PIONEER MILL EXPANSION

At the meeting of stockholders of the Pioneer Mill Company, held at the office of H. Hackfeld & Co. on Saturday, it was resolved to increase the capital stock by $650,000. From $1,350,000 it is to be raised to $2,000,000. The par value of the shares remains at $10.

The Pioneer Mill Co.'s plantation at Lahaina is one of the richest sugar properties in the Hawaiian Islands. Its sugar polarizes higher than the product of twenty other plantations with which it has been compared. This season's crop is twelve thousand tons. It is expected to increase the output next season to between twenty and twenty-five thousand tons.

Two thousand acres will be planted this year, which with a large acreage of ratoons will furnish next season's crop. Next year 3200 acres will constitute the planting, and the year after 4200 acres. Hon. Paul Isenberg, head of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., is president of the Pioneer Sugar Co.

The Orpheum.

Notwithstanding strong counter attractions, the regular patrons of the Orpheum showed loyalty to their first love by attending in force on Saturday evening.

The farce "A Night at the Arlington" and a sketch by May Ashley and Jim Post entitled "A Little Nonsense" were introduced both giving plenty scope for humorous hits and situations.

Miss Dale and Miss Graham rendered some pretty songs, the former in addition giving the Sailor's hornpipe with light and elastic step. The male members of the company also contributed their specialties to the satisfaction and delight of the audience. The program will be repeated this and tomorrow nights.

NEWS OF THE YACHTS

There was an exceptionally fine breeze for sailing all day Sunday. The Abbie M. Myrtle, Marion and Healan took advantage of this and went to Diamond and return in fine time. The Healan held up her end well. She has been completely fitted over again and is now in first class shape. Sunday's spin was the first for her in about four years.

The Dewey, formerly Clarence Macfarlane's boat Alice, came up from Pearl Harbor in the afternoon. C. Johnson has done wonders with her. She sails like a witch now and will stand a fine chance of winning in the yacht races that always take place on Regatta Day.

An attempt is being made to get a fleet of yachts to go to Pearl Harbor a fortnight from now. Should the plan be carried into effect, the fleet will leave Honolulu Saturday afternoon and return Sunday. Already the owners of four yachts have given their consent to place their boats in the fleet. It is thought by the yachtsmen who are arranging for the scheme that it will prove a very enjoyable affair. Eight or ten yachts starting out from Honolulu would make a very pretty sight.

The owners of the fast yachts are very sorry that the yacht races do not take place this month. The breeze has been fine right along so far. If there could be races, all previous records would surely be broken.

Police Court Notes.

In the Police Court this forenoon the following cases were disposed of: Ah Hoo, opium in possession, $50 and costs; Yama shada, violating carriage regulations, reprimanded and discharged; Kaahanui and Tom Birch, vagrancy, nolle pro'd; Waiannua and Kealoha, violating Sunday laws, nolle pro'd. Sixteen cases of drunkenness paid the usual fine.

IN THE HIGHER COURTS

Supreme Court Reverses Decree of Maui Circuit Judge.

Difficulty in Empanelling a Jury for Kahuku Murder Trial—Judge Kalua on Molokai.

A unanimous decision of the Supreme Court, by Chief Justice Judd, has been rendered in the equity case of Kapule and others vs. Mokhiwa and Kahue her husband. It is in favor of plaintiffs, contrary to the decree of the Judge of the Second Circuit dismissing the bill. The law points decided are these:

"An answer to a bill in equity should be signed by respondent, and sworn to by him, unless the oath be waived by the bill.

"An unsworn answer, signed by an attorney for defendants, is no answer.

"A receipt for money by a wife in part payment of land of the wife, her name being written by her husband and crossmark affixed by her, she having agreed verbally to the sale, and the party purchasing immediately entering into possession of the premises, binds the wife, and entitles the purchaser or his heirs to a decree of specific performance."

G. Hoos and Robertson & Wilder for plaintiffs; J. M. Kaneakua for defendants.

All this morning has been occupied before Judge Perry in calling jurors to try the Kahuku murder case. A number have been excused for cause, and peremptory challenges have yet to come.

Judge Stanley is trying a civil case with a Hawaiian jury.

In J. D. Paris vs. Antonio Fernandes the plaintiff has filed an appeal bond in $5000 with J. F. Morgan as surety.

The probate cases heard by Judge Kalua on Molokai were mostly continued. The widow of the late A. Paki Kapaeboale was appointed temporary administratrix without bonds. The value of the estate is about $7000.

J. L. Wailiula was discharged as guardian of the three minor children of the late J. Napapa, and the widow was made administratrix and to have custody of the children.

The petition for administration on estate of Au was withdrawn.

Charity Out-door Performance.

The charitable organizations of the city are to have a benefit next Monday evening on the grounds of Oahu College. Those interested are the Hawaiian Relief Society, Stranger's Friend Society, American Relief and the British Benevolent Society, the members of which will have full charge of the arrangement and the Janet Waldorf Company will give an outdoor production of Shakespeare's pastoral play, "As You Like It." Tickets for this performance will be placed on sale at all the leading business houses in the city and all will be given a chance to see a moral and instructive performance and, at the same time, a chance to lend a hand to the good work done for charity's sake.

Seats are now on sale at Wall, Nichols Co.'s.

A special ticket at a reduced rate will be issued for students which may be secured from Professor Hosmer and members of the faculty.

THE WAHAWA SCHEME.

Trustworthy reports from Kauai are that satisfactory progress was being made in boring for water until the middle of last week. Then hard rock was encountered. The prospectors are confident of striking a good flow after piercing the rock. The boring is in a gulch where there has always been a stream of water. No new developments in the land proposition. Of course the McBryde lands have been a fixture since the inception of the scheme.

BANK OVERSUBSCRIBED.

Subscription lists for the First American Bank of Hawaii opened promptly this morning and the opportunity to subscribe was as promptly taken up by the people. Before 12 o'clock the stock allotted Honolulu had been oversubscribed. Col. Macfarlane says that appearances indicate the apportionment will give subscribers about half the amount subscribed. This is the only block of stock that will be put on the market at par.

Called the Police.

Ottman who keeps the wine shop at Kapiolani Park had to ask the assistance of the police Sunday afternoon to protect his place. He stated that soldiers were attempting to break into his place as he came away. He had refused to give them anything to drink and they were going to have it anyway. When the officers got to the shop they saw a sergeant and corporal run from the place and perch themselves on a fence near by. The door of the place had not been tampered with.

The Australia is due from San Francisco Wednesday morning and the America Maru from the same place the next day. It is very probable that the latter will get in on the same day as the Australia.

plus of the amount paid on deposit will be applied towards the amount due on allotment, and when no allotment is made the deposit will be returned in full.

ABRIDGED PROSPECTUS.

The First American Bank of Hawaii will be incorporated as a temporary organization for the purpose of carrying on a general banking business in these islands and (pending the adoption by the United States Congress of such laws as will permit the establishment of a "First National Bank" in Honolulu) will act as the fiscal agents of the U. S. Government in the Hawaiian Islands, and later, when organized as the First National Bank of Hawaii, under a charter secured, and to be granted to Perry Heath and associates, the bank will become the Depository of the United States Government for its customs and other revenues in these islands, and also immediately become a Bank of Issue of United States National Gold Notes. The original shareholders of the first organization will receive stock at par in the First National Bank of Hawaii when established, in proportion to their holdings at the time of the transfer of the latter bank to the former.

It is the intention of the syndicate when the First National Bank is formed, to incorporate as an adjunct to said institution a Savings Bank and Trust Company, and stockholders in the First American Bank will have preference, or priority, as subscribers to same, over intending new subscribers.

A majority of the members of the Board of Directors will be selected from Honolulu stockholders, but New York and San Francisco will each have a representative on said Board.

The following (if more convenient for out of town applicants) may be cut out, filled up, and sent entire to the attorneys of the bank, at 214 Merchant street, together with a remittance of five dollars for each share applied for.

Honolulu, May 6th, 1899.

G. W. MACFARLANE,

Agent for Syndicate.

This form to be sent entire addressed to Messrs. Cecil Brown and F. M. Hatch, attorneys for the Company, 214 Merchant street, with the deposit, and the receipt will be forwarded:

LABOR QUESTION AGAIN

Japanese Labor Limited to One Half of Total Supply.

Waiakea Sugar Company Has Land Proposition Denied—Regulations for New Roads.

At the meeting of the Executive Council this morning a motion was carried as an expression of the Government's policy in regard to limiting the introduction of Japanese labor. It was to the effect that permits for Japanese labor immigration be restricted to the necessary supply for maintaining on the respective plantations a force of that nationality equal to the number of laborers of all other nationalities.

For the carrying out of this policy it was further resolved that after the July quarter no labor immigration permits shall be issued for Japanese excepting to maintain on each plantation such proportion of one-half of that nationality to the total of all nationalities.

Members of the Hawaiian Planters' Association waited on President Dole and the Cabinet before the session was over, and a general discussion was entered into regarding labor immigration, in line with the decisions of today and last Friday. The planters asked for time to consider the matters brought up.

A communication from the Agent of Public Lands referring to the Council a proposition of the Waiakea Mill Co., was considered. It offered to surrender about 97,000 acres of the Waiakea leasehold in exchange for a fee simple title to the remaining 9000 acres, the latter including substantially the company's present plantation. The proposition was refused. "In the first place," as the President said, "there is no authority for the transaction, and, in the second place, there is no benefit to the Government."

A request of the Honolulu Sugar Co. for proceedings to get a new road put through was referred to the Attorney General for investigation.

It was decided that in all future recommendations for new roads, every main highway in the country shall be not less than 50 feet in width.

The sum of $20,000 was authorized to be expended for a new reservoir at Diamond Head.

OLAA STOCK ALLOTMENT.

Although no definite statements can be obtained as yet from the promoters it is learned today that the allotment of the Olla assessable stock will probably be about 50 o/o of the amount subscribed. Mr. Dillingham on being asked what the actual subscription of the public would amount to said he could not tell at present, but that the whole capital stock of $5,000,000 is over subscribed more than $1,000,000.

THE BREW OF OLYMPUS.

THE "HOFFMAN," corner of Hotel and Nuanuu streets, claims to be the "Banner" resort for gentlemen and holds the flag. L. H. Lee, the proprietor, has attained success in his line, by specially supervising everything connected with his establishment. He now introduces to his patrons "Olympia Beer." This brew is from the "Capital Brewing Co." of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, and was received by the "Garome." Mr. Schmidt, the leading spirit of this corporation is a practical Chemist and Brewer, and after years of search and investigation located his plant at Olympia, on account of the peculiar virtues of the water of the Tum Falls, a stream that is noted for its distinctive qualities of clearness, coldness and lack of mineral and decaying vegetable impurities. Pure beer can only be made with pure water, and Tum water is traditional in Washington with the Indians and original white settlers. The "Olympia Draught" is under the special control and agency of Mr. Lee and he invites his patrons and friends to a personal test and is willing to abide by their judgment on the merits of his latest venture.

NATIVE SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Hold a Magnificent Union Rally on Island of Molokai.

Rededication of Restored Church at Pukoo—The People's Liberty Wipes Out All Debt.

Pukoo, Molokai, May 4.—Pukoo has been crowded with visitors the last few days. Never before has this place seen so many new faces excepting perhaps in the days when Kamehameha the Great visited Molokai in double canoes (peleleu) with a large retinue for warlike purposes. Judge Kalua and party, eight in all, were comfortably quartered at the country home of Judge W. L. Wilcox, while Rev. J. M. Lewis and the three native singers who accompanied Theo. Richards from Honolulu put up at the home of Judge and Mrs. J. Haiku Mahoe. Mr. Richards was at Deputy Sheriff Hitchcock's while the visiting native pastors were at the residence of Rev. H. Manase, pastor of the Kaluaaha Church. The other members of the Sunday schools and church delegates to the convention were received by the natives and made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. Mr. Hitchcock arrived from Honolulu during the week to look after his cattle ranch and also to see into the affairs of the proposed Kamalo plantation in which he is interested. There is nothing in sight yet to tell visitors of the coming plantation, but the promoters are hard at work on their scheme. The new mill will be erected at Kamalo, where there is a good landing, and the cane will be carted from Pukoo and neighboring places to the mill on railway cars. There are over 500 acres at Kamalo suitable for cane cultivation, and half as many more could be had at Pukoo. Jno. Kalua from Paia believes that cane could be raised profitably on the hills back of Pukoo, as water could be pumped up, as is being done in other hilly places, such as Labaina.

On Saturday, April 29, the Kaluaaha church was rededicated. The exercises commenced at 10 a. m. On the platform were seated Revs. J. M. Lewis, Kuikahi, H. Hio, G. H. Kolobabela, D. Kaai, S. Kalino, E. M. Hanuana and H. Manase, pastor. The exercises were quite impressive. Mr. Keki reported that he had succeeded in collecting over $600 towards paying the expenses of repairing the old historic stone church. Judge J. H. Mahoe, who superintended the carpentering work, showed that it had cost nearly $1300 to put the old edifice into its present shape. Rev. H. Manase as pastor of the church for many years gave a brief history of the church. It was first built in 1848 but made of thatch after the fashion of grass huts. In 1851 the present stone building of coral was built through the efforts of old Father Hitchcock, a name much revered by the native Christians of Molokai, but who regretted, however, that none of the Hitchcocks were present at the ceremony. During his speech the pastor stated that some years ago the church bell was stolen and hid under the ground by some scoundrels, and the location of the place where the bell was secreted by the villains was revealed in a dream to an old native woman, one of the pillars of the church, and the same bell is now on the church tower. During the ceremony a subscription was taken up for the benefit of the church which amounted to $50.

During Saturday evening a concert was given in the Kaluaaha church for the benefit of the church building fund. Among the Sunday schools that took part were the Kaluaaha, Halawa, Waihee, Waiatua, Lihainaluna seminary, Honokohau, Kamalo and Pelekunu. During the evening Miss Alice Saffery of Paia, assisted by Revs. S. Kapu and S. Kalino, sang the new Maunaloa song, a song full of pathos as it described the recent destruction of the East Maui Seminary by fire. The concert netted about $60 for the church benefit. The exercises of the evening were much appreciated, as the singing by the respective choirs was of an extra fine quality. Theo. Richards and his boys reached Kaluaaha that EVENING BULLETIN.

Published Every Day, except Sunday, at 210 King street, Honolulu, H. I., by the BULLETIN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

MONDAY, MAY 8, 1899.

Hilo can put another score to its credit. Its citizens are first in line to sift out whatever rhyme or reason may exist in the interlarded oath required of voters by the Hawaiian Government.

The official organ says that Justice Judd's decision relative to the Chinese immigrants was based on "Equity and natural justice." What was the decision of the United States department of justice based on?

Charles Emory Smith, Postmaster General in McKinley's cabinet has, in the course of a newspaper interview, referred to Hawaii as a colony. Doubtless this was the hint from Washington that sent Hawaii's cabinet into hysterics some weeks since.

Theodore Thomas refused to play "Dixie" at the request of an Atlanta, Ga., audience, because there was no music in it. The noted musician is now considering taking out a patent on a sure method of creating "music in the air" in the Southern States.

Admitting the fact that the Constitution of the Republic of Hawaii was based an American principle, we now have an excellent example of what little guarantee a foundation offers for the character of the structure erected upon it.

The cause of the small farmer is by no means lost in the Olan district now to be devoted to cane culture. Practically the only change is that the crop to be taken off this soil will be a profitable one in place of coffee that at best was a more or less speculative venture.

William Dean Howells declined an invitation to a New York "dollar workingmen's dinner" because he could not make out what good could be accomplished for the workingman by his presence or the dinner. Howells will never be accused of being a politician. Every politician is a workingman previous to the election.

Edward Atkinson, king of Massachusetts theorists, admits he is the author of the letters sent to the Philippines with a view to causing disunion in the American ranks. The people can afford to laugh at Edward. He is the man who says the American laborer can live comfortably on $1.50 a week. It is a mistake to take his opinions seriously.

PEACE THAT MEANS SLAUGHTER.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in his history of the Spanish-American war published in Harper's Monthly pays deserved attention to the Senators and Congressmen who consistently opposed a proper organization of the United States army. The men and newspapers most active in condemning the Santiago campaign with its confusion in transportation and the disadvantage forced upon the fighting men by placing antiquated fighting material in the hands of the soldiers, are in most cases the men who are responsible for the opposition raised against any movement to make the American army an effective fighting force. Lives of citizens of one of the wealthiest nations of the world were sacrificed simply because a few Congressmen sought to make political capital by preventing the nation from being for-handed in preparing for the possibilities of war. The greatest republic on earth stands on record as sending its soldiers into battle supplied with munitions of war that furnished a target for the enemy. Now these stumbling blocks in the pathway of American progress are searching the country for an administration scape goat on which to place the blame. The responsibility rests first with Congress and indirectly with the people. Administrative officials did the best they could under the barrenness of needless, if not criminal, red tape placed upon them and the lack of funds placed at their disposal. Commanding generals and secretaries of war have uttered warnings without avail. The ultra-theoretical narrow minded advocates of "peace" have been able to hoodwink the people into a penurious policy toward the army. The brave men at the front have paid the penalty with their lives.

CAR DRIVER ASSAULTED.

Manuel Rawlins, one of the tramcar drivers, was brutally assaulted by some unknown person while driving his car into town at about 10:45 o'clock Sunday night. The assault took place in the vicinity of Wright's Villa. Rawlins was jogging along on his last trip. There were no passengers on the car. As he got to the place mentioned he was struck in the head from behind. Before he could recover himself he was dealt another blow. He was so dazed by the blows as to be unable to see anything and the person who hit him got away.

People from Wright's Villa and Patrolman Sydney Smith rushed up on hearing the driver's cries for help. When they got there, the man was of course out of the way and the driver was about to faint. The latter was helped into Wright's Villa where a physician happened to be. The poor fellow's wounds were dressed and he was removed to his home. Upon making an examination of the ear, an aculeptus woodclub with which the dastardly deed was done, was found.

Patrolman Smith who went to the driver's assistance tells the following story:

"I was at Long Branch when I heard the cries for help. I galloped to Wright's Villa at once. There was the driver standing on the front platform bleeding from a wound in the head. I could see no one around except the people running to the assistance of the poor fellow. Rawlins was about to faint so I supported him and then conducted him to Wright's Villa."

Rawlins himself says that he knows nothing whatever except the fact that he was struck in the head from behind. He does not know the motive. If robbery was the intention, the miscreant did not succeed, for people arrived on the scene before there was a chance to go through his pockets. Besides that, he remained conscious, notwithstanding the fact that he was struck twice. This must have been a surprise to the man who did the clubbing for he struck to lay his man low.

The police have some clues which they will follow up immediately. The trail will not be allowed to cool.

Although the driver has not said much about himself, it is learned this afternoon that he has his suspicions. He states that seven soldiers went out on the car from town. They all paid their fares. When the car arrived at the place where he was assaulted, five of the number jumped out and the others went to the end of the line and then walked out to camp. He further states this afternoon that he noticed the uniform of a United States artilleryman on the man who committed the assault but was unable to see the fellow's face. That he was a soldier he has no doubt. He says he is unable to identify any of the men as he did not pay particular attention to them.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.

The Coroner's jury in the case of the death of Joe Cavalho at Kamehameha on the afternoon of May 6 met in the office of the Deputy Marshal Saturday afternoon. The jury composed the following: Wm. Lucas, W. M. Buchanan, C. R. Dement, S. Lesser, W. T. Schmidt and F. B. Angus. The verdict was death by accident. All the witnesses excepting a Japanese said that the wire rope used in hoisting stone and other material caught the board on which the Portuguese was standing and tipped it over so as to cause the laborer to fall. The Japanese said that he saw Cavalho take hold of the rope to push it away from the board. In doing this he slipped and fell. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth, who acted as Coroner, took particular care to get expert testimony in the case. It was all to the effect that the staging such as Cavalho stood on is never nailed. It was deemed by some who found out that the board upon which Cavalho stood was not nailed that there had been carelessness somewhere. This was entirely cleared by the expert witnesses.

NATIVE SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

evening, but were too tired after their long ride of nearly twenty miles from Kaunakakai, so were unable to take part in the exercises, although they were billed to appear that evening.

The greatest event on Molokai for years was the Union Sunday school exhibition given at the Kalauea church last Sunday, April 30. Sitting capacity of the large and spacious church was taxed to its utmost, there being between six and seven hundred people present. On the day before, a committee of ladies and gentlemen had waited upon Judge Kalua urging him to take the management of the exercises of the day in his hands, and the Judge reluctantly assented to the request on account of the shortness of the time, but, notwithstanding, everything went off without a hitch.

The exercises commenced at ten o'clock in the morning and lasted until four o'clock in the afternoon without intermission, but were so full of interest that performers as well as visitors forgot the pains of hunger during the long six hours, and not a single one complained of the length of the time; and even at 4 o'clock, when Judge Kalua inquired of them whether they were hungry, all with one accord shouted that they wanted to hear him speak. Such enthusiasm is perhaps unprecedented in the history of such gatherings. The following program of 28 parts was well and most beautifully rendered:

Chorus by the Congregation. Prayer by Rev. O. Nawahine of Waihee, Maui. Theo. Richards' Class—"Shout for the Victory is O'er." Pelekuu Sunday School under Kamanao. Waihua Sunday School under Joel Nazareta.

Chorus—"Sunshine in My Soul. Kaanapali Sunday School. Kamalo Sunday School. Theo. Richards' Class. Chorus by the Congregation. Kalauea Sunday School under D. H. Kahaulelo.

Waihua Sunday School under Mr. Kalauea. Graphophone Exhibition by Theo. Richards. Chorus by the Congregation. Offerings for Church Benefit. Chorus—"Sound the Battle Cry." Theo. Richards' Class. Kaunakakai Sunday School under Wm. A. Kiha. Lahainaluna Seminary Sunday School Mr. Makiia.

Honokohau Sunday School. Chorus by the Congregation. Waihee Sunday School under Robt. Nawahine. Halawa Sunday School under Peter P. Kahanani.

Chorus by the Congregation. Short Talks by Revs. Lewis, Jas. Davis and Emerson, Theo. Richards and Judge Kalua. Chorus by the Congregation. Closing Prayer by Rev. O. P. Emerson. Hawaii Pono.

The singing by the various Sunday schools, especially the Sunday schools from Kalauea, Kaunakakai, Pelekuu, Halawa, Waihua, Waihee and Lahainaluna were most beautifully rendered. The Sunday school from Pelekuu surprised everybody with their fine singing, for people had an idea that the residents of that most secluded valley, surrounded by lofty mountains four thousand feet high, and where but very few foreigners have ever visited, knew more about heathenish hulas than sacred music. But the Pelekuus sang such beautiful and difficult pieces as are hardly heard within the walls of either the Kaunakapili or Kalauea churches. Their leader, Kamanao, is a young Hawaiian of about twenty, an able one in every respect and possessing a fine, clear baritone. The class numbered 20 and occupied 19 minutes. The Kaunakakai Sunday school of 16 members was under the leadership of Wm. A. Kiha, the veteran music leader who was choir master of Kaunakapili church during his youthful days. Their singing was likewise highly appreciated. The time was excellent. The beautiful soprano of a Miss Miner was heard to great advantage in some of the sacred pieces, and they were pieces, too, that never sung were in any of the Honolulu native churches, for they were ordered direct from the United States for the occasion. This school occupied about 26 minutes. At the close Mr. Richards was so highly elated with the artistic manner in which the Kaunakalais rendered their pieces that he warmly congratulated the leader for the able manner in which he had trained his school.

The Waihua Sunday school under Nazareta, a Lahainaluna graduate, also rendered their parts well, although ten of the women were suffering with the grip while on the platform. There were 34 members in this class including 10 little children. Time: 26 minutes.

The Kalauea also acquitted themselves very well. There were 41 members in this class including 16 children. Time: 29 minutes.

The singing of the Lahainaluna boys, 20 in number, was highly artistic. The class from Halawa was the largest, there being 37 adults and 12 children, total 49. Their singing was beautiful and sweet, the male and female voices blending together in perfect harmony, and the effect grand indeed. The pieces they selected for the occasion are also rare ones, being ordered direct from abroad. This class occupied 34 minutes, including 10 minutes singing by the children. The singing by these small children, their ages ranging from four to six, will be hard to beat anywhere. The singing of the Waihee Sunday school of ten members was also well rendered. The Kaunakapai had only two pupils, Waihua five and Honokohau four, but the paucity of their numbers was no drawback to the quality of their singing.

Taken all in all, the singing by all the Sunday schools that took part in the exercises was grand indeed, and Mr. Richards declared that he had never before heard such beautiful singing in Honolulu by native choirs excepting the Kamehameha Girls' School, and he wouldn't have missed it for double the distance. The singing of the national anthem, Hawaii Pono, at the close of the exercises was the grandest ever heard of that most beautiful anthem. The offerings during the day for the church benefit amounted to $111, which was enough to clear the church from debt. The next Sunday School Union will be held at Paia in July, 1900.

Mr. John Peterson, of Patoutville, La., was very agreeably surprised not long ago. For eighteen months he had been troubled with dysentery and had tried three of the best doctors in New Orleans, besides half a dozen or more patent medicines, but received very little relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, having been recommended to him, he gave it a trial and to his great surprise, three doses of that remedy effected a permanent cure. Mr. Wm. McNamara, a well known merchant of the same place, is well acquainted with Mr. Peterson and attests to the truth of this statement. This remedy is for sale by all dealers. KAIMUKI.

This tract of most desirable Suburban property now being opened up with residence sites, lies about three miles from this city, in a northeasterly direction. It has an elevation of over 200 feet above sea level, commanding a magnificent view of the Ocean, Koko Head, Manoa and Palolo Valleys, with the City of Honolulu, Ewa and Oahu Plantations, and Pearl Lochs, at its feet. It is entirely removed from all planting of rice or taro, thereby obviating the possibilities of ague and fever. Twelve broad streets give access to the property, and are crossed by six avenues. Seven of these Boulevards are now opened up, the balance in course of construction.

From its position it is entirely removed from the high winds and heavy showers of Manoa and Nuuanu Valleys, guaranteeing from its soft ocean breezes a salubrious climate. A pumping plant, in the course of installation, settles the question of water, which will be furnished to purchasers of this property at Government rates; this flow of water being assured from two 12-inch wells which under measurement show nearly 4,000,000 gallons in twenty-four hours.

Accident on Kinuau Wharf.

There was quite an accident on the Kinuau wharf early Sunday morning just after the arrival of the steamer of that name. Captain Clark, wharf superintendent for the Wilder Steamship Co and Tom White of the People's Express Co went down on the wharf to meet the steamer. The opening which contains water hose was not covered and as it was very dark, the two men did not see it. They both fell in, Captain Clark hurting his arm badly and Tom White laming his right leg. It goes without saying that these dangerous places should be closed at night time, at least. It is fortunate that the accident did not turn out worse than it did.

Commodore Beckley Celebrates.

Commodore Beckley of the Wilder Steamship Company was "at home" to his friends aboard the Kinuau this forenoon, the occasion being the celebration of his daughter Juanita's fourteenth birthday. The commodore entertained the many friends who called in a characteristically delightful manner. The employers of the Kinuau and others in the employ of the Wilder Steamship Company gathered at the table aboard ship at lunch time and the health of Commodore Beckley and his daughter Juanita was drunk by all, after Captain Freeman had made a short and appropriate speech. Commodore Beckley celebrated his own birthday Thursday evening at the hotel in Hilo. A fine dinner was given to a number of friends and the band gave a concert on the grounds.
