ISLAND STOCKS WELL SUSTAINED

Halstead & Co. this afternoon received cable quotations from the San Francisco Stock Exchange as follows: Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar, $80; Honolulu $11; Onomea $27.50.

The market is reported to be steady in view of the falling price of sugar, and the burning of Onomea mill this is considered as highly complimentary to the standing and confidence felt in island sugar stocks. These quotations are but little below the prices at which the last sales were made.

Interested Only In Vegetables

A BEEF TRUST DEFENDANT FILES A NEW AND ORIGINAL KIND OF ANSWER.

The statement that she herself is a vegetarian and does not take part at all in the local consumption of meat, is a part of the answer of Mrs. Emma M. Nakulua in the beef trust suit. Mrs. Nakulua answers for herself, not having any attorney, and she not only denies the charge that she is in a trust, but says that as applied to her the charge is preposterous, and she asks the court to award her $300 the expenses of having remained in Honolulu to file her answer.

Mrs. Nakulua denies that she has any influence over the actions of the directors of the Metropolitan Meat Company and says that she doesn't even know them, except Manager Waller, to whom she sells her meat. It is sold for the best price she can get, and she says she understands this to be regulated largely by the fatness and other qualities of the meat. She never heard of any trust or agreement and is quite willing if there is one that it should be enjoined.

Regarding the allegations about the amount of meat consumed in Honolulu Mrs. Nakulua says that "the allegations are probably true to many of the inhabitants and people. She herself is a vegetarian."

Finally Mrs. Nakulua says that the complaint against her has a preposterous lack of evidence to support it, and that at injury to her health and at considerable expense, she has been compelled to remain here to answer, to avoid a $5,000 penalty, wherefore she wants the court to award her compensation of $300.

An answer has also been filed by Gay & Robinson, with Robertson as attorney. It is a general denial, much similar to the others on file.

MAKES SERIOUS CHARGES

It is understood that efforts are to be made to secure the removal of Deputy Sheriff George Kekauoha from his position at Koolauloa on the grounds of rascality and dishonesty. Wade Warren Thayer is understood to have made specific charges against the official and they are to be presented at the meeting of the board of supervisors tonight.

Leprolin Not A Cure

EXPERIMENTS FOR A CURE FOR LEPROSY FROM WHICH MUCH WAS HOPED.

EDITOR STAR: The enclosed is a transcript from the publication "Medical Missions in India."

Much had been expected from the experiments of Captain (Dr.) Rost of Rangoon by means of his discovery of the serum "Leprolin." He had devoted years to study and practical effort to cure and prevent the disease leprosy. The few cases of claimed cure, like all coming under extended observations, prove in Dr. Rost's experience to be simply the temporary arrest of the progress of the disease which often occurs without treatment.

Our wards at the settlement have had Dr. Rost's experiment under observation with hopeful expectation.

This failure gives the coming experimental hospital of the United States at the Settlement a greater significance, and our people a greater incentive to aid the government in the effort to solve the mystery of the disease, its cure and extermination.

Respectfully,
L. E. PINKHAM,
President, Board of Health.

LEPROLIN.

"The Kasauli Report on Captain Rost's Leprolin is a great disappointment. It is evident that Captain Rost was mistaken in believing that he had succeeded in cultivating the lepra bacillus, but that does not necessarily imply that his serum was of no value in the treatment of leprosy. It is difficult to understand, too, why leprolin did not give rise to a great many other diseases, for according to Lieutenant-Colonel Semple, the Director of the Pasteur Institute at Kasauli, the samples tested by him gave a plentiful growth of bacteria (not leprosy) too numerous even to attempt a classification of them, but including bacillus pyocyanus, yellow sarcinae, and staphylococci. Yet leprolin was injected thousands of times and we have not heard of it doing harm in any case, beyond causing a temporary rise in temperature. The director himself suggests that the benefits said to have been obtained by the use of Leprolin may have been due to the filtered toxins from the contaminated media used in its preparation. If so, we would very much like to know what those toxins are which have so marked an influence on leprosy. Another fact to be borne in mind is that Captain Rost's treatment included the free use of common salt, both internally and as an injection, along with the serum. We should now see if good results can be obtained by the use of the salt alone. For our own part we refuse to believe that we have heard the last of Leprolin, and meanwhile we sincerely sympathize with Captain Rost in his disappointment, which is shared by all who are interested in the welfare of lepers."

PACIFIC MAIL LIBELS DREDGER

THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS DAMAGES CLAIMED FOR ENTANGLEMENT OF THE PROPELLER OF THE STEAMSHIP SIBERIA IN THE WIRE CABLE OF THE PACIFIC LAST NOVEMBER—ACCIDENT DECLARED DUE TO NEGLIGENCE OF DREDGER OWNERS.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company this morning filed a libel in the Federal Court against the dredger Pacific for $30,000 damages, alleged to have been suffered on account of the propeller of the steamship Siberia having been entangled in a wire cable of the dredger, as the Siberia was leaving Honolulu harbor on Nov. 10. The libel, filed by Kinney, McClanahan & Cooper, sets forth that the owners of the dredger were negligent in the placing and handling of the cable, and that it was not due to any negligence or fault on the part of the steamship or those in charge thereof, that she encountered the cable.

The libel says that the Siberia is a steamship of 12,000 tons, staunch, light and well manned, and that she is of the value of two million dollars and had on board on Nov. 10 a cargo valued at one million dollars. As she was leaving the harbor of Honolulu at 5:27 p. m., it is set forth, her propeller got foul of the wire cable of the dredger, being wound several times round it. The only safe course was to continue out through the channel, and this the steamer did, anchoring outside. Divers were employed and found the cable so wrapped around the propeller that it was impossible to uncoil it and the steamer, after seven hours delay, proceeded on her journey. At Yokohama three days were spent in further investigation of the condition of the propeller, and the wire was removed.

As a result of the accident, it is set forth, the steamer had to be placed on the dry dock in San Francisco and remained there four days and nights, while the propeller blades were removed and repaired. During all these delays she was prevented from carrying on her regular business as ocean liner, greatly to the loss of her owners.

The Pacific Mail Company says that the accident was due wholly to the gross carelessness of the dredger people, in placing their cable so that it became entangled in the propeller. The dredger, it is set forth, is of the value of $100,000.

An attachment for $30,000 was issued on the dredger, on the filing of the complaint, and the dredger was duly placed under attachment by Marshal Hendry.

NO APPEAL IN SOME CONTEMPTS

SUPREME COURT LAYS DOWN SOME DISTINCTIONS IN THE ANIN CASE AND HOLDS THAT ANIN HAD NO RIGHT OF APPEAL—HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS AT ONCE BEGUN TO HAVE THE CASE REVIEWED.

There is no appeal from a sentence for a direct criminal contempt and refusal to answer a question put by a Grand Jury is such a contempt, was the ruling of the Supreme court this morning in the Y. Anin matter. The court held that Anin was wrongly allowed an appeal and it dismissed the exceptions, leaving Anin in the hands of the sheriff to serve the contempt sentence imposed by Judge Lindsay. A habeas corpus proceeding was at once begun, however, and under this proceeding the higher court will review the case.

When the court met this morning it appeared to have fairly concluded that no appeal was allowable. Announcement was made that no argument from Deputy Attorney General Milverton wanted but the court wanted to hear from Judge Humphreys, of counsel

MASONIC FUNERAL

There was a large attendance of the officers and members of Hawaiian Lodge F. & A. M. at the gathering this afternoon in order to attend the obsequies of Past Master Col. Allen. The lodge met at 2:30 and after the usual ceremonies passed down to the street where at 3 o'clock a special car was taken to the home of the deceased. After the family services the lodge took charge of the remains and proceeded to Makiki cemetery where the usual Masonic burial service was performed.

A cablegram was received last night from Treasurer A. J. Campbell stating that he would leave Washington today for Honolulu. He is expected to arrive here on February 19.

JOHNSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY

ATTORNEY HAS TO ENTER PLEA FOR MAN WHO SLEW SIMEON WHARTON.

Frank Johnson, the slayer of little Simeon Wharton, pleaded not guilty of murder this morning, in Judge Lindsay's court, or rather a plea of not guilty was entered for him by his attorney, S. B. Kingsbury. Johnson did not seem to understand exactly what was required of him and when the court asked what his plea was he said he didn't know.

The indictment was read to the defendant last week, and he appeared in court this morning only for the purpose of entering a plea. Kingsbury stated that the plea was not guilty, but the judge put the question to the defendant, as to whether he pleaded guilty "I don't know, sir," was the answer, in a barely audible voice.

"We enter a plea of not guilty," said Kingsbury. "I told the defendant but he doesn't seem to understand."

Judge Lindsay ordered a plea of not guilty entered, and the dried-up little prisoner was taken back to jail, to await the date of his trial, which will probably be during the present term.

MARINES MADE A FINE HIKING RECORD

CAME FROM AHUIMANU LAST SATURDAY IN FIVE HOURS—CAMPED OUT FIVE DAYS.

The marines who made a "hike" to the other side of the island returned last Saturday. Thirty-two marines under command of Lieut. Hartlee and Second Lieut. Bigler left here last Tuesday and went to the other side of the island. They made Kaneohe the first night and the second day arrived at Ahuimanu. The marines were equipped with their blankets and camped out.

They started from Ahuimanu Saturday morning and arrived at the Naval Station at 2 p. m. of the same day, including a two-hour stop at the Pali, for lunch. They returned by the trail distance of 14 miles. They covered the route in five hours which is a very fine record from a military standpoint.

News of the departure of the S. S. Manchuria from Yokohama today for Honolulu and San Francisco was received this morning by H. Hackfeld & Company, the local agents. The vessel has 1,100 tons of freight for Honolulu and cabin accommodations for about 125 people. She is due here the morning of February 15 and will probably be dispatched to San Francisco on the same afternoon.

CALLED JUROR AS WITNESS

UNUSUAL PROCEEDING DURING THE TRIAL OF MRS. HELEN G. FONSECA.

A juror was called from the jury box to testify as a witness during the trial of Mrs. Helen G. Fonseca yesterday afternoon, on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. The proceeding is a very unusual one and was indulged in by Judge Humphreys, as counsel for the defense. The eleven jurors listened to what their companion had to say and then the latter resumed his seat in the jury box and resumed hearing of the case, doubtless duly impressed with the truthfulness of his own testimony at least.

T. W. Chase is the juror who was called to testify for the defense. He had visited the Fonseca house, it appeared, and the defendant's attorney asked him questions regarding his character. The juror had not observed anything justifying the charge that the house was a disorderly one within the meaning of the law, and his testimony was a body blow for the prosecution.

TEXAN DUE THIS WEEK FOR SUGAR

WILL LOAD OVER 6,000 TONS AT THIS PORT FOR DELAWARE BREAKWATER.

The S. S. Texan is due on Saturday morning from Seattle. She will load sugar at the usual ports for Delaware Breakwater. The allotment is as follows at Honolulu 6,150 tons at Kahului 2,900 tons and at Hilo 2,150 tons, total 11,200 tons. There is likely to be a delay in her loading at Honolulu, for there are only 1,821 tons of sugar on hand for her at the Railway warehouse.

About 300 tons of sugar are on hand for the S. S. Nevada which is due the latter part of this month from San Francisco.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

For the Week Ending February 3, 1906.
Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau, Honolulu, T. H. February 5, 1906.
GENERAL SUMMARY.

Although good showers occurred in some localities early in the week, the week as a whole was quite dry for this season of the year, and was marked by fairly warm, sunny days very cool nights, and occasional high winds.

While the growth of young cane has been checked by the continued cool weather, conditions have been quite favorable for the ripening of 1906 cane and for field work in the plantations. The harvesting and grinding of mature cane have therefore proceeded rapidly in all sections. Winter crop pineapples, under the influence of the sunny days, have ripened rapidly during the week, and young pineapple plants have grown well.

Coffee trees are generally reported as in good condition; the harvesting of this season's crop was completed at Laupahoehoe, Hawaii, during the week. The setting out of rice for the first crop of 1906 has begun in most sections, and is almost completed in the Hanalei district of Kauai. Lowland pastures in this section have been somewhat damaged by salt winds from the ocean, but pastures generally throughout the group are in good condition. Grazing stock in the upper levels is still suffering to some extent from the continued cool weather.

FALSE DESPATCH ABOUT CARTER

ALARMING CABLE WAS SENT FROM HONOLULU TO A MINOR PRESS AGENCY.

Under a big black heading on Sunday morning January 28 the San Francisco Bulletin announced: "Carter of Hawaii Dyig" and further added that "The Chief Executive of Hawaiian Island" was at "Death's Door from an Attack of Pneumonia." The despatch ran thus: HONOLULU, January 27.—Governor George R. Carter is dying tonight at his residence here of typhoid pneumonia.

Several physicians are in attendance at his bedside. Secretary Atkinson, who had started for Europe and reached New York, has been stopped by telegraph and ordered back to the islands. Naturally enough most people would presume that this gross exaggeration of the state of the condition of the governor was sent by the Associated Press but as a matter of fact it was the work either of a special correspondent or of one of the minor press agencies. The Bulletin of San Francisco is an evening paper and its Associated Press charter calls only for an evening service on Sunday morning, however, it publishes a paper hence as it has no Associated Press service it is dependant on other means for its telegraphic news.

TULE PRESERVERS ARE THE BEST

AN ECHO FROM THE WRECK OF THE VALENCIA — INSPECTOR BULGER ON LIFE BUOYS.

Among the survivors from the ghastly wreck of the S. S. Valencia on the ragged coast of Vancouver Island was Professor Frank Bunker, bound to Seattle to take charge of the city's school system. He had the awful anguish of seeing his wife and two children perish before his eyes and is at present much quoted in the coast paper as to the details of the disaster.

One particular charge he makes is that the life-preservers of the Valencia were made of "rushes which sink and are not buoyant like cork." (The statement is further made that the ship was inspected at Seattle two weeks before her loss and in view of the fact that Captain Bolles and Bulger, inspectors of hulls and boilers are now in Honolulu, the matter was enquired into by the Star. "I do not know anything about the lost steamer Valencia," said Inspector Bulger "for I had nothing to do with her. She was inspected at Seattle and we have nothing to do with that. On this talk of life preservers though I may speak in general terms for there is a misapprehension regarding the sustaining powers and efficiency of the tulle buoys. Some people refer to them as being made of rushes, well, they are, but the air spaces in the tulle are so large and so well protected that they form a much better life buoy than does cork.

"I have been sixteen years in the business of inspecting vessels and I willingly put myself on record as to that.

"After the terrible Gen. Slocum disaster in New York Admiral Louis Kempff of the U. S. Navy, was detailed to make an inspection of the different life buoys in use round San Francisco. He did this thoroughly and proved conclusively the buoyancy of the tulle preservers. As an instance, he took one tulle life belt that was sixteen years old and immersed it with a weight of twenty-eight pounds. It floated for 96 days. A human being of the average weight of 150 pounds will require an assisted buoyancy of only 6 1/2 pounds when in the water. The British Board of Trade requires buoys with a buoyancy of 14 1/2 pounds but the United States regulations insist on a buoyancy of 24 pounds and that regulation is lived up to.

"At Hilo quite recently we made some experiments in the matter of the respective merits of buoys before some of the island captains and the advantage of tulle over cork was effectively demonstrated."

It was pointed out to the Inspector that notwithstanding the vigilance of the officers charged with inspecting, it would be a simple matter for a captain or company so inclined to replace good life buoys with poor ones when the inspectors were out of sight, that is to keep one set for purposes of inspection and to fill up the racks with trash.

"I don't believe it for a minute" he said "What would be the use? The buoys cost only ninety-five cents and for so slight a cost no vessel is going to take the desperate chance of losing her papers altogether. "There is one matter in this life buoy question which must be remembered," he said. "A strong man and good swimmer in a heavy sea will not last more than three hours and a half, on the average, under wreck conditions. Most of us would only last an hour while women and children would perish in little or no time. The conditions of the Valencia wreck were such that life buoys or lack of them had little to do with the terrible loss of life. Its a bad coast. Jagged granite rocks stick up along there and I can easily understand how impossible it was for other steamers to get near enough to give assistance, with the heavy sea running."

TO INVESTIGATE DEATH. Sheriff Keolanui, accompanied by O. Yotaro, went to Kohala by the Kinau, Friday, to investigate the case of a skeleton found in a cave field near that place. A Japanese mysteriously disappeared over a year ago and the investigation is made at the request of the Japanese Consul at Honolulu.

OLAA STOCK WAS SOLD. Will E. Fisher sold 67 shares of Olaa stock Saturday at the police station under foreclosure obtained by Lyle A. Dickey in a suit against R. W. Sharpe and J. A. Paikau. Sharpe owned the shares of stock. Dickey bought one block of 50 for $75 and Henry Van Glesen the remainder 17 shares for $22.50.

DICKEY USED WATER. Senator Dickey was burning some rubbish up at his Kushiwi property on Tantalus yesterday when for a time the fire got beyond his control. Notwithstanding the Senator's well-known regard for water as the only beverage, he used quantities of it on the fire and by 5 p. m. all danger of its further spread was over.

Publicity And Courts

The doctrine that a will admitted to probate is a private document is a very strange one, almost as strange as the argument that publicity ought to follow in a certain class of cases when such argument is coupled with a plea that the wills should not be filed for free inspection by the press.

Several departments of the government are interested in every will. Inheritance tax laws which are becoming more and more popular as applied to large estates, plans to regulate and almost prohibit, in some states, the creation of lengthy trusts and the most widespread interest on every hand in the problem of how large estates are best disposed of, make wills among the most interesting public documents, from the most legitimate point of view possible, that ever find their way into the records of a court.

Careless Errors

A contemporary publishes, giving it some prominence, an article about Mauna Kea and Waiau Lake, stating that the lake is 15,000 feet above sea level. As Mauna Kea is only 13,825 feet in elevation, the lake must be suspended above the summit of the mountain some 1175 feet.

The lake has been sounded. About four years ago a surveying party under the direction of H. B. Gehr, which was making surveys in that part of Hawaii, sounded the lake and found it between forty and sixty feet deep. Much publicity was given to this fact at the time because it shattered the myth of the bottomless lake.

New York As A Money Center

Among the many indications of the growing power and influence of New York as a money center, the following from Bradstreet's is interesting: Important financial transactions are understood to be in progress between the Chilean government and leading New York banking interests, which would naturally be regarded as affording further evidence of the commanding position of New York among the world's money centers.

Preachers In Labor Unions

The novel spectacle has been seen in New York of the selection and admittance of representatives of the New York Presbytery as fraternal delegates in the Central Federated Union. Some time since the New York Presbytery appointed the Rev. M. S. Littlefield and the Rev. John B. Devins as "fraternal delegates" to the Central Federated Union.

overstepped their privileges the central body could suspend them. Some of the twenty-three speakers opposed the churches on the ground that they substituted philanthropy for justice, others because they favored the open shop; others because the Union "had no use for sky pilots," and so on; but several sober voices were found to denounce and express shame for such narrowness, and finally, when the floor was accorded to Mr. Littlefield, he so completely turned the tide by a witty speech in which he said that the ministry was a closed shop for which every member had thorough to qualify, and that the aims of the unions and the church were to a great extent identical, that the ministers were admitted, $8 to $23. Then Mr. Littlefield invited the Union to send delegates to the Presbytery. If either body could know the other better, much suspicion and misapprehension might be removed.

The correspondence between Mr. Rosenberg and Mr. Guilderson of Honolulu is in no way to be confounded with the classic remarks which passed between Mr. Rosencrantz and Mr. Guilderson as recorded by a recent author named Shakespeare in a little play called Hamlet.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

A girl does love to pick her way over a muddy crossing in a way she thinks is dainty.

Speaking of the changes in fashion; Wives no longer sit up for their husbands when they are out late.

Somehow the writer can never retain interest in an article that contains the phrase "A man of letters."

One way to live comfortably within a limited income is not to spend money on books that tell how to do it.

When a man puts his money in good six per cent investments his family has a vague notion that he has hidden it somewhere.

When the neighbors give a party, and it is a success, the screaming of good-nights from the front porch is heard several blocks away; any less number indicates a chilled affair.

A newly married woman confesses all to her husband, how she had crocheted on Sunday, and worn false hair, etc., and is disappointed that he doesn't meet her confession with equal honesty.

In the women's magazines, husbands are cut up and salted till it hurts because they do not take home to their wives bouquets of flowers and boxes of candy, but let a man in real life do it, and his wife will say "Whatever made for Ania. Humphreys claimed that the amendment of the contempt law in 1903 had provided for an appeal, at least in all cases of civil contempt, and this, he argued, was a civil contempt. Incidentally, the Judge made mention of the fact that the amendment of the contempt law was due to recommendations made by the chief justice several years ago, during a time when there was considerable contempt business in the local courts. Humphreys himself was on the bench then and was handling many of the cases. The old law giving the court summary powers had led to "what was alleged to be so much abuse," remarked Humphreys, that the chief justice recommended a change allowing appeals.

QUICK ACTION BY SUPREME COURT

The decision of the court, delivered orally by Chief Justice Frear, turned on the question of whether Ania's contempt was civil or criminal. The court held that it was criminal, and that therefore there was no appeal. The fact that the contempt was a defiance of public authority and not a violation of a court order as made between two litigants, made it criminal instead of civil, said the court. The decision referred to an old ruling that there is no appeal in a direct contempt case and said that the amendments of 1903 only served to confirm the law therein laid down. Associate Justice Hartwell delivered a concurring opinion, giving his views in more detail, as to the difference between criminal and civil contempts.

A habeas corpus petition had been prepared in advance, and steps were taken at once to set Ania free and have the proceedings reviewed by means of habeas corpus.

"I was half ready to abandon the exceptions and resort to habeas corpus," said Humphreys, "but concluded to present the matter and have a ruling."

The habeas corpus petition is asked for on the same grounds as were urged before Lindsay, but not argued in detail, with the additional ground that there is no judgment in existence on which the sentence can be executed. The principal claim is that the question asked by Ania and which he refused to answer, is not a material question.

FIRE ADJUSTERS DEPART FOR ONOMEA

GO BY THE KINAU—NO FURTHER NEWS OF THE FIRE LAST SATURDAY NIGHT.

No additional information regarding the fire at Onomea Sugar Company's mill was learned today. It was thought that the steamer Mauna Loa which came from western Hawaii ports might have some news, but nothing definite was learned by those aboard the vessel. Nobody from Onomea or that part of the island arrived by the Mauna Loa. It was stated to one of the officers of the Mauna Loa that the entire mill had been destroyed. This report is not borne out by information secured yesterday by wireless.

A quantity of materials which will be used in clearing up the debris in connection with repairing the mill was wired for by the plantation people. The Honolulu Iron Works is furnishing the stuff. The mill people were instructed yesterday to proceed to clean up the wreck so that the extent of the damage could be ascertained. It is not likely that anything definite regarding the losses will be known for several days.

A. R. Gurrey of the underwriters left by the steamer Kinau for Hilo to proceed to Papakou for the purpose of adjusting the losses caused by the fire. C. Hedeman of the Honolulu Iron Works also left for Onomea for the purpose of taking measurements for a new boiler house. The mill and engine room appear to have been saved from destruction and the chief damage was done to the boiling department. George H. Robertson of C. Brewer & Company will join the party at Maunaloa Bay and proceed to Hawaii to look over the situation at the mill.

This is the night of an alleged gambling game in which the defendant is said to have suffered considerable losses, which the prosecution will attempt to prove were made up by a night trip to the Water Works safe.

Richardson is being defended by A. G. M. Robertson and Prosser and Fleming are prosecuting. The following

END OF AN EVIL CAREER

SAILOR GEORGE REESE COMMITTED SUICIDE LAST NIGHT AT IWILEI BY SHOOTING HIMSELF.

George Reese, a boatswain's mate attached to the U. S. S. Iroquois, committed suicide last night in a small house at Iwilei. He blew his brains out with a shot-gun, the scene of the tragedy being very ghastly for the top of the man's head was shattered by the charge of shot. Reese was quite bold in his act. He killed himself with a woman within a few feet of him. Marie Riviera was her name. Despondency due to drinking and the threat by his wife that she would leave him evidently led Reese to take his life.

He had threatened to a number of people recently that he would kill himself. Inasmuch as he was generally under the influence of liquor when he made the threats no particular attention was paid to his talk. Last night he carried his threat into execution.

Reese tied a piece of string to the trigger of the gun and this piece of string he fastened to his foot. Then holding the gun in both hands to his mouth, he kicked with his foot and discharged the weapon. Death resulted instantly. The woman who was in the room at the time did not, she says, realize that a tragedy was about to be enacted before her. She says that she saw the man apparently stooping over but she did not look a second time at him and started to get a dress that was hanging on the wall. She heard the report and turned in time to see the man's lifeless body topple over on the floor.

Reese had been married to another Porto Rican woman named Adella Rosalia. They were married about a year ago. The man appeared to be madly infatuated with her, for although she was a prostitute, the sailor man married her. The couple were originally arrested by the police and charged with fornication about a year ago. The prosecution was dropped upon the man agreeing to marry the woman. They lived unhappily. He drank heavily and is said by the police to have forced her to continue her former career as a woman of the town in order that she could provide him with money.

This charge is denied by his associates at the Naval Station. The woman had been in the habit of frequenting the water front and visiting him for the purpose of securing money. She would frequently be arrested and he would always deposit bail to secure her release. He is thought to have tried to reform her but without success.

About three weeks ago Captain Niblack of the Iroquois was forced to take cognizance of the man's relations with the woman, for they were becoming scandalous. Reese was warned that he would have to mend his ways or else take the consequences. This warning from his superiors evidently worried him.

Reese was a native of England and was born in March, 1870. He was therefore 36 years of age. The man was originally a deep water sailor and was capable in his business. He has a good record at the Naval Station. He came here on a sailing vessel and enlisted in the Navy about three years ago. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from H. H. Williams' undertaking parlors. Reese will be given a military funeral. The interment will be in Nuuanu cemetery. The coroner's inquest will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow.

MONEY TO OPERATE MORE LIGHTHOUSES

LIGHTS AT THE LEPER SETTLEMENT AND ON HAWAII WILL BE INSTALLED ON MARCH 1.

Authority has at last been secured from the Light-House Board to inaugurate the new lights at the Leper Settlement and South Point and West Point on the Island of Hawaii. The light-houses have been erected for some time but owing to a shortage of funds, it was impossible to operate the lights for there was no money with which to pay the salaries of the light-house keepers. Captain Niblack has been given authority to install the keepers from March 1 as there are funds with which to pay that expense.

IROQUOIS DEPARTING FRIDAY.

The U. S. S. Iroquois will depart on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock for a visit to Molokai and Maui. Captain Niblack is to make an inspection of the various lights about those islands. He will be absent three or four days.

STEAMERS ARE HELD UP.

The steamer Kinau is the only boat to depart on time this week on her run. The remainder of the island boats have been delayed by reason of the Federal inspectors of hulls and boilers being busy making their annual inspection. The Likelike gets away at 5 o'clock tonight and the Iwalei will sail to-night for Kaula ports. The Ke Au Hou goes tomorrow. The W. G. Hall does not sail on time today.

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION MET.

A meeting of the Merchants' Association executive was held this morning at the Young Hotel rooms. It was of short duration only formal matters being brought up.

The Territorial Grand Jury continued its gambling investigation this morning. Kamakal was before the jury for some time. Ah On, former police officer, was again on hand, but he was not called. The jury adjourned to tomorrow at ten o'clock, when the inquiry will be resumed.

W. T. Rawlins who was taken suddenly ill yesterday and whose case was diagnosed as being one of appendicitis, was not so well today as had been hoped. He is at his home where Dr. Hodgins is in constant attendance.

Jury In Patrol Wagon

COURT HAS NO MONEY TO CONVEY THEM IN ANY RESPECTABLE VEHICLE.

Another example of the niggardly financial policy of the Territory in the matter of providing for courts was shown this morning, when the jury in the Richardson embezzlement case had to be bundled into the police patrol wagon like prisoners, to be taken to the residence of Andrew Brown to receive his testimony. Brown is confined to his home by illness, but is the first witness wanted for the prosecution in the case. The jurors took the patrol wagon and were driven to his home the court and attorneys following in hacks at their own expense. It is said that no court of record anywhere else can match those of Hawaii in their attention to the expense item, for the bench is constantly heard to express its concern lest jury fees or other expenses get too big. The wave of economy that has struck the courts is far from dignified in its effects, in the opinion of many who observe them.

Richardson is being tried under the first of his five indictments, which alleges the stealing of $100 from the Water Works Department, on February 17, 1904. This is the night of an alleged gambling game in which the defendant is said to have suffered considerable losses, which the prosecution will attempt to prove were made up by a night trip to the Water Works safe. Richardson is being defended by A. G. M. Robertson and Prosser and Fleming are prosecuting. The following

FEARS WAR IN CHINA

PROMINENT OFFICIAL OF THE IMPERIAL CHINESE CUSTOMS, NOW IN HONOLULU, SPEAKS APPREHENSIVELY OVER THE PROSPECT OF MOST SERIOUS TROUBLE IN THE CELESTIAL EMPIRE—CAUSE OF SHANGHAI RIOTS.

There is at present staying in Honolulu an official of thirty years standing in the Imperial Chinese Customs service. He is by no means a stranger here for he has visited the islands several times and as he says, always looks forward to a return to them. A British subject by birth he entered the Chinese customs at the time of the re-organization and has been there, with the exception of furloughs, ever since. In view of the fact that he is a Chinese official he would not consent to having his identity disclosed, but he said to the Star frankly enough this morning, that he was most apprehensive over the turn of affairs in China.

"I have been stationed up the Yang Tse valley for several years past," he said "and the growing distrust of foreigners has been so marked recently that the blindest man could not help seeing it. A point which it seems to me is generally overlooked is that the Chinese regard their Manchu conquerors as foreigners and the revolt if it does occur, will be as much against the Manchus as against the other 'foreigners.' Of course all of us foreigners, German, French, American, British and what not will be included in the row. There will be no earthly way of preventing that. Of course the topic of a possible uprising is one that has cropped up at every meeting I have had with different of my colleagues and I may say that the prevailing impression among men who are closely in touch with native life and who, speaking the language, are able to tell the signs, is that trouble is growing dangerously near.

"I was in Shanghai during the recent riots and the bearing of the coolies was most truculent. There I am told much responsibility must rest on the consuls of the smaller nations in Shanghai, of those nations that are utterly unrepresented by any physical force such as we British, Americans, French and Germans have. In the old days when even the Germans were not represented, the American, French and British representatives might have their differences but they presented a solid front to the Chinese and were respected. Now this is changed. Little cliques representing little nations are putting on all sorts of airs claiming to be on an equality with the great powers there. They forget that if it were not for the warships lying out in the river their lives would not be worth a minute's purchase. Some of them have even backed up the demand of the Chinese living in the foreign settlement for representation in the government of the settlement and this has caused a deal of unrest. A Chinese who comes of his own accord to live in the settlement does so knowing full well that he will have no voice in the government and tacitly agrees to that. He also knows, though, that he will receive foreign protection against the 'squaddies' of the tatal and his underlings. Now they are demanding a voice in affairs but on that the foreign nations must stand firm. It would be simple suicide to permit any such change to be adopted. If the fight comes between the Manchus and the Chinese the Foreigners will be between the upper and nether millstones with a vengeance. I can only hope that trouble may be averted but I am as I said, apprehensive, very apprehensive."

Speaking as to the population of China, the visitor said that when he was in Peking he was one of an international commission to gather data to find as nearly as possible the population of the Empire. This information when collected made the population about 200,000,000 or about 100,000,000 less than is usually stated.

"Still 200,000,000 is quite a few," he added.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Representative Hepburn is seriously ill. Representative William P. Hepburn of the Eighth Iowa District is very well known in Honolulu as is his estimable wife. DEMOCRATS AND THE TREATY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Patterson of Colorado has caused a sensation in the Senate by the introduction of a resolution declaring that it was a violation of their oaths as Senators, and of the Constitution of the United States for the caucus to attempt to coerce Democrats to vote against the ratification of a treaty with San Domingo. Patterson says that he intends to join the Republican party.

CHINESE GETS CONSIDERATION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Mead has approved the report of the commission appointed to revise the regulations for the admission of Chinese into the United States. The Bertillon system for the identification of applicants for admission will be abandoned, and more moderation and consideration will be shown in handling Chinese who arrive in the country. It is believed that this amelioration of the enforcement of the act will check the boycott in China.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB'S MEETING.
Zeno K. Myers presided at a meeting of the Waialea, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club last evening. After a resume of the past work of the club a number of matters were discussed. The most important was that of the street car service and a resolution was passed to the effect that the traffic now warranted a much more frequent service.

NO PARK FOR WAIKIKI ROAD

A CORRESPONDENT GIVES HIS VIEWS IN OPPOSITION TO THE SUPERVISOR'S SUGGESTED PLAN

EDITOR STAR: With great interest I noticed your comments about the parking and restoration of the long neglected Kalakaua Avenue. I fully agree with you the subject should have serious consideration from all interested parties before the plan of the supervisors is adopted and carried out. Myself and others have circulated a petition among the residents in the Waikiki district against any parking or obstruction of the road on that avenue. This petition has been signed with hearty approval by an overwhelming majority of the residents and property owners in that district and will be laid before the supervisors for due consideration. I am sure I voice the most popular idea in saying to the supervisors: "Gentlemen, repair the avenue and give the public a clear and wide open street with ample sidewalks on both sides of the road."

A fine start has been made at the Waikiki bridge: keep on that way and Waikiki will be happy. Tree planting and landscape embellishments should be left to public spirited citizens and improvement clubs. It is maintained by parties that it is too expensive to keep a wide road in order. In answer to that I beg to call attention to that fine stretch of road starting at King street where Kalakaua Avenue begins along the Judd, II, Sunny South and other lands up to the bend where the Rapid Transit emerges from the McCully swamps. This part of the road was built about four years ago and is in splendid shape today. Its a pleasure to drive or walk on. I venture to say that this section has not needed any repairs to speak of since it was constructed. Speaking of sidewalks in Waikiki that is easily done; so little exists only a sort stretch along the Moana Hotel that's all. I know from actual experience and the general public that is not so fortunate to own a vehicle will bear me out, that they don't seem to have any rights on that road. Take a Sunday afternoon or evening concert out at Waikiki a fellow wants to go about and stroll with his best girl or chum, one is compelled to dodge bicycles, buggies and autos continually and flounder around in the dust—because there are no sidewalks. Waikiki needs sidewalks not necessarily of cement or expensive but properly curbed and filled of ample width and official grade. So constructed it would become popular with pedestrians who like to stroll for exercise or pleasure. As regards the improvement and beautifying of Kalakaua Avenue I hear a good deal from people that say we ought to do like in Chicago, Kansas City, Salt Lake City, San Jose, Polonk, or Petaluma where they have trees in the middle of the road. That may be very nice and well adapted for these inland cities on the prairies. But no reason that Honolulu should imitate. The background of Honolulu with its grand mountains and the glorious ocean at the front requires an altogether different scheme. Why not have our improvements different from the east. So that travelers and tourists will have an agreeable surprise when they land here and not find us patterned after the places they just left. Trees in the middle of the road will shut out the beautiful vistas one gets here from the mountains and sea with the graceful palms and foliage all around. I am no expert and will gladly stand corrected. I simply write Mr. Editor because you invited public discussion. I have no ax to grind and bear no ill will against the supervisors; they have made splendid record so far and proven county government a success. Speaking for the residents of Waikiki I hope they will also solve the Kalakaua Avenue problem, so it will prove for the best interest and enjoyment of Honolulu and fittingly honor the name of the last King of Hawaii Nei.

Respectfully,
JAMES STEINER.
Waikiki, February 5, 1906.

The late Col. Allen was not a member of the Chamber of Commerce at the time of his death, having retired several years ago. The Chamber was not represented officially at the funeral but it is probable that a resolution of condolence will be passed at the next meeting in view of his long services with the organization.

The regular meetings for February of the Women's Board of Missions of the Pacific Islands will convene this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It is proposed that the board immediately adjourn for one week as an expression of sympathy with Mrs. William F. Allen, who has long been intimately associated with the work of this organization.

SHOULD BE A LOCAL BOARD

HAWAII'S IMPORTANCE IN THE SHIPPING WORLD CALLS FOR AN INSPECTORATE HERE.

"I am certainly of the opinion that there should be a local board of inspectors of hulls and boilers for the Hawaiian Islands," said Inspector Bulger this morning. "Personally, I'm very glad that there has not been such a board in the past, for if there had been, I would not have had the opportunity of visiting Hawaii, and here I can say that I have met with nothing but courtesy, consideration and kindness. But business is business and there is ample reason for there being an inspectorate here. It is impossible for visiting inspectors to get here just at a time when all of the vessels can be found and the importance of the port of Honolulu as a shipping center would, I believe, justify the departure."

PA-U RIDERS IN BIG NUMBERS

A FEATURE OF WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY PARADE WHICH WILL MAKE A GREAT HIT.

From all appearances everything in the equine line will be busy in Honolulu on Washington's birthday. The idea of the pa-u parade has made a big hit and enquiries at the livery stables show that the demand for mounts has already been very large. Frank Andrade is chairman of the particular section which looks after that portion of the program and this morning he stated that while he had not yet begun to take the names of the ladies who would ride, he knew that the entry list would be large from the number of requests that had been made for information. He will commence the taking of entries at once at his office which is in the Stangenwald Building and not in the McIntyre block as was incorrectly stated by a paper.

"The pa-u parade will be an absolutely unique feature," said Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee. "Other places have had their automobile parades and floral fiestas, but here's Honolulu to the front with something that no other city ever had. It will be one of the big hits. Only today a young Hawaiian lady who wants to be in the parade came in and wanted to know where to get a horse. She said that she was having difficulty in hiring one.

"We have allowed all possible leeway in the matter of decoration of automobiles and other vehicles. People may use real or artificial flowers, ribbons or whatever they choose. The general effect will be judged."

A meeting between the committee and the management of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel was called for this afternoon for the purpose of arranging about the proposed fiesta in the evening, but owing to the funeral of the late Col. Allen the meeting has been postponed until tomorrow.

WANTS HOTEL MEN TO COME

SECRETARY WOOD HAS A SCHEME FOR ENLISTING THE BONIFACES IN HAWAII'S CAUSE.

Secretary Wood is preparing letters to every hotel manager of importance on the Pacific Coast with a view to bringing about a convention of hotel men here in Honolulu this summer. "I am pointing out to them the efforts which are being made by Atlantic lines and by the railroads in the East to retain the business which they have hitherto monopolized, a part of which is surely being diverted westward. The necessity of new attractions is plain and I am showing how a good word for Hawaii means a certain increase in their own business. Many of the hotel men have visited here and have left with good impressions. If we can only get the convention here it will be a big thing for us. There are no better advertisers than hotel men."
