other edge weapons. Some are six or seven hundred years old, but have edges as sharp as razors, and surfaces glittering like burnished silver. Hilt of solid gold, polished and engraved, add to the great value of several of the swords. One is a two-handed weapon only meant for slaying, and in the hands of a skillful warrior would do frightful execution—that is, before the days of rapid-firing firearms. Another dangerous-looking slicer has a wooden handle without guard, corresponding exactly to the scabbard, so that when it is sheathed one sees a plain bent stick. About twenty-five years ago a gentleman of high degree in Japan was required to carry two swords—a long slasher and a short knife-like one. "It was dangerous in Japan in those days," said an officer of the Takachiho, adding naively—"especially for a foreigner."

We have another report from a user of the Jones Locked Fence that clinches Mr. Monsarrat's testimonial. Mr. Eben Low tells us that he was after a wild steer which seemed determined not to have a "lass" over his horns. In his efforts to keep clear of the rope the steer made a break for the Jones fence, evidently not recognizing the difference between it and the old style wire affair. The animal measured the distance, made a running jump and landed on the wire. Mr. Low says the fence was not damaged but the concussion was so great that the steer was stunned. Here was an instance where an almost wild steer did his level best to injure the appearance and reputation of the Jones locked, and failed utterly. Some steers, when they start out to do a thing, accomplish it, but we would like to see the one that can get the best of a fence built on the same principle as the Jones. Mr. Monsarrat's statement was to the effect that he could build this fence cheaper than any other and that in some parts of his land he put the posts seventy-five feet apart. If there is economy in fence building it's in posts. Calculate the difference, then, between posts six or eight feet apart and placing them at the distance stated by Mr. Monsarrat. As to its effectiveness, Mr. Low has had a practical demonstration: he tells us that a steer, no matter how wild, has no show with the Jones Locked Fence.

In his efforts to keep clear of the rope the steer made a break for the Jones fence, evidently not recognizing the difference between it and the old style wire affair. The animal measured the distance, made a running jump and landed on the wire. Mr. Low says the fence was not damaged but the concussion was so great that the steer was stunned. Here was an instance where an almost wild steer did his level best to injure the appearance and reputation of the Jones locked, and failed utterly. Some steers, when they start out to do a thing, accomplish it, but we would like to see the one that can get the best of a fence built on the same principle as the Jones. Mr. Monsarrat's statement was to the effect that he could build this fence cheaper than any other and that in some parts of his land he put the posts seventy-five feet apart. If there is economy in fence building it's in posts. Calculate the difference, then, between posts six or eight feet apart and placing them at the distance stated by Mr. Monsarrat. As to its effectiveness, Mr. Low has had a practical demonstration: he tells us that a steer, no matter how wild, has no show with the Jones Locked Fence.

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

I beg herewith to add my name to your list of testimonials in praise of your Hendry Breaker.

During an experience of 16 years in the cultivation of cane on these Islands I can truthfully say, that yours is the only plow that I have seen that will turn a furrow completely over, under any conditions.

Another point wherein it excels is, the shape of the mould board is such that the plow will clean itself, not continually, but say every 200 or 300 feet, which obviates the necessity of stopping the team; this makes a very favorable showing in the course of a day's work.

I remain, yours truly,

E. E. CONANT.

Mr. Conant tells in his letter where time and money are saved by using the Hendry Breaker. The same may be said of the Hendry Double Mould Board Plow; they are built on the labor saving principle and that means money saving.

The above all Desirable City Residences, at present under rental, offer a very desirable chance for investment or the purchase of an improved residence.

Further particulars can be had of

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR these SHREDDERS and are now prepared to receive orders. The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 50%), also the extraction of juice (5 to 12%).

It is a great safeguard, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes from cars, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without often breaking the SHREDDER; and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juice without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the bagasse by hand between the mills, where regrinding is in use. No greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which was sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and start them.

In ordering SHREDDERS from us, please send small sketch, showing the diameter and width of the mill rolls with which SHREDDER is to be connected, also the side (either right or left hand as you face the delivery side of the mill), upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill roll shaft, and distance center this shaft to front end of bed plate. These SHREDDERS are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Haver Mill, Kohala, where they are giving great satisfaction.

Prices and further particulars may be had by applying to ATHLETIC ENTERTAINMENT.

A Good Attendance and a Lively Show All Round. There was a good attendance at the athletic entertainment at the Beretania street armory on Saturday evening. The club swinging by young H. Skidmore was very neat and elicited great applause. The four-round contest for a silver medal, to represent the bantam champion, was fought for by Mr. Lancaster and A. Jackson, the latter a Hawaiian and pupil of G. Washington. A fifth round was ordered by the referee, and at the conclusion a draw was declared. A clog dance by W. Duncalf was one of the best exhibitions of the kind ever given in Honolulu. The wrestling, Graeco-Roman style, between J. Spencer and W. Wilder was won by the former easily. About this time Joseph Marsden while walking down the hall tripped up and fell on his head. Some was sung out of "first fall," and there were roars of laughter. Varieties by the "Original Big Six" kept the audience in good humor till they retired. Included in the six were three real "cullud gemmens." One of the jokes cracked was about a member of the mounted patrol going down to the wharf to arrest the pile driver for fast driving. This was one on Wagner. The minstrel show was immense. David Mauna displayed masterly skill with the Indian clubs. The entertainment closed with a three-round contest between Jim Barrington, middle-weight, and George Washington, heavy-weight. Jim kept the colored boxer defending himself throughout. The entertainment was a very enjoyable one and many went home hoarse with laughing. Silk handkerchiefs with the Japanese flag in the four corners have been introduced.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

John Eua entertained friends at Manoa yesterday. The Scottish Thistle Club will meet this evening. Dancing party from 3 to 6 this p.m. on the Philadelphia. "Detective" Wagner goes out with de bolice. Good riddance. J. F. Morgan will hold a sale of stocks at his salesroom at noon to-morrow. Alexander Young and two daughters left on the S. S. China to-day for the Coast. Prime fresh halibut and salmon came in the Warrimoo's cold storage to the Metropolitan Meat Co. Capt. Benjamin Thompson of Kennebunkport, Maine, died March 6, aged 100 years and 2 months. Captain Nelson, U. S. N., and Ensign Boswick were passengers here by the S. S. China for the Coast. Lodge Le Progres will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening. All Free Masons are invited. Dan Lyons' dancing academy was attended by about sixty people, both old and young, on Saturday afternoon. The 172 Chinese and 20 Japanese who came on the S. S. China for this port were placed in quarantine this afternoon. A special meeting of the International Schutzen Club will be held this evening, when a full attendance is requested. An offer of employment combined with foreign travel is made to-day, to a girl, or single woman, or a married couple. This evening the Sons of St. George will hold one of their always pleasant socials at their meeting place, Pythian hall, Fort street. The P. G. band plays at Emma Square this evening. Prof. Berger's new march, "The U. S. S. Philadelphia," will be rendered for the first time. R. I. Lillie's furniture will be sold at his residence, Green street (near Beretania cars), on Wednesday at 10 a.m. by James F. Morgan. See the list elsewhere. C. A. Brown was disappointed because J. A. McAndrew did not fetch with him by the Warrimoo 40 head of thoroughbred Polled Angus cattle for island ranches. The departure of the S. S. China was postponed from noon to 2 o'clock, on account of inability to discharge in time. The P. G. band played on the wharf at noon. The faculty of Lake Forest, Illinois, University have refused the baseball club formed by the students permission to take a trip among eastern and southern colleges. Fifty-one Japanese laborers were brought from the Mauna plantation, Kauai, on the steamer Pele yesterday. They refused work unless an obnoxious luna was discharged. Surf-riding in canoes is now all the go among sportsmen in the brine at Waikiki. Society ladies enjoy the sailing sport. One canoe capsized yesterday afternoon but no one was hurt. H. E. Walker offers a good opportunity to a Cleveland bicycle on easy terms. The Cleveland has no superior, as an examination will convince anyone competent to judge. See notice of club. There is a scarcity of fish in the market. Chinese fishermen say the fish have all gone out to deep water, and will return in two months. The Chinamen do not care about going too far to sea after the fish. General Jubal A. Early, one of the best known Confederate commanders in the late civil war, died early this month at Lynchburg. Since the war he has been best known through his connection with the Louisiana lottery. Attorney Magoon was hustling for a writ of habeas corpus on Capt. Ward of the China for the production of Chinese detained on board for lack of satisfactory papers. Nothing seems to have dropped, however. An attack on the Jones, locked fence by a steer is related in the Hawaiian Hardware Co's column. It turned out like Da Gama's attack on Rio—the attacking party was downed. A strong testimonial to the good qualities of the Hendry breaker is appended. Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Squier paid the BULLETIN office a visit this morning. They are through passengers by the China. Mr. Squier is an agent in the silk trade, but incidentally represents the Columbus (O. T. Dispatch). He was formerly a regular newspaper man, but finds more money in silk. There were passengers with less than $50 in their pockets by the S. S. Warrimoo which arrived from Vancouver yesterday, and consequently they had to go on to the Colonies. Three were locked up on the upper deck and two below, while Captain Patterson, harbor policeman, stood guard on the wharf. Members of the American League and Schutzen club were seen going around to-day, endeavoring to get natives to sign the pledge to uphold the Provisional Government and gain the privilege to vote at the constitutional convention election to take place in May. Somehow or other the natives wouldn't bite. The Waller property at Kalihii was sold at noon to-day by J. F. Morgan to the Hawaiian Investment Co. for $15,000. A lot at Palamakai, about 12 acres, went for $200 to John Magoon. A quarter of an acre at Kanaokala sold for $100 to Joseph Smith. Taxes on all properties are unpaid, so that the purchasers will have to pay them.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER.

Great Musical Celebrations in the Churches. Easter Sunday was preceded by impressive services during holy week in the Anglican and Catholic churches day and evening. On the Sunday the churches were densely crowded at the principal celebrations. In the Roman Catholic Cathedral on Thursday evening Very Rev. Father Leonor preached the sermon on the passion, occupying an hour and a quarter. It was a remarkable oratorical feat for the aged priest. He was followed by Rev. Father Campos in Portuguese. The cathedral was crowded to the doors on both occasions. On Good Friday Father Campos presided at the stations of the cross in Portuguese, and Father Francis of St. Louis College in English, both to densely crowded congregations. Father Francis conducted the 9 o'clock mass on Easter Sunday. Music was furnished by the orchestra and choir of St. Louis College. High pontifical mass was celebrated at 10:30 by the Bishop of Panopolis, with Father Francis as deacon, Father Matthias as sub-deacon, and Father Clemeant as assistant priest. St. Louis College band led the music. A great many visitors added to the multitude that overflowed the spacious edifice. There were large congregations present also at the 6 and 7 a. m. services. Many candidates were confirmed in the afternoon. The service of the Portuguese missionary, Father Campos, at 7 p. m. was crowded. All through the services of holy week and Easter Day, the music in the Catholic church is described as having been simply perfect. It was entirely by native singers and players, with the exception of some of the college performers. In St. Andrew's Cathedral the Easter celebration began Saturday evening with a full choral service concluding with the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," to music by Sir Arthur Sullivan. At 5:30 Sunday morning the first service by the second congregation was held, a celebration of the holy communion, the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh officiating. Seventy persons at this early hour partook of the sacred elements. The first congregation at 6:30 held a choral celebration of the holy communion, the Bishop of Honolulu celebrating, assisted by the Rev. V. H. Kiteat. The music was sung by the choir of boys and men. There were about a hundred communicants. At 11 o'clock there was another choral service, intoned by the Rev. V. H. Kiteat. The Bishop preached to a large congregation. Stainer's Te Deum was sung by the boy choir, also the anthem, "The Lord behind." In the afternoon there was service in Hawaiian, at which a number of children were baptized. The second congregation had full choral service at 9:30 a. m., the cathedral being so crowded that many people failed to get admission. Special music was beautifully rendered by the choir of ladies and gentlemen, including: Easter carol, the anthem, "Christ Our Passover," Te Deum by Vogrich, Jubilate by Bridgewater, and an anthem, "On the first day of the week," by Lott. The soprano solos were finely given by Miss McGrew and Miss Ward. Other solo singers were Mrs. Van Vliet, Misses Von Holt and Mrs. Atkinson, Messrs. Hauka and Pierce, Rev. T. Griffiths, Chaplain of H. M. S. Champlain, assisted at the service. Men from the Champlain attended in a body. There followed another celebration of the holy communion, eighty-three persons remaining. Both congregations had goodly attendances at evening prayer. There were a carol and an anthem included in the praises of the second. Wray Taylor officiated at the organ throughout the day for both congregations. Central Union Church observed Easter Day by special music and decorations.

WOMAN IN DISTRESS.

Wife of a Reservoir Keeper Found Half Dead in a Swamp. A telephone message was received at the Police Station Saturday evening from Kaneohe that a woman had been seen at the Pali nearly dead. Captain Rismondo despatched a patrolman and a native officer to the Pali at 10 o'clock to find the woman. The one who sent the telephone said the cries of the woman could be heard on the road. When the officers arrived at a point directly opposite an old shanty on the left-hand side, formerly used for storing tools, near the Pali, they heard wailing as of some one in agony. They pushed into the brush, wandering about a mile and getting up to their waists in water, when they saw a native woman lying on the edge of a swamp with her body half in the water. She had on only a holoku. The woman was half dead, shivering with cold and articulating incoherently. The officers picked her up and carried her out to the road, experiencing great difficulty in pushing through the bushes. They started for town with their load and met a native on the road who recognized the woman as the wife of the keeper of the Nuuanu reservoir. She was then carried to his house. The reservoir keeper said his wife left at 4 o'clock that afternoon to go to the mountains to get guavas, and he was thinking of going to search for her in the morning. The officers started for town at 2 o'clock.

PELL FROM HIS HORSE.

A Native Meets With a Serious Mishap on Palama Road. A native named Makaimi came into town from Palama on horse-back yesterday noon and was returning home about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon, when, opposite the California Feed Co's warehouse, he met with a very serious accident. While he was riding along on his horse stopped, his hat was blown off. He stopped and while in the act of whistling his horse reared, lost his hold and fell off. The unfortunate man struck on the tramway rail on the back of his head, cutting it open and knocking him senseless. Friends picked him up and put him in a hack, he being still unconscious and black in the face. On the way the two men, who were taking him home, thinking he was probably dead, gave him two or three hard blows on the back, which brought him to his senses to their surprise. Besides the cut on the head, Makaimi sustained some injury in the back of the neck.

Hood's Cures

Mr. Arthur Simon of Galatia, Ohio. "They said I was incurable, the doctors did, but the result has proven that Hood's Sarsaparilla was able to cure. I had Scatle Rheumatism and was confined to my bed six months. Three physicians did not help me and I was given up to die. When I was in this terrible condition, unable to move hand or foot, I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle had a little effect, and while taking the second, I gained so rapidly that I could sit up in my chair. My system had been so run down by other medicine, that it took me quite a while to recuperate. By the time I had taken four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I could walk around, and now, as I have taken six bottles, I am cured and can do a good day's work. I do not feel I can praise Hood's Sarsaparilla enough." ARTHUR SIMON, Galatia, Ohio. HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner food, assist digestion, cure headache. Try a box.

The Prize Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co.
Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their
"EAGLE" Brand Beer.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28, 1893.
Messrs. Macfarlane & Co., Ld.,
Honioluli, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the ANHEUSER-BUSCH ASSOCIATION with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Special Despatch to Globe-Democrat.)
WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 26.—No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given to-day by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By methods of unrivalled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given to-day by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

claims that "the need for wise and strong government" gives the "many nationalities" who dwell in Turkey, in Siam, in Serbia, and in China, the right to upset the governments of those countries, whenever they consider them to be in "weak hands."

7. There is no analogy between the reference in this clause to a broken contract, and the Hawaiian facts. The constitution was not broken, until the annexationists broke it. The queen attempted to break it, but failed. I find, however, that the attorney-general thinks so lightly of that sacred contract, that in introducing his notorious "deportation on suspicion bill," he has inserted a condition, that if the constitution interfered with the bill, the Constitution may be broken again.

8. English history does not record a revolution, whose professional aim was to invite a foreign nation to forcibly sequester English territory; and I doubt if any English historian would have expressed satisfaction with the result (whatever it might have been), unless the English people had themselves been parties to it.

9. The verses in the Acts of the Apostles, to whose consideration I am referred (Acts V., verses 38 and 39), read as follows: "Refrain from these men (the apostles) and let them alone; for if this counsel for this work be of men, it will come to nought, but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest haply ye be found even to fight against God."

I am fully convinced of the earnestness and honesty of my unknown correspondent, but I cannot recognize any traces of an apostolic character in the policy or practices of recent Hawaiian history. It is this glamor of unreal religion that has been so grave an injury to a movement which should have been left to develop its own character; then we could have better judged which men were influenced by the Divine law, which men by human law, which men were merely a law unto themselves. I am told that one of the most active annexationists, being one of the foremost officials in various religious associations of Hawaii, was the man who strove to bring before the Courts, for a paltry debt, the Queen, who had poured through his hands as treasurer, or at least to his knowledge, hundreds, if not thousands of dollars. Was that an act of an apostle, or, was it that of a man who sought to mortify, humiliate, and to crush, a defenceless woman whom the United States was asked to pension, but whom the "strong government" of Hawaii is apparently only too willing to starve?

The cry from honest, earnest, but I believe mistaken, Christian lips, was "Annexation is sure." Will my correspondent accept for herself, and for her friends, the test of her own question: "If this work be of men it will come to nought." The only logical conclusion from the present position of annexation, is that it was "of men, and therefore came to nought;" and it will be well not to make public appeal to Providence and to Holy Scripture, unless we are prepared to acknowledge the result, when the decree appears not to be in our favor.

I should have sent a personal reply, if my correspondent had given my name, for her paper demands an answer. All I can do is to recognize what she tells me, that for more than half a century she has been associated with the Hawaiians. With solemn reverence I contemplate the grief and dismay with which she must look on Hawaii to-day. At the head of affairs—if it may be called the head—stand her friends and my friends, those with whom "we took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company," surrounded, supported, pushed on by men who have been, and are, the bitterest enemies of the cross of Christ, and of the work of missions, and who will compel those leaders to drink the cup of revolution to the dregs. On the other hand are the Hawaiians, with all the old love and trust turned to hatred and fear, whilst their pathetic attitude of patriotism and devotion is finding a sympathetic response wherever it is told.

There is no touch of anger in my heart as I study the "fragments of thought" which have been sent to me, only a pained, sorrowful sympathy for the lady who has devoted the years of her life to a work which, from no fault of hers, has been so signally wrecked.

THEO. H. DAVIES.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, all expectation, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.
